Polysintheton, a figure where as a sentence is aptly knit together with diuers articles, as Ille trahebat, hic vociferabatur, he drewe, and he cried out.

Polyteba, a citee of Mesopotamia.

Polites, one of kynge Priamus soonnes, slayne by Pirrhus, when Troye was taken.

Polytrichon, an herbe called Venus heare.

Polyxena, the daughter of kynge Priamus, whom cruell Pirrus slewe on the tombe of Achilles his father.

Polyxenus, one of the greke capitaines that came to Troye.

Polyxo, polyxus, one of the Amazons and prophetesse of Apollo.

Polyzonos, a precious stone haupng many blacke circles.

Pomárium, ij, n. g. an orchyarde: sometyme a place, wherin fruites be kepte, an hourde hous.

Pomarius, ij, m. g. one that selleth frute, a costardc tarde munger, a keper of an ozchyarde.

Pomeridianus, & poſtmeridianus, a, um, any thynge done at after none.

Pómifer, oz Pomiferus, a, um, bearyng apples, haupng plentie of Ippies.

Pomilius, & pomilio, ônis, m. g. a little perſonage, a dwarfe, and is ſpoken as well of beaſtes as men.

Pomœrium, ij, neu. g. the grounde without the walles of the citee, whiche mighte neither bee plowed noz inhabited, the territorie.

Pomona, næ, f. g. the goddeſſe of fruite.

Pomôſus, a, um, that hath muche fruite oz many apples.

Pompa, æ, fœm. g. a pompe oz ſolemne ſighte, a longe companie of men goyng in ozder, a pzoceſſion, a ſolemne trayne oz companie goynge with a great man, any maner of glozious oz ſolemne oſtentacion & ſhewe, as well in pzoſperitee and triumphe, as in aduerſitee and funeralles.

Pompeius, called Magnus, foz his incomparable victories (whoſe father was called Pompeius Strabo) had ſo good a grace in his viſage, that from his childehode, he meued the people of Rome moſte entirely to fauour hym foz his ſingular benenolence, continencie of lyuynge, marciall experience and knowlage, pleaſauntneſſe of ſpeache, fidelitee of maners, and eaſineſſe in ſpeakynge to. He neuer required any thynge without ſhamefaſtneſſe, noz graunted any thynge but with a glad countenance, in his viſage appeared alway both nobilitee and gentilneſſe, ſo that in his flozyſhynge youth, there ſhined in hym maners bothe pzincely and reuerende. Sylla, the cruell and pzoude tyran had hym in ſuche eſtimation, that where he would not arpſe to any other mã, wer he neuer ſo hygh in dignitee, he met with Pompeius comeynge towarde hym, and puttyng of his bonet, ſaluted hym by the name of great capptayne, called in latine at that tyme Imperator. he triumphed foz his victories in Aſfricke, beynge almoſte a childe, noz yet admitted into the Senate, contrarie to the aunciente ozder of Rome: he vanquiſhed the valiant capitaine Sertozius, a man at that tyme moſte famous in pzoweſſe, beynge an exile in Spaine, and befoze was inuincible. he alſo vanquiſhed Mithzidates, the greatte hynge of Pontus: and where a great numbze of the concubines of Mithzidates, women of excellent beautie, were taken and bzoughte vnto hym, he would not companie with any of them, but ſente them to thepz kynsdes. He ſubdued theſe realmes, Armenia, Cappadocia, Paphlagonia, Media, Cilicia, Meſopotamia, Judea, Arabia, Choladis, Iberia, Albania, Syria, foz the which he triumphed after he had twyſe before triumphed, foz the wynnynge of Spayne & Aſfricke. in this triumphe he bzought into the common treaſure of golde and ſyluer in money and plate. 2000. talentes, whiche if they were common talentes, amounted to. xx. hundzed thouſãde pound, if they were the great talentes. xxvii. hundzed and. xxvi. thouſande. 600. li. li. xiii. s. iiii. d. in our money: beſydes that was giuen to the men of warre, whiche had ſerued hym, and that was to euery one a. 1500. braſon pence, of our money. vi. li. vi. s. which in ſo great an hoſt as pertained to the conqueſt of ſo many countreies, extended to a wonderfull ſumme of money, whereby may appeare the richeſſe of the Romaines. afterwarde by the mediacion of the frendes of bothe parties, Pompeie toke to wyfe Julia, the daughter of Julius Cæſar, whiche lyued not longe, and the amitee betwene Pompeie and Cæſar decreaſed, and at the laſte the vnſatiable ambicion of them bothe bzaſte out, the one not ſuſtaynyng the others honour, wherof came the warre ciuile, wherin Cæſar with a fewer numbze vanquiſched Pompeie, who priuily fled by ſea into Egypt, where vnder the ſaufe conducte of the hyng Ptholomeus, he was ſlaine in a bote, his head beyng ſtriken of, and his bodie caſt on the ſtronde, where it was poorely buried, when he had lyued. lx. yeres and aboue, & from his youth in moſt hyghe honour, welthe, and proſperitie, on whom it did ſeme, that foztune had powzed all hir treaſure moſt prodigally.

Pompeianus, a, um, of Pompeius parte, oz a fauourer of Pompeius.

Pompeiopolis, a citee of Cilicia, called afterwarde Traianopolis.

Pompholix, as Mynardus writeth, is that, whiche the apothecaries doo call Nyll. lyke Mynardus in the epiſtle de ſpodio, and Dioſcorides, li. 5. cap. 76.

Pompelon, the chiefe citee of Nauer called Pampilona.

Pompilius, the ſurname of Numa ſeconde hynge of Romayne.

Pómpilus, li, m. g. a certayne fyſhe.

Pomponia, Scipios mother.

Pomponiana pyra, a kynde of peares.

Pomponius Atticus, an honorable Romayne, of a gentle and aunciente houſe, from his childehode amiable of viſage, with a ſweete voyce and pzonunciacion, and therwith haueyng a ſharpe wyt and apte vnto learnynge: foz the diuiſions and partes taking at Rome, he went and dwelled at Athens, where the people moſte tenderly loued hym, as well foz his honorable vertues, as foz his benefites towardes them, foz beynge lefte ryche by his fathers ſubſtaunce and great reuenues, he often tymes relyued the neceſſitees of the commone people. wherfore he was there had in a ſingular reuerence, and foz his aſhode in Athens and excellencie in them eloquence, he was called Atticus, he dyd not onely with his treaſure kepe the people out of vſurie: but alſo in a tyme of ſcarſitee, he gaue to euerie ritten, vii. measures of wheate, called Medimni, whiche was of due measure. v. bus shelles and halfe, one pecke, one gallon, and one quarte to euerie one: he was loued of euerie man, and he was charitable to all men. when Cicero wente in exile, he gaue hym. 250000. Sestercios, whiche amounteth of our money to M. cli. li. xiii. s. iiii. d. Sylla, notwithstãdyng his greate pryde, had him in reuerence: he moste loued Hortentius and Cicero, princes of eloquence: and though he him selfe were as wel in the latine tonge, as in greke, perfect as any man, yet woulde he neuer practise in matters, nor woulde aske or sue for auctorites. he relieued with his money contrarye partes, as Antonius and Brutus, one to the other moztall enemies. he lent great summes of money with out takyng of vsurie, and holpe ladies, whose housbandes were banished, as well with moneye as with his counsayle and consolation. of Pompeie and Cesar he was equally loued when thei were enemies together. finallie his quiete lyuyng was to no man anoiance, but to euerie man thankefull. his house was pleasant & not magnifike, nete, and not verie sumptuous, all his seruantes were verie well learned, red well, and wzate verie faire, nor there was so symple a boye in the house, but he coulde doe bothe. the residue were artificers, suche as made thynges necessarie and conuenient for his house. whan Augustus Cesar most flourished, he made alliance with him for his excellent temperance and honestie in lyueynge, for the whiche all noble men fauoured hym. also he maried his wines sonne Tiberius (who was afterwarde emperour) to the daughter of Atticus, and no daye escaped that the emperour wzote not vnto him: semblably dyd Antonius the emperours enemie, suche grace had he to be fauoured of all men, to liue out of the danger of enuious authorites, to passe his tyme in the moste delectable paradise of knowlage, and to haue as well therof abundantlye, as also lyueyng sufficient for the maintenãce of his estate beyng a knight, and to aide his friendes and countreymen in theyr necessitee. when he had lyued. 77. yeres, he dyed of a fistula, with a wonderfull patiẽce, and voluntarie abstinence, and was buried at Rome, all good men folowynge the corps, & the people and all other lamentyng. he wzate diuers excellent warkes in greke & latine, whiche are perished, to the inestimable detriment of them that be studiouse.

Pomum, i, n. g. the general name of all fruites, it is moste vsed for an aple. Plinie comprehendeth nuttes with harde shales and beries vnder that name.

Pomus, i, f. g. an apple tree.

Pondero, aui, are, to weight, to ponder, to examine, to consider, to esteme.

Ponderare fidem ex fortuna, To esteeme or iudge a mans faithfulnes and honestie accordyng as he is riche or poore.

Officia alicuius ponderare, to ponder or consider the benefites or frendely pleasures that one hath done.

Consilia euentus ponderare, to esteme or iudge a mans counsayles by that that cometh to passe of them.

Ponderósus, a, um, weighty, ponderouse.

Ponderosa epistola, a long epistle, conteynyng manie weightie matters, or pythye and substantiall in wordes.

Pondo, indeclinabile. n. g. a pounde weyght.

Olei pondo octoginta, foure score pounde weyght of oyle. sometyme for Pondus, weyght or poies.

Corona aurea libræ pondo, a croune of golde of a pounde weyght. sometyme it signifieth a value of monete, whiche lyke as Mina among the grekes conteined an hundred Dragmas: so Pondo amonge the Romaynes conteyned an hundred Denarios of syluer.

Quot pondo te esse censes nudum? how manie pounde weyghest thou beyng naked?

Amomi pondo quadrans, a quarter of a pound of Amomum.

Adde pondo libram, put a pounde weyght more.

Cum dodrante pondo mellis, with. ix. ounces of hunnye.

Bina aut trina pondo non dicimus, sed duo aut tria.

Pondus, pónderis, n. gen. poise or weight, also the thinge that is weighed in a balance. sometyme a bourden or lode, a charge. also grauitee, estimation, authoritee.

Magnum auri pondus, a great weight or summe of golde.

Habere pondus apud aliquem, to haue authoritee about some man, to be in great estimation with one.

Eius filius eodem est apud me pondere, quo fuit ille, his sonne is with me in the same, or as muche estimation, as euer he was.

Gemuit sub pondere cimba, the bote beyng ouerladen cracked.

Cedere ponderi, To be vnable to beare the burthen.

Magnum pondus omnium artificum, id est, numerus. Pondus conscientiæ, the charge or burthen of conscience.

Testimonij pondus, substantialnesse or auctoritee of testimonie or wytnesse.

Verborum ponderibus vtendum, we muste vse weightynesse, auctoritee, and grauitee of wordes.

Pondus habere, to be weightie & substantiall.

Tuæ litteræ maximi sunt apud me ponderis, I doe greatly esteeme your letters.

Ponduículum, li, n. g. a little or small weight.

Pone, after or behynde.

Pono,

Pono, póſui, pónere, to put, to ſet, to place, to edifie, to builde, to laye as one layeth a foundacion, to lepe downe in wager or gage, to leaue or ſeaſe, to laye aſyde, to laye aparte, to put of, as one doeth his clothes, to ſet before one as they do meate at the table, to employ, to beſtowe, to plant, to ſet. alſo for Proponere, to propoſe, or put forthe a queſtion or doubte. ſometyme to pricke or drawe out the fourme of a thyng in a table.

Ponere ſpem, to hope. alſo to hope no longer.

Accuſatorem ponere, to ſuborne or hyre one to accuſe a man.

Ponere ante oculos rem aliquam, to ſet before his eies, to cauſe hym to remẽbre, to make a thyng appeare eudent and playne.

De rebus ante oculos poſitis diſputare, to diſpute of thynges cleare and out of queſtion.

Quod erat ante oculos poſitum, that no man had any doubt in, or that no man doubted of.

Bene ponere beneficium apud aliquem, To doe pleaſure to one that wyll requite it.

Caſtra ponere, to pitche or ſette a campe in warres.

Poſitum conſilium in fortuna, fortune hath therof the diſpoſicion, or it is at the wyll and pleaſure of fortune.

Ponere curam, to ſet aſyde care.

Ponere curam in re aliqua, To take care for a thing, to ſtudie, labour, and take peyne about a thynge.

Cuſtos in frumẽto publico eſt poſitus, he had the charge geuẽ to him of the cõmon graners.

Ponere dies multos in rem aliquam, to employe or ſpende much tyme about a thyng.

Eſt. n. poſitum in re totum, it is in thy handes wholely, whether it ſhall be done or not.

Ponere exemplum, to alledge an exemple.

Ponere ſe extra culpam, to diſcharge hym ſelfe of that whiche is layed vnto him.

Ponere fundamenta, to laie the foundacion.

Ponere in admirandis, to tell it for a meruaile.

Ponere aliquid in admiratione, to meruaile at a thynge.

Ponere aliquem in æquo duobus ſummis, to eſteme one equally, as muche as two of the greateſt, or to be equall with two of the greateſt and moſt excellent.

Ponere in æqualitate, To eſteme the one as muche as the other.

Nec ego hoc in tua laude pono, alia ſunt tua facta atque conſilia ſumma laude digna, and I accoumpte not this amonge thy praiſes, there be other of thyne actes and proceadynges, that do deſerue as muche praiſe as maye be geuen.

Ponere in promptu, to diſcloſe to all men.

Ponere in ſolem, to ſet againſt the ſunne.

In optima ſpe ſibi ponere aliquid, To haue good hope in a thyng.

Ponere in vitio, to cauſe a thynge to be taken in the yll parte, or to enterprete a thynge to the warſte.

Ponere mala initia, to begyn ill, to make an yll begynnyng.

Ponere loco contumeliæ, to reproche one of any thynge, to laye a thynge to one as a reproche or rebuke.

Ponere in beneficij loco, to take it for a frendly tourne or pleaſure.

Tantum in ea arte ponitis, ye ſet ſo muche by that arte.

Munus bene poſitum, a gefte well beſtowed.

Ponere nomina rebus, To geue names to thynges.

Ponere omnia in voluptate, to eſteme nothyng ſo muche as voluptie or carnall pleaſure.

Ponere operam, to beſtowe labour.

Bene opera poſita, peynes well beſtowed.

Ponere operam alicui, to attend about ones buſineſſe.

Ponere ova, to laye egges, as an hen doeth.

Ponere pro certo ſum veritus, I dare not affirme it for trouth, I dare not aſſume you that it is ſo, I dare not write it for a certentie.

Bene ponere officium apud aliquem, not to loſe his labour in doeyng one pleaſure.

Sumptus nuſquam melius poteſt poni, a man could neuer haue better beſtowed his money.

Ponere multum temporis in aliquo loco, to tarie a great whyle in a place.

Vbicunq; poſuit veſtigia, by all the way that he paſſed, where ſo euer he went.

Ponere iubebam, de quo quis audire vellet, I bad them pourpoſe what ſo euer they luſted to heare.

Tum venti poſuere, than the wynde ceaſed.

Ponere conſilium, to leaue his enterpriſe.

Ponere de manibus, to lay out of his handes.

Ponere dolorem, to ceaſe to be ſorowfull.

Ponere feroces animos, to leaue his fierſeneſſe and crueltie, to ware more tractable or gentle.

Ponere arma, To laye aſyde their weapons or harnaiſe.

Ponere metum, to take a good herte.

Ponere pudorem, to be ſhamleſſe.

Ponis mihi porcum, thou ſeruyſte me at the table with porke.

Ponere pallium, to lay his garment in pledge.

Pone eum eſſe victum, put the caſe that he be vanquiſhed.

Ponunt philoſophi, The philoſophers doe write. &c.

Ponere in gratia vel gratiam, to bringe into fauour, to reconcile.

In auribus omnium poſitum, ſpoken through all the worlde, or that euerie man heareth of.

Tantis beneficijs in re publica poſitis, When he had done ſo great pleaſures to the common wealthe.

Caſtella in his locis poſuit, he edified caſtels or towers in theſe partes.

conſpectu ponere, to ſet before one that he ay ſee it.
onere in infamiam, to bring in an infamie, or loquie of the people.
nefario crimine aliquid alicui ponere, to lay thynge to ones charge as an haynouſe or gre-ale offence.
e in ſuſpicione ponatur ſtupri, that he be not ought in ſuſpicion of deteſtable auoutrie. ſtodias portis ponere, To ſet watche men to pe the gates.
iem tecum libentius poſuerim q̄, &c. I had ra-er wake or abyde one daye with you then. &c.
idem pignori ponere pro aliquo, To pledge s fayth and trouth for one, to be ſurette or vnrtake for one.
uiorem fructum ponere in perpetuitate lau-is, to eſteme more worthy that his renoume and aiſe continewe for euer.
Qui ciuitatis incommodum in gloriam ſuam onit, whiche eſteemeth the hurte and incommodi-e of his countrey, to be glorie and prayſe to hym, which turneth the hurte of the citee to his prayſe nd glorie.
Non in gloria poſuerim, I would not compt or eme it a glorie or honour.
Ponere inſidias contra aliquem, to lay waite for ne to deceyue him, or to worke him diſpleaſure.
In pa. laude ponere, To geue euen as muche raiſe, to prayſe or eſteme the one as muche as the ther.
Ita in lege poſuere, they dyd this enacte, ordeine and decree.
Id ego in lucris pono, that I take for aduaunage, or for a good turne more then I loked for.
Rem in medium ponam, I will open the mater manifeſtly to you.
Ponere in media aliquid, to feare.
In minimis ſuas res ponere, to eſteme or reken his owne matters nothyng.
Modum ponere, to keepe a meane.
Mortem in malis ponere, to reken death an yll thynge.
Eſt hoc in more poſitum inſtitutoq; maiorum, this is a thyng that was accuſtomed and ordeyned of our forefathers.
Opus ponere, to make a warke, to builde.
Longam orationē ponere in re aliqua, to make many wordes or a great long tale of any thyng.
Quam in oratione mea ponere, then to ſpeake or write of it my ſelfe.
Pecuniam ponere, to lend out money to vſurie.
Principem ponere aliquem, to eſteme a man noble and excellent aboue other.
Salus noſtra in vno te poſita eſt, our helthe and ſafegarde conſiſteth in you onely.
Poſitus extra omnem ingenij aleam, that hath not his like in all the worlde.
Se totum in re aliqua ponere, to geaue or applye hym ſelfe wholely to a thyng.
Poſita in coniectura, thinges that one maye ſoreſeeture of.
Semina ponere humo, to ſowe ſeedes.
Omnes in fuga ſibi ſubſidium poſuerunt, they all had none other hope to ſaue them ſelfe, but onely by flyght.
Ponere ſummum bonum in virtute, to eſteme the chiefe felicitie, bliſſe or goodneſſe, to bee in vertue.
In culpa ſunt ac ſuſpicione ponendi, they are to be ſuſpected and blamed.
Ponere tempus, ſtudium, ſumptum, operam, diem, curam, diligentiam in re aliqua, to beſ-towe, to employe, to ſpende.
Verbum diuitis in quo homine ponimus? to whom doe we geue the name of a riche man, or what man doe we call riche?
Ponere verba alicuius in re aliqua, to cite or alledge ones owne woordes in a matter.
Vitem ponere, to ſet or plant a vine.
Dum tunicam ponit, whyle he putteth of his cote.
Barbam ponere, to be ſhaven, to leaue of his bearde.
Conſilium ponere, id eſt, deſiſtere a conſilio.
Odium ponere, to lay aſyde grudge or malice.
Onus veteri poſitum eſt, he is deliuered.

Pons, ontis, m. g. a bridge.
Iungere ponte fluuium, to make a bridge ouer a water.
Pons, is ſometyme vſed for the ladder in a ſhyppe.

Pontia, an ile in the ſea called Liguſticum, on the ſouth parte of Italie, wherein Pilatus was borne, and therof was called Pontius Pilatus.

Ponticus, a poetes name.

Pónticus, a, um, of Pontus.
Pontica nux, a kynd of kyberdes, which came from the countreye called Pontus in Aſia.
Pontica radix, that whiche we doe nowe call Rheuponticum.

Ponticulus, li, m. g. a lyttle bridge.

Póntifex, tificis, maſcu. gene. an archebiſhop, a prelate.

Pontificâlis, le, pontificall, belonging to an archbiſhop. alſo lordely, ſumptuous, coſtly.
Pontificâlis cœna, a ſumptuouſe and coſtlye ſupper.

Pontificâtus, âtus, m. gen. the dignitee of a biſ-ſhop, prelateſhip.

Pontificium, ij, neu. ge. the power or office of a byſſhop.

Pontificius, a, um, of a biſſhop.

Pontificia, orum, n. gen the byſſhoppes bokes, wherin thynges of religion were written.

Ponto, ónis, m. g. a whirrie bote, a ferie bote.

Pontus, ti, m. g. the ſonne of Nereus, of whom the ſea Pontus is named.

Pontus, ti, f. g. is the ſea, whiche is betwene the ſen called Mæotis, and the Ile Tenedos. it is alſo a great countrey lyenge to the ſame ſea, which cõteineth theſe royalmes, Colchis, Cappadocia,

padocia, Armenia, and other diuers countreys. it is sometyme put generally for the sea.

Popa, æ, m. g. he that hath beastes or other things for sacrifices to sell, or he that killeth the sacrifices at the aultar. by translation a glutton or foule eater.

Popana, fat ointmetes, after Calepine. but the place in Iuuenal, hath Poppeana.

Popanum, i, n. g. a broade, rounde, and thynne cake, which they vsed in sacrifice. it may be now taken generally for euery cake of bread.

Popellus, li, m. g. the little or poore people.

Popilij, the name of diuers Romaines, one of them slewe Cicero.

Popina, næ, f. ge. a tauerne or victualyng house, wher meate is eate out of due tyme, a cokes shop

Popinâlis, le, pertaynyng to riote or places of riotte.

Popinâtio, ônis, f. g. riote or gluttonie, or much resortinge to tiplyng houses.

Popino, nônis, m. g. a commune haunter of victaplyng houses.

Popinor, aris, ari, to eate out of due tyme, to be riotouse.

Poples, pôplitis, m. gen. the hamme of a mans legge behynde the knee.

Poppea, Neros seconde wyfe.

Poppeânus, a, um, of Poppea, or that Poppea was wont to vse.

Poppisma, pismatis, n. gen. the noise made with the mouth and handes in rydeing, or wanton daliance, a whistlynge with the mouthe, and strokeyng with the hande, as men vse to hansdle horses that be courageouse and fierse.

Poppismus, mi, m. gen. a sowne made with the two handes clapped together, a clappyng of the handes together.

Popizon, ontis, m. ge. one that whistleth to an horse, and stroketh him gentelly.

Populabilis, le, that may be destroyed or wasted.

Populabundus, a, um, wastynge the countrey, or he that goeth in forageyng or robbyng of countreys.

Pópulans, antis, wastyng, destroiyng.

Populâris, re, pertaynyng to the people, accepted or fauoured of the people, that deliteth & pleaseth the people, that fauoureth the part of the people. also it signifieth a familiar friende, a companion of the same towne or citee, a citizin, or as we vse to call countreyman. also one of the meane people, or comminaltie.

Nihil tam populare q̃ bonitas, nothyng more pleaseth the people then goodnesse or vertue.

Præstat diuitem esse ac popularem, quàm nobilem ac mendicum, it were better to be of the comminaltie and riche, then of the nobilitie and a beggar.

Popularia loca, places where the comminaltie doeth assemble, or places where the common people doe sit in a theater.

Populari nomine à nobis appellantur, in the common forme of speakyng they be called. ꝙ

Populare ingenium, holdyng with the libertie of the people.

Aura, and Fama popularis, the praise and commendation of the people.

Lex popularis, a lawe made by the people.

Ad vsum popularem, after the vse and facion of the common people.

Sacra popularia, solemnities kepte of all the comminaltie, and not of certain families only.

Popularis ciuis, a citizin that fauoureth the parte of the people.

Fieri popularem, to become a maintener and fauourer of the liberties of the common people.

Tentare popularium animos, to fele & proue the myndes of his subiectes.

Popularis meus, my companyon, of my estate, hauiour or condition.

Populares coniurationis, the companions or confederates of any conspiracie.

Popularis, id est, Assentator & leuis ciuis.

Popularia, id est, nugatoria, puerilia, boyes playes, childyshe games.

Populâritas, âtis, fœ. g. frendeshyp, by occasion that they be countrey men. also the fauour that one beareth to the common people, and fauour of the people towardes one.

Populâriter, homely, lyke the people, according to the maners of the people, with fauour & loue of the people, after the facion of the people.

Populâtim, of all the people, also euery one altogether.

Populifugia, was a day in the moneth of June, at the whiche daye by reasone of a rumour the people fled.

Populâtio, ônis, f. g. a wastyng of the countrey, a distroiyng, pyllyng, or robbyng of the countrey.

Populâtor, ôris, m. g. a robber, waster, destroyer, or spoyler of the countrey, a forager.

Populatrix, tricis, f. g. the femynine.

Populâtus, us, m. g. idem quod populatio.

Populâtus, a, um, wasted, distroied.

Populêtum, ti, neu. gene. the place where poplars growe.

Populeus, a, um, of a poplare tree.

Populifer, a, um, that beareth poplars.

Populnus, & Populneus, a, um, idem.

Populonia, a citee of Hetruria, called nowe Plumbinum.

Populonium, a promontorie of the Tuscians.

Pópulo, aui, are, to get the fauoure of the people.

Pópulo, aui, are, and Pópulor, aris, ari, to waste or destroy a countrey, to robbe, to spoile.

Populósus, a, um, full of people, populouse.

Pópulus, li, mas. g. people, properly it is all the states of the people, besydes the soueraigne gouernour. all bee it the Romaynes made a distinction betweene the senate and the people, writyng in theyr stãdardes and coyne, Senatus populusq; Romanus, the senate and the people of Rome.

Popu-opulus, i, fœ. g. a tree called a poplar, whereof one is called white poplar, whose stemme is lodge, and playne, and the leaues alwaie shaking, greene within, and white on the backe. the other is called blacke poplar, which hath the backe rough, and fewer leaues then the white.

orca, æ, fœ. g. a sowe, a ridge of land betwene two forowes, a balke after Varro, thei called it also Porca, when it was in breadth .30. foote, in length .125. Porca is also a plot of herbs in a garden.

orcārius, a, um, of a swyne.

orcārius, rij, m. g. a swyne herde.

orcellus, li, m. g. a pigge.

orceo, ere, vsed of olde writers to prohibite.

orcetra, a ponge sowe or pelte.

orcia, a noble woman of Rome.

orcinārius, rij, m. g. he that selleth porcke, bacon, or other swynes flesche.

orcinus, a, um, of an hogge.

orcius, the surname of the elder Cato.

orculīno, ônis, f. g. bringing vp of swyne, fatting of swyne.

orculātor, ôris, m. g. a fatter of swyne.

orculētum, i, n. g. idem quod Porca, a plot in a garden, wherin be diuers beddes.

orculum, li, n. g. a thyng set in the parte of a vine presse called sucula.

orculus, li, m. ge. a pygge, a swyne, a shoote, a pothet.

orcus, i, m. g. an hogge.

Porcus lacteus, a sucking pygge.

Porcus troianus, an hogge rosted, with many other beastes and fowles in his bealy.

orgam, vsed of the auncient writers for Porrigam, I will deliuer or take to one.

ori, pores in the bodie, out of the which issueth sweatte.

orphyra, ræ, f. g. purple.

orphyriacus, a, um, of purple colour.

orphyrio, ônis, f. g. a byrde, which drinketh as though it dyd byte the water, he hath longe red legges and byll, some call it Pellicanus.

orphyrion, a gyantes name.

orphirione, an ile in Propontis.

orphyris, an ile in the goulfe Laconicum, called after Cythera.

orphiris, idis, f. g. a purple garment.

orphyritis, tis, m. g. a red marble.

orphyriticus, a, um, of red marble.

orphirius, a serpent that hath no teeth.

orphyrius, a notable philosopher, and enemie to christian religion.

oraceus, a, um, of leeke blades, like to leeke blades.

oraceus color, the colour of leeke blades.

orrecte, streyght out.

orrectio, ônis, f. g. a stretchyng out.

orrectus, a, um, extended in length or breadth, streytched out.

Porrectiore fronte loqui, to speake more merily and boldely, to speake with a merye cheere and countenaunce.

Porricio, pórricis, ricere, a worde vsed proper ly in sacrifice, for porrigere, to streitch or proffer vp.

Porriginosus, a, um, scurfie.

Pórrigo, porrexi, gere, to spreade out, to streitche out, to offer, to ouerthrow, to lay on long.

Herbā porrigere, to confesse to be vāquished.

Porrigere manum, to geue ayde or succours.

Dextram porrigere alicui, looke Dextra.

Sol porrigit horas .i. Producit.

Porrigere manum ad aliquid faciendum, to put out his hande to do a thyng.

Porrigere in longitudinem, to streitche out in lengthe.

Porrigere poculum, to proffer or reache one the cuppe.

Porrigo, iginis, f. g. scurfe in the heade, beards or browes, scales that fal from the head, beards or browes.

Porrima, the sister of Carmenta Euuanders mother.

Porro, an aduerbe, farely, certeinely, also longe before, far of, after, in time comyng, beyonde, forsothe, moreouer, hereafter, after this, from henceforth, afterwarde, notwithstandyng.

Si ire porro pergas, if ye go further, yf you cōtinue and goe on forwarde.

Vt quiescant porro moneo, finally I aduise theim to leaue or sytte styll, or I aduise theym, from hēceforth or hereafter to rele & be content.

Quid restat, nisi vt iam porro miser? what remaineth, but that in the ende I bee vndone, or become wretched and miserable.

Etiam ne est quid porro? is there any thynge elles? Quid deinde porro? what more followed after?

Porro, is sometyme a cōiunction, & is as much as Sed, sometyme it is a coniunction expletiue, to fyll vp onely the nombre of the sentence.

Porro autem, for Et vero, Et porro, and that more is, and more ouer, and furthermore.

Neq; porro for Neq; etiam.

Porro, for valde, as.

Et porro minima, for valde minima, and that more is, very small or littel.

Se porro pueros a senibus audisse dicebant, that they beyng verye ponge, hearde olde men saye. &c.

Porro hortantis, as Perge porro, nam de isto magna dissentio est, go to, fare on I praie you, for of this matter. &c.

Porro, aduerbium temporis: as, Licurgus non porro ab Homeri temporibus fuit, not longe after, or from the tyme of Homere.

Porro aduerbium ordinis: as, vt quid velim porro intelligas, that you may know what I woulde haue you doo afterwarde.

Eunuchum porrō dixti velle te, than afterwarde, or more ouer thou saidest, thou woulde deſt kynge haue an Eunuche.

Quod ad hanc rem opus eſt porro conſule, id eſt, in futurum, in reliquum, hereafter: or after ſome, afore hande.
Iace pater talos, vt porro nos iaceamus, that we may caſte afterwarde.
Porro for Tandem, as Ceſſatum eſt vſq; adhuc, nunc porro Eſchine expergiſcere, id eſt, tandem vel certe deinceps.
Porrus, i, m. g. & porrum, i, n. g. a leeke.
Porſena, the name of a kynge that beſieged Rome, to haue brought in Tarquinus.
Porta, æ, f. g. a gate.
Porta anguſta, a citee of Spaine called Torquemada.
Portendo, di, dere, to ſignifie before a thynge happeneth.
Portentiferus, a, um, that ſignifieth ſtraunge or monſtruouſe thynges compynge.
Portentificus, a, um, idem.
Portentoſus, a, um, monſtruouſe, ſignifiynge yll luche or aduenture to come.
Portentuoſus, a, um, idem.
Portentum, i, n. ge. a thyng monſtruouſe, or beraie ſeldome ſene, whiche maie ſignifie ſomewhat to come, a ſigne of ſome euyll chance or miſfortune to come, ſometyme a vaine phantaſie or inuention.
Portentum malum, id eſt Præmonſtratum.
Porthmeus, mei, m. g. a ferie man, one that conueigheth ouer in a ſhyp or bote.
Porthmis, midis, f. gene. a ferie bote, a whyrie bote, a littell ſhyp to paſſe ouer in.
Porticula, æ, f. g. a littell porche, or galleric to walke in.
Porticulus, li, m. g. a littell hauen.
Porticus, us, fœ. g. a porche, a walke, a galerie, or large place made to walke in, either for pleſure or for the rayne, philoſophers taught and diſputed in ſuche.
Portio, ônis, f. g. a portion, a parte.
Pro portione rerum, accordyng to the proportion, meaſure or quantitee of thynges.
Pro virili portione, as muche as laie in the.
Vocem habet portione maximam, it hath a verey bygge voice for ſo ſmall a beaſt or flie.
Cerebrum habent omnia animalia, quæ ſanguinem, ſed homo portione maximum, all beaſtes that haue bloude, haue alſo the braine, but man for his quantitee and bygnes, more than any other. Circa quod magna mortalium portio hæret, the moſt parte of men.
Portiſculus, li, m. g. the yplate of a ſhyp, whiche ruleth the mariners.
Portito, aui, are, to beare about with a man.
Portitor, ôris, m. ge. the cuſtomer of an hauen, alſo a porter that dooeth beare thynges that be bought, whither as the byer wyll haue hym, alſo he that beareth men from the hauen to the ſhyp, or from the ſhyp to the ſhore.
Portiúncula, æ, f. g. a littell portion.

Porto, aui, are, to beare, to bryngе, to carie, either on a beaſte, or his owne backe.
Ex toto portare, to beare all together, or quite and cleane fom the grounde.
Collo portare, to beare on his neche.
Pellago portare, to conueygh by water.
Auxilium portare, to ſuccour.
Bonum portare, to bryngе good tidynges.
Boni quid porto? what good tidynges dooe I bryngе?
Porto hoc iurgium ad vxorem, I wyll go chyde with my wyfe for this, or my wyfe ſhall be ſure to here of this.
Hic me credit aliquam ſibi fallaciam portare, this man thinketh that I come now with ſome craſte or wile to deceiue hym.
Omnia mea mecum porto, I beare all that is myne owne about me.
Neſcio quid peccati portat hæc purgatio, this purgation or excuſe makyng imporeth, argueth, ſignifieth or proueth ſome offence or faute to be dooen, what ſo euer it be.
Portórium, ii, n. g. the fraite paied for paſſage or cariage of marchãdiſe, alſo cuſtome or tollage.
Pórtula, æ, f. g. a littell gate.
Portulaca, cæ, f. g. an herbe called purſelane.
Portunus, a god of the ſea, and hath cuſtion of the hauens.
Portuóſus, full of hauens.
Portus, us, m. g. an hauen, and by tranſlacion a place of refuge and ſuccour.
Res eſt in portu, the matter or thyng is ſauffe, the matter is out of daunger.
Ego in portu nauigo, I am out of daunger.
Aditus & os portꝰ, the entrãce into the hauen.
In portu impingere, to offende or dooe amiſſe, to erre at the verey begynnyng.
Portus & perfugium.
Portus fugæ erat in tuis caſtris, thy camp was a refuge or place of ſuccour for all the worlde to flee to.
In otij portum confugere, to geue hym ſelfe to lyue quietely without buſineſſe & trouble of the worlde.
Niſi me in philoſophiæ portum contuliſſem, except I had geuen & bent my ſelfe to the ſtudie of philoſophie, wherin I quiete my mynde.
Porus, a kynge of India, whom Alexander vanquiſhed.
Porus, the paſſage of the feede of man or beaſt: alſo the fundament.
Pos, was vſed either for Pons, or for Potens.
Poſca, æ, fœ. g. a kynde of ſauce or drynke made with vineger and water, or a kynde of wyne, mixed with water in the preſſe, ſmall wyne, houſeholde wyne.
Poſcinumius, a, um, that which requireth money.
Poſco, poposci, ſcere, to aſke, to requyre, to prouoke, to aſſay, alſo to deſpyſe, to claime.
Poſcunt pugnam, they offer to fyght or do battaile, they requyre battayle.

Poſ

Poscere maioribus poculis, To quaffe or drinke deepe one to an other.
Poscere aliquem clamore, to crie after one.
Vbi res poscit, where it is requisite.
Cum vsus poscit, whan neede is, whan it is expedient. Filiam tuam mihi vxorem posco, I require to haue your daughter to my wife.
Poscere ad rauim, to aske, crie or call for a thyng tyll one be hoarse.
Poscere & flagitare. Honorem deûm sibi poscere, to require to be honoured like a god.
Opem poscere, to desyre helpe or ayde.
Quæstionem poscere, to byd men aske what question they wyll of hym.
Poscere reum, to accuse one.
Veniam peccatis poscere, to desyre pardon for his offences.
Puerum aliquid poscere, to aske a thynge of a chylde.
Veniam deos poscere, to desyre pardon of the goddes.
Acrem in prælia poscere Turnum, to prouoke the valiant and fiers Turnus to fyght with him hande to hande.
Posidippus, a comicall poete.
Posidii, a towne of Syrie called cõmonly Pualo.
Posidonius, the name of a philosopher, and certaine other learned men.
Positio, a setting, a placeyng, the situation of a thyng: also an argument or theme to declaime on, a case amonge lawiers.
Positio vrbis, the situation of a citee.
Positiuus, a, um, positiue, that is of it selfe, and not derined of an other.
Positor, ôris, mas. gen. one that putteth or setteth in a place.
Positûra, æ, f. ge. a placeyng or situation, a putting, a pointeyng of sentences.
Syllaba longa est positura, the syllable is long by position.
Positus, a, um, put or set, laide aside, loke Pono.
Positus, us, m. gene. a settyng or puttyng, a placeyng, a situation.
Possessio, ônis, fœ. g. possession, the propertee or rightfull vse of a thyng, sometyme substaunce or goddes immouable possessed.
Possessio fiduciaria, a possession, whiche one graunteth to an other vppon condition, that he shall redeliuer the same possession, vpon certaine thynges perfourmed, or whan he were therto required, of hym which gaue possession, it myght haue bene called a possession in vse, whan feoffementes of trust were vsed in England. Cedere possessione, To leaue the possession of a thyng to an other.
Depellere, deturbare, exturbare, dimouere, deijcere, mouere, pellere aliquem possessione, or de possessione, to put one wrongefully from his lawfull possession.
Possessiuncula, læ, f. g. a small possession.
Possessiuus, a, um, possessiue, that is possessed.
Possessor, ôris, m. g. he that hath the possession, the owner, the possessoure.
Possessus, a, um, possessed.
Possibilis, le, possible, that maie bee brought to passe.
Possideo, pôssides, sêdi, dêre, to possesse, to haue in ones vse or possession.
Bona ex edicto possidere, whan one hath goddes geuen hym by iudgement or decree.
Bona publice possidere, id est, in manum regiam ponere, to confyscate or take goodes forfaited to the kynges vse.
Possidere palmam, to gette the price, to obteine victorie.
Breui tempore totum hominem totamq; eius præturam possederat, in a litell while, he had gotten into his handes, bothe the man and his office wholy, or he had in short space so gotten into the mans fauour, that he might order both hym and his office euen as he lusted.
Regnum possidere, to haue a kyngedome, to be a kynge.
Forum armatis cæteruis possidere, to bee in the common place with great routes or companies of harnesed men.
Possessum publice in bona alicuius mittere, to sende men to take ones goodes into the kynges handes, or to the vse of the people.
Possidere aliquid communiter cum aliquo, to possesse a thynge iopntly with an other.
Possum, tui, posse, to maie or can.
Non potuit, quin suo sermone aliquem familiarium participaueric, he couldc not forbeare, but with his talkynge he woulde nedes make some of his companions priue, or of his counsaile.
Huc fac ad me vt venias, si quid poteris, do what ye can to come hither to me, if it be possible, or if you can bring any thyng to passe, see that you come hither to me.
Potest plurimum apud Cæsarem, he maie do much, or is in good credence with Cesar.
Potin' es vt desinas? canst thou not let alone?
Incende hominem amãbo te quoad potest, on good felowshyp incense or prieke forwarde the man, as muche as is possible.
Assequi nullis litteris possum vt exprimam, I can not expresse in writyng.
Quid ad morsus serpentum possit, what vertue or strength it hath against the bityng or stingyng of serpentes.
Potest per se, he can of hym selfe.
Aliquid ad perniciem innocentis posse, that he can any thynge do or preuaile, to the confusion or vndoyng of an innocent person.
Si poterit fieri, if it maie be, if it be possible.
Fieri potest vt fallar, I maie be deceiued.
Non possum quin exclamem, I can not chose but crie out. Non potest, it is not possible.
Quam possum maxima voce, with as lowde a voyce as I can.

Quam possunt mollissime, as softly as they can possible. Quoad possem, and vt possum, as farre as I can, or as well as I can.

Vt potest in tanta hominum perfidia, as well as it wyll be. &c.

Tantum authoritate potuit, he was of so great auctoritee, or he might doo so muche with his auctoritee.

Poterat vtrunq; præclare, id est, vtrunq; fieri poterat.

Gratia & largitione plurimum potest apud Sequanos, he is in great auctoritee, or he can doe muche with the people Sequani, by meane of his liberalitee and great pleasures, that he hath shewed them.

Ingenio parum possum, my wit or inuention is but small.

Possunt oculi. potest caput, latera, pulmones possunt omnia, id est, Bene valent, they bee not sicke or diseased, they ake not, they be not pepned.

Post, afterwarde, after, after that, behynde.

Post diem quartũ quam ab vrbe discessimus, foure daies after we departed from the citee.

Post id locorum, for Postea. Post iudicia hæc constituta, id est, ex quo constituta sunt.

Post hominum memoriam, sens men were men, sens the worlde beganne, that euer man coulde remembre, that euer man hearde of.

Post homines natos, idem. Optimus longe post homines natos, the beste that euer man coulde remembre sens the worlde beganne.

Vinxerat post terga manus, he had bounde his handes behynde his backe.

Repente post tergum equitatus cernitur, id est, a tergo, at their backes.

Ne nostros post tergum adoriretur, that they might not set vpon our men at their backes.

Post, aduerbialiter, afterwarde.

Venit post insaniens, he came after stamping and staryng, lyke a madde man.

Post aliquanto, a litteli while after.

Post deinde, than afterward whã that is doen.

Póstea, afterwarde.

Quid tum postea, what than, what matter maketh that.

Postea aliquanto, a littell after.

Posteaquam, after that, whan that, as sone as.

Posteaquam mihi renuntiatum est, after that it was tolde me.

Postergátio, ónis, f. ge. a contemning or neglectyng, a castyng behynde.

Postergator, oris, m. ge. he that casteth a thyng behynde his backe, he that regardeth or esteemeth not a thing.

Postergo, aui, are, to leaue behynde, to caste backe, not to regarde, to regarde lesse, to esteeme lesse.

Pósteri, órum, m. g. plura. they that do succede vs in bloude, as soonnes, theyr childzen, and theyr succession.

Posterior, posterius, that cometh after, inferiour, later, slower, vyler.

Non posteriores feram, subauditur partes, I will not be the last, I will not be inferiour to any, I wyll not be the woyste.

Paulo ætate posterior, a littell ponger, not als thyng so ancient, some what after his time.

Omnia libertate posteriora ducere, to regarde nothyng, or passe vpon nothyng but liberte, to esteeme nothynge more than liberte, or so muche as liberte, or to sette more by liberte, than all other thynges.

Salus patriæ posterior illi suis commodis, he setteth lesse by the saufkegarde of his countrey, than his owne aduantage: or he esteemeth more his own profite, than the welth of his countrey.

Posteriorẽ ducere, for Posthabere, to esteme lesse, to set lesse by, not to regard so muche.

Posterius, an aduerbe, afterwarde, hereafter, in tyme to come, an other date.

Ne posterius in me culpam transferas, laie not afterwarde the faulte in me.

Si posterius fuisset, if he had ben in the tyme after. Sentiet posterius, he shall fele it or perceiue it in tyme to come, or an other date.

Posteritas, tátis, f. ge. the worlde to come, posteritee, men that shall come after vs.

Póstero, aui, are, to shewe it selfe inferiour or woyste then an other in any thyng.

Pósterus, a, um, that cometh after, that foloweth after. Postera dies, the nexte daie after.

Posteri pedes, the hynder fete.

Posterum tempus, the tyme to come.

In posterum differre, to defferre or delaie tyll an other time. In posterum prospicere, to prouide for the tyme to come.

Hæc in posterum gratiora erunt, these thynges will be more pleasant hereafter, or in time to come.

Postfero, postuli, postferre, to sette after or behynde, to set lesse by, to esteeme lesse.

Postfuit, it was lesse set by.

Postgeniti, posteritee, men that come after vs.

Posthabeo, pósthabes, habui, habere, to putte backe or set lesse by, to esteeme lesse.

Seria ludo posthabére, to set more by glaie and pastyme, than by serious matters.

Posthac, aduerbium, from hens forth, hereafter, after this.

Posthinc, afterwarde, whan this is doen.

Posthumia, a virgyne vestall.

Posthumus, i, the sonne of Aeneas, by Lauinia, called also Ilulus: also the name of diuers other men.

Pósthumus, mi, m. gen. a childe borne after the father is dead.

Pósthumus, a, um, folowyng, or to come.

Postica, æ, f. g. and Posticum, i, ne. g. a backe doze, a posterne gate.

Postico recedere, to steale awaie priuilie.

Posticulum, li, n. g. a diminutiue of Posticum.

Po-

Postícus, a, um, that dwelleth on the backe syde of ones house. also all that is behynde vs.
Postica linea, a lyne that deuideth the fieldes from the east to the weast, and in diuision of landes, that which is towarde the east is called Antica, that is towarde the weast Postica. Iphewyse that parte of the fyrmamente that is from the son towarde the southe, is called Antica, that is towarde the northe Postica.
Postica fama, a mocke or scorne behynde one.
Dextram Anticam, Sinistram Posticam dicimus.
Postidea, in Plautus, for Post id, or Postea.
Postilena, æ, f. g. a crupper.
Postilla, for Postea, afterwarde.
Postis, tis, m. g. a poste.
Postliminium, ij, n. g. a lawe, by the whiche we receiue againe that which we lost in warres, or was aliened from vs by anye other vnlawfull meanes. Postliminio recipere, to recouer againe the possession of a thyng that was aliened from vs. Postliminio redire, is whan a man hapneth to go frō vs to our enemies, and after returneth againe: or whan anye thynge that we haue lost or ben put from, cometh into our handes agayne.
Postmeridiánus, a, um, that is done in the after noone.
Tempus postmeridianum, the after noone.
Postmitto, si, tere, to leaue behynde, to neglecte, to set littell by, to contemne.
Póstmodum, and Postmodo, afterwarde.
Postoinis, idis, f. g. a snaffle, or rather a barnacle set on the horse nose, to make hym gentyll and stande styll, or a brake, wherewith an horse mouthe is broken, and is made to beare his heade gently.
Postpono, pósui, ponere, to set behynde, to esteeme lesse, to omitte.
Postprincipium, the conclusion or ende of a thing, saied in the beginnyng or proheme.
Postquam, afterwarde, after, after that, whan that, assoone as. also sens that.
Postquam a me abiit, after he departed from me, or sens that he departed from me.
Nunquam postquam sum natus, neuer sens I was borne.
Hic annus sextus est, postquam huic rei operam damus, this is the sixte yere that I haue laboured and studied about this matter. or it is syxe yeres sens. &c.
Anno postquam primum consul fuerat, a yere after he had ben fyrst consull.
Vndecimo die postquam, &c. the. xi. daie after. &c.
Postquam poëta sensit scripturam, &c. for so muche as, or because that, after Donatus.
Postremissimus, olde writers vsed for Postrem⁹
Postremò, finally, last of all, after all this, at the last.
Postremum, superlatiuum aduerbium, the laste tyme, last of all, neuer after.
Si id facis, hodie postremum me vides, if you so door, you shall neuer see me alyue after this daie.
Postrémus, a, um, the last, the vilest, the basest.
Postremi homines, moste vngracious and naughty persons.
Non in postremis esse, not to be one of the worst, or vilest sorte.
Postridianus, non dicitur.
Postridie, the daie folowynge the daie before expressed, the nexte daie after.
Postridie eius diei, the next day after that.
Postridie nundinas, the nexte daie after the fayre or market
Postridie idus, the nexte daie after the ides.
Postridiequam tu es profectus, the nexte daie after ye wente foorthe.
Postriduo, plautus vsed for Postridie.
Postuenio, póstuenis, postuéni, to come after.
Postularia fúlgura, lightnynges that signifie religion of sacrifices and vowes to be neglected.
Postulátio, ônis, fœ. g. a requeste, a demaunde, a complaynte, a supplication made to a prince.
Postulationibus vacare, to dispatche suiters, to here complaintes.
Postulationibus respondere, idem.
Postulationes decretæ Ioui, supplications appoynted to Iupiter.
Postulationes, supplications or billes of complaynte.
Postulâtus, us, m. g. a requeste, a demaunde.
Postulatitius, a, um, that belongeth to requestes or demaundes.
Postulâtor, óris, m. g. he that requireth or demaundeth, a suiter, one that maketh a supplication or complaynte.
Postulâtum, ti, n. g. a request, a demaunde. sometyme an accusation, a complaynte.
Intolerabilia postulata referre, to shewe that one requireth thynges intollerable, or that ought not to be graunted in anye wyse.
Postulâtus, a, um, required, demanded, accused.
Póstulo, aui, are, to require, to demande a thing, whiche is due to the asker. also to accuse or sue one in the lawe, to complayne on one: sometyme to desyre, to wyll, to couet.
Abi intrò & vide quid postulent, go thy waie in, and see what they lacke, what they woulde haue, or what they call or aske for.
Res, locus, persona, tempus, causa, ratio postulat.
Per oppressionē hanc mihi eripere postulet, id est, velit, aut speret, that he shoulde couet or desyre to take hys away from me wrongefully by violence.
Familiariter postulare, to require a thynge of a man familiarly.
Quàm maximè abs te oro atq; postulo, I desyre and praie you with all my herte hertely.
Me præsentem aduocatū postulauerunt, they requi-required me, there beynge present, to bee theyr attourney.

Fidem publicam postulare, to require a sauffe conducte.

Impietatis reum postulat, he accuseth hym of vnnaturalnesse towarde his parentes, or countrey.

Repetundarum postulauit, he accused hym of wrongefull retaynyng of mens goodes, or extorcion.

Qui postulabatur iniuriarum, whiche was accused of trespas.

Papinius de ambitu est postulatus, Papinius was accused of vnlaufull suite to opteine his office.

Postulare quæstionem, to desyre that the parties mought be strictly examined, properly by tortures or tourmentes.

Postulare reum, to accuse one.

Postulare ius, to make a reasonable requeste.

Postulat pro fratre Scipio, Scipio maketh intercession for his brother.

Postulatum est, they required.

Pótamus, a towne of Attica.

Potátio, ônis, f. g. a drinkyng.

Potamentum, ti, n. g idem.

Potâtor, óris, m. g. a great drinker, a drunkerd.

Potâtus, a, um, dronke.

Pote, for Potis.

Qua pote quisque, id est, quantum quisque potest.

Siue id non pote, siue pote, whether that bee possible or not, whether thou canste not doo it, or dooe it.

Potens, entis, adiectiuum, that can dooe muche, that hath great power, myghtie, puissaunte, able.

Potens, entis, partic. of possum, that can or may, that is able.

Potens maris, that is of great power on the sea, that hath dominion of the sea.

Potens corporis, able to rule his body, able to stande vpryght.

Imperij potens, that hath empyre or dominion.

Neq; pugnæ, neq; fugæ satis potentes, they coude neyther well fyght nor yet flee.

Regni potens, id est maturus regno, able or of age to take vpon hym the kyngedome.

Dum mei potens sum, while I am able to rule my selfe, whyle I am myne owne man.

Armis potens, puissaunt in armes.

Potentissimus odor, a very stronge sauour.

Potens, entis, substantiuum, a great man, a man of great power.

Poténtia, æ, f. g. power, puissaunce, habilitee, great rule, force, might, auctoritee, great might, rytheesse.

In magna potentia esse, to be in great auctoritee, to beare great rule.

Potentâtus, us, m. g. idem.

Potenter, myghtyly, puissantly, with great power, substancially.

Potentia, a cuttee in Italie called Sancta Maria de Lorreto.

Potentilla, læ, f. g. wylde tansie.

Poterium, terij, à græcis dicitur, quod nos poculum dicimus, a cuppe: also a certayne herbe full of pyckes, called of Galene Neuras, because it helpeth the sinewes: it is also named Phrynion, because it is of great vertue against todes.

Potessum, for possum.

Potesse, for posse.

Sed nihil potesse, but that they coulde doo nothinge.

Potestas, âtis, f. g. power, auctoritee, office, dominion, rule, also abilitee, faculte, leaue, counsaple and reason.

Potestatem sui facere, to suffer men to come to hym, or to speake with hym.

Potestatem gerere, to exercise an auctoritee or office.

An erit hæc optio & potestas tua, shall it bee at thy choyse. &c.

Præsertim cum tota potestas huius rei tua sit, specially seing all the matter resteth in the, or is in thy power to bryng to passe.

Quæ tum erat potestas, accordyng as it was liefull at that tyme, as it myght haue ben doen than.

Vix adipiscendi potestas modo fuit, vneth or with great peyne I myght come by it.

Potestas mittendi non fuit cius, I coude no sooner sende.

Quoties mihi certorum hominum potestas erit, quibus recte dem, non prætermittam. &c. whan or as often as I may haue sure men, to whom I may delyuer my letters, I wyll not forget to wryte to you.

Cum potestate proficisci in prouinciam, to go into the countrey appoynted hym, hauyng auctoritee to rule there.

Potestatē dare, to lent or suffre, to graut leaue.

Potestatem facere, idem.

In potestate alicuius esse, to be vnder an other mans rule or obedience, or to bee at his commaundement.

Peruenire in potestatē alicuius, to be brought in subiection, to come vnder ones handes or subiection.

Ponere in potestate alicuius, to put hym to his mercy.

Potestates, magistrates, rulers, men in auctoritee, noble men of a realme.

Eligendi potestatem dare, to geue the choise, to geue one leaue to choose.

Exisse de potestate iratos dicimus, id est, de consilio, de mente, de ratione, to bee beside theym selfe, not to bee able to rule theyr affections.

Magna ex parte tua potestas erat, it was chiefly by in your handes, whether it shoulde bee or no.

Habere summam potestatem in aliquo loco, to bee chiefe ruler or gouernour in any place.

Habere potestatem alicuius, to haue one in subiection.

Habere aliquem in sua potestate, idem.

Vitæ necisq; potestatem habere in aliquem, to haue power of lyfe and death ouer one.

Patet late potestas eius, he is of great power, and dominion.

Permittere potestatem, to graunt libertee, to geue auctoritee.

Id oportet totum poni in potestate sapientis, that must be wholy put in the handes and power of a wyse man, or lefte and permitted wholy to his choyse, rule or ordering.

Reddere potestatem, to make that one may doo a thynge againe.

In suam potestatem redigere, to bryng vnder his subiection or obedience.

Cum potestate esse, looke Cum.

Seruandi mei summa potestas tibi datur, it lieth verye muche in your handes to saue my lyfe.

Potestas fuit liberius viuendi, he myghte lyue somewhat more at his libertee.

Priuare aliquem potestate faciendi aliquid, to make that one can not doe a thynge.

Sita est in eorum potestate nostra salus, our lyfe or saulfegarde is in theyr handes.

Potestas tibi fuit, you myght.

Quasi non ea potestas sit tua, id est quasi non possis.

Suscipere in potestatem, and Dimittere ex potestate, contrary.

Tradere potestatem alicui, to geue one auctoritee.

Simul ac potestas data erit, incontinente as soone as I can haue opportunitee and leysure: or as soone as I can conueniently.

Potesta, vsed of Plautus for Potestas.

Potestur, for Potest, he maie.

Potidea, a citee of Macedonie, called before Cassandria.

Poudius, a mans name.

Potina, a citee of Bœotia.

Potio, ônis, f. g. a drynke, a drynkynge, a potion.

Potiono, aui, are, to geue a medecine.

Potiônor, âris, ari, to haue a drynke or potion ministred to him. sometime to bee poysoned.

Potior, póteris, vel potiris, potitus sum, potiri, to haue in possession, to optayne, to wynne, to conquere, to atchieue, often tymes in the presente tense for Fruor, to take pleasure of a thyng. Potior gouerneth euer more the genitiue plurall of this nowne Res, whan it is set alone without an adiectiue, and signifieth to beare a rule, to haue in our subiection to, haue in our dominion, or to gouerne the empyre: as, Augusto rerum potito, when Augustus had ouer ruled the empyre. It is also ioygned with other genitiue cases, besydes Rerum: as, Postq̃ meus rex hostium potitus erat, after the kinge my maister had subdued, conquered or gotten the vpper hande of his ennemies. With other casuall woordes Potior wyll haue an ablatiue case, and signifieth to optayne or get a thynge by labour. Sometyme it hath an accusatiue: as, Fortiter malum qui potitur &c. he that suffreth and manfully endureth the sorow. &c. Hic potitur gaudia, he hath all the ioye and pleasure.

Sine labore patria potitur gaudia, without peyne or labour he hath all pleasures and commodities belongynge to a father, or that a father shulde haue.

Potiri vrbis, or vrbe, to wynne, or conquere the citee, or to be lorde of it.

Potiri voluptatum, to liue in pleasure.

Potiri rerum, to be kynge or maister of all.

Potiri regni, to wynne the countrey, to make hym selfe ruler of any countrey.

Potiri laborem, to endure peyne.

Qui bello potiti sunt, whiche haue wonne it at the swoordes poynete.

Potiri hostium, to conquere his enemies. sometyme to be taken prisoner of his ennemies.

Pitius sum victoria, I had atchieued and wonne the victorye.

Miseriam omnem capio, hic potitur gaudia, I endure all the peyne and trouble, and he hath all the ioye and pleasure.

Voto potiri, to optayne a desyre, to haue atchieued.

Potior, & hoc potius, better.

Potior sit, qui prior ad dandum est, leat hym be in better condition, or haue more aduauntage, that fyrste geueth.

Iudicabit nulla ad legendum his esse potiora, he shall iudge none more woorthy to bee redde, then they.

Nihil mihi potius fuit, q̃ vt Masinissam conuenirem, there was nothynge, that I more longed for, than to meete with Masinissa, the fyrst thynge that I dyd, I went to see Masinissa, I desyred nothynge more than to see Masinissa.

Potissimus, a, um, the best of all other, the chiefe or the principall.

Potissimum opus, id est, præcipuum, the best of all other, the moste singular.

Quod est potissimum, that is the specialt and chiefe thyng of all.

Potis, & hoc pote, able, good.

Si tibi placere potis est, if it may please you.

Potis sum, I maie.

Nec ferri potis est, neyther can any man abyde his vnreasonable facion.

Potissimum, or Potissimè, most specially, chiefely, principally,

Nec-

Nescio quid expediam potissimum, I can not tell what is best to doo fyrst.
Ex consularibus te creauit potissimum, he cre ated you before all other of the senatours, as a person most meete.
Potiua, a citee in Bœotia, not farre from Thebes.
Potius, rather.
Potitij, was an auncient familie or kinrede amõge the olde latines, whom Hercules called to his banket, after he had slaine Cacus: & they were afterwarde constituted the pryestes of Hercules. reade Fenestella.
Potitius, Hercules pryeste.
Pótito, pótitas, aui, are, tovse to dzynke, to dzynke often.
Poto, aui, are, to dzynke: also to geue dzynke to one.
Potare totos dies, to sit all day dzynkynge, to be dzunken.
Potatum dare, to geue dzynke to one.
Potor, ôris, m. g. a dzunken knaue.
Potórius, a, um, that belongeth to dzinkyng.
Ampulla potoria, a dzynkyng glasse.
Potorium, rij, n. g. a cuppe.
Potulentus, a, um, any thing that may be dzunke. also halfe dzunke.
Potus, a, um, that whiche hath dzunke, and that whiche is dzunke.
Potus, us, m. g. dzynke: sometyme dzinkyng.

PRacticus, a, um, actiue, practike, that consisteth in woorkyng or doyng.
Præcius, a citee of Ponte.
Præ, a prepositiõ, seruing to the ablatiue case, signifieth before, in regarde, or in comparison, for: and is verye eloquentlye vsed, importynge a certayne respecte and comparison to an other thynge.
Præ amore, for loue, by reason of loue.
Modestior nunc quidem est de verbis, præ vt dudum fuit, he is more sokte or gentle of woordes, than he was wonte to bee, or than he was late: or he is more sobre in his woordes than he was while ere.
Præ se ferre, to make semblaunt, to shewe by his countenance and visage his affection and phantasie in a thynge. also to confesse and acknowlage.
Sanus si sim, præ te medicum mihi expetam, if I be wel aduised, I wyll looke to haue a better physicion than thou arte.
Nihil hercle hoc quidem præ vt alia dicam, this is nothyng in regarde of that that I wyll tell the.
Præ formidine, for great feare that he had.
Præ gaudio, for ioye.
Præ manu, & præ manibus, before hande.
Præ se armentum agens, dzyuynge the hierde of beastes before hym.
I præ, sequar, go before, I wyll folow.
Sed præ nobis beatus, but in respecte or comparison of vs, euen in heauen, or more happye and fortunate than we.
Ego illum contempsi præ me, I thoughte my selfe muche better, and muche more honest man than he.
Qui omnia sibi post putarit esse præ meo commodo, whiche regarded or set by nothynge so muche, as my commoditee and profite.
Præ tuis facultatibus maxima putrentur, id est, si cum tuis facultatibus conferantur.
Præ his, quæ à te, &c. in comparison of those thynges, whiche. &c.
Non possum præ lachrymis, I can not for weepyng.
Fiduciam præ se ferat orator, leat an oratour shewe in his countenaunce a sure confidence and trust that he hath in his matter.
Res omnes relictas habeo, præ quod tu velis, I late aside all thynges, to do that you wolde haue me doo.
Vide, q̃ iniquus sis præ studio, see how vnreasonable ye are for affection.
Sed hoc etiam pulchrum, præ q̃ vbi sumptus petunt, but euen this is a tolye or goodly thing, in comparisõ of whan they requyre cost, charge, or expence of money.
Parua res est voluptatum in vita, præ quam quod molestum est, there is smalle pleasure in this life, in comparison of trouble and cares that be in the same.
Parum etiam, præ vt futurum est, Prædicas, thou saiest or speakest euen verye litell, or in a maner nothyng, in comparison of that shall be in deede.
Præacûtus, a, um, very sharpe.
Præaltus, a, um, verye deepe, verye hyghe.
Præbeo, bui, bêre, to geue, to shewe.
Præbere aurem, to hearken.
Præbere aures conuitijs, to suffre patiently rebukes.
Seruices præbere, to offer his head to be stryken of.
Præbet errorem, it geueth occasion of errour.
Præbere indignationem, to be cause of indignation.
Iusta præbere, to kepe tache, to geue that is due.
Non possum satis narrare, quos ludos præbueris intus, I can not well tell, howe many mockes thou hast gotten amonge them, or how they laughe at the within in the house: or I can not well expresse, what sporte and laughynge we haue had at the within.
Os præbere, to take blowes, or suffer to bee bobbed.
Os præbêre ad malè audiendum, to suffer one to speake ill to his face, to be in presence when he is yll spoken of, renuum hominem præbuit, He played the man, he shewed hym selfe valiaunt, or dydde vaiauntly.

Sue-

e æquum prebere, to be indifferent, to doe iuice without rigour.

e æquabilem præbere, to be alwaie of one sorte, kepe alwaie one faction.

e attentum auditorem præbere, to be a diligent heerer.

Quoquomodo se in ea quæstione præbebat. &c. howe so euer he behaued hym selfe in that matter. &c.

e credulum præbere, to geue hastie credence, to beleue a thyng quickely.

e docilem præbere, to be easily taught.

e alicui facilem præbere, to graunt gentilly to anes desyre.

e facilem præbere in hominibus audiendis, admittendisque, to bee wilyng and gentyll to heare men, and to be spoken with all.

Gladi speciem præbet, it is lyke in faction to a swoorde.

Erroris speciem præbere, to geue occasion of errour.

Speciem triumpho præbere, to sette foorth the triumphe to the best shewe.

Tyrannum præbere, to behaue hym lyke a tyrranne, to plaie the tyranne.

Vim glutini præbet, it is as good as glewe, or it is of the same sorte that glewe is.

Baculorum visum senectuti præbet, it serueth olde men in the steede of a staffe.

Præbere de manu cibum, to feede, to put meate in anes mouthe with his hande.

Pro pontibus præbere accessum possunt, men maie entre or go in vpon them euen as it were vpon bridges.

Præbere auxilium, to ayde.

Præbere curam, to make solicitous and careful.

Peccandi locum præbet, it geueth occasion to offende or doe amisse.

Iusiurandum præbuit, he swoze to hym.

Metum præbere, to cause to feare.

Lumen præbere dicitur fenestra, to geue light.

Operam præbere reipublicæ, to helpe or serue the common weale.

Miraculum præbere, to make men woonder.

Vt modeste orationem præbuit, howe modestly or temperately he spake.

Duriorem se præbere, to shewe hym selfe rigorous and harde.

Nimium se exorabilem præbere, to bee to soone intreated, to shewe hym selfe to gentill.

Præbere somnum, to make a nopse.

Præbere lætum spectaculum, To set foorth a ioyous and pleasaunt sight.

Sponsalia alicui præbere, to affiance or betrouth, to make a solemne feaste at one s betrouthyng.

Terga præbere, to renne awaye.

Se facilem præbere dicitur res aliqua, To be easy.

Præbenda, ôrum, neu. gen. plur. all thinges necessarie prouided for magistrates, or ambassadours comynge into any countrete: after some it is woodde and satre onely: and they whose office is to make the saied prouision, are called Párochi, or Copiarij.

Præbia, ôrum, n. g. plur. thynges geuen to sicke men, medicines.

Præbitere, to passe by or passe fourthe in iourney. somtyme Petire, to lese, to cast awaye.

Præbitor, ôris, ma. gene. a geuer, an almoner, a purseberer.

Præbitus, a, um, geuen.

Præcaluus, a, um, balde before.

Præcantátio, ônis, fœm. g. a synging before, a charming, an inchauntyng.

Præcantrix, tricis, fœ. ge. an inchantresse, a sorceresse.

Præcânus, a, um, that hath a hore head before he be aged.

Præcârus, a, um, very deere.

Præcaueo, præ'caues, cáui, uêre, to prouide that a thynge happen not, to beware or take hede before hande.

Vt ab insidijs præcaueret, that he shoulde take hede, that he fell not in an ambushement ere he were ware, to take hede of deceites, to beware that no treason be wrought.

Præcáutus, a, um, forseen, well takenhede of.

Sed præcauto opus est, but we muste take good hede.

Præcautor, ôris, m. g. he that taketh good heede, he that prouideth for a thyng aforehande.

Præcédo, cessi, dere, to go before, by translation, to be more excellent, to passe, to excell.

Præcedere autoritate, sapore, suauitate & similibus.

Præ'celer, céleris, re, very swyfte, exceedynge swifte, very sodaine or quicke.

Præcélero, aui, are, to renne before.

Præcello, lui, lere, to excell, to passe.

Præcellere alicui, pro imperare & dominari, to be master or ruler.

Præcellens, entis, om. gen. excellyng, passyng, muche better then other.

Præsélsus, a, um, very hygh.

Præcentio, ônis, f. g. that is songen or plaied at the beginnyng of a song or balade, voluntarie.

Præcentor, tôris, m. ge. he that first syngeth: it may be taken for the chaunter in a quire.

Præceps, cipitis, om. g. headlong, very sodayne, very hasty, exceedyng swyfte, without consideration, on head, very rashe.

Præceps homo, he that is to hasty in his busynesse, and doeth thynges vnaduisedly.

Præceps ingenio in iram, hotte or hasty, greatly inclined to anger.

Præceps in auaritiam & crudelitatem animus, the mynde greatly inclined to couetousnesse and cruelties.

Quoiure, quáque iniuria, præcipitem me in pistri-pistrinum dabit, be it ryght, be it wrong, he wyll thruste me hedlonge into the mill house to grinde.

Præcipitem dare, to thrust one out headlong.

Præcipitem abire, to come to misery, to come to extreme powerte and needynesse.

Agunt eum præcipitem pœnæ ciuium Romanorum, quos securi percussit, the cruell punyshyng of the Romains, whom he hath beheaded, causeth hym to fall so hastely, or bryngeth hym headlong to confusion, ruine, or mischiefe.

Præcipitem ferri, to renne down, or fall down from a high place, to renne headlong or with great violence.

Præceps in occasum sol, the sunne goynge downe.

In præcipiti esse, to be in great danger.

Præcipitem trahere, to pull hym downe from a high place, or astate, to pull downe with it violentiy.

In præceps, for Deorsum, downwarde with a great fall or discent, also sodeinlye, hastily.

Bis pater in præceps tantum, it is twise or two tymes so deepe.

Præceps animi, rashe and hasty in doyng a thyng, he that doeth a thyng without consideration and aduisement.

Præceps senectus, olde age almoste at the pitches dyrnke.

In præcipiti est ægrotus, the sicke man is in great perill and daunger.

Præcipiti iam die, when it was toward night, when the sonne wente downewarde.

Præcipites fossæ, deepe diches.

Præceps periculum est, the danger is very perillous.

Præceps in terram datus, fallyng down headslong to the grounde.

Deiicere præcipitem, to caste downe hedlong.

Fertur præceps in hostem, he renneth against his ennemies with great violence.

Præceps amentia ferebare, thou waste in suche a furie or madnesse, that thou passidst not what thou didst.

In præcipitem locum se committere, to venture hym selfe in a very daungerous place to fall in.

Præceptio, ônis, f. g. idem quod Præceptum.

Præceptor, ôris, m. gen. a maister, a teacher, an instructour.

Præceptrix, the feminine.

Præceptum, ti, n. gen. a precept, a rule geuen, a commandement, an admonition, a good lesson or instruction.

Præcepta virtutis, good lessons of vertue.

Præcepta medicorum, the counsailes of physitions.

Monita & præcepta.

Dare præcepta, to geue instructions.

Facessere alicuius præcepta, for facere.

Præceptus, a, um, taken vp before, taught before.

Præcepto, aui, are, to geue commaundement or charge often.

Præcerpo, cerpsi, cerpere, to take, to gather or pluche before an other.

Non præcerpo fructum officij tui, I doe not preuent you, and take from you the benefite or your duetie and office.

Præcertatio, ônis, f. g. a contendyng before.

Præcidaneus, a, um, that whiche is fyrst kylled, that is cutte before.

Præcidanea porca, a swyne whiche the paynims dyd sacrifice, before they dyd cut downe their corne.

Præcido, cidi, dĕre, to note or marke a thyng, as a carpenter dooeth tymber or bourdes with a strike or chalke line, before he saweth it of, or to cut a lyttell before, as drapers doe in sellyng their clothe, after they haue measured it, to cut out the residue: by translation to tell or shewe precisely, what matter one will speake of or against, to strike, to cut or choppe of, to deale, to denie stiffely, to take awaye cleane.

Plane sine vlla exceptione præcidit, truely he stiffely denyed it without exception.

Præcidere spem, to put out of all hope.

Præcidere causam belli, to preuent and take awaye cleane the occasion of warre.

Dubitationem præcidere, to take awaye all doubte.

Præcinctus, a, um, compassed or gyrded in before.

Præcingo, cinxi, cingere, to gyrde about, to enclose or include in before.

Præcino, cinui, nere, to begynne the songe, to synge before or fyrst, also to tell a thyng before it happeneth.

Præcipio, præcipis, cēpi, cipere, to preuent or take first, to take before an other, to geue commaundement or charge, to instructe, to teache, to geue instruction or counsayle, to shewe how, to aduertise, to commaunde, to forsee, to conceyue in the mynde before.

Præcipere animo, and animis, To conceyue before in the mynde.

Præcipere cogitatione futura, to forsee in his mynde and imagination, what wyll come or chaunce hereafter.

Spe iam præcipit hostem, he imagineth in his mynde all redy, that his enemie is come.

Hic artem nandi præcipit, this man teacheth to swymme, or sheweth the facion howe to swymme.

Si lac præceperit æstus, If the heate of the sonne dooeth dryue vp the milke afore hande.

Præcipiunt medici, the physitions doe counsaile, enioygne, or charge.

Præcipitur, the impersonall.

Præcipitans, antis, tastyng or fallyng downe headlong.

Amnis præcipitans, a riuer that renneth down violently from any high place.

Præcipitamẽ republica, when the common weale decaied or fell in ruine.
Præcipitántia, æ, f. g. tumblynge or fallynge downe from any high place.
Præcipitátio, ónis, fœ. g. a caſtyng downe headlong. alſo ouermuche raſhenelle, and vnaduiſedneſſe in doyng a thyng.
Præcipitátus, a, um, decaied, fallen in ruine, caſt downe from high places.
Præcipitata ætas, olde age, when it draweth nere his ende.
Præcipitanter, headlong, vnaduiſedly, without conſideration, raſhely.
Præcipitium, tij, neu. ge. a downe right place or ſtepe, daungerous to bee gone on, a ſtepe downe pitche or fall.
Præcipito, aui, are, to caſte, hurle, bryngе, or throwe downe headlonge: ſometyme to fall downe headlong, to renne downe violently, to drawe toward the ende, to do vnaduiſedly and raſhely, to dooe to haſtily.
Præcipitare palmitem, flagellum, & huiuſmodi, id eſt, deorſum flectere, to bow downewarde.
Quæ pars palmitis præcipitata eſt, fructu indiuitur, that parte of the vine branche, that hangeth or is bowed downewarde, beareth muche fruite.
Exaltiſsimo dignitatis gradu præcipitati, to be brought or caſt downe, from high auctoritee and dignitee.
Præcipitare ad mortem, id eſt, præcipitem agere, to bryng to death ſodainely.
In inſidias præcipitatus, brought into the handes of his ennemies ere he was ware, or falſyng into the ambuſhement ere he was ware.
Præcipitat hyems, id eſt, vergit ad finem, winter draweth towarde the ende.
Præcipitat Nilus, the ryuer Nilus falleth ſtepe downe with great ſwifteneſſe and violence.
Præcipitare moras, id eſt, feſtinanter abijcere, to caſt away all delate, to make haſt.
Præcipitare ſe in flumen, to leape downe in to the ryuer.
Priſcoſq; referre labores præcipitat, id eſt, feſtinat.
Præcipue, chiefely, ſpecially, principally.
Præcipue ſum ab illo adiutus, I was holpe of hym chiefely, or more than of any other.
Præcipuus, a, um, chiefe, ſpeciall, principall, ſoueraine, ſingular. alſo peculiar, proper, particular, not common to other.
Commune & præcipuum, contrarie, proper or peculiar to one, and common to other.
Negas præcipuum mihi incommodum impendére, you ſaye, that I ſhall haue no peculiar incõmoditee or diſpleaſure: or that I ſhall haue no hurte, but that other ſhall haue it as well as I.
Præcipua remedia, ſoueraine and excellente medecines.
Idem ius cum cæteris, & præcipuũ, contrary.
Contra morſus præcipuũ remedium, a very holſome or ſingular remedy agaynſt byteynges.
Præcíſe, precíſely, determinately, cuttedly, ſhortly, harcely, with to muche breuitee.
Præciſe dicere, to ſpeake a thyng bꝛekely, ſo that ſomewat is to be vnderſtande.
Præciſe negare, to denie ſtiffely.
Præciſum, harde, intractable, cutted, very ſhort.
Qui præciſis concluſionibus obſcuri, Saluſtium atq; Thucididem ſuperant, they whiche be ſo obſcure in theyr ſhort and cutted ſentences, that they paſſe both Saluſt and Thucidides.
Præciſus, a, um, cutte of, cutte ſhorte, taken away cleane.
Præciſa narracio, a briefe narration.
Præciſo omni verborum ornatu, taking away all garniſhyng of wordes cleane.
Præciſum, ſi, a parte of the intraples.
Præciſus, one abuſed contrary to nature.
Præciſio, ónis, fœ. ge. a breuitee in writynge or ſpeakynge, whan ſomewhat is lefte to bee vnderſtande.
Præclamatóres, criers, that wente before Jupiters prieſte, named Flamen Dialis, callyng to men, that they ſhoulde ceaſſe from theyr workes: becauſe it was not lefull for him to ſee any man worke.
Præclâmo, aui, are, to crie before.
Præclarè, very excellently, very nobly, very well.
Præclarè nobiſcum actum erit, it ſhall bee ryght well with vs, or we ſhall bee ryght well delte withall.
Dicitur præclare à ſapientibus, it is wonderfully well ſaied of the wyſe men.
Præclare dantur, they be very good to be geuen in medicine.
Præclarè medetur, it healeth or cureth excellently well: it is very medicinable or holſome.
Præclare facere, to do ryght nobly, to doe very well.
Præclare geſſit ſuum negotium, he atchieued his matter right honourably: or he did right well.
Præclare memini, I remembre as well as can bee: or I remembre ryght well.
Præclare, is oftentymes vſed in approuynge, allowynge or conſentynge, as one ſhulde ſaye, wonderfully well done or ſaied of you. alſo in mockage, ſoplily well ſaied.
Præclârus, a, um, very clere & bryght, alſo very noble: ſometyme very excellent, right good.
Optima & præclara præda, a ryche and wonderful good bootie.
O præclaram defenſionem, o goodly defence or excuſe.
Præclara indole iuuenis, a ponge man of excellent towardeneſſe.
Præclâuum, ui, n. g. a part of a ſenatours garment, called Latus clauus.

Præ-

Præcludo, clusi, cludere, to shutte or stoppe vp, that one can not entre or passe.

Iter præcludere, to stoppe ones iourney, that he can not passe.

Præclusus, a, um, shutte, stopped before, that one can not passe.

Præco, cônis, m. g. a commoner crier, a publisher of thynges, he that in poretsale nombreth the goodes, that are to be solde, and setteth the price on them: it may be vsed for a preacher.

Præco feralis, the bell man, whiche in some town goeth about, declarynge who is late dead.

Sub præcone subijcere, to cõmitte to the crier, to be published and solde.

Per præconem vendere aliquid, to sell a thing by the common crier or officer.

Voci præconis bona ciuium subijcere, To cause the citezins goodes to be solde by the crier or common officer.

Præco virtutum alicuius, he that with all his endeuour publisheth or setteth forth a mans vertue and nobleneſſe.

Præcognitus, a, um, knowen before.

Præcognosco, noui, noscere, to knowe before, seldome vsed.

Præcolo, cólui, cólere, to trymme, to decke before, to prepare.

Præcompósitus, a, um, factioned before, prepared.

Præconceptus, a, um, conceyued or taken in before.

Præcónium, nij, n. ge. a solemne crie, the criers office, publisshynge of a thyng to be solde. sometyme it signifieth prayse, glorie, renowme.

Facere præconium, to be a common crier, to make cries, to publisshe proclamations, or other thynges, to doo the criers office in common sale of thynges.

Tibi præconium deferam, I wyll make you crier or publisher of the mattier, or I wyll geue you the charge to sell it.

Tribuere alicui præconium, To geue one the office to praise or laude.

Præconsúmo, consumpsi, sumere, to consume, waaste, or spende before. sometyme to consume onely.

Præcontrecto, aui, are, to handle before, sometyme to view or consyder before.

Præcoquo, coxi, cóquere, to make rype before. to sethe or boyle.

Præcoquor, queris, qui, to be soone rype.

Præcoquus, a, um, idem quod præcox.

Præcórdia, órum, n. ge. plu. the shynne, whiche diuideth the ouer parte of the body from the nether. it is also taken for the place vnder the ribbes: sometyme all the numbles, as the herte, the splene, the lunges, the liuer, the intrailes.

Aperit præcordia, he telleth the secretes of his herte.

Præcorrumpo, rupi, rumpere, to corrupt before.

Præcox, cócis, or after some, cóquis, om. ge. soone rype, or tymely ripe, ripe before the tyme.

Præcoquem maturitatem contrahere, to waxe ryppe before the tyme.

Odi pueros præcoci sapientia, soone ripe, soone rotten: a prouerbe noting to muche wit in a child for his age.

Præcox ingenium, a wit to wise for his age.

Præcox fuga, a flyeng before one hath needs.

Præcráſſus, a, um, very grosse, very thycke.

Præcurro, curri, currere, to renne before, to ouerrenne, to go before quickely, to go before as a signe or token before any thynge that followeth. also to preuent, to passe, to excell.

Parere vno te præcurri exemplo, suffre one example to be mencioned before you.

Appetitus ne præcurrant rationem, lette not the sensuall appetites renne before reason, or ouerrenne reason.

Quarum maturitas præcurrat hyemem, whiche be rype before wynter.

Horum vtérque Isocratem ætate præcurrit, bothe these were before Isocrates tyme.

Vita præcurrere aliquem, to lyue a better life, to haue a more happy life.

Præcurrere alicui, to ouerrenne, to preuent, to passe.

Qui mihi studio præcurritis, whiche be more ardent and desirous then I.

Præcurrere aduentum alicuius in aliquem locum, to preuent ones comyng to any place, to come thither before hym.

Vobis illum tanto minorem præcurrere, vix honestum est, it is scant for your honestie, that he beyng so muche yonger, shoulde passe or excell you.

Præcurſio, ônis, f. g. and Præcursus, us, m. ge. a rennyng before. sometyme a cause or matter that goeth before.

Præcursor, ôris, m. g. one that renneth or goeth before, afore messanger, a fore rider or goer.

Præda, æ, f. g. a praie, a thyng gotten or taken in the warres, a bootie.

Accingere se Prædæ, to prepare them selues diligently to take their praie or bootie.

Prædæ esse, to be a praie or bootie.

Prædabundus, a, um, goyng on forragyng in the tyme of warre, that robbeth or spoyleth.

Prædaceus, a, um, of or belongyng to a praie or bootie.

Prædamno, aui, are, to condemne or geue iudgement on one before.

Prædamnata spe dimicandi, id est, præscisa.

Prædátio, ônis, f. g. a robbyng, a forragyng, a stealyng awaie of meate.

Prædatitius, a, um, of a praie or bootie.

Pecunia prædatitia, or Prædacea, money that the booty is solde for.

Prædátor, ôris, masc gene. a seker for a praie, a robber, one that goeth about to gette a bootie or praie,

Præ-

Prædatrix, tricis, f. g. the feminine.
Prædatórius, a, um, that belongeth to robbyng or ſpoylyng.
Naues prædatoriæ, pirates ſhippes, that robbe and roue on the ſea.
Prædelaſſo, aui, are, to make wery or feynt before, to breake, to weaken afore.
Incurſus prædelaſſat aquarum, it breaketh the courſe or violence of the water.
Prædenſatus, a, um, made very thycke.
Prædenſus, a, um, very thycke.
Prædes, vide Præs.
Prædeſtinatio, ônis, f. g. predeſtination.
Prædeſtino, aui, are, to purpoſe before, to predeſtinate, to ordeyne or appointe before what ſhall come of one.
Prædiator, ôris, m ge a man of lawe expert in cauſes reall, or matters concernyng landes.
Prædiatórius, a, um, pertenyng to landes.
Prædiatus, a, um, that hath good landes or manours.
Prædicabilis, le, to be tolde or ſpoken of afore.
Prædicatio, ônis, f. g. a publyſhyng or open declaration, a common talke, or an open talke.
Prædicator, ôris, maſ. gen. a teller or publiſher afore.
Prædicatus, a, um, publiſhed or tolde afore.
Prædico, aui, are, to publiſhe, to tell a thynge openly, to tell afore, to make good report, to talke, to tell out, to praiſe.
Prædicas nouis, thou telleſte to them that knowe it alredy.
Siquidem hæc vera prædicat, if it be true that this woman ſaieth.
Prædicat præco, dum aliquid promulgat.
Taceam, an prædicem? ſhuld I tell it, or hold my peace and ſaie nothyng?
Prædico, dixi, dicere, to tell before.
Hoc primum tibi prædico, I tell the this firſt and formoſte.
Prædictio, ônis, f. gen. a prophecie in tellyng of thinges to come.
Prædictum, ti, neu. gene. a prophecie, a thynge tolde before.
Prædicta cœnæ hora, an houre appoynted to go to ſupper.
Prædicto, abſolutly for Cum prædictum eſſet.
Prædiolum, li, n. g. a lyttell manour.
Prædiſco, didici, diſcere, to vnderſtand before, to lerne or cunne before.
Prædítus, a, um, that hath adourned.
Prædítus mœrore, repleniſhed with heauineſſe, heaup or ſadde.
Prædítus lachrymis, waſhed with teares, or full of teares, wepyng, or that weepeth.
Prædítus authoritate, in authoritee.
Prædítus ſpe optima, that hath a very good hope.
Prædítus ſum humanitate, virtute, diuitiis, dignitate, viribus, id eſt, habeo.
Quid faceret illa ætate prædítus? What ſhulde he dwe beyng of that age?
Amentia prædítus, madde, beſyde hym ſelfe, in a furie, out of his wyttes.
Senſibus prædítus, that hath ſenſe or feelyng.
Audacia prædítus, preſumptuous, wild, hardy.
Summo ingenio prædítus, that hath an excellent good witte.
Paruis opibus ac facultatibus prædítus, poore and of ſmall ſubſtance.
Prædítus crudelitate, cruell.
Prædítus leuitate, lyght, vnconſtant.
Prædiues, diuitis, om. gene. very ryche, very abundant.
Prædiuinatio, ônis, f. g. a diuination or geſſyng of thynges to come.
Prædiuino, aui, are, to diuine a thyng before it chaunce.
Prædiuinus, a, um, very diuine and godly.
Prædium, dij, n. gene. a manoure, a place in the countrey haupng ground about it, a ferme.
Optimo iure prædia, fermes or manours, which be clearely diſcharged from all taſkes, cuſtomes, quitrentes, and other paymentes.
Prædia bona, ſame Præs.
Prædomo, domui, are, to tame or quiete before, to mitigate or aſſwage before.
Prædonulus, li, m. g. a lyttell robber.
Prædo, ônis, m. g. a robber, a ſpoyler, a pillar, a theefe, he that entreth on a mannes goodes or heritage, haupng no laufull clayme or title to it.
Prædor, âris, ari, to robbe a countrey, or to take praies.
Prædûco, duxi, ducere, to leade before.
Præducere foſſam homini obſeſſo, to caſte a ditche about one that is beſieged.
Vallum præducere, to make a trenche.
Prædulcis, ce, very ſweete, very pleaſant.
Prædûro, aui, are, to make very harde.
Prædûrus, a, um, very harde.
Prædura ætas, and tenera, contrarie.
Præeo, iui, ire, to go before. ſometyme to reade, ſpeake, or ſaye before.
Præi verbis quod vis, tell me before what you wolde haue me ſaye or doo.
Præire verba, to ſpeake or pronounce certain wordes, that an other muſte ſaye after.
Præire obſecrationem, to pronounce or ſaye before, a prayer, or petition, that an other muſt ſaye after.
Præire voce, to ſpeake before, to tell what one ſhulde ſaye.
Præire de ſcripto, to reade vpon a paper, that one muſt ſaye and pronounce after hym.
Præire iuramentũ, to miniſtre or geue an oth.
Præire alicui de re aliqua, to tell before what one ſhulde doe in any thyng.
Præeunt diſcipulis præceptores, they rede before or tell them before, what they ſhould doe in euery thyng.
Præiens, præeuntis, goyng before.
Præeunte natura, nature hir ſelfe leadyng or goyng goynge bekoze vs.

Præfácilis, le, very easy.

Præfacio, præfacis, fēci, facere, to set moze by, after Calepine: the place of Quintilian hath nowe Præstare.

Præfāris, vel re, fatus sum, fari, to speake oz saye bekoze.

Præfari honorem, to speake woozdes of reuerence bekoze.

Præfari honorem auribus, to saie, saynge your reuerence.

Præfari diuos, to praie to god bekoze one enterprise any thyng.

Præfari veniam, to aske licence afoze.

Præfari pacem, to shew that he cometh in pensible wise.

Præfari carmen, to speake oz pronounce woꝛdes bekoze, that other muste saie after.

Præfari aliquem in scribendo opere, to speake reuerendely of a man in the begynnyng of his boke oz woꝛke that he maketh.

Præfatio, ónis, f. g. a preface, a thyng spoken oz writen bekoze.

Præfectúra, ræ, f. ge. a capitayne shyp, a lieutenantshyp, an auctozitee oz rule.

Præfecturæ, maie be called shireffwykes: among the Romaines it signified the prouinces, where the saied officers had iurisdiction.

Præfectórius, a, um, that belongeth to a capitain oz lieutenant.

Præfectorius vir, he that hath bene great maister of the emperours palaice.

Præfectus, ti, m. g a ruler, a capitayne, a lieutenant, an officer appointed to doe a thyng, oz that hath the ouerspght and charge of a thyng.

Præfectus moribus, he that hath the charge to see ill maners reformed and amended.

Præfectus annonæ, he that hath the charge to prouide corne and vitaple.

Præfectus prætorio, was with the emperour the principall officer in his courte: as nowe in Fraunce the great maister, and was capitayne of the souldiours called Prætoriani, whiche were as a garde about the emperours palaice and person.

Præfectus vrbis, was a great officer in Rome, to whom it belonged, to see that the high waies to the cities were well mainteined, that the waters were kepte cleane, that the chanell of the riuer of Tiberis were scoured and kepte from shelues, also to deliuer grain out of the common grainers, and diuide it among the people. he was also called Præfectus latinarum, as Gellius writeth.

Præfecti prouinciarum, lieutenantes and deputies of prouinces: it may be taken among vs foꝛ suche as haue lyke iurisdiction, as the chamberlayn of Northwales, and the high stewarde of Southwales were wont to haue, that is to saye, peculiar authoꝛitee to determine matters within the compasse of their office.

Præfecti ærarii, were they, which had the charge of kepyng the common treasure.

Præfectus fíci, was he, whiche kepte the emperours treasure.

Præfectus scriniorum, was a lyke officer, as the maister of the rolles is now, and was also called Præfectus libellorum, in the which office was Papinianus the great lawier, in the tyme of Seuerus the emperour.

Præfero, prætuli, ferre, to beare bekoze, to esteeme moze, to pzeferre. sometyme foꝛ Præ se ferre.

Præfert cautas manus, he gropeth with his hãdes bekoze hym, as men doe in the darke.

Præferre facem alicui, to carie a toꝛche before one.

Præferre alicui facem ad libidinem, to aide oz conducte.

Præfertur opinio, id est, iactatur.

Qui meæ menti lumina prætulistis, whiche haue inspired me.

Salutem reipublicæ suis cõmodis præferre, to esteme the saferede of the common wealthe moze then their owne pzofites.

Glans Syriaca præfertur bonitate olei, it is more esteemed foꝛ the good oyle that cometh of it.

Multi prætulerunt carere pœmatibus, many haue thought it better to lacke the woozdes of pokes.

Qui saplentiæ studium habitu corporis præferunt, id est, præ se ferunt, which shewe themselues to be philosophiers by their apparaile oz facion and state of their body and countinance.

Vultus tuus nescio quod ingens malum præfert, thy vysage oz countinance sheweth some great euell what so euer it be.

Præfericulum, li, n. g. a great bason, which was caried bekoze hym that did sacrifice.

Præférox, rõcis, om. g. very fierce oz hasty.

Præferrãtus, a, um, that is pointed oz shodde with iron, as a speare oz other like.

Pilum præferratum, a pestill, that hath iron at the one ende.

Præferratus, is sometyme vsed foꝛ bounde in chaynes.

Præféruidus, a, um, very hotte.

Præfestinãtim, and Præfestinẽ, to hastily, with to muche haaste.

Præfestinãtus, a, um, done to hastily, oz to soone.

Præfestino, aui, are, to make to muche haaste, to make haaste bekoze the tyme.

Præfica, cæ, f. gen. a woman, whiche is hyred to lament at the buryng of men oz women, and to praise their actes.

Præficio, præficis, fēci, ficere, to put in auctoꝛitee, oz to geue rule, to ordeyne one a capitayne, rular, lieutenant, oz deputie, to make ouerseer oz chiefe doꝛer.

Cheriam ei rei præfecimus, we made Cheria capitayne, ouerseer, oz doer of the matter: and haugng

hauyng respect to that place of Terence, we made Cheria our stewarde and maister or prou-uider of the feaste.
Imperatorem alicui bello præficere, To appoint one to be chiefe capitaine in any warre.
præfido, fidi, fidere, to truste very muche, to haue a great confidence, to put to muche trust in a thynge.
præfigo, fixi, figere, to fasten or stycke before,
to shut vp.
Capistris ora præfigere, to mouslll, to tie vp the mouthes.
præfixus, a, um, fastened or set on the fore parte of a thynge.
Præfixa ferra iaculo, dartes that be headed.
Præfixa ferra cornua, hornes typped with iron.
præfinio, præfinis, niui, nire, to determine before, to assigne or appoint what and how muche shall be done.
Præfinire diem, to appointe a date.
præfinito, the aduerbe, accordyng as it was appointed.
Præfinito loqui, to speake at the tyme appointed: or to speake no more then an other dooeth bydde hym.
præfinitus, a, um, appointed afore, determined.
præflóreo, flóres, florui, florére, to blossome before the tyme.
præflóro, aui, are, to take the firste floure, also to take summe parte of the profite or fruite before an other.
præfluo, fluxi, ere, to flowe or renne before a place.
præfóco, aui, are, to strangle or choke.
præfódio, præfodis, fódi, fódere, to digge, to digge depe, to digge before.
Præfodere portas, to digge before the gates.
præfœcundus, a, um, verie fruitefull or plentifull, ranche.
Præfor, non dicimus, lohe Præfari. præformido, aui, are, to be aferde ere the stroke come.
præformo, aui, are, to make, facion, or fourme
a thyng before, to shewe the facion of a thynge to one before.
præfracte, obstinately, stubburnely.
præfractus, a, um, harde or vnflexible, that wyll rather breake then bowe, stubburne, obstinate.
also that whiche was before broken.
præfrigidus, a, um, verie colde.
præfringo, fregi, gere, to breake, to breake ope,
to breake in pieces, to breake before.
præfúlcio, fulsi, cire, to forteffie, to make strong,
to fence, to stay or vnderset.
præfulgeo, fulsi, gére, to shine much, to shine to muche, to be to bright.
præfulguro, aui, are, to lighten before, to make a glisteryng before.
præfurnium, nij, neu. ge. the mouth of an ouen or fornaise.

prægélidus, a, um, exceedyng colde.
prægérmino, aui, are, to bud before the tyme.
prægestio, stire, to reioyce, to leape for ioye, to haue a very great desire or appetite.
prægigno, nui, gignere, to begyn, to bryng in firste, to beget before.
Nolebam ex me morem prægigni malum, I wold not that an yll custome should be brought vp by me, or I woulde not be the first authour of an yll custome.
Prægnans, antis, om. g. a woman with childe, it is the same of any beast, great with childe, or with ponge.
Prægnans sus, a sowe with farrowe.
Canis prægnans, a bitche with whelpe.
Prægnans arbor, a tree haupng good sap or iuice, before it bud or blossome.
Prægnátio, ónis, f. g. a beyng great with childe or with ponge.
Prægrandis, de, very great, exceedyng great.
Prægrauátio, onis, f. g. a great grieke.
Prægrauis, ue, very grenouse or heaup.
Prægrauo, aui, are, to make verie heaup, to make more heaup, or to poise downe one syde more then an other.
Corpus prægrauat animum vitiis, the bodie burtheneth or lodeth the mynde with vices.
Quum prægrauaret multitudo, seeyng that the multitude of his ennemies was greatter then his.
Prægrédior, gressus, gredi, to go or come before. sometyme for Prætergredi, to passe by,
also to preuent, to passe, to excell.
Non solum nuntios sed etiam famam aduen-tus sui prægressus, not onely preuentyng and comyng before the messengers, but. &c.
Vt grægressi hominis vestigia occupent, for Prætergressi.
Qui tantum alios prægressus est, whiche so farre passed and excelled other.
Prægredi gregi, to go before the flocke.
Prægressio, onis, f g. a goyng before.
Prægressus, a, um, that preuented or wente before.
Prægustátor, óris, m. ge. that taketh the sape or taste before, a taster.
Prægusto, aui, are, to take a taste, to assaye before.
Prægutij, people of Italie, called commonly Abruzi.
Præiaceo, præiaces, iacui, ére, to lye before.
Præiácio, cui, ere, to caste before.
Præiudicátio, ónis, f. g. a geuyng of a iudgemẽt or sentence before, the conceyuyng of a iudge-ment before the tyme, afore iudgement.
Præiudicátus, a, um, iudged or condemned by a former iudgement.
Præiudicium, ij, n. ge. a thynge, whiche beynge ones decided and determined, maketh a rule or example to men that do folowe, to discusse sem-blably in a lyke matter, as those whiche we do call ruled mattiers or cases in the law, whi the be as examples to iudges. also a sentence geue before the iudg met either with or against one, as if two did contende for anie office, and the magistrate (because the controuersie wyl cõtinew longe) doeth appoint the one to ministre the office in the meane tyme, wherby he semeth to geue a iudgement before, for hym whom he fauoureth it is also taken for hurte or losse.

Præiúdico, aui, are, to iudge before the tyme, sometyme to iu. ge by example of an other like mattier before iudged or decided, to conceiue an ill opinion or iudgement of a thyng or person, before he knoweth the cause.

Præiudicare alicui, To hurte or hynder ones cause.

Præiurátio, ônis, f. ge. the othe that is taken by hym that first sweareth.

Præiurátor, óris, m. gene. he that first taketh an othe, as the foreman of a iurie, or the first witnesse, or any other, after whom other men doe sweare, accordyng to the othe geuen vnto hym.

Præiuro, aui, are, to sweare before other.

Præiuuo, iuui, are, to helpe before.

Prælábor, beris, bi, to fall first, to slide before.

Prælambo, lambi, lambere, to liche or lap before, to taste before.

Prælego, legi, gere, to rede to, as a maister doeth in expownynge to the childzene. also sometyme to gather before the tyme, sometyme to passe by.

Prælectio, ônis, f. g. a lecture, a redyng to other.

Prælector, óris, m. g. a reader to other.

Campaniam prælegebat, he passed by Campania.

Prælián̄ris, re, pertaynyng to battaile.

Prælián̄tor, ôris, m. g. a warriour.

Prælibo, aui, are, to taste or sape before.

Prælicenter, verp wantonly, verp licentiously, with to muche liberte.

Prælíganeum vinum, a prælígando, whiche I suppose to be so called, either because it is first tunned or put into vesselles, or else because it is put into a sache, whiche is faste knit afore. but it is so named rather of Prælegendo, because it is made of grapes either rype before theyr tyme, or else gathered before other.

Prælígo, aui, are, to binde afore or in the inside.

Prælior, aris, ari, to fight in battaile, by translation to contende or striue in wordes.

Prælium, li, n. gene. a battaile, also the fight in battaile, sometyme (by translation) the acte of generation.

Aduersum prælium, an ouerthrowe or discomfiture.

Dubium prælium, an vncertaine battaile, wherin one can not tel whiche hath the better.

Conserere prælia, to ioigne battaile, to fight.

Secundum prælium facere, to fyght prosperously, to put his ennemies to the worse.

Dirimere prælium, to ende the fight or battaile.

Detrectare prælium, to refuse to fight.

Prælongo, aui, are, to make verie longe.

Prælongus, a, um, verp longe.

Præloquor, eris, præloqui, to speake or tell before.

Præluceo, prælúces, luxi, cêre, to beare light before one, as a torche or candle, also to geue more light then an other, to geue a great light before.

Prælucere aliis virtute, to shine in vertue before other.

Prælucere maioribus suis virtute, To make his auncetours renowmed and famouse by vertue.

Prælúcidus, a, um, verp bright, that geueth a great light.

Prælúdium, ij, neu. g. a proheme, or that which musitians and minstrelles plaie at the beginnyng er they come to the longe, which they purpose to plaie, a voluntarie, the men of Kente call it a floryshe. sometyme it is taken for a preamble, or entraunce to a mattier, and as we would saye, signes and prefores: it maie also be called a preparatiue.

Prælúdo, si, dere, to plaie before, in musicall instrumentes to plaie a voluntarie, as the weapons, to florysshe.

Prælúsio, ônis, idem quod Præludium.

Prælum, li, n. g. a presse.

Prælumbo, aui, are, to breake ones loynes.

Præluo, lui, ere, to purge or washe cleane afore, to flowe or renne before.

Præclustris, stre, verp famouse and notable, verie high, in the sight of all men.

Præmando, aui, are, to sende before, to geue charge before.

Præmature, to sone, or before the iuste tyme.

Præmature vita careo, I die afore my tyme.

Præmatûrus, a, um, not yet rype, also rype before the tyme, also out of season, that cometh to sone.

Præmaturus fructus, fruite that is ripe before the tyme or before other.

Præmatura mors, vntymely death, death before naturall tyme.

Præmatura hyems, a parly wynter.

Præmaturum & serum, contrary.

Præmatura denuntiatio, a denownсyng before the tyme or season.

Præmedicâtus, a, um, that hath medicines preseruatiue before hande.

Præmeditátio, ônis, f. g. a meditation, musyng or thynkyng on thynges before they come or chaunce.

Præméditor, âris, ari, to aduise before a man do the thynge, to muse and thinke on a thinge before hande.

Præmercor, âris, ari, to bye afore hand, to forestall markettes, or to bye a thynge out of ones hande that chepeneth it.

Præmensus, a, um, measured before, or passed ouer before.

Lucis præmensæ tempora, the parte or tyme of ones lyfe that he hath passed or lyued.

Præmessum, si, neu. g. a sacrifice or offeryng to Ceres, of the eares of corne that were first reaped.

Præmeto, messui, métere, to reape fyrste or before.

Præmiator, ôris, mas. g. a theefe that stealeth by nyght, as we mought saye, whiche committeth burglarie. also a rewarder.

Præmigro, aui, are, to go before.

Præmior, aris, ari, to geue rewardes. sometyme for Lucrari.

Præmiosus, a, um, riche of money.

Præmissio, ônis, f. g. a sendyng afore.

Præmissus, a, um, sent before.

Præmitto, misi, tere, to sende afore.

Præmium, ij, n. g. a rewarde gyuen to hym that hath done any notable and laudable thyng, a recompence. sometyme it is taken for money, also wages that one hath for goyng a iourney.

Digna præmia ferre, to be worthyly rewarded.

Legis præmio licet, id est, legis beneficio.

Sine præmio sum, I am without money.

Præmóderor, aris, ari, to plate before on an instrumente.

Præmodum, an aduerbe, aboue measure, beyonde all measure. sometyme for Admodum, verie muche.

Præmolestia, æ, fœm. gene. feare of a thynge to come.

Præmollio, liui, lire, to make soft or tender before.

Præmólior, liris, ri, to make all prouision afore hande for a thynge that can be, to prepare, to goe aboute to make a thyng redie before.

Præmollis, le, verie tender or delycate.

Præmollitus, a, um, made verie soft or tender, made verie fauourable or gentyll.

Præmóneo, præmónes, ui, ere, to forewarne, to gene one warnyng before the thyng come, to tell or aduise one beforehande.

Præmonitio, ônis, f. g. a warning or aduertisement before hande.

Præmonitus, a, um, warned or tolde before the thyng came or chaunced.

Præmónitus, us, mas. g. a warnynge or aduisement geuen before hande.

Præmonstrâtor, ôris, m. g. he that telleth a thing before that it happeneth, he that goeth before a man to guide hym and shew hym the waie, and as who shoulde saie, to leade him by the hande, a leader or pointer of the way. Hic adiutor meus, & monitor, & præmonstrator, this myne helper and counsailour, and leader or pointer of the waie.

Præmonstro, aui, are, to shewe or tell before, to teache, to go before one and shew him the way.

Præmordeo, præmordes, di, or morsi, dêre, to byte or rebuke before.

Præmórior, riris, or móreris, ri, to die ere the tyme come.

Premóritur visus, auditus, incessus, whan the sight, hearyng, or goynge fayle before the time.

Præmunio, præmûnis, iui, ire, to prepare to fortifie a place, before that the ennemies come.

Prænarro, aui, are, to tell before.

Præ'nato, aui, are, to swimme afore, sometyme for Præterfluere, to passe or flowe by.

Prænáuigo, aui, are, to saile or rowe by, to passe by in a shyppe.

Prænauigatio, ônis, f. g. a sailyng before or by a place.

Præneste, a citee in Italie.

Prænestini, people of Preneste.

Prænestinus, a, um, of Preneste.

Præ'nimis, to farre, to muche.

Præniteo, præ'nites, nitui, têre, to bee verie bryght and clere, to shyne bright.

Prænómen, inis, n. g. the first name, as Marcus, Quintus, Lucius, & as we haue now the name of baptisme.

Prænosco, nôui, noscere, to knowe afore.

Prænotio, ônis, f. g. the knowyng of a thynge before.

Prænoto, aui, are, to make annotacions or inscriptions.

Prænubilis, le, verye cloudie and darke.

Prænuntio, aui, are, to shewe afore.

Prænuntius, a, um, that fyrste bringeth tidinges, that goeth before and bringeth tidynges, that sheweth a thyng to come.

Præoccido, occidi, occidere, to go downe before, as one sterre before an other.

Præoccupátio, ônis, f. g. a figure in Rhetorike, whan we wyll saie that we will not tell a thing, and yet therby couertly we wil declare the matter or make it suspecte.

Præoccupo, aui, are, to take or possesse a thing by preuencion, to preuent, to take before an other.

Præoccupare partes alterius, to take vpō hym to do that an other man shulde do before hym.

Præoccupauit ferre legem, he preuented hym in publishyng and makyng the lawe.

Præoccupare hominem, to bynde a man to hym, or to wynne his fauour before an other, by some benefite or pleasure.

Præopto, aui, are, rather to desyre, to wyshe rather, to desyre greatly.

Præoptare mortem, to chose rather to die.

Prærordinátio, ônis, f. g. the first ordinaunce.

Prærordinâtor, ôris, m. g. he that made the fyrste ordinaunce.

Prærórdino, aui, are, to ordeyne afore.

Præpando, pâdi, pandere, to open before, sometime for Prætendere, to spreade or set abrode.

Præparátio, ônis, f. g. a preparation.

Præparato, an aduerbe or ablatiue case set aduerbially, with preparation or prouision.

Præparâtus, us, m. g. a prouision or preparation before hande.

Præparâtus, a, um, prouided, prepared or made redie before.

Præparcus, a, um, verye scarse or nigarde, a great sparer.

Præparo, aui, are, to prepare, to make redie, to make prouision for thynges necessarie before hande.

Præparare hyemi cibos, to prepare meate against winter.

Animos præparare ad aliquid, to make the mynde apt or ready to a thyng.

Præpedimentum, ti, n. g. a leat before.

Præpedio, præ'pedis, diui, ire, to tie or bynde ones legges, & by translation to let, to let much.

Præpeditus, a, um, leat.

Aut gaudio sumus præpediti nimio, aut ægritudine, we be letted, that is to saie bynded, that we can not see or iudge, by reason of to muche ioyfulnesse, or els of sorowfulnesse and disquiet of the mynde.

Præpendeo, pendi, ère, to hange or be hanged before.

Præpendo, pendi, ere, semeth to be vsed of Cæsar in the thirde conugation, and actiuely, to hange before.

Præpendet mento tibi barba, thou haste a bearde growyng on thy chinne.

Præpes, præ'petis, om. g. swifte, lyght in flight.

Præpetes aues, the byrdes whiche shewed themselues first to the diuinours called Augures, wherby they supposed to knowe what shoulde ensue.

Præpeto, tiui, tere, to beginne first, to go first.

Præpilâtus, a, um, headed with pyron, as a iauelyne or darte, also sharpe aboue, lyke the head of a dart, though it haue no pyron, as the hoznes of a lopster, wherwith he swimmeth.

Præpinguis, gue, om. g. verye fatte.

Præpéllco, lui, lere, to excede other, to bee of greatter power, auctozitee or richesse thã other.

Præpóndero, aui, are, to ponder or examine before, to popse or weigh more, to bee of greatter price or value, to bee more worthy, to bee more esteemed, sometyme for Anteferre, to preferre or take for the better.

Præpono, sui, ere, to put or set before, also to preferre, to esteeme, to geue one the charge of a thinge, to make one ouerseer or doer of a matter, to make ruler, to set more by.

Se ire præpositum tibi apud me, that he shulde be preferred before you, or more esteemed with me than you

Præponere aliquem negotio, to geue one the ouersight or charge, or doyng of a thyng.

Bello præponi, to be made chiefe capitayne of the warre.

Nunquam præponens se alijs, neuer esteming hym selfe more than other, or aboue other.

Luctum præposui sopori & quieti, I dyd set more by, or dyd more esteeme my gayne or auauntage, than slepe and rest.

Præporto, aui, are, to carie or beare before.

Præpositio, ônis, f. g. a setting or putting before.

Præpósitum, i, n. g. that is set or preferred before other.

Præpósitus, a, um, set or aduaunced aboue other, set in auctozitee.

Præpósitus, ti, m. g. he that is in auctozitie, or chiefe in any office.

Præpossum, præ'potes, potui, posse, to be more able than other, to be of greatter power than other.

Præpostere, backeward, ouerthwartely, arliersie, contrary to all good order.

Præpostere fieri, to be doen against al good order, as whan the seruaunt commaundeth his mayster, the people their rulers, or a foole a wyse man.

Præpósterus, a, um, ouerthwarte, out of order, cleane contrary to all good facion and order.

Also for Contrarius or Aduersus, against.

Præposteri homines, they that do that thynge last, that they shoulde haue doen first.

Præpostera consilia, counsayle cleane contrarie to the purpose.

Obsequium præposterum, id est, importunum & exitiosum.

Præpotens, entis, om. gene. verye puissaunte or myghty, of great power, also verye riche.

Præpropere, to hastily.

Præpróperus, a, um, very quicke or hasty, to hastie, rashe.

Præproperum ingenium, a rashe witte.

Præpútium, ij, n. g. the skinne that coueryth the head of a mannes pryuy membre.

Præradio, aui, are, to shyne or cast bright beames afore.

Prærâdo, rasi, radere, to shaue or scrape.

Præráncidus, a, ũ, very vnsauoury, verye rãnish, that hath a verye stinkyng sauour, lyke thinges renewed and rotten, by trãslation, very vnpleasant, out of vse.

Præräpidus, a, um, very swifte.

Præreptus, a, um, taken or caught away before.

Præreptus immatura morte, dead before his tyme.

Præripio, præ'ripis, pui, ere, to preuent, to catch awaye before an other, to take frõ an other, to haue it hym selfe.

Iter præripere, id est, præoccupare, to goe afore.

Præripere hostiũ consilia, to spie out and preuent their ennemies intentes and purposes.

Coniugem præripere, to marie the woman that an other shoulde haue maried.

Præripuit tibi ne esses primus, he tooke this praise frõ you, that ye shulde not be the chiefest or most excellent.

Præripere, to take to his owne vse, Eripere, to take from an other that he can not vse hym selfe, ſelfe, as Eripuit illi vitam.

Præródo, ſi, ere, to gnawe, to gnawe or eate bes rate muche, to gnawe all about, to gnawe the vtter parte of a thyng.

Prærogatiua, æ, ſ. ge. and ſometyme Prærogatiuum, a prerogatiue, where one is preferred afore an other, auctorite or preheminence, alſo preiudice or fauour ſhewed more to one than to an other.

Prærogatiuus, a, um, that is demaunded or aſked his ſentence before an other, that whoſe voyce or conſent is of more auctorite and effect than other, that hath prerogatiue or preheminence above other.

Prærogatiua tribus, The tribe that geueth voyce firſt.

Prærogatiua beneficia, benefites afore employed.

Prærogo, aui, are, to aſke a mans ſentence, opinion or voyce before other, to paie or geue before hande, to paie money before his date.

Prærumpo, rúpi, rumpere, to breake a ſunder, to breake in pieces.

Prærupta, is ſometyme taken for rockes.

Prærupté, ſtyue without any bendyng.

Prærupтus, a, um, all to broken, it is ſometyme taken, where an hyll is broken by the ſide and harde to go on.

Prærupta loca, places broken here and there that no man maie paſſe.

Præs, prædis, m. gen. a ſuretee, which beyng aſked of the magiſtrate, vndertaketh for any cõmon receyuour, or one that hath the diſpenſation of the treaſure of a prince or communalte, and is bounde to make full ſatisfaction, what ſo euer ſhall befall. it is alſo a ſubſtantiall man, bound for any perſone before a iudge, that he (miſtruſtyng his cauſe) ſhall not impeyre the thynge that he hath in his hande, for the whiche the ſuite is, alſo he that is ſuretee for one in a money mattier.

Bona prædia, the gooddes of hym that is ſuretee for any common receyuour, whiche be ſolde, if the perſon (for whom he is bound) fall in arrerage.

Prædes, is ſometyme vſed, for Bona prædia.

Præſagio, præſágis, giui, ire, to diuine or tell what ſhall happen, to perceyue or haue a geſſe before what wyll folowe, to perceyue a thyng that is towarde before it come.

Præſagibat animus, fuſtra me ire, cum exirem domo, whan I went out of my houſe, my herte gaue me, that I ſhoulde go in vaine.

Neſcio quid profecto mihi animus præſagit mali, in good faithe my hert geueth me, that ſome ill ſhall happen, I wot not what, or I can not tell howe my mynde geueth me that all is not well: or I can not tell howe my hert grudgeth againſt ſome yll to come.

Dicimus præſagit animus & præſagio animo, myne herte or my mynde geueth me.

Præſágior, îris, iri, the Deponent, is reade in Plautus.

Præſagitio, ónis, fœm g. a diuination, geſſyng, feelynge, or perceyuyng of any thynge that is towarde.

Præſágium, ij, n. g. a perceyuyng of a thyng before it happeth. ſometyme a coniecture.

Præſágus, a, um, that diuineth or perceyueth thynges that be towardes before they come.

Præſanátus, a, um, healed or cured before.

Præſánaſco, ſcere, to be made hole before.

Præſcáteo, præſcates, ſcátui, ſcatére, to be full and replenished with any thyng, to haue great plentie of any thyng.

Præſciéntia, æ, f. g. an vnderſtandyng and perfect knowlage of all that ſhall happen.

Præſcindo.

Præſcio, ſciui, ſcire, to knowe afore.

Nonne oportuit præſciſſe me? had it not ben mete that I ſhulde haue knowen it before?

Præſciſco, ſciſcere, to knowe before.

Præſcium, i, n. g. a thyng knowen before. Plinius often tymes vſeth Præſcia, for that the Greeches call Prognoſtica.

Præſcius, a, um, that knoweth perfectly thinges ere they happen, hauyng afore knowlage.

Præſcríbo, pſi, bere, to wryte firſt or before, ſometyme for inſcribere, to wryte vpon in the beginnyng, to intitle, to note: alſo to aſſigne, to appoynte, to determine, to limitte, to preſcribe, to ſhewe howe or what to put: ſometyme for Prædicere, to tell afore: alſo to laie before.

Præſcribere & imperare.

Finem præſcribere, to appoynte or lymitte an ende, to ſet a tyme whan thynges ſhall ceaſſe.

Vt lege præſcribitur, as the lawe ordeineth or appointeth, as it is determined in the lawe.

Præſcribere quæ ſunt gerenda, To ſhewe or geue aduertiſement what is to be dwen.

Iura ciuitatibus præſcribere, to make and ordeyne lawes for cities.

Præſcriptum erat, it was determined or appopneted.

Præſcribere, is vſed in the lawe ciuile for Excipere, or Exceptionem ſummotoriam obijcere agenti.

At idem tibi præſcribo, but euen I warne the before.

Præſcriptio, ônis, ſ. ge. a rule, a lawe, an ordenance, a fourme, a limpityng, appoynetyng, or determinyng, ſometyme for Prætextus, a pretence or colour.

Præſcriptio, Exceptio, Tranſlatio, idem ſignificant in re forenſi.

Vt honeſta præſcriptione rem turpiſſimam tegeret, that he myght cloke or hyde a verie diſhoneſte or ſhamefull mattier, vnder ſome honeſt colour or pretence.

Præſcriptum, i, n. g. a precept, a forme, a determinate rule or faction, in the lawe an exception or refuſall excludynge the action.

Præſeco, ſécui, âre, to cut before, ſometyme to cut in ſunder, to cut of.

Præſegmen, ſegminis, neu. gen. a ſuperfluouſe part of the bodie cutte awaie, the parynge of ones naile.

Præſens, entis, om. gene. preſent, ſpedie, redie, prompte, wyllyng, alſo fauourable, ſure, effectuall, bothe in the good part and in the ill, proſpitable, good, verate holſome, verie pernicious and deadely.

Præſens animus, a ſtronge or good courage, a bolde ſpirite, an herte that ſhynketh not, a redie wit, that is not to ſeeke what to dwe or ſaie.

☞ Præſentia colamus, let vs make muche of that we haue, for ſeldome commeth the better.

Fac animo hæc præſenti dicas, ſee that thou ſpeake this with a bolde ſpirite, or that thy wyttes bee thyne owne, and that thyne herte fayle the not whan thou ſhalt ſpeake it.

Deum præſentem habet, he hath god fauourable vnto hym, & redie to aide and helpe hym.

Mihi tua domus te præſente abſente pateat, let thy dwze bee open to me whether thou be at home or no. Or leat me be welcom to thy houſe, whether thou bee there or abzoade.

Præſens deus, god geueth to vs incontinent that that we demaunde.

Præſens medicina, a medicine that cureth ſwythwith, a ſouereine medicine, a redie medicine that wyll eaſe one out of hande.

In præſens, in præſenti, in præſentia, & ſometyme in præſentiarum, at this preſent.

Mors præſens, id eſt, parata & in promptu.

Adſum præſens præſenti tibi, I am here preſent before your face.

Præſente hoc nolebam dicere, I wolde not ſpeake it in this mans preſence.

Præſente nobis, for Præſentibus.

Nec nobis præſente aliquis, niſi ſeruus Affricanus adeſt, neither any man, but the ſeruaunt that came out of Affrike was preſent, whyle I was there.

Apud forum præſente teſtibus, mihi vendidit, he ſolde it me openly in the ſtrete before wytneſſe. In theſe examples is an imitacion of ſpeakyng in the olde tyme, and the figure called Archaiſmus.

Non quia ades præſens dico, I ſaye it not becauſe you be preſent, or I ſaye it not to flatter you before your face.

Præſenti argento, vel pecunia, mercari vel vendere, to by or ſell for redie money.

Pecuniam præſentem ſoluit mulieri, he paied money out of hande to the woman.

Præſens quandoq; dicitur, non quod nunc ſit, ſed quod fiebat tempore illo, tunc præſente.

Viuus & præſens, a maner of ſpeakyng, vſed to expreſſe more plainly the preſens of a thyng or perſon.

Cætera præſenti ſermoni reſeruentur, leat the other thynges be reſerued, vntyll we mete and talke together preſently.

Præſentius remedium, a more ſpedy remedy.

In rem præſentem venire, to come to or vpon the place, for which the controuerſie or contraction is, to make a viewe of the place or grounde as whan the iudge appoynteth, or the parties agree, that the grounde or lande be conſidered howe it lieth.

Præſenſus, a, um, perceyued before it come.

Præſentáneus, a, um, ſpeedie, redie, effectuouſe.

Præſentaneum argentum, money to be paied out of hande.

Præſentaneum remedium, a ſhorte and ſpedie remedie.

Præſentárius, a, um, redie, ſpedie.

Præſentarium argentum, redie money.

Præſéntia, æ, f. g. preſence.

Præſentia animi, valiauntneſſe of mynde.

Præſentio, ônis, f. g. a perceyuyng or kelyng of a thyng that is towarde before it come.

Præſentio, ſi, tîre, to ſmell or ſent before, to feele or perceyue before, to haue perceyueraunce of a thyng before hande, to doubt of a thyng.

Præſentiſco, ſcere, idem quod præſentio.

Præſentiſſimus, a, um, the beſt, the ſureſte.

Præſentiſſimum venenum, the greateſt and moſt feruent poiſon: alſo ſtronge.

Præſentiſſimum remedium, the moſt ſpedie or ſure remedie.

Præſentiſſimum periculum, a great daunger that is ſure to folowe.

Præſento, aui, are, to haue redie, to preſente, ſometyme to repreſent, to reſemble.

Præſépe, is, n. g. & præſépes, pis, f. g. a ſtable, a ſtall, a ſhepehouſe, ſometime a bzothel houſe.

Præſepélio, ſépîlis, liui, lire, to burie before.

Præſépio, præſépis, pîui, pire, to hedge afore a thyng, to hedge or encloſe about, to enuirone, to compaſſe.

Præſépium, ii, neut. gene. a racke, a cracke or a maunger alſo the herbe Auricúlis.

Præſero, ſeui, ſérere, to ſowe before.

Præſertim, ſpecially, chiefely.

Præſeruátio, ônis, f. g. a preſeruacion.

Præſéruio, uiui, ire, to doo ſeruice to one, to helpe or ſerue one.

Præſéruo, aui, are, to preſerue, to keepe from daunger.

Præſes, præſidis, com. g. he that hath auctozitee in a prouince next vnder the kyng, a lieutenant, or vicerop, that hath the tuicion or protection of any thyng or countrey, a prouoſte ſometyme it ſignifieth a defendour, one that helpeth or apdeth: alſo ſure, ſaſe.

Præſes locus, a ſure place.

Præſideo, præſídes, ſédi, ére, to be in more auctozitee, or of a more dignitee: alſo to haue auctozitee or rule to aide and ſuccour them that nede, ſpoken bothe of god and man, to haue the tuicion of any thyng, prouince, or people.

In proximum exercitum præſidebat, he was capte

capitayne, or had the gouernaunce of the armie that was nexte theym.
Omnes dij, qui huic vrbi præsident, all the goddes that haue tuicion of this citee.
Sociorum manus litora præsidebat, the companie of our confederates and felowes kepte the sea banckes.
Præsideratio, onis, f. g. tempest, whiche cometh at the beginnynge of winter, sooner than it is loked for, or is accustomed to happen.
Præsidero, aui, are, where tempest cometh verye soone, and before the tyme accustomed.
Præsidiarius, a, um, that is ordeined to be ayde to an other thyng.
Præsidiarij, in vines be litell branches, that be nourisshed to mayntayne the vine.
Præsidium, dij, n. g. a garrison of men with a capitayne set by the chiefe capitayne to defende a fortresse, sometyme it is taken generally for all manner ayde or defence, a place of refuge or succour: also a fortification of a thyng, a forte: sometyme onely a campe.
Gerere præsidium, to aide, to succour.
Quibus in præsidijs fuerit quære, aske him in whose campe he was.
Confirmare præsidijs aliquam prouinciam, to set a garrison in a prouince.
Decedere de præsidio & statione vitæ iniussu imperatoris, to murther or kyll hym selfe before his tyme appointed of god.
Vrbs nudata præsidio, a citee hauyng no defence or garrison at all.
Præsidio meo atq; hospitis, by my good helpe and this straungers.
Perfugium & præsidium salutis, a place of refuge and succour to saue one in, in tyme of aduersitee.
Præsidium esse alicui, to succour or helpe one, to be an ayde or comforte to one.
Ibi tuæ stultitiæ semper erit præsidium, there shall be alwaies a place of refuge or succour for thy foolishenes.
Præsignifico, aui, are, to signifie or notifie before, to shewe before.
Præsignis, ne, verye excellent, that passeth or excelleth other.
Præsigno, aui, are, to note or marke before, to signe or seale first or before.
Præsilio, præsilij, lui, lire, to leape before, to sterte out.
Præ lætitia lachrymæ præsiliunt mihi, for ioy I braste out in weepynge, or the teares trickle downe my cheeres.
Præsisto, stiti, tere, to stande or be set before.
Præspargo, sparsi, spargere, to strawe or scatter before
Præspeculor, aris, ari, to looke afore.
Præspicio, spexi, ere, to see afore.
Præstabilis le, excellent: also that may be doen or performed.
Præstabilius, better,

Præstans, antis, om. ge. excellent, verye good, that passeth, excelleth or is better than other.
Præstans animi, he that hath a valiaunt courage, or that hath a noble herte.
Præstans virtute homo, a man of excellente vertue.
Literis doctrinaq; præstans, a man excellently learned or of great knowlage.
Nihil præstantius, there is nothyng more excellent.
Præstantia, æ, f. g. excellencie.
Animi præstantia, excellencie or nobleneſſe of courage.
Præstega, æ, f. g. a place open before and couered behynde lyke a porche, where men dooe sit for recreation after their businesse.
Præster, steris, m. g. a venemous serpēt of whom he that is stricken, dieth for thirst, lobe Preſter.
Præsterno, straui, ere, to lay abroade before: also to prepare, to make redie.
Præstes, præstitis, m. g. of the auncient writers called a prelate.
Præstigiator, oris, m. ge. a iuglar, he that with legierdemayne deceiueth and deludeth men.
Præstigiatrix, icis, the feminine.
Præstigiæ, arum, f. g. plu. thynges that do seeme to be that they be not, deceites, inchantmentes, delusions, legerdemaine, conueyghaunces that iuglars dooe vse.
Præstigium, ij, n. g. is read in some printes for a delusion, a iuglyng cast, an inchauntment.
Præstino, aui, are, to bie, in bying to holde a thynge.
Præstituo, stui, ere, to determyne before, to prescribe or appoynt before what shalbe doen.
Præstituere diem, to appoynct or set a daie.
Tempus præstituere, to prescribe a tyme.
Præsto, stiti, are, to be better than an other thing wherwith it is compared, to excelle: also to vndertake for an other, to warrant, to take vpon hym to make good al the losse or harme that cometh of a thynge, sometyme to graunt: also to doe, to be beneficial, to bee ware, to eschew, to feare, to doe or performe, to gene, to exhibite, to represent or shew, to lende, to assigne or appoint to doe a thynge, to trie, to proue.
Plura mihi præstitit quam parentes, id est, fecit, he hath doen more for me, or bene more beneficiall to me, than my father and mother.
Præstare alicui beneuolentiam, to shew his fauour, good will, or herty loue towarde a man.
Diligentiā præstare alicui, to behaue him selfe lyke a sure friende, to shewe hym selfe diligente towarde one or in his businesse.
Debitum honorem patri præstare, to doe due honour to his father.
Mare tutum præstitit, he scoured the sea, and made that men might haue safe passage.
Principem præstare, to behaue ones selfe like a prince or ruler, to dooe the office of a kynge or gouernour.

Queſtum præſtare, to bee vantageable, to bryng gayne or profyte.
Præſtare operam in re militari, to helpe or ſerue in the warres.
Reuerentiam præſtare, to reuerence & feare.
Sapientiam & grauitatem præſtare, to liue wiſely, and ſagely, to behaue hym ſelfe in his ſpeche with great wyſedome and grauitee.
Se incolumem præſtare, to recouer his helth againe.
Præſtare ſe acerrimum propugnatorem, to defende and maintaine a thyng very earneſtly.
Silentium præſtare, to be ſtill.
Præſta te eum qui mihi. &c. ſhewe thy ſelfe to be the ſame man that I. &c.
Vicem alicuius rei præſtare. &c. to be or ſerue in the place or ſtede. &c.
Præſtare, plus ſignificat quàm dare.
Ego illum ante ædes præſtabo, I wil bryng him hither before the doore.
Præſtare aliquem alicui negotio, id eſt, Præficere, to make one ruler or ouer ſeer of any buſineſſe.
Quamcunque ei fidem dederis, præſtabo, what ſo euer thou ſhalt promyſe hym, I wyll be agreable, and performe it or make it good.
Quod ab homine nõ potuit præſtari, id eſt, cauteri, prohiberi, that a man could not beware of or eſchewe.
De me præſtare poſſum, as for my parte, I can vndertake and warrant it.
Præſtare rem publicam, to ſaue, mainteine, and kepe the cõmon weale from all harme and daunger.
Homini homo quid præſtat, how much one man is better than an other.
Totidem annis mihi ætate præſtabat, he was ſo many yeres elder than I.
Præſtat ingenio alius alium, one excelleth an other in wit: or ſome one man hath a better witte than an other.
Hac re maximè beſtijs præſtant, for this thynge eſpecially, they excell beaſtes, or bee better than beaſtes.
Is periculum iudicij præſtare debet, qui ſe nexu obligauit, he (that is the ſeller) which bound him ſelfe ſolemnely before witneſſe, to ſtande to the warrantiſe, ought to ſaue the byer harmeleſſe, and defende hym in the iudgement.
Præſtare damna aut vitia, to make good.
Horum non modo facta, ſed etiam dicta omnia præſtanda nobis ſunt, we muſte anſwere for, or ſatiſfie and make good, or we muſt take vpon vs what ſo euer they offende eyther in worde or dede.
Emptori damnum præſtare, to recompence the byer for all his loſſes & domages, to ſaue the byer harmeleſſe.
Emptorem indemnem præſtare, idem.
Præſtare culpam, to take the charge or domage vpon hym.
Iſtam enim culpam quàm vereris, ego præſtabo, for the blame whiche thou feareſt, I wyll take vpon me.
Nihil eſt ſapientis præſtare, niſi culpam, a wyſe man is not bounde to vndertake or make anſwere for any thynge, but that cometh thorough his owne defaute, and not that happeneth by fortune or otherwyſe.
Præſtare fidem, to be faithfull.
Præſtare fidem publicam, whan the conſull or other great officer performeth that whiche he promiſed.
Præſtare nihil debeo, no man ought to laie that to me, I am not bounde to make anſwere for that, or to warrant that.
Meſſalam Cæſari præſtabo, I wyll vndertake that Meſſala ſhalbe Cæſars friende.
Præſtare officium, to doe his dutie.
Præſtare iuſiurandum, to take a ſolemne oth.
Præſtat, præſtabat, præſtitit, præſtare, it is better.
Præſtat furi hic ſuſpendi, q̃ apud inferos ardere, it were better for a theefe to be hãged here, than to lie in the fyre of hell, or than to burne in hell.
Præſtò, an aduerbe, after Dipontinus, after of thee a noune vndeclined, and ſignifieth, redy at hande.
Me dixeram, præſto fore apud Veneris phanum, I tolde the that thou ſhouldeſt fynde me at the temple of Venus.
Ibi mihi præſto fuit Lucillius cum literis, id eſt, occurrit, there Lucilius met me, or came to me with letters.
Hero vt omnibus locis præſto ſim, that I may be redie at hande to my maiſter in euery place.
Domi præſto eſſe apud me aiunt, they ſay that he is all redy at home at my houſe.
Præſto adeſt, for Præſto eſt.
Amicis præſto fuiſti, thou didſt defende and helpe thy frendes.
Ad horam octauam præſto eſt, he appeareth there, at. viii. of the cloche.
Præſto eſt ad nutum, he is redie at a becke.
Præſto ſis, helpe me.
Præſto eſſe, to appeare as men doe in places of iudgement: alſo to be ready to helpe.
Præſtõlor, ãris, ari, to tarie, to be at hande or redie to doe ſeruice, to abyde for.
Quem præſtolare hic ante hoſtium? whom doe ye tary for here before the doore?
Præſtringo, xi, gere, to bynde faſt, to ſhutte, to daſell the eies, to touche quyckely or ſlightly, to haue, to greue ſomewhat.
Præſtringere oculos, to daſell the ſyght, to caſte a miſte before ones eies, to deceiue or deſude one with legierdemaine.
Præſtringere aciem ingenij, to deceiue, to deſude.
Præſtringere aciem ferri, to dull, to tourne the edge.
Præſtringitur eboris nitor, the bryghteneſſe of ſyuorie more is defaced or made darke.

Præstructus, a, um, furnished or buildid before, also doon of purpose, or for the nonce.
Præstruo, struxi, ere, to ordeine first, to builde, sometyme for obstruere to stop vp. Præstruere viam, to make waye before: prouerbially, to geue an occasion of any thynge.
Præsudo, aui, are, to sweate or labour before, to exercise hym selfe before.
Præsul, præsulis, a prelate, it signifieth hym that leadeth the daunce.
Præsulatus, us, m. g. the dignitee of a prelate.
Præsulsus, a, ũ, very salte, that was salte before.
Præsulto, aui, are, to leape or daunce before.
Præsultor, ôris, m. g. he that leadeth a daunce.
Præsum, præes, præfui, esse, to be afore or aboue an other, to bee of more dignitee, to be in auctoritee, to haue the charge or rule, to haue the chiefe doynge in any thynge.
Præesse negotio, to be chiefe in the businesse.
Exercitui præesse, to be chiefe capitayne of the armie.
Populo magistratus præsunt, the magistrates haue the rule of the people, or haue auctoritee ouer the people.
Prouinciæ præesse, to be lieutenant or chiefe gouernour of any prouince.
Nauibus & classi præesse, to bee admirall or chiefe capitaine of the armie by sea.
Præesse questioni dicitur iudex, to decide or sit in examination of any matter.
Reipublicæ præesse, to haue the rule or gouernance of the common weale.
Præsúmo, psi, mere, to take first, or preuente.
Præsumere animo, to coniecte, to perceiue a thing before it chaunce.
Spe præsumite bellum, hope and looke surely for warre afore hande
Supplicium in aliquem præsumere, to punish one before.
Præsúmptio, ônis, a takyng or receiuinge before, it is also that whiche is called preoccupation, whan we declare fyrst what our aduersary will saie, or what is the iudges opinion, and against that we doo argue to dissolue it with reason.
Præsumptus, a, um, taken or conceiued before.
Præsumpta opinio, a suspicion, an opinion that one hath conceiued.
Præsuo, præsui, ere, to sowe afore.
Præsurgo, gere, to rise afore or firste.
Præ'tego, texi, gere, to hyde or couer chiefely.
Prætendo, tendi, dere, to laie for a thynge ere it come, to drawe, set, or hange a courteine or other thynge before, to couer, to hyde with anye thyng, to lay for ones selfe or against an other, also to beare or carie afore. also to shew or pretende, to allege, to set a thyng about for an enclosure.
Prætendere auribus, to stop the eares.
Prætendere retia, to set or lay nettes.
Prætendere sepem, to make an hedge about.
Ignorantia prætendi non potest, ignorãce can not be alleged or laied for an excuse, or they can not excuse theym selfe by ignorance.
Vultum & tristitiam pessimis moribus prætendebant, they cloked their naughtie facions with grauitee and sadnesse of countenaunce.
Prætendebat se id metu facere, he shewed, that he dyd it for feare.
Prætendere manu, to carie or beare before in ones hande.
Præ'tener, ténera, um, verye tender or softe.
Prætentátus, us, m. g. assayinge or prouyng before, a groppyng or felynge of the waie, as ons goeth in the darke or blindefylde.
Prætento, aui, are, to tempte, to assaie afore, to feele or grope with ones hande, feete or other thyng before hym.
Ad prætentandum iter, to grope or feele the way before hym.
Prætentat pollice chordas, he assayeth or prouyeth the strynges of the harpe or lute.
Vires prætentare, to proue his strength before, to assaie what he is able to doo.
Prætentus, a, um, set, drawen or hanged before or hyde a thyng.
Præténuis, e, verye small, thinne or slender.
Præ'tepeo, præ'tepes, tépui, ere, to bee luke warme or halfe colde.
Præter, except, also beyde, ouer and aboue, before, contrarie or against.
Præter oculos, before the eies.
Præter morem, against the custome or facion.
Præter spem, vnloked for.
Præter opinionẽ, otherwise than I thought.
Præter cætera, more than the other.
Præter æquum, agaynst reason.
Præter, for Vltra, as,
Multa erant præter hæc, there wer many thynges mo than these, or beyides these.
Præter ætatem stultus es, it is not mete or conuenient for one of thy age to be so verye a foole.
Videre mihi præter ætatem tuam facere, me thynketh ye do otherwise than is cõuenient for your age.
Erat forma præter cæteras honesta ac liberali, she was of beautie and fauour more comly and goodly than the other, or than the moste part be.
Præter consuetudinem, cõtrarie to your wont and custome.
Præter hæc, is often readde in Plautus for Post hæc.
Fortasse iniquior erat præter eius libidinem, contrarie to his appetite or phantasie.
Præter modum, aboue measure, beyonde all measure, without measure, out of course.
Omnia mihi eueniunt præter sententiam, otherwyse than I woulde haue had it.
Vt præter spem euenit: howe muche otherwise hath it chaunced, than I thought or loked for?
Præter suorum ora, before the face of his men.

Præ-

Præteragere, to dryue further or beyonde.
Præterbito, aui, are, to go by, to passe by.
Præterdúco, duxi, ere, to leade aforе, to leade forthe.
Prætérea, moreouer, furthermore, beside, nonelis.
Mihi credis, præterea nemini, thou beleuest me and none elis. also it signifieth afterwarde.
Et quisquam numen Iunonis adoret præterea, id est, Postea.
Præterea, includeth sometyme a pronoune either of the singular or plurall noumbre.
Si duo præterea tales Idea tulisset terra viros, id est, Præter eum Aeneam.
Præterea quidē de consularibus nemini. &c. id est, præter eos.
Prætereo, præteris, iui, or ii, ire, to go ouer or passe, to passe by or got beyonde, to go past, to make no mention of, to shippe ouer, to leaue out a thinge, that shulde bee spoken of, to passe ouer, also to excell.
Hunc non ausim præterire, quin. &c. I dare not passe by this man, but that. &c.
Prætern imprudens villam, I was gone past my house in the countrey, ere I was ware.
Præterire malum, id est, effugere, vitare, to escape, to eschewe.
Et quod pene præterii, and that I had almost let passe and forgotten to speake of.
Non queo silentio præterire, I can not chose but speake of it.
Præterire non potui, quin scriberem ad te, I coulde not forbeare, but that I muste needes write vnto you.
Præterijt me hæc res, I had forgotten this matter.
Et hoc te præterijt, non id solum spectari solere? and doest thou not knowe, that not onely that thyng is to be considered?
Non me præterit, I know well enoughe.
Hos nobilitate Mago præterijt, Mago was the beste borne of them all, or was of a greatter bloude then any of them.
Prætérequito, aui, are, to ryde by or paste.
Prætérferor, to be caried beyonde, to be gone paste.
Prætérfluo, fluxi, ere, is of the water, to renne by a place, to flowe by, and by translation, to slippe or passe by.
Prætersluere sinet, he leat it slyp or passe by, he regarded it not, he neglected it.
Prætergrédior, deris, gredi, to passe by, to go beyonde.
Præteriens, entis, passyng by, goyng beyonde.
Prætéritus, a, um, passed, that is gone past.
Præteriti, deade, departed, deceassed: also they which in synge for an office dyd suffer repulse or were put backe.
Prætérlabor, láberis, labi, to renne or flowe by.
Prætermeo, aui, are, to go by.
Prætermíssio, ónis, forgettyng or leauyng out of a thyng.

Prætermitto, misi, ere, to leaue vntouched, to forget, to leaue out, to passe ouer a thynge, to synge a thynge vndoone or vnspoken, not to speake.
Prætermittitur, quod ignorantia, obliuione, aut negligentia præteritur: omittitur, quod de industria relinquitur.
Prætermittere silentio, to let passe, and not to speake of.
Nihil prætermisi in te exornando, I dyd leaue passe nothing, wherwith I might adourne and set forthe your honour.
Pœnam prætermittere, to pardone and to forgeue.
Præternauigátio, ónis, fœ. ge. a sailyng or passyng by.
Prætérnauigo, aui, are, to sayle or passe by or beyonde.
Prætéro, triui, térere, to chawe the meate with the fore teethe.
Prætérpropter, for an other cause than that is mencioned.
Prætérpropter vitam vivitur, hoc est propter aliam causam vivitur, quam vt viuatur.
Prætérquam, but onely, otherwise than, more ouer, beside, it requireth alwaye the case that it had before it.
Prætérq̄ quod, but saying that, also ouer and beside that.
Nemo id dixerit prætérq̄ Cicero, saynge, or excepte Cicero, or but onely Cicero.
Nulli id placuit, prætérquam Cæsari, saynge onely Cæsar.
Verbum mihi vnum, prætérq̄ quod te rogo, fac sis caue, but that that I aske the, or more than that I demaunde of the.
Prætérq̄ tui curandum quod erat, saying that I coulde not haue your companie, also ouer and beside that. &c.
Nullo remedio, prætérq̄ si confestim partes contactæ amputentur, with no remedie, except onely that the partes. &c.
Prætérq̄ semper aliàs, tum vero minimum &c. id est quum semper aliàs.
Prætérq̄ capiti, etiam stomacho prodest, it is good not onely for the heade, but also for the stomache: or ouer & beside that it is holsome for the head, it is also good for the stomache.
Prætérrado, rasi, radere, idem quod Rado.
Prætérueho, uexi, vehere, to carie through, to carie or conueigh ouer or beyonde.
Prætéruehere aliquid silentio, to leaue a thyng vnspoken of.
Vt tuto præterucherentur orā Italiæ, that they myghte passe sauflely by the sea coaste of Italy.
Prætéruehere, sometyme for Præteruchi.
Quod ludæam præteruehens, apud Hierosolymam. &c. id est, præteruēctus.
Scopulos præteruēcta videtur oratio mea, me seemeth, that I haue now passed and spoken of the moste harde and difficulte matters.

Præ-

Prætereúntio, ónis, f. ge. a conueyghyng or cas rying further or beyonde.

Prætéruerto, uerti, uertere, to put one thing be fore an other, to preuente, to speake before.

Si habes aliquid, quod huic sermoni præter-uertendum putes, if ye haue any thyng, which ye thynke ought to be spoken before that ye will speake of this matter.

Prætéruolo, aui, are, to passe through quickely, to passe by or beyonde quickely.

Prætexo, texui, ere, to make or ordeyne kynst, to couer or hyde, to speake colourably, to colour, to cloke, to pretende. also to border, to couer
the borders, edges, brymes or skyrtes.

Prætexere autores, quos sequamur, to recite them by name and in order.

Hoc prætexit nomine culpam, with this name
he doeth hide or cloke the faute.

Vt non prætexat cupiditatem triumphi, but that he muste laie this for his excuse: or make this pretence or colour, that he woulde fayne haue triumphe.

Prætexere retia, to make or knitte nettes.

Quibus Danubij ora prætexitur, whiche lie or inhabite vpon the borders of Danubie.

Prætexta, tæ, f. g. a longe robe or gowne, garded about with purple silke, that noble mens chil dren vsed to weare, vnto the age of. xvii. yeres, and therefore they were called Prætextati, but they had also about their neckes, a litteil round iewell of golde, facioned lyke an herte, wherein was inclosed some thyng of great vertue. Prætexta, was also the robe of astate, whiche the kyng of Romaynes, or the other chiefe officers did weare, whan they sate in their maiestie, and was wonte to bee burned with them that died in the tyme of their office: neither might any iudge geue sentence on any man, till he had put of that robe. it was also a cote, that capitaynes did weare in their triumphe: and whereby Des natours were knowen from them of the order of gentyllmen.

Prætexta comœdia, an enterlude, wherein are personages of high dignitee, as princes and great rulars.

Prætexta toga, idem quod Prætexta.

Prætextas docere, supple comœdias.

Prætextâtus, a, um, that weareth the robe or gar ment called Prætexta.

Prætextati anni, youthe.

Prætextata ætas, idem.

Prætextati mores, honest condicions.

Prætextatus sermo, communication without rebaudrie: or after some, filthy and vncleane woordes or communication.

Prætextus, a, um, bordered, that hath the edges embroudered or garded.

Prætextum, ti, n. g. a pretence or colour.

Prætextus, us, m. g. idem.

Prætiamitatores, officers, whiche wente before the prelates, called flamines, proclayming openly, that all men shoulde ceasse of theyr worke, because it was not lefull to those prela tes to beholde any man woorkyng.

Prætimeo, præ timui, ere, to be sore afe rde, to feare greatly.

Prætingo, gere, to touche afore.

Prætóndeo, tondi, dere, to shere, clippe, or rounde before.

Prætor, óris, m. ge. in the olde tyme was euery officer, which had the rule of any armie. Asco-nius. Afterwarde he had iuridicall authoritee, beyng as it were the chiefe iudge, and had other iudges sittyng vnder hym, whereof the full numbre in the citee of Rome, was. lxxv. Cic.
in Pisonem. But Asconius, vpon the oration Pro Milone, saieth: that the iudges appoincted, were. lxxi. & after that, as well the plaintife as the defendant had eche of them drawen out. v. there remayned but. lxi.

Prætoriânus, a, um, of or belongyng to the Pre tore, or that waiteth or attendeth on the Pre tore.

Prætoriani milites, a bande or companie of souldiours, that alwaie kept the citee of Rome:
and their Campe was called Castra prætoria.

Prætórium, rij, neu. gene. the hous or pauillion of him that was Pretor. it is also a princes palaice or manour, and a great and sumptuous hous builded in the countreye: it is sometyme the place, where iudgementes are geuen: some tyme the counsayle, whereunto Pretors are as sembled.

Dimittere prætorium, to dissolue the couns
sayle of the Pretors.

Prætórius, a, um, belongynge to the office of Pretor.

Prætorius vir, that hath bene Pretor.

Prætoria cohors, a companie or band of souldiours, that alwaie attended vpon the Pretor or Capitayne.

Nauis prætoria, the capitayne or admirall shippe.

Prætoria porta, the gate, by the which the Pre tor ledde foorth his armie.

Prætorium ius, law made by the Pretor.

Prætoritius a, um, for Prætorius.

Prætortus, a, um, very crooked.

Prætrépidans, antis, om. g. sore afeerde.

Prætrunco, aui, are, idem quod Trunco, to cutte of.

Prætúmidus, a, um, greatly swollen, or puffed vp.

Prætûra, ræ, f. ge. the dignitie and ministracion of hym that is Pretor.

Prætutium, a towne in Italie.

Præualeo, præ uales, ualui, lere, to preuayle, to be better or of more value, to be more woorthe.

Præualesco, lescere, idem.

Præ ualet, the impersonall.

Præualidè, mightely, strongely.

Præualidus, a, um, very strong or mighty. some-tyme

tyme very great, of great power.

Præuaricátio, ônis, f. gen. a collusion: also it is wher one toucheth a thyng lightly, which ought to be inculked with a more playne declaration, or els repeted, as mahynge muche to the purpose. also the corruptyng of the accuser by the persone arrayned.

Præuáricor, aris, ari, to swarue from truthe, to go out of the ryght waie, to leaue vnsaied that, whiche shoulde be spoken, and more ernestly declared, as effectuall to the purpose, to touche a thyng shortly in speakyng, to worke by collusion, in suffryng his aduersarie to obteyne to hurt an other persone, to make semblance to do a thyng, and do cleane contrary.

Præuaricari accusatori, id est, præuaricando subseruire, to pleade by collusion with the accuser.

Præuaricátor, ônis, m. gen. he that leaueth the right waie, or speaketh not that, whiche ought to be spoken: also he that in speakyng for hym selfe, aideth the cause of his aduersarie, or doeth any thing by collusion: an attourney, that maketh pretence to defende a man, and betrayeth his cause to his aduersarie: an accuser corrupted with money by the person accused.

Præ´ueho, uexi, uehere, to bryng fyrste, to carie before, to leade before.

Præuello, uulsi, uellere, to pull or plucke afore.

Præuélo, aui, are, to couer or hide afore.

Præuélox, lócis om. g. very swyfte.

Præuénio, præ´uenis, uéni, uenire, to come before or preuent.

Præuentus, a, um, preuented.

Præuersus, a, um, that whiche is doone or sped first or before any other.

Præuersum fulgur, lightnynge, whiche is not knowen, whether it be by date or by nyght.

Præuerto, uerti, uertere, and Præuertor, the deponent, to set more by, or to care more for. also to go before. also to be turned swythe or putte out, to geue more diligence to one thynge then to an other: to doe a thyng first and before an other, that shoulde haue bene done after, to ouergo, to ouerrenne or flee.

Cursu pedum præuertere ventos, to be more swyfte of foote then the wynde.

Fuga præuertere metum suppliciorum, To renne awaie before for feare of punishement.

Nec me vxorem præuortisse dicant, præ republ. and let them not saie, that I set more by my wyfe, then by the weale publike.

Neq; præripio pulpamentum, neq; præuorto poculum, neither doe I snatche away thy meate, nor take the cuppe before the.

Inde illico præuertor domum, from thens I went home afore.

Foreis enim clausit, ne præuorteretur foras, he hath shutte fast the doze, lest he shulde be put swythe of dores.

Præuorti hoc certũ est rebus aliis omnibus, surely this shall be done before any other thing.

Si quid dictum est per iocum, non æquum est, id te serio præuortier, if any thynge be spoken in game, it is not reason to turne it to ernestе.

Præuerti pigritiæ, to be take or let with slouth.

Caue pigritiæ præuortier, beware that thou be not taken or lette with slouthe.

Præuertere aliquem præ republica, to set more by one then by the weale publike.

Præuerti rebus omnibus, to be more sette by than any other thyng, or to bee first doen.

Mandatis rebus præuerti volo, I will firste doe these thinges, which I am commaunded.

Nec aliam rem præuerti censebat, nor he wolde that any thyng shoulde be doone before that: or his mynde was, that nothyng shuld be done before that.

Præuertere animum alicuius, to obteine ones fauour before an other man.

Illuc præuertamur, let vs first speake therof, ere we come to the matter, or let vs turne to this parte firste.

Iusiurandi religionem amori præuertere, to esteme the othe more then the loue.

Vt bellum præuerti sinerent, that they wolde suffre any thyng to be done before the warre.

Cæsar huic rei præuertendum ratus, Cesar thinkynge it beste that this matter were preuented.

Præuideo, præ´uides, uidi, uidére, to see before.

Præuincio, uinxi, uincire, to bynde before.

Præuitio, aui, are, to corrupt before.

Præ´uius, a, um, that goeth before, or leadeth the waie.

Præumbro, aui, are, to shadowe, to make obscure or darke.

Præ´uolo, præ´uolas, aui, are, to flee before.

Præustus, a, um, burned at the fore ende.

Præûro, ussi, ûrere, to burne firste, or to burne muche, to burne the fore parte or pointe of a thynge.

Pragma, prágmatis, n. gen. in greke, is in latine negotiatio, an acte or businesse. also an exercise of marchandise.

Pragmáticum, ci, neu. gene. any thyng done or wrought in the common weale.

Pragmáticus, ci, m. gen. a practiser in the lawe, one that was wont to stande by orators in pleadynge, to instructe them in termes and poynctes of the lawe.

Pragmatica sanctio, a determination of practisians of the lawe.

Prandeo, prandi, & pransus sum, prandére, to dine.

Prandiculum, li, n. g. a litteli diner or breckfast.

Prandiolum, li, n. g. a litteli diner.

Prandium, dij, n. g. a diner.

Pránsito, aui, are, to dine or eate often.

Prasion, called also Marrhubium, the herbe marrubium or horehound.

Pransor,

Pransor, ôris, m. g. he that is at diner, or he that is bodden to diner.
Pransórius, a, um, of or perteinyng to diner.
Pransus, a, um, that hath dined.
Pransi, were taken not onely for them that had dined, but also for them that lacked nothynge.
Prasii, people of Indie.
Prasinus, a, um, greene lyke leekes.
Prasion, called also Marrhubium, the herbe named horehounde.
Prasius, a greene stone.
Prassoides, a stone of the colour of leekes.
Prassocurides, littel greene wormes, which eate leeke blades, colewortes, and letuse.
Praisium, an herbe called horehounde, reade Marrubium.
Praténsis se, of the medowes.
Praténse fœnum, medow hey.
Prátulum, li, n. g. a littell medow.
Pratum, ti, n. g. a medow.
Prauè, shrewedly, naughtily, vnhappily, ouerthwartly.
Prauefacta, offences, naughty deedes.
Prauitas, âtis, f. g. shrewdnesse, vnhappinesse, ouerthwartnesse, crookednesse.
Membrorum vel corporis prauitas, when any parte of the body is awry, crooked, or out of facion.
Prauitatem oris alicuius imitari, to counterfaite the ill facion of a mannes mouthe in pronunciacion.
Prauus, a, um, crooked, shrewed, euell, naught.
Prauus homo, is taken of Seneca, for præfractus, stubbourne, obstinate.
Rectum & prauum, contrarie.
Praxaspes, a noble man of Persia.
Praxis, praxeos, f. g. action.
Praxiteles, an excellent caruer in stone.
Praxitelius, a, um, the adiectiue.
Precárius, a, um, that whiche by prayer, instance, and petition is graunted to one to vse, occupie or inioy, so longe as it doeth please the partie, that doeth lende it, and no longer.
Homo precarij est spiritus, the lyfe of man doeth cõtinue at the pleasure of nature or destenie.
Mihi vel vi, vel clam, vel precario fac tradas, see that thou get it me either by strength of handes, or els by prinie conueighance and stelthe, or els of lone for a littell whyle, and then to bee restored agayne.
Precario, the ablatiue case vsed aduerbially, by desire at an other mans will.
Mori præstat, q̃ precario imperator esse, better it is to die, then to be a kynge or capitaine at the pleasure of other men, and no longer.
Quasi precario regnari cœpit, he beganne to reygne at the will and pleasure of the people, and so longe as they wolde permit, and no longer.
Precário cõcedere, to lende or graunte a thing till one shall require it agayne.
Precario petere vel rogare, to desire to haue a thynge so longe as pleaseth the owner, and then to make surrender or deliuerie of it ageine.
Precátio, ônis, a desyryng, a prayyng.
Precátor, ôris, m. ge. one that intreateth or maketh intercession for an other, a spokesman, a petitioner, an intercessour.
Precis, ci, cem, ce, a prayer.
Nihil est preci loci relictum, prayyng may haue no place, or it is past intreatyng.
Omnibus precibus aliquid petere, looke peto.
Addere precibus lachrymas, to beseche or pray with teares.
Adduci precibus, to bee perswaded, to be induced.
Cedere precibus alicuius, to be ouercome with ones intreaty.
Dimittere se in preces humiles, to make humble intreatie.
Erubescere preces, whan one is ashamed to make intreatie.
Despuere preces alicuius, to contemne ones prayyng or intreatyng.
Fatigare aliquem prece, to ouercome and wery one with continuall prayer.
Te oro nunc per precem, now I dor intreate you.
Cum magna prece scribere, to make great intreatie to one in a letter.
Precor, âris, ari, to praie, to intreate.
Vultu precari, to make signe and token with countinance, that it woulde haue a thing.
Mortem precari, to desyre death, to wisshe for death.
Bene, or bona precari alicui, to wisshe well to one, to desire god to sende one good fortune.
Male, and mala alicui precari, to curse, to desyre god to sende one a mischiefe.
Precari ab aliquo, passiuely.
Prehendo, prehendi, dere, or prendo per syncopen, to take.
Et manum prehendi, & osculum detuli tibi, I toke you by the hand, & also gaue you a busse.
Prehendo hominem solum, I gette the man alone to common and talke with hym.
Prehenso, vel prenso, aui, are, to solicite or labour men to geue their voyces to some man.
Prelum, li, n. g. a presse.
Premo, pressi, premere, to presse, to presse downe, to treade downe, sometyme to vere, to greeue, to be vrgent or instant vpon, to dygge, to prease on, to streigne, to thrust, to destroye, to be contrary or agaynste, to thrust downe, to constreigne, to restreigne, to weigh downe, to pursue them that flee, to reprehend and blame in woordes, to shutte or close.
Premere dolorē, to hyde heauinesse or sorowe.
Premit alto corde dolorem, he hydde his sorowe in the secrete parte of his herte.
Pressis oculos, ac vulnera laui, I closed his eies eies, and washed his woundes.

Premere, to cut away.

Et ruris opaci falce premes vmbram, and with a sieth thou shalte cutte away the shadowe of the darke fieldes.

Veluti qui sentibus anguē pressit humi nitens, like as he which thrusting his foote to the ground, treadeth downe the snake, that lieth in the brembles

Premere testimonio, to convicte a man by witnesse.

Arcte premere, to presse or streigne downe harde.

Premere, was vsed for Prohibere, and of Cato for vitiare.

Præcipue autem presserunt eum, qui videri artis eorum imitatores volebant, they chiefely rated hym, or spake moste vehemently agaynste hym, whiche. &c.

Nihil magis pressi, q̄ quod. & c. I was not more vrgent or instant in any poynte, then. &c.

Fugerent Grai, premeret Troiana iuuentus, id est, insequeretur.

Pressa est insignis gloria facti, the authour or doer was not knowen.

Premere aliquid in annum nonū, to kepe a thing the space of .ix. yeres, before it come abrode.

Aere alieno premi, to bee overcharged with debte.

Facta premūt annos, the deedes or actes be more or greatter, or weigh them downe.

Angustus premi, to be in a streicte, to be kepte harde or shorte.

Tantum cortices Arabicæ glandis premunt, they doe onely bruise and presse out the iuice. &c.

Crimen eleuare & premere, contrary.

Doloribus premi, to be greued with sorow or peyne.

Faucibus premi, to be so harde layed vnto in reasonyng, that he can escape no waie.

Imperio ventos premere, to kepe vnder and restraine the wyndes, to kepe in subiection.

Locus, qui ictu hostium premebatur, ỹ place which was moste fiercly assauted of the enemies.

Premi inopia, to be in great povertee.

Premi odio, to be in great hatred & displeasure of men.

Pressit iras, he refrayned his anger.

Mammam premere, to suche.

Necessitas te tanta premebat, thou waste in so great necessitie.

Vrbem obsidione premebat, he besieged the cyttee very streictly.

Oppugnatione premere, to assaute vehemently and fiersely.

Odium premere, to hyde ones displeasure or grudge

Onere premi, to be overcharged or loded.

Propositum premere, id est, non desistere ab incepto,

Vestigia premere, pro consistere, to stoppe sodaynly. also to folowe immediately.

Vocem premere, to hold ones peace, to kepe silence.

Fata me premunt, fate or destenie is agaynst me. Inuitam pressit ab ædibus, he thrust hir out of the house agaynst hir will.

Canitiem galea premimus, I cover my hore head with a basenet.

Premi bello, to be combred or overlaied with warre.

Hoc vno vitio maxime premi videntur, among many other thynges, me thynketh this one faute doeth most charge or burden them.

Prepon, of the latines called Decorum.

Prendo, looke Prehendo.

Prensare, looke Prehensare.

Presa porca, a swine, whiche was offered in sacrifice to Ceres, in satisfaction for a whole householde: for as muche as a parte of that sacrifice was made in the presence of the corpse, whiche than was to be buried.

Présbyter, byteri, m. gen. an auncient or father in peres or dignitee, an elder. it is vsed for a preste.

Pressatus, a, um, oppressed, charged, troden downe, squised.

Presse, in kewr woordes, brickely.

Presso, aui, are, to presse or thruste together, to squise.

Pressare vbera, to milke.

Parce pressare, id est, vide ne premas.

Pressorius, a, um, any thynge that belongeth to pressynge.

Pressus, a, um, subtile, compacte, heauy, pressed. sometyme ỹ hath a marke printed or coyned on.

Pressus & Redundans, contrarie.

Presso gradu incedere, to go a rounde and stes by pase.

Pressus homo in explicanda re aliqua, short, compendious, nothyng superfluous.

Ore presso obmutuit, he helde his tungue and spake neuer a woorde.

Verba pressa, shorte, compacte.

Pressūra, æ, f. g. a pressyng.

Pressus, us, m. g. pressyng.

Prester, prestēris, m. ge. a venemous woorme, called also Dipsas. also a kind of whirle wind.

Pretiosè, pretiously, richely.

Pretiósior, pretiosius, more precious or deere.

Pretiósus, a, um, precious, dere, of great estimacion, sumptuous.

Emptor pretiosus, he that geueth much for a thynge.

Prétium, tij, n. g. the price or value. also the reswarde. sometyme perill or daungier.

Pretio emptas meo, bought with my peryll or daungier.

Pretium ob stultitiam fero, I am well rewarded for my folye, I am serued lyke a foole.

Hominē maximi pretij te iudicaui, I thought the a man worthy to bee muche set by or esteemed.

med.

Parui pretij homo eſt, he is a man that is but litteli woꝛthe, oꝛ littell to be ſet by, oꝛ eſteemed.

Pretium facere alicui rei, id eſt, imponere, to ſet oꝛ make a pꝛice.

Proſtare pretio, to lie abꝛode to be ſolde.

Corticis ad medicamenta pretium eſt, The rynde oꝛ barke is muche wooꝛthe oꝛ eſteemed in phiſike.

Iacent pretia prædiorum, fermes be littell ſet by, oꝛ compted littell wooꝛthe.

Niſi pretium foret noſcere. &c. except it were a matter woꝛthy the mentionyng to know. ꝛc.

Pretium operæ, loke Operæ pretium.

Priapeion, viola purpurea. Dioſc.

Pri, of olde tyme was vſed foꝛ Præ.

Priamides, the ſonne oꝛ nephew of Priamus.

Priamus, the noble kynge of Troie, whoſe hiſtoꝛie is notably knowen.

Priapiſmus, mi, m. ge. a ſickeneſſe, wherein the priuie membꝛe of a man alwaie ſtandeth, without haupng any appetite to lecherie.

Priapus, an idole, vnto whom the papynms committed theiꝛ gardeins to kepe. alſo a citie of Helleſpont.

Pridem, late, ſometyme long agone.

Non ita pridem, not long befoꝛe that tyme.

Pridiânus, a, um, that whiche is done the daye befoꝛe.

Pridiani cibi, meates dꝛeſſed the daie befoꝛe.

Pridie, on the daie befoꝛe.

Vſq; ad pridie calendas, vntill the daie befoꝛe the calendes.

Pridie eius diei venit, he came the daie befoꝛe.

Prienæ, a citie of Ionia.

Primæuus, a, um, the elder.

Primânus, ni, m. g. the tꝛibune that aſſigned tꝛibute to the fiꝛſte legion.

Primârius, a, um, chiefe.

Primarius lapis, the ſtone that is fiꝛſte laied in the foundation.

Primarius vir, the chiefe man in the citee.

Adoleſcẽs primarius, an excellent pong man.

Primas, ãtis, m. gen. chiefe in authoꝛitee among the people.

Primæ, the chiefe pꝛeyſes, loke Primus, a, um.

Cui primæ ſine controuerſia deferebantur, to whom without controuerſie the chiefe laude and pꝛaiſe was geuen.

Primâtus, us, m. g. the chiefe authoꝛitee.

Primatum dare alicui rei, to eſteeme a thynge moꝛe then any other.

Primétium, tij, neu. gene. ſacꝛifice of the eares of coꝛne, whiche were fiꝛſt gathered after they were reaped.

Primicérius, rij, maſc. ge. a pꝛinces chiefe ſecꝛetarie. alſo the chiefe of any other authoꝛitie oꝛ dignitee.

Primigénius, a, um, that cometh naturally of it ſelfe, and is vnmixte, that hath not the beginnyng of an other,

Primigénia, the title of the eldeſt childe in inheꝛitance.

Primigenus, a, um, fiꝛſt boꝛne oꝛ gꝛowen.

Primipara, æ, f. g. ſhe that hath hiꝛ fiꝛſt child.

Primipes, he that in battaile fighteth fiꝛſt with a ſwoꝛde, and after changeyng his foꝛme of fightyng, vſeth a tauelyn oꝛ darte.

Primipilâris, ris, is he that fighteth neꝛte to the ſtandarde. it is moſt pꝛopꝛely the capitain of a companie in the foꝛewarde.

Primipilus, li, m. g. a capitayne of a companie in the foꝛewarde oꝛ vantgarde, whiche had vnder hym. 400 ſouldiours.

Primiter, & primitus, fiꝛſte.

Primitiæ, ârum, fœm. ge. plu. the fiꝛſt fꝛuites, whiche be offeꝛed to god.

Primitius, a, um, the fiꝛſt oꝛ foꝛmoſte.

Primitiuus, a, um, that whiche hath none other beginnyng.

Primò, an aduerbe, ſignifieth fiꝛſte, at the fiꝛſte ſyght.

Primodum, foꝛ Primo.

Primogénia verba, wooꝛdes, whiche be not deꝛiued fꝛom any other.

Primogénitus, a, um, fiꝛſte begotten, although none be gotten after.

Primórdium, dij, n. g. the fiꝛſt beginnyng.

Primoris, gen. fin. plur. Primores, morum, the fiꝛſte, the chiefe.

Primores viri aut fœminæ, noble men oꝛ women, oꝛ gentilmen oꝛ gentilwomen.

Digitulis primoribus, with the fingers toppes oꝛ endes.

Labris primoribus, with the foꝛe paꝛte of the lippes.

Primoribus labris guſtare, to touch a thynge ſcantly, to ſmatteꝛ of a thing, and not to know it ſubſtantially oꝛ peꝛfectly, to haue a ſuperficiall knowlage.

Primulus, the diminutiue of Primus.

Primulum, fooꝛthwith, fiꝛſte.

Primum, an aduerbe, whiche ſignifieth fiꝛſte, eꝛ euer, at the beginnynge, fiꝛſte and foꝛmoſt, foꝛ the fiꝛſte pointe.

Vt primum, as ſone as.

Vt primum illam vidi, nunq; vidi poſtea, I neuer ſawe hiꝛ but ones: oꝛ I neuer ſawe hiꝛ ſens I ſaw hiꝛ fiꝛſte.

Primus, a, um, fiꝛſte, beſte, the chiefe, the moſte excellent and pꝛincipall.

Primo quoque tempore, at the fiꝛſte tyme, as ſone as any occaſion, tyme, oꝛ opoꝛtunitee ſhall be geuen.

Prima quaq; occaſione, at the fiꝛſte occaſion that ſhall happen.

Primas tenere, vel ferre, to haue the pꝛehemiſnence, to be chiefe, to holde the better paꝛt, to haue the ſoueꝛaintie, to beaꝛe the bell.

Primas dare, to eſteeme aboue other, to geue the ſoueꝛaintee.

Primam mammam dedit hæc, this woman gaue gaue hym firſt ſuche.

Hoc ego vel primum puto, this do I thynke e= uen principall and chiefe of all.

Primam dices ſcio, ſi uideris, I know well thou wilte ſaie, there is none to be compared to hir, if thou didſt ones ſee hir.

Sum apud te primus, you loue me beſte of all men: or no man is in ſo great fauour, truſte or credite with you as I am.

Qui eſſe primos ſe omnium rerum volunt, whiche wolde haue preheminence aboue all o= ther: or whiche deſire to be higheſt of all and be moſte had in honour: or that wolde rule the roſte, or bee the ryng leaders in all thyng.

Primo mane, prima luce, primo diluculo, in the dawnyng or ſpryng of the day, pearly in the morning.

Prima fronte, primo aſpectu, prima ſpecie, at the firſt ſight.

Laus prima illis eſt, they are moſt eſteemed, preyſed or ſet by.

Prima, in the plurall nombre, for Principia, the beginnyng.

Si prima ſatis proſpera fuiſſent, if he had had good proſperitee, or good ſucceſſe at the begin= nyng.

Primo acceſſu, incontinente at his firſte com= myng.

Aeſtas prima incæperat, ſummer was newe begunne.

Labris primis guſtare, idē quod primoribus.

Quæ tu putaris prima, that you haue thought chiefe, beſt, and principall.

Primis tenebris, id eſt, cœpta nocte, in the be= ginnyng of the night, in the euenyng.

Veſpera prima, by and by as ſoone as the e= uenyng came.

A primo, for Ab initio.

A primo homo inſanibat, at the beginnyng the man was verey fierſe, woode, or ſtarke madde.

In primis, chiefely, ſpecially.

Primula veris, ſome ſuppoſe it to be daiſes. Ru= ellius ſuppoſeth it to bee a kynde of Verbaſ= cum.

Princeps, cipis, com. g. a prince or princeſſe, a gouernour, a chiefe head or rular, he or ſhe that hath the ſoueraintie or dominion, a noble man or woman, a chiefe man in a citee or countrey. alſo the firſte or chiefe.

Princeps prælium inibat, id eſt, primus, he firſte beganne the battaile.

Poſtremus and Princeps, contrary.

Princeps eſſe ad pericula, to be the firſt or for= moſte in al perils and daungerous aduentures.

Princeps, is ſometyme the order among the ca= pitaynes, or leaders in the vawarde, or rather amonge the moſte experte and ſtrongeſt ſouldi= ours, called of the romaines Principes.

Octauum principem duxit, id eſt, octauum ordinem inter principes.

Princeps legis agrariæ, id eſt, author, the chiefe doer, or firſt beginner.

Princeps ſermonis ordiendi fuit, he was the firſte begynner of this communication or reaſ= ſonynge.

Princeps, is vſed adiectiuely.

Principem locum inter grammaticos tenuit, he was chiefe or principall amonge the gram= marians.

Dies imperij princeps, the firſte date of his empire or reigne.

Princeps menſis, Januarie.

Principem habuimus Panſam, we had Panſa our chiefe fauourer and helper.

Principalis, le, principall. alſo perteinynge to a prince, that belongeth to the firſte or chiefe.

Principaliter, principally, lyke a prince, as it be= cometh a prince.

Principatus, us, maſ. ge. the ſouerainte or lorde ſhip, dominion, the principalme or ſeignorie.

Dare principatum alicui rei, to eſteeme a thyng more than any other, to geue the pryce and prize to any thyng.

Ferre principatum alicuius belli, to be ſoue= raine capitaine of any warre.

Vtquiſque ætate antecellit, ita ſententiæ prin cipatum tenet, euery man accordyng to his age pronounceth his ſentence, or ſaieth his opinis on.

Principatu Claudij, in the tyme while Claudi= us was emperour.

Principatum dare homini, to preyſe a man a= boue all other. alſo to attribute to hym the ſo= uerainte or dominion.

Tenere principatum alicuius rei, to bee the principall or chiefe doer in any matter.

Penes ipſum eſt principatus, he hath the chiefe parte.

Principio, an aduerbe, firſte, or at the begyn nyng, firſt and formoſte.

Principio atque, id eſt, quum Primum, vel ſtatim poſtquam.

Principia, ôrum, n. g. plu. the place in a campe, where as are pight the pauilions of the head ca= pitains: but the more proper ſignification there of is, that it is the ſeconde warde in battaile, where in olde tyme were the princes and noble men, or the chiefe and principall ſouldiours. Alſo it was taken for the order or rate of no= ble men, or of the moſte experte and principall ſouldiours, whoſe bande is alſo called Prin= ceps.

Eſſe poſt principia, to ſtande in the rate be= hynde the chiefe and principall ſouldiours out of danger.

Principium, pij, neu. ge. the beginnynge, an en= trance, a proheme, the fountayne, the well ſpryng, the chiefe originall of any thyng.

Bene habent tibi principia, thou haſt good for= tune or ſucceſſe at the beginnynge.

Prior, prius, the firſte, the formoſte.

Prio=

Prior tempora, the olde tyme.
Priore libro, id est, præcedente.
Priores nostri, id est, maiores.
Prisce, aduerbium, after the maner of olde tyme, or of tyme paste.
Priscianus, a notable grammarian.
Priscus, the name of diuers men.
Priscus, a, um, auncient or of the olde tyme.
Pristinus, a, um, that is certayne yeres monethes or dayes passed, within the tyme that we may remembre also lyeste.
Pristina nostra benevolentia, our olde frendshyp and herte loue.
Pristis, is, f. g. a fysshe of wonderfull length and slender, wayth cutteth the wawes as the swyms myth: of the fysshe. ſſe whereof a longe galie is called Pristis.
Priuatim, & priuatè, priuely, a parte, priuately, particularly, peculiarly.
Priuatim & publice, contrary.
De his priuatim condidit volumen, he made a particular boke of these matters: or he wrote of these matters aparte and by them selues.
Priuatio, ônis, f. g. the taking awaie of any thing.
Priuatus, he that is in none authoritee or dignitee.
Priuatus, a, um, that is properly a mans owne, that whiche pertaynyth to one man or fewe. also particular. sometyme it signifieth depriued, that hath any thyng taken from hym.
Priuatum & commune, contrarie.
Priuatæ feriæ, priuate holy dayes obserued perticularly of any familie.
Vita priuata, a priuate life, out of authoritee or office.
Res quæ ipsius erant priuatæ, whiche appertayned to hym onely.
Priuato consilio, of his own proper counsaile.
Priuatum odium, particular hatred towarde any man.
Luminе priuatus, blynde.
Priuatus stipendio, that hath his wages taken from hym, put out of wages.
Priuernum, a towne in Campania.
Priuignus, ni, m gen. or Priuigna, næ, fœ. ge. the childe by an other husbande, or an other wife, which is dead, sonne or daughter in lawe to the husband or wife.
Priuilegium, gij, n gen. a lawe concernyng priuate persons. also a priuate or speciall lawe, a priuilege. also a preheminence or prerogatiue aboue other.
Priuilegiatus, a, um, that hath a priuilege or licence graunted.
Priuo, aui, are, to take awaie, to depriue.
Priuare communi luce, to kyll, to putte to deathe.
Priuare oculis, to put out ones eies, to make hym blynde.
Aegritudo me somno priuat, my sickenesse will not let me slepe, or maketh me that I can not slepe.
Prius, an aduerbe, signifieth before, more excellent.
Nihil prius, there is nothynge better or more excellent.
Prius tua opinione hic adero, I will be here sooner then ye thynke for.
Prius ortu solis, before the sonne risynge.
Priusq̃, before that.
Priuus, a, um, priuate, singular. euery mans owne or proper, also for Singulus, euery one by hym selfe.
Vt priuos lapides secum ferrent, that euery one shulde beare a stone with hym.
Pro, for, before, because, also in, in the stede or place, as, as it were, also after or accordyng.
Pro rostris, at the barre or place of pleadyng.
Pro tribunali, in the place of iudgement, before the iudge.
Pro Platonis sententia, accordyng to the sentence of Plato.
Pro opere, in the woorke.
Pro merito, accordyng to his deserueng.
Pro curia, before the court.
Pro virili, to my power.
Pro comperto, for a surette.
Pro explorato, idem.
Pro indiuiso, without diuision.
Pro nihilo ducere, to set naught by.
Pro ridiculo putare aliquem, to laugh at one and make hym a foole, to repute one as a laughyng stocke.
Nemo satis pro merito gratiam regi refert, no man doeth requite the king accordyng to his merites.
Pro opibus nostris, according to our power.
Pro mea consuetudine, accordynge to my custome.
Pro spe nihil contigit, nothyng happened accordyng as men hoped: or it happened nothyng, as we hoped that it wolde.
Pro virili parte, to my power, or his power.
Pro rata parte, accordynge to his rate or portion.
Consilium pro tempore & pro re capere, to take counsayle accordyng as the tyme and matter requireth.
Pro horum temporum perturbatione, consyderyng the troublous state of this tyme.
Pro mea autoritate videor posse, me thinketh that I may doe it by myne office or authoritie that I am in.
Pro re nata, accordyng to this present case, or as the present case requireth.
Pro meo iure dico, I tell you frankely.
Pro meo iure, by myne authoritee.
Pro suo iure agere omnia, To doe all thynges at his owne pleasure, or by his owne authoritee.
Pro cætera tua diligentia admones me, accordyng to the diligence that you haue vsed afore tyme, or as you haue ben diligent afore tyme alwaie, so you are now to warne me, or put me in mynde. &c.

Excubare pro templis, to watch in the temple or churche.

Laudari pro concione, preyſed before all the people, or at a great aſſembly.

Pro ſuggeſtu, in the pulpitte.

Pro æde Iouis, before the temple of Iupiter.

Pro ſe quiſq; euery man to his power.

Pro teſtimonio dicere, to beare witneſſe.

Maior quàm pro numero hominum æditur pugna, the battaile was greater then one woulde haue thought ſhoulde haue ben of that numbre of perſones.

Pro eo ac debui grauiter moleſtè tuli, I toke it greuouſely euen as I had cauſe, or as my duetie and parte was.

Gerere ſe pro ciue, to vſe hym ſelfe as he were a citezin.

Pro derelicto aliquid habere, to forſake a thing, to eſteeme it nothyng.

Vnus Cato mihi eſt pro centum millibus, onely Cato is to me as it were a hundred thouſande.

Verbum pro verbo reddere, to tranſlate worde for worde.

Pro mea parte adiuui, I dyd helpe hym as muche as I coulde.

Pro ignoto aſpernari, to contemne a man as it were one that he neuer knewe before.

Amaui pro meo, I loued him as it had ben myne owne ſonne.

Pro certo eſt, it is for certayne, it is for a ſurete.

Pro delitiis crudelitas illi fuit, he toke pleaſure or delited in his cruelties.

Pro damnato eſſe, to be as a perſon condemned.

Pro parente colere, to haue in as great reuerence as though he were his father.

Pro rupto fœdus habebant, they reputed the league to be broken.

Pro opinione vulgi, after the opinion of the cõmon people.

Hæc pro amore mutuo ſcripſi, theſe thinges I haue writen for the mutuall loue that is betwene vs.

Duo talenta pro re noſtra decreui eſſe ſatis, I haue determined, that one. C. li is enough for one of my ſubſtance.

Pro meo iure imperitabam, I did commaunde you on the vertue of mine authorite.

Non neceſſe habeo, omnia pro meo iure agere, I neede not to doo all thynges ſo rigorouſly and extremely, as I maie do them.

Satis pro imperio quiſquis es, imperiouſely ſpoken who ſo euer thou be.

Pro agricola, for the plough mans profite.

Si modo id pro me erat, if ſo bee that made for my parte, or were profitable for me.

Pro eo acſi confeſſum ſit, euen as though it were confeſſed.

Pro eo eſt acſi adhibitus non eſſet, it is euen as though he had not ben taken for any of the.

Pro aliquo ſtare, to defende one, to ſpeake in his parte.

Prô, an interiection of indignation, and is aſſigned ſometyme to an accuſatiue, ſometyme to a vocatiue.

Prô ſancte Iupiter, O bleſſed Iupiter.

Prô deum atque hominum fidem, O the faith of god and man.

Proædifico, aui, are, to build farther.

Proædificatum, that is builded further then a mannes owne grounde vpon the hynges high waye.

Proagogium, gĩj, n. ge. aduoutrie, hoordome, baudes craft.

Proaſtia, pleaſant places in the countrey, which a man hepeth rather for pleaſure then profite.

Proauthor, ôris, m. gene. the chiefe author or beginner.

Proâuus, ui, m. g. a great grandefather.

Proâuia, æ, f. g. a great grand dame.

Probabilis, le, probable. alſo that is to be alowed or liked.

Probabiliter, probably.

Illa cur eueniant, quis probabiliter dixerit, how thoſe thynges maie come to paſſe, who can tell any reaſonable cauſe.

Probabilitas, âtis, f. g. an apparance of trouth, probabilitee.

Probatica piſcina, a ponde, where sheepe were waſhed when they ſhoulde be ſacrificed.

Probátio, ônis, f. g. a proufe.

Probatio futura eſt tua, it is thy parte to ſee the thyng done, and to allow it.

Probâtor, ôris, m. g. a prouer.

Probâtus, a, um, proued, tried, allowed.

Probe, honeſtely, well, wiſely, ioyned with a noune adiective, it ſignifieth Valde.

Probe appotus, that hath well drunke.

Curaſti probe, thou haſt handled the matter well: or thou haſt ben diligent in the matter.

Habeo pro illa re illum quod monearn probe, I knowe what to tell hym in his eare for that well enough.

Percutere probe, to ſtrike harde.

Probe, it is well done or ſaied of the.

Probe memini, I remembre very well.

Probiſſimus, the ſuperlatiue.

Prôbitas, âtis, f. g. honeſtie, goodneſſe.

Prôbiter, vſed of olde writers for Probe.

Problema, blematis, n. ge. a ſentence propoſed, haunge a demaande thereto annexed.

Prôbo, aui, are, to proue, to praiſe, to approue, to allaie, to ſhewe by reaſon or exãple that a thyng is good, to perſwade one, to approue a thynge as good, honeſt, and ſtandyng with reaſon.

Probare ſe, to declare him ſelfe an honeſt man.

Tuo ex ingenio alienos mores probas, thou eſteemeſt other men to be lyke the, or to be aſſoryng to thy conditions.

Non

Non vereor, ne hoc officium meum iudici non probem, I feare not, but that I am able to perſwade the iudge, that this friendely ſeruice of myne is honeſt and good.

Mihi neutiq̃ p̃bari potuit, I coulde not bee perſwaded to thynke that it was honeſt.

Laudare, & probare.

Probare aliquid in aliquo, to allowe or approue a thynge in one.

Quæ non probantur in vulgus, whiche the common people dooe not approue or allowe.

Probare diligentiã ſuam in re aliqua, to ſhew in any mattier that he is diligent.

Facile vt pro eunucho probes, that ye may eaſily feigne and make men beleeue that you are an eunuche.

Nemini probatur, none dooeth praiſe or allow it.

Amicos probato, proue and aſſay thy frendes.

Probare cauſam ſuã alicui, to proue his cauſe good before one.

Proboſcis, boſcidis, f. g. a longe ſnoute, as an Oliphant or ſwyne hath.

Probro, aui, are, to reproche or rebuke.

Probroſus, a, um, reprocheſull.

Probrum, bri, n. g. a reproche full acte. as horedome, aduoutrie, villanie. Alſo a reproche or rebuke, an vnfamie, diſhoneſtie.

Epiſtolæ plenæ probrorum, letters full of reprocheſull wordes.

Probra ingerere, intendere, iacere, iactare, dicere alicui, or in aliquem, to ſpeake reprocheſull woordes or raple againſt one.

Inſimulare probri mulierem, to accuſe a woman of aduoutrie.

Magno tibi probro futurum eſt, it wyll bee great reproche or diſhonour to you.

Probus, a, um, good, honeſte.

Probus Berittus, a grammarian.

Proca, cæ, f. g. a faune, a ponge doe.

Procacitas, ãtis, f. g. malepertenelle, or wantonneſſe in aſkynge or craupng, ſaucineſſe.

Procaciter, malapertely, wantonly, without ſhame, without grace, ſaucily.

Procamption, idem quod Abrotonum. Dioſc.

Procapis, a progenie, which cometh of one head.

Procax, ãcis, om. g. malaperte in aſkynge or deſpring, ſhameleſſe, wanton in craupnge, alway craupng, yll tounged.

Procalo, aui, are, to call one to.

Procedo, ceſſi, cedere, to goe or walke forth, to procede, to proſpere, to goe out of the houſe wt a great pompe or ſolemne companie or trayne.

Procede tu huc, come thou hyther.

Procedere obuiam, to goe to meete with one.

Procedite in medium, goe forthe.

Procedere in philoſophia, to profite in philoſophie.

Proceſſit ætate, he became or waxed olde.

Proceſſit eo inſolentiæ, he waxed ſo arrogãt and proude.

Eo ira proceſſit, the anger ſo encreaſed, or they waxed ſo angrie.

Totidem dies procedent emptori, the byer ſhall haue ſo many dates profite.

Nihil procedit, the thynge goeth nothyng forwarde, or proſpereth nothyng.

Aliquantum viæ proceſſero, I ſhall be ſomewhat forwarde on my way or iourney.

Obuiam morti procedere, whan death approcheth to proue our ſelues and ſhewe that we be willyng to die.

In multum vini proceſſerat, he had dronke ſomewhat to muche.

In pedes procedere naſcentem, to be borne into the worlde with the feete forwarde.

Proceſſit aliquantum ad virtutis aditum, he ſomewhat proſpred in the ſtudie of vertue.

In virtute procedere, to increaſe in vertue.

Ad opes procedere, to ware riche.

Longe honoribus proceſſiſſet, he had come to hygher auctoritee or dignitee. &c.

Cum ea voluntate proceſſit, he came forth hauyng this will or entent.

Proceſſit e caſtris, he departed out of the campe.

Procedere ad opus, to go about his buſines or worke.

In publicum procedere, to come abroade to ſhewe hym ſelfe.

Procedunt in ſublime vites, vines growe vp a great heyght.

Vſq; ad adoleſcentiam meam proceſſit ætate, he liued vntill the time that I was a yong man, or he was alyue when I was a yong man.

Num quid ad forum proceſſit hodie noui? was there any newes to date abroade.

Tempus proceſſit, the tyme paſſed on.

Procedit lepide ex ſententia, it proſpereth or goeth forwarde pleaſantly euen as we wolde haue it. Primo parum proceſſit, it went ſlowly forwarde at the firſt.

Procedens, entis, procedynge, that procedeth or goeth forth. Die procedente, the date paſſyng on. Tempore procedente, in proceſſe of tyme.

Proceſleumaticus, a foote in meeter, conſiſtyng of foure ſhort ſyllables.

Procella, læ, f. g. a great tempeſt of wynde, ſpecially on the ſea, and by tranſlation, a trouble or ruffelyng in a common weale.

Procello, procelli, lere, to ſtrike, to turne vpſet downe.

Procellôſus, a, um, ſtormie, tempeſtious.

Próceres, prócerum, plurali. nu. the heades or endes of the beames in buildyng, that lie without the wall: and by tranſlation the head men of a towne, gouernours, rulers.

Próceres gulæ, deinty mouthed felowes, that ſet all theyr delite on delycate feedyng.

Procerem, is read in Iuuenall.

Procęre, an aduerbe, whiche ſignifieth longe or of lengthe.

Procéritas, âtis, f. g. lengthe, talneſſe, heyght.
Proceritus, a, um, incenſed or prouoked with an yll ſpirite, madde or woode.
Proceriti lapides, vengeable.
Procérus, a, um, longe, tall, high.
Proceriſsimus, in Plinie.
Procet, for prouocet, leat hym prouoke, let hym appeale.
Proceſſus, us, m. g. proceſſe or ſucceſſe.
Habere proceſſum in literis, to haue profited well in learnyng.
Proceſtrium, ſtrĳ, n. g. an open place or galerie to goo from one chambre to an other: alſo the ouermoſte parte of the walles within the imbatilmentes, where men maie go: ſome doe call it a trenche before the campe, in the defence therof from artillary.
Procheton, the herbe Tuſsilago.
Prochirus, ri, maſ. g a clerke, ſcribe, or notarie, that hath a quicke hande.
Prochyta, tæ, or Prochyte, tes, an ile in the ſea, in the goulfe or rode of Puteolis, a citee in Campania. alſo a certayne veſſell.
Procidentia, æ, f. g. whan any thyng falleth out of his place.
Procidentia ani, whan the bumme of the fundament appereth out.
Prócido, cidi, dere, to fall downe proſtrate.
Ad pedes alicuius procidere, to fall downe at ones feete.
Prociduus, a, um, that falleth downe or out of his place.
Procieo, ciui, ciêre, to prouoke or call from farre of, to deſire, to aſke.
Procilius, a grammarion.
Procinctus, us, m. ge. the prouiſion before that any thynge is doen. alſo the ſtate of an armie, whan they be readie to geue battaile.
In procinctu facere, to doe a thynge readilie and promptly.
In procinctu ſtare, to be in a readineſſe.
In procinctu habere, to haue in a readineſſe.
Procinctus, a, um, redy, prepared, in a readines.
Procincta claſsis, a nauie of shippes prepared ready to fyght.
Procingo, xi, gere, to prepare, to make ready.
Procio, ciui, cire, to breake of, to make vayne and of none effecte.
Prócito, aui, are, to prouoke.
Prócitus, a, um, made voide and of none effecte.
Proclamátor, óris, m. g. a crier.
Proclâmo, aui, are, to crie out, to proclayme.
Proclinátio, ônis, f. g. a declinynge or bendynge downewarde.
Proclino, aui, are, idem quod Inclino.
Procliuis, ue, redy to fall, inclined. alſo redy or eaſy to be doen. Ingenium procliue, a nature inclined or bent to a thyng.
Procliue dictu eſt, it is an eaſie thyng to ſay.
Procliuiores alĳ ad alios morbos ſunt, ſome are more inclined or ſubiect to certaine diſeaſes than other be.
Id faciam in procliui quod eſt, I wyll do that that is eaſy to be doen: or that may ſone be wrought.
Procliuitas, âtis, f. g. inclination or diſpoſition to any thyng, facilitee.
Procliuiter, eaſily, redily.
Proclus, a noble philoſophier of Platos ſecte.
Proco, aui, are, to deſyre, to demaunde. and therfore wooers be called Proci. to aſke mainperneſly. alſo to dalie with wanton langage, to eie or beholde a woman wantonly.
Procœton, onis, m. g. a porche or entree before one come into a chambre.
Procomion, broth made of new barley.
Proconneſus, an yle in Propontis.
Proconſul, lis, m. g. he that was ſent with an extraordinarie power of Conſull into a prouince of the Romaines.
Proconſulâris, re, perteining to the Proconſull.
Proconſulâtus, us, m. g. the dignitee of hym that was in the conſullies ſtede.
Procopius, a learned man borne in Cæſaria, alſo a tyran of Conſtantinople, that rebelled againſt Valerius the emperour.
Procraſtinátio, ônis, f. g. a delaie, a dilyng of from daie to daie.
Procráſtino, aui, are, to prolonge the tyme, to deferre, to make delaie, to dyne of from daie to daie.
Procreátio, ônis, f. g. an ingendrynge or begetynge of childzen.
Procreátor, óris, m. g. one that ingendreth or begetteth.
Procreatrix, tricis, f. g. a mother, a damme.
Procreâtus, a, um, begotten, ingendred.
Prócreo, aui, are, to beget childzen, to ingendre.
Procreare alicui periculũ, to put one in daunger, to bring one in perill, to procure ones deſtruction.
Procreſco, creui, creſcere, to growe vp.
Procris, the daughter of Iphis, and wife of Cephalus.
Procúbitor, óris, m. g. he that keepeth watche and warde without the campe.
Prócubo, aui, are, to watche.
Procûdo, cudi, dere, to ſtrike or beate a thing to make it leſſe or thinner.
Procudere dolos, to inuent deceites and gyles.
Procudere linguam, to frame or facion the tongue to ſpeake.
Procul, an aduerbe, farre of, from farre.
Cuius vox auribus ſonat procul? Whoſe voice doe I here a farre of?
Procul errant, they are farre out of the way, they be greatly deceiued.
A me culpam hanc eſſe procul, that I am not thyng giltee in this mattier.
Quis tam procul à literis? quin. &c. who is ſo vtterly vnlearned, but that. &c.
De procul, a farre of.
Procul, is ſometime a prepoſition, and ſeruyth

eyther

either to an accusatiue, or an ablatiue case.
Nec procul cæde aberant, They were almost slaine.
Procul muro, farre of from the wall.
Procul dubio, surely, without doubt, without question.
Illud procul vero est, that is farre from the matche, or verie false.
Procul vrbem, farre from the citee.
Procul muros, farre from the walles.
Proculco, aui, are, to treade downe, to go vpon.
Proculcio, ere, to extende, to prompte.
Proculeius, a gentelman of Rome, verie familiar with Augustus.
Proculunt, olde writers vsed for Promittunt, they promyse.
Prôculus, li, m. g. he that is borne whan his father is farre out of the countrey: or after some, whan his father is verie olde.
Procumbo, cúbui, cúmbere, to lie flatte or prostrate, to come narowe together. sometyme to bende downe towarde the ground, as the toppes of some herbes doe.
Procumbere genibus, ad genua, & ad pedes, to fall downe prostrate at ones feete.
Tecta super habitantes procumbunt, the houses fall downe vpon them that dwell in them.
Procuratio, ônis, fœ. g ministration of thinges concernyng an other man. also purgeyng or pleasyng of god by sacrifice.
Negotij publici procuratio, the charge, ministration, and dooyng of a matter concernyng the common weale.
Procurator, ôris, m. g. a proctour, or factour, a solicitour.
Procuratrix, tricis, the feminine
Procuratorius, a, um, pertaynyng to a proctour, factour, or solicitour.
Procuro, aui, are, to doe or solicite an other mans businesse, to haue the charge of an other mans businesse. also to purge by sacrifice, to vse the diligentlie, to helpe, succeyne or succour. sometyme for Curare, to take heede of a thynge.
Procurare prouinciam, to gouerne and rule the countrey.
Procurare prodigia, To vse certaine ceremonies and sacrifice, to the entent that thynges monstrouse should not take anye ill effecte.
Corpora procurare, to cherisshe and refreshe their bodies.
Procurare arbores, To housbande and keepe trees, that they maie growe and prosperе.
Procurrens, entis, rennyng out, extendyng out in length.
Procurro, curri, currere, to ren forth or beyonde.
Procurrere in vias, to ren forth into ỹ stretes.
Procursátio, ônis, a rennynge out to shirmisshe or fyght.
Procursio, ônis fœ. g. a rennyng out. also a digression, a course.
Procurso, aui, are, to ren out often to shirmisshe or fyght, to renne out vpon the enemies.
Procursus, us, masc. ge. a course or rennyng out of souldioures to shirmisshe or fyght with their ennemies.
Procuruus, a, um, verie croked.
Procursatores, foyerpders in battaile.
Procus, i, m g a wower to haue a woman in maryage, but most properly where there be.ii. whiche woweth euery one for hym selfe.
Proci Penelopes, a name geuen to them whiche in wanton pastymes dooe consume bothe their owne goodes and also others, whom they haunt vnto.
Procustes, a notable robber of Attica, slayne by Hercules.
Procyon, a sterre called the dogge sterre, whiche appeareth in the canicular daies.
Prodeambulo, aui, are, to walke forth, to walke abroade.
Prodeo, iui, vel, dij, ire, to goe forth or out of an house, to come before one.
Prodire in aciem, to set them selfe in arate of battaile and marche forth to fight with their enemies.
Prodire obuiam, to go against one, or to goe to mete one whiche is comyng
Prodire in publicum, to goe or come abrode to be sene, to goe abrode in the stretes.
Ad me prodeunt, they come forth a doores to me. Extra modum prodire, to passe measure.
In conspectum alicuius prodire, to come in ones syght.
Proditur, the impersonall.
Prodico, dixi, dicere, to speake more, to prate.
Quamobrem excutiemus omnes istorum deliras, omnes ineptias, si prodixerint, whereforе we will set forth all these mens pleasures and phantasies, if they will prate anye more.
Prodictátor, ôris, m g he that extraordinarily is ordeined dictatour, for some sodein necessitee or perill.
Prodicus, a rhetorician, Theramenes maister, also a sophister.
Prodigialiter, monstrously, out of all course.
Prodigiosè, monstrously, straungely, contrary to all naturall course.
Prodigè, excessyuely, outragiously, prodigally, wastfully.
Prodigiális, le, that which pertayneth to the procuryng of strange tokens or signes.
Prodigiátor, ôris, m. gene he that by straunge signes or tokens telleth before what shall afterwarde happen.
Prodigiósus, a, um, that whiche maketh strange signes or tokens. also that is monstrouse or contrary to the common course of nature.
Prodigiosa pretia, vnreasonable prices.
Prodigitas, átis, and Prodigentia, æ, f. ge. prodigalitee, immoderate spendynge.
Prodigium, ij, neu. gen. a thyng seldome seene, whiche signifieth that some thyng shall happen verie good or ill. As blasyng sterres, fyres or fygures in the firmament, thynges mõstruouse or against nature.

Prodigio simile, a monstruouse thyng, a wons
derfull mattier.

Pródigo, dégi, digere, to lasche out money in vaine, or in thinges not necessarie, to consume or spende riotouslie, also to drive farre of.

Cum matribus in pabulum prodigunt, they drive theim forth with their dammes to pasture or feedyng.

Pródigus, a, um, prodigall, wastfull, an outra gious spender, riotous, sometyme it is vsed for liberall.

Prodigæ hostiæ, sacrifices that be consumed.

Animæ prodigus, he ꝑ passeth not for his life.

Prodimentum, ti, n. g. a treason or betrayng.

Prodinunt, vsed of Ennius, to issue or come forth.

Proditio, ônis, treason, discryng, bewrayng.

Próditor, ôris, m. gen. a traitour, one that be wrayeth.

Próditus, a, um, betraied, bewraied, discried, detected, also vttered, declared.

Dies prodita, id est, ædita.

Prodius, further in.

Prodo, didi, dere, to put of or drive of or from,
to cast farre of, to shewe, to disclose, to appea che, to accuse, to bewraie, to vtter, to discrie, to betraie, also to name, to deceyue, to forsake one in his neede, to leaue without succour or helpe, to prolonge, to deferre, to delaie, to yelde geue or rendre vp into ones handes, to write, to put in writyng.

Tibi nos prodimus ac confitemur cistellam habere, thus we saie and confesse vnto you, that we haue the casket.

Prodere conscios, to appeche, discrie, and be wraie his felowes.

Prodere dogma, to disclose the secretes.

Prodidisti & te, & illam miseram & gnatum, thou hast deceiued and betraied thy selfe, and also the poore woman and thy sonne.

Antequam arcem proderent hostibus, before that they had rendered vp the castell to their ennemies.

Prodere posteris, to leue to the memorie of theim that come after vs.

Prodere patriam, to betraie his own countrey.

Prodere exemplum, to punyshe men to the example of other. also to shewe and geue an ex ample to other.

Prodere fidem, to falsifie his faithe, to doe cõ trarie to his alegiance, or his solemne promise.

Prodere legem, to frustrate the entent of the lawe, as whan one taketh vpon him to accuse a misdoer, and doeth not pursue it.

Prodere officium, to do countrarie to his duti tee, or not to doe his duitee.

Prodere gloriam & laudem posteris, to leaue after him example of praise and renoume.

Prodere vitam, to put his life in ieopardie.

Prodere interregem, to name hym that shal occupie the roume of a kynge or ruler vntyll a other be chosen.

Prodidit memoria, it is written.

Vt quidam poëtæ prodiderunt, as some poë tes haue written.

Vt aliquot saltem nuptiis prodat dies, that he will at the least wise prolonge or delaie the mar riage, for two or three daies.

Ad memoriam posteritatemq; prodendam, id est, propagandam.

Caput & salutem alicuius prodere, for mony to betraie one and put his life in ieopardy.

Prodere imitationem exempli, To shewe or geue an example for other to folowe.

Prodere memoriam alicuius facti, to cause a acte to be remembred.

Prodas primum pecuniam omnem, q̃ abs te amittas filium, depart rather with all the mo ney that thou hast. &c.

Prodere literis, monumentis, & prodere memoriæ, to put in writyng.

Fama prodidit, it was a saiyng or rumour.

Pródromus, i, m. ge. he that renneth before as a lackey, or he that bryngeth tidinges of ones comynge.

Prodromi, be also sterres in heauen, which doe rise in the northe east. viii. daies before the canicular daies.

Ficus prodromi, figges that bee ripe before the other.

Produco, duxi, cere, to prolonge, to drawe in lengthe, to stretche out, to bryng forthe, to cõ sume or spende, to set forth to hyre, or to bryng forthe to be solde, to folowe.

Conuiuium ad multam noctem vario sermo ne producimus, with talkynge of diuers mat tiers, we prolonged the supper, vntyll it was late in the nyght.

Paulatim hunc diem producam, I will pass forth this daie by litle and litell.

Vt huic malo aliquam producam moram, that I maie finde some meane to deferre or de laie this mischiefe.

Noctem producere vino, to passe the nyght in drynkyng and quaffyng.

Pelles dentibus producere, to drawe or stret che out shynnes with ones teeth.

Vitam producere, to prolonge the lyfe.

Quos ante ædes huc produci iussi, whiche I cõmanded to be brought hither before the doze.

Authorem vel testem producere, To cite or bryng forth an authour or witnesse.

Producere aliquem, to drive of one with wor des and promises. also for Promouere, to pro mote or aduaunce one.

Falsa spe producis, thou leadest or feedest me forth with a vaine hope, thou bringest me in a fooles paradise.

Producere aliquem ad aliquid, pro inducere.

Pro-

Producere filios, to bringe foorth children.
Filiam producere, id est, Prostituere, to bee bawde to ones owne daughter.
Producere scelus, to commit a naughtie act.
Producte, an aduerbe, signifieth longe.
Producte dicitur, it is pronounced longe.
Productilis, le, that whiche is made out at length with beatyng.
Productio, ônis, f. g. the makynge of a thynge longe.
Productus, a, um, made longe, or set out at length, also brought or put out.
Flagellum vitis productissimum, a veraie longe shoote or branche of a vine
Præus, a kynge of Argyues, the son of Abas.
Profanatio, ônis, fœ. g. the makynge of a thynge profane that was halowed, prophanation.
Profanatus, a, um, suspended, vnhalowed, prophaned.
Profanatum templum, the churche suspended, where any horrible crime is therin committed.
Profano, aui, are, to conuerte thynges beyng halowed, to a temporall vse.
Profanum facere, idem.
Profanus, a, ũ, that whiche is not halowed, temporall, a man vnlearned, and that doeth hate learned men, a lay man, also vngodly, wicked, not consecrated or geuen to God: also that whiche is ioygned or annexed to the temple.
Profâris, vel profâre, fatur, fari, to prophecie, to pronounce, to speake abroade, to tell thynges to come.
Profatus, tus, a pronouncyng or speakyng.
Profectio, ônis, f. g. a passage or settynge foorth towarde, a viage, a departynge from the place where a man is, a goyng foorth.
Profectitius, a, um, an adiectiue.
Dos profectitia, dower that a woman hath besydes hir owne parentes.
Profecto, in very dede, forsoth, truly, doubtles.
Profectus, us, m. ge. profite that one taketh in or of any thyng.
Profectum facere, to profite or goe forwarde, properly in study or learnyng.
Profero, tuli, ferre, to bringe foorthe, to shewe foorthe, to take out, to pronounce, to speake, to tell abroade, to disclose, to vtter, to carie, to beare foorth, to allege, to laie for hym selfe, to recite, to recken, to deferre, to delate, to drawe in length, to enlarge, to dilate, or make greater, to prolonge, to laie to ones charge, to lay against one.
Proferre dolum, to put a deceite in experience.
Proferre gradum, to aduaunce hym selfe and goe forwarde.
Proferre audaciam, id est, ostendere.
Beneficium in aliquem proferre, to doe a benefite or pleasure for one.
In solem proferre, to bringe foorthe into the sonne.
Gradum proferre, to make speede.

Rem proferre palam, vtter the mattier plainly.
Custodire & proferre, contrarie.
Aliquid foras proferre, to tel a thyng abroade out of the house.
In lucem proferre, to set abroade to the knowledge of men.
Proferre se, to vtter them selues.
Proferre fines imperij, to dilate or extende the bounder of ones realme or dominion.
Imperium proferre, idem.
Aliquot dies profer, deferre or prolonge the matter a daie or two.
Proferre beatam vitam vsq; ad rogum, to bee happie or fortunate euen to his dienge daie, to continue in felicitee and wealthe, euen to the houre of his death.
Linguam proferre, to put out his tongue.
Proferre digitum, to holde out his finger.
Proferre gaudium oculis, to shewe by his eies that he is reposed and glad.
In conspectum proferre, to bringe foorth before men.
Quum lineam protulisset longissimam, whan he had made or drawen a verie longe line.
Legem qua fecerit proferat, leat hym alleage or shewe the lawe whereby he wyll doe it.
Professio, ônis, f. g. an open cõfession, an open readyng or lecture.
Professor, ôris, m. g. a reader in open schooles.
Professorius, a, um, that belongeth to open profession or readyng.
Professus, a, um, manifest, confessed.
Professi dies, woorke daies.
Profestum vulgus, the common people.
Proficio, prôficis, feci, ere, to profite, to proceede, to goe forwarde in a thyng. to doe good, preuaile or helpe muche in a thynge, also to bee holesome or medicinable.
Sed adhuc nihil profecit, but hitherto he hath nothynge profited or preuailed, or he hath doen no good in the mattier.
Adeps plurimum proficit, the fate helpeth muche, or is veraie holesome or medicinable.
Proficiscor, cisceris, ciscî, to goe foorthe, to come foorth or from, to departe, to begynne, to haue his beginnyng of any thyng.
Proficiscor Romam, I goe to Rome.
Proficiscor Roma, I come or retourne from Rome.
Quo profectus sum ibo, id est, quo cœperam, I wyll goe forthe and continue on my iourney as I beganne.
Profecta est illinc grandiuscula, she departed thens beyng of a good stature or age.
Proficisci ad somnum, to goe to sleepe.
In exilium proficisci, to goe in banishment.
Naui profectus est, he went in a shyppe.
Proficisci obuiam, to go to meete with one.
Proficisci ad reliqua, id est pergere, to tell on the residue that is behynde.
Ex humeris proficisci volunt omnia, they will hane all thinges to procede or haue their beginnyng of noumbres.

Omnia a me in te profecta sunt quæ ad tuum commodum pertinerent, I haue doen al thinges for you, that I thought to be for your commodite and profite.

Proficiscitur a meis consiliis tua laus, it is my counsayle that you haue gotten so great praise, or that you are come to so great honour and renoume.

Ab his initiis noster in te amor profectus. &c. our loue towardes you haupng this beginnynge. &c.

Quæcunq; a me ornamenta ad te proficiscuntur, what thinges so euer I do to the aduancement of your honour, or what so euer honorable benefites and pleasures I do for you.

Profindo, prófidi, ere, to cleaue.

Profiteor, éris, eri, to promise openlye, to tell frankely or boldely, also to tell or declare how muche a man hath of money, cattell, corne, or any other thynge, as men dor to visitours or other officers, also to speake or auaunt, to take vpon one, to confesse a thyng openly and freely. Also to discouer or confesse a thyng, also to reade a lesson openly.

Profiteri quod non possis implere, to profesle or take vpon the, that thou canst not performe.

Profiteri operam suam, to promyse his ayde helpe or seruice in a thyng.

Qui se sapientem profiteretur, which sayde or made his auaunt openly, that he was a wyse mã.

Hoc me profiteor suscepisse, I graunt or confesse to you, that I haue taken this vpon me.

Studia sua profiteri, to declare openly how they be affectioned or mynded.

Profiteri æs alienum, to confesse his debte, to confesse how muche he oweth, or what debte he is in.

Profiteri nomen, to tell his name and be enrolled.

Profiteri indicium, to appeache, accuse or bewraie hym selfe and his companions.

Profiteri se medicum, to take vpon hym to be a phisicion, to practise phisicke.

Profiãtus, us, m. g. a blowyng or blastyng.

Profligãtor, ôris, m. g. a naughtie packe, a riotous person.

Profligãtus, a, um, ouerthrowen, driuen away, put to flight, destroyed, sometyme it signifieth finished, brought to a poynt.

Profligati homines, men that haue wasted their substaunce in folie, very naughtie packes, very lewde persons.

Profligata ad perniciem, id est, redacta.

Quæstio profligata est, the question is dissolued.

Profligo, aui, are, to ouerthrowe, to dryue away, to bryng to destruction, to put to flight, also to dispatche or bryng to an ende.

Rem publicam profligare, to bryng the common weale almost to vtter confusion.

Profligauerat bellum, he had almost finished the warre and brought it past the worst.

Profligo, is, ere, to striue muche.

Profio, aui, are, to blowe, to blowe downe, to breath or puffe out.

Prófluens, us, m. g. a riuer.

Prófluens, entis, om. g. flowynge or rennynge pleasauntly lyke a ryuer.

Profluenter, aboundantly.

Profluéntia, æ, f. g. a flowynge or aboundance.

Profluo, xi, ere, to renne downe, to renne out of a thyng, to renne from farre.

Profluuium, ij, n. g. a flixe or lasche.

Profluuium mulierum, womens naturall purgation.

Profluuium narium, the pose.

Prófluus, a, um, that that floweth.

Profluus amnis, a riuer that floweth or renneth away.

Próforem, res, ret, fore, to profite.

Quæ nocuere sequar, fugiam quæ prófore credam, that whiche hath doen harme will I folowe, & eschewe will I those thynges, which I beleue will profite me.

Profugio, profugis, fugi, fugere, to flee farre, to flee or renne awaie as muche as one can.

Gnatus eius profugit inopia, his sonne ranne awaie, and hath forsaken the countrey for pouertye.

Profugere ex tempestatum periculis, to escape out of perille or daunger of any troublous tyme.

Profugium, ij, n. g. a place whereunto a man fleeth for succour, also a thynge whereunto one resorteth for succour, a place of refuge or helpe.

Profugus, i, m. g. he that goeth or is driuen farre out of his owne countrey.

Profúnditas, ãtis, f. g. deepenesse.

Profundo, fúdi, ere, to poure out largely, to spende exceedyngly, to spende out of measure.

Profundere palmites, is of a vine whan it sendeth out a great numbre of braunches.

Profundere clamorem, to crie out as lowde as one maie.

Profundere se in aliquem, to doe to one al the pleasure that lieth in his power.

Profundere vires animi atq; ingenii, to employe all his power & wit in bringynge a thynge to passe.

Profundere vitam vel sanguinem pro patria, to spende his lyfe in defence of his country.

Ignes profundere, id est, eminere.

Laborem profundere, to spende or waste his labour in vaine.

Profundere lachrymas, to wepe much and bitterly.

Odiũ inclusum profũdere, to vtter the grudge and hatred that hath lyne longe hyd in mennes stomaches.

Profundus, a, um, depe, sometyme hyth.

Cælum

Cælum profundum, the hygh heauen.
Profunda altitudo, excedyng great height.
Nox profunda, mydnyght, late in the nyght.
Summum & profundum, contrarie, the top and the bottome.
Profundum, is sometyme taken for the sea.
Profundi pater, Neptune.
Profunda auaritia, insaciable couetousnesse.
Profunda cupido imperij, insaciable and immoderate desyre of empyre and dominion.
Profunda libido, insaciable lecherie.
Profusè, in great aboundaunce.
Profusus, a, um, excedyng lyberall, verie aboundaunt, verie muche, verie sumptuous; also lyng downe flatte, prostrate.
Profusæ epulæ, excessiue banketyng.
Profusus sui, a riotous and superfluous spender of his owne substaunce, a waster.
Profusæ lachrymæ, teares plentifully renning downe.
Profusa hilaritas, dissolute or inordinate ioie or myrthe.
Progener, géneri, m. ge. the housebande of my daughters daughter, or sonnes daughter, sometyme the soone in lawes daughter.
Progemmo, aui, are, to burgen.
Progeneratio, onis, f. g. an engendryng.
Progénero, aui, are, to engendre or bringe forth issue.
Progenies, ei, fœ. gen. a progenie or succesſe in bloude, offspringe.
Progenitor, óris, m. g. a graundefather.
Progermino, aui, are, to branche out aboundantly.
Prógero, gessi, ere, to cast or put out, to carie foorthe.
Progigno, genui, nere, to get a childe.
Prognare, openly.
Prognáriter, hardily, boldely.
Prognosis, the fore ende of the tongue.
Prognati, childzen.
Prognátus, a, um, borne.
Prognigeon, lowe Pronigeon.
Prognipion, pij, n. g. the furneys or place where the fyre is made in the hote house.
Prognosis, sis, f. g. prescience or knowlage afore that a thyng happeth.
Prognósticon, a pronostication, a signe or token of a thyng to come.
Progrédiens, entis, goyng foorthe, procedynge.
Progrédior, gressus sum, progredi, to go forth or before, by translation, to procede further in a matter, and to take more in it.
Progredi obuiam, to goe foorthe to mete with one.
Sed progrediamur longius, but let vs proceede in this matter and speake further of it.
Tridui viam progressi, rursus reuerterunt, after they had gone forwarde .iii. daies iourney, they returned againe.
Quicquid progredior in vastiorem altitudinem inuehor, the further that I goe in or forwarde .&c.
Digitum progredi non possunt, they can not goe forwarde one fingers breadth.
Eo progressus est quo non audeo dicere, he became so naughtie and lewde in diuers thynges, as I dare not expresse.
Progréssio, ônis, f. g. a proceding or going forewarde.
Progressus, a, um, that hath passed or gone forewarde.
Progressus, us, m. g. a marchyng foorth, or passyng foorth, a proceedyng or goynge forwarde.
Facere progressū in studijs, to profite in learnynge.
Habere progressum, idem.
Progymnasma, násmatis, n. g. an assaie or profe in exercise.
Proh, looke Pro.
Prohedri, certayne magistrates, to whom all other arose and gaue place to sitte.
Prohibeo, prohibes, bui, ére, to prohibite, to forbid, to let, to kepe vnder, to kepe shorte, to kepe in.
Prohibete a vobis vim meam, take heede that I dooe not you displeasure.
Prohibete aditum matris a filij sanguine, leat or suffer not ye the mother to sea hir soonne.
Prohibere potione per triduum, to keepe one three daies without drinke.
Prohibere itinere, to stop him of his waie.
Prohibet facere tua præsentia, thy beynge here letteth me to dooe it.
Dum magister prohibebat, whilst his maister kepte hym vnder, or letted hym that he couldo not haue his will in thynges.
Dij prohibeant, god forbyd.
Lachrymæ prohibent loqui, he can not speake for weppyng.
Se non facile ab oppidis vim hostium prohibere, that they with great prince are scant able to defende the towne from the assaulte and violence of ennemies.
Prohiberi aqua, commeatu. &c. to be kepte from water, forrage .et.
Aditū prohibere, to let that one can not enter.
Agricultura hrohiberi, to bee kept from tilyng of the grounde.
Dolorem dentium prohibet, it maketh that the teeth shal not ake, or that one shall not haue the toeth ache.
Prohibere domo, to kepe one that he can not enter into his house.
Prohibere iniuriam, to withstand or leat iniurie or wronge.
Prohibere prædones ab insula, not to suffer robbers to enter.
A periculo rempublicam prohibere, to saue or kepe the common weale from daunger.
Sepultura aliquem prohibere, not to suffer one to be buried.

Voce

Voce prohibere aliquem, to let or forbide one to speake. Prohibessis, vsed of olde writers for Prohibueris.

Prohibitórius, a, um, prohibitory, that pertaineth to forbidding.

Proiecta, órum, neu. g. plu. the ouer partes of a hous, which do leane outward from the nether partes, as they be nowe in some townes towardes the streetes, some men call them garrettes, they be any kynde of buildinges iutting or standyng out from the parte of the house, as standyng wyndowes or suche like.

Proiéctio, ônis, f. g. a castyng foorthe.

Proiectitius, a, um, a chylde that is cast foorthe and nourisshed of a straunger.

Proiecto, aui, are, to cast out often.

Proiectare aliquem probris, to rebuke one.

Proiectúra, æ, fœ. ge. a penthouse to conueighe raine from a wall, also the coppyng or water table of a walle, the iuttinge or leanyng out that is in pillars and other buildyng.

Proiectus, us, m. g. the castynge out of a thynge, the iuttyng or leanyng out in buildyng.

Proiectus, a, um, throwen out afarre, cast forth, stretched out, lyyng downe alonge, lyynge prostrate, also vyle, contemned, of litteli value.

Proiecta audatia, foole hardinesse.

Proiectus puer, a chylde which is laied abroade in the streete, no man knowynge who is the father or mother.

Proiectus ad audendum, fole hardie.

Brachium proiectum, the arme cast or stretched foorthe.

Vinea humi proiecta, a vyne lyynge on the grounde.

Ad libidinem gens proiectissima, most enclined, geuen, and prone.

Proiicio, próiicis, iéci, ere, to throwe or cast, to set forthe, to leane, to extende or holde out a thyng at length.

Proiicit ampullas & sesquipedalia verba, he speaketh proude and loftie woordes.

Diem proiecit, he died.

Lachrymas proiicere, id est, effundere.

Ne me proiiciam, that I shulde not despeire and cast away all hope.

Se ad pedes proiicere, to fall downe prostrate at ones feete.

Se ex vibe proiicere, id est, subtrahere, to conueyghe or get hym selfe out of the citee in all haste.

Se in forum proiecit, he went in great haste to the common place.

In muliebres fletus se proiicere, to make a weppng and wailyng lyke women.

Et patriam virtutem proiecissent, and had lost and forgotten the valiantnesse of their fore fathers or auncestours.

Proin, therfore.

Próinde, therfore, wherfore, sometyme for Perinde, euen as, lyke as. Perinde expiscare quasi non nosces, thou dooest so enquire, as though thou didst not knowe it.

Prolábor, beris, bi, to slide or slippe foorthe, to fall.

Prolabi timore, to fall downe for feare.

Prolabi longius, to wander farre of, to speake somewhat more of a matter than is conuenient.

Prolabi in misericordiá, to become mercifull.

Prolabi cupiditate, to bee abused by his couetousenesse.

Prolabi ex equo, to fall from his horse.

Prolapsio, ônis, f. g. a fallyng or slipping downe.

Prolápsus, a, um, slidden or fallen downe.

Prolapsa huc libido, his wilfulnesse is come to this.

Prolatátio, ônis, f. g. a delating, also a deferring or prolongyng.

Prolatátus, a, um, prolonged, deferred, dyuen of for a tyme.

Prolátio, ônis, f. g. an extendynge foorthe, also pronouncing or pronũciacion, sometyme bymsgyng foorthe or shewyng of a thyng, also delayyng or deferryng of a matter.

Prolâto, aui, are, to deferre or put of till a longer tyme.

Dies prolatare, to deferre or prolonge from daie to daie.

Diem ex die prolatare, idem.

Prolâtus, a, um, set foorth, brought foorth, pronounced, spoken, also sowen abroade.

Prolatus est de te rumor, there is a rumour spreade or sowen abroade of the.

Prolectábilis, le, that whiche ticleth or pleasauntlie moueth one.

Prolecto, aui, are, to prouoke pleasauntly, to entice.

Prolepsis, is, f. g. a figure in speakyng, where we doe preuente to dissolue by reason, that whiche we thynke to be in the opinion of our aduersarie or of the iudge.

Proles, is, f. g. issue or fruite of a mans bodie, also of a beaste.

Proletarij, among the Romaines were they which for pouertee were not able to go to the warres, and therfore were neuer chosẽ but at great nede and for lacke of other, & had they rostes borne of the common treasure: they were called Proletarij, because they dyd onely helpe the citee with increase of children, where as they were not able with they substance.

Proletárius, a, um, belongynge to children: also of the people called Proletarij, & by translation, vyle, that the cõmon sorte of people do vse.

Prolibo, aui, are, to taste or doe sacrifice afore.

Prolicio, prólicis, prolexi, prolicere, to induce or drawe.

Eius amor cupidã hue me per tenebras prolicit, the loue of him hath drawen me hither in the darke, beynge destroused of his companie.

Prolixé, liberally, aboundauntlye, plentifully, sumptuously, at length.

Pro-

Prolixè promittere, to promyse largely and liberally.

Accipit hominem nemo prolixius, no man in the worlde more sumptuously, more abundantly and plentifully.

Prolixus, a, um, longe, large, sometyme superfluous, free, liberall, sumptuous, bountifull.

Accipit hominem nemo melius, nemo prolixius, he entertaineth a man, none in the worlde better nor more sumptuously.

Prolixus animus, a liberall free and honeste herte.

Prolixior in Pompeium, id est, propensior.

Prolixa oratio, a long and a superfluouse oration.

Prolixitas, âtis, f. g. & Prolixitudo, inis, length, largenesse, liberalitee.

Prológium, ij, n. g. the first speche, or first entrie into communication.

Prologus, i, m. g. a prologue, or he that entreth or plaieth the prologue.

Prolongo, aui, are, to prolongue, to deferre, to make longe.

Proloquium, ij, n. ge. the beginnyng of an oration or sentence, a perfecte sentence, wherin nothyng lacketh.

Próloquor, queris, qui, to speake at length, to tell a long tale. also to speake before, to speake that whiche we thinke, to declare our opinion, to utter our minde.

Prolúbium, bij, n. g. a delite, a pleasure, a desire, an appetite.

Prolúdium, ij, neu. gen. a flourisshe, a voluntarie, a preamble, an entrance or beginnyng of any mattier.

Prolúdo, si, dere, to flourisshe as musicians doe afore they come to the principall mattier, and as fence men do with the swoorde or two hand staffe, to proue or assaie what one can doe ere he come to the thyng.

Prolugeo, xi, gere, to mourne longer than hath ben accustomed.

Próluo, prólui, ere, to washe muche or longe, to drowne, or surrounde.

Prolútus, a, um, washed muche.

Prolúuies, ei, f. ge. the filthe or ordure whiche is washed of from any thyng.

Prolúuium, ij, n. gen. idem, also prodigalitee, unmesurable spendyng and consumynge ones goodes.

Prolyte, they whiche haue studied the lawe fiue yeres.

Promellere, to promote or set forth a suite in the lawe.

Promercâlis, le, any thyng that is set to sale, after a man hath stored him selfe of it sufficiently for hym and his household, specially that is solde by retaile.

Promercales vestes, garmentes that be solde after a little wearing, either because the colour faileth, or elles that he hath more then he needeth.

Promercalia, are suche thinges as are bought at a vauntage, to the intent to be solde afterwarde at an higher price.

Promercale aurum, golde that a man selleth or putteth away, besides that he kepeth for his owne vse.

Promercor, câris, ari, to bye thinges good chepe, to the intent to sell them againe dere, to bye at the first hande to sell agayne at retaile.

Promereo, prómeres, ui, ere, and Promereor, reris, reri, the deponente, to deserue, to doe pleasure or seruice to one, to doe well & deserue thankes, also to bynde one by his actes to doe for hym: also to helpe, to profite.

Promereri de aliquo, to dooe a man a good tourne.

Prómerens, entis, om. gen. he that doeth pleasure or seruice.

Promerenti optimè hoccine pretii redditur? shall he that hath done you very good seruice or pleasure, haue this reward for his labour?

Prométitam, ti, neu. ge. desert, pleasure or seruice done.

Promeneruat, olde writers vsed for Monet, he exhorteth or warneth.

Prométheus, the sonne of Iapetus, first inuented makyng of images, wherefore the paynyms supposed that he made men, and feigned that he went vp into heuen, and ther dyd steale fyre to make his image haue lyfe, wherewith Iupiter being wrath, caused hym to be bounden on the hill called Caucasus, and an egle standing by him eatyng his herte: by the whiche is signified, that he was studious and a great astronomer.

Promico, aui, are, to extend, sette or caste out at lengthe.

Prominentia, the extendyng, puttyng, or hangyng of a thing out or ouer other.

Promineo, prómines, nui, nere, to appeare or standeout further then other, or aboue and before other.

Prominere à cæteris acie, to stande further out then the other ranche or companie.

Promiscam, olde writers did vse for Promiscue.

Promiscue, one with an other mixte, confusely.

Promiscuus, a, um, confused, mingled one with an other.

Promiscuam operam dare, one to doe for an other, to healpe one an other.

Promiscua connubia, when states or degrees are mingled together by mariage, with out ordre or consideration.

Diuina atq; humana promiscua habere, To make no difference betwene worldely thynges and godly mattiers.

Promisse, longe, in length.

Promissio, ônis, f. g. a promise.

Promissor, ôris, m. g. he that promiseth.

Promissum, i, n. g. a promise.

Absoluere, complere, conficere promissum, to do that one hath promised.
Stare promissis, to kepe his promise.
Promissus, a, um, promised, also long, hangyng downe, growyng downe, growyng long.
Promissa barba, a longe beарde.
Promitto, misi, mittere, to promise, to let growe in length, also to threaten.
Promittere ad cœnam, to make a promise to go or come to supper.
Ad fratrem promiserat, he had promised to go to his brothers.
Ego tibi mea fide promitto, I promise the on my faithe and trouthe.
Promittere vadimonium, To promise to appeare at a daye appointed.
Promittere barbam, to let the beарde growe longe.
Nec vlla arbor auidius se promittit, groweth higher and broder.
Promo, prompsi, mere, to speake out, to tell that one knoweth or thinketh, to take out of a coffer or other like thyng.
Promere vinum, to drawe wyne.
Promere consilia, to shewe or declare his purposes.
Promonstra, monstrous and strange thynges.
Promontorium, ij, n. gen. a mountayne or high place of a lande or countrey, whiche lieth as it were an elbowe into the sea warde.
Promouco, prómoues, ui, uere, to go or moue forwarde, to aduaunce or profitte, to enlarge, sometyme to go backe, sometyme to prolonge, to deferre.
Promouere nuptias, to prolong the mariage.
Præsens quando pro nouco pirum, sepage that I preuaile or profite litteli with my pres seuce.
Pro nótus, a, um, moued forwarde, also promoted, aduanced, sette forthe.
Promptárius, a, um, idem quod promptuarius.
Promptaria cella, a cellar or spēce, out of whis the any thyng is taken Plautus vseth it for a prison, frō whence men be brought to be whipped or hanged.
Promptirium, rij, neu. gen. idem quod promptuarium.
Prompte, promptly, redily.
Promptior, more prompte or redy.
Promptissime, verp redily, forthwith, by & by.
Promptitúdo, dinis, f. g. promptnesse.
Prompto, aui, are, to byng often forth, to take out often.
Promptuárius, a, um, that, from whence any thyng is brought or taken.
Promptuárium, rij, n. g. a cellar, a storehouse, a spence.
Promptum, ti, n. g. a thyng that is taken out or set abrode.
Promptus, a, um, prompte, in a redinesse, redy to do a thing without taryng, also redy, easy.
Promptum ingenium, a redy witte.
Res est in promptu, the thynge is redy. also the thyng is manifest and playne.
Manu promptus, an hardy and valiant man that will strike and fight quickely.
Promptus ingenio, quicke spirited, or hauyng a lucky witte.
Nec promptum est dicere, it is not easy to tell.
Quum illa pateant, ang in promptu sint omnibus, where as these thynges be manifeste and apparant to all men.
In promptu ponere, to sette open that they maie bee seen.
Haud promptum est, that is rare and harde to be founde.
Promptus lingua, that hath a good tongue or vtterance, that is eloquent and well spoken.
In promptu habere, to haue at hande and in a redinesse.
Qui tot annos ingenium, laborem, fidem suã populo Romano promptum exposuit inque præbuerit, which so many yeres spare hath ben so prompte and redy to helpe the people of Rome with his witte, labour, and truste dealyng.
Prompta & aperta, occulta & recognita, contrarie.
Promuleo nauis agitur, the shippe is drawen with a boate.
Promulgâtus, a, um, published.
Promulgâtor, ôris, ma gen. & Promulgatrix, tricis, fœm. g. he or she that doeth publishe a thynge.
Promulgo, aui, are, to publishe.
Promulgátio, ônis, f. g. a publication.
Promullis, idis, f. gen. meede made with water and hony.
Promurâle, lis, n. gen. a counterмure, one wall without an other.
Promuscis, múscidis, f. ge. the hande or snoute of an elephant.
Promus, mi, m. g. he that hath the keeping of the store house or the larder. it is vsed commonly for a butler.
Pronecto, nexui, or nexi, nectere, to knitte.
Pronepos, pôtis, m g, a nephews sonne.
Proneptis, tis, f. g. a neces daughter.
Pronis, olde writers vsed for Prona, prostrate or on the grounde.
Pronômen, minis, n g. a pronowne.
Pronuba, be, f. fœm gen. she that bringeth home the bride to the bride groomes house, and was chiefe maker of the mariage on the womans parte.
Pronubo, nupsi, bere, to haue a rule in weddinges or ioynyng of couples.
Prónubus, he that leadeth the bride home to his houlbandes house, and hath the furnishyng of the hous duryng the tyme of solemnisation. also he that doeth celebrate the solemnitie in mariage: it male be nowe taken for the priest, whiche doeth ministre the solemne wordes of matrimony.

Pronuntiátio, ônis, f. g. a pronunciation or vtterance of speche.

Pronuntiátor, óris, m. g. a writer or reporter, that reciteth a tale or historie.

Pronuntiátum, ti, n. g. a proposition conteinyng any sentence true or false.

Pronuntiátus, us, m. g. idem quod Pronuntiatio.

Pronuntiátus, a, um, pronounced.

Pronuntio, aui, are, to pronoũce, to saie by hert, to declare openly, to make expresse mencion of any faute that is in a thynge, whiche we purpose to sell, to tell precisely and expressely, to proclaime by a trumpet, to promesse openly & plainely, to name as men doe officers at an election, to iudge, to geue sentence, to saie.

Pronuntiare per præconem, to make a thynge to be openly cryed.

Pronuntiare prælium in posterum diem, to pronounce or declare the battaple to bee the next daie folowynge.

Pronuntiare militi præmia, to make open promisse, that he wyll rewarde the souldioure.

Pronuntiat eos prætores, he nameth or declareth them to be pretoys.

Non cuiuslibet est pronuntiare, it is not euery mannes parte to iudge or to saie precisely.

Pronuper, very late.

Pronurus, rus, f. g. the wyfe of my sonnes sonne, or daughters soonne.

Pronus, a, um, ready, inclined, stowpyng downe, prone, easy, nigh at hande.

Pronus ad meridiem locus, a place lyeng towarde the southe.

Supinus & Pronus, contrarie.

Volo de ponte mittere pronum, id est, præcipitem.

Pronum ad honores iter, a redie and easy way to promocion and dignitee.

Pronus petit maria, id est, liquori vicina.

Pronior huic rei, for in hanc rem.

Pronior Dolobellæ, more inclined to fauour Dolobella.

Proniores paci, more willynge to haue peace.

Ad fidem pronius est, it is more veritable, it is more credible or soner beleued.

Prónitas, âtis, f. g. proneneſſe, inclination to good or euell.

Proœmium, mij, n. ge. a proheme or beginnyng of a mattier.

Proœmior, aris, ari, to beginne an oracion.

Propagátio, ônis, f. g. a spreadyng a settynge or plãtyng of many yonge vines, enlargeyng, increasyng.

Propages, a longe rewe.

Propâgo, aui, are, to cut downe an olde vine, that manie newe maie be set thereof, to spreade as a tree doeth on the toppe, to make to spread, to sende farre of, to extende, to delate, to prolonge,

Posteritati propagantur, they be continued or reserued euen to the memorie of them that come after vs.

Arbitria propagare, whē the arbiter pronounceth, that the mattier muste be decided by an other arbiter or vmpire.

Imperium in annum propagare, id est, prorogare.

Laudem hominis ad sempiternam memoriam propagauit, it got the man immortal praise, laude or renowne, that neuer shall bee forgotten.

Propagare vitam, to prolonge and leade swyth the lyfe.

Propagâtor, oris, m. g. one that enlargeth, multiplieth or increaseth.

Propagâtus, a, um, spred, enlarged, increased.

Própago, priore correpta, a stocke, whereof a man is descended.

Propâgo, ginis, or Propáges, gis, f. g. an olde vine cut downe, that many yonge mate be sette thereof.

Própalam, openly, clerely, in the syght of all men.

Própalo, aui, are, to tell abrode, to growe in lengthe, after Calepine: but the place of Columella hath propagare, and better.

Propatruus, trui, m. g. my great grandefathers brother.

Propatulus, a, um, wyde open.

in propatulo, openly in the sight of men.

Prope, a preposition seruynge to an accusatiue case, or an ablatiue with a preposition, nygh, nere to, by.

Prope, an aduerbe, nere at hande, nigh, almoste, in a maner.

Prope est, it is nere hande. also it lacketh but littell, the tyme is almost come.

Prope adest cum alieno more uiuendum est mihi, the tyme is almost come that I must liue as other men will haue me.

Prope intueri, to beholde a thyng harde by.

Prope est vt omnes sint, id est, parum abest.

Prope iam vt pro vxore haberet, so that he vsed hir in maner as his wyfe.

Annos prope quinquaginta, almoste fifty yeres.

Tam prope à muris habemus hostem, we haue our ennemies so nere the walles.

Prope dicam, I maie in a maner saie, or I maie almoste saie.

Prope est factum. &c. it came almost to passe, or there lacked but littell but that. &c.

Propecto, pexui, pexi, or Pectiui, propectere, to kembe streight downe, to kembe out alonge.

Propediem, nowe euery daie, shortely, ere it bee longe, within these fewe daies.

Propello, propuli, pellere, to driue or put away farre of.

Pecus propellere pastum, to driue foorthe the cattaile to pasture or grasse.

Peri-

Periculum vitæ mihi propellere potes, thou maiest deliuer me from daunger of my lyfe.

Propémodum, almoste, in a maner,

Egomet habeo propémodum quam volo, I my selfe haue in maner founde hir that I wyll haue.

Propémodum habeo iam tibi fidem, I dare almoste truste the or beleue the nowe.

Propendeo, di, dére, to hange downe heauier on the lore parte, to incline more fauourably to the one, and leane more to his parte, then to the other.

Propendére in aliquem inclinatione voluntatis, when a mannes affection inclineth more to one than to an other.

Nec dependes, nec propendes, quin malus & nequam sis, thou arte a very ryght naughty packe, and an vnthryfty knaue.

Propendens, entis, hangyng downe.

Propensé, fauourably, with good wyll, with harte and myndc, redily.

Propensio, ónis, f. g. inclination of the mynde.

Propensus, a, um, greatly inclined, very ready and prone.

Propenso animo facere, to doe it with a good wyll.

Propensior in neutram partem, indifferent.

Propensa munera, id est, multa & magna.

Ad ignoscendum propensus, of nature inclined to forgeue and pardone.

Ad similitudinem veritatis propensior, more inclinyng to the truthe, more lyke to the truthe.

Natura propensi ad liberalitatē sumus, we be o nature prone and inclined to liberalitee.

Propenso animo aliquid facere, to doe a thing with a ready mynde and fauourable affection.

Propensus ad bene merendum, ready and inclined to doe pleasure.

In eum voluntas nostra propensior, our affection or fauour inclineth more to hym.

Propere, quickely, hastily, with speede.

Eloquere propere celeriter, tell on quickely and make no tarying.

Próperans, antis, makyng speede or haste.

Properans venit, he cometh in hast.

Properantes aquæ, waters that renne verey swiftely, and with a full streame.

Properantim, properanter, & properiter, quickely, hastily, speedyly.

Properántia, æ, & properatio, onis, f. g. haste, speede makyng.

Properato, an aduerbe.

Properato opus est, it is neede or expedient to make haste, or to hyghe a pase.

Properâtus, a, um, hastened, done with speede.

Próperus, a, um, quicke, hasty, swifte, spedie.

Properũ video ancillam uenientem, I see the wenche comyng hither apace, or makyng great haste hitherwarde.

Iræ properus, quickely angry.

Própero, aui, are, to goe quickely or hastily, to

P ANTE R.

saie or doe any thynge quickely, to make hast to make speede, to goe apace, to hyghe quickely

Properare aliquid, to make haste or speede doyng a thyng.

Ni deditionem properassent, excepte they had made speede and yelded them quickely.

Ni voluntariam mortem properauisset, if he had not killed him selfe before his tyme.

Properare in Cyprum, to make haste to goe to to Lipzesse.

✠ Qui nimium properat, serius absoluit, the more haste the lesse speede: perly vp and neuer the nere.

Propertius, a poete borne in Mewania, a towne in Vmbria.

Propexus, a, um, kemed downe longe.

Prophanus, looke Profanus.

Propetro, aui, are, to cõmaunde that a thyng be doone.

Prophasis, an excuse.

Prophéta, tæ, or prophetes, tæ, m. g. a prophete, he that telleth thynges whiche shall happen.

Prophétis, tidis, and prophetissa, æ, f. g. a woman prophete, a prophetesse, she that telleth thynges to come.

Prophétia, æ, f. g. a prophesie.

Prophéto, aui, are, to prophesie, to synge praises to god. Sometyme it signifieth to preache or interprete.

Propilo, aui, are, to make sharpe before.

Propina, a place by the cõmon baynes, where after bainyng men take theyr refection.

Propinátio, ônis, f. g. a drinkyng to one.

Propino, aui, are, to drynke to an other man, to quaffe, to bryngc to, sometyme to geue, to profre.

Propino tibi salutem plenis faucibus, god spede with all myne herte.

Propinator, ôris, m. g. a cupbearer, he that drinketh or beginneth to one.

Propinquus, a, um, a neyghbour, of kinne, of alliance, also harde by, nere hande.

Quod ego in propinqua parte amicitiæ pono, whiche I thinke to be one of the chefe causes of amitee and freendeshippe.

Ex meo propinquo rure, of my pece of ground, that I haue here by without the cittee.

Stipendũ spem propinquam facere, to make men hope they shall receiue theyr wages shortly.

In propinquo sunt castra, our campe is hereby or not farre hence.

Propinquitas, âtis, fœ. g. affinitee, alyaunce, neighbourhoode.

Propinque, nigh, harde by.

Propinguior, quius, nerer.

Propinquo, aui, are, to approche, to come nigh.

Própior, propius, nere.

Gradu sanguinis propior, nere hym, or nere of bloude.

Vel (quod propius vero est) &c. or (that is more more lyke to be true, or more consonant to the truthe) &c.

Propius fidem est, it is more credible.

Propius nihil factum est, quam vt occideretur, he was in very great daunger to be slayne: or the least thynge in the worlde more he had ben slayne.

Propitiabilis, le, that whiche is some turned with supplication or prayer. also that is mete to doe sacrifice with, or inclined to desyres.

Propitiátio, ônis, f. g. sacrifice to appease or pacifie gods displeasure.

Propitiatórium, rii, n. gen. the place where god was pleased with sacrifice downe to hym, a table set on the arke of the olde testament.

Propitio, aui, are, to reconcile and appeale god with sacrifice, to please.

Propitiare solicitudinem animi, to appeale the care or sorowe of mynde.

Propitius, content, not displeased or angry.

Propiti, peasible men, or men soone appeased or satisfied.

Propius, neerer, or nerre.

Propólitice, ces, fœ. g. the crafte to make moulds, in the whiche any thing is cast or fourmed.

Propnigeon, gei, n. gen. the place in a baine or hotte house, in the whiche fire inclosed, sendeth forth heate, the mouthe of a fournais or ouen.

Propitior, áris, ari, idem quod propitio, to appease, or to make mercifull or fauourable.

Própula, læ, masc. gen. he that selleth any thyng at retaple, specially victaple, a hukster, a regratoure.

Propolis, lis, fœm. ge. a suburbes of a towne. it is also that whiche bees doe make at the entrie of the hiue, whereby colde & other annoyaunce is defended.

Propoma, a drynke made with honny and wine.

Propôno, posui, ponere, to purpose, to be aduised, to promise a price or rewarde for any notable acte, to set out to the shewe. also to publishe or set abrode to the people.

Animo or animis proponere, to conceiue, consyder, or imagin in the mynde.

Bona ciuium sibi ad prædam proponere, To determine with hym selfe, that the goodes of the citezins be as a botte or pray vnto him.

In exemplum aliquid proponere, To take a thyng for an example to folowe.

Finem sibi proponere, to appointe how farre they will trauaile in a matter.

Lex in publicum proponitur, the lawe is published abrode to the people.

Minas proponere, to threten, to menace.

Magna sibi proponunt, they imagine with theselfe to come to great honour and dignitie: or purpose with them selfes to enterprise great matters.

Venale aliquid proponere, to set a thynge as abrode to be solde.

Qui voluntatem ei Senatus proponunt, which maie declare and open to hym the mynde of the Senate.

Vtilitatem rei publicæ sibi proponere debent, they ought to haue respecte to the commodite of the weale publike, or to consyder & regarde, what shall be good and profitable for the commen weale.

Propósitum est mihi, myne intente or purpose is.

Proponit sua in illis merita, he reheneth vp the good turnes or frendly pleasures that he had done for them.

Proponere mortem acerbam, to menace cruell deathe, to threten that he will put one to cruell deathe.

Proponere impunitatem, To promise or publishe, that men shall escape without punishement what so euer they doe, to geue men licence to doe what they will without punishement.

Proponere ante oculos periculum vitæ, To consyder in the mynde diligently, what danger of the life they are in.

Proponere spem, to geue men an hope, to put men in hope.

Premium proponere, To promise a rewarde for ones labour.

Rem in medium proponere, To open and declare the matter playnely, that men maie perceyue it.

Propœtides, the daughters of Amathunta.

Propontis, a sea betweene Grece and Asie.

Proportio, ônis, f. g. a proporcion, measure.

Propotto, further more, more ouer.

Propositio, ônis, fœm. gene. a matter purposed to be disputed or reasoned. it is also that, whereby we shewe generally, whereof we will speake.

Propósitum, ti, n. ge. a purpose, an intent.

Aberrare a proposito, to go from the purpose, to make digression from the purpose.

Propositus, a, um, set abroade or before mennes eies.

Proprætor, tôris. m. g. he that was sent extraordinarily as pretor into any countrey.

Proprie, properly, particularly.

Et proprie, for Et maxime.

Proprietárius, a, um, whereunto the propertee of a thyng belongeth.

Proprietas, atis, f. g. propertee.

Proprietas terræ, the nature and propertee of the grounde.

Proprium, idem quod proprie.

Próprius, a, um, proper or particular, sometyme it signifieth perpetuall.

Voluptates deorum propriæ sunt, The pleasures of the goddes be perpetuall.

Culpa mea propria, by myne owne defaute.

Nec sunt vllo in proprio periculo, they be not in any priuate daunger, but that other men be in it as well as they.

Proprium est eius, it is imputed to hym, or apd

appertayneth to hym.
Proprium oratorum, the thing that oratours ought chiefely to obserue.
Perenne ac proprium manere potuisset, it might haue ben perpetuall & cõtinued for euer.
Propter, for also nigh: and is sometyme an aduerbe, sometyme a prepositiõ.
Ibi angiportum propter est, there is a lane harde by.
Hic propter hũc assiste, stãde here hard by him.
Hæc turba propter te facta est, this busines or trouble hath chaunced for your sake, or your cause, or for loue of you.
Propterea, therefore, for that cause.
Propterea quòd, because that.
Proptosis, sis, fœm. gen. a disease, where the eies meued with inflammation, bowe fall out of their places.
Propúdium, dij, n. gen. shame, dishonestie. also the most abhominable vse of lecherie in an incõuenient fourme also the person that is naughtily abused.
Propudiósus, a, um, that is filthily abused in lechery.
Propugnátio, ônis, fœ. ge. a defendyng or fightyng for the maintenance of a thyng.
Propugnáculum, li, n. ge. a fortresse, a stronge holde, a bullwarke.
Propugnaculo esse, to defende other.
Propugnátor, ôris, masc. gene. a defendour, a maintepner, one that fightyth in the defence of a thyng.
Propugno, nai, are, to fight for, to fight valiantly, to defende.
Propugnare commoda patriæ, to defende or maintepne his countrey against enemies.
Propulsátio, ônis, f. ge. a puttyng awaie, a puttyng backe.
Propulsátor, ôris, m. g. that resisteth a thing, or driueth any thyng awaie.
Propulso, sai, are, to put of, to driue awaie, to repelle.
Propulsus, us, m. g. a putting or driuing backe.
Propylæum, læi, n. ge. a porche of a temple, pallace or great house.
Proquæstor, ôris, m. ge. he that extraordinarily is sent as Questor into any countrey.
Prora, ræ, f. g. the fore parte of a shippe.
Prora & puppis, proverbially, the whole summe and effecte of our purpose.
Prorépo, prorepsi, repere, to creepe further, to steale forth by litteli and litteli.
Prorétes, tæ, m. gene. he that hath the rule of the foreshippe or decke.
Proreus, dissyl. idem.
Proripio, proripis, pui, pere, longned with me or se, signifieth to withdrawe or depart, to get or conueigh hym selfe quickely out of a place or companie.
Domum se ex curia proripuit, he departed or withdrewe him self homeward from the courte.
Proripere aliquem, id est, rapere.
Prorito, aui, are, to prouoke, to moue, to stirre, to allure, to sterre vp.
Prorogátio, ônis, a prolongyng or delayng.
Prórogo, aui, are, to prolonge, to put of into a longer date, to prorogue, to deferre.
Ne quid nobis temporis prorogetur, that our tyme be nothyng prolonged.
Imperium prorogare, to appointe one to be capitayne ouer an armie longer then his tyme prefixed before.
In hyemem prorogant moras, they deferre or prolonge it vntill winter.
Prorsus, or prorsum, vtterly, alwaie, in anywise, streight towarde a place, surely.
Prorsus, cum negatione, for Nullo modo.
Prorsus tacere non queo, I can in no wise holde my peace.
Nihil prorsus, nothyng at all.
Hanc prorsus illum non dat, he giueth not her to this man in any wise.
Sed prorsus omnibus, but vniuersally, or generally to all.
Simulato quasi eas prorsum in nauem, make as though thou woldest go streight waie to take shippyng.
Nullo modo prorsus, in no wise in the world.
Cursari rursum prorsum, that they renne forwarde and backwarde.
Prorsus, a nowar. Prorsi, limitters in boundyng of landes directed in to the east.
Prorumpo, rupi, rumpere, to breake forth, to sende forth with violence, to leape or go out of a place with violence, to braste out.
Prorumpere in hostes, To rushe forthe violently into the middes of his enemies.
Illa pestis prorumperet, that pestilent or mischieuous naughtinesse will ones burst forth.
Atram prorumpit ad æthera nubem, it casteth or sendeth out violently a foule blacke smoke, euen to the skye.
Proruptus, a, um, broken, burst. also flowyng or rennyng with great violence.
Prorupta audacia, foule hardinesse, rashe boldenesse.
Próruo, prórui, ruere, to driue downe, or beate downe, to caste downe violently.
A fundamentis prorunt, they ouerthowe and cast it downe euen to the grounde.
Foras simul omnes prorumuntur, they rushed out at the dore all togethier in a cluster.
Prórutus, a, um, caste downe, ouerthowen.
Prosa, a certain goddesse among the Romains.
Prosa, sæ, f. g. that whiche is not meeter.
Prosáicus, a, um, of prose.
Prosápia, æ, f. g. a progenie, a discent of blood, a petigree, a generation.
Proscénium, nn, n. ge. the place before the stage holde, out of the whiche the players come.
Proscindo, próscidi, scindere, to cut out or vnder, to infame, to rebuke shamefully.

Proscin-

Proſcindere terram, to eare the grounde, nameli when it is firſte broken vp.
Proſciſſio, ónis, fœm. gen. the firſte earyng of the grounde.
Proſciſſum, ſi, neu. gen. the earthe firſt broken vp or tilled.
Proſciſſus, a, um, eared or cutte vp.
Proſcribo, ſcripſi, ſcribere, to ſell openly, to proclayme any thing to be ſolde, to baniſhe, to condemne: properly to cauſe by ordinaunce to be proclaymed, that who ſo euer findeth one, he maie leſully ſlea hym, and haue a rewarde for his labour.
Proſcribere vænale, to proclaime a thyng to be ſolde.
Proſcribere domum, or ædes, to write on the dore, that the houſe is to be ſolde or let.
Proſcriptio, ónis, fœm. gen. that maner of condemnation, when it is ordeyned, that who ſo euer fyndeth one, he maie lawfully ſlea hym, and haue a rewarde for his labour. alſo an attrynder.
Proſcriptor, óris, m. gen. he that proſcribeth or baniſheth men.
Proſcriptúrio, ſcripturis, riui, rire, to imagin a proſcription, to haue a deſyre to proſcribe and baniſhe men.
Proſcriptus, a, um, he that is proſcribed or baniſhed, ſo that any man maie lyll hym lawfully.
Próſeco, ſecui, are, to cutte aſunder.
Proſecta, bowelles cutte in ſacrifice.
Próſeda, æ, f. g. a ſtrumpet or common harlot.
Proſédamum, ſédami, neu. g. a diſeaſe, whiche happeneth to rammes, gotes and other beaſtes, whiche is vnapteneſſe to generation though to muche labour.
Proſelenus, a, um, before the moone.
Proſeleni, the Archadians, whiche were ſuppoſed to be before the moone.
Proſélitus, ti, m. ge. a ſtranger borne, conuerted to our fourme of lyuyng.
Proſémino, aui, are, to ſow forth.
Proſequium, an affection.
Próſequor, proſéqueris, próſequi, to folowe after, to purſue.
Proſequor amore, I loue.
Proſequor odio, I hate.
Proſequor honore, I honour.
Proſequor verbis, I chaufe him with wordes.
Proſequor officiis, I ſhew to hym great kindneſſe, I dwe hym many pleaſures.
Proſequi præmio, to rewarde.
Proſequi dicto improbum verbum alicuius, To rebuke one ſharpely for ſpeakyng diſhoneſtely.
Próſequi vſq; ad aliquem locum, to conducte or go with one to any place.
Próſequi decedentem domum, to go with one or hepe hym companie.
Proſequi aliquem lachrymis, to wepe at ones departyng.
Proſequi aliquem cum donis, to geue one preſentes and giftes at his departyng.
Proſequi funus, vel exequias funeris alicuius, To go with the coſte to buryng, to be at ones interement.
Altius proſequi, to ſpeake further and more deeper of a thyng.
Ne plures proſequar, that I maie let paſſe other and not ſpeake of them.
Proſequi aliquem, to ſhewe the mynde or affection that he hath towarde one.
Proſequi laudibus, to praiſe.
Lachrymis proſequi mortuos, to wepe or lament for them that be deade.
Proſequi laudes alicuius ad cantum, to ſynge the preyſes or commendations of a man.
Libello poſequi memoriam alicuius, To make reuerende mention of a man in wrytyng of a boke.
Memoria proſequi, to gunne by herte.
Proſequi mentionem alicuius cum honore ſummo, to make honorable mencion of a man, to ſpeake honorably of one.
Proſequi odore, to folow by the trace.
Proſequi ſtylo, to write.
Proſequi aliquem ſuffragio, to helpe one with his voyce.
Improbum factum dicto proſequutus eſt, he ſpake as knauiſhely as he hadde doone naughtily.
Proſerpo, ſerpſi, pere, to creepe or ſlyde forth like a ſerpente.
Proſérpina, the wyfe of Pluto, daughter to Iupiter and Ceres: ſhe is taken ſometyme for the moone.
Proſerpinaca, cæ, f. ge. an herbe called alſo Polygonon, rede there.
Proſeuche, a prayer to god. alſo a beggyng.
Proſeucha, chæ, f. g. a begger, or rather the place where beggers ſtande to begge.
Prosferari, to be obteined.
Proſicium, cij, n. g. that whiche is cutte of from any thyng, and caſte awaie.
Proſilio, próſilis, proſiliui, or ſilij, lire, to leape forth.
In altitudinem proſilire dicuntur frutices, to growe vp in height.
Quidnam properans proſilit? Wherefore cometh he forth ſhyppyng and leapyng.
Proſimuriũ, a place without the walles of Rome, where the biſſhops of the gentiles made their diuinations, or toke their ſignificatiõs of thinges to come.
Poſitum, olde writers vſed for Propoſitum, purpoſed.
Proſocer, ceri, m. gene. the father of my wyues father.
Proſódia, the crafte of accentyng.
Proſonomæia, the ſyneneſſe of one woorde or name to an other: as Locus, and Lucus, orator and aratoz.

Proſõpis, the clote leafe or great butte. It is alſo the name of an ilande in the mouthe of Nilus called Delta.

Proſopopœia, where as perſonages are ſuppoſed or feigned to ſpeake, as one man to an other, a man to a beaſte, one beaſte to an other. &c.

Proſpecte, aduiſedly.

Proſpectus, us, m. gene. a ſight farre of, a proſpecte.

Proſpecto, aui, are, to beholde, prayſe or farre of.

Proſper, ra, um, that geueth proſperites, ſometyme that receyueth proſperitee, proſperouſe.

Proſperus, a, um, is ſome tyme redde.

Proſpera valetudo, good helth.

Succeſſus proſperos dare, to make a thyng to haue a good ende.

Proſpera fortuna, proſperitee.

Proſpere, proſperouſly, euen as we wold haue it or wiſhe it.

Proſperitas, atis, fœm. g. proſperitee, good fortune, when thynges come to paſſe as we wolde haue them.

Proſpero, aui, are, to geue proſperitee, to make proſperous.

Proſpergo, ſperſi, ſpergere, to ſprincle abrode.

Proſpica, & proſpicus, he that beholdeth a thing farre of.

Proſpicientia, prouidence, circumſpection.

Proſpicies, for proſpice, beholde.

Proſpicienter, circumſpectely, aduiſedly, with good foreſight and conſideracion.

Proſpicio, ſpexi, ſpicere, to ſee farre, to foreſee, to prouide, to beware. alſo for Videre, to ſee, to loke or ſee vnto, to prouide or thynk for, to ſee and prouide a remedie agaynſt ill, that might els haue chaunced.

Parum oculi proſpiciunt, myne eies be not very clere of ſight, I dowe ſcant ſee from me.

Illa quæ futura ſunt proſpicere, to foreſee thinges that be to come.

Proſpicere animo, to conſyder in ones mynd.

Proſpicere in poſterum, To prouide for the tyme to come.

Proſpicere ſenectutem, To be almoſt an olde man.

Ego mihi proſpiciam, I will prouide for my ſelfe.

Tibi proſpexi & tuæ ſtultitiæ, I did it to help the and thy foliſhenelle.

Malo ego nos proſpicere, quàm hunc vlciſci accepta iniuria, I had rather we prouide for the mattier afore, then to be reuenged on hym after we haue receyued a ſhrewde turne.

Patriæ proſpicere, to loke and ſee to the ſauf garde of his countrey.

Proſpexi tempeſtatem futuram, I foreſaw the tempeſt to come.

Proſpectum nobis eſt, we be prouided for.

Ex caſtris proſpicere in vrbem, to ſee out of the campe into the citee.

Proſpicuus, a, um, goodly or fayre to ſee or beholde.

Proſpiro, aui, are, to breathe farre of.

Proſtacis, preheminence.

Proſtates, a capitayne that cometh to helpe in warres.

Proſterno, ſtraui, ſternere, to ouerthrowe, to vanquiſhe in battaile.

Proſtrauit ſe ad pedes lachrymans, he fell downe at his feete weepyng.

Proſtibula, læ, f. g. an harlotte, a ſtrompet.

Proſtibulum, li, n. ge. a common brothelhouſe, alſo a common harlotte.

Proſtituo, ſtitui, tuere, to ſet open to euery man that cometh.

Suam pudicitiam proſtituere, To abandone hir chaſtitee to any man that will compaſſe with hir.

Proſto, próſtiti, ſtare, to ſtande farre of, or afore, to ſtande farre out. alſo to ſtande to be ſolde or hyred.

Anguli proſtantes, corners ſtandyng farre oute.

Pretio proſtare, to ſtande redy to be ſolde, or hired for money of euery man that cometh.

Proſúbigo, ſubégi, gere, to digge deepe.

Pede proſúbigit terram, with his foote he digged harde into the grounde.

Proſum, fui, deſſe, to be profitable, to profite, to dowe good, to be holſome, to be of ſtrength and vertue agaynſt a diſeaſe, to aide, to helpe.

Mirum quantum profuit ad concordiam ciuitatis, it is a wonderfull thyng how muche good it did to maintein concorde in the citee.

Proſumia, æ, f. g. a litteil barke.

Proſupero, aui, are, to excede or haue more then enough.

Proſymna, a citee, in the whiche Juno is worſhipped.

Protagoras, a notable philoſophier of Grece.

Prótaſis, a propoſition.

Prote, an ile in the ſea Jonium.

Protectus, a, um, couered, defended.

Protecta, & Proiecta, partes of houſes made further forth than other.

Protectio, ónis, f. g. a defence.

Protector, óris, m. g a defendour.

Prótego, texi, tégere, to couer and defende, to ſaue from, alſo to make a rooffe or vpper floure in buildyng.

Protélo, aui, are, to deferre or tracte the tyme, to put out, to dryue or chace awaye, to put or thrſte of, to dryue backe againe, to keepe at the ſtaues ende, to vexe, to ſtrike, to trouble.

Protélum, li, n. ge. continuall fyght, longe ſute, continuation or prolongyng.

Protendo, tendi, téndere, to ſette forth or put forth, to ſtretche forthe. Alſo to deferre, to prolonge.

Digitus medius longiſsime protenditur, the middill finger is longer then any of the other.

Comitia

Comitia in Ianuarium protendimus, we prolonge or deferre the assembly of the people vnto Januarie.

Protentus, a, um, stretched out.

Protentus in octo pedes, viii. foote longe.

Prótenus, a great way hence, farre of, loohe Prótinus.

Protermino, aui, are, to encroche, to extende the boundes or limites.

Prótero, triui, tĕrere, to treade downe, to treade vnder foote.

Proterreo, terrui, terrêre, to make afeerde farre of.

Protéruia, æ, fœ. g. wantonnesse, arrogancie. it was also a sacrifice, wherein the maner was, that as muche as was lefte vneaten, shuld bee consumed with fyre, wherof came the prouerbe next folowyng. lohe Proteruus.

Proteruiam fecit, he hath consumed all that is lefte.

Protéruio, uiui, uire, to plaie the wanton, to be saucy, or malaperte.

Proterue, proudely, immoderately, shamefully, saucily, knappishely.

Quis est qui tam proterue foribus facit iniuriam? who is he that so sauclie rappeth at the doore?

Ecce autem tu quoq; proterue iracundus es, Lo and thou also arte shamefull angrie.

Protéruiter, idem quod proterue.

Protéruitas, ātis, fœ. g. pryde, folie, sauclnesse, malapertnesse.

Proterus, a, um, proude, fierce, arrogant, sauclie, malaperte, knappishe, knauishe.

Protesilâus, duke of the citee Phylax in Thessalie, wente with other to the siege of Troie. And whan there was aunswere geuen to the Troianes, that who so euer dyd fyrste take lande in the countrey of Troie, shoulde be slayne: Protesilâus, with a valyaunte courage, arryued before any other, and was slayne by Hector, whose wyfe wepte so much for him (and would neuer be comforted) that she dyed.

Protestátio, ônis, f. g. a protestation, an open declaryng of ones sentence and mynde.

Protestátor, ôris, m. g. he that manifestly declareth what is to be eschewed and not doen.

Protestor, āris, āri, to declare manifestly, what shoulde be eschewed and not doorn.

Proteus, the soonne of Oceanus and Tethys, called of the paynimes the god of the sea, whom Homere nameth to bee the herdeman of the fisshes called Phocæ, and also a prophete, notwithstandynge he wolde not geue aunswere, but being costreigned by Ulisses. He also tourned hym selfe into sundry fygures, Sometyme being lyke a flame of fire, sometime lyke a bull, an other tyme lyke a terrible serpente. Homerus Odyss. Vergilius Georgicorum quar. In veray deede he was kynge of Aegypte in the tyme of Priamus kynge of Troye. Of hym came this prouerbe, Proteo mutabilior, more thaungeable than Proteus, applied to hym that in his actes or woordes is vnstable.

Prothenor, one of the fiue capitaines of Bœotia, that came to Troye.

Prothesis, sis, f. gen. an addition of a letter, as Gnatus, for Natus.

Prothous, one of the Grecches that came to Troy.

Prothymata, ôrum, n. g. thynges doen or offered before sacrifice, as bournynge of incence and suche lyke.

Prothymia, æ, f. g. promptitude, also gentill entertetnement.

Prô dq; immortales, quot ego voluptates fero, quot risiones, quot iocos, quot suauia, salutationes, blãditias, prothymias? O loode god, how many pleasures haue I, what laughynges, what pastymes, what dallynges, daunsynges, dalyaunces and sweete entertaynementes?

Prothỹrum, thỹri, n. g. a porche at the vtter doore of an house.

Prothymus, a, um, prompte, readie.

Protina, for Protinus, forthwith.

Prôtinus, a farre of. Also forthwith without taryeng. Sometyme altogyther. Sometyme for Deinceps, than after, euer after, from thens forth, continually, by and by, at the veray beginnyng, euen fyrst of al, at the fyrst choppe, at the fyrste dasshe, at the same tyme.

Protinus q; detraxere vitibus, forthwith, incontinent, or by and by, as soone as they haue plucked them from the vynes.

Aliquæ febres protinus a calore incipiunt, by and by, at the beginnyng, fyrst of all.

Protinus aëri melius dona perfequar, than by and by after.

Lacu protinus stagnãte, id est, iugiter, continually.

Parui refert protinus libertus patrono cogatur dare, an per interpositam fideiussoris vel rei personam, immediately with his owne hande, or by the meane of an other person.

Mos erat &c. quem protinus vrbes coluere Albanæ, continually, euer after.

Qua protinus omne intremuit nemus, a farre of.

Quum protinus vtraq; tellus una foret, whan both the landes were all one.

Protion, the herbe called Veratrum nigrum.

Protipon opus, an image or fourme, wherof moldes be made. in the whiche thynges be cast of mettall or erthe.

Protocólium, i, n. g. that is first made or written, whiche requireth correction.

Protócomos, primus comans.

Protógenes, of the first kinred or familie. it was also the name of an excellent peincter.

Protogénia, the daughter of Deucalion and Pirrha.

Protógonus, the fyrst childe.

Protollo, tollere, to prolonge, to aduaunce, to put forwarde.

Protológia, æ, f. g. a preface.

Protomartyr, mártyris, com. g. the firste martyr or witnesse.

Protomédicus, the chiefe phisition about a prince.

Protomýsta, æ, m. g. the chiefe priest or deane.

Prótono, tónui, âre, to thundre or make a great noyse before, to speake with great anger and wrath verie fiercely.

Protonotárius, a protonotarie, chiefe scrybe or secretarie.

Protópages, & Protopagus, firste made or wrought, or late made.

Protoplastes, æ, m. gen. the first fourmer or maker.

Protoplastus, i, m. g. he that is first fourmed or made, Adam was so called.

Protos, the first.

Protótocos, she that first brought foorth, Eua was so called.

Protótomus, i, m. gen. the stalke that is first cutte.

Protótypus, i, the first example or paterne.

Protractus, a, um, prolonged, deferred, drawne out.

Prótraho, axi, ere, to deferre or prolõge, to draw foorth with violence.

Protrépticus, ci, m. g. a booke to enstructe one, a doctrinall.

Protrimenta, meate minced small.

Protropum, i, n. g. a certayne drynke, whiche is a iuice distillyng out of grapes before they be pressed.

Protrúdo, trûdis, trúsi, ere, to strike forwarde, to thrust forwarde, to thruste in ones lappe or bosome.

Protúrbo, aui, are, to thruste out by force, to thrust from one.

Prótypum, i, n. g. that is made for an exaumple or a paterne.

Prouectus, a, um, promoted, aduaunced foorth, caried.

Prouectus ad dignitatem, promoted or aduaunced to honour.

Prouectum ingenium, a longe proued witte.

Prouectus ætate, aged, ronne farre in peres.

Próueho, uexi, ere, to bringe or carie foorthe, also to promote, to aduaunce.

Vbi sumus prouecti in altum, whan we be entred a good way into the sea.

Prouehi equo, to ryde foorth on horsebacke.

Prouehor amore, id est, rapior, I am rauyshed with loue, and forced to speake more of the matter than I purposed.

Prouehi longius in scribendo, vel orando, to haue written or spoken more or further of a matter than one purposed, or than nede was.

Prouehi in altum, by trãslacion to haue entred into the middes and chiefe parte of the matter.

Prouehi in maledicta, to speake so farre, that he falleth to railyng and reprochefull woordes.

Sentio me lõgius prouectum q̃ proposita ratio postularet, I perceyue that I haue spoken further of this matter, than .&c.

Prouexit orationem meam vestra benignitas, your gentilnesse hath caused me to bee longer in this matter, or to speake further in this matter than my mynde was.

Prouehere vitam suam in periculum, to put his lyfe in daunger.

Prouehere aliquem ad dignitatem, to aduaunce one to honour and dignitee.

Vsq; ad extremum spiritum prouecta ætas prudentia, his wisedome cõtinued to the last houre of his death.

Prouenio, próuenis, uêni, ire, to come foorthe, also to grow or encrease, to be borne or brought foorth into the worlde, to happen or chaunce, to come to passe.

Nimis prouentum est nequiter, it hath chaunced verie vnhappilie.

Prouentus, us, m. ge. the increase and fruite of all thynges, as well good as euyll, reuenewes, perely profytes. also successe.

Prouerbium, ij, n. ge. a prouerbe, an olde layde sawe.

Prouide, circumspectely, wysely, diligently.

Próuidens, entis, prouident, wyse, he that seeth thynges before they come, and taketh heede of theym, foreseyng.

Prouidenter, prouidently, with great foresyght and wisedome.

Prouidéntia, æ, f. g. prouidence, foresyght. Sometyme it is vsed for god.

Prouideo, próuides, uidi, êre, to prouide, to foresee, to be ware, to se thinges before they come, and to eschewe theim. Also to purueighe for.

Putauit me plus prouidere quam ipsum sibi, he thought that I could forsee what was moste expedient for his profyte, better than he could hym selfe.

Publice prouidere, to prouyde for the comon profyte.

Prouidere rebus necessariis, to pruueyghe for thynges necessarie.

Prouidere in hyemem pabulum, to prouyde for forrage against wynter.

Prouisum hoc legibus, the lawe hath ordined this.

Próuidus, a, um, prouident, circumspecte, diligent, foreseyng.

Prouincia, æ, f. g. an out region or countrey, that the Romaines had subdued to theyr dominion, and helde the same, vnder theyr iurisdiction, by a liefe tenaunte, whiche was sente thither with commission and great charge to rule and gouerne the prouince. And therefore the verie office of rulyng in any countrey is called Prouincia, and by a metaphore all the burthen, labour or busines in any office or thyng to be wonne, is likewyse called Prouincia.

Prouinciam suscipere, To take charge of a thynge.
Prouinciam cœpisti duram, thou hast taken a matter vpon the, harde to bringe about.
Huic nostro tradita est prouincia, the matter is commited to this felowe of myne.
Obtinere prouinciam, to haue the charge or gouernaunce of any prouynce.
Prouinciális. le. of or belongyng to a prouynce, or that dwelleth in a prouynce.
Prouinciátim, from countrey to countrey, or one countrey with an other.
Prouísio, ônis, f. g. a forecasting of a thyng, prouidyng, purueyghyng.
Prouíso, ísi, ere, to see or beholde, to goe to see, to come forth to see.
Prouísor, ôris, m. g. a forecaster, a purueyghor or prouyder for thynges before they come.
Prouísus, a, um, forecast, considered before.
Prouíuo, íxi, ere, to liue longer.
Prouocátio, ônis, fœ. g. a prouokyng, a chalengeyng, an appeale to an hygher courte.
Ex prouocatione dimicare, To fyght by chalenge.
Prouocátor, ôris, m. g. he that prouoketh one, he that appealeth, the appealant.
Prouocatórius, a, um, pertaynyng to prouoking, or chalengeyng.
Prouocátus, a, um, prouoked steered, chalenged.
Prouocátus ab hoste ad dimicandum, chalenged of his enemie to fyght.
Prouóco, aui, are, to call from a farre, to call forth, to steere, to taunte, to prouoke, to chalenge, to exhorte, also to appeale to an hygher iudge, to defie one in battaile.
De Cæsare transactum est, neq; iam prouocari in integrum potest, as touchyng Cesar, that is at a poynct, nor it can in any wyse be called againe, or that whiche is doone can not be vndoone.
Herus si domi est quin prouocas? if thy maister be at home, why dooest thou not call hym forth?
Prouocare ad pugnam, to defie, to chalenge to fyght with one.
Didicit homo naturam prouocare, id est, vincere.
Prouocare iniuriis, by doeynge iniurie or wronge, to prouoke or steere a man to dwe hym displeasure.
Ad populum prouocare, to appeale to the people.
Pamphilam cantatũ prouocemus, let vs praie Pamphila to synge: o, let vs call Pamphila to synge.
Próuolo, aui, are, to flee awaie or beyonde, to flee faste, and by translacion, to renne or ryde out a pace as one dyd flee.
Prouóluo, uolui, ere, to rolle or tumble a great stone or other like thing, somtyme to lye downe prostrate.
Prouoluere se ad genua, to fall downe prostrate at ones knees.
Prout, for Sicut, as, lyke as, euen as.
Prout cuique libido est, euen as euery mans pleasure or phantasie is.
Promulgo, aui, are, to promulgate.
Prox, of olde writers was taken for Proba vox, a good voyce or noyse.
Proxenéta, æ, m. g. a broker.
Proxi me, nerte.
Is quem proxime nominaui, he that I named last.
Proxime quum in patria fui, whan I was last in my countrey.
Proxime tanuam, nest to the gate.
Proxime morem Romanum, as nere the fashion of the Romaines as coulde be.
Quæ proxime accedunt ad verum, whiche are most lyke to be true.
Vt proxime vtriusque differentiam signem, that I make note the difference of them bothe as nerely as can be possible.
Proxime, first of all, Mox, then after, Tertio, thyrdly.
Proximi, for Proximo: die Proximi, the nexte daie.
Proximitas, átis, f. g nighnes, neighbourhood, the nyghest degree of kynred.
Proximior, more nere.
Próximo, aui, are, to approche or drawe neere, to be next.
Proximórium, rij, n. g. a place without ỹ walles toignyng to the cities, where bysshops dyd assemble in their conuocation.
Próximus, a, um, nerte.
Sedere proximum ad aliquem, to sit next vnto one.
His mensibus sex proximis, these six monethes last paste.
Proximo seculo, the next age after.
In proximum senatum, vntyll the next parliament or counsaile.
Proximus vicinus, the nerte neyghbour.
Proximus, the laste of all, Superior, the other before, Primus, the first of the three.
Optimum, the beste, Proximum, the nexte, Tertium, the thyrde.
Proximus ante me fuit, he was nert before me.
Proximus post Lisandrum, nexte after Lysander.
Laudem Planco proximam assequutus est, he was praised for the best next after Plancus.
Proximus sum egomet mihi, I must be best friende to my selfe, or I muste serue my selfe firste, Or, I loue you well, but I loue myne owne selfe better.
Proximus Pompeium sedebam, I sate nexte to Pompey.
Proximus optimis, he that is alwaie in company with the beste and most honest men.

Proximum vino guſtu, as lyke the taſte of wyne as can be.

Proxima ab Aegypto Campana eſt copia roſæ, excepte Egypt, no place in the worlde hath greatter plentie of roſes than Campaine hath.

Tibi amanti patriam amore nos proximi ſumus, nerte after your countrey, you loue vs moſte entierly.

Proximum, a ſubſtantiue.

Eamus ad me, ibi proximum eſt vbi mutes, goe we to my houſe, there is the nerte place where thou maieſt moſt conuenientlie change thy rayment.

In proximo, here harde by, not farre hence.

Prudens, entis, om. g wyſe, prudent, knowyng, experte.

Quæ prudens omitto, whiche I dwe wyllyng gly and of purpoſe let paſſe.

Prudens, ſciens, viuus, vidénſque pereo, I die beyng ware or wittyng and knowyng therof, beyng on lyue and ſeyng, Or I wilfully caſt awaie my ſelfe.

Ob ea ſe peti prudens, knowyng that he is purſued for them.

Prudens adminiſtrandi, expert, cunnyng and knowyng howe to gouerne

Prudens agricolationis vir, a man well expert in houſbandrie.

Prudens locorum, he that knoweth the waies, places and paſſages

Prudenter, wyſely, circumſpectly, prudently, expertly.

Prudéntia, æ, f. g. prudentie, wyſedome in deſcrynge and eſchewyng of thynges.

Prudentia iuris ciuilis, knowlage of the lawe ciuile.

Adhibere prudentiam, to vſe wyſedome in dooeyng a thyng.

Prugnum, olde writers vſed for Pronum, prone or ayte.

Pruina, æ, f. g. froſte.

Pruinóſus, a, um, froſtie, or that is in daunger to be hurte by froſte.

Pruna, æ, f. g. a burnyng cole.

Prunella, æ, f. g. an herbe called commonly Brunella, Burnette, after other ſelfe heale.

Prunéolum, or Prúnulum, a wylde ſloe.

Pruneolus, the tree that beareth wylde ſloes.

Prunétum, ti, n. ge. an ozcharde ſet with damaſcine trees and plumme trees.

Prunioli, ſmalle muſhrons.

Prunum, i, neu. g. a damaſyne, prune, plumme, ſloe or bullaſſe.

Pruna ſatiua, damaſcens.

Prunus, i, fœ. gene. a damaſyne tree or plumme tree.

Prurigo, riginis, fœm g idem quod pruritus, ytchyng with a delectacion, as in the ſcrapyng of lecherye.

Prúrio, riui, ire, to ytche, by tranſlacion, to haue an appetyte or deſyre to dwe a thyng.

Pruritus, us, m. g. ytchynge.

Pruſa, a citee in Greece at the foote of the mountaine Olympus.

Pruſenſes, the people of Pruſa.

Pruſias, a kynge of Bithynia, vnto whom Hannibal fledde after he was banyſhed from Carthage.

Prylis, Mercurius ſoonne.

Prymneſia, a citee of Maronia.

Prymnéſium, ii, n. g. a poſte or ſtake, wherunto the cabull of a ſhyp is tyed: After ſome, the cabull it ſelfe.

Prymno, a nymphe or mayden of the ſea, one of the daughters of Oceanus.

Prytanea, a counſaile aſſembled of great officers and iudges.

Prytaneum, the counſaile houſe in the caſtell of Athens.

Prytanis, the preſident or chiefe of the counſail.

P ANTE S.

PSallo, li, ere, to ſynge, alſo to plaie on the harpe or lute.

Pſalmódia, æ, f. g. a diuers or myxt ſonge.

Pſalmus, i, ma. gene. a ſonge, properly to god or of God.

Pſalténium, ii, neu. ge. an inſtrument like to an harpe, but more pleaſant and ſweter. alſo the pſalmes called the pſalter.

Pſaltes, tis, m. g. a ſyngyng man. Pſaltrius, idē.

Pſáltria, æ, f. g. a ſyngyng woman.

Pſamate, a fountaine in Thebes alſo a citee and a mountaine. Alſo the daughter of Crotopus, kynge of Argyues. an other was a nymphe, daughter of Nereus.

Pſammenitus, a kynge of Aegypt vanquiſhed by Cambiſes.

Pſammeticus, a kynge of Aegypte, in whoſe time 200008. Egyptians forſoke theyr countrey and went to the Aethiopes.

Pſammos, ſande.

Pſaphon, a mā of Libya, which affecting a diuine name, taught birdes to ſpeke thus: Pſaphon is a great god.

Pſecas, pſécadis, f. gen. a droppe or myſtyng lyke dewe. alſo a nymph, one of Dianas cōpanions.

Pſegma, ătis, neu. g. the ponder or duſt, whiche is blowne of from braſſe whan it is melted alſo golden ſande, or ponder of golde.

Pſellus, the name of an olde writer, which wrate of diete.

Pſenes, wormes in figges.

Pſephiſma, phiſmatis, n. g. a decree.

Pſephopecta, m. ge. an auditour or eſtter of accoumpte.

Pſeudo, faulſe or counterfaite, and euery other noune ioyned therwith is therby made faulſe or counterfaite, as Pſeudopropheta, a faulſe or counterfaite prophete.

Pſeudadelphus, i, m. ge. a counterfaite brother.

Pſeu-

Pseudangelus, li, m. g. a false messenger.
Pseudobunium, a certaine herbe.
Pseudocato, a counterfeite Cato.
Pseudographus, i, m. g. a counterfaite writer.
Pseudologus, a ipar, a false speaker.
Pseudolus, li, m. g. a fauise seruaunt.
Pseudonardus, di, spike.
Pseudo martyr, a fauise witnesse.
Pseudómenos, a ipar.
Pseudónymus, that hath a fauise and counterfaite name.
Pseudopaliurus, Staphisagria.
Pseudoprophéta, æ, m. g. a fauise prophete.
Pseudóthyrum, ri, n. g. a fauise or counterfaite posterne.
Pseudourbana ædificia, houses in the countrey trimmed somwhat ipke the citee.
Psilothrum, thri, n. g. an ointment to take awap heare. It is also a white wine.
Psimmythium, n. g. that which we doo call Ceruse or white leade.
Psitta, tæ, f. g. a fiſshe, whiche we call a plaice.
Psittacus, ci, m. g. a popiniape.
Psole, les, f. g. mentula.
Psophis, the daughter of Erix.
Psora, æ, f. g. a certaine scurfinesse.
Psora, æ, f. g. an herbe, whiche Ruellius doubteth, whether it be that, whiche we commonly call Scabiose, or it that hath a long leafe, and being broken in sunder, haue in the breakynge litteil threedes ipke to a copweb, & hath a faire blewe floure, it groweth commonly in ozie medowes.
Psoriosis, hardenesse of the coddes.
Psorothálmia, æ, f. g. a scurfinesse of the browes with an itche.
Psyche, idem quod Tripolium.
Psichium, a kynde of wyne.
Psychrola, læ, m. g. he that waſsheth in colde water.
Psycolútres, he that deliteth to bathe in colde water.
Psycomantium, ii, n. g. a place where Nicromancers doe call vp spirites.
Psycotrophum, i, n. g. an herbe called betaine.
Psychrophobi, they that be afraide to giue colde water in continuall feuers.
Psylli, people in Lybia, whose bodies are venyme to serpentes, and they also dooe cure the stingyng and popsonyng of serpentes, by sucknyng the place, whiche is venomed.
Psyllion, an herbe called also Pulicaris herba, in English flea woorte.
Psyllium, a citee of Buthynia, called commonly Picello.
Psyra, an yle not farre from Chius, whereof Homere writeth Odissea. ȝ. and a citee of the same name.
Psythia, a grape,

PTe, a syllable ioygned oftentymes to the ablatiue case: as Meapte, Tuapte, Suapte, mync owne, thync owne, his owne.
Ptelea, the elme tree.
Ptera, æ, fœ. g. the walles on bothe sydes of a temple.
Pteria, a citee in Cappadocia.
Ptermo, onis, a kibe or chilblayne.
Pteris, ris, f. g. ferne, or herbe osmunde or brake.
Pterómata, orum, n. g. great arches made ouer rooses ipke wynges.
Pterna, næ, f. g. the lowgher parte of the mast in a shyppe.
Pterotoros, a countrey by the mountaines Riphei.
Pterýgium, ii, n. g. a litteil shinne, which groweth from the corner of the eie, and couereth the syghte. it is also a grieke vnder the foreparte of the nayle, whan the flesshe goeth from the nayle with pepne: or after other, a swellynge of the flesshe ouer the nayle.
Pthia, a parte of Thessalie, where Achilles reigned.
Ptisana, æ, f. g. the water, wherin barley is sodden. also barley hulled or excoriate. also frumente made of barley.
Ptisanárium, ii, n. g. a morter, wherin barley is braied.
Procotróphium, phii, n. g. an hospitall for begsgars, a spitell house.
Ptolomeus, the name of diuers kynges of Iegypte.
Ptolomais, maidis, the name of a citee in Phœnicia, first called Acha.
Ptósis, ruine, also the cale of a nowne.
Ptyas, adis, fœ. g. an adder, haupnge the colour grene, drawyng towarde the colour of golde.
Ptynge, a rauenouse bryde, whiche taketh his praie by night, and sometyme fighteth with the egle so valiauntly, that in crabbynge together they fall bothe downe to the grounde, and are taken of sheepeherdes.
Ptysis, is spittel. it is also an exulceration or sore in the longes, with a consumption of all the bodie, and spittyng of bloudde.

PVbens, bentis, om. g. he that is betweene a ponge mā and a bope, of the age of xuii. peres.
Pubentes herbæ, id est, adultæ, growen bigge, almost ryppe.
Pubeo, bes, ui, ere, to beginne to haue a bearde beneeth, sometyme to spryngе as herbes dooe.
Púberes, puberum, Puberibus, m. g. plu. that be of age able to engendre.
Pubertas, ātis, fœ. ge. the ponge age of men and women, whan they beginne to be apte for generation. it is also the fyrste sompnge sooythe of heares about the pryuie membres.

Pubes, bis, fœ. g. a yonge mokie beardе, whiche ſpringeth in the nether parres of a man at foures teene yeere of age, of a woman at yonger yeres, wherfore a man or woman at thoſe yeres is called Pubes, ſometime youth, or a multitude of yonge men. alſo the priuie partes of the bodie. alſo beynge an adiectiue it ſignifieth full growen, almoſt rype.

Pubera ætas, youthe, whan one begynneth to ware a man.

Pubera folia, id eſt, adulta.

Pubeſco, ſcere, to begynne to ware a man, and haue a beardе, to growe as a childe dooeth to mans ſtate. it is alſo ſpoken of herbes & trees, to growe bigge, to ware rype.

Omnis largo pubeſcit vinea fœtu, id eſt, exuberat.

Publicânus, i, m. g. he that tobe in ferme of the people of Rome, the rentes and reuenewes due to the citee at a rent certaine.

Publicatio, ônis, f. g. a publiſhyng, a makyng of a thyng common, confiſcation.

Publicè, openly in the face of the worlde.

Sumptus publicè dati, his expences borne of the citee or towne.

Publicè redimere, to bye it of the common treaſure.

Publicè bona poſsidere, to haue goodes confiſcate or forfaited.

Publicè ad me venit, He came to me openly, that euery man might ſee hym.

Venire publicè, to come as ambaſſadour from a citee or common weale.

Publicè dicere, to make an oracion before the people.

Publicè propter duas cauſas nihil ſcripſi, for two cauſes I wrate not to the ſenate, and the people.

Publicè & priuatim oneri eſſe, to bee chargeable bothe to the common wealthe, and to his particular frendes.

Publicè ſocius, one that is alied or confederate with vs for ſome matter pertenyng to the common wealthe.

Publicius, idem quod publicè, by common counſaile or aduiſe.

Quæ prohibere publicitus intereſt, whiche ſhall bee expediente for the people or common weale to be forboden.

Hoſpicio publicitus accipi, to bee caſte in the common gayole.

Publicius, a, um, common.

Público, aui, are, to publiſche, to manifeſt, to make openly knowne, to cauſe to bee openly cried, to make common. Alſo idem quod Edere, to ſet abroade, as a man dooeth a booke or other thynge. Alſo to abandon in commune, as harlottes doe. Sometyme to confiſcate.

Se publicare, to ſhewe hym ſelfe openly, that the people maie ſee hym.

Publicola, a fauourer of the people, which name was geuen to Valerius, whiche was one of the firſt conſulles of Rome.

Públicus, a, um, common, but more properly pubblike, that is to ſaie, pertenyng to euery man of the people ioyntly and ſeuerally. Seeme true definicion thereof in my booke called the gouernour.

Publicum conſilium, the commune counſaile.

Carére publico, not to come abroade, or amonge the people.

Publica ſacra, ſacrifices doen in common for the people.

Publica fides, a ſauffe conducte, a generall licence.

Publicum omnium eſt, it is cõmon to all men.

Per publicum vectus, caried abroade through the ſtrete.

Publica via, the kinges high waie

Publica vectigalia, tolles, cuſtomes, belongyng to the common treaſure.

Publica verba, common woordes that all ſortes of men dooe vſe.

Nemo publicum aſpicere volebat, no man would come abroade into the ſtrete, or common place.

Publicum, is vſed ſometyme for the common treaſure or reuenewes.

Publipor, publiporis, Publius boye or ſeruant.

Publius, the name of a Romayne, as Marcus is.

Pucinum, a towne of Iſtria.

Pucinum vinum, wyne growyng nyghe to the gouffe of Venice, by the towne Pucinum.

Pudefácio, pudefacis, feci, facere, to make aſhamed.

Pudefio, fis, fieri, to be aſhamed.

Pudenda, the priuie membres.

Pudendagra, a diſeaſe about the priuie membres, it is vſed for the frenche pockes.

Pudendus, a, um, a thyng to be aſhamed of.

Pudens, entis, om. g. ſhamefaſt.

Animi pudentis ſignum eſt, it is a token of a ſhamefaſt mynde.

Pudenter, with ſhamefaſtneſſe, bafhefully, ſhamefaſtely.

Pudeo, dui, dere, to be aſhamed, and is moſt vſed in the thyrde perſone.

Pudet, pudebat, puduit, puditum eſt, to bee aſhamed.

Non te hæc pudent? arte thou not aſhamed of theſe thynges.

Pudet viuere, I am aſhamed to lyue.

Pudet dicere, I am aſhamed to tell.

Cuius nunc pudet me, whereof I am nowe aſhamed.

Tanq̃ puditurum eſſet extinctos, as though it would make them aſhamed that are dead.

Pudibundè, ſhamefaſtely.

Pudibundus, a, um, ſhamefaſte.

Dies pudibunda, id eſt, purpurea, a red mornyng.

Pudice, chaſtly, honeſtlie.

Pudicitia, æ, f. g. chastitee, cleanesse of liuynge, puritee.

Pudítum, ashamed.

Nonne esset puditum si hanc causam agerent scuére, had it not been a shame, if they had pursued that matter rigorously.

Pudicus, a, um, chaste, shamefast.

Pudor, ôris, m. g. a moderation that letteth the mynde to doo any thynge wantonly or dishonestly, shamefastnesse to late or doe any thynge dishonest. sometyme a naughtie and shamefull acte.

Ponere pudorem, to lese hir virginitee.

Incutere pudorem, to make ashamed.

Pudori esse, to make one ashamed of it.

Puella, æ, f. g. a wenche, a gyrle, a damsell.

Puellâris, re, thrydyshe, of gyrles, proppe to gyrles and wenches.

Puellâriter, lyke a wenche or gyrle, childyshely.

Puellasco, scere, to waxe yonge agayne, to bee maydenly, to waxe gyrlyshe.

Puéllula, æ, f. g. a litteli gyrle, a wenche.

Puellus, i, m. g. a litteli chylde, a babe.

Puer, eri, m. g. a childe, a boie, also a seruaunt.

A puero, a pueris, a puero paruulo, of a litteli babe, euer sence I was a chylde.

Puera, æ, f. g. a woman childe, a damsell, called in Cambridge shire a modder.

Pueraſco, rascere, to begynne his boies age, to waxe a boye after .vii. yeres of age.

Puerilis, le, of a chylde, childyshe or boyeshe.

Puerilitas, âtis, fœ. g. a childes act, chyldishnes, boyeshenesse, also for Puericia, childehoode.

Puériliter, childishely, lyke a boye.

Puericia, æ, f. g. childehoode.

Puérpera, æ, fœ. g. a woman that lieth in chylde bed, a woman late brought on bedde.

Puerpérium, ij, n. g. the tyme of a woman to trauaple of chylde, sometyme the chylde. also the byrthe.

Puérperus, a, um, that beareth children.

Puérulus, i, m. g. an infant.

Puerus, i, m. g. was vsed of olde writers, for Puer.

Pugil, púgilis, com. g. a champion.

Pugillâris, ris, m. g. & pugillare, or Pugillar, aris, n. g. plur. Pugillares, a paire of tables to wryte in.

Pugillâtio, ônis, f. g. the exercyse of champions, or them that fyght with theyr fystes.

Pugilâtus, us, m. g. fyghtyng with the fystes.

Pugilicè, valiauntly, strongely, myghtyly, lyke a champion.

Pugilatórius, a, um, that is stryken with the fyste.

Pugilatorius follis, a balle fylled onely with wynde, whiche is stryken with a mans fyste and not with the palme.

Pugio, ônis, m. g. a daggar.

Pugio plumbeus, by translation, a weake argument.

Pugiúnculus, li, m. g. a shorte daggar, a popnecdowe.

Pugillus, li, m. g. a litteli fyste.

Pugna, æ, f. g. battayle, fyght, contencion, strife, sometyme the acte of lecherie, also an assaut, a decree.

Dare pugnam, to geue the onsette.

Dabit hic aliquam pugnam denuo, this felow will cause some debate or strife agayne.

Pugnácitas, âtis, f. g. contencion, fyghtyng, despite or appetite to fyghte.

Pugnácter, valiauntly in battayle, with great force and courage, contentiously, obstinately, instantly, eagerly.

Pugnaculum, li, n. g. a place where men doe fyght.

Pugnans, antis, om. g. fyghtyng, strivyng, contendyng, beyng contrarie or against.

Pugnantes sententiæ, contrary sentences.

Pugnátor, ôris, m. g. a fyghter.

Pugnantor gallus gallinaceus, a fyghtynge cocke, a cocke of the game.

Pugnátior, & pugnacíssimus, more or moste fightyng.

Pugnátus, a, um, fought.

Pugnax, âcis, om. g. a great fyghter, warlyke, contentiouse.

Pugnicula, æ, f. g. a shrympe.

Pugno, aui, are, to fight, to repugne, to contende, to bee contrarie or agaynst, to strive, to dispute or reason contrarie, to labour or endeuour.

Cum senectute pugnare, to stryue agaynste age.

Pugnant de loco, they contende or strive for theyr place.

Ex equo pugnare, to fyght on horsebacke.

E muris pugnare, to fyght on the walles against them that assaute.

In hostem pugnare, to fyght against his enemie.

In frontem pugnare, to fyghte frunte to frunt.

Omnes pro Quintio pugnant, they all defend Quintius, or speake earnestly on his parte.

Cum eorum vita pugnat oratio, theyr wordes and lyfe agree not, or are contrarie one to an other.

Quæ tantum inter se pugnant, that bee so contrarie and repugnant one to an other

Illud video pugnare te, I se that you contende to haue this graunted you.

Non magnopere pugnare, id est, non valde laborare. Conuellere pugnat, he endeuoureth or laboureth to pulle them vp.

Pugnatur, the impersonall.

Hoc pugnatur, this they contende or labour to bryng to passe.

Pugnaueris, you shall doe a wonderfull great matter, spoken in mockage.

Pugnus, i, m. g. a fyste.

One-

Onerare pugnis, to geue one as many blowes with the fiſte, as he is able to beare.
Impingere pugnum, to geue one a blowe.
Pugnum altas facio, make them an handeful bygh.
Pulchellus, a fayre litteli one.
Pulchellus puer, a fayre litteli boye.
Pulcher, chra, chrum, fayre, beautifull, gaie, goodly to ſee, well fauoured, ſtronge, tall.
Mors pulchra, a glorpouſe death.
Pulcherrimè, moſt beautifully.
Pulcherrimus, a, um, fayreſt.
Pulchrâlis, le, fayre.
Pulchrè, an aduerbe ſignifieth faire, goodly, gaye ly, toldy, freſſhely, beautifully, wel fauouredly, ſometyme valiauntly. alſo wiſely. ſometyme it is put for Valde.
pulchrè ſuades, thou counſaileſte me veray wyſely.
Pulchre locare operam, to beſtowe his labour well.
Pulchrè notus, veray well knowne.
Pulchre valet Carinus, Carinus is in veray good healthe.
Ac dum accubabam, Ꝯ videbar mihi pulchrè eſſe ſobrius: and whyle Ꝯ ſate at the table Ꝯ thought my ſelfe to be veray ſobre.
Pulchritas, atis, f. g. beautie, fayreneſſe, gaienes.
Pulchreſco, ſcere, to be fayre or ware faire.
Pulchritudo, inis, f. g. beautie, featneſſe of perſonage.
Pulegium, ij, n. g. an herbe, wherof there is male and female, the male hath purple flowres, the female white. It is taken for common penyroyall. But Hermolaus Barbarus doubteth, whether Pulegium bee penyroyall, or a kynde of Calamint. Manardus writeth that there is no differēce betwene our Pulegium, and the other, hauyng in it the ſame qualities. Theophraſtus and Plinius do write, that the braunches therof hanged vp in a larder in the depe of wynter, doe bryngе forth flowres, whiche alſo nowe mought be eaſily proued. alſo beyng drunke with Wellicrate, it purgeth melancolye exceedyngly. Pulegium, is ſometyme vſed for pleaſauntneſſe or ſweteneſſe of wordes.
Puleium, ij, n. g. idem quod pulegium.
Pulex, pulicis, m. g. a flea.
Pulex araneus, a certayne ſpyder.
Pulicaria, the herbe called Pſilion.
Pulicinus, a, um, of a flea.
Pulicôſus, a, um, full of fleas.
Pullârius, ij, m. g. a keper, nouriſher or breeder of chickens. alſo he that by the feedyng of chickens would diuine what ſhoulde come.
Pullaſter, i, m. g. a ponge cockerell.
Pullaſtra, æ, f. g. a ponge pullet.
Pullitio, onis, f. g. hatching or bryngyng vp of chickens.
Pullâtus, a, um, clad in mournyng apparayle. ſometyme a man in poore apparayle, ſometyme rude, vnlearned.
Circulus pullatus, a companie of vnlearned perſons.
Pulleſco, ſcere, to ſpryngе or burgen.
Pullicenus, ni, m. g. a newe hatched chicken.
Pulligo, iginis, browne or naturall colour.
Pullinus, a, um, of a colte or ponge chicken.
Dentes pullini, coltes teeth, that be firſt caſt.
Pullities, ei, f. g. a bryngyng forth or hatchyng of chickes. alſo the keping of coltes. ſometyme the chickens or coltes them ſelues.
Pullulaſco, laſcere, to burgen.
Pullulo, aui, are, to ſpryngе, to come vp ponge.
Pullulus, a diminutiue of Pullus.
Pullus, li, m. g. the ponge of euery thyng. alſo a colte or fole, alſo a chicken.
Pulli ranarum, ponge frogges.
Equinus pullus, a ponge colte.
Pulli apum, ponge bees.
Pulli arborum, ponge ſpringes or ſhootes of trees.
Pullus, a, um, ruſſet, ſometyme blacke, but eyther pulle colour, betwene ruſſet and blacke.
Veſtis pulla, a mournyng garment.
Pulmentâris, re, belongyng to pottage.
Pulmentârium, ij, n. g. pottage made with fleſh or fyſſhe, as kocrede gruell or colyſe.
Pulmentum, ti, n. g gruell, pottage.
Pulmo, onis, m. g. the longes or lyghtes.
Pulmonâria, æ, f g. an herbe called longe worte. or after other broade moſſe. or after ſome haſel ragge.
Pulmonarius, a, um, that is diſeaſed in the lōges.
Pulmonia, be certayne apples, whiche be called in ſome place an hundred chilpynges.
Pulpa, æ, fœ. g. the woddy of all trees that may bee diuided by ſtringes. it is alſo taken for Carnoſitee or fleſhye partes. ſometyme for the ſofte matter that is incloſed in an harde ſhell, as Pulpa caſſiæ fiſtulæ, for the inner part thereof called alſo Medulla.
Pulpamentum, i, n. g. a delicate diſhe, or meate.
Pulpitum, i, n. g. an hauite place or pulpyte.
Puls, pultis, f. g. a meate made of meale, water, honie, cheeſe, and egges, it may bee taken for pottage, it is lyke that whiche is nowe called whitepot.
Pulſâtilis, le, that beateth or knocketh.
Pulſatiles venæ, the pulſes of a mā or woman.
Pulſâtio, onis, f g. a beatyng ſtrikyng, or knockyng, the ſtrikyng of the ſtringes, or playyng on an inſtrumente.
Pulſator, oris, m ge one that ſtriketh or knocketh, one that playeth on an inſtrument, as an harpe or lute.
Pulſâtus, a, um, ſtriken as an harpe or other inſtrumente is, whiche hath ſtringes, knocked, beaten.
Pulſim, as a thyng were ſtriken.
Pulſo, aui, are, to beate, to ſtrike, to hurte, to playe on an harpe or other lyke inſtrumente.

Pulſare hoſtium, to knocke at the dore.
Pulſare lyram, to plaie vpon an harpe.
Pulſula, æ, f. g. a litteil puſhe, wheale, or bliſter on a mans fyngcr.
Pulſus, us, m. ge beatyng, ſtrykyng, thumping, alſo the wreſt of the arme, where to the hande ioyneth. but it is more properly the ſtroke that the arteres or beatyng beines do make, wherebye the ſtrength or debilitie of the ſickeneſſe is knowne in touchyng them.
Pultárius, ij, m. gen. a pottage diſhe or a veſſell wherein the meate called Puls, was ſodden or made.
Pulticula, æ, f. g. a litteil pottage.
Pultiphagus, a, um, a greate eater or deuourer of potage.
Pulto, aui, are, to beate at a dore, to knocke.
Puluero, aui, are, to diſſolue into duſte, to laie ouer with duſte, to be duſtie.
Pulueréſco, ſcere, to be turned into pouder or duſte.
Pulueréus, a, um, of duſte, duſtie, full of duſt.
Pulueriátio, ônis, fœm. g. a laiyng of fine earth about vynes, alſo a diſſolueyng into duſte, an harrowyng, a breakyng of clodddes.
Pulueruléntus, a, um, full of duſte.
Puluíllus, i, m g. a pyllowe or couſchen.
Puluínar, áris, n g. a bolſtar of a bed, alſo a bed that was wonte to be made in temples, as it were for the gods. it is taken ſometyme for a temple. alſo a tabernacle, wherein an image ſtandethe.
Puluinárium, ij, neu. g. a bedde made to the honour of Iuno, or any other god or goddeſſe in theyr temples.
Puluinátus, a, um, ſofte as a pyllowe, in facion lyke a pyllowe or couſhyn.
Puluinulus, li, m. ge. a diminutiue of Puluinus, a litte bed in a gardeyne.
Puluínus, i, m. ge. a pyllowe: ſometyme a fether bedde. alſo a couſhyn, alſo a bed of herbes in a gardeine, ſometyme a place made in a gardeine lyke a bed, where one lyeth for his recreation and pleaſure. alſo grauell or ſande harde lyke ſtone. alſo an ingyne, wherewith chippes be brought into the docke.
Scorteus puluinus, a couſhin of lether.
Puluis, púlueris, com. ge. pouder, duſte. ſometyme the place where games be exercyſed.
In ſuo puluere currere, to write or ſpeake in a matter that he is well aquainted with, or hath ben well exercyſed in.
Citra puluerem contingere, when a thynge chaunceth to one eaſily without any labour or trauaile.
Puluer, vſed of olde writers for Puluis.
Puluis, is vſed of Catullus in the genitiue caſe for Puluéris.
Puluiſculus, li, m. g. or Puluiſculum, li, n. gen. fyne pouder or duſte.
Pumex, púmicis, m. ge. a pumeiſe to make parchement ſmoothe. alſo to take ſpottes or letters cleane out.
Leuior pumice, a nyſe and effeminate perſon.
☞ A pumice aquam querere, to ſeeke a thynge of a man that he hath not, to begge a byrch of a bare arſe man.
Pumex, is ſometyme vſed in the feminine gender.
Pumicátio, ônis, f. g. pumiſhyng or poliſhyng.
Pumicâtus, a, um, pumiſhed or poliſhed, made ſmooth or ſlyke with a pumeiſe.
Púmico, aui, are, to pumeiſe, to make ſmoothe with a pumeiſe.
Pumicôſus, and Pumiceus, a, um, dyrie, hollow, full of poores or holes lyke a pumeiſe.
Pumicoſus locus, a place where pumeiſes do growe.
Pumiceos oculos habeo, I haue eies as dyrie as a pumeiſe ſtone, I can not weepe.
Púmilis, le, little in ſtature.
Pumilio, ônis, & pumilius, lij, Púmilo, ônis, and Pumulus, li, m. g. a dwarfe or any thyng little in ſtature.
Punctim, ſoynyng.
Punctio, ônis, fœ. ge. a ſoynyng, a prickyng or ſtyngynge.
Punctiúncula, læ, fœ. gen. a little pryche with a nedle or pin.
Punctum, i, n. g. a pryche with a pyn or nedle.
Punctus, i, m. gen. or more often. Punctum, i, neu. ge. a poynct, a little pryche. alſo the leaſte portion of any thyng that can bee, ſometyme a mans voice, fauour, aſſent or conſent in election or iudgement. Alſo the principall poyncte or chiefe propoſition in an argument.
Punctus temporis, a moment, the leaſt part of time.
Omne tulit punctum, he had the fauour or voice of euerie man, or he was praiſed or commended of euerie man.
Quantum punctorum nobis detraxerit howe manie mennes voyces or fauours they withdrewe from vs, or hyndred vs of.
Punctus, a, um, pryched.
Punctus, us, m. g. prychyng.
Pungo, púpugi, púngere, to pryche, to ſoine, to ſtynge, by tranſlacion to ſolicite or make ſomewhat carefull, to vexe or diſquiete a little, to hurte, to greue, and as we ſaie, to nettle, to byte by the ſtomake.
Intellexi quid eum pupugiſſet, I perceiued what had greued or diſpleaſed hym.
Extrema pagella pupugit me, id eſt, offendit, læſit.
Vnum enim me pungit, for one thyng maketh me ſolicitouſe and carefull, or a little troubleth my mynde.
Punicânus, a, um, of Afrike or Carthage.
Punicanæ feneſtræ, ſuche wyndowes as they vſe in Carthage.
Puniceus, a, um, idem quod Punicus.

Pú-

Púnicus, a, um, of Afrike, or of Carthage.
Bellum punicum, the warre that the Romains had with the Carthaginences.
Punicum malum, a pomegranarde.
Punicus, aut Puniceus color, redde.
Punica fides, falsehoode, periurie, vntruth, breache of promise.
Púnio, ui, ire, to punishe, to chastise.
Punire capite, to beheade.
Púnior, iris, iri, the deponent, to punishe.
Punior, the passiue to be punished.
Punitio, ónis, f. g. a punyshement.
Punitor, óris, m. g. a punisher, a chastiser.
Pupa, æ, f. g. a ponge wenche, a gyrle, a modder. it is also a puppet like a girle.
Pupilla, æ, fœ. ge. the ball or apple of the eie, or rather the sight of the eie, that is the hole of the nether skin called Ragoides, in the whiche the vertue visible consisteth, and that parte of the eie representeth the image of any thyng lyke a glasse.
Pupillâris, re, of or belongyng to hym that is a warde by reason of none age.
Pupillaris ætas, the none age of hym that is in warde.
Pupillo, aui, are, to crie like a peeoche.
Pupillus, li, m. g. & Pupilla, æ, f. ge. a man or woman childe that is in warde, or within age, not able in peres to occupie his propre lande. also one that hath no father on lyue.
Puppis, is, fœm. g. the hinder parte of a ship, in poetes sometyme the whole ship. by translation the moste honorable estate and condition in the common weale.
Puppius, a poetes name.
Púpula, æ, idem quod pupilla.
Pupulus, li, m. gen. a diminutiue of Pupus, and Pupula, a diminutiue of Pupa.
Pupus, i, m. gene. a pong chylde, a babye, also a puppet or image like a childe.
Pure, purely.
Purgábilis, le, that maye be easily purged or clensed.
Purgamentum, i, purgamen, inis, n. g. fylthe, whiche commeth of any thyng that is clensed.
Purgátio, ónis, f. g. a purgacion or purgeyng, a clensyng, a scourgyng, an excuse.
Purgátus, a, um, clensed, purged, excused.
Purgo, áui, áre, to purge, to make cleane, to scoure. also to excuse.
Pisces purgare, to drawe and washe the fysshe.
Vngues purgare, to pare or make cleane the nailes.
Purgare se alicui, or Apud aliquem, de re aliqua, to excuse hym selfe.
Crimen purgare, to purge ones self of a thing that is laied to his charge.
Fastidium purgare, to put awaie the lothesomenesse of the stomake.
Purificátio, ónis, fœm. gen. a purifyng or clensyng.
Purifico, aui, are, to purifie, or make pure & cleane
Purimé, olde writers vsed for Purissime, most purely.
Púritas, átis, f. g. pureneſſe, cleanesse.
Púriter, purely, cleanely.
Puro, aui, are, to make pure.
Púrpura, æ, fœ. gen. a purple, whiche is a shell fysshe, whereof purple colour cometh: somtyme a garment of purple. also the dignitee of a magistrat or officer.
Purpurárius, a, um, pertaynyng to purple or loure.
Purpuraſco, scere, to be of purple colour, to ware of purple colour.
Purpurâtus, a, um, apparailed in purple.
Purpurati, be the noble men of a realme, called peeres.
Purpúreus, a, um, of purple colour. also faire, goodlie. sometyme for Cæruleus, colored lyke the sea. it is red in Horace for Purpurasus.
Purpuriſſo, aui, are, to peinct the vysage ruddie.
Purpuriſſum, si, n. ge. red peinctyng, wherwith harlottes do peinct their vysages.
Purrhicharius, loohe Pyrrhicharius.
Purulentus, a, um, full of matter or corruption.
Purulente, filthily, corruptly, lyke as it were full of matter.
Purus, a, um, cleane, pure, fine, without spot or filth, also voyde.
Aurum purum, gold fined.
Charta pura, cleane paper, wherein nothyng is written.
Hasta pura, a speare staffe without an heade, whiche was geuen for a prize to them that had vainquished in battaile.
Vasa pura, playne plate not grauen, chased or wrought vpon.
Toga pura, that is but of one colour.
Pus, puris. neu. gen. matter or corruption that cometh out of a wounde or sore.
Pura, is sometyme vsed in the plurall numbre.
Pusillánimis, me, faint herted, feeble courages.
Pusillanimitas, tátis, fœm. gen. faint courage, cowardise.
Pusillanimiter, cowardlye.
Pusillus, a, um, little, shorte, small.
Pusillum laxamenti, a little recreacion.
Pusilla epistola, a verie shorte letter or epistle.
Pusio, ónis, m. g. a little boye.
Pustula, æ, a pushe, a little wheale or blyster.
Pustulâtus, a, um, full of blysters, wheales, or pushes.
Pustulatum argentum, The moste pure and fyne syluer.
Púsula, æ, f. g. a blister or a pushe that riseth on breade when it is bakē. also the disease called Ignis sacer.
Pusulósus, a, um, that hath that disease.
Pusum, & pusam, olde writers vsed for Puerum & Puellam, a boye and a girle.

Putá-

Putámen, táminis, n. g. a shale of a nut, or pas ryng of an apple or peare.
Putamina ouorum, egge shelles.
Putátio, ónis, f. g. a prunyng of trees, a cuttyng of of superfluouse bowes.
Putator, óris, m. g. he that pruneth, picketh, or dresseth trees, he that cutteth of the superflus ouse bowes of trees, a cutter of a vine.
Putatórius, a, um, belongynge to cuttyng or pru
nyng of trees
Puteal, alis, n. g. the seate of a great officer, also the couerynge of a well.
Puteâlis, le, & Puteânus, a, ũ, of a pitte or well.
Puteana aqua, well water.
Puteárius, ii, m. g. he that diggeth a pit or well.
Puteo, tui, ere, to stinke or haue an yll sauour.
Puteolanus, a, um, of Puteoli.
Puteoli, a citie in Campania.
Puteſco, pútui, ſcere, to waxe stinkyng or begyn to haue an yll sauoure.
Puteus, tei, m. g. a well or pyt.
Puteum, tei, is sometyme vsed in the neutre gen dre.
Putículi, órum, places where the common people were buried.
Putidé, stinkyngly, with an yll sauoure, vnplea santly.
Exprimere litteras putidé, to sowne or pro nownce the cõsonantes for affectiõ to hardely, or curiously.
Putidé dicere, to vse to curiouse and affectate
a style, with woordes not knowne or out of vse.
Putídulus, a, um, a diminutiue of Putidus, some what to muche affectate, somewhat to curiouse, somewhat vnpleasant to the eare.
Putíduli, be they that delyte not in theim selues.
Pútidus, a, um, stinkyng, vnsauourie, vnplea sant, to muche affectate.
Putida oratio, an vnpleasant stile, to muche affectate, full of strange woordes.
Pútius, a foole.
Puto, aui, are, to cut of or pluche a waie ỹ which is superfluouse, properly from trees, to prune trees, also to suppose, to consyder, to discusse, to gather or comforte, to esteme, to iudge, to thynke, to reken.
Putare rationem, to make an accompte, or to take an accompte.
Rem ipſam putaſti, thou haste sayde trouth.
Rationem ſecum putare, to cõsyder and weigh the mattier with hym selfe diligently.
Puta, in the imperatiue mode, is sometyme vs sed aduerbially for ſcilicet, or verbi gratia, and vt puta sykewyse.
Quod ego in propinqua parte amicitiæ puto, whiche thynge I reckon as one of the three partes of entier frendshyp and amitie.
Bene putas, your aduise is good.
Dum hæc puto, while I recounte these thin
ges with my selfe.
Putare in aliquo numero, to reken or repute somewhat woorthe, to esteeme somewhat.

Rem ipſam putemus, let vs debate and con sider the mattier it selfe how it is Putare pro nihilo, to esteeme or reken nos thing woorth, to set nothyng by.
Magni putare, to esteeme greatly.
Nunq̃ tanti putaſſem, I would neuer haue rec kened it so muche woorthe, or accomted it so great a mattier.
Dictum puta, presuppose the mattier to be spo ken all redie.
Putor, óris, m. g. stinche, yll sauour.
Putrédo, trédinis, f. g. corruption, rottennes.
Putrefácio, putrefacis, feci, ere, to corrupte or make rotten.
Putrefactus, a, um, corrupted or made rotten.
Putreo, trui, trére, to be rotten or corrupted, to be resolued into stinkyng mattier.
Putreſco, ſcere, to putrifie, to waxe rotte or corr rupte.
Pútridus, a, um, corrupte, rotten.
Putris, tre, corrupt, rotten.
Putus, a, um, pure, tried, fyned, purged.
Argentum purum putum, pure syluer, fyned and tried out from all other mattier.
Purus putus ſycophanta eſt, he is a very starke sycophant.
Purus putus eſt ipſus, it is the verape same, it is euen he and none other.

PYchon, the measure from the elbowe to the toppe of the knockles, whan the hande is fast together.
Pycnocomon, a certaine herbe, holsome to leuse
the healy.
Pycnóſtylon, li, n. ge. a house or place builded, where pyllars stande thicke together, a cloister or ythe place to walke in.
Pycta, tæ, or Pyctes, tæ, m. g. a wrestlar with a colar, a champion: Columella vseth it for a fyghtyng cocke.
Pyctátium, tii, n. g. a table, wherin the names of iudges were written.
Pygargus, gi, m. g. a beast lyke to a falowe deere,
a roe bucke. it is also a birde lyke to a hauke, haupng a white taple: I suppose hym to be that which we call an erne, and is a kinde of haukes or egles.
Pygiſta, tæ, m. g. one that vseth buggery.
Pygmáchia, æ, f. g. a fightynge with furie battes or clubbes.
Pygmachus, chi, m. g. a champion that vseth that kinde of fight.
Pygmæi, people betwene Indie and Cathay, whiche are but one cubite longe.
Pygmalion, lyke Pigmalion.
Pylæ, læ, f. g. a gate.
Pylades, the son of Strophius Orestes friende.
Pylæa, a place of Arcadie.

Pyles

Pylemines, a duke of the Paphlagonians, that came to Troie, and was slayne by Menelaus.
Pylene, a citee of Aetolia.
Pylos, an auncient citee of Achaia. Strabo writeth, that there were many citees called Pylus, and eche contended for Nestor.
Pylius, a, um, of Pylos or of Nestor.
Pympleides, looke Pimpleides.
Pynathes, milke crudded with sethyng.
Pyr, pyros, fyre.
Pyra, ræ, f. g. a bone fyre, wherin dead bodies were burned.
Pyracmon, one of the Cyclops.
Pyralis, lis, f. g. a flie, whiche cometh of the fire: and as lõge as he is therin, he liueth: and whan it is farre from it, he dieth incontinente. also a flie that fleeth into the leame of a candill.
Pyræchmes, a mannes name in Homer.
Pyrama, or rather Phyrama, a certayne roten.
Pyramon, breadde made of wheate.
Pyramidatus, a, um, made steeple wyse, brode beneth, and small and sharpe vpwarde.
Pyramis, rámidis, f. g. a great thyng of stone, or other mattier, which is brode and foure square benethe, and vpwardes is small and sharpe, as it were the flame of fire, a steple.
Pyramus, a ponge man, whiche slewe hym selfe for the loue of a maiden called Thisby. it is also a ruer in Cilicia.
Pyrander, a man of Athens.
Pyrátium, a kynde of spder called Pery.
Pyrausta, æ, f. g. a wourme liuynge in the fire, it is also a kinde of spyders, which hurteth honny combes. It is also the same that Pyralis is.
Pyreicus, a famouse caruer of small images.
Pyrene, a certayne fountayne. also the name of a maiden.
Pyren, rénis, f. g. the hernell of an olyue or other lyke: also a cherie stone.
Pyrenei montes, mountaynes, whiche doe diuide Fraunce from Spayne.
Pyreneus, trisyl. a kyng of Thrace.
Pyrethrum, thri, n. g. an herbe, called pelitorie.
Pyrethi, certayne inchauntours in Cappadocia.
Pyréthia septa, places inclosed, whiche had in the middell of them an aulter, on the whiche was kept fire continually bournyng.
Pyretus, a bournyng feuer.
Pyræus, looke Pireus.
Pyrgi, is thought to be an olde citee of Hetruria.
Pyrgitis, tis, f. g. the herbe called hartes tounge.
Pyrgitæ, sparowes.
Pyrgóbaris, a house builded lyke a towre.
Pyrgoteles, was a counynge grauer in stones.
Pyrgus, gi, m. g. in latine a towre. also a bore, out of the whiche men doe cast dyse, whan they playe. it is also a certayne companie of horsemen in battayle, conteinyng .40. souldiours.
Pyria, a citee of Lesbos.
Pyriasis, sis, f. g. a certayne plaister to asswage the bournyng of a feuer.

Pyrim, a littell hernell.
Pyrites, tis, m. g. euery stone, out of the whiche fyre may be striken. sometyme a mylle stone. also a stone lyke to brasse founde in Cypres.
Pyro, a nymph.
Pyróbola, læ, f. g. a smithes hammer, wherewith he beateth on hotte yron.
Pyróboli, orum, m. g. arrowes or dartes, which sende forth fyre, whan they be shot or caste, and doe burne the thynge that they doe touche.
Pyrobolárij, they whiche doe shoote such dartes.
Pyrocorax, âcis, a crowe with a redde byll, I suppose it to bee of the kynde that Cornishe choughes are.
Pyrodes, he that first streake fire out of a flint, also a stone of firy colour, or a flinte stone.
Pyromantia, æ, f. g. diuination by fire.
Pyrópus, pi, m. g. a kynde of Carbuncle.
Pyros, one of the horses of the Sunne.
Pyrois, pyroentis, idem.
Pyrpile, a certayne Iland, where fyre was first founde.
Pyrrha, the wyfe of Deucalió. also a citee of Caria. Erasmus saith, it is a citee of the yle of Lesbos.
Pyrrhia, a womans name in Horace.
Pyrrhica, cæ, vel Pyrriche, ches, f. g. a certayne foureme of daũsyng in harnesse. Tranquillus writeth, that the princes children of Asie and Bithynie daunced Pyrriche. Amonge the Lacedemonians, to men most warlyke, this was a peculiar daunce, whose children beganne to learne it from .v. yeres of age.
Pyrrhichistæ, they ꝑ exercise this kynde of daũce.
Pyrrhiachus, a, um, of that daunce.
Pyrrhicárius, rij, m. g. he that exerciseth the sayde daunce called Pyrrhica.
Pyrriadæ, was the auncient name of the people called Molossi.
Pyrrhichius, a foote i meeter of two short syllables
Pyrrho, a philosopher, which was first a painter.
Pyrrhocorax, racis, a birde, called of Aristotle coracirax, and is translated of Gaza Graculus, the descripti agreeth in all pointes to a cornish chough.
Pyrrhus, in latine Flauius, sine Rufus, he that hath a ruddy or fiery vilage: a kynge of Epire was so called, whiche made warre to the Romaines. also Neptolemus Achilles sonne was called Pyrrhus, a fierse and bolde ponge man, whiche slewe Priamus at the aultar, and Polyxena at his fathers graue.
Pyrum, ri, n. g. a peare.
Pyrus, ri, f. g. a peare tree.
Pythágoras, a man of excellent witte, borne in an yle called Samos, whiche countrey beyng subdewed by the tyran Polycrates, he forsoke, and wente into Aegypte and Babylonia, to learne mysticall sciences, and afterwarde came into Italie, where he continued the residue of his life. he was the fyrste that named hym selfe

seike a philosophier: where before men of great learning were called wise men, and because he wolde eschewe the note of arrogancy, when one demaunded of hym what he was, he saied, Philosophus, whiche signifieth a louer of wisdome. he was in sharpnes of wit passyng all other, and found the subtile cõclusions and misteries of arithmetike, musike, and geometrie. Plato wondreth at his wisedome: his doctrine was diuine and compendiouse: the whiche he teachyng to other, enioygned them to kepe silence fiue yeres & here hym diligently, ere they demaunded of him any question. he neuer wold do sacrifice with any bloudde, he wold eate nothyng that had life, and liued in a meruailous abstinence, and continence, and was in such auctorite amonge his disciples, that whan in disputacion they mainteyned their opinion, if one demanded of them, why it shoulde be as they spake, they wolde answere onely, Ipse dixit, he saied so, meanyng Pythagoras: whiche answere was reputed as sufficiente, as if it had ben proued with an inuitable reason: so muche in estimacion was he for his approued trouth and incomparable learnyng. he was noted to be expert in magike: and therefore it is written of hym, that nyghe to the citee of Tarentum, he behilde an ore bityng the toppes of beanes there growyng, and treadyng downe with his feete: wherfore he bade the herde man to admonise his ore, that he shoulde abstayne frome grayne: the herde laughyng at hym saied, that he neuer lerned to speake as an ore: but thou (saied he) that seemest to haue experience thers in, take myne office vpon the. foorthwith Pythagoras went to the ore, and layng his mouth to his eare, whistered somethyng of his arte, a meruailous thyng, the ore, as if he had ben taught, lefte eatyng of the corne, nor neuer after touched any: but many yeres after mildely walked in the citee, and toke his meate onely of them that wolde geue it hym. Many like wonderfull thynges are written of hym, finally his disciples, for their wisedome and temperance were alwaies had in great estimacion. He was before the incarnation of Christe. 522. yeres.

Pythagóricus, he that was of the secte of Pythagoras.

Pythagorísta, tæ, m. g. he that counterfaiteth or imitateth the life of Pythagoras.

Pythagóreus, a, um, that foloweth the secte of Pythagoras.

Pytheum, was the place, in the whiche Apollo gaue answeres.

Pythias, a womans name.

Pythia, thiórum, n. gen. plu. plaies made in the honour of Apollo.

Pythius, one of the names of Apollo.

Pythius, a Lydian, dwellyng at a town in Phrygia called Celene, who had suche abundance of gold, that he receyued Xerxes kyng of Persia with all his whole armie, whiche was innumerable, and that with great magnificence: and offered more ouer, to geue treasure as well for prouision as also for wages, to haue had his sonne discharged of the warres: whiche Xerxes takyng displeasauntely, caused the yong man in his fathers sight to be cutte in sunder. this man gaue also to Darius, father to Xerxes, a plane tree of golde, and a vine of the same mettall: yet he takyng thought for his sonne, inclosed hym selfe in a sepulchre, which he let make, and there finished his life miserably, and in extreme sorowe.

Pytho, a citee in the countrey called Phocis, the people whereof were named Delphi.

Pythodorus, a famouse grauer.

Python, ônis, m. & fœ. g. a dragon, which was slayne by Apollo.

Pythonis oculus, idem quod Sticas.

Pythópolis, a citee in Asie in that parte whiche is called Mysia, an other of Caria.

Pytilissare. to go on tiptoe, stretchyng one hande forwarde, an other backewarde.

Pytisma, mătis, neu. g. a spirtynge out of small spittell.

Pyxacantha, and Pyxacanthos, a barbery tree.

Pyxicidula, idem quod Pyxidicula.

Pyxidicula, læ, f. g. a litteli boxe, properly whes in medicines are put.

Pyxis, pýxidis, f. g. a boxe.

Pyxidătus, a, um, made like a boxe.

Q ANTE V.

QVA, CVIVS, CVI, the nominatiue is not vsed, but in composition: as, Aliqua, Siqua.

Quam ad rem vis? for what thynge woulde ye haue it?

Quam rem agis? what we ye? or what goe ye about to doe.

Qua de causa? Qua gratia? Qua de re? wherefore: for what cause? for what intent?

Qua de re agitur, whereabout, or about which matter the controuersie is.

Qua impudentia est, as his impudencie or vnshamefastenesse is: or suche is his impudencie.

Qua ratione? how? by what meanes? by what reason?

Qua de re? whereabout? what to doe?

Quâ, an aduerbe of place, whiche waie, by what place.

Quâ, is somtyme put for Tum, partim, Iuxta,

Quâ dominus, qua aduocati fibilis consciſsi, nowe the maister, and then the aduocates, or both the maister and the aduocates, or as well the maister as the aduocates, were hissed at.

Qua

Qua de Buthrotijs, qua de Bruto, what for the citezins of Buthrotium, what for the affaires of Brutus: or partly for the citezins of Buthrotium, partly for the affaires of Brutus: or as well for the citezins of Buthrotium, as the affaires of Brutus.

Qua for Quatenus: as, Non qua filius alicuius, sed qua homo æstimatur, men haue not regard whose sonne he is, but that he is a man: or men doe not so muche regarde him in that he is any mannes sonne, as in that he is a man.

Qua facere id possis, by what meanes ye maie doe it.

Dic mihi, quâ sit iter, tell me whiche way our iourney lieth.

Licet illi vagari quâ velit, he maie wander whiche waie he liste.

Quâ cuiq; proximum est, euerie one the nexte waie that he can.

Omnia quâ visus erat, in all places that a man coude see: or all about as farre as one coude see.

Qua sacrum, qua prophanum, bothe holy and prophane: or as well holy as prophane.

Qua cibi, qua quietis immemor, forgettyng as well his meate, as his reste and slepe.

Quacunque, the ablatiue case of Quæcunq;.

Quacunq; matre genitus, of what mother so euer he was borne.

Quacunq;, an aduerbe.

Quacunque iter facit, whiche waie so euer he went, or by what place so euer he went.

Quadántenus, for vsque ad aliquam partem, somewhat.

Quadántenus rubens, beyng somwhat redde.

Quadi, people of Bœme, or Boemia, whiche did eate the flesshe of horses and woulues.

Quadra, æ, f. gen. a trencher, whereon meate is cutte. somtyme a loke of breade cutte square, or a pece of breade cutte square lyke a trenchour.

Quadragenárius, a, um, of forty peres olde.

Quadragéni, næ, na, forty.

Quadragena scuta, forty crownes.

Quadragésima, æ, fœ. g. lente. also the fortieth parte.

Quadragésimus, a, um, the fortieth.

Quadragies, sometyme signifieth forty tymes: but in computacion sometyme it signifieth but his owne numbre, and that beyng added to an other numbre, to multiplie it: as, Quadragies centena. xl. hundred: Quadragies millena. xl. thousande. but beyng set by it selfe, to signifie the quantitie of a thyng, it was multiplied by an hundred thousande: as, Quadragies sestertiûm, forty hundred thousande pence. Like wise all other aduerbes of that forte, as Decies, duodecies, vicies, tricies, centies, tenne hundred thousande, twelue hundred thousand. &c. L. Portius supposeth, that in the olde tyme was some difference, as an M, or a title added to the word, whan it was multiplied by an hundred thousande: as, Deciens, whiche mought be omitted in the defaulte of the writer or printer: & he putteth an example of Varro de Analogia, & an other of Pedianus, 2. act. in Verrem. This thulde I haue written before in the declaration of Decies, whiche maie be done at the nexte edition of this warke.

Quadraginta, forty.

Quadrángulum, li, n. ge. a figure hauing foure corners.

Quadrángulus, a, um, foure cornered.

Quadrans, antis, m. ge. the fourthe parte of As, that is thre ounces. also the forth parte of any number or measure, in coyne it is a braden peece, called also Triunx, in value the. x. parte of Sestertius. also a quarterne of a pounde. somtyme it signifieth by accorde in reckenyng, where the receyte and allowance be equall.

Quadrans operæ, the fourthe part of the daie in labour or warke.

Quadrans pedis, a quarter of a foote, three inches.

Quadrans vini, the forth parte of Sextarius, thre of the measures called Cyathi, that is, six ounces of wine, or after Physitions. 4. ounces and an haike.

Ex quadrante hæredem facere, To make one heire of the fowerth parte.

Vsura ex quadrante, three in the hundred: as, in a. 100. pound, thre pounde.

Quadrantalis, le, Plin. Crassitudine quadrantali, foure fyngers thicke.

Quadrantalis forma, foure square, or foure cornarde.

Quadrantal, talis, neu. ge. a measure, called also Amphora, and is in fourme a foote square as a dye, and conteyneth in hym. xlviii. measures called Sextarij, and. viii. of the measures called Congij.

Quadrantárius, a, um, of or belongyng to the coyne Quadrans. also vile.

Quadrantaria permutatio, an exchange or gessyng of a thyng for a farthyng.

Quadrantaria meretrix, a vile and common harlotte, that will be hired for a farthing.

Quadrárius, a, um, that is made of stone foure square.

Quadratárij, marblars, that make the marble square.

Quadratúra, æ, f. ge. a square.

Quadrátus, a bishop of Athens, disciple of the apostles, whiche had the gifte of prophesie.

Quadrátus, a, um, foure square.

Quadrata statura, a meane or competent stature, not to highe, nor to lowe.

Quadrati boues, great and stronge oxen.

Quadratum corpus, a body wel compacte and of good stature.

Quadricórnium, hauyng foure hornes.

Quadridens, entis, that hath foure teethe.

Quadriduânus, a, um, of foure daies continuaunce.

Qua-

Quadriennium, the ſpace of foure yeres.
Quadrifáriam, on foure partes, foure waies.
Quadrifidus, a, um, that is or may be clouen or ſlitte in foure partes.
Quadriforis, re, that hath foure dores or holes.
Quadrifórmis, me, that is of foure diuers fourmes or factions.
Quadrifórmiter, in a ſquare.
Quadriga, gæ, fœ. g. a carte drawen with foure horſes, ſometyme a carte horſe.
Nunq̃ indipiſcet quadrigis albis poſtea, he ſhall neuer after attayne it agayne, though he make all the haſte or ſpede poſſible.
Quadrigárius, rij, m. g. a carter, a chariot man.
Quadrigárius, a, um, of or belongyng to a chariot man.
Quadrigâtus, a, um, that hath the pryntc of a chariot on it.
Quadrigáti, certayne coynes, haupng in them the pryntc of a chariot with foure horſes.
Quadrigula, a diminutiue of Quadriga.
Quadrigéminus, a, um, foure double.
Quadriiugi, or Quadriiuges equi, foure horſes or beaſtes yoked together.
Quadriiugus, a, um, of or belongyng to chariotes with foure horſes.
Quadrilâterus, a, um, with foure ſydes.
Quadrilibris, bre, that which dweth weigh foure poundes.
Quadrilinguis, gue, he that ſpeaketh foure ſundrie languages.
Quadrimembris, bre, of foure partes.
Quadrimâtus, tus, m. g. the age of foure yeres.
Quadrimatum agere, to be foure yere olde.
Quadrimus, & quadrimulus, a, um, foure yeres olde.
Quadringenárius, a, um, that conteyneth foure tie men.
Quadringênus, quadrigênus, and quadricênus, a, um, foure hundred. Liuius. vectigal iuſſus pendere denarios quadringenos quinquagenos, he was commanded to paie for tribute or penſion. 450. grotes.
Quadringentêſimus, a, um, the foure hundreth.
Quadringentéſimus, idem.
Quadringenti, tæ, ta, foure hundred.
Quadringénties, foure hundred tymes.
Quadringéntuplus, a, um, foure hundred tymes ſo muche.
Quadrinóctium, tij, n. g. foure nightes ſpace.
Quadrinus, a, um, foure.
Quadripártior, tiri, to diuide in foure.
Quadripartito, an aduerbe, in. iiii. partes.
Quadripartitus, a, um, diuided in foure partes.
Quadrirêmis, mis, a ſhippe with foure rowes of ores, a galte that hath foure ores in euery ſeate.
Quadriſyllabus, of foure ſyllables.
Quadriuium, uij, neu. ge. where as foure waies doe meete, a ſtreete, where foure ſundrie waies meete.
Quadro, aui, are, to bryng in ſquare, to conſent or agree, to be feete, apte, and meete, to ſerue aptly in a place, to be iuſtely agreeyng.
Summa rationum quadrans dicitur, When the expences and receytes be equall and doos agree.
Quadrat ad opus præfatio, the pzeface ſeruyth aptly to the woꝛke.
In iſtam quadrant, thei agree right well to hir.
Quadrat in me dictum, the ſayng lighteth on me, or maie be well ſpoken of me.
Quadrum, dri, n. g. a figure of foure ſquare.
In quadrum ſententias redigere, To diſpoſe ſentences aptly and in good oꝛder and faſhion.
Quadrúpedans, antis, om. gene. that goeth on foure feete.
Quadrúpedo, aui, are, to go on foure feete.
Quadrupes, pedis, ſometyme an adiectiue, ſometyme a ſubſtantiue, that hath foure feete.
Quadrúpedē conſtringito, bynde hym hande and foote like a beaſte.
Quadruplâtor, ôris, m. g. was he that for accuſyng of other, had the fourth parte of the goodes of them that were condemned.
Quadruplatores beneficiorum ſuorum, they that geue ſmall giftes, to the intent to haue greatter.
Quadruplex, quadruplicis, om. ge. foure double, that is of foure factions or oꝛders.
Quadruplicátio, ônis, fœ. ge. the doublyng of a thyng foure tymes in reſtitution.
Quadruplicató, foure tymes double, or foure tymes ſo muche.
Quadrupliciter, foure maner of waies.
Quadrúplico, aui, are, to double foure tymes, or to make a thynge foure tymes as muche as it was.
Quadruplo, idem.
Quadruplor, âris, ári, to appeache a man to haue parte of his goodes. alſo to be condemned to paie foure tymes double.
Quadruplus, a, um, foure tymes double, foure tymes as muche.
Quadruplo maior, foure tymes greatter.
Dare iudicium in quadruplum, to condemne to paie foure tymes ſo muche.
Quadruſsis, ſis, m. g. foure pounde weight.
Quadrubs, a citee, vnto the whiche doe come or are bꝛought all the people, beyng lefte in foure citees, by the whiche name the citee of Athenes was called of Actius the poete.
Quadrus, a, um, ſquare.
Quæ, cuius, cui, fœm. g. the whiche woman, or other female kynde.
Quæ (malum) eſt iſta impudentia? what (a miſchiefe) impudence is this?
Quæ tua eſt facilitas, ſo eaſy ye are to pleaſe, or ſuche is your gentilneſſe.
Quæ gerantur accipies ex Pollione, You ſhall here of Pollio, or Pollio ſhall tell you what thynges bee doone, or what matters be in hande.

Quæcunque, all that, what so euer, loke Quicunque.

Quædam, loke Quidam.

Quærceus, a, um, and Quærcicus, ca, cum, of oke.

Quærcerus, a, um, colde with a shakyng as in a feuer.

Quercus, cus, f. g. an oke.

Quæritabundus, studious or diligent in sekyng.

Quærneus, and Quernus, a, um, of an oke.

Quæ'rito, aui, are, to seeke, serche, or inquere diligently.

Lana ac tela victum quæritans, gettyng hir lyuyng with spinnyng and cardyng.

Quæro, quæsiui, quæ're, to demaunde, to aske to gette, to serche, to examine, to desire to haue, to seeke for, to go about, to labour or trauaile to gette, to make examination and inquerie, to dispute.

Quærere liberos, to gette children.

Liberorum quærēdorum causa ei credo vxor data est, I suppose he had a wife geuen hym to the intent to gette or haue children.

Quærere locum iniuriæ, to go about to doo harme.

Quærere sitim, to prouoke thirste.

E monte aliquo in alium transilire quærentes, id est, volentes, contendentes.

Quærere aliquem, To examine one by tourmentes.

De pecuniis repetundis quærere, to geue information agaynst one, of extorcion or bribery.

Quærere rem tormentis, vel per tormenta, to examine a man by manacles or other lyke tourmentes to make hym confesse the acte.

Facile victum quærere, To gette his liuynge easily.

Quæritur inter medicos, phisitions doe dispute. pē.

Qui fidem promisso huic quærūt, which seeke for the experience or proofe of the thyng.

Fugam quærere, to seeke meanes to flee.

Gloriam quærere, id est, captare.

Gratiam ad vulgum quæsierat, it gotte hym in fauour with the common people.

Inuidiam quærere ex re aliqua, to seke meanes to bryng one in hatred and enuie.

Latebram quærere periurio, to seeke a cloke or pretence to breake his othe or committe periurie.

Tu tibi laudem is quæsitum, thou goeste about to get thy selfe commendacion or praise.

Moram quærere supplicio, to seeke meanes to deferre or prolonge the punishement.

Liberi ad necem quærebantur, his children were sought for to be slayne, or meanes were sought to put his children to deathe.

Sermonem quærere, to seeke occasion of communication or talke.

Somnum quærere, to prouoke sleape.

Venenum quærere alicui, to go about to poyson one.

Malum hercle vobis quæritis, in faith you go about to purchase your selfe displeasure.

Quærere locum gratiæ apud aliquem, to go about or endeuoure to get ones fauour.

Quærere locum seditionis, To go about to reyse sedicion.

Quærere rem, to make enquirie or examination of a thyng.

Quæro de, ex, or abs te, I aske or demande of you.

Si verum quæris, yf ye woulde knowe the truethe.

Quid quæris amplius, what woulde ye haue more.

Quæsitio, ônis, fœ. g. an enquirie, an examination, a serche.

Quæ'sito, aui, are, to seeche, or serche often.

Quæ'sitor, ôris, m. g. a iustice or commissioner, to inquire of crimes, defautes or abuses against the lawe.

Quæsitus, us, m. g. a sekyng or sercheyng.

Quæ'situs, a, um, sought for, enquired. also gotten, obteined, demanded, asked.

Quæso, si, or siui, was vsed of olde writers to beseeche.

Quæso, quæsumus, to desyre, to praie.

Bona verba quæso, speake faire I praie you, or ye wyll not doe as you sale I trow, or geue vs faire language I beseeche you hertily.

A te maxime peto & quæso, I praie you and beseeche you hertily.

De te quæso etiam atq; etiam, I praie you or beseeche you as hertily or ernestly as I can.

Deum quæso vt sit superstes, I beseeche god sende it longe lyke.

Quæsticulus, li, m. g. a littell gayne.

Quæ'stio, ônis, f. g. a question, an askyng or enquiryng, a doubte, a controuersie. Also inquisition or examination by tourmentes, streyte handlyng to trie out the trueth of a matter.

Tibi ne quæstioni essemus, to the entent that thou shouldest not seeke or aske for vs.

Quæstionem afferre, to moue a question.

Polliceri in quæstionem seruos, To offer his seruauntes to be examined of the trouthe.

Decernere quæstionem, to awarde processe in criminall causes.

Postulare quæstionem fi, to requyre of one, that examination or inquisition ber made of a matter.

Philosophi in magna quæstione habent, it is a great doubte or controuersie amonge the philosophers.

Quæstionem adhibere, to minister tormentes.

Exercere quæstionem inter sicarios, to sytte in commission for the examination of murderers.

Quæstio tenet eum, qui in ius vocatus est, Whan one is accused and brought before a iudge.

Magna

Magna quæstio est, there is a great question, doubte or controuersie.

De omni re quæ in quæstionem vocaretur, whiche shoulde be reasoned or disputed of or called in controuersie.

Si quid habet quæstionis, if it be any thynge doubtfull, or vncertaine.

Habere quæstionem de aliqua re, to reasone and dispute of a mattier.

Quæres in quæstione versetur, which thynge is in controuersie or doubt.

Quæstionárius, an examinour.

Quæstiuncula, æ, f. g. a small or litell question.

Quæstor, ôris, m. ge. the treasourer of the comon treasourie, a treasourer of the warres, a lieutenãt to the chiefe capitaine in warres. Also a iustice by cõmission of oyer and terminer.

Quæstores paricidij, iustices assigned to enquire of treasone or murder, we may call the coroners by that name.

Quæstores vrbani, were as the chamberlaines of London be nowe.

Quæstores ærarij, officers of the receipt, as the chamberlaines and tellers be nowe.

Quæstor ærarij, a generall receyuer, but it seemeth to bee suche an officer, as the eschetour is nowe in Englande.

Quæstórium, rij, n. g. was such a place as the exchekier is: also the questours tent in the campe.

Quæstórius, rij, m. g. he that hadde ben in the office of questoure.

Quæstorius, a, um, perteinyng to receipt.

Quæstorius, a, um, that perteineth to the office of Quæstor.

Vir quæstorius, a man that hath been in that office.

Quæstuárius, a, um, that exercisseth a crafte to the intent to gayne therby.

Quæstuariæ artes, crafftes, wherby mẽ do gaine money.

Quæstuósus, a, um, of muche gaine, studious of great lucre.

Insula quæstuosa margaritis, an yle that gaineth muche by perles.

Cuius domus quæstuosissima est falsorum commentariorum, id est, abundans, whiche hath in his house, many faulse regesters, and gayneth verey muche therby.

Quæstuosus homo, one that gayneth or getteth profyte by euery thynge.

Res quæstuosa, a thyng wherof ryseth great profyte.

Quæstúra, æ, f. g. the office of Questour.

Quæstus, us, ꝫ in olde tyme quæsti, m. g. gaine, wynnyng, lucre. Also the waie, feate or crafte to wynne money.

Is quæstus nunc est multo vberrimus, that is the moste readie waie nowe to getre money enoughe.

Facere quæstum, to gayne.

Quæstui habere male loqui melioribus, to gayne or gette his ipuynge by speakyng yll of honeste men.

Quæstui habere rempublicam, to vse the comon weale to his owne profite and aduantage, to enryche hym selfe by the common weale.

Lingua primum cœpit esse in quæstu, he began firste to get his ipuyng by his tongue.

Qualibet, or Qualubet, where it lpeth the.

Qualibet transitum prabent, you may goe ouer theym in what place ye lpst, or where so euer ye wyll.

Qualis, le, what, or of what qualitee, of what fassion.

Quali pietate existimas eos esse, what naturall affection or fauour dooe you thynke that they haue?

Tale quale, suche as.

Qualis, sometyme for Qualiter.

Qualisqualis, idem quod Qualiscunq.

Qualiscunque, suche as it was.

Qualiscunq; est, what maner of man so euer he be.

Qualislibet, of what sorte or faciõ so euer ye wyll.

Qualiter, in the faction or forme, after the faction that.

Qualiter nunc est in castris gaudape, as they dooe nowe vse the thicke mantell or dagswayne in the campe in the tyme of warre.

Qualitercunque, how so euer, after what faction so euer.

Qualitas, âtis, for. ge. a qualitee, as foule, faire, wise, lowysh, stronge, weake, diligent, slow. &c.

Qualus, li, m. g. a basket, out of the whiche wine renneth, whan it is pressed. Also a basket or hamper, in the which women do put theyr spindles, theyr bottomes of threede, and such lyke thynges, A pannier made of osiars or twiggers. Some dooe write it with a double, L. it is also a trey that labourers carie mozter in to serue masons, tylars, or plaisterers.

Quam, than, howe, howe much, as, as much as. Sometyme after that. Sometyme before that.

Pridie quã occideretur, the daye before that he was slayne.

Quam bene, howe well.

Quam fortiter, howe valiauntely. Quam, in composition signifieth Valde, and therfore is ioigned with the superlatiue degree.

Quam pauciſsimi, as fewe as maie be.

Quam doctiſsimus, verey excellently learned.

Cum quo quam familiariſsime vixerat, with whom he lyued verey familiarly.

Duplo accepit quam perdiderit, he receiued double as muche as he lost.

Quàm, signifieth a wilshyng: as.

Quam vellem Menedemum inuitatum, howe fayne wolde I that Menedemus were boden.

Quinto die quam sustuleris, condire oportet hic, the fyfte daie after that ye haue taken them awaie. &c.

Quampridem non edisti? howe longe is it lens thou eatest any meate?

Huc euasit, quam pridem pater mihi & mater mortui essent. &c. to this it came, howe longe it was agone that my father and mother died. ꝛc.
Tam te diligo, quam meipsum, I loue the as well as my selfe.
Salubrior quam dulcior, more holesome than pleasaunt.
Libentius quam verius, more gladly than truely.
Quam, for Quantum: as, Quam familiariter? how familiarly?
Homo non quam isti sunt glorioſus, a man not so glorious as these men be.
Quam potero adiuuabo senem, I wyll helpe the olde man as muche as I can.
Quam potui maximis itineribus, with as great iourneys, or makyng as muche speede on the way as I coulde possible.
Quam timeo, how greatly doe I feare.
Quam, for Tantum quantum, as,
Quam velit sit potens, let hym be of as great power as he wyll hym selfe.
Quam for Quanto, with the comparatiue degree, as,
Quam magis aspecto, the more that I lowe or beholde.
Tam fœlix esses quam formosissima vellem, I woulde thou were so happie, as thou arte veraie fayre and beautifull.
Intra biennium quam. &c. within two yere after that. ꝛc.
Triduo proximo quã sit genitus, the thyrd iuste daies after that he is borne.
Tam diu quam, so longe as.
Ea quam longa est nocte, all that nyghte longe.
Quam, for Plusquam, as,
Ferramenta duplicia quam numerus seruorum exigit, twise so many tooles as be sufficient for the seruauntes.
Maiorem quam pro flatu sonum edebat, it made a greatter noyse or sowne then was lykely for so small a blast or puffe.
Maiorem quam pro numero speciem gerens, makyng a greatter shewe than men would thynke for suche a noumbre.
Maius quam quantũ a nobis exprimetur, greatter then we wyll expresse or saie.
Nihil mirabilius quam quomodo mortem filij tulit, there is nothynge more meruailouse than to knowe or consider how patiently he toke the death of his soonne.
Hoc est altius quam vt nos. &c. this is higher than that we. ꝛc.
Nec vnquam iter ingressus quam vt secum, &c. id est, aliter quam vt, but that he. ꝛc.
Contra facis quam policitus es, thou dooest otherwyse than thou promisedste.
Multiplex quam pro numero damnum est, the losse or dammage is muche greatter than is lykely for suche a noumbre.
Quam minime multi, as fewe as can be.
Ad hos prouisam quam mox virginem accersant, I wyll go to these men to see whether they wyll goe quickely to call the mayden.
In quamlibet tenuas crustas, in as thinne shardes as you wyll your selfe.
Quam pene me perdidit ma proteruitas, how nere thy sawcinesse had vndoen me? how thy malapertnesse had almost caste me awaie.
Quam plurimam brasicam ederit, tam citissimum sanus erit, id est, quanto plus or quanto magis, the more cole wortes that he doth eate, the sooner he shall be whole.
Quamdudum, howe late sence, howe longe as gone, or how little while agone.
Quam mox, how quickely, how soone.
Quamobrem, wherfore, whie, for what cause, what to doe?
Quámlibet, all thoughe.
Quamplúres, howe many, verie many, a great sorte.
Quamplúrimus, a, um, verie muche.
Quampridem, longe before.
Quamprimum, verie shortely, or soone, as soone as can be possible.
Note that there is great difference betweene Quamprimum, and Quumprimum, for Quãprimum, signifieth by and by, Quumprimũ, as soone as.
Quándiu, as longe, durynge the tyme.
Tandiu, so longe, quandiu, as.
Quando, whan, sence that, for as muche as.
Quando gentium, whan.
Vt quimus quando vt volumus non licet, as we maie, sence we can not as we wyll.
Quandocunq, whan so euer, or what tyme so euer.
Quandóque, sometyme.
Quandóquidem, for as muche as, because.
Quandoquidem illarum nulla te nouit, because none of them all knoweth the.
Quanq̃, all be it, although.
Quamq̃ tamen, although, or notwithstandyng yet.
Quanti, for how muche, of what price or value.
Quantillum, how littell, an aduerbe.
Quantillus, a, um, how littell or small.
Quantisper, how longe.
Quantitas, ãtis, f. g. quantitee.
Quanto, howe muche.
Quanto magis, howe muche more.
Quanto diutius abest, magis cupio tanto, the longer that he is absent, the more I coueit or desyre to haue hym.
Quanto tuus est animus natu grauior, the greatter that your wysedome and discretion is by reason of your age.
Quanto formosior videre quam dudum, how muche fairer doost thou seeme to me than thou woost whyle ere.
Quantópere, howe greatly.

Quãs

Quantulum, as muche as, as littell as.
Quantulum visum est, as litle as pleaseth hym selfe.
Quantulus, a, um, howe littell, or how bygge.
Quantulus nobis videtur? howe bygge semeth it to vs?
Quantum, loke after quantus and his phrases.
Quantum imperaui, as muche as I bade you.
Quantum est adhibére hominem amicum vbi quid geras, Oh what a thynge it is, or howe muche it helpeth.
Quantum hunc audiui facere verborum, as farre as I coulde perceyue by the wordes that he spake.
Quantum ex ipsa re coniecturam facio, as farre as I can conject of the thyng selfe.
Quantum ex tuto poterat, as muche as he coulde, sauyng hym selfe harmeles, or out of daunger.
Quantum proximé coniectura potest, as nere as he can conjecte in the worlde.
Quantum ego illum vidi, as farre as I perceiued by that mans facion, contenaunce or behauour.
Quantum importunitatis habent, so importune or vnreasonable they be.
Comprehendi iube quantum potest, cõmand hym to be taken with all spede possible.
Quantum maximum potuit, as muche as he coulde.
Quantumuis, quantumlibet, what so euer, although.
Quantus, a, um, howe muche, which is referred, to nombre weyght or measure.
Quanti est, id est, Quam magnares est.
Quanti hominis in dicendo putas esse? howe eloquẽte should he be? Or howe great eloquẽte is it meete that he shulde haue thinke you?
Quantis animis ierit, with how great courage or stomake he went.
Parit oua quanta anseres, she leyeth as bigge egges as geese dowe.
Quanta maxima esse potest distantia, as great difference as maie bee possibly.
Quanta hæc mea paupertas est, as poore a man as I am, or as great powertee as I am nowe in, or not withstandyng the great powertee I am in.
Tantus, so great, Quantus, as. Quantum Rosmæ terrorem fecerat, tam lætam famam ad hostes tulerat, the feare that it caused at Rome was not so great, as the glad tidinges that were brought to the enemies therof, or the aduersaries were as ioyse and glad for that tidynges, as the Romains were sore aferde.
Quanti emi potest minimo, at as lowe a price as it can be bought, or for as littell as maie be possible.
A me argentum quanti est sumito, holde, retriue as muche money of me as it is worth.
Sed quanti quanti, bene emitur quod necesse est, but how so euer the price be, or bee the price neuer so great, it is well bought, or it is bought good cheape, that a man must needes haue.
Quanti est negotij? Ironicé, what a small mattier it is to doo?
Quanti est sapere? what a great mattier it is to haue perfect wisedome?
Quanti homo sit? howe muche the man is to be esteemed?
Vide quanti apud me sis, se what great store I set by you, or howe muche I esteeme you.
Quanti veheret interrogaui, I asked hym what I shoulde paie for the cariage.
Videtur esse quantumuis pretij, he semeth a right honeste man, Or he seemeth a substantiall honeste man, Or he appeareth to be as substantiall a man as can be.
Quantus homo in dicendo, Oh what a man he is in eloquence, Or howe eloquent a man he is.
Quanta mea sapientia est, as farre as my witte can perceiue, as farre as I thynke, as farre as my wisedome can extende.
Quantum, an aduerbe of tyme or quantitee, how muche, as to, as concernyng.
Quantum intelligo, as farre as I vnderstande.
Quantum suspicor, as farre as I suppose.
Quantum pro sicut, accordyng as.
Id de Imperatore romano, quantum euentu postea prædictũ patuit, Iudæi ad se trahentes, rebellarunt, the Iewes gatheryng of the Emperour, according as the thing, which was afore shewed appeared afterward, made rebellion.
Quantum potes, in all spede that thou maist, as muche as thou canst.
Quantuluscunq, howe littell so euer it be, howe littell so euer ye will.
Quãtuscunq, how muche or so many so euer it be.
Quantúslibet, as great as euer.
Quantus quantus, & Quantuscuis, idem.
Quantumcunque possum, as muche as euer I can.
Quantumcunque eo addideris, how muche so euer ye adde vnto it.
Quamuis, all be it, although.
Quamuis, for Valde.
Quamuis, for Quantumuis: as, Quamuis paruis Italiæ latebris contentus essem, I wolde haue ben content with any corner of Italie, had it bene neuer so littell, or howe little so euer it had bene.
Quapropter, wherfore.
Quaqua tangit, where or on what part so euer it toucheth.
Quaquauersus, & Quaquauersum, on euery side.
Quaqua, idem.
Quare, wherfore, why, forwhat cause.
Miror quid causæ sit, quare consilium mutaueris, I meruaile what cause there is, why ye haue chaunged your purpose.
Omnia feci quare Lepido resistere, id est, vt, that I might resist, or to thentent to resist.

Quari, people of Narbon.
Quartadecimani, souldiours of the .xiiii. legion.
Quartana, a feuer quartaine.
Quartanārius, he that hath a feuer quartaine.
Quartānus, a, um, that belongeth to the fourth.
Quartani, souldiours of the fourth legion.
Quartārius, rii, masc. gen. a muletour, or keeper of mules, whiche taketh but the fourth parte of wages or gayne. Also the fourthe parte of the measure congius, and may be vsed for the fourth parte of our galon, a quarte. Also a quarter of a pounde.
Quarto, & Quartum, the fourthe tyme, all be it properly Quarto signifieth the fourth in ordre: as, Quarto Consul, he that had three in the office afore hym.
Quartum Consul, he that hath ben the fourth tyme Consull.
Quartus, a, um, the fourth.
Quartusdécimus, the foureteenthe.
Quartus pater, id est, Abauus.
Quasi, lyke as, as if it were, somtyme in a maner, almost, as who saieth, as thoughe.
Fuit olim quasi ego sum senex, there was once an olde man as I am nowe.
Ita vita est hominum, quasi quum ludas tesseris, the lyfe of man is euen as it were playing at dice.
Quasi adfuerim assimulabo, I wyll make semblaunce as thoughe I had been there.
Quasi de improuiso, as though thou haddest not seene hym before.
Quasi tu dicas me te velle circumducere, your woordes be so as thoughe you woulde saie that I. &c.
Quasi talenta ad quindecim, almost or about xv talentes.
Hora quasi septima, as though it were about vii. of the cloche.
Amas me quasi filium, thou louest me as if I were thy sonne.
Tu obiecis quod vxorem repudiauerim, quasi tu idem non feceris, Thou embraidest me that I haue forsaken my wyfe, as who saieth thou hast not doone so to.
Quasillus, li, masc. gene. or Quasillum, a litteli hammer.
Quassabundus, he that shaketh his heade.
Quassātus, a, um, shaken, brandysshed, bruised, squised, broken. Also afflicted, oppressed, sore hurt and appaired.
Altitudine casus quassatus, bruised or hurte with fallyng from so hyghe a place.
Quassso, aui, are, to shake muche or often, to brandysshe. Also to breake, to bruise.
Quassus, us, m g. a shakyng, a brandishyng.
Quassus, a, um, shaken, braste, bruised.
Quatefácio, téfacis, feci, ere, to make or cause to shake or moue, to expell with violence.
Quátenus, howe muche, how farre, to what ende, to the entent. Also for as muche. Also howe, howe muche, or as muche.
Quatenus dicturi sint, howe farre, or howe muche they wyll speake of a matter.
Quatenus tuto possent, as farre as they coulde without daunger.
In omnibus rebus videndum est quatenus, in all thynges that a man doeth, he ought to consyder howe to keepe a meane or measure, and not to doe more than he shoulde.
Confirmauit quatenus sibi matrimonia male cederent, permansurum, &c. he saied plaines lye, that for so much as he had yll fortune in marriage, that he woulde abyde. &c.
Quatenus intelligit, nihil putat prætermissum, as far as he can perceiue or vnderstand.
Quater, foure tymes. somtyme oftentymes.
Quaterdécies, foure tymes.
Quaterdéni, foure.
Quatergémini, foure children at one burdeine.
Quaternārius, a, um, that containeth foure, or that is foure fore euery waie.
Quaternarius numerus, the numbre of foure.
Quatérnio, ônis, a quapze: as, in the booke, a leafe beynge folded into foure partes, a tarte in dice playnge.
Quaterni, næ, na, plur. foure.
Quātrinus, a conjunction, which signifieth, for as muche, because, sometyme for vt, that.
Quatio, quassi, tere, to shake a thyng violently, to brandishe. also to vexe, to cast out.
Quatere aliquem foras, to cast out of the doores.
Quatriduum, dui, n. g. foure daies, the space of foure daies.
Quatriduò, aduerbium.
Quatriduo quo is occisus est, foure daies after that he was slaine.
Quatriduo ante, foure daies before.
Quatuor, or Quattuor, adiectiuum, indeclinabile. plur. numeri, foure.
Quatuórdecim, fourtene.
Quatuor decies, foure.
Quatuoruirātus, the dignitee or office of foure men ruling together.
Quádruplus, a, um, foure double.
Que, for &, signifieth and. also that is to saie. sometyme for Quoniam, sometyme for Etiam, sometyme for Sed.
Non nobis solum nati sumus, ortusq; nostri partim patria. &c. because or for as muche as our countrey claimeth &c.
Iudicium Paridis spretæque iniuria formæ, Hoc est, nempe iniuria, or, id est, iniuria spretæ formæ.
Quid refert vri virgis ferroq; necari, id est, an ferro necari.
Quearah, a measure of the iewes containyng .ii. ounces and .ii. drammes.
Queis, for Quibus.
Queiscum, for quibus cum, with whom.
Quemádmodum, like as, euen as, after the same fashion faction that. Sometyme interrogatiue, for Quopacto, how, after what faction.

Quemnam ad modum, in what faction, or after what faction.
Excogitat quemadmodum comitia haberentur, id est, vt, how the assemble might be kepte.
Quemadmodum spero, as I trust.
Quentia, olde writers vsed for Potentia, puissaunce, power.
Queo, quis, quiui, quire, to mate.
Non quis, id est, Nequis, thou canst not.
Quitur, the passiue.
Quérceus, a, um, of an oke.
Quércicus, a, um, idem.
Quércerus, a, um, quiuering or shakynge for colde. sometyme it was taken for great and greuous, as Festus saieth.
Febris quercera, a colde feuer that causeth a man to shake.
Quercétum, or Querquétum, i, n. g. a grone of okes.
Querculânus, a, um, made of oke.
Quercus, us, and Querci, of olde writers, an oke. Quercus is also a place, wheare the Mitilenes slewe a great numbre of the Pyrenenses.
Querêla, æ, f. g. a complaint, moning, a bewailyng, whan one fyndeth hym selfe displeased or greeued.
Querela temporum, whan one complaineth of the yll estate of any tyme.
Habere querelam dicitur res, whan it dooeth not please all men in euery poincte, but that some fynde theym selues greued with it.
Queribundus, a, um, lamentable, that complaineth or maketh mone.
Querimónia, æ, fœ. g. a complaint, a mone making, a lamentable expressynge of a thyng that one is greued with.
Querimoniam habere de re aliqua, to complayne of a thynge.
Quotidiana querimonia populi, the daiely complaining of the people, fyndynge them selfes greued with any thyng.
Querimoniárius, a complainante.
Quernus, and Querneus, a, um, of an oke.
Querna folia, oken leaues.
Queror, reris, questus sum, queri, to lament or complaine, to bewayle, to make mone, to finde hym selfe greeued.
Questus est de auaritia nostrorum, he complained of, or founde hym selfe greeued with the couetousnes of our men.
Cum deo queri, to complaine or make his mone to god.
Lachrymans mecum est questus, he made his mone to me, and shewed hym selfe to bee greeued, euen with teares and weepyng.
Multa de mea sententia questus est Cæsari, he complayned to Cæsar, and founde hym selfe greued with many thynges concerning my sentence or opinion.
Quereris super hoc etiam, ye complayne and fynde your selfe greued with this also.
Meas queror fortunas, I lament or bewaile my fortune.
Apud populum questus est, he made his complaint and mone to the people.
Querquédula, æ, f. g. a water foule called a teale.
Quérquerus, a, um, idem quod Quercerus.
Quérulus, a, um, that whiche complaineth, or is full of complaintes. It is put sometyme of the portes for shrill or lowde in singyng.
Cicadæ querulæ, grassehoppers, whiche doe singe lowde, or with a shrill voice.
Quesirah, amonge the Iewes did signifie a tome. sometyme a lambe. sometyme a sheepe.
Questus, us, m. g. a complaint, a lamentation.
Qui, an aduerbe, how, by what meanes, wherefore, why, from whens, would to god.
Qui officio es? what is thine office?
Eruicite qui demur tibi, doe what ye can how or by what meanes thou maist haue hir.
Qui vocare? how arte thou called?
Dauo istuc dedam negotn. S. Non potest. P. Qui? S. Quia habet aliud magis ex sese, I will commit this mattier to Dauus. S. That may not be. P. whye? S. for he hath an other greatter mattier to doe for hym selfe.
Qui istæc tibi incidit suspicio? from whense, how or by what meanes came this suspicion?
Qui illum dij omnes perdiunt, I pray god that a vengeance light on hym.
Qui for Vt: as, Nam in prologis scribundis operam abutitur, non qui argumentum narret, sed qui maleuoli veteris poetæ maledictis respondeat, for he abuseth his labour in writyng of prologues, not that he myght shewe the argumente, but that he myght make answere to he euell reportes of the olde enuiouse poete.
Qui enim beatior Epicurus, quod in patria viuebat, quam Metrodorus, quod Athenis? Wherfore or how was Epicurus more happy that he dyd lyue in his countrey, than Metrodorus that lyued at Athenes?
Qui, an interrotiue, for Quis: as Qui locus? what place?
Qui, cuius, cui, the whiche.
Qui, for Nempe qui, or Vtpote qui: as, Maluimus iter facere pedibus, qui incommoditis me nauigassemus, id est, vtpote qui.
Literæ dantur mihi à te, quibus in extremis scriptum est, I receiued letters from you, in the later ende wherof it is written.
Qui, for Qualis: as, Nescis qui vir fiet, thou knowest not what a man he is.
Quibus in extremis, for Quorum in extremo. Si qui sunt, qui velint, qui pauci sunt, yf there be any y would, which in deede be but fewe.
Quibus in ipsis inest causa, cur diligantur, whiche haue in them selfe some cause, why they shoulde be loued.

Vt existimãtes me tam improuidum, qui ab excitata, id est, vt ab excitata . &c . that I woulde . &c .

Qui minus, for Cur non.

Quia, for because . Also it signifieth, that.

Sed tamen recordatione nostræ amicitiæ sic fruor, vt beate vixisse videar, quia cum Scipione vixerim, all bee it I take this pleasure in remembring our friendeship, that I may seeme to haue lyued moste fortunately, that I lyued in Scipios compañie. Also it signifieth for as muche.

Sed quia multis & magnis tempestatibus vos cognoui fortes fidosq; mihi: eo animus ausus est maximum atq; pulcherrimum facinus incipere, but for as muche as in many great stormes or daungers, I haue proued you to be valyaunt and faythfull vnto me: therefore myne herte is bolde to begynne an excellent and commendable enterpryse.

Quianam? wherfore?

Quiane, In deede.

Quias, atis, for Cuias, atis.

Quias, a, um, for Cuias, a, um.

Quicque, or Quidque, any thyng, euery thynge.

Quicquid, a substantiue, what so euer.

Quicquid est, all that is, what so euer it bee, what so euer come of it.

Quicquid pauxillum, neuer so little.

Quicum, for Cum quo.

Quicum loquitur filius? with whom doeth my soonne talke?

Quicunque, who so euer.

Quicunque, for Qualiscunque.

Quicunque in dicendo sumus. &c. suche as we be . &c .

Quicunque sal, any kynde of salte, what so euer it be.

Quodcunque militum contrahere poteris, all the souldiours that thou canst gather together what so euer they be.

Illa ipsa facultate quamcunque habes, with that same eloquence that you haue.

Quicq̃, any thyng.

Quid? What?

Quid causæ est? what is the cause?

Quid ætatis? how olde, of what age?

Quid animi? what mynde?

Quid animi est? what mynde is he of?

Quid captiuorum? howe many prysoners?

Tum captiuorum quid ducunt secum? than howe many prysoners doe they bryng with theym?

Quid id, sit hominis cui Lyco nomen siet? what man is he whose name maie be Lyco?

Quid mulieris vxorem habes? what maner of woman hast thou to thy wyfe?

Quid rei est? what is the mattier?

Ibo intro, vt quid huius rei sit sciam, I wyl go in, that I maie knowe what the mattier is, or that I maie knowe how this mattier wyll goe.

Quid rei est tibi cum illa? what hast thou to doe with hir?

Quid sententiæ sit, what thyne or his opinion is.

Quid istuc verbi est? What meanest thou thereby? or what meanestu thou by so saynge? also Quid, is taken for Aliquid, somewhat. also Ob quid, for what, or wherfore.

Quid, senem quoad expectas vestrum? but now, how longe wyll you tarie for your maister? Note here, that, after the dately fourme of speakyng, Quid is rehersed, whan we passe from one mattier to an other.

Quid mecum est tibi? what haue I to doe with the?

Quid faceret aliud? what shoulde he doe els?

Quid eo? what to doe.

Propere curre ad Pamphilum. P. Quid eo? D. Dic me orare vt veniat, renne quickely to Pamphilus . P . what to doe? D . Saie that I praie him to come.

Quid verbis opus est? what neede many woordes?

Quid multa verba? idem.

Quid multis moror? what shall I longe tarye. Or why doe I make so manie woordes.

Quid mea refert? what care I? Also Quid signifieth wherin.

Quid enim indigens Affricanus mei? wherin had Scipio any nede of me?

Quid istic? Si certum est facere, facias: veram ne post conferas culpam in me, what woldest thou I shoulde doe? if thou be determined to doe it, goe to on goddes name: but afterwarde put not the faute in me.

Quid ni? why not, what els?

Quo ore appellabo patrem, tenes quid dicam? S. Quid ni, with what countenaũce shall I speake to my father? wottest thou what I wyll saie? S. wherfore shouldest thou not doe so? Also it signifieth yea.

Archidemidẽ nosti? P. Quid ni? knowest thou Archidemides? P. yea marie doe I, what elles? why shoulde I not knowe hym?

Quid agemus? what shall we doe?

Quid ita, for cur, wherfore, why so?

Quid quæris? what wylt thou more? what needeth any mo woordes?

Quid tum denique? Quid ergo? Quid ũ postea? Quid itaq; ? Quid interea? Quid demum? All these doe signifie, whereto speakest thou this? what than, or what meanest thou thereby?

Quid te futurum? what shall be doen with the? or what shall become of the?

Quid illi siet? what shall become of hym?

Quid tu hominis es? who art thou? or what a man art thou?

Quid gentium caret his morbis? what nacion or people in the worlde hath not these diseases?

Signi dic quid est, tell what marke it hath.

Quid aliud volui dicere? what is the other thing that that I woulde haue saied?

Quid orationis, quot sūt partes, what sai you of an oracion? How many partes hath it?
Quid est quod lætus sis? what is the mattier that thou art so merp.
Quid est si non hoc contumelia est? what is a repzoche oz a rebuke if this be not?
Quid tantum properem? id est, quamobrem?
Quid est quamobrē? what is the cause why?
Quid pater, visit ne? what of my father? how doeth he? is he alyue.
Quid quod me etiam occidere vult? what saye pea to this mozeouer, that he wyll kyll me to?
Quid quod etiam ad dormientem veniunt? How of this, oz what thynke you of this, that they come also euen to one that is a sleape?
Quid sciam? why shoulde I knowe, oz what if that I shoulde knowe?
Quid si optaro? what will you say if I wisshe?
Quid si sic? what if it bee thus, is it well? oz howe wyll it be if I dooe this? Oz how thynke ye if it be thus?
Quid ita non? why not I pray you?
Quid nostra? what mattier maketh that to vs?
Quid offendi? wherin haue I displeased you?
Quid cum illis agas qui. &c. what shoulde a man meddle with such as. &c.
Quid dicam quantus amor. &c. what needeth me to speake oz tell howe great loue. &c.
Quid est factum? What is that that hath chaunced?
Quid respondeam nihil habeo, I haue nothyng in the worlde what to aunswere. where note, that Quid, contrarie to his nature is vsed for Quod, as it is often in latine authours.
Si quid his datum sit esculentum, id est, si quod, If any thyng be geuen them to eate, oz that is mans meate.
Quidam, quædam, quoddā, oz quiddam, some certayne person oz thyng.
Quidam one, any man. In the plurall numbre, it signifieth some.
Quidem, an aduerbe, affirmynge that whiche is spoken. Sometime it signifieth verily. Sometyme it hath no signification, but is onely a distinction of thynges: as,
Ego quidem scribo, tu vero legis, ille autem dormit, I dooe wryte, thou readest, and he sleapeth.
Fortius tu quidem. &c. Sed apertius. &c. in deede you dyd more valiauntly. &c.
Et vehementer quidem, yea and that vehemently.
Rogo te, & quidem valdè rogo, I desire you, and that with all myne herte I desyre you.
Quidnam? what? wherfore?
Quidnam ille commotus venit? what is the mattier that he cometh so chafed?
Rentso quidnam Chæria hic rerum gerat, I come to see what Cheria dooeth here.

Hic quidnam properans prosilit? what is the mattier, oz what meaneth this, that he commeth out so hastily skippynge and leappynge.
Quidque, euery thynge.
Vnde quidq; aut quanti emeris? of whome oz for how muche boughtest thou euery thynge.
Quidquid, idem quod Quicquid.
Quies, etis, s. g. rest, ease, sleape, quietnesse, ceasynge and vacation from labour, the ende of labour and trouble. Also caulme, fayre, and still whether. sometyme idlenesse. sometyme peace.
In quiete, & secundum quietem, in his sleape.
Quietes, id est cubilia, beastes dennes.
Quietem capere, to take his reste.
Tradere se quieti, to goe to take his reste oz sleape.
Quiesco, evi, scere, to take rest, to ceasse, to bee at quiete, to be voide of labour, care oz busines, to sleape.
Quiescat rem adduci ad interregnum, id est, Permittat, sinat.
Quiescas cætera, bee nothynge carefull for the other mattiers, leat them alone, care not for the rest.
Quiesci, the impersonall.
Quiescas, holde thy peasle, make no moze a dooe.
Quietalis, was the name of Pluto called god of hell,
Quietè, quietly.
Quiētus, a, um, quiete, peasible, in rest, styll.
Quietus esto, care not.
Numquam per eum quietus fui, I coulde neuer be at quiete for hym, he woulde neuer leat me alone, he was euer troublyng of me.
Sex ego te menses quietum reddam, I wyll make that thou shalte bee in quiete and reste this halfe yere.
Quilibet, cuiuslibet, cuilibet, who thou wylte, One whiche so euer thou wilte. Also it signifieth vile oz base in estimacion.
Quidlibet, what I thou oz he wyll.
Quolibet modo, in what maner so euer ye wil.
Quinātus, us, the space of fyue yeres.
Quin, but, but that, why not: sometyme truely, in deede.
Quin venis? why comest thou not?
Quin pergis? why goest thou not?
Quin dic quid est, goe to tell me what it is.
Quin for Etiam also.
Pudet me. S. Credo, neq; id iniuria, quin mihi molestum, I am ashamed. S. I beleue and not without a cause, and I am also sory therefore.
Quin taces, wylte thou not holde thy peace? and cast no moze doubt in the matter: oz holde thy peace and care not for it. Also it signifieth but yet, oz but for all that.
C. Peris. S. Quin tu animo bono es. C. I am vndoen. S. but for all that bee thou of good there. Also therfore.

Quin

Quin tu vno verbo dic quid eſt quod me ves lis, therfore tell me at one woorde, what thou wouldeſt haue me to doe. Alſo moreouer, or that more is.

Quin ipſe pridem tonſor vngues dempſerat, collegit omnia, abſtulit præſegmina, and that more is, the other day the barbour pared his nailes, he gathered the parynges together, and caried them awaie with him.

Quin, for Qui non, or quæ non.

Nullus eſt Epheſi, quin ſciat, there is not one in all Epheſus, whiche doeth not knowe it. or there is none in Epheſus but ꝑ he knoweth it.

Nunq̃ tam mane domum egredior, quin te &c. I neuer come foorthe ſo erly in the morning, but that ꝛc.

Quin, for Quod.

Non dubium quin vxorem nolit filius, there is no doubt of this, but that my ſoonne will not be maried, or but that my ſoonne will haue no wife.

Facere non poſſum quin ad te mittam, I can not chuſe, refreigne or forbeare, but that I muſt needes ſende vnto the.

Hercle quin tu recte dicis, in faieth you ſaye true, or your aduiſement is good in deede.

Quin ergo quod iuuat, quod charum eſtimat, id ſemper faciant, marie than, or why than, what ſo euer lyketh them, that whiche ſeemeth pleaſaunt vnto them, let them doe it as longe as it pleaſeth them.

Quin omitto me, but let me goe I ſaie.

Iube maneat. B. Abi. Si. Quin paratum eſt argentum, nay loe here the money is ready.

Quin etiam, ye further more, ye that more is.

Quinárius, a, um, that conteineth the numbre of fyue.

Quinarius lapis, a ſtone of fiue poũde weight.

Quinárius, ij, m. g. was amonge the olde Romaines theyr haulfe penie, conteinyng fyue of the peces of monei called aſſes, in value ꝛ poiſe halfe a groat ſterlyng.

Quincentum, of olde writers was vſed for Quingentum, fyue hundred.

Quincunx, quincuncis, of fyue ounces. Alſo the gayne of fyue in the hundred by exchaunge amonge marchauntes. It was alſo an ordre in ſettynge of trees in an orcheparde or gardeyne, verie exactely, that whiche waie ſo euer a man did loke, the trees ſtode directely one againſte an other, as in this order folowynge.

o o o o o o o o o
o o o o o o o o
o o o o o o o o o

Quincuntiâlis, le, of fyue pnches.

Quincuplex, plicis, om. g. fyue double, or fiue folde.

Quindeceremis, a great galley with fiftene ores of rowers in one ſeate.

Quindécies, fiftene tymes.

Quindeſim, fiftene.

Quindecimuir, an officer of Rome.

Quindécuplex, fiftene double or folde.

Quindécuplus, a, um, fyftene tymes ſo muche.

Quindéni, næ, na, fyftene.

Quingenárius, a, um, adiectiue, weighyng fiue hundred poundes.

Quingéni, & quingenti, æ, a, fyue hundred.

Quingenteſimus, a, um, the fyue hundreth.

Quingentárius numerus, the numbre of fyue hundred.

Quingenties, fyue hundred tymes.

Quingéntuplus, a, um, fyue hundred tymes ſo muche.

Quinimo, but rather, but that more is.

Quinquagenárius, a, um, of fifte yere olde,

Quinquagintа, fyftie.

Quinquagênus, a, um, of fiftie.

Quinquageſimus, the fiftieth.

Quinquágies, fiftie tymes.

Quinquageſies, idem.

Quinquangulus, a, um, fyue cornerde.

Quinquatria, ôrum, a feaſt dedicated to Pallas, whiche dureth fyue daies.

Quinquâtrus, us, m. g. idem.

Quinquatrus dies, a feaſt ſo called, becauſe it was after the fyfte Idus of marche.

Quinque, fyue.

Quinquefolium, an herbe called cinke foyle, or fyue leaued graſſe.

Quinque libralis, le, of fyue pounde weight.

Quinquemeſtris, ſtre, of fyue monethes.

Quinquenâlis, le, that whiche happeneth or is done euery fyfte yere, or that continueth fyue yeres.

Quinquennis, ne, of fyue yeres, fiue yeres olde.

Quinquenninm, nii, n. g. the ſpace of fyue yeres.

Quinquepartior, tiris, tiri, to diuide in fyue partes.

Quinquepartito, in fyue partes.

Quinquepartitus, a, um, in fyue partes diuided.

Quinquéplico, aui, are, to double fyue tymes.

Quinquertium, the exercyſe of fyue ſondry crafts tes.

Quinquertiones, they whiche exercyſed fyue ſondrie crafftes, maiſtries, feates or games.

Quinqueremis, mis, ſ. g. a galley with fyue reſwes of ores, or that hath fyue ores in euery ſeate.

Quinqueuirâtus, us, m. g. an office or authoritee, wherin fyue men were aſſociate.

Quinqueuir, quinqueuiri, m. g. one that is in the ſayde authoritee.

Quinquies, fyue tymes.

Quinqueplicare magiſtratum, to prolonge an office fyue yere.

Quintânus, a, um, the fyfte.

Quintana porta, the chiefe gate in the campe, whiche was called Prætoria, where the market was wont to be kepte.

Quintia porta, & Quintia prata, was a gate and mea

Quindecim viri, were officers of Rome, whiche toke theyr name of the number of them.
Quintianus, the name of a notable Rhetoritian.
Quintilis, the moneth of Julie.
Quintilius, a mans name, familiar with Virgile and Horace.
Quinquipor, oris, the boye or seruaunte of Quintus.
Quintius, and Quintus, the names of diuers Romaines.
Quintius, a, um, pertainyng to Quintius.
Quini, æ, plu. nu. fiue.
Quini denarij, fyue pens.
Quintum, an aduerbe, the fifte tyme.
Quintusdecimus, a, um, the fiftenthe.
Quipote, howe is it possible.
Quippe, surely, for as muche as, for because, sometyme yea truely.
Sol Demetrio magnus videtur, quippe homini erudito, in geometriaque perfecto, the sunne semed great to Demetrius, and no meruaile, for he was a great lerned man and perfect in geometrie.
Quippe quas. Plaut. Argenti minas se habere quinquaginta, quippe ego quas nudius tertius manibus numeraui, I sape that he had fifte poundes in money, that is to sape, that whiche I my selfe paied hym.
Quippe qui testificetur, for so muche as he dwelth witnesse.
Quippeni, why not.
Quirinālis, le, of or belongyng to Romulus.
Quirinalis collis, an hill at Rome, where the temple of Romulus was set.
Quirinalis porta, the gate next to that hyll.
Quirinalia, orum, dates in the whiche men dyd sacrifice vnto Romulus called Quirinus.
Quirinus, the surname of Romulus.
Quiris, quiritis, or Quirites, quiritis, or hic & hæc quiritis, a Romaine.
Quiritātio, ônis, s. ge. a cryng or callyng of the Romaines.
Quiritātus, us, a crie or shoute of the people of Rome.
Quiritatus infantium, a crie of the Romaynes children.
Quirites, was a name, whereby the Romains were called of theyr first kyng Romulus, called Quirinus, as it were Quirinus people.
Quirito, aui, are, and Quiritor, aris, ari, to crie out, to stirre vp the Romaines with a crie, to call for helpe of the Romaines. also to complaine.
Quirinare, to grunte or make a noise lyke a boare.
Quis, whor.
Quis me vult, who is that wolde haue me.
Quis, for Quæ: as, Quis ea est, quam vis ducere vxorem? what is she that thou wilt marie?
Quis est hominum? what man is there in the worlde?
Quis, for Qualis: as,
Quis videor? what maner of man doe ye thynke me to be?
Cui scribam video, I se to whom or to what maner of man I do write.
Quem ad finem, id est, Quousq.
Tum mihi nescio quis. &c. then one, I can not tell what he was. &c.
Quisnam, who.
Quisnam homo est? what man is that? or who is that?
Quispiam, some man, also a certayne person.
Quisputas, idem quod Quisnam.
Quisquam, an interrogatiue, as Est quisquam qui, &c. is there any man liuyng that. &c.
Quisquam, any man, it is sometyme vsed in the feminine gendre for any woman.
An quisquam gentium æque miser? is there any man liuyng in all the worlde so miserable or in so yll a case.
Quisque, euery man.
Doctissimus quisq, euerie well lerned man.
Decimus quisque, euerie tenthe.
Suo quisq tempore, euery man in his tyme.
Tertio quoq verbo, at euerie thyrde worde.
Quid quisq cuiq præstare oporteat, what euerie man ought to doe for other.
Quotus quisq, what one among many thousandes.
Sua cuiusque animantis natura est, euerie lyuyng creature hath his propre nature.
Suum quisque opus considerari volunt, euery man will haue his worke considered.
Huic pro se quisque nostrum, euery one of vs for his parte.
Quisquiliæ, ārum, plu. be those thynges, which in makyng cleane of a gardeine or orchard, be caried out, as stickes, leaues, and weedes: it is vsed of Cicero, for naughtie men, the refuse of all other, vile persons of no estimacion.
Quisquilium, lij, n. g. a littell braunche of a kinde of holy, which beareth grayne, wherwith scarlet and crymsyn colours be made.
Quisquis, in the genitiue case, cuiusculus, who so euer.
Quiuis, in the genitiue case cuiusuis, any man, any one of them.
Quiusuis temporibus, for Quibusuis.
Quo, the coniunction, wherfore, that: also for Quod, or quoniam, because.
Quo tu minus scis erumnas meas, and I wyll tell the, because thou knowest not the troubles that I am in.
Te amo, quo magis quæ agis curæ sunt mihi, I loue the, and therefore I am the more carefull and solicitous what thou doest.
Quo minus minum est, si. &c. and therfore it is the lesse meruaile, if. &c.
Quo minus familiaris sum, hoc curiosior, &c. the lesse familiar that I am, the more curious. &c.
Quo minus animus à se ipse dissidens. &c.

how how muche lesse the minde that agreeth not &c.

Quo plus potest, hoc prestantior, The more that he can doe, the better he is.
Quo quisque te maxime cognatione attingebat, is maxime putabatur. &c. euerye man as he was nerest to you in kynrede, so he was iudged moste. &c.
Non pol quo quenquam plus amem, aut plus diligam, eo feci, in good feithe I did it not because I more loued or fauoured any man.
Forma bona, memini videre, quo æquior sum Pamphilo, she is well fauoured, I remembre that I haue seene hir, wherefore I am the lesse displeased with Pamphilus.
Neque enim id feci, quo tibi molestus essem, nor I dyd it not, that I wold displease you. also quo signifieth to what purpose or vse.
Quo mihi fortunam, si non conceditur vti? for what pourpose shall good fortune serue, if I maie not haue commoditie by it: or if I maie not vse it?
Quo, the aduerbe, whither, also from whence.
Quo abis, whither goest thou?
Quo non. Perreptaui vsque omne oppidum, ad portam, ad lacum, quo non? I went all the towne about, to the gate, to the poole, there is no place but that I was in it. Also it signifieth from whence and where.
Illuc quæso redi, quo cœpisti, I beseche the turne backe againe, where thou beganste.
Quo gentium, whither.
Quoad, vntill, as longe, howe longe.
Quoad fieri potest, as faere as coude bee.
Quoad quenque peruenit, aut peruenerit ex præda, ex manubiis, ex auro coronario? how much of the praie or spoyle, garlandes or crownes of victours is comen, or shall come to any of your handes?
Quoad eius facere possum, as muche as I maie doo.
Senem quoad expectatis? howe long do you loke for the olde man your maister?
Tam diu autem velle debebis, quoad te, &c. and so long thou oughtest to be willyng, as. &c.
Quoad reliqua multitudo aduenerit, vntil the residewe of the company shall come.
Quoad vixit, as longe as he liued.
Quoad moriar, vntill I shall die.
Quoad tibi æquum & rectum videbitur, as faere as you shall thynke honeste and reasonable.
Quoadusque, vntill.
Quoaxare, to crope lyke a frogge.
Quocirca, wherefore, therfore.
Quocum, with whom.
Quocunque, with whom so euer.
Quocunque, an aduerbe, whither so euer, or whiche waie so euer.
Quod, that, wherin, whiche thyng.
Sed si quid sit, quod mea opera opus sit, aut tu plus vides quam ego, manebo, but if there be any thynge, wherein ye shall haue neede of my seruice, or that ye perceyue more then I doe, I will tarie. Also it is put for Quem.
Alienum hominē intromittit neminem, quod illa aut amicum, aut patronum nominet, she maie let in no man, whom she wyll call derlyng or maister.
Nube grauida candicante, quod vocant tempestatem albam, grando imminebit, when there dooeth appere a great clowde, that wareth white, whiche they call a white tempeste, ye shall haue haple mozzly after.
Tu velim, quod cum commodo valetudinis tuæ fiat, quam longissime poteris obuiam nobis properes, I wolde that ye as muche as maie be with the healthe of your persone, make speede to meete with vs as farre from home as ye can. Also it signifieth why.
Si ad vitulam spectes, nihil est quod pocula laudes, if thou consider the heifer well, there is no cause why thou shouldest praise so thy potter.
In viam quod te des hoc tempore, nihil est, there is no cause why thou shuldest take thy iourney at this tyme. Also it signifieth wherefore.
Quod te per genium dextramque, deosque penates obsecro & obtestor, vitæ me redde priori, wherfore I beseche and praie the for thy good angels sake, and for the loue betwene the and me, and for the sainctes, whiche be thyne auoures, restore me estesones to my first life, or to the state that I was in erste.
Quod absque molestia fiat, so that it be no displeasure vnto you.
Quare pergratum mihi feceris, si eum in amicitiam receperis, atque eum (quod absque molestia fiat) si qua in re opus ei fuerit iuueris, wherefore ye shall doe me singular pleasure, if ye take hym into your fauour, and (so that it be no displeasure vnto you) when nede requireth, be good lorde or maister vnto hym.
Quod biremium, those galies that he had.
Quod proxime castrorum sincerum erat, &c. that parte of the campe, whiche. &c.
Quod róboris in iuuentute erat, amiserant, they had loste all their valiante and lustie yong men.
Quod me accusat nunc vir, &c. as concernynge that, or in that, whiche my housbande dooeth accuse me of. &c.
Vt quod ego ad te venio, intelligas, that ye maie perceiue what it is that I doe come to you for: or wherefore I doe come to you.
Quod, for Quæ pluraliter, Et quod nunc iute tecum iratus cogitas, and as concerninge those thynges, that you frettyng for anger thynke now with youe selfe.
Quod vtinam in mentem non incidisset, and I wold to god it had not come to my mynde.
Ego quoque vna perio, quod mihi est charius, id est, qui mihi sum charius.
Et ipse (quod commodo tuo fiat) cum eo colloquere, so that it be no leat or trouble to you, so that that you maie conueniently, easily, or without great businesse.

Quod commode facere possis, idem.

Quod bene vertat, whiche thyng I praie god maie come to good, or be brought to good passe.

Quod licet inter nos dicere, as I maye tell you betwene you and me.

Quod equidem sciam, as farre as I knowe.

Quod satis est, as muche as is sufficient.

Quum sis quod ego, where as thou art euen as I am.

Ornamẽtorũ quod superfuit, id est, quicquid.

Sine vxore, quod nunquam fere, without his wyfe, as he was neuer wonte almoste.

Quod superest, more ouer, but, and furthermore, to conclude.

Quod quidem in te fuit, as muche as late in the.

Vin facere quod ego gaudeam? & quod tuo viro. &c. id est, vt.

Quod, for Quodcunq.

Cupio illi dare quod vult, I wyll gladly geue hym what so euer he will haue.

Quod, a coniunction, because, for so muche as, as to that, as touchyng that, also but.

Quòd me viuere coegisti, because thou haste forced me to liue

Quòd quidam erant improbi, because, or for so muche as there were some lewed and wicked persones.

Quòdsi tibi res sit, but if thou hadst to doe.

Quòd ad me scribis, as concernyng or touchyng that ye write to me.

Quòd cum accidisset, vt alterum statim videremus, but whan it had chaunced. &c.

Quòd quia, for Sed quia, or verum quando.

Quod quia nullo modo sine amicitia. &c.

Id circo. &c. but because we can not. &c. therefore. &c.

Quòd quoniam nobis voluntas accidit, id est, quando vero nobis, or Cum vero nobis.

Non quod odio habeam, sed quo meliorem efficiam, not because I hate hym, but that I maie make hym better.

Tertius hic dies est quòd audiui, this is the thirde date sens I herde it.

Senatus consulta duo facta sunt odiosa, quòd in consulem facta putantur, Catone & Domitio postulante, two actes of counsayle were made verie displeasant, for as muche as they were supposed to be made against the consull at the desyre of Domitius and Cato.

Quodsi quiessem, nihil euenisset mali, but if I had leat it alone, there had none ill happened, or it had bene well enough.

Sane quòd tibi vir videatur esse, hic nebulo magnus est, as to that that thou thinkest hym a man, surely he is a sturdy vacabunde knaue.

Quod quidem, no that.

Non nouisti me? P. quod quidem veniat in mentem, doest thou not know me? P. no that I remembre me.

Quodámmodo, somewhat, after a certayne faction.

Quamobrem vt hi, qui superiores sunt, submittere se debent in amicitia, sic quodãmodo inferiores extollere, wherefore likewise as they, whiche ar superiour in state or degree, shoulde humble them selfes in frendeship, so they whiche are inferiour, shoulde somewhat in a certayne faction aduance and set theym selfes forwarde.

Quódpiam, for Quoddam.

Quodcunq, what so euer.

Quodcunq militum, for Quotcunq milites, Vos hortor, vt quodcunq militum contrahere poteritis, contrahatis, I aduise you that as many souldiours as ye can get, ye gather vnto you.

Quóminus, for vt non.

Si potuit fieri, vt ne pater per me stetisse credat, quóminus hæ fierent nuptiæ volo, if it may bee brought to passe, that my father maie beleue, that it is not in my faute that this mariage is not concluded, I am content.

Quominus in eundem portum peruenirent, that they coulde not come into the same hauen.

Quomodo, how, by what reason, in what maner or faction, by what meane.

Quómodo tibi res se habet? how is the matter with the.

Sed quomodo dissimulabat? but in what maner did he dissemble? or but how, or after what faction did he dissemble?

Primulo diluculo abiisti ad legiones, betyme in the morninge thou wentest to the armie. also it signifieth wherefore.

Illa quidem nullum sacrificabit. G. Quómodo? Quid igitur me volt? she wyll doe no sacrifice? G. wherefore? what thing woulde she than with me?

Quomodo, for Quoquomodo, how so euer.

Quómodo potuissem, te conuenissem, si, &c. how so euer I myght haue done it. &c.

Quomodo for vt, as, Quómodo nunc est pedem vbi ponat non habet? as the matter goeth now, he hath not a place to set his foote in.

Quomodocunq, how so euer.

Sed tamen quomodocunq, quanq vt sumus pauperculi, est domi quod edimus, yet how so euer it be, though we bee poore folkes, we haue at home somewhat to eate.

Quomodólibet, idem.

Quomodonam, but how.

Quonam, an aduerbe, whither.

Eamus intro, sequere. S. Quo tute agis? C. Quonam nisi domum? let vs go in, folow me. S. whither wilte thou go? C. whither shoulde I goe but home to my house.

Quonam, the ablatiue of Quinam.

Quonam inquit modo? how or after what faction saieth he.

Quondam, sometyme, ones in tyme paste, or tyme to come.

Quondã tua dicere facta tẽpus erit, the tyme shalbe ones, whan thine actes shall be declared. also it is put in the tyme present.

Quondam etiam victis redit in præcordia virtus, ye and in them that are vanquished, sometyme good courage encreasones imbraseth theyr stomaches. Sometyme it signifieth alwaye.

Vt quondam in stipulis magnus sine viribus ignis, lyke as in stubble or hoime, fire is alway great without any puissaunce.

Quoniam, for as muche as, because.

Quoniam quidem, for Quandoquidem.

Quoniam, sometyme for Postq̃.

Quopiam, any whyther.

Iturane Thais quopiam es? Thais, wilte thou go any whyther.

Quoquam, any whyther.

Quoque, also, lykewyse.

Quoquo, where so euer, towarde what parte so euer, whither so euer.

Quoquo hinc abducta est gentium, to what parte of the worlde so euer she be conueighed from hence.

Quoquo, the ablatiue for Quocunq̃.

Quoquo tempore, at what tyme so euer.

Quoquo consilio fecit, by what counsayle so euer he did it.

Quoquomodo, how so euer, by what meane so euer, after what facion so euer, in any wyse, by all meanes and diligence.

Quæ mihi molesta est quoquomodo, id est, omnibus modis.

Quoquomodo ad iudicandum veni, come to the iudgement, in any wyse, by one meanes or an other.

Quoquomodo se res habeat, howe so euer the matter be.

Quoquomodo hominẽ inuestiges velim, by all the meanes that can be, with all diligence.

Quoquomodo potes, fac ad me venias, see that ꝙ come to me by one meanes or an other.

Quoquopacto, in any maner of wyse.

Tum si maxime fateatur, cum amet aliam, non est vtile hanc illi dari quapropter quoquopacto celato est opus, then if he vtterly confesse it, for as muche as he loueth an other, it were not conuenient, that he were maried to this woman: therefore in any maner of wyse this thynge must be kept secrete.

Quoquouersum, or quoquouersus, euery way, on euery parte, on euery syde.

Eius imperio classem quoquouersum dimittunt, by his commaundement they dispatched the naule in euery parte.

Rates duplices quoquouersum pedibus triginta è regione solis collocabat, he set shyppes double agaynst the sonne, thyrty feete euery waie.

Quorsum, or Quorsus apud Plinium, whither, towarde what place or thyng, to what intent or ende, to what purpose.

Quorsum istuc, to what purpose or place?

Nescio quorsum eam, I can not tell whither or towarde what place I shuld go.

Ego nesciebam quorsũ tu ires? thynkest thou that I dyd not knowe, to what ende, or for what intente thou spakest these woordes?

Quam timeo quorsum euadas? how greatly doe I feare to what ende your tale wyll come?

Tenes quorsum hæc tendant? doest thou perceyue for what intente I speake these woordes?

Quorsum hæc tandem? to what purpose speake you this?

Quot, howe many.

Quot homines, tot sententiæ, howe many men, so many diuers opinions.

Quot mensibus, id est, singulis mensibus.

Quotannis, yere by yere, euery yere.

Quotennis, of what age? how olde?

Quot annos natus, idem.

Quotẽnus, how many, to what numbre.

Quotidianus, a, um, a thyng that is or happeneth dayly, or daie by daie.

Quotidiani sumptus, daiely expences.

Quotidiana forma, a common beautie or facion euery daie seene.

Verba quotidiana, woordes vsed in daily communication or speche.

Quotidie, daiely, euery daie.

Quoties, how often tymes, as often tymes as.

Toties quoties, so often as euer, as many times as.

Quotiens, idem quod Quoties.

Quotiescunq̃, as often as.

Quotquot, as many as.

Quotuplex, how many foldes.

Quotuplus, a, um, how muche in measure or weight.

Quotus, a, um, of what numbre, how many.

Hora quota est? what is it a cloche?

Dic quotus es? tell of what order or place thou arte. also tell me how many ye bee.

Quotas ædes dixerit, id ego admodum incertus scio, how many howses he spake of, I am not well assertained, or I remembre not well.

Quota pars, how small a portion.

Quotuscunque, as many as euer.

Quotusquisque, how many, what one amonge a thousande.

Quouis, whither, or to what place ye wyll.

Quouis gentium, whither so euer ye wyll in the worlde.

Quousque, how longe, how farre.

Quousque tandem, how longe yet.

Qur & Quor, wherefore.

Quum, or qum, whan, in the whiche, where as, lohe for the phrases therof in Cum.

Quum primum, as soone as.

RABIA, olde writers vsed for Rabies.
Rabidé, furiously, madly, outragiously.
Rabere, to be furiouse or madde.
Rabidus, a, um, madde or woode, as a madde dogge, furiouse, in a rage, rageyng woode.
Rabidus dens, an ahyng tothe.
Rabies, ei, f. g. madnesse of a dogge. it is also applied to men, rage, furie, woodenesse.
Rabiosè, with a rage, furie, or madnesse.
Rabiosus, a, um, madde or verie angrie, woode angrie, in a rage, outragious, furious.
Rabiosulus, a, um, somewhat madde.
Rabirius, a gentilman of Rome. also a poete in Ouids tyme.
Rabo, onis, f. g. idem quod Arrabo,
Rabula, læ, m. ge. one whiche is hasty or wilfull in any cause, tangyng or full of woordes, an attourney or aduocate that defendeth ones cause with ouer many woordes.
Racemárius, rij, m. g. a twigge of a vine, of the whiche the grapes doe spryng.
Racemátio, ônis, f. ge. the gatherying of grapes, there the great clusters be gathered to make wyne, the glenyng of grapes.
Racemátus, a, um, that hath grapes.
Racemifer, ra, rum, that beareth clusters of grapes.
Racemósus, a, um, full of grapes or beries.
Racémus, mi, m. g. a grape, or a cluster of grapes or beries.
Racha, a reprochefull woorde of hebrew, whiche signifieth thrifteles, brayneles. finally it is a rebukefull woorde, signifiyng the extreme ire of a persone that speaketh it.
Radagasus, a kyng of the Gothes.
Radians, antis, shinyng bright, castyng beames of light.
Radiátio, ônis, fœm. ge. a castyng of beames of brightnesse.
Radiátus, a, um, that casteth beames of brightnesse and light.
Caput radiatum, a head that hath bright beames about it, as peincters were wont to peincte images.
Radicátus, a, um, rooted.
Radicitus, from the rote, or vp by the rote, quite and cleane, vtterly, wholly, so that nothyng be lefte.
Radicitus euellere, to pluche vp by the rote.
Radicesco, cescere, to take rote.
Radico, aui, are, to rote or take rote.
Radicósus, a, um, that hath a great rote, or many roters.
Radicula, læ, f. g. a litteli rote. also an herbe, the iuyce whereof is good to washe wouil. Ruellius saieth, that the apothecaries doe call it Saponaria: and some call it Herba fullonum, the Woozes doe name it Condisum.
Radio, aui, are, to sende forthe beames lyke the sonne.
Radior, aris, ari, to be made to cast beames of lightnesse.
Radiolus, li, m. ge. a littell olike that is longe.
Radius, dij, m. g. a beame of the sonne or other bright sterre: sometyme of the eies: also a robde or parde, that geometricians haue to describe lines. also a weauers shyttell, wherwith he throweth parne into the webbe. also the spoke of a wheele. also an instrument, wherwith measures be stricken. also longe olives or ople beanes. Radius is also a parte of the fysshe called Pastinaca, wherwith he doth fyght.
Radix, dicis, f. g. a rote.
Radices montis, the foote of an hill.
In radice palatij, at the foote or bottum of the palaice.
Habere radices altas, To haue taken deepe roote.
Agere radices, to take roote.
Rado, si, dere, to shaue or make smoothe, to cut or pull vp, to hurte, to rente, to offende, to fatigate, to scrape.
Aures delicatas radere, to offende or fatigate delicate eares.
Radit coruus terram, the crowe scrapeth the grounde.
Rádula, læ, f. ge. an instrument to shaue with, or to scrape olde pitche of barrels or other thynges, that new maie be laied on.
Radulánus, a, um, that which is scraped or shauen of from any thyng.
Ragades, a disease in the fundament.
Ragadia, æ, f. g. idem.
Rage, a towne and castell in Englande called Notingham.
Raia, æ, f. g. a fisshe called raie or sheate.
Ralla, læ, f. g. a thynne garment.
Rallum, li, neu. ge. the staffe, wherewith plough men in tillyng dooe put the earthe from theyr share.
Ramále, lis, neu. ge. a seared or dead bough, cut from the tree.
Ramentum, ti, neu. gen. a litteli pece cut of from golde, sylure, or any thyng.
Ramenta fluminum, litteli thynges in the gravell or sande of riuers.
Rameus, a, um, that is of a bough.
Ramex, rámicis, m. g. a hynde of rupture, when the bowels doe fall downe into a mannes cods des. also a rafte or barre, whiche goeth ouerthwarte a pale or gate.
Ramicósus, a, um, that is burstен.
Ramnetes, the thirde part of the people of Rome in Romulus tyme.
Raminenses, idem.
Ramnus, lege Rhamnus.
Ramósus, a, um, full of bowes, that hath many boowes.

Rá-

Rámulus, li, masc. gen. & Ramuſculus, a littell boughe.

Ramus, mi, m. ge. a bough. alſo the part of the rote of a tree growyng out like a bough.

Ramus montis, the arme or parte of an hill.

Rana, næ, f. g. a frogge. alſo a ſickenelle, whiche doeth annoye cattell.

✠ Rana Seriphia, is a prouerbe, applied to the, that can not ſpeake in tyme conuenient.

Ranceo, cere, to be mouldy or putrified.

Ranceus, idem quod Rancidus.

Rancidè, an aduerbe, ſtynkyngly.

Rancidus, a, um, rancid, mouldy, or putrified. alſo vnſauoury, or vnpleaſant.

Rancidulus, a, um, a littell mouldy or putrified, that hath ſomewhat a rotten ſauour.

Ranco, aui, are, to make a noyſe like a tigre.

Rancor, oris, m. ge. filthe, rottennelle of thynges that be mouldy and vnkewed: a rotten and ſtynkyng ſauour.

Randus, was taken in olde tyme for æs, braſſe.

Randuſcula porta, the braſen gate.

Rantum, in the olde tyme was a quarterne of a pounde.

Ranúnculus, li, m. ge. a littell frogge or froſche. alſo the herbe called Batrachion, take there.

Rapa, pæ, f. g. a plant and rote called rape.

Rapácia, rape leaues.

Rapácitas, atis, f. g. rauenie, extorcion.

Rapáciter, rauenouſly.

Rapax, âcis, om. g. rauenous, greedy, couetous, that vſeth extorcion and pilfyng.

Raphánicus, a, um, of radiſſhe.

Raphanitis, itis, f. g. a certayne herbe.

Raphanus, ni, m. gen. a plant and roote called radiſſhe.

Rapicium, cii, n. g. a rape leafe.

Rapidè, quickely, ſwyftly, with great violence.

Rapiditas, âtis, f. g. ſwyftenelle.

Rápidus, a, um, very ſwyfte, as a ſtreame of water.

Oratio rapida, id eſt, concitata.

Rapina, næ, fœ. g. robbery, rauine. alſo a place where rapes doe growe.

Rapinator, a robber.

Rapio, pui, pere, to take or pull by violence, haſte, or furie, to ſnatche, to take haſtily: alſo to rauiſſhe a woman, to bryngе one by violence before a iudge, or to priſon.

Sublimem hunc intrò rape, hoyſe me vp this felow on thy backe, and carie hym in.

Rapi ad cognitionem rerum, To be moued with a great deſyre to knowe thynges.

Rapi cupiditate, to be moued or ledde with the vnſaciate deſyre of any thyng.

Aliquem ad ſuam diſciplinam rapere, id eſt, attrahere, impellere.

In errorem rapi, to be brought in an errour, to be deceyued.

Rapere in inuidiam, to bryngе one in hatred and diſpleaſure.

Limis rapere, ſupple oculis, To ſpie or loke vpon, or reade a thyng with the eies a ſlew, or lurkyng aſyde.

Rapere in peiorem partẽ, to carpe, to blame, to ſynde faute with, to interpete a thyng ill.

Illuc ſe rapuit, he went thither with all ſpede, or in great haſte.

Rapere ad ſe, to draw or allure to it, to take to hym ſelfe.

Virgines ad ſtuprum rapere, to rauiſſhe maydens.

In fraudem aliquem rapere, To make one to doe a thing, that ſhall tourne to his diſpleaſure and hurte.

Huc rapies viam, thou ſhalt come hither.

Ad ſupplicium rapere, to take and leade away to be puniſhed.

Rapere aliquem in ius, to arreſte one, or cauſe hym to be arreſted to appere before iudges.

Rapſere, olde writers vſed for Rapere.

Rapſodia.

Rapo, raponis, m. g. for Raptor.

Raptim, haſtily, ſwiftely.

Raptim ſcribere, to write in haaſte.

Raptátus, a, um, taken, caried, or drawen away with great violence.

Rápтio, ônis, f. g. violent taking of a perſone.

Rápтito, aui, are, to take often violently.

Rapto, aui, are, to take or drawe violently.

Rаptor, ôris, ma. gen. a rauiſſher or violent taker, a robber.

Raptum, ti, n. g. a thyng taken or robbed away by violence.

Raptúra, æ, f. g idem quod Raptus.

Raptus, a, um, rauiſſhed, taken awaie ſodainly.

Raptus, us, m. gene. rauiſſhyng or deflouryng of a woman, or the violent takyng awaie of a thyng.

Rápulum, li, n. g. a littell rape roote.

Rapum, pi, n. g. a rape roote.

Rapúnculus, li, m. gene. a littell rote, whiche is eaten in ſaletes.

Raré, ſeldome, or not often. alſo thynne, not thycke.

Rarefácio, feci, facere, to make thyn or ſhlender.

Rarefio, fieri, to be made thynne or ſhlender.

Rarenter, ſeldome.

Rareſco, ſcere, to ware thynne or not thicke growen, to be or happen ſeldome, to ware fewer in numbre, to diminiſhe by litle & litle.

Raripilus, la, lum, thynne heared.

Rarior, rarius, more ſelde.

Rariſsimus, a, um, ſeldeſt.

Rariſsime, moſte ſelde.

Ráritas, tâtis, and Raritûdo, tûdinis, f. ge. ſeldomeneſſe.

Raritas arborum, thynne growth of trees, or when few trees grow in a place.

Raró, ſelde, rare, fewe tymes.

Raro, aui, are, to make ſcant or ſelde.

Rarus, a, um, ſelde or not oft, thynne, not thicke growen growen or sette. also precious, excellent.

Rari, a sunder, here and there one, or a fewe.
Rara auis, a birde seldome seene: wherby is signified any thyng that seldome happeneth.
Rari capilli, thynne heare.
Rarus in potu, that drynketh seldome.
Cribrum rarum, a course or wyde sieue.
Turba rarissima, a very small company.
Rarum inuentu, harde and rathe to be found.
Rasamentum, ti, n. ge. shaupng or shedde, after Calepine: but the place of Columella hath now Ramenta.
Rasis, a kynde of rawe pitche.
Rásilis, le, that may be shauen or made smothe.
Rásito, aui, are, to shaue ofte.
Rasor, ôris, m. gene. a barbour or shauer. also a fidlar.
Rasorius, a, um, pertepnyng to shaupng.
Rasta, a douche mple.
Rastéllum, li, n. g. a littell rake.
Rastrum, stri, n. ge. Pluraliter hi rastri, & hæc rastra, a rake.
Rasúra, æ, f. g. a shaupng.
Ratariæ naues, lighters or woodde barges.
Ratare, olde writers vsed for Ratificare, to ratifie, to confirme.
Ratum habere, idem.
Rates, ratis, are pieces of tymber pynned togeather, whereon hay or other lyke thynge beyng laide, thei are drawen on riuers, as on the great streames of Germanie and Fraunce is nowe seene: but they be commonly vsed and taken for shippes, or the side beames of a shippe.
Ratiárius, rii, m. g. the maister of a shippe: or it semeth rather to be a lighter man, or he that occupieth a lighter or barge, to transporte and conueigh marchandises from place to place.
Ratiastum, Limogetis in Poito.
Ratifico, aui, are, to ratifie, confirme or approue.
Ratificátio, ônis, fœ. gen. a ratification or confirmation.
Ratio, ônis, f. g reason, counsaile, purpose, care, respecte, consyderacion, regarde, cause, the maner, the waie, the faction, the fourme, proporcion, the trade, the feate, the meane, also an accompte, a rekenyng.
Habenda est ratio rei familiaris, The affaires concernyng our houshold muste be consydered: or we muste haue a regarde to our houshold affaires.
Rationem habere cum aliquo, to haue to doe with one.
Neq; illud rationis habuisti, you had not that regarde or consyderacion with you.
Sine ratione officij, without haupng regard to his duetie.
A quo mea longissime ratio voluntasq; abhorrebat, the whiche was cleane contrarie to my fantasie or mynde.
Vestram nequeo mirari satis rationem, I can not meruaple enough at your doynges.
Mea est sic ratio, so is my fantasy, my counsaile or aduise is this.
Cum ratione aliquid inire, to go about a thynge aduisedly, & forseepng what maie folowe: to consyder and weigh a thyng before he begynne.
Nunquàm ita quisquam bene, subducta ratione ad vitam fuit, quin. &c. neuer man was so well aduised in his life: or neuer man tohe so good aduisement in his liuyng, but. &c.
Vt ego oculis rationem capio, as farre as I can deeerne or see.
Pro ratione fructuum, id est, pro quantitate, accordyng to the fruite or profite therof.
Rationibus inferre, To putte into his rekenyng.
Rationes Galliæ procurare, to minister the affaires pertepnyng to Gallia.
Multis rationibus prouisum, it is many maner of waies prouided for.
Vt rationem te dictare intelligo, after thine accompte.
Ratio constat, the mattier appereth or is shewed, the cause or reason is eudent.
Rationes referre, to yelde accompte.
Rationem dare, idem.
Rationem dictare, to accompte.
Ratio de integro inevnda est mihi, I muste be fayne to begynne my rekenyng or accompte all newe agayne: and by translacion, I must inuent a newe waie or meane to bryngе this mattier to passe.
Rationes putare, To summe ouer a boke of accompte.
Rationes conferre, to trie an accompte.
Rationibus referre, To regester that he hath receyued.
Rationem vitæ reposcere, to examine one howe he hath ledde his life.
Rationem conficere, to make a regestre of any thyng that is done.
Conuenit inter eos ratio accepti & expensi, their receptes and expenses agree.
Perfecti operis rationem computare, to caste or compte how muche the whole woorke or buildyng standeth hym in.
Morum prior ratio est, the more respecte must be had to the maners.
Rationem commodi ducere, to haue regard to his profite.
Habent rationem cum terra, they labour or occupie the grounde.
Rationem ostendam, qua ista fugiatis, I will shewe you a meane, waie, or facion. &c.
Dissimilitudo meæ rationis offendit hominẽ, The vnlikeneſſe of the waie, trade or facion, that I doe take in the mattier. &c.
Ad nostrorum temporum rationem, in compasrison of our tyme.
Posteaq̃ mea ratio mutata est, after that my purpose or aduisement was changed.
Propter rationem belli, because of the warre.

Quantum belli ratio postulabit, as muche as the state and condition of the warre shall require.

Ad rationem antiquæ religionis, accordyng to the rule. &c.

Alia ratione, otherwise, by any other meanes.

Ratione aliquid facere, to doe a thing for a cõsyderation or cause.

Ratio honesti, the nature of honestie.

Rationem dicere, to shew a reason or cause why.

Ratiocinátio, ônis, f. gen. reasonyng, debatyng of a matter.

Ratiocinâtor, ôris, m. g. a caster of an accõpte, an auditour, a disputer, a reasoner.

Ratiocinatiuus, a, um, belongyng to reasonyng or debatyng of the matter.

Ratiocinium, nij, neu. gen. reasonyng and disputyng.

Ratiócinor, aris, ari, to debate or reason together in argument, to accompte.

Rationábilis, le, reasonable, dooen with reason.

Rationâlis, le, that hath the vse of reason.

Rationárius, rij, m. ge. he that kepeth the booke of rekenyng, an auditour.

Rationárius, a, um, belongyng to a rekenyng or accoumpte.

Rationarius codex, a booke of accompte, a reckenyng booke. Also a booke belongyng to the counsaile of princes, wherin actes doen and to be doen, are writen, a Regestre.

Ratis, tis, f. g. idem quod Rates, tis.

Ratispona, a citee in Almayne called Wentzburgh.

Ratiúncula, læ, f. ge. a littell accompte or reckenyng, a small reason.

Ratumenna, the name of a certayne chariot man.

Ratus, a, um, stablyshed, confyrmed, supposed, also thynkyng, iudgeyng.

Pro rata, accordyng to his portion.

Dicta rata, promisses kepte.

Ratum habere aliquid, to approue, to confirme. Also to haue for a certaintee.

Ratum facere, to ratifie, to confyrme.

Ratum mihi est, I approue it, I allowe it.

Rato tempore, at a certayne tyme.

Ratæ preces, prayers or vowes that be heard.

Ratus, a participle, signifiyng supposyng.

Ratus sum, I supposed, I thought.

Raucæ, wourmes that be in the rootes of trees, and doe eate them.

Raucé, hoarsely.

Rauceo, cui, cère, to be hoarse.

Rauceſco, ſcere, to waxe hoarse.

Raucêdo, dinis, f. g. hoarsenesse.

Raucio, rausi, cire, to be hoarse.

Raucísonus, a, um, that maketh a hoarse noyse, that hath a hoarse voyce.

Ráucitas, âtis, f. g. hoarsenesse.

Raucus, a, um, hoarse.

Nisi ipse iam rumor raucus erit factus, except that rumour doo cease.

Sonare raucum quiddam, to sowne somewhat hoarsely.

Raudus, or Rodus, a thyng vnwrought and vnpolyshed. it was also taken for æs, brasse.

Rauduſcula, a brasen gate in Rome.

Rauduſculum li, n. g brasse.

Rauenna, a citee in Italie.

Rauennas, atis, om. gene. that dwelleth or is in Rauenna.

Rávidus, a, um, an adiectiue.

Ravidi oculi, eies of colour myxte with blacke and poulowe, somewhat blewysshe or poulowe.

Raviliæ, they that haue eies of colour myxte with blacke and poulowe.

Rauis, uis, f. g. hoarsenesse.

Ad rauim poscere, to require a thynge so importunately, that he is hoarse.

Rauiscellus, a, um, littell browne of colour.

Rauus, a, um, for obtusus: also Rauus color, a dull or sadde colour, myxte with blacke or poulowe, a darke poulowe.

Raua vox, a voyce that maie not bee well heard.

R ANTE E.

RE, a prepoſition vſed onely in compoſition, and ſignifieth ſometyme Rursum: as Reædifico, to builde againe: ſometyme Contra, or Aduersus: as Repugno. ſometyme Iterum atq; iterum: as, Reputo. alſo Inde: as, Remoueo. ſometyme Valde: as, Redundo. Sometyme it hath the ſame ſignification that the ſymple hath.

Reædifico, aui, are, to redifie, to buylde newe, to buylde agayne.

Readopto, aui, are, to chose by adoption agayn.

Realis actio, an action concernyng the gods.

Reapse, in the selfe or verye thyng, in deede.

Reate, tis, n. g. a citee in Italie.

Reátus, us, m. g. a faute or offence, the estate of a person arreygned.

Rebellátio, ônis, f. g. a rebellyng.

Rebellâtor, ôris, m. g. he that rebelleth, a rebell.

Rebellatrix, the feminine.

Rebello, aui, are, to rebell. also to ware sore as agayne, as woundes and diseases after they be once cured.

Rebéllio, ônis, fœ. g. and Rebellium, lij, n. g. a rebellion.

Rebellis, le, that rebelleth.

Rébito, aui, are, to retourne, to come agayne.

Atvnum hoc te quæso si huc rebitet Philocrate, vt eius mihi facias conueniendi copiã, but one thynge I praie the, if he returne from Philocrates, synde the meanes that I maie speake with hym.

Reboo, aui, are, to lowe agayne, to lowe or bellowe agayne.

Recalcitro, aui, are, to stryke with the heele, to kycke.

Recal-

Recalco, aui, are, to treade downe vnder the foote.

Recaleo, récales, lui, calére, to be hotte.

Recalesco, scere, to ware warme agayne.

Recalfácio, cálfacis, fêci, facere, to make warme agayne.

Recaluaster, tri, m. g. he that is balde before.

Recalueo, uere, to be balde agayne.

Recaluus, a, um, idem quod recaluaster.

Recandens, entis, om. g. shynyng verye whyte.

Recandeo, candui, êre, to be whyte.

Recandesco, scere, to ware very whyte.

Recano, cinui, cánere, to synge agayne.

Recantâtus, a, um, songe agayne, also put away with charmyng.

Recanto, aui, are, to charme awaye, to charme out a thyng, which was brought in by inchaũtment, as the witches (called wyse women) are wont to doe.

Recapitulátio, ônis, f. g. a summe or briefe rehersyng of thynges in chapiters.

Recédo, cessi, ere, to departe or goe awaie, to goe backe, to retyre, to recoyle, to goe from. Also to retourne, to goe agayne. Sometyme to be diminished, to be farre of.

Recedere a conditione, a persona, a statu, is to chaunge or aulter the condicion, person or state.

Quamq̃ ad nomen durus iam effecit vetustas, a peregrino enim recessit, although auncientnesse maketh that name now somewat harde and straunge to bee vsed, for it is altered from the olde signification.

Recedere ab armis, to reste from warre, to leaue of warre.

A causa alicuius paululũ recedere, to shrinke awaie, to giue backe.

Recedere ab vsitata consuetudine, to aulter from the accustomed facion.

Recedere ab oculis, to die.

Recedere a vita, idem.

Recedere ab officio, not to doe his dutie, not to doe that reason and honestee woulde.

Postq̃ recessit vita patrio corpore, after that your father was dead.

Recedere a sententijs alicuius, id est, illas taxare.

Romam recessit, he returned or went againe to Rome.

Recede de medio, get thy way hence.

Recessit venter, his bealy was aswaged, or wared lesse.

Fragmentum a fragmento recedit, one piece goeth from an other.

Etiam quæ procul recessere, euen those thinges whiche are farre of.

A vitio recedere, to eschewe or auoyde vice.

Recello, lui, cellere, to pluche backe or withdrawe.

Recens, entis, om. ge. newe, late, soone after, fresshe.

Recenti pede recurrere, to ren eftesones after that he hath rested hym, to make a fresh course.

Postq̃ thermopotasti guttur, recipere, & recenti pede recenti, after that thou hast warmed thy throte with good drynke, take thy herte to the and make a freshe course.

Recens & lassus, contrary.

Equi recentes, fresshe and lusty horses that are not weryd.

Pullus a partu recens, a colte lately foled.

Quum è prouincia recens esset, whan that he was lately retourned out of the prouince.

Qui recens ab illorum ætate fuit, whiche was shortely after theyr tyme.

Exemplum recens, a late example.

Homines recentes, id est, nuper nati.

Literæ recentissimæ, letters verye lately written.

Re recenti, whan the matter was freshe and lately doen.

Recens maritus, a man lately maried, a bryde growme.

Recens nouus, all freshe and newe.

Recentes Roma venerunt, they came late from Rome.

Recens, aduerbium, newely, freshely, of late.

Recenseo, sui, sêre, to numbre or tell, to reken, to coumpte, sometyme to shewe.

Recensio, sui, sire, vsed of olde writers for Recenseo.

Recensitus, a, um, tolde or reckened.

Recensus, a, um, reckened, noumbred.

Recensus, us, m. g. and Recensio, onis, a tale or reckenyng.

Recenter, newely, freshly, lately.

Recento, aui, are, to renewe.

Recentor, aris, ari, to be renewed.

Receptáculum, li, n. g. the place, which receiueth thynges. also a place of sureter or comforte, a place of refuge.

Receptio, ônis, f. g. a retourne backe, drawyng or bringyng againe, a receiuyng or takynge in.

Quid tibi huc receptio ad te est meum virum? why drawest thou my housbande eftesoones backe vnto thy house, why doest thou receyue myne housebande hyther into thyne house?

Receptitius, a, um, that whiche is reserued from other to ones owne vse and commoditee.

Receptitius seruus, a seruaunt that one kepeth for his owne vse, whan he departeth with other of his good.

Receptor, ôris, m. g. he that receiueth stolen goodes.

Receptrix, icis, the femynine.

Recepto, aui, are, to receiue often.

Receptum, i, n. g. a thynge that one hath taken vpon hym to doe.

Receptus, a, um, receyued or taken in, taken in custome or vse.

Recepti in ciuitatem, they whiche of straungers be made citezins.

Receptus, us, m. g. a place of sucrour, a retraite in battayle, a retiryng backe agayne.

Receptui canere, to blowe the retrayte, also it is a prouerbe, which signifieth to finish or ende the contention, to retyre backe agayne.

Recessim, an aduerbe, whiche signifieth goynge backe, with retiryng, with geuyng backe.

Recessus, us, m. g. goyng awaie or backe, retyryng, the secreatest or inmoste place or corner of any place or thynge.

Accessus & recessus lunæ, contrarie, the approcheing and departyng of the moone from vs.

Recessus in oculo, the hole or holowneſſe of the eye.

Recidipnum, or rather Rechedipnum, a garment vſed in olde tyme to ſuppe in.

Recidiuus, a, um, ekteſoones reſtored. ſometyme ekteſoones decaied or fallen.

Recido, recidi, ere, to fall ekteſoones, or to fall backewarde.

Recident in te hæ contumeliæ, theſe rebukes ſhall lyght on the.

Recidit ad paucos, it is come to a fewe perſõs, or it is come to the vſe of fewe men, or fewe men doe practiſe it.

Recidit in caſſum, it is come to nothynge.

Ne ſineret eo recidere, that he woulde not ſuffre it to come to that poynte.

Quorſum recidat reſponſum tuum, non magnopere laboro, I paſſe not greatly what ye anſwere, or it is all one to me whether ye anſwere yea or noe.

Ad luctum reciderunt ex lætitia, they be fallen out of gladneſſe into ſorowe and mournynge.

Ad nihilum recidere, to come to nothynge.

Recido, di, dere, to cut agayne, to cut behynde.

Recinctus, a, um, vngirde, lewſe, vnbuckeled, or vnlaced.

Veſtes indutæ recinctæ, hauyng hir clothes all lewſe about hir and vnlaced

Recingo, cinxi, gere, to vngyrde.

Recinian, they that dyd weare clokes called Recinia.

Recinium, ii, n. g. a ſquare garmente, whiche they that dyd weare them dyd caſt the one parte thereof ouer theyr ſhoulders at theyr backes, lyke frenche clokes.

Recino, cinui, ere, to ſynge agayne, to ſowne agayne

Recinus, i, m. g. idem quod Recinium.

Recipie, Cato vſeth for Recipiam.

Recipio, recipis, cepi, ere, to receyue or take, to admitte, to allowe, to calle agayne, to bryng to ſauegarde, to ſaue and deliuer out of daunger, to vndertake, to take vpon one, to promyſe. Alſo to reſerue to hym ſelfe, or to excepte a thynge in geuynge or bargaynyng, to reſerue to a mans owne vſe.

Recipere ſe, to retourne or come agayne.

Percunctatum ibo ad portum quoad recipiat ſe frater, I wyll goe and tarie at the hauen, vntyll my brother come agayne.

Recipere ſe ad cœnam, to come to ſupper.

Hic homo ad cœnam recipit ſe ad me, this man wyll come to me to ſupper.

Ignorantiam alicuius recipere, to admitte ones ignoraunce for an excuſe.

Recipere aliquem domũ ad ſe hoſpitio, to take one home and lodge hym in his houſe.

Recipe te ad me, come hither to me.

Recipere ſe ex opere, to retourne from his buſineſſe.

Recipere ſe domum, to retourne home.

Recipere in aures, to heare.

Non ædipol iſtæc tua dicta nunc in aures recipio, in good ſoothe, I doe not heare now what thou ſaieſt.

Recipere ſe in portum, to arryue at any hauen.

Recipere ſe in principem, to take on him agayne lyke a prince.

Recipere anhelitum, to fetche breathe or wynde.

Priusq; recipias anhelitum vno verbo eloquere, vbi ego ſum, or euer thou fetcheſte breathe, tell me at a woorde in what caſe I ſtande.

Recipe animum, take breathe.

Recipere, to recouer.

Cum quidem me audiente Salinatori (qui amiſſo oppido fugerat in arcem) gloriantí atq; dicenti, Mea opera, Quinte Fabi, Tarentum recepiſti. Certe inquit, ridens. Nam niſi tu amiſiſſes, ego nunq; recepiſſem, for in my hearyng to Salinator, whiche (the towne of Tarentum beynge loſt) fled into the caſtell, ſaying vnto hym: Thou haſt recouered Tarentum Quintus Fabius by my meanes. That is true (ſaied he) laughynge: for yf thou haddeſte not loſte it, I hadde not recouered it.

Pœnas ab aliquo recipere, to puniſſhe.

Ad frugem ſe recipere, to become thriftie and an honeſt man.

Ad ingenium ſuum ſe recipere, to retourne agayne to his olde maner of lyuynge.

Vt me recepi, as ſoone as I came to my ſelfe agayne.

Recipere ciuitate, to make one free of a citee.

Non recipit cunctationem hæc res, this matter can abyde no delaie.

Detrimentum recipere, to haue loſſe or damage.

Incrementum recipere, to encreaſe, to growe.

Recipere aliquem, to receiue one as a friende, into a citee, or into his houſe.

Recipere aliquem tecto, to geue one lodgeyng in his houſe.

Recipere aliquem menſa, to geue one meate and dryncke at his table.

Neminem dorſo aut in ſedem recepit equus, the horſe woulde not ſuffre any other to come on his backe, to leape into the ſaddle, or to ryde hym.

Recipere ciuitatem in fidem, to receiue a citee into his protection or tuicion.

Recl-

Recipere animos aut animam à pauore, To come to hym selfe agayne after a great feare.

Recipere se ad aliquem fuga, to flee to one for succour.

Se ad diem recipere, To come agayne at the date appoynted.

Recipi in cibum, to be taken and vsed for a meate, to be eaten commonly.

Recipi in tutum, to bee rescued and deliuered out of daunger.

Medio ex hoste recipi, to bee rescued and deliuered from the myddes of his enemies.

Quod semel recepisti, that I had once taken vpon me.

Ad me, or in me recipio, I vndertake it.

Receptum officium perfoluere, To doo the good turne or benefite that he had promysed or vndertaken.

Vt mihi coram recepisti, as you promysed in my presence, or whan I was with you.

In deditionem recipere, to take to mercie.

Nomen absentis recipere, to admitte the accusation of a person that is absente.

Onus aliquod recipere, to take a charge vpon hym.

Si recipieres te correcturum, if you wold promyse that you wouldo correcte it.

Austeritatem annis recipere, by longe continuaunce to waxe eger.

Seruum recipere, to keepe and reserue a seruaunte to ones owne vse.

Vsus recepit, vse hath approued and alowed it.

Reciprocátio, ônis, f. g. a goyng backe or retournyng to the place that he came fro.

Reciproco, aui, are, to turne backe, to repete, to goe backe, to returne or haue recourse thither from whence it came.

Reciprocornes, was taken of Laberius for rammes, for the tournynge backewarde, and eftesoones forwarde of the hornes.

Spiritus reciprocatur, quum rursum absorbetur.

Reciprocus, a, um, that whiche is repeted or eftesoones rehersed, that hath recourse or respecte thyther from whens it came.

Amnis reciprocus, a riuer that ebbeth and floweth.

Recisamentum, i, n. gen. a litell pice or gobbet cutte of from any thyng.

Recisio, ônis, f. g. a cuttyng of.

Recisus, a, um, newe cut, sometyme hylled.

Recitátio, ônis, f. gen. a recitynge alowde, readynge that other male heare.

Recitátor, ôris, m. g. he that reciteth or readeth a thynge.

Recito, aui, are, to reade alowd that other male heare & vnderstande, to recite or tell eftesoones, to recite by herte, to say without booke.

Recitare ex codice, to recite or reade a thynge on the booke.

Reclamátio, ônis, fœ. g. a cayne saing, a reclaimynge, a cryng contrary or agaynst.

Reclimito, aui, are, to repugne, to trie or bee agaynst often.

Reclámo, aui, are, to denie with a lowde voyce or crie, to cayne saie, to repugne.

Reclamo tibi pro reo, I saie agaynst the in those thinges that thou hast pronounced against the person arained.

Reclino, aui, are, to bende or incline to a thyng, to leane downe agaynst a thyng.

Recliuia, & Recliuium, is whan the thynne of the fynger is lewse from the naple.

Recliuis, ue, somewhat bendyng vpwarde.

Recludo, si, ere, to open.

Infernas reserat sedes, & regna recludat pallida, vndoe he the lockes of Infernall places, and leat hym sette wyde open the pale regions of death.

Reclúsus, a, um, opened. Iustinus putteth Reclusus, for Clausus shutte.

Recocta, secounde or courle cheese.

Recoctus, a, um, sodde agame. also well refyned.

Recógito, aui, are, to remembre, to thynke or consider in a mans mynde ernestly, or oftentymes.

Recognitio, ônis, f. g. a knowlagenge, a consydering, a tallyng to remembraunce.

Recognosco, nóui, scere, to recognise, to consyder, to recompte, to call to remembraunce, to know perfectly, to ouerlooke, to ouersee a thing to correct it, or to see in what case it is. also to reckon, to numbre, to remembre.

Quum te penitus recognoui, timere desino, whan I dooe once consyder in my mynde ernestly, or cal to my remembraunce what a manne are, I feare no more.

Decretum recognoscere, to ouersee a decree or ordinaunce, to the entent to amende it.

Supellectilem Dary & omnem pecuniam recognouit, he dyd ouersee and take a viewe of all thynge Darius goodes and treasure.

Recognoscere turmas equitum, to muster the horsemen, to se what numbre they be.

Recolligo, legi, ere, to assemble togeather. Also to reconcile, to appease, to renewe, to get vp again, to gather agayne.

Quod scribis etiam si cuius animus esset in te offensior, à me recolligi oportere, where thou writest, & more ouer if any man were displeased with the, he shuld be reconciled by my meanes.

Recolligere sensus, to gather his wittes home agayne.

Recolligere vires, to get vppe his strengthe agayne.

Recolligere se à longa valetudine, to recouer or get vp agayne after longe sickenesse.

Récolo, lui, ere, to tyll or dresse agayne, to refreshe or renewe the memorie of a thing, to meditate or cast in ones mynde, to repute, to repete, to call to remembraunce.

Aulum de⁹ recoluit, id eſt, reſtituit, renouauit.
Artes inter ſe recolere, id eſt, exercere.
Ingenia noſtra, nunc hac cogitatione, nunc illa recolunt⁹, our wyttes be refreſhed or renewed, now with one cogitacion, nowe with an other.
Intermiſſa recolere, To renewe thynges that haue been omytted or leat paſſe for a tyme.
Recommuniſcor, ſceris, recommíniſci, to remẽbre or call to remembraunce.
Recompôno, ſui, ere, to compoſe or ſette toges ther agayne.
Recompoſitus, a, um, compoſed or ſet together agayne.
Reconſiliátio, ônis, ſ. g. a reconcilynge, a peace makyng, a tone makyng.
Reconciliator, ôris, m. ge. a peace maker, a loue daie maker, a reconcilar.
Reconciliátus, a, um, reconciled.
Reconcilio, aui, are, to reconcile, to reſtoze vnto fauour, to make at one.
Reconciliare in libertatem, to ſet at lyberte.
Alienare & Reconciliare, contrarie.
Exiſtimationem recõciliare, to recouer or get again the good eſtimacion that men haue of vs.
Animos populi ſibi reconciliare, to wyn the hertes of the common people, to gette the ſelfes in fauour with the common people.
Reconciliare filium domum, to get ones ſon to come home agayne.
Reconcinno, aui, are, to newe make, to make mete again, properly a garment.
Recónditus, a, um, hydde, laied vp, ſecretely kepte, harde to be knowen.
Recondo, cóndidi, ere, to hyde, to laie vp.
Recondere gladium in vaginam, to put vp the ſwoorde agayne into the ſcaberde.
In aliquem locum ſe recondere, to hyde hym ſelfe in a place.
Reconduco, duxi, ere, to hyre agayne.
Reconflor, aris, ari, to be blowen vp agayne.
Recordátio, ônis, ſ. g. remembraunce.
Recordor, aris, ari, to remembre.
Recordor huius rei, & hanc rem, I remembre this thyng.
Recórrigo, rexi, igere, to amende agayne.
Récoquo, coxi, coquere, to boyle or ſethe eftes ſoones, to amende with ſtudie.
Recráſtino, aui, are, to delaie from daie to daie.
☞ Nil recraſtines, delay not thy matters, but ſpede the while the tyme ſerueth. whē the ſunne ſhyneth make hay.
Recreatio, ônis, a recreacion, a reſtoryng.
Récreo, aui, are, to recreate, to refreſche, to reſtore, to renewe to his olde ſtrength & nature.
Qui é morbo graui recreati ſunt, which were reſtored to theyr ſtrength agayne, after a greeuous ſyckenes.
Ex magno timore ſe recreare, to come to him ſelfe agayne after a great feare.

Recrementum, ti, neu. gene. that that groweth ſuperfluouſely on any thing, or that is cut of or pared awaie.
Récrepo, crépui, áre, to tyngle or ſowne agayn.
Recreſco, ſcere, to growe agayne.
Recrudeſco, ſcere, to waxe newe or freſhe, to waxe ſore agayne.
Recrudeſcit ſeditio, the ſedicion begynneth a freſhe agayne.
Recruduit pugna, the battaile began to be fierce or eyger agayne.
Recta, a ſupper where they ſate all in a rowe.
Rectángulus, li, m. ge. is where lines be ſo ioyned, that no parte is lõger or ſhorter ths other.
Rectè, an aduerbe ſignifiyng ſtreyght.
Cur non rectà inuorsas? why wentеſt thou not ſtreyght, or the ſtreyght waie in?
Rectè, well enoughe, well, rightfully, yea of good eyght, with good reaſon.
Quid tu igitur lachrymas? aut quid es tam triſtis? P. Rectè mater. S. Quid fuit tumulti? than wherfore dooſt thou mourne? Or why art thou ſo heauie? M. it is well enough mother. S. what was all this noyſe.
Rectè dicis, thou ſaieſt truely.
Rectè eſt, it is enough, or I haue enoughe.
Rectè parere, To bryngе foorth a childe of a right ſhape.
Tum quod dem ei rectè eſt, id eſt, ſatis, I haue alſo enoughe to geue hym.
Rectè facere alicui, to doe good to a man.
Rectè ferre, to take patiently.
Si ſapis, néqꝫ prætereà quas ipſe amor moleſtias habet, addas: & illas quas habet, rectè feras, if thou bee wyſe, adde no more griefe or trouble, than loue bryngeth with it ſelfe: and ſuche as it bryngeth ſuffer patiently.
Rectè, ſignifieth ſometyme nothyng, as Dorante ſaieth.
Rogo nunquid velit, rectè inquit, Abeo, I aſked whether he wolde any thing, or cõmande me any ſeruice, nothyng, ſaied he, than went I my waie. It ſignifieth alſo, yea ſtreyghte waie. S. Tu rus hinc abis? D. rectè, goeſt thou nowe into the countrey? D. yea ſtreyghte waie.
Rectè valet, he or ſhe is in good helth.
Rectè facitis, it is well doone of you, I thanke you.
Rectè, for In tuto, as,
Quibus rectè dem literas, to whom I maye geue letters ſafely, or without daunger.
Rectè admones, you put me well in mynde of it, your aduiſe is good.
Qui minus ego iſtic rectè eſſe poſſem? why maie not I be there without blame?
Apud matrem rectè eſt, all is well at my mos thers.
Rectè meminiſti, well remembred of you.
Non rectè dicere alicui, for Male.
Rectè olere, to ſmell well, to haue a good ſauoure,

Rectè

Recte oneratus, well laded.
Licebit rectius cornare, you may ſuppe better.
Rectio, ônis, ſ. g. a gouernyng.
Rector, ôris, m. g. a ruler, a gouernour.
Rectrix, tricis, the femmine.
Rectus, a, um, ſtreight, whiche is not croked, vpright, iuſte, ryght.
Rectum inteſtinum, the gut, from whence the odure paſſeth.
Recta coma, ſtreight heare.
Conſcientia recta, an vpright conſcience.
Recta tunica, a garment ſo made that it wyll ſtande ſtiffe vpryght.
Vt recta via rem narret ordine, that he wolde ſhewe the mattier plainely, as it was dooen, without diſſimulation.
Rectum, ti, n. g. ryght, ſtreightneſſe, honeſtee.
Curuo dignoſcere rectum, to know vertue from vice.
Iter non agit in rectum, he goeth not ſtreight foorthe.
Recúbitus, us, m. g. a lyng at reſte, a ſittyng at the table.
Récubo, bui, bare, to lie at reſt.
Recûdo, cudi, dere, to newe hammer or newe woorke, as it were on an anuelde: alſo it is taken for to make newe, or newe prynte.
Récula, læ, ſ. g. a litteli thynge, a ſmall mattier.
Recumbo, bui, bere, to ſit at a table, or at meles: ſometyme to leane on one, to leane as one leaneth on his elbowe.
Recumbebat mecũ vir egregius Fidius Rufinus, ſuper eum municeps ipſius, there ſate with me that woorſhipfull man Fidius Rufinus, and aboue hym his neighbour.
Recuperátio, ônis, ſ. g. was of olde writers ſaied, where there was a lawe made betwene the people of Rome and other nations and cities, wherin they accorded, that priuate thynges taken, ſhulde be redelyuered: whiche is nowe vſed in our leagues & entercourſe with ſtrãge countreies and princes, a recouerynge agayne of a thyng.
Recuperátor, ôris, m. g. a iudge aſſigned, or a commiſſioner for a priuate mattier.
Recuperatórius, a, um, belonging to the recouerynge of a mans goodes, or to the iudges called Recuperatores.
Recúpero, aui, are, to recouer, to get agayne.
Si interruptum ſomnum recuperare non poſſet, if he coulde not fall on ſleape againe whan he was once awaked.
Recupio, récupis, cupiui, cupere, to deſyre muche, to couet erneſtly.
Quin ita faciam, vt recupias facere ſumptum, & ſi ego vetem, and yet wyll I ſo handle it, that thou ſhalt muche deſyre to ſpede, although I woulde forbyd the.
Recûro, âui, are, to doe a thynge diligently, to take good heede of a thynge.
Recúrro, curri, rere, to renne agayne, to goe or come agayne quickely.
Ad initia recurrere luna dicitur, quando renouatur.
Recurſo, aui, are, to renne often backe or againe, to haue often recourſe to a thynge.
Recurſus, us, maſcu. gene. a rennynge backe, a recourſe.
Recuruâtus, a, um, made crooked, or made to bende backewarde.
Recurue, an aduerbe, ſignifiynge downewarde, bowed backewarde, crookedly.
Recuruitas, âtis, ſ. g. a bowynge backe.
Recúruo, aui, are, to bowe backe.
Recúruus, a, um, bowed backe or crooked.
Recuſabile, that whiche is worthy to be refuſed.
Recuſátio, ônis, ſ. g. a refuſall. Alſo defence, or excuſyng.
Recuſátor, óris, m. g. a refuſer.
Recuſo, aui, are, to refuſe. Alſo to defende, to reiecte a iudge, to repell an accuſation, to denie, to ſaie nate.
Non recuſo, quin. &c. I denie not, or I ſaie not nay, or I ſay not the contrary, but that &c.
Recuſſus, us, m. g. a ſtrykyng backe or againe.
Recuſſus, a, um, ſtriken or ſhaken agayne.
Recútitus, a, um, that is circumciſed. Alſo cut ſhorte ſometyme eruiterate.
Redabſoluo, ui, uere, to diſcharge or diſpatche.
Sequere hac, te redabſoluam, qua aduenisti gratia, folowe me thither, I wyll diſpatche the matter, for the whiche thou camſt hither.
Redactus, a, um, brought.
In id redactus ſum loci, I am in that caſe.
Redámbulo, aui, are, to returne or walke backe agayne.
Cura quam optime potes. Er. Bene ambula, & redambula, doe the beſt that thou canſt. Er. hence and come agayne quickely, or god ſende the well to goe and come, or god bee with the, and ſende the well agayne.
Rédamo, aui, are, to loue mutually, to loue one that loueth hym.
Redándruo, aui, are, to retourne. Alſo whan the chiefe prelate or biſhoppe made certayne geſtures in their ſolemne daunſinges, and the other company made the ſame againe, was called Redandruare.
Redardeſco, ſcere, to burne againe.
Redárguo, gui, guere, to reproue, to reprehende, to blame, to ſhewe by reaſon or argument, that it is not true that one hath ſaied.
Redáuſpico, aui, are, and Redauſpicor, aris, ari, to beginne agayne.
Redditio, ônis, ſ. g. a rendryng or geuyng agayne.
Rédditus, a, um, reſtored, yelded, deliuered.
Reddo, didi, dere, to rendre or yelde, to deliuer, to reſtore, to geue, to make, to recken, to reherſe, to reſemble.
Reddere certiorem, to aſſertaine, to certify, to geue knowlage.

Reddere rationem, to make accompte or reches nynge.
Flores reddit arbor, the tree bloſſometh.
Ego te commotum reddam, I wyll vexe euery vepne in thy herte.
Reddere, to put in other. Tempeſtas venit, confringit regulas imbricesque, ibi dominus indiligens reddere alias ne vult, the tempeſt came and brake the tyles, and the eaues, where as the negligent owner wolde not put in other in theyr places.
Reddere dictum ac factum. Videre egiſſe iam neſcio quid cum ſene. S. De illo quod dudum? dictum ac factum reddidi, it ſeemeth thou haſte dooen late I wotte not what with the olde man. M. Meanest thou that, we ſpake of of late or the other daie? thou hadſt not ſo ſoone ſpoken, but it was dooen, or I haue diſpatched it with a woorde, or in the tournynge of an hande: I dyd no rather moue the mattier, or ſpeake of it, but it was dwen by and by: or after Eraſmus, I haue doen as muche as is poſſible, or as maie bee dooen in the mattier.
Reddidi impetratum, I brought it to paſſe, I obteyned it for hym.
Reddere operam, to requite a good tourne or an yll, to doe as muche for one agayne.
Reddere aliquem, to reſemble or be lyke to one.
Tu me reddidiſti probum virum, thou haſt made me an honeſt man.
Redde quæ reſtant, id eſt refer, recenſe.
Redde, for Renouere, to parbrake vp agayne.
Quæ ſuis locis reddam, whiche I wyll recite or reherſe in their places.
Clodius omnes Catilinas reddidit, id eſt, æquauit, repræſentauit.
Anhelitum reddere, to breathe out.
Animam reddere, idem. alſo to die.
Reddidiſti animum, thou haſt reuiued my ſpirites.
Reddere beneficium, to requite a good tourne or benefite.
Vini colorem reddit, it maketh a wyne colour, it reſembleth the colour of wyne.
Reddere colori, to make a thynge to come to his colour agayne.
Clamorem reddere, to crie.
Conciliatum reddere animum alicuius, to appeaſe or qualifie ones mynde.
Se ipſe conuiuio reddidit, he came agayne to the table.
Crepitum reddere, to breake wynde downeswarde.
Excrementa reddere, to auoide excrementes of nature.
Effigiem virtutis alicuius reddere, to reſemble ones vertue.
Depoſitum reddere, to deliuer that was lefte with vs to keepe.
Ferro reddere vitam, to be ſlayne.
Vxorem grauidam reddere, to get his wyfe with chylde.
Humorem and vrinam reddere, to make water.
Imaginem reddere, to repreſent the image of a thynge, as a glaſſe or mirrour dooeth.
Ius vel iudicium reddere populo, to miniſtre iuſtice and lawe to the people.
Latine reddere, to tranſlate into latine.
Reddere aliquem nomine, to haue the ſame name that an other hath.
Odorem reddere, to ſauour.
Onera ciborum reddere, to auoyde ordure.
Opera reddetur tibi, I wyll doe as muche for the agayne.
Operas reddere, to woorke the full taſke.
Paria reddere in vtramque partem, to make equall.
Promiſſa reddere, to doe that he promiſed.
Sententiæ ſuæ rationem reddidit, he ſhewed a cauſe or reaſon whye he was of that opinion.
Reſponſum reddere, to geue an aunſwere.
Sanguinem reddere, to voyde bloudde.
Sonum reddere, to make a ſowne or noyſe.
Spiritum reddere alicui, to put hym ſelfe in daūger, or to bee ſlayne or kylde for his ſake that ones ſaued his lyfe.
Tranſactum reddere, to diſpatche.
Reddere verbum pro verbo, to tranſlate woorde for woorde.
Piperis ſaporem reddit, it ſmacketh or taſteth lyke pepper.
Vitam reddere pro republica, to die for the ſafegarde of the countrey.
Reddere humanas voces, to ſpeake lyke a man.
Vicem reddam ſi reposces, I wyll do as much for the agayne if thou require me.
Vicē luniæ reddens, beyng or ſeruyng in ſtede of the moone.
Sine ſcripto reddere, to recite a thynge that he hath diuiſed by herte, and neuer wrote it.
Impendium reddet vsq; ad aſſem, he ſhall pay euery farthynge of his coſtes agayne.
Omnibus militibus nomina reddidit, he called all his ſouldiours by theyr names.
Vota reddere, to accompliſſhe theyr vowes.
Reddit ager, whan it yeldeth or bryngeth forth fruite.
Redditur quis cupientibus, as a ſeruaunt to his maiſter.
Reſtituitur cupiens, as a citezen to his countrey.
Et redditur & reſtituitur cupiēs cupientibus, as a father to his ſoonne.

Redemptio, ōnis, f. g. redemption, byyng, purchaſſyng, raunſompnge, takynge of a thynge in great, ſeruyng
Redemptio iudicij, the corruptyng of a iudgement with money.

Redēmptito, ąui, āre, to redeeme, bie agayne, or raunſome often.

Redempto, aui, are, to redeeme.

Redemptor, tôris, m. g. a redemer, a woꝛkeman, whiche taketh any woꝛke in great. Some-tyme it signifieth hym, whiche taketh rentes to ferme, a fermer, he that hireth a thynge.

Redemptores, they that hyre lande, oꝛ take ap-pyng in great oꝛ taske.

Redemptor pontis, he that hyreth the custome oꝛ toll taken at a bꝛidge.

Redemptor syluæ, a keeper of a wood oꝛ foꝛest, oꝛ he that hath hyred a wood, and setteth men to keepe it.

Redemptûra, æ, f. g. a hyꝛyng oꝛ fermyng of a thyng, the takyng of a lease.

Redemptus, a, um, redeemed, bought agayne, ransomed.

Redeo, dîui, dîi, dire, to retourne. Also foꝛ pro-uenire, to come oꝛ growe of a thynge.

Redeo rursum, I come backe agayne.

(Vt ad me redeam) that I maye come to my purpose agayne.

Redire pedibus, to retourne agayne on foote.

Sed illuc redi, quo cepisti, but come to the mat-tier agayne, where thou beganst, oꝛ turne to thy fyrst purpose agayne.

Redit ad te hæreditass, the heretage is fallen to the.

Redeo in memoriam mortuorum, I remem-bꝛe theym that be dead.

Redite in memoriam iudices, call to youꝛ re-membꝛaunce.

Vt in patrios redirent mores, that they wolde retourne againe to the facion and behauiour of theiꝛ foꝛefathers.

Nihil ad me redit ex his, no pꝛofite cometh to me by these thynges.

Menti singula redeunt, I remembꝛe euery thynge.

Ad ineptias redis, thou beginst to speake of tryfelyng and foolyssche tapynges agayne.

Adeo res redit, the mattier is come to that poynete.

Ad se, & ad mores suos redire, to come to his olde nature and facion agayne.

Redit ad te summa imperij, the soueraintee oꝛ imperiall auctoꝛitee is come oꝛ fallen to you.

Vt ad suum vestitum senatores redirent, that the senatoꝛs shoulde leaue of theiꝛ mournyng appaꝛayle, and vse theiꝛ accustomed raiment.

Vt alicubi cum decimo, alicui cum quintode-cimo redeat, id est, proueniat.

Redis ad ingenium, thou doest after thyne olde facion, oꝛ as thou aꝛt wonte to doe.

Sed paululum fine ad me vt redeam, but leat me take bꝛeathe a litteil, oꝛ suffꝛe me to come to my selfe agayne, oꝛ to gather my wittes to me agayne.

Tandem reprime iracundiam, atq; ad te redi, nowe leaue thy fume, and remembꝛe thy selfe.

Vt ad pauca redeam ac mittam illius ineptias, that I maie be shoꝛte, and passe ouer his folie.

Redi ad rem, goe to the purpose, oꝛ to the mat-tier.

Opera tua ad restim mihi quidem res rediit, by thy meanes I am bꝛought to the poinct to hange my selfe, oꝛ by thy meanes I am lyke to be hanged, oꝛ to be vtteꝛly vndoen.

Nam si illi pergam suppeditare sumptibus Menedême, mihi illæc vere ad rastros res re-dit, surely yf I should maintayne his expenses Menedemus, it wolde bꝛinge me to take coyne oꝛ grasse foꝛ my lyuynge: oꝛ it would surely bꝛinge me to the rake and spade: oꝛ as we saie, to digge and delue foꝛ my lyuinge: that is, it woulde vndooe me, and make me a veraie beg-gaꝛ in deede.

Redit res in eum locum, the thynge is come so to passe, the mattier is nowe come to that poincte.

In eum iam res reiit locum, vt sit necesse, the mattier is come so to passe, that there is no re-medy.

Redit mihi animus, my courage is come vnto me againe.

Redit animo, it cometh to my mynde.

Redire in concordiam, to be agreed.

Redire in gratiam, idem. also to be ecteesones in fauour.

Rediculi, a temple at Rome, without the gate called Capena, where Annibali beynge aferde retyred backe.

Redhibeo, rédhibes, hibui, bêre, to cause the sel-laꝛ to haue againe that, whiche he solde, to geue againe.

Redhibitio, ônis, f. g. restitution, deliuerynge oꝛ a thyng againe.

Redhibitôrius, a, um, an adiectiue.

Redhibitoria actio, an action sued againste one, that hath solde some thing that is naught, to cause hym to take it agayne, and to rendꝛe the money that was paied.

Redhibitum, restoꝛed.

Rédigo, dêgi, digere, to bꝛinge by foꝛce oꝛ cons-tynge. sometyme to restoꝛe. also to gather oꝛ heape together.

Redigere in ordinem, to compell men to liue accoꝛdynge to theiꝛ estate oꝛ pꝛofession.

Rem ex difficillima facilem redigere, id est, facilem reddere.

Bona vendit, pecuniam redigit, he selleth the goodes, and gathereth together the money.

Quæstum illum totum ad se redegit, he got to-gether all that gayne oꝛ lucre to his owne vse.

Eo redigis me, thou bꝛingest me in that case.

In ærarium redigere, to tourne into money, and bꝛyng it into the common tresoury.

Penes aliquem copiam frumenti redigere, to gather oꝛ heape together. &c.

Quo redactus sum, to what state I am bꝛought.

In deditionem huius imperij redegerunt, thei constreigned them to yelde, and to become sub-iects tette to this empire of Rome.

Ego redigam vos in gratiam, I wyll bryngе you in fauour agayne, I wyll sette you at one, I wyll make you agreed.
In memoriam redigere, to cause to remembre.
Ad id te redigam miserianum, I wyll bryng the to suche wretchednesse and miserie.
Sum redactus ad hanc vsq; vnam tuniculam, I am brought to that case, that I haue no mo but this one poore cote.
In potestatem vel seruitũ redigere, to bringe in subiection or bondage.
In prouinciam redigere, to make it a prouince.
Republica in tranquillum redacta, the cõmon weale beyng brought to a quietnesse.
Capuam rediguntur, they were led or brought to Capua.
Hostes in castra redigunt, they droue their enemies backe to their Campe.
Redigi ad vltimam macriem, to become so leane as can be possible.
Redigere in peregrinitatem, to banisshe out of his countrey.

Redimiculum, li, n. g. the attyre, or ornamentes or apparayle of a womans head, as it were a veluet bonet, a frenche hood, or suche lyke.

Redimio, rédimis, miui, mire, to adourne, apparayle, or trimme, to crowne, to cõpas about,

Rédimo, démi, dimere, to redeme, to raunsome, to bie, to recouer, to recompence, to take in bargayne, to vndertake a thing a great, to hire.
Redimere, to take in charge.
Redimere sibi amicos, to purchase men to bee his friendes with money and gyftes.
Pacem redimere, to bye peace.
Redimas te captum quàm queas minimo, redeeme or raunsome thy selfe beinge taken prisoner, as good cheape as thou canst.
Vectigalia redimere, to take the reuenewes of the common weale to ferme.
Præteritum culpã redimere, to make amendes for the faute that is paste.
Redimere opus faciendum, to vndertake a woorke a great.

Redimitus, a, um, apparayled on the head, crowned, compassed about.

Redimitus, us, m. g. apparaylyng or trimminge of the head.

Redinunt, for Redeunt, they retourne or come agayne.

Redintiger, gra, grum, begunne a freshe, renewed.

Redintegrátio, ônis, f. g. a renewyng, a beginnyng afreshe.

Redintegro, áui, âre, to begynne eftesoones, to renewe or refreshe.
Bellum redintegrare, to renewe the warre agayne, to beginne the warre afreshe.
Memoriam redintegrare, to renewe the memorie of any thynge.
Redintegrato animo, with courage reuiued, with a freshe courage, takyng herte of grasse or courage afreshe.
Vires redintegrare, to refreshe and recreate him selfe, and gather his strength agayne.

Reditio, ônis, a returnyng againe.

Reditur, is returned.

Rédito, aui, are, to returne by and by.

Réditus, us, m. g. a returne, a comynge againe, also reuenewes or profite that cometh of a thyng.
Reditus in gratiã, a comyng in fauour againe.

Rediuia, or Reduuia, æ, f. g. when the skinne cometh from the nailes of the fingers. also an adders skinne.

Rediuiuus, a, um, that which returneth eftesoones to life: also that whiche of an olde thynge is made newe agayne, reuiued from death to lyfe.

Rediuius, uĩ, a worme called a tyke, which sucketh blouddе from man or beast.

Redoleo, rédoles, dolui, and dolcui, lere, to smell or sauour.
Antiquitatem redolet, that sauoureth of antiquitee.
Fœtorem rédolet, it hath a stinkinge sauour.
Vinum redolet, it sauoureth of wyne.

Redõnátio, ônis, f. g. a geuynge agayne of the thing that is taken.

Redono, aui, are, to geue againe.

Redórdior, iris, iri, to vndoe a thynge agayne and beginne it a freshe.

Redórmio, miui, mire, to slepe agayne.

Redormitio, ônis, f. g. a slepyng againe.

Redostio, stiui, stire, of olde writers was taken for to geue thanke. also to returne.

Redúco, duxi, dúcere, to bringe backe or plucke backe, to bringe backe agayne, to bringe sauffe. to pacifie or appease, to deliuer or set out of perill, to reconcile.
Meq; óppido in arcem reduco, and I conueigh my selfe quickely into the castell.
Numenq; reducant, let them appease the wrath or displeasure of god.
Reducere ad planum cicatrices, to make that woundes made not bee perceiued, or to make them without a scarre.
Lachrymæ confictæ dolis reducant animum ægrotum ad misericordiam, teares deceitfully feigned may bringe a loue sicke mynde agayne to pitie and compassion.
Ad colorem reducere, to bringe a thynge to the colour agayne.
In gratiam reducere, to reconcile.
Ad maciem reducere, to make leane.
In memoriam reducere, to remembre.
Passus reducere, to goe backe agayne.
Exules reducere, to bringe men from banishement.
Intermissum morem reducere, to renewe or bringe in againe a fashion that hath ben lefte of.

Reductio, ônis, f. g. a bringyng home againe.

Redu-

Reductor, ôris, m. g. he that bryngeth agayne.

Reductus, a, um, brought backe or fafe, brought agayne.

Reduícero, aui, are, to impoſtume or make an impoſtume in ſome part of the body, to waxe ſore agayne, to begynne afreſhe.

Reduncus, crooked backewarde, or contrarie wiſe.

Redundátio, ônis, fœm. g. to muche abundyng, ouerflowyng.

Redundatio ſtomachi, parbrakyng, when the ſtomake is ouerloded.

Redundántia, æ, f. g. ſuperfluitee.

Redundo, aui, are, to ouerflow, to reflowe or returne backe, to redounde, to be ſo full that it renneth ouer.

Damni periculum ad te non redundat, The daunger of this loſſe or damage ſhall not redounde to you.

Heſterna cœna redundantes, bepng ouercharged with the ſupar that they had eaten the daie before.

Vno digito redundare, to haue one finger to muche.

Redundat ad meum fructum hæc laus, this prayſe redoundeth to my profite.

Reduplico, aui, are, to double eftſoones.

Reduuia, idem quod rediuia.

Reduuia eſcarum, the leauinges of meate that ſticketh in ones teeth

Redux, réducis, om. ge. that is returned again ſafe from exile, danger or captiuitee.

Gratulari aliquem reducem, to reioyce and be gladde at ones comyng home agayne.

Refácio, féci, facere, idem quod Reficio.

Refello, felli, fellere, to proue falſe, to reprene of falſehood, to denie that whiche is obiected, to ſhew by reaſon and argument to be falſe that one ſaieth, to confute ones ſaiynges, or that is obiected.

Referio, réferis, rire, to ſtrike agayne.

Refercio, refersi, cire, to fill, to repleniſche.

Refercire hominum aures ſermonibus, To fill mens eares with babiyng and talkyng.

Refertus a, um, full, repleniſched.

Réfero, tuli, ferre, to bringe agayne, to beare backe agayne, to reſemble, to repoſe, to reherſe, to referre, to make relation, to reuoke, to tell, to adde to, to regeſtre or write in a boke, to aſcribe, to tourne, to renewe, to bring, to declare or expreſſe, to geue agayne or reſtore, to anſwere.

Referebam me, I returned.

Refero impenſum, I make accompte of that whiche is beſtowed.

Referre rationem, to yelde or make accompt.

Referre ad aliquem, to aſke one counſaile in any mattier.

Referre de re aliqua ad ſenatum, was when the Conſuls purpoſed a mattier in the Senate, deſyryng the Senatours to reaſon and conſulte thereof.

Referre gratiam in maius, to ſhewe one a greater pleaſure then he hath done for vs.

Eutyche hanc volo rem prius agi, quàm meum intro refero pedem, I will that this thyng Eutyche be done before I go in agayne.

Retulit ad me pedem, he came towarde me.

Referunt hæc ad rem, theſe thynges pertaine to the mattier.

Referre acceptum, to aſcribe, to impute.

Omnia quæ vidimus, ſi rectè ratiocinabimur, vni acceptà referremus Antonio, all that we ſee, if we reken wel, we maie iputt it onelp to Antoni.

Quod viuit, mihi acceptum refert, he confeſſeth to belong of me, that he nowe liueth: or he confeſſeth to ough his life to me.

Verum omnem tranquillitatem & quietem ſenectutis refert acceptam clementiæ tuæ, but all the tranquilitee and quieteneſſe of his age, he cõfeſſeth to procede or to haue receyued of your mercy and goodneſſe.

Referre gratiam, to requite, to doo one for an other.

Nunq̃ ego illi poſſum gratiam referre, vt meritus eſt de me, I can neuer requite hym, or do like pleaſure, as he hath deſerued of me.

Spero ego mihi quoq; tempus tale euenturum, vt tibi gratiam referam parem, I truſt the tyme ſhall once come, that I ſhall doe you as muche pleaſure, or requite your kyndneſſe.

Non enim ſperaſti mutuam tibi gratiam relaturum, vt viciſſim tuos compellarem, thou didſt not thinke, that I would in this wiſe haue requited the, in remembryng thyne auncеſtours, as thou haſt doone myne.

Referre in acceptum, to approue and allowe a thyng as good, and to be receyued.

Poſteaq̃ reus factus eſt, primo negabat opus in acceptum referri poſſe, after that he was accuſed, firſte he denied, that the worke myght be brought to a rekenyng, or approued or allowed as good.

Referre in melius, to turne it to a better vſe.

Referre mores, to expreſſe the conditions or maners of an other.

Referre oculos ad aliquem, to caſt the loke vpon one, to loke towarde one.

Referre par, to requite.

Ille quem beneficio adiungas, ex animo facit, ſtudet par referre, whom thou getteſt with benefite, he doeth all thynges with good herte, and ſtudieth to requite the.

Referre pedem vel gradum, to ſtepp backe, to retreate, to retire.

At illa retulit, quæſiuitq̃, quidnam mihi videretur, ſhe tolde me all, and aſked what I thought therin.

Retulit me ventus in Italiam, the wynde brought me backe agayne into Italie.

Ad ſe ipſum referre, to perpende and weigh the mattier, whether he wolde haue it ſo hym ſelfe if he were he were in like case.

Aliquem ore referre, to resemble or be like one in countinance or vilage.
Ad arbitrium alicuius referre, to put a thyng to ones iudgement.
Ad me refers, thou asketh my aduise or counsaile in the matter.
In codicem referre, to write or regestre in a boke.
Omnia ad conscientiam referre, to doe all thing accordyng to his conscience without vayne glorie.
Consuetudinem vel morem referre, to renewe or bryng vp a custome or maner agayne.
Cuius omnes curæ ad te referuntur, whiche is carefull for you onely, or whiche hath no care but onely for you.
Diem referre dicitur sol.
Ensem vaginæ retulit, he put vp his swoorde agayne.
Eodem referri, id est, reportari, to be caried agayne to the same place.
Mores patris referre, to be like his father in conditions, to resemble his fathers maners.
Numerum referre iussit, he bade hym numbre them.
In numerum referri, To be compted one of the numbre, to be rekened as one.
Referebam oculos ad terram, I looked downe towarde the ground.
Quibus opem referre posset, whiche he might ayde, helpe, or succour.
Referunt me pedes in Tusculanum, I go to my place at Tusculum.
Prunas referre ad aliquem, to geue one the chiefe prayse, to accompte hym the most excellent.
Quæstum maiorem referre, to bryng more profite or gayne.
Referre rationibus, and in rationes, To write that he hath receyued or laied out.
Referre in acta, to regestre.
Repulsam referre, to be put by in labourynge for an office.
Responsum referre, to make an answere, or to make relation, what answere one hath geuen.
Referes igitur ei plurimam salutem, you shall therfore salute hym agayne hertily in my name.
Referam me ad ordinem, I will returne to the order that I began with.
Referre se ad studia, to fall to his studies agayn.
Referre vicem, id est, rependere.
Victoriam referre, to atchieue victorie.
Referre omnia ad voluptatem, to reken the chiefe felicitee to be in voluptee or pleasure: to put all his felicitee in pleasure.
Ni argentum referas, id est, reddas.
Quid à nobis refertur? what do we answere.
In ordine referre versus, to recite and saie verses in order.
Ad vos nunc refero, quem sequar, I aske aduise of you nowe, whom ye wolde that I shulde folowe.
Referre ad vnum omnia, to put all in one mans nes handes.

Facta referre, quæ mandata sunt, To accomplisshe or doe that one was charged.
Fructum diligentiæ referre alicui, to recompence one for his diligence.
In commentarium referre, to regestre.
Referre in numerum deorum, to canonise.
In, or inter reos referre, to admitte an accusation that is brought agaynst one as laufull.
Refert, the impersonall, it is profitable or expedient, it is necessarie.
Cuius consilio magni referebat te interesse, at the whiche counsaile it had ben very necessarie, that ye shulde haue ben.
Parui retulit non suscepisse, it made littell matter that he toke it not.
Mea quid refert? what care I? what matter maketh that to me?
Mea nihil refert, I haue nought to doe with it.
Tua refert, it is for thy profite, it is expedient for the.
Quid refert me feciisse regibus, vt mihi obedirent, si me hodie hic vmbraticus deriserit? what auayleth it, that I haue made kynges to obey me, if now this idell knaue shall laugh me to scorne?
Neq; enim numero comprehendere refert, it is not necessarie to reherse them in numbre.
Nihil refert, it is all one, it maketh no matter.
Refectio, onis, a refreshyng, a recreatyng, a refection, a takyng of meate and dryncke.
Refector, oris, m. g. he that reneuth or maketh a thyng agayne.
Refectus, us, m. g. a refreshyng, a relation, a reuiuyng with meate and dryncke.
Refectus, a, um, restored, renewed, amended, made eftesoones, refreshed.
Referueo, ferbui, feruere, to be very hotte, to be scaldyng hotte. Sometyme to be wared colde agayne.
Referuesco, uescere, idem.
Refibulo, aui, are, to vnbuckle.
Reficio, feci, ficere, to recreate or restore, to amende, to make newe agayne, to renewe, to repaire, to refreshe, to delite.
Reficior, ceris, ci, to be restored, or recouered from sickenesse. also renewed or newmade.
Anteqũ tibi ex tuis possessionibus tantum reficiatur, before the reuenewes or profites of your possessions be so muche wonne to you.
Reficere tribunum, To make one tribune agayne the nexte tyme.
Reficiendi animi gratia, to recreate the mynd.
Quoad me refecerim, vntill I haue refreshed and strengthned my selfe agayne.
Reficere exercitum ex inopia, to refreshe and releue the armie with victailes, that hath sustayned scarsitee and hunger.
Reficere vires cibo, to strengthen hym selfe agayne with meate.
Refectus sum quum tua legerem, I was refreshed lished or delited, or my ſpirites were reuiued and quickened when I did rede your writinges or letters.

Refigo, fixi, figere, to faſte or ſet vp furely: ſometyme it ſignifieth the contrarie, to drawe out or pluche downe that whiche is faſtned.

Refigere tabulas & leges, to forbode or deſtroy lawes.

Acta Antonij reſcidiſtis, leges refixiſtis, ye haue cancelled the actes of Antonie, and forboone or diſſolued his lawes.

Fixit leges pretio atq; refixit, he ſtabliſhed lawes for money, and exteſoones diſſolued them.

Refingo, finxi, fingere, to diſgiſe, to reforge.

Reflagito, aui, are, to deſyre a thynge importunately againe.

Reflatus, us, m. g. a contrary wynde, a blowing contrarie.

Reflecto, flexi, flectere, to bowe backe, to turne backe or againe. alſo to call againe, to reuoke, or let or pluche one from doonge a thynge.

Quem neq; fides, neq; iuſiurandum, neq; illum miſericordia repreſsit, neq; reflexit, whō neither promiſe nor othe, nor yet pitie withdrewe or pulled backe.

Reflexus, a, um, bowed, or tourned backe.

Reflo, aui, are, to blowe againe or contrarie.

Refloreo, florui, rêre, to floriſſhe or ſpringe againe.

Refluo, xi, fluere, to flowe againe.

Refluus, a, um, that floweth backe againe.

Refluum mare, the ebbyng ſea.

Refluxus, us, m. g. the tyde when the water floweth

Refocillatio, onis, a comfortyng, a refreſhynge or recreation.

Refocillo, aui, are, to comforte, to refreſſhe, to recreate, to ſtrengthen and make luſty againe.

Refodio, réfodis, fodi, fodere, to digge out of the earthe.

Reformido, aui, are, to feare greatly.

Reformidatio, onis, great feare or dreade.

Reformo, aui, are, to reforme, to bringe to the olde ſtate againe, to renewe.

Reformare ad exemplum, to reforme or amende a thynge by an example or paterne.

Reformator oris, a reformer, he that bringeth to a newe or better faction.

Refoueo, réfoues, foui, fôtum, fouêre to nouriſſhe or comforte exteſoones, to reſtore or ſet in his firſt ſtate.

Refractariolus, a, um, ſomewhat froward or ſtubbourne.

Refractârius, a, um, obſtinate, in a wilfull opinion, ſtubbourne, froward.

Refractus, a, um, broken open.

Refræno, aui, are, to pull backe one from a purpoſe, to refrayne, to holde or pluche backe, as a man doeth a horſe with the bridle.

Refrænatio, ônis, a bridelynge, a refreinynge.

Refrænâtus, a, um, holden backe with the bridle, refreined.

Refrâgor, aris, ari, to reſiſte with woordes or clamour, to gaineſaie, to repugne, to bee againſt.

Is cui non refragetur ingenium, he whoſe nature or witte is not contrarie or againſt it.

Refrico, fricui, care, to rubbe harde, to rubbe againe, to renewe a ſore or greefe, whiche was out of remembrance.

Animum memoria refricare, to touche one to the herte with the remembrance of a thynge.

Refrigeratio, onis, f. g. a coolyng.

Refrigeratórius, a, um, that whiche cooleth, or maketh colde, that hath the ſtrengthe or nature to coole.

Refrigerâtus, a, um, cooled, alſo refreſſhed or comforted.

Refrigerator, ôris, m. g. he that cooleth.

Refrigeo, frixi, frigere, & Refrigeſco, ſcere, to ware colde, to cwle, to begynne to ceaſſe, to be leſſe vehement.

Refrixit, it is ceaſſed, or it is more colde.

Refrigero, aui, are, to coole, or make colde, to refreſſhe or recomforte.

Refrigerare teſtem, to aſtonie the witneſſe, and make hym that he can ſcante tell what to ſaie.

Refrigerato leuiſſimo hominum ſermone, when the vayne brutte, communication or talke of men beganne to ceaſſe.

Refrima, næ, f. g. a beane, whiche the olde Romaynes were wonte to bringe home out of the fielde, to doe ſacrifice for the good luche of their corne.

Refringo, frégi, fringere, to breake open.

Gloriam alicuius refringere, to diminiſſhe ones glorie and renowne.

Refuga, gæ, f. g. an vnrulie perſone, whiche will not be ordered or ſubiecte to any bodie.

Refúgio, refúgis, fúgi, fúgere, to flee or remoue awaie or backe. alſo to refuſe, to eſchewe, to auoide.

Refugiunt memoria noſtra iſta, theſe thinges ben out of our remembrance.

Refugere ab admonendo, to leaue counſaillyng of one.

Refugere à dicendo, to forbeare to ſpeake for diſpleaſure.

A conſuetudine refugere, to leaue ones companie, or to become ſtraunge, where one hath ben familiar.

Refugere inuidiam muneris, to refuſe a gifte becauſe of the enuie and diſpleaſure of men.

Iudicem refugere non deberet, he ſhoulde not refuſe the iudge.

Refúgium, gij, n. g. refuge, ſuccour, or a place where one maie be ſuccoured.

Refugus, a, um, that goeth awaie, or is laied aparte, that fleeth from daunger, that renneth awaie.

Refulgeo, fulſi, gêre, to ſhine bright.

Refun-

Refundo, fudi, fundere, to reſtoze that lacketh.
Quicquid deest it ex meo refundam, what ſo eſ uer doth lacke I will make it vp of myne owne. alſo to pate home agayne, oz to yelde.
Ad eratiõn tam accipere beneficium, quam refundere, that was not ſo muche to receiue a good turne, as to doo a good tourne. Alſo to caſt vp by vomite.
Quod heſterna crapula ingurgitauerat, paſſam refudit, that whiche in his yeſterdaies riotte he engozged oz deuoured, he openly dyd parbzake oz vomite vp.
Glaciem refundere, to melte oz diſſolue the ice.
Refuſé, abundantly, largely.
Refuſus, a, um, poured in againe. alſo ouerflowyng, redoundyng.
Refutátio, ônis, a denyng, a replication, an argument to the contrary.
Refutátus, us, m. g. idem.
Réfuto, aui, are, to denie, to replie, to confute, to proue the contrarie.
Teſtibus refutare, to conuince with witneſſe, to proue by witneſſe, that it is contrarie.
Regaliolus, li, maſ. ge. a birde, betwene whome and the egle is continuall hoſtilitee, and is yelowe of colour.
Regális, le, ropall, kyngly, princely, pertainyng to a kynge.
Regaliter, ropally, princely.
Régelo, aui, are, to thawe oz reſolue that whiche is froſen.
Regénero, aui, are, to regenerate oz eſtſoones ingender. alſo to repzeſent the faction oz nature of any thynge.
Regenerare auum, to be bozne like his grandfather.
Regérmino, aui, are, to bourgen oz ſpzynge agayne.
Régero, geſſi, gerere, to put in writynge, to bzyng backe, to vomit vp, to caſt agayne to one.
In commentarios regerere, to wzite in rolles oz regiſters.
Regeſtum, ſti, n. g. earthe caſte vp. alſo a regiſtre.
Regeſtus, a, um, caſte vp.
Regeſta terra, idem quod Regeſtum, earthe caſte vp out of a furrowe.
Regia, æ, f. g. a kynges houſe, a princes palaice.
Regia herba, eadem quæ Artemiſia.
Regie, lyke a kynge, ropallye, princely.
Regiéſco, ſcere, olde wziters vſed for Creſcere, to growe.
Regifice, ropally.
Regificus, a, um, ropall, princely.
Regigno, genui, gignere, to engender againe.
Regilla, æ, f. g. a kynges robe.
Regillus, a litteli kyng. alſo the name of a riuer in Italie.
Régimen, giminis, and Regimentum, i, n. g. a rule oz gouernance,

Regina, æ, f. g. a queene alſo a maiſtreſs, ſometyme euery riche and great woman.
Régio, ônis, fœ. g. a region oz country. alſo a coaſt oz quarter, a parte of a towne oz citee, a warde. alſo a limitte oz bounde.
Regiones cæli quatuor, the foure coaſtes oz quarters of the wozlde, as, eaſte, weaſte, nozth, and ſouthe.
Regionibus officij ſeſe continere, to kepe hym ſelfe within the bounder and limittes of his office.
Eregione, aduerbially, ſtreight ouer agaynſt, in the ſight.
A recta regione deflectere, to goe out of the ſtreight oz right wape.
Regionátim, place by place, by euery region oz coaſte.
Regiſtrum, ſtri, n. g. is vſed of ſome for a regeſtre.
Régito, aui, are, a frequentatiue of Rego.
Regium, a citee beyonde the mountayne toward Italie called Rezo.
Régius, a, um, of a kynge.
Regius morbus, the iaundiſe.
Reglutino, aui, are, to vnglewe.
Reglutinátus, a, um, veray glewyſche oz clammie.
Régnator, ôris, m. g. he that reigneth. alſo he that is maiſter oz poſſeſſeth.
Regnátrix, thꝭ feminine.
Regnátus, a, um, gouerned, ruled.
Regnata fœminis gens, a people gouerned by women.
Regno, aui, are, to reigne, to be in authozitie, to be a kynge, to beare a rule.
Regnor, aris, ari, the paſſiue, to be ruled oz gouerned.
Regnum, i, n. g. a realme and the gouernance, a kyngdome.
Deferre regnum alicui, to iudge, oz geue his voyce to one to be a kynge.
Regnum, any thynge wherin one doeth excelle and beareth chiefe rule,
Rego, xi, ere, to rule, to gouerne.
Regor, eris, to be ruled oz gouerned.
Regrédior, eris, ſus ſum, gredi, to goe backe,
Regreſſio, onis, a goynge backe.
Regreſſus, us, m. g. a goyng backe.
Régula, æ, f. g. a rule. alſo a litle paniar made of oſiers, wherein they put aipues. alſo a litle rodde, wherwith any thynge is holden vp ſtreight.
Regulâris, re, that whiche is vnder a rule, oz that is made accozdyng to the rule, oz ſtraight with the rule.
Aes regulare, bzaſſe oz copper that will abyde hammerynge.
Regulariter, by rule, regularly.
Régulo, aui, are, to rule oz diꝛecte.
Régulus, li, m. g. a pzince oz lozde of a litle countrey.

Regu-

Reguli, be properly the childzen of kynges. also Regulus, is a little byrde called a wren, and serpent called a Cockatrice, whiche slayeth a man with his sight. Regulus was also the name of a consull, lohe Atilius. also a great Rhetorician in the tyme of Plinie.

Regusto, aui, are, to taste or sape agayne.

Reiectanea, of philosophers be taken for thinges that be abhorred, as sickenesse, pouertie, and sorowe.

Reiectaneus, a, um, that is caste awaye and neglected of euerie man.

Reiectio, onis, fœ. g. parbraynge, reiectynge, castyng awaye, refusyng.

Reiectio sanguinis, The auoydynge out of blonde at the mouth, the nose or the veines.

Reiecto, aui, are, to reiecte, to caste awaye often.

Reiectus, us, m. g. a vometyng.

Reiectus, a, um, caste out, cast awaie, or putte forth, vometted. also for Proiectus, cast about.

Res tota in mensem Ianuarium reiecta est, the whole mattier is deferred or put of vntill the month of Januarie.

Reiectis ad terguum manibus, castynge his handes behynde hym.

Vento reiectus in Macedoniam, caste backe againe into Macedonie.

Reiicio, reiicis, iéci, iícere, to cast about, to cast awaye, to dyspue backe, to cast or flinge againe, to reiect, to neglect, to contemne as vile, to deferre, to delaye, to cast of vntill an other tyme, to referre, to refuse, to put awaye, to parbrake or vomet.

Tytere pascentes à flumine reiice capellas, Tytire, dyspue thy gotes that do fede, away frō the riuer.

Me vero tanq̄ inutilem reiecerunt, as for me they refused as a persone vnprofitable.

Si altera illa magis instabit, forcitan nos reiiciat, if the other will be importunate, perchāce he will put me awaye, or sette me at naught.

Reiicere testes, to refuse witnesses.

Reiicere iudices, to refuse iudges as corrupte and not for our purpose. also to chose out from other.

Reiicere causam ad senatum, to put, referre, or remitte the mattier to the senate to be determined.

Reiicere sanguinem, To voyde blonde at the nose, mouth or other partes.

Reiecit se in eum flens, she caste hir selfe vpon hym wepyng.

Ad ipsam te epistolam reiicio, I referre you to the letter that was written.

Senos sextantes non excesisit, aut si excessisset reiiciebantur, he exceded not. xii. ounces, if he passed that, they were cast vp agayne.

Fatigata membra reiecet, he layed downe his weerie bodie to reste.

Reiectitiæ oues, sheepe drawen out of the folde for age or sickenesse, kebbers, crones, or cullians.

Reiteratio, ônis, fœm. g. a repetyng of a thyng agayne.

Reitero, aui, are, to doe or saye a thyng againe, to repete.

Relabor, laberis, labi, to slyde or fall agayne.

Relabi flumina dicuntur, dum fluxum iterant.

Relangueo, gui, guere, to be verye feble or sayntc.

Relanguesco, scere, to waxe very feble or faint.

Relatio, ônis, f. g. a reporte or a respecte, a referryng. among logicians it is the effecte of the relatiue: As the father, the sonne: the maister, the seruaunt: the housbande, the wife: for without the one the other can not reteyne his name, for a sonne can not be without a father, nor a wyfe without an housbande: nor a seruaunt without a maister.

Relatiue, haupng relation to a thyng.

Relatiuum, a relatiue, whiche hath relation to some thyng.

Relātus, a, um, reported, shewed, tolde, referred.

Relati in ærarios, were they, whiche for some faute were by the maisters of manors (called Censores) put out of the numbre of citezens, and dyd onely paie tribute, or head syluer as strangers.

Relaxatio, ônis, f. g. a recreatyng, a refreshing, a settyng at libertee.

Relaxo, aui, are, to lewse, to vndoe, to sette at large or libertee, to deliuer, to recreate.

Aliuum relaxare & astringere, contrarie.

Relaxare animum, to recreate the mynde, with geuyng ouer studie or busines for a whyle

Interdum animis relaxantur, sometyme they doe recreate and ease them selfes.

Si te ista occupatione relaxaris, if ye shall once haue rid and dispatched your selfe of this let and businesse.

Relaxat dolor, sorowe begynneth to relent or asswage.

Relaxus, a, um, verie lewse.

Relegatio, ônis, f. ge. a banishement out of his countrey, an exilyng or sendyng awaie.

Relegātus, a, um, banished, sent in exile, sent or put awaie.

Relego aui, are, to banisshe, to remoue, to seuer one from an other, to sende awai, or to referre.

Relegare alicui causam alicuius rei, To make pretence that one is the cause of a thyng, or to saye, that he doeth it for his sake.

In prædia rustica relegarat, he had sent hym awaye to his fermes in the countrey.

Ad authores relegabo, I will referre them vnto the authours.

Relegatus mihi videor, I thynke my selfe to be banisshed.

Rélego, lēgis, légi, ere, to reade agayne, to gather together agayne.

Iter relégere, to go agayne the same waye.

Relentesco, tescere, to relent, to waxe softe.

Releuo,

Releuo, aui, are, to lyfte vp agayne, to excuse, to diminiſſhe, to ease.
Animum releuare, to comfort ones mynde, to relieue ones ſpirites.
Releuare labores, to myniſſhe labours.
Moleſtijs releuari, to be delyuered from troubles and peynes.
Relicinus, he that hath a good buſſhe of heare, well trymmed or curled behynde.
Relicina frons, a faire large & highe forheade, without heare.
Relictio, ônis, f. g. a leauyng, a forſakyng.
Relictus, a, um, forſaken or lefte.
Relictus ab omni honeſtate, a man without all honeſtie.
Relictus ſum mihi, I am lefte alone, or I am at my libertee.
Religatio, ónis, f. g. a byndyng agayne.
Religâtus, a, um, bounde harde agayne.
Religio, ônis, fœ. g. religion, holynesſe, deuoutneſſe, godlineſſe, the true wooꝛſhippyng of god and holy thynges, a reuerend dreade, a ſolicitouſe care and feare, a reuerende feare & doubt leſt he ſhall offende in thynges of honeſtee. alſo conſcience, or as a man mought ſaie, a ſcrupuloſitee of conſcience.
In religionem vertere, to feare leſt god were diſpleaſed, to make conſcience of a thyng.
Religionem inducere, to bryngе in feare of gods diſpleaſure.
Religio eſt, it is not leafull, it is an heynous thynge.
Huc introire, niſi neceſſarió, & caſtè, religio eſt, to enter in there, but for neceſſitee and chaſtelye, it is not leafull.
Religio iudicis, the integritee of the iudge.
Religione obſtringere, vel obligare, To charge ones conſcience with a matter, to put in feare of conſcience.
Exoluere religione, To diſcharge ones conſcience, or to remoue one from ſcrupuloſitee.
Religio eſt mihi dicere, I haue conſcience to ſaye it, I dare not ſaie it.
Religionem alicui aſſerre, to cauſe one to be ſcrupulouſe.
Religio non eſt mihi, quo minus hoc faciam, I haue no conſcience therof, but that I maie do it, or I make no ſcrupuloſitee or danger of conſcience to doe it, or my conſcience feareth not, but that I maye doe it well enoughe.
Eximere religionem, to put him out of doubt in his conſcience.
Exemplar antiquæ religionis, an example of a god and rightfull conſcience.
Teſtimoniorum religionem & fidem nunq̃ iſta natio coluit, this people had neuer regarde nor feare of conſcience or honeſtee in witneſſe bearyng or keppyng theyr othe.
Religionem colere, To be religious and deuout, to ſerue god well.
Religio officij, that honeſt feare that a man hath, to let paſſe any thynge in dooyngе his duetie.
Quæ tanta religio? what feare or ſcruple of conſcience is there ſo greate?
Dignus es cum tua religione odio, thou art wooꝛthy to be hated for thy pyuiſſhe ſuperſtition.
Habere religioni, to be afrayde or make conſcience to doe a thynge.
In religionem verterunt Pœni, the Affricanes did take and interpꝛete that as a ſigne of gods diſpleaſure, and therefore were afrayde.
Religioſè, fearefully, doubtfully, dangerouſely, ſcrupulouſly, curiouſly, aduiſedly, religiouſly, deuoutly, godly.
Religiôſus, a, um, religiouſe, deuout, ſeruyng god truely. alſo faithfull, timoꝛouſe, alſo ſcrupulouſe, ſuperſticious.
Religioſum habere, To make conſcience in a thynge.
Dies religioſi, dayes of heauineſſe for ſome miſſeaduenture, which hath happened on theſe dayes.
Delubrum religioſum, a deuoute place, a churche or chapell, whervnto men haue great deuotion to come.
Religioſum eſt id facere, there is a conſcience in the dooyng therof.
In teſtimonio religioſi, honeſte and faythfull in bearyng wytneſſe.
Religo, religas, aui, are, to byndе faſt, to byndе harde.
Religare religionibus bona alicuius, to geue gooꝺes to the honour and ſeruice of god.
Relino, leui, liui, relinere, to open that whiche is ſtopped, to ſet abꝛoche.
Releui omnia dolia, I haue bꝛoched all the veſſelles.
Nolo ego nos pro ſummo bibere, nulli relerimus poſtea, I wolde not that we dꝛanke all out, for I will for no man ſet any abꝛoche afterwarde.
Relinquo, liqui, linquere, to leaue, to forſake, to leaue one ſuccourleſſe or without helpe, to leaue a thyng to one as his poſſeſſion.
Relinquere animam, to die.
Relinquit eum animus, his herte or courage fayleth hym.
Relinquere æs alienum, to die in debte.
Arrabôni relinquere, to leaue a thynge as a gage or pledge.
In medio relinquere, to leaue in doubt.
Locum admonitionibus relinquere, To receiue the moniciõ, which be geuen vs, to ſuffre men to admoniſſhe or aduertiſe vs.
Nec precibus nec admonitionibus reliquit locum, he dyd all thynges ſo diligently, that a man coude neither deſire nor aduertiſe hym to dooe moꝛe.
Locum ſubtilitati nullum relinquere, to doe a thyng ſo ſubtilly that it can not be amended.

Locum

Locum vituperandi alicui relinquere, to geue occasion to one to sale ill, or to blame hym.
Memoriam alicuius rei relinquere, To doe a thynge, whereof shall be lefte a perpetuall remembrance.
Pecuniam in quæstu relinquere, to delyuer money to haue gayne therby.
Scriptum relinquere, to leaue it in writing.
Spem relinquere, to hope or truste no more on a thynge.
Studium alicuius rei relinquere, to care no more for a thyng.
Suspicionem relinquere, to cause suspition.
Suspicionem quibusdam suorum reliquit, he gaue an occasion to certayne of his familiars to suspecte.
Confectum relinquere, to dispatche.
Ne qua spes in fuga relinqueretur, That they might haue no hope to saue them selfe by flight.
Hæredem testamẽto relinquere, to make one his heire by his laste will.
Relinquitur, id est, restat, reliquum est, it foloweth, nowe it remayneth, now to conclude.
Reliqua, ôrum, neu. ge. that whiche remayneth vpon a reckenyng, debtes.
Reliqua contrahere, To be in arrerage of a ferme.
Reliquátor, ôris, ma. gen. he that is in arrerage on his accompte. Also any other, whiche hath in his handes some parte of that whiche he ought to haue paied.
Spes nulla reliqua in te est, I haue no more hope of the.
Reliquiæ, ârum, f. g. plu. that whiche is left, the relike or remenaunt, the asshes or bones of them that are dead, reliques.
Reliquias persequi, to pursewe that whiche is begunne.
Fœbrium reliquiæ, grudgeynges of feuers.
Cœnæ reliquiæ, that is left of the supper, broken meate, scrappes, fragmentes.
Reliquiæ coniurationis, the remenaunt of a conspiracy.
Reliquor, aris, ari, to be behynde in paiement of a certayne summe.
Reliquus, a, um, the remnaunt, that whiche remayneth, that is lefte, the residue.
Reliquum est, the rest is, more ouer then this.
Reliquum facere, to leaue, to omitte.
Reliquos facere, to leaue them.
Nihil est mihi reliqui, I haue nothyng lefte.
Qualem in reliqua Græcia neminem, suche one as is none like in all Grece besyde.
Spes nulla reliqua, there is no hope lefte.
De reliquo, as concernyng the residue. also more ouer.
Quos belli calamitas reliquos fecerat, whiche escaped the daungers of the warre.
In reliquum tempus, for the tyme to come.
Reliquum feci, I haue lefte.
Réloco, aui, are, to set out to hyre agayne.

Reluceo, lúces, luxi, lucêre, to shyne or be very bright.
Reluctor, aris, ari, to contende or strine against, to wrastle or struggle agaynst.
Reluctâtus, a, um, partic. strygyng agaynst.
Réluo, réluis, lui, luere, to pay agayne that whiche is borowed, to fetche home a gage or pledge. also to washe cleane soones.
Remacresco, scere, to wax leane agayne.
Remaledico, maledicis, dixi, dicere, to speake ill for yll, to geue one ill reporte or woorde for an other.
Remáncipo, máncipas, aui, are, to sell agayne a thyng to hym, whiche fyrst solde it, or to put it againe into his handes, of whom he bought it.
Remando, di, dere, to chew the cudde.
Remaneo, rémanes, mansi, nêre, to abyde styll, to abyde behynde, to remayne, to continue.
Interea rex, velut spectator pugnæ cum parte nauium in littore remanet, In the meane while the kynge, as it were a beholder of the battaile, with parte of his naule remayned on the shore or stronde.
Rémano, rémanas, aui, are, to tourne or flowe backe to a place.
Remánsio, ônis, fœm. g. an abydyng, a tarying behynde.
Remeans, antis, retournyng or goyng backe as gayne.
Remeâtus, us, m. g. comyng agayne.
Comeatus & Remeatus, comyng and goyng.
Reméculi, litteli shyppes, whiche men of Lemnos vsed.
Remédium, dii, n. g. remedie.
Remeligo, ligínis, f. g. a fysshe, which cleauyng to the keele of a shippe, causeth it to tarie.
Remendo, áui, are, to amende or correct a faute, after Columelle: but the place in Columella for Tale Oleaster remendauerunt, shulde be red, Taleolas terræ mandauerunt.
Rémeo, rémeas, aui, are, to retourne or goe backe agayne.
Vibem remeare, to goe agayne to the citee.
Remétior, tiris, tiri, to measure agayne, to goe ouer agayne.
Remex, rémigis, m. g. he that roweth in a galey or bote, a water man.
Remigátio, ônis, fœ. ge. a rowyng or sailyng, a rowyng backe agayne.
Remigero, rémigeras, olde writers vsed for Remigro.
Remigium, gii, neu. ge. the rowyng of a shyppe or bote: sometyme the fleeynge of byrdes in the ayre: sometyme a multitude or company of rowers.
Remigo, aui, are, to rowe.
Rémigro, rémigras, aui, are, to goe backe, to retourne.
In nostram domum remigremus, let vs go backe in to my house.
Remillum, li, n. ge. a thyng crooked and broade lyke an oxe.

Reminiscéntia, æ, f. ge. a remembraunce of that whiche was ones in the mynde.

Reminiscor, reminiscéris, sci, to call againe to remembraunce, to remembre.

Remiscéo, miscui, miscére, idem quod Miscéo.

Remissa, æ, f. g. remission, forgeuenesse.

Remisse, faintelye, without courage, slackelye, humbly: sometyme merily.

Remissio, ônis, fœm. gene. remission, forgeuenesse, a recreating of the mynde after studie or labour, lache or faintenesse of courage, a slacknesse, a lewsyng.

Remissio & contractio superciliorum, the castyng downe and vp of the browes.

Senescentis morbi remissio, slakyng of the sickenesse wearyng awaie.

Remissio vocis, sauourynge of the voyce, temperate speakyng.

Contento vocis, contrarie.

Remissio animi, faintyng of courage, faintenesse of herte. also recreacion from studie or labour.

Remissárius, a, um, that is sent or put agayne.

Remissarij vectes, certayne barres or staues, set in the turne or rundell of a vine presse, called in latine Sucula, to driue or tourne it aboute withall.

Remissus, a, um, dull, remitted, sent agayne, ceassed or deferred, negligent, slacke, gladde, dissolute in mirthe.

Remissus animus, whiche hath no courage.

Remissum corpus, an vnlusty bodie.

Remissius frigus, not verie colde.

Remissus and tristis, contrarye.

Remissiorem esse, to be remisse & negligēt. also not to be verye earnest or rigorous in a mattier.

Remissius dicendi genus, a temperate stile, not verie vehement or full of affection.

Remitto, misi, mittere, to sende, to sende againe, to sende backe, to release or forgeue, to graunt, to committe, or remitte, to relinquysshe or leaue, to slacke, to ceasse, to leaue of, to lette passe, to vnbende or lewse, to let downe, as one doeth the strynges of an instrument. Also to caste out agayne.

Remittere animum, to put awaie care, to recreate the mynde.

Annum remittere, to pardone hym for one yeere.

Ardorem pugnæ remittere, not to fighte so fiercely and eygerly.

Remittere aliquid adolescentiæ, to pardone hym somewhat for his youth.

Remittere frontem, to looke more pleasantly and merily.

Remittere saporem, To make the taste of a thyng not to be so stronge.

Remittere nuntium. Gratiſ habeo tibi, quum copiam istam mihi & potestatem facis, vt ego ad parentes remittam nuntium, I thanke the, that thou geuest me this leaue and also auctoryte, that I maie sende to thy friendes, to prouyde for the eis where.

Contentionem remittere, To leaue or forsake contencion.

De supplicio remittere, to pardone hym part of his execucion or punishement.

De custodia remittere, not to bee so carefull as he was, to be somewhat more negligente than he was in keppyng.

Frænos dolori remittere, to abandone hym to all sorowe, or to leat him selfe to be possessed with heauinesse.

Ius alicui remittere, to release all his title or right vnto one.

Librum remittere dicitur arbor, whan the barke is lewse or fallen from the tree.

Memoriam remittere, to let passe out of remembraunce, not to regarde the memorye of a thyng.

Numeros in cantu remittere, to rest in syngyng, as is the vse in priche songe.

Nuntium vxori remittere, to be diuorced, to put awaie his wyfe from hym.

Repudium remittere, idem.

Officium remittere, to renunce his duitie.

Cum aures remittunt, whan they caste or hange downe theyr eares agayne.

Remitas iam me onerare iniuriis, you wolde ceasse to ouerlade or combre me with your vnreasonablenesse.

Integram causam ad Senatum remisit, he referred or lefte the whole mattier to the Senate.

Curam animi remittere, to ease the mynde and put awaie care and studie.

De voluntate mea nihil est remissum, I haue nothyng changed my mynde, I haue the same will still.

Debitum remittere, to quite or forgeue one that he oweth.

Frænа remittere equo, to leat the horse haue the bridle at will.

Vbi primum remiserunt imbres, as sone as the showers of raine ceassed.

Iracundiam remittere, to appease his anger, to qualifie hym selfe.

Labores remittere, to labour and trauayle somewhat lesse.

Aquam receptam ore remittunt, they caste out agayne.

Neruos remittere, to leat downe the stringes of an instrument.

Vim principis complecti, nomen remittere, to take on hym the power and auctoryte of a prince, and refuse the name.

Opera remittere, to leat the woorkes slacke or ceasse.

Opinionem remittere, to leaue an opinion.

Sonum vocis intendere, and remittere, contrarye, to streigne the voice in speking, and to sauour the voyce and speake more temperately.

Nullum remittis tempus, Thou dooest slacke or leat leſt paſſe no tyme.

Remo, mis, remere, idem quod remeare.

Remólior, liris, liri, to put from his place.

Remolitus, a, um, partic.

Remollio, liui, lire, to make verey ſofte or eaſie, or to make ſofte agayne.

Remollitus, a, um, partic.

Remolleſco, ſcere, to become or ware ſofte, alſo to appeaſe it ſelfe and become gentyll.

Remona, the dwellyng houſe of Remus.

Rémora, ræ, f. g. a litteli fyſhe, whiche reteineth a great ſhippe vnder ſayle, alſo tarying.

Rémorans, antis, partic.

Remorâtus, a, um, taried, hindred, prolonged.

Remorbeſco, ſcére, to fall eftſoones in ſickneſſe, an olde wooyde.

Remordeo, mordi, dére, to byte hym agayne, of whome he was bitte, to vexe or trouble hym, of whom he was vexed, to tourmente the mynde, to make one heauy, to greue.

Cura remordet me, care greueth me.

Rémores, byndes, which by theyr flyghte or voice ſignifie, that the thynge pourpoſed was not to be folowed.

Remoria, a place on the toppe of the hyll called Auentinus, where Remus ſtoode, and by the flyghte of byrdes adupſed the buildynge of Rome.

Rémoror, âris, âri, to tarie or make to abyde, to hynde.

Remorari gradum, to reſt hym ſelfe in a place.

Ne quod veſtrum rémorer commodum, that I may not hinder any commoditee or profite of yours.

Remótio, ônis, f. g. a remouyng, a puttynge aſ ware.

Remôtus, a, um, farre from, farre of, ſet aſyde, put awaie, remoued.

Remotus homo à dialecticis, he that paſſeth nothynge on logike, or he that is nothyng ſkilled or exercyſed in logike.

Remota res à memoria, a thynge not thought vpon.

Remoto ioco, in ernest.

Remotus à culpa, he that is in no faulte, giltleſſe, without faulte.

Remoto delectu, without haueynge regarde more to one than to an other.

Remotus ab inani laude, he loueth no vayne glorie.

A religione remotus, without religiõ or feare of god.

Arbitris remotis, alone without companie.

Fœmina à viris remotiſsima, a verey chaſt and honeſt woman.

Longiſsime à pudore remotus, a verey impudent and ſhameleſſe perſon.

Remoueo, rémoues, môui, vére, to remoue, to take awaie, to put awaie, to ſet aſyde.

Remouete moræ, make you haſte, ſpede you.

Remouere ſe à negotiis publicis, to meddle no more with common affayres.

Remouere aliquem à re publica, to put one out of the office, which he hath in the weale publyke.

Remouere ab oculis, to hyde, to put out of ſyght.

Remouere ſe arte ſua, to leaue or forſake his craft.

Remouere de medio, to put a thyng cleane aſ ware.

Remouere metum, to put away feare.

Remouere moram, to make haſte.

Remouere operam ſuam à populari cœtu, to take no more peine about other mens buſineſſe.

Aliquem à legibus remouere, to leat one that he can not make ſuche lawes aſ he would.

Se ab aliquo remouere, to leaue a mans cõpany, familiaritee, or freendſhippe.

Ex vrbe me remoui, I went or remoued a gayne out of the cittee.

Hunc tu metum rémoue, put thou awaie this feare.

Remugio, mûgis, giui, gire, to bellowe or lowgh agayne, to rẽdre a great ſowne or noiſe.

Remulceo, cére, to paciſie or aſſwage agayne.

Remulco, aui, are, & Remúlculo, aui, are, is properly to drawe a great ſhyp or barge with a laſſe veſſell, by tranſlatiõ it ſignifieth to drawe a thynge eaſily.

Remulcus, ci, m. g. a litteli bote or barge, ſerueynge to vnlade great veſſels, or to ſet men aſ bourde.

Remulinus ager, Remus fielde.

Remuncopæ, arum, f. g. inſtrumentes, wherwith ſhippes be driuen on lande.

Remunerátio, ônis, f. g. recompence, a rewaſdyng.

Remunero, aui, are, & Remuneror, aris, ari, to rewarde, to recompence a good turne.

Remúrmuro, aui, are, to murmure agaynſt.

Remus, the brother of Romulus, whiche buildyd Rome.

Remis, mi, m. g. an ore to rowe with.

Remis ventis q. properly, with al ſpeede, quickely.

Ren, renis, m. g. a kidney.

Renancíſcor, ciſceris, ſci, to get agayne.

Renarro, aui, are, to tell, to repete.

Renáſcor, nátus ſum, ſci, for denuo naſci, to be borne agayne, to ryſe or ſpringe againe, to be grene agayne.

Renaſcens annus, the ſpryngе tyme.

Renato, aui, are, to ſwymme backe, or ſwimme agayne.

Renâtus, a, um, newe borne.

Renáuigo, aui, are, to ſayle home agayne.

Renauo, aui, are, to endeuoure or doe agayne.

Renes, the kidneis or the reines of the backe.

Renidens, entis, ſhynyng bright.

Os renidens, a face or countenance verey ioyous and pleaſaunt.

Renideo, nides, nidui, dêre, to ſhyne, to be bright or to gliſter, to ſauour or ſmell. ſometyme to open the mouthe, as one doeth in ſmilyng or loſhyng pleſauntly, to ſmyle.

Renideſco, ſcere, to ware bryght.

Reniteo, renites, nitui, nitêre, to be verey bright, to ſhyne.

Renitor, reniteris, niſus, or nixus ſum, niti, to reſiſte, to labour or thruſt againſt.

Renixus, us, m. g. reſiſtence.

Reno, âui, âre, to ſwimme againe.

Renódo, aui, are, to vnknitte or vndoo a knot. alſo to knit faſt.

Rénoues, garmentes made of ſkinnes of woulfes or other beaſtes, wherin the auncient Almaines were wont to lie in the warres.

Rénouo, âui, âre, to renewe or make eftelsones, to refreſſhe, to recreate, to beginne againe.

Bellum renouare, to renewe or beginne the warre againe.

Caſus omnes renouare, to aſſay all chaunces or aduentures afreſh.

Campus renouatur aratro, the fielde is newe plowed or tilled againe.

Renouabo illud quod initio dixi, I will repete or ſaie againe that I ſpake in the beginning. Animum renouare, to take courage or herte againe.

Legendo renouabam, I dyd renewe the memorie of it in redyng againe.

A fatigatione renouat, it doeth refreſſhe men and make them luſty againe.

Renouátio, ônis, ſ. g. a renewyng.

Renouâmen, uâminis, n. g. idem.

Renouâtus, a, um, renewed, reedified, repaired, tared or plowed againe.

Renouello, aui, are, to make newe againe.

Rentifolia, æ, ſ. g. a kynde of wylde roſes, which haue neyther good ſauour nor facion.

Renumero, aui, are, to pay againe money which was receiued.

Renuntiata, an ile by Ethiope, ſo ryche, that the inhabitantes doe gene for an horſe by exchange a talent of golde.

Renúntio, aui, are, to tell what is doen, or what one would haue, to make relation, to bryng worde againe, to reporte, to ſignifie, to ſhewe openly, to renounce, to refuſe, to forſake for euer, to bidde farewell for euer, to reſigne, ſometyme to reſtore.

Renuntiare vitæ, to refuſe to lyue.

Renuntiatur conſul, he is declared conſull.

Renuntiatũ eſt facilem eſſe aſcenſum, worde was brought againe, that they myght eaſyly gette vp there.

Acta renuntiare ad Senatum, to make reporte or relation to the Senate, what they haue done.

Id ego tibi nunc renuntio futurum, I tell you now before, that it will be ſo.

Renuntiare amicitiam, to renounce or forſake ones friendſhip.

Renuntiare repudium, to repudiate or forſake ones wyfe.

Hoſpitium ei renuntiat, he ſheweth hym plainly that he will no more lodge in his houſe: or haue no more familiaritee with hym.

Societatem alicui renuntiare, to denuntie or ſende woorde, that they will haue no longer aliance with them.

Tibi renuntiata ſunt hæc ſic fore, it was tolde you before, that theſe thynges would come to paſſe.

Renuntiátio, ônis, ſ. g. a reporte. alſo a reſignation of an office. alſo a commons by an officer.

Renúntius, tij, m. g. he that carieth tidynges from one to an other.

Rénuo, rénui, núere, to refuſe, to diſpiſe, to ſhew that a thyng doeth diſpleaſe or miſlyke hym.

Renûtus, tus, m. ge. a refuſall or denial with countinaunce, a beckynge or noddynge againe.

Reor, reris, ratus ſum, reri, to ſuppoſe, to thinke, to iudge.

Repágulum, li, n. g. a dooze or wyndowe, or other thynge that ſhutteth or cloſeth, a barre or raple.

Repáges, gis, ſ. g. idem.

Repandus, a, um, bente or bowed, and broade bacheward, as eares were in the olde tyme.

Repango, pégi, and panxi, pángere, to ſet or plant, to graffe.

Repandiroſtrum pecus, a beaſt haueng his noſe turned vpwarde, a woorde vſed of Pacuuius and Lucilius auncient poetes.

Reparábilis, le, that maie be repared, amended, or made newe againe.

Reparátio, ônis, reparation, makynge or reſtoryng of a thynge againe.

Reparâmen, râminis, n. g. idem.

Reparâtor, ôris, m. g. one that repaireth or maketh againe.

Reparco, parſi, ſere, to ſpare.

Répario, aui, are, to repayre, to reſtore to the firſt eſtate, to renewe.

Reparare bellum, to make newe proviſion for warre.

Reparare exercitum, to repayre or make vp his armye againe.

Repaſtinátio, ônis, ſ. g. a newe diggynge about vines. Alſo a byngynge of grounde to tempre with muche labour and diggyng.

Repaſtinátus, a, um, newe digged or brought in tempre.

Repáſtino, aui, are, to digge againe about vines, to alter lande or grounde with ofte diggyng or labourynge.

Repátrio, aui, are, to retourne.

Repauſo, aui, are, to take reſt.

Repecto, pexi, or péxui, péctere, to kembe againe.

Répedo, répedas, aui, are, to goe awaie, to goe backe, to retyre.

Repello, répuli, pélere, to put backe, to repelle, to put to put awaie.

Repellere sanguinem, to leat one bloudde.
Repellere vim vi, to resist force with force.
Seruitutem à ciuibus repellere, to kepe or deliuer his countrey men from seruitute and bondage.
A gubernaculo ciuitatis repelli, to bee putte from the gouernaunce of the citee.
Preces alicuius repellere, not to here ones requeste.
Rependo, di, dere, to recompence, to paie or geue againe.
Rependebatur duplo argento, one paied for it the double weyght of syluer.
Repens, entis, partic. à Repo, creppng: as, Humi repens, creppng by the grounde.
Repensus, a, um, paied.
Répens, entis, om. gen. sodaine, vnlooked for: also creppng.
Repens bellum, a sodaine warre.
Repens fama allata, a sodaine rumour or bruite was brought.
Repenso, aui, are, to pōder, to ouersee, to iudge, to recompence, to make amendes.
Repente, sodaynely, by and by.
Repentino, idem.
Repentinus, a, um, sodayne, vnlooked for.
Repercussus, us, m. ge. a reuerberation or strykyng againe, a reflection.
Repercussus solis, the reflection, or reuerberation of the sonne.
Repercussus, a, um, beaten or striken againe, turned backe againe.
Repercúio, repércutis, cussi, cútere, to stryke againe, to reuerberate.
Repercutere dicta, to take aduauntage of one in his woordes.
Repercutere aciem oculi, to dasil the eie sight.
Repério, réperis, réperi, or poëtice, repperi, rire, to fynde by aduenture: sometyme otherwyse, to perceyue.
Reperire causam, To fynde an excuse or occasion.
Reperire negotium in hac re, to haue muche to doo with that matter.
Reperire gloriam, to gette an honourable renowme.
Reperit suos parentes? hath she founde hir parentes, or who is hir father and mother?
Reperies hoc non secus, thou shalte fynde it to be none otherwyse.
Non reperitur vllo vestigio, there is no mention made of it, or there is not one woorde mentioned of it, or not one letter wryten of it.
Reperibitur, it shalbe founde.
Reperiri dicitur aliquis, or res aliqua, whan it is euidentely knowen and perceyued, what maner of person or thyng it is.
Reperio eum venisse Tarentum, I fynde in wrytyng, that he came to Tarent.
Repertitius, a, um, that is founden.

Repertor, ôris, m. g. he that fyndeth.
Repertórium, rij, n. g. an inuentorie.
Repertus, a, um, founde.
Repertus es ingratus, thou art plainly found and tried to be an vnkynde person.
Repetitio, ônis, f. g. a repetition.
Repetitor, óris, m. g. he that requireth a thyng agayne.
Repetitus, a, um, repeted agayne, begon agayn.
Repetito somno, fallyng a slepe agayne.
Répeto, tiui, or repétij, tere, to aske agayne, to aske often or ofttymes, to reherse againe, or repété, to reuolue, to begynne agayne, to resorte ofte to a thyng, to call agayne, to returne or goe againe to a place, to remembre.
Hem repudiatus repetor, howe nowe, beyng ones refused, I am called agayne.
Alte repetita, rehersed from the begynnyng, farre sought or farre fette.
Repetere pœnas ab aliquo, To bee auenged on one.
Repero, I remembre.
Me quidem adolescentulo, repeto quendam Principem nomine alternis diebus declamare, alternis disputare, I remēbre me, whan I was a ponge stripelyng, one called Princeps, did one date declame, an other date dispute.
Repetere reum, to accuse ofteseones.
Repetenti memoria, callyng to my remembraunce.
Fructum repetere, to require fruite or profyte of a thyng.
Castrā repetere, to returne or goe agayne to the Campe.
In Africam repetere, to returne agayne into Affrike.
Relicta repetere, to returne agayn to matters or busynesse that he lefte of before.
Repetere consilium, To renewe a purpose or intent.
Cæsari repetenti negare non potui, I coulde not denie it to Cesar demaundyng it of me often tymes.
Promissa repetens, promissyng agayne, renewyng his promysses.
Repetita longius interrogatio, a demaunde or question farre of from the purpose.
Consuetudo longo interuallo repetita, a verie auncient custome newly brought vp again: or a custome renewed, that was not vsed many a date before.
Gratiam pro beneficio repetere, To requite one to be thankefull.
Pampinationem repetere, to begyn agayne.
Repeto me correptum ab eo. &c. I remembre that I was blamed or checked. &c.
Alte & à capite repetere, to repete the matter euen from the begynnyng.
Inde vsq; repetens, callyng to my remēbrance euen from that tyme to this present date.
Repetere memoria, to call to remembrance.

Repetunt verba datæ ſortis, they ſcanne the woordes of the oracle geuen.

Repetundarum, repetundis, duos tantum caſus habet.

Repetundarum accuſari, is properly where a man ſomtyme beyng in great auctoritee, & hauyng the rule of a countrey, is accuſed and called to a reckenyng for all that he hath receyued, beyng in his office, aboue that, which is his ordinarie allowaunce: alſo for all thynge that he toke wrongefully from any perſone or towne: whiche was the moſt neceſſarie action for a publike weale, that mought be deuyſed.

Repignerâtor, ôris, m. g. he that redeemeth or quiteth his gage or pledge.

Repignero, aui, are, to quite or redeme a pledge or gage. it male be taken ſometyme with vs for that, whiche in our lawe is called to repleuie: and Repigneratio, a repleuie. and Repigneratitia actio for the Replegiare.

Replaudo, plauſi, dere, to make noyſe with the handes beaten together.

Replaudere frõtẽ, to ſtrike vp the heare before with clappyng of the hande to his foreheade.

Repleo, plẽui, plẽre, to fyll, to fyll vp agayne.

Replẽtus, a, um, repleniſhed, full.

Eruditione repletus, filled with erudition, full of doctrine.

Replicátio, ônis, a replication or vnfoldyng of a thyng, a replyng.

Réplico, aui, are, to vnfolde. alſo to replie, to diſplaye, to turne that is forwarde backe agayne.

Replicare in rugas, to folde, to plaite.

Replicare ſurculos ad vitis caput, to bowe backe agayne.

Repliſtus, a, um, vnfolded.

Replumbo, aui, are, to vnſoulder.

Repo, repſi, pere, to creepe, to renne as rootes doue in the grounde.

Repólio, répolis, liui, lire, to polyſhe agayne.

Repolleo, lére, to be muche able, to bee of power to doue.

Repolleſco, ſcere, to bee exceſſoones ſtronge in forte, for Repulluleſco, to ſpringe agayne.

Repôno, ſui, nere, to put or ſette agayne in his place, to laie vp, to recite agayne, to hyde, to redeliuer or reſtore, to reuoke, to repreſſe, to laie to more, to exaggerate, to heape one on an other, to make to growe agayne, to bryngе agayne. alſo to put in writyng.

Et quantum longis carpent armenta diebus,
Exigua tantum gelidus ros nocte reponet.
Loke howe muche the ſheepe in the long dates ſhall byte,
The colde dewe in one nyght with growyng ſhall requite.

Reponere ſeruicem, to wre ones neche nowe on one ſyde, and nowe on the other, to ſtretche ones neche in and out.

Reponere aliquem in deos, to dwe honour to one as it were vnto god, to make one a god.

Reponere in numero eloquentium, to eſteme hym eloquent.

Reponere in optima ſpe, to haue good hope of a thyng.

Reponere in ſuis, to take hym for his friende.

Reponere iniuriam, to doe diſpleaſure to him that hath hurte vs before.

Reponere fidem, to truſte.

Fabulas & ſcripta ſua reponere poëtæ dicuntur, when they bryng their comedies or tragedies to be plaied agayne after they haue ben ones or twyſe plaied before.

Honoratum ſi forte reponis Achillem, if it be thy mynde to putte in agayne the tragedie of the renowmed Achilles.

Reponere nummos, To paie agayne money whiche is lent vs.

Reponere aliquid in vetuſtatem, to laie vp a thyng for the tyme to come.

Reponere remum, to rowe no more.

Pero ne te, ne id à me quæras, ne tibidem reponam cum veneris, I praie the aſke not that of me, leſt I aſke the ſame of the, or lay ſome thyng againſt the whan thou comeſt hither.

Semper ego auditor tantum nunquam reponam? ſhall I be alwaie an herer and neuer a wryter?

Plena reponere pocula, to ſet full cuppes on the table.

Alimenta in hyemem reponere, To laie vp ſtore of vittaples againſt wynter.

Intelligere deberes in te repoſitam rem publicam, that the whole common weale conſyſteth in you.

Cœnam reponere, To make a ſupper to one, that gaue vs a ſupper before.

In coronamenta reponere, To ſet among the herbes that garlandes be made of.

In quibus fiduciam omnem reponebat, in the whiche he put his whole confidence and truſt.

Cauſam reponere in manſuetudine iudicum, To referre and putte his whole matter to the gentilneſſe of the iudges.

Seorſum reponere, to ſette apart from other.

Reporto, aui, are, to bryng backe or agayne.

Reportare laudem ex hoſtibus, to be praiſed for his victorie, to gette laude or praiſe by conquerynge his enemies.

Reportare victoriam, to haue the victorie.

Reportare laudem, to haue good thanke for ones labour.

Reportare ignominiam, To get or beare awaie reproche.

Britannia exercitum reportare, to conueygh the armie out of Britaine.

Repoſco, popoſci, ſcere, to aſke agayne that which is myne owne, or is as it were due to me.

Repoſcere pœnas, to punyſh.

Repoſcere vicem, to aſke one good turne for an other.

Datum auxilium repoſcere, to requite one to ayde vs as we haue aided hym before.

Rationem vitæ ab aliquo repoſcere, to require accompte or reckenynge how one hath ledde his lyfe.

Repoſcit cauſa, the cauſe requireth.

Aliquem ad ſupplicium repoſcere, to require to haue one punyſhed.

Repoſitórium, rij, n. g. a ſtore houſe, or rather a cupbourde or dreſſoir to ſette meate vppon, or other thynge that is brought to the table.

Repóſitus, a, um, laied vp to hyde, put or ſet a gayne.

Manet alta mente repoſitum iudicium Paridis, deepe in her mynde remayned the iudgement that Paris gaue.

Repoſiti & frigidi cibi, colde meate that hath been ſet on the table before.

Repotia, neu. ge. plur. nu. after Porphirio, the nexte daie after the mariage, whan friendes come to drynke with the bryde: after Acron, the viij. daie, whan the bryde was wonte to returne to hyr parentes. the drinkynges or banketynges that are made with them that are newe maried.

Repræſentátio, ônis, fœ. g. the repreſentynge of a thing. Also a paiment of money out of hand.

Repræſento, aui, are, to repreſent, to rendre, to bringe in preſence, or preſent a thynge, to laie before one, to ſhewe or declare.

Si ſemper ſe repræſentauerit, if he be alwaie redy at hande, and not out of the waie.

Repræſentare conſilium, id eſt, ante tempus exequi.

Repræſentare ſe, to be preſent.

Si repræſentari morte mea libertas ciuitatis poteſt, if the citee by my death may be foorthwith and immediatelye reſtored to lybertee.

Repræſentare ſupplicia, to puniſhe ſodainely or haſtily.

Cœperat eſſe præceps ad repræſentanda ſupplicia, he beganne to be ouer haſty and raſhe in puniſhyng or puttynge men to execution.

Repræſentare iudicia, to preuente iudgement.

Repræſentare precium, to paie the money in hande.

Repræſentare diem promiſſorũ, to performe that he promiſed.

Repræſentare aliquid animo, to renewe a thyng in ones memorie.

Faciem veri maris repræſentare, to bee lyke a verey ſea in deede.

Ita repræſentauit imaginem ſceleris, it dyd ſo lyuely ſet foorth the acte, as though it had been than preſently dooen.

Repræſentare memoriã alicuius rei, to repreſent & ſet foorth lyuely the memorie of a thyng.

Repræſentare improbitatem ſuam, to make haſte to ſhewe or declare theyr lewdeneſſe.

Repræſentans pro opera dignam cuiq; mercedem, id eſt, exhibens, geuyng out of hande.

Reprehendo, di, dere, to pluche backe agayne, to reproue, to reprehende, to blame, to rebuke.

Reprehendi fugitiui dicuntur, to be caught a gayne.

Reprehendere manu, to take by the hande.

Reprænſi, caught agayne.

Reprehénſio, ônis, fœ. g. a rebuke, a pullynge backe, a reproupnge, a blampng, controllynge, checkyng.

Si reprehenſionem non capit perſona, if the perſonage be ſuch that he can not well be reproued or blamed.

Reprehenſo, aui, are, to rebuke ſharpely, to take holde on one and pluche hym backe often.

Reprehenſor, ôris, m. g. he that rebuketh or reproueth, a corrector.

Repreſſor, ôris, m. g. he that reſtreigneth, letteth, or keepeth downe: he that ſtoppeth a thing and letteth it to goe forwarde.

Repreſſus, a, um, ſtopped, lette.

Réprimo, preſsi, primere, to refrayne, to lette that a thynge be not dooen, to ſtoppe, to kepe vnder by force, to appeaſe.

Reprimere ſermones ſeu famam, to cauſe a great fame or reporte to ceaſſe.

Impetum populi reprimere, to appeaſe or ceaſſe the furie of the people.

Reprimere munera, to abbreuiate or make the waie ſhorter.

Ni reprimas tuum ſtultiloquium, if ye doe not leaue your foolyſhe talke.

Reprime iracundiam, be not ſo angrie, pacifie your ſelfe.

Curſum repreſſerunt, they ſtopped.

Conatus hominum reprimere, to ſtoppe what men goe about or indeuoir, to lette or reſiſte theyr enterpriſes.

Fletu reprimi ne quid ſcribamus, to bee leat with wepyng, that we can not write: to bee in that caſe, that we can not write for wepyng.

Sermones reprimere, to appeaſe the communication of the people, and make it to ceaſſe.

Réprobo, aui, are, to reproue, to diſalowe, to reiecte.

Réprobus, a, um, wicked, naught, caſt out of the fauour of god.

Reproces, harpe, roughe: but the place of Plinie, by the whiche this worde is proued, hath not in Reprocibus, but Imbricibus ac ſupinis lateribus. &c.

Repromiſsio, ônis, f. g. a promiſyng, a binding of ones ſelfe by promyſe in couenant.

Repromitto, miſi, mittere, to bynde hym ſelfe by promyſe in couenaunt. ſometyme to promyſe onely.

Reptabundus, a, um, creepyng.

Reptatus, us, m. g. a creepyng.

Reptilis, le, any thynge that creepeth.

Reptitius, a, um, that creepeth ſecretly.

Repto, aui, are, to creepe muche: alſo to goe ſoftely or ſlowely lyke a ſnayle.

Repubesco, scere, to ware ponge agayne.
Repudiátuo, ônis, s. g. a refusing, a forsakynge of his wyfe.
Repudiátus, a, um, refused, forsaken.
Repúdio, aui, are, to forsake, as a mã forsaketh his wyfe. Also to refuse, to abandone or leaue.
Obsecrationem alicuius repudiare, to reiecte ones suite, not to here his request.
Beneficium repudiare, to refuse a good tourne or benefite.
Repudio consilium quod primum intenderam, I nowe leaue the counsayle that I fyrste intended to folowe.
Repudiósus, a, um, an adiectiue.
Repudiosæ nuptiæ, a weddyng that is after dissolued.
Repúdium, dii, n. g. a diuorce.
Repudium remittere, to be diuorsed.
Repudium renuntiare, to declare a diuorce.
Is me nunc repudium renuntiare iussit tibi, he willed me to declare to the, that he hath forsaken the.
Necessitate me mala vt fiam facis, verum video, me vbi voles nuptum dare, ne hæc fama faciat repudiosas nuptias, thou compellest me to bee naughte, but take heede, lest whan thou wylte mary me to any man, this fame or bruite cause me shortely after to be diuorsed.
Repueráſco, scere, to bee ekesoones a chylde, or to ware a childe agayne.
Repugnans, antis, repugnyng, resistyng, beyng agaynst.
Repugnántia, æ, s. g. repugnancie, where one thynge agreeth not with an other.
Repugnax, ácis, om. g. that is in euery thynge contrarious.
Repugno, áui, áre, to repugne or take contrarie, to resiste.
Repugnare inter se, to be contrarie one to an other, not to agree one with an other.
Repugnanter, an aduerbe, whiche signifieth contrariously, displeasauntly, beyng yll contente.
Non repugnanter, pacientlp, with a good wyll.
Repullulo, áui, are, and Repullulasco, scere, to bourgen or spynge agayne.
Repulsa, sæ, s. g. a puttyng backe of hym, whiche eyther demaundeth or seketh for auctorite or office.
Accipere, ferre, pati repulsam, to bee putte backe in labouryng for an office, to bee refused in the election.
Repulso, aui, are, to repell or put backe often.
Repulsor, óris, m. g. he that putteth an other man backe.
Repulsus, us, m. g. a repellyng or puttyng backe agayne.
Repulsus, a, um, that is put backe, repelled. also striken or knocked agayne.
Repumicátio, ônis, a polisshynge or slikynge of buddes of trees, made rough with the sharpenesse of colde in the spynge tyme.

Repúmico, aui, are, to rase with a pomise, to make slyke or smoothe.
Repungo, pupugi, and punxi, gere, to pyche agayne or mutuallie displease or offende, to greeue or vexe somewhat agayne.
Repurgium, gii, n. g. a purgeynge or clensynge.
Repurgo, aui, are, to purge or clense diligently.
Réputo, aui, are, to thynke often, to consider muche, to consider and weigh diligently, to cast & reckon in the mynde, to reuolue in the minde, to recompt. Also to cut of ekesoones, sometyme for imputare, to impute.
Non reputat laboris quid sit, he considereth not what paynes and labour is in it.
Dum hæc mecum reputo, whyle I recompte these thynges with my selfe.
Reputátio, ônis, s. g. diligent consideryng and reuolupng in the mynde.
Réquies, ei, or étis, s. g. reste, quiete.
Requies bellorum, peace and vacation from warre.
Requiésco, eui, scere, to rest or take rest, to slepe, to bee or lyue at rest.
Requiéscere in lectione poëtarum, to take pleasure in the redyng of poetes.
Requiescere in spe alicuius adolescentis, to content hym selfe and quiete his mynde in the hope whiche one hath in a ponge man.
Requiescam in sermone eius, I wyll take my reste and ease my selfe in hearynge his communication or talke, or hearyng hym speake of this mattier.
Non requiescere consilio cuiusquam, not to ceasse for any mans counsayle.
Et mutata suos requierunt flumina cursus, the ryuers beyng altered, ceassed to renne.
Requiétus, a, um, that hath taken reste or ease.
Ager requietus, a fielde that hath lyen fallowe a certayne tyme.
Requirito, aui, are, to seeke, demaunde, or aske for thynges often.
Requiro, sui, rere, to seke ekesoones or often, to require, to enquire or demaunde, to synde lacke of a thynge, to desire a thyng that is not, or that is paste, as expedient or necessarie.
In quo maiorum nostrorum sæpe requiro prudentiam, wherin I synde oftentymes, that our auncestours or elders haue lacked discretion.
Vereor ne literarum officium à me requiras, I feare that ye wyll blame me for wrytynge no oftenner vnto you: or synde faute with me, that I haue not written to you more often.
Si quis requirit à te, yf any man doo aske or require of you.
Requiri, to be requisite, to be necessarie or expedient.
In hoc bello virtutes animi multæ & magnæ requiruntur, be requisite or necessarie.
Requisitum est, one demaunded.
Requisita naturæ, needes of nature, or natures necessi-

neclitere.

Res, rei, f. g. a thynge, the thynge, the mattier, sometyme state, condition, empire, dominion, busines, contencio, cause, ryches, substance, heritage, money, prospre, weale, experience, occasion.

Res est, it is mattier in deede.

Res ad manicam redijt, it is all come to a bag and a staffe, or a staffe and a walette.

Res comperendinata, a matter adiourned or deferred vntyll the thirde day.

Res iudicata, the mattier or cause finally determined and adiudged.

Res controuersa, the mattier in suite.

Res familiaris, a mannes propre goodes.

Res forensis, suite and lawe in the common place of iudgement.

Res publica, a common weale. Also it signifieth meane.

Iam reperirem, quo pacto necsur nec socius sies, I haue nowe founde the meane, howe thou shalte be neither a theefe, nor a companion with hym.

Rem facere, to gayne or wynne, to thryue.

Nunquam rem facies, abi, nescis inescare homines, thou shalte neuer gayne penie, get the hence, thou canste not skyle to angle men: or thou shalte neuer thryue, get the hence, thou knowest not how to laie baites for men.

Rem habere cum aliquo, to haue to doo with one, to meddle with one.

Res gerere, to haue or make warres, to fight.

Scipione Aemiliano res in Africa gerente. &c. Scipio Aemilianus makyng warres in Affrike. &c.

Res semper aliquid apportat noui, experience bryngeth alwaie some newes.

Ad rem redi, to the mattier or purpose.

Salua res est, the mattier goeth well.

Amicos res inuenit, richesse findeth frendes.

Re iuuare, to helpe with ordes and not with wordes onely.

Is amicus, qui in re dubia, re iuuat, vbi re est opus, he is a friende, whiche in a case that is doubtfull, helpeth me with his deedes, where deedes are required.

Quid isti credã, res ipsa indicat? what shulde I beleue hym, the deede selfe declareth it? or sheweth it to be so?

Verba ad rem conferre, to doe as he saieth.

Vsqadeo ego illius ferre possum ineptias & magnifica verba, verba dum sint, verum enim si ad rem conferentur, vapulabit, hitherto I can suffre his lewdenesse and bragges, as longe as they are but wordes: but if he doe as he saieth, he shall smarte therfore.

Rem augere, to ware thriftie.

Re vera, in deede, in very trouthe, mattier in deede.

Re ipsa, idem.

E re nata non melius fieri potuit quàm factum est, consydering the chaunce or occasion, it coulde not be better doone then it is: as it chaunceth, or as the present case requireth, it coulde not haue ben doone better than it is.

Pro re nata, the mattier considered, to the purpose that happened, as the present case or sodaine occasion requireth.

Res tua agitur, thy mattier is in hande, or the mattier toucheth the, this adooe or busines is for the.

Si in rem vniqe est, if it be for bothe theyr profytes.

Facere rem diuinam, to doe sacrifice, to serue god.

Tantúmne est ab re tua otij tibi? haste thou so muche leasure or vacant tyme from thyne owne busines?

Bellica res, and Res militaris, warfare.

Rei militaris scientia, marciall policie.

Sed ere ipsa nata videantur, but they may seeme to be inuented at that very present, by the occasion of the mattier it selfe.

Pro re tua, accordyng to thy goodes or substance that thou hast.

Aliquantum ad rem est auidior, he is somewhat courtous to get money.

Res eos iam pridem deficere cepit, it is a good while sens they spent theyr money and fell in pouertee.

Accisa res, a mannes substance or goodes decayed and spent away.

Ampla res, riches, great substance.

Vir haud magna cum re, a man of no great substance, not very ryche.

Res vxoria, wedlocke, mariage.

Rem Romanam magno turbante tumultu, id est, statum reipublicæ, the state and condicion of the weale publike of the Romaynes.

Domina rerum Roma, the lady and empresse of of all the worlde.

Potestas summa rerum, the chiefe gouernaunce of the empyre or kyngedome, soueraintee.

Postquam res Asiæ Priamiq; euertere gentem immeritam. &c. the empyre or dominion of Asia.

Res præclare gestæ, noble actes of prowesse, chiualrie.

Res œconomica, housholdyng, housekeepyng.

Res politica, the orderyng of a citee or of a common weale.

Sed res Romana erat superior, but the Romains had the vpper hande: or the partie and armie of the Romaines was the stronger.

Rem bellicam administrare, to be capitaine in the warres.

Rem in casum dare, to aduenture the mattier.

Rutuli diffisis rebus suis, mistrustyng theyr parte.

Ea rerum forma mearum, that is the state and condicion that I am in.

Res aduersæ, afflictæ, angustæ, dubiæ bous aduerſitee.

Egenis in rebus, in pouertee or neceſſitee.
Res ſecundæ, proſperitee.
Si mihi ſecundæ res eſſent de amore, if all were well concernyng my loue.
Mutatio rerum, mutacion of the worlde.
Res humanæ, worldely affayres.
Rem miſeram, an aduerbe of ſorowyng, pitifull and heauy chaunce.
Reſæuio, ſæuis, ſæuire, to be fierce or vehement agayne.
Reſalutátio, ônis, f. g. a courteis ſpeakynge to hym that ſpeaketh to you, a reſalutacion.
Reſaluto, aui, are, to ſalute hym that ſaluteth you, to ſalute agayne.
Reſarcio, ſi, cire, to amende, to reſourme.
Reſarcire damna, to recompence damages, to make amendes.
Reſarrio, rui, re, to werde ekeloones corne.
Reſcindo, reſcidi, ſcindere, to cutte or breake in ſunder, to take awaie, to deſtroy, to aboliſh, to forbor, to make voyde or repell an acte or lawe, to breake vp, to breake downe, to launce.
Cœlum reſcindere fratres ter ſunt conati, thoſe the brethern aſſayed to breake vp heauen for to enter.
Terrã reſcindere, to eare the grounde againe.
Vulnere reſciſſo, when the wounde was launced or opened agayne.
Iudicata reſcindere, to reuoke or breake a ſentence or iudgement ones geuen.
Pactiones reſcindere, to breake or vndoe couenauntes that be made betwene men.
Voluntatem mortui reſcindere, to breake or forbode a mans teſtament or laſte will.
Reſcindere ſummum or vlceris, to launce.
Réſcio, ſciui, ſcire, to knowe a thynge, which is hidde and kepte ſecrete. Alſo to knowe a thyng after that it is doone, whiche was not howen before.
Reſciſco, ſcere, idem quod Reſcio.
Reſciſſus, a, um, forboone, broken downe, deſtroyed.
Reſcribo, ſcripſi, ſcribere, to write agayne, to write an aunſwere to a letter, to redelyuer, to repaie money.
Ad has literas ſtatim mihi reſcribe, ſee that ye write me an anſwere to theſe letters immediately.
Ad omnia quæ quæruntur reſcribere, to write an aunſwere to all that a man requireth in his letters.
Argentum iube rurſum reſcribi, bidde that my money be paied me agayne.
Reſcriptum, ti, n. g. the letters of a prince, maſtyng anſwere to other letters.
Réſeco, ſecui, care, to cut awaie that, whiche is ſuperfluous, to cutte from a place.
Reſecare ad viuum, to pare to the quicke, to touche the quicke in a matter, to diſcuſſe a matter perfectly.

Linguam reſecare, to cutte out ones tongue.
Reſecare vngues, to pare the nayles.
Reſecare capillos, to cluppe of the heare.
Réſecro, aui, are, to praie or deſyre eſteloones, to pray contrary to that he deſyred afore. alſo to aſſoyle one of his auowe.
Obſecro te reſecroq; I praie you, and praie you agayne.
Reſectus, a, um, cut of, pared.
Reſecatior, thorter.
Reſectio, ônis, f. g. a cuttyng of, a paryng.
Reſéda, dæ, f. g. an herbe.
Reſédo, aui, are, to appeaſe.
Reſémino, aui, are, to ſowe agayne.
Reſegmen, ſégminis, n. ge the paryng of a mans nayles, the paryng or that is cutte of any thynge.
Réſequor, reſéqueris, réſequi, to folowe.
His eſt reſequuta rogatum, thus the anſwered hym demaundyng the queſtion.
Reſerãtus, a, um, opened, vnlocked.
Réſero, aui, are, to open a thynge that is cloſed, to vnlocke.
Claudere & reſerare, contrarie.
Réſero, ſeui, réſatum, ſerere, to ſowe, ſette or plante agayne.
Reſeruátio, ônis, fœ. g. a reſeruation, a kepyng of ſome thynge apart from other, or for the tyme to come.
Reſeruo, aui, are, to kepe aparte from other thynges, to reſerue, to kepe for the tyme to come.
In congreſſum noſtrum reſeruabo, I wyll reſerue or kepe this vntyll we meet. together.
Quartam partem agri in pratum reſeruare, to kepe in ſeueraltee the fourthe parte of the fielde for medowe grounde.
Præſenti ſermoni reſeruentur cætera, let the other thynges be reſerued vntyll we talke toges ther.
Quæ me ad maiora reſeruo? for what greate ter enterpriſes do I kepe and reſerue my ſelfe?
Reſes, réſidis, omn. g. idell from accuſtomed labour or occupation, that moueth not, that ſtandeth ſtill, ſlouthfull.
Reſes aqua, ſtandyng water.
Reſes animus, a ſlouthfull and heauy mynde without courage or ſpirite.
Reſex, ſecis, the vine branche that is cutte, and ſpringeth agayne, and beareth more fruite then it did before. it is alſo called Cuſtos, and Præſidiarius palmes.
Reſídeo, reſídes, ſédi, ſidére, to reſte, to ſytte, to ſytte downe, to ſtande faſte, to be quiete, to remayne, to abyde.
Reſidet eius rei in te culpa, the faulte therof is in the, or reſteth in the.
Reſidere in clunes, to ſytte downe vpon the buttockes, as certayne beaſtes doe.
Si quid reſidet in te amoris erga me, if there remayne any loue in your herte towarde me.

Eius

Erat etiam in nutu residebat autoritas, there was a certayne authoritee euen in his becke.

Periculum tamen residebit, yet shall the perill and danger remayne still.

Quum iræ residissent, when the anger was assuaged, quieted or appeased.

Resident spes in virtute tua, we haue a certayne hope or confidence yet in your vertue.

Resideamus si placet, let vs sitte downe if it please you.

Ardor resederat, the heate was relented.

Resedit apud eum pecunia publica, he did not bestowe it to that purpose that he was appointed, but kept it to hym selfe.

Resident in vultu, there doeth reste or appere in thy vysage.

Resido, residis, sēdi, sidere, to sitte downe, also to abide, to light downe as birdes doe after their flight. sometyme to relent, to setle.

Nam Viennensium vitia inter ipsos residunt, nostra late vagantur, for the fautes of men of Vienne doe abide with thē, ours renne abrode, and be euery where knowen.

Réſidens, entis, sittyng down after he hath done a thyng.

Reſiduus, a, um, the rest or remnant, that is left.

De residuis teneri, to be in arrerage of money that one had to bestowe for some common vse.

Reſigno, aui, are, to open that whiche is sealed: sometyme to seale fast. also to shutte vp. sometyme to restore agayne. also to resigne or surrender, sometyme to abolisshe.

Reſignatum æs, wages stopped for negligent seruice in warres.

Reſigno, was vsed of olde writers for Reſcribo.

Reſignare literas, To open letters that be sealed.

Lumina morte resignat, id est, claudit.

Omnem tabularum fidem resignabat, it dyd put awaie cleane or abolisshe all the credite that might be geuen to those regestres: or made that no man coude surely beleue them.

Reſignare rationes, id est, dissoluere.

Reſilio, réſilis, reſilui, liui, or lij, lire, to leape backe or steppe awaye quickely.

Ab hoc crimen resilit, there is no blame to be laid to hym, no faute resteth in hym.

Réſimus, a, um, that hath a camoyse nose, that is to saye, turned vpwarde.

Reſina, æ, f. g. rosen, all like gumme, which renneth out of trees.

Reſinátius, a, um, lyke roseine.

Reſinátus, a, um, vsed or dressed with roseine, or gumme.

Reſinósus, a, um, full of roseine or gumme.

Reſipio, réſipis, pui, or piui, ere, to sauour or smell.

Reſipit picem, it sauoureth of pitche.

Reſipiſco, reſipui, reſipiſcere, to returne to perfecte vnderstandynge, to be eftesoones wise, where before he erred, to amende and come to hym selfe agayne.

Reſiſto, réſtiti, reſiſtere, to reſiste or withstand, to repugne, to be agaynst, to stande styll sodaynely, to stop as one doeth in goyng, to reste, to pause.

Reſiſtitur, the remedie is.

Sed ego in hoc reſiſto, but I reste and stop here in this matter.

Incipit effari, mediáque in voce reſiſtit, and sodaynely in the middes of his tale or woordes, he stopped.

Reſiſtens oratio, id est, interſiſtens, non perpetuo tenore fluens.

Reſiſtere dicitur venenatis fabulis herba aliqua, to be medicinable and of force agaynst it.

Reſiſtitur vuæ taminiæ ſucco, the iuice of the wylde grape is a good remedie or medecine agaynst it.

Legi reſiſtebatur, they withstode the lawe.

Reſoluo, ui, ere, to reſolue, to destroye, to paye debtes, to remoue, to vndoe, to vnlouse, to vnbynde.

Humum reſoluere, to labour the earthe.

In puluerem reſoluere, to make in pouder.

Reſoluunt nodos, they vndoe the knottes.

Fauces reſoluere in verba, to open his mouth to speake, to begyn to speake.

Litteras reſoluere, to open letters.

Nebulæ reſoluuntur à ſole, white cloudes be resolued with the heate of the sunne.

Mollire & reſoluere hominem, id est, effœminare.

Triſtitiam animi reſoluere, to put away heauinesse of the mynde.

Ciuitas reſoluit veſtes, vnbuckle or vndoe your clothes.

Reſoluere ex parte diuerſa dicta, To dissolue or shewe by argument, that they bee false.

Reſolutio neruorum, the palsey.

Reſolûtus, a, um, resolued, lewsed.

Réſonans, antis, sownyng agayne with an echo.

Reſono, ſónui, áre, to sowne agayne, to make an echo.

Réſonus, a, um, that sowneth agayne, that maketh an echo.

Reſorbeo, bui, or pſi, bêre, to sup vp agayne.

Reſpectio, onis, a lokyng backe.

Reſpecto, aui, are, to se often, to loue, to helpe, to loke backe.

Reſpectus, us, m. g. a lohe or sight. also respecte or regarde, a reasone that moueth a man to doe a thynge.

Nec eo reſpectu commotus diſceſſerat, hauyng no regarde therunto he departed, or he departed beyng nothyng moued therwith.

Miſerabilem reſpectum fore, that it would be a pitiouse sight.

Reſpergo, ſi, gere, to caste water or other licoure about, to sprinkle.

Reſpérgimen, inis, a sprinkelyng or castyng as bous about of lieoure.

Reſperſus, a, um, ſprinkled about, or ouer and ouer.

Reſperſus, us, m. g. & Reſperſio, onis, fœ. g. a ſprynkelyng.

Reſpicio, reſpicis, exi, ere, to loke backe, to haue regarde, to prouide, to remedie, to hope, to reſerue, to loue, to fauour, to helpe or ſuccour.

Age me in tuis ſecundis rebus reſpice, let ſee now in thy proſperitee, ſuccour me, or loke on me and helpe me.

Reſpicit nos deus, god hath pitie on vs, or god doeth fauour and loue vs.

Reſpicere ſe, to take heede or haue regarde of hym ſelfe.

Neq; te reſpicis, neyther doe ye paſſe any thing of your ſelfe, or ſet any ſtore by your ſelfe.

Non ſoles reſpicere te cum dicas iniuſtè alteri? art thou not wont to take hede of thy ſelf, or to haue regarde to thyne owne conſcience, whan thou ſaieſte wronge of an other man?

Non tu te cohibes? Non te reſpicis, non tibi exempli ſatis ſum? wylt thou not beware, wilt thou not take heede of thy ſelfe? am not I a good example vnto thee?

Inſtantem tergo Cloanthum reſpicit, he loketh backe and ſeeth Cloanthus purſue hym harde at the heeles.

Sero tellus reſpicitur, it is to late to loke backe to the lande.

Hunc ſummum imperium reſpiciebat, he had the chiefe rule and gouernance.

Si modo rempublicam reſpicere volet, if he will haue regarde to helpe the common weale.

Niſi quid dq; reſpiciunt, if god helpe not or except god ſende ſome prouiſion.

Sin Cæſarem reſpiciunt. &c. but if they haue regarde to Ceſar, and fauoure or helpe hym.

Reſpirámen, inis, n. ge. a breath, or a paſſage whereby the breath iſſueth.

Reſpirátio, ônis, fœm. ge. a breathyng, or vapourynge.

Reſpiratio aquarum, the breathyng when the water ſendeth out the vapourations.

Reſpiratio in oratione, the takyng of breath or pauſyng in ſpeakyng.

Reſpiro, aui, are, to take breath. alſo to take cõforte, to retourne to the firſt ſtate, to pauſe, to reſt alſo to ſende fourth a certaine fauoure.

Ciuitas reſpirat, when it riſeth out of aduerſitee, and cometh to the olde ſtate agayne.

Reſpiraro, ſi te videro, I ſhal take comforte, if I maie ſee you.

Reſpiraſſet cupiditas, thy couetouſneſſe would haue ben ſomewhat moderated or diminiſhed.

Reſplendeo, ſplendui, êre, to ſhine bryght, to be gorgiouſe.

Reſpondeo, di, êre, to anſwere, to appere when one is called, to agree, to accorde, to conſent or be lyke or equall, to be agaynſte, as one thynge ſet or lyng agaynſt an other.

Reſpondere criminibus, to purge vs of that is laied to our charge.

Reſpondere ad nomina, to appeare whan he is called.

Non reſpondere, to make defaute.

Reſpondere ad diem, To paie or ſatiſfie his creditour at the date.

Reſpondere ſuperiori, to accorde to that whiche was afore.

Reſpondere patri, to folowe his fathers conditions, to be lyke his father in maners.

Reſpondere, ſometyme dooeth ſignifie ſatisfacere.

Hoc proprium tuum munus eſt, vt ira erudiatur, vt & patri & Scipioni noſtro, & ubitam propinquo reſpondeat, it is your parte ſpecially, that he be ſo brought vp in lernyng, that he maie ſatiſfie his father, and our friend Scipio, and you that are ſo nigh kynneſman vnto him.

Ad interrogata reſpondere, to make anſwere to thoſe thynges that be demaunded.

Reſpondet frumentum ad pondus & menſuram, it is euen weight or meaſure.

Ad normam reſpondere, to be euen with the rule.

Ad ſeptimã reſpondet, it accordeth or agreeth with the ſeuenth.

Haud quaq; ad ſpem euentus reſpondebat, it came not to paſſe, as he hoped and truſted that it woulde.

Qui veſtris paucorum reſpondeat laudibus, id eſt, æquet veſtras laudes,

Fauor non reſpondet meritis, he is not fauoured ſo muche as he hath deſerued.

Voto tuo reſpondere poſſum, I can doe that that you deſyre.

Si bonitas tua reſponderit iudicio meo, if your goodneſſe be ſuche as I eſteeme or iudge it to be.

Amore, or in amore reſpondere alicui, To loue mutually, to loue one as muche as he loueth vs.

Nobilitati maiorum reſpondere, to be like his forefathers in nobleneſſe.

Aedificare porticum quæ palatio reſpõdeat, whiche maie be ouer right againſt the palaice.

Quam breuia reſponſa, how ſhortly they maie be anſwered to.

Reſpónſio, ônis, f. g. an anſwere.

Reſpónſito, aui, are, to make or geue anſweres perteyned properly to lawiers, and them, which had the interpretation of ceremonies.

Reſponſo, aui, are, to anſwere, ſometyme to reſiſte, to gayneſaie.

Gallina dura male reſponſat palato, id eſt, non ſapit, non conuenit palato, is not pleaſante in eatynge.

Reſponſor, ôris, m. ge. a ſuertee, he that promiſeth or vndertaketh for an other.

Reſponſum, ſi, n. g. an anſwere. alſo an oracle.

Dare

Dare responsum, to make an answere.
Responsus, us, m. g. where one thynge doeth agree with an other, a consent, a conuenience.
Respuo, spui, ere, to refuse or reiect contemptuously.
Respuit hoc sapientissimi cuiusq; fides, there is no wyse man wyll beleue it.
Respuere imperium, to refuse to obey hym or be in subiection.
Respuit hoc ferri ictum, one coude not enter into it with yron, it coulde not be perced or hurte with yron.
Auribus hominem respuere, to be vnwillyng to here hym speake.
Respuere aliquid dicuntur aures, when men can not abyde to here it.
Conditionem non respuit, he doeth not refuse the offer.
Respuere secures dicitur lignum, that can not be cutte.
Tergus omne respuens vulnus, a backe so harde, that it can not bee cut nor hurte with any weapon.
Restagnátio, ônis, f. g. an ouerflowyng.
Restagno, aui, are, to renne ouer, to let the water renne out, to ouerflowe.
Restat, restare, to be or remayne of that thynge that is lefte, to stande backe, to resiste.
Hoc me restat, that abideth or remayneth for me.
Restauro, aui, are, to restore or make agayne, to repayre, to renewe.
Restaurátus, a, um, repayred, newe made.
Restibilis, le, that whiche is renewed, or sowen agayne.
Restibilis fœcunditas, when the female beareth euery yere.
Restibilis ager, a fielde whiche is sowen two yeres together.
Seges restibilis, corne that ryseth of the seede that was caste into the grounde the yere before without any other sowyng.
Vinetum restibile, a vine yarde that is delued euery yere.
Resticula, læ, f. g. a small corde.
Restinctio, ônis, fœ. g. a quenchyng or puttynge out.
Restinctus, a, um, quenched, put out, stinted, appeased.
Restinctum bellum, when there is no more mencion of warre.
Restingo, xi, guere, to stinte or putte out, to quenche, to cease, as fyre, light, and thirst, to qualifie, to appeale.
Cupiditatum ardore restincto, cleane put out, quenched.
Flammam restinguere, to put out the flame, and by translation, to quiete or stinte a troublous commocion or rustynge in the common weale.
Sermones restinguere, to cause the communicacion and talke of men to ceasse.
Restinguere incensum, to appease or qualifie one that is incensed against vs, or greatly moued with vs.
Studia aliorum restinguere, to be cause that other wyll study no more.
Sitim restinguere, to quenche thirste.
Réstio, ônis, m. g. a roper. also he that hangeth hym selfe.
Restio, stiui, stire, to be ready to bee sowen, plowghed, or digged.
Restipulátio, ônis, f. g. a putting in of pledges.
Restipulor, aris, ari, to make answere in the law, to late in a pledge or gage, to make answere to an action taken against hym.
Restis, is, f. g. a halter or corde, a rope or bunche of garlphe or opnions.
Restem ducere, when maydens and children daunce together hande in hande, or with napkyns, leadyng one an other.
Ad restim res redit, the mattier is in dispayre or desperate.
Réstito, aui, are, to stagger, to stoppe often, to drawe backe, to struggle agaynste.
Restituo, stitui, túere, to restore, to helde againe, to repaire or make agayne.
In integrum restituere, to restore it vnto his first estate.
Pugnam restituere, to begynne or renewe the battayle agayne afresshe.
Reipublicæ restitui, to be remitted to the same state that he was in before his banishment.
Tu rem impeditam & perditam restituas? canste thou restore a mattier intricate and paste cure or hope of recouerie.
Restituere aciem, to fyll vp the armie and set it in array agayne.
Restituere animum alicui, to make courageous agayne.
Fraudata restituere, to restore agayne that we haue deceiued men of.
Restituam te in gaudium, I wyll make the ioyous and glad againe.
In gratiam restituere, to bryngе in fauoure agayne.
Sanitatem restituere, and sanitati aliquem restituere, to restore to helth, to make one whole.
Corruptum adolescentem restituere, to reformе and bryngе to good facion agayne.
Domum restituere, to repayre the house.
Restitui sibi dicuntur vina, whiche were ones turned, and are come to theyr olde taste agayne.
Restitue in quem me accepisti locum, restore or set me agayne in the same place or state that thou foundest me.
Fores effregit? restituentur, did he breake open the doore? it shall bee repaired and made newe agayne.
Restitútor, ôris, m. g. he that restoreth.
Restitútio, ônis, f. g. restitucion.
Restitutórius, a, um, that pertaineth to restoring.

Resto,

Reſto, réſtiti, ſtare, to remayne, to tary, to abyde, to ſtande ſtyll, ſometyme to withſtande, to ſtryue agaynſt, to ſtruggle.

Hic nunc me credit aliquam ſibi fallaciam portare, & ea me hic reſtituiſſe grauia, he thinketh that I goe about to begyle hym: and that I haue tarped here for that verye cauſe.

Stoici reſtant, the ſtoiche philoſophiers doe reſiſte theyr opinion.

Reſtat mihi, it tarieth for me, it ſhall happen vnto me.

Longa ſunt quæ reſtant, the thynges be longe that remayne and be not yet tolde.

De viginti reſtabam ſolus, of .xx. I onely remayned.

Quid reſtat, niſi. &c. what remayneth, but that. &c.

Ad Catilinam recipiendum Romæ reſtiterunt, they abode ſtill at Rome, to receyue Catilyne.

In qua re nunc tam confidenter reſtas ſtulte? in what thynge doeſt thou now withſtande me, or ſtryue or ſtruggle agaynſt me ſo boldely or ſo malaperkly thou foolyſhe felowe?

Reſtricte, or reſtrictim, ſtreictely or ſtreicte.

Reſtrictus, a, um, ſtreicte or harde bounde. alſo couetous, niggiſhe, that will not departe with a penie.

Reſtringo, ſtrinxi, ſtringere, to binde or ſtreigne harde, to bynde harde agayne, to reſtreigne. ſometyme it ſignifieth to lewſe or vnbynde.

Apulei. Iumentum reſtrinxit, abreigh ſtabulo liberum ſinit, he lewſed his horſe, and let hym out at libertee.

Reſtringit nauſeam, it puteth awaye the deſyre to vomite, it ſtoppeth vomite.

Reſulto, aui, are, to leape agaynſt a thyng, to reſbounde, to rebell, to leape or ſteppe backe, to hoppe.

Reſumo, pſi, ere, to take agayne, to reſume.

Reſuo, réſui, ere, to ſowe agayne or make a double ſtitche. alſo to rippe or vndoe that whiche is ſowed, to vnſtitche.

Sumenti virilem togam, tunica lati claui reſuta ex vtraq; parte, ad pedes decidit, when he came firſte to mannes age, his ſenatours coate beynge ripte on both ſydes, fell downe to his feete.

Reſupino, aui, are, to turne vpwarde or vpright, to reuoke or call backe, to deſerre, to peruerte.

Reſupinare collum, to holde vp the necke, as chekyns and other birdes doe when they drynke.

Reſupinus, a, um, vpright, the bealy vpwarde.

Reſupinâtus, a, um, turned or rolled vp agayne.

Reſurgo, ſurrexi, gere, to ryſe vp agayne.

Reſurgere dicitur herba, quæ iterum creſcit, to growe or ſpryng agayne.

Reſurrectio, ônis, ſ. g. reſurrection, riſyng vp agayne.

Reſuſcito, aui, are, to reyſe vp agayne.

Retæ, trees growyng on the banke of riuers, or in the riuers.

Retalio, aui, are, to acquite.

Retardátio, ônis, ſ. g. a taryng, a hinderyng.

Retardátus, a, um, taried, hindered.

Retardo, aui, are, to make to tarie, to ſtoppe, to holde that one go not.

Iter retardare, to let one that is goyng on his iourney.

Quem niſi in via caducæ hereditates retardeſſent volaſſe eũ, non iter feciſſe diceres, whõ if the inheritance fallen by eſchete to the lorde had not hindred by the waye, ye woulde haue ſaid he had flowen and not haue gone.

Retaxo, aui, are, to blame or checke one agayne, that telleth vs of our faute.

Rete, tis, n. g. a nette.

Retis, in the maſ. and fœ. g. is ſometyme redde.

Retego, texi, gere, to diſcouer or diſcloſe, to open.

Retectus, a, um, vncouered.

Retendo, tendi, tendere, to vnbende.

Retento, aui, are, of Re and tento, to aſſaie and goe about agayne, to attempt eftſoones.

Retentio, ônis, ſ. g. a holdyng, a retcinyng.

Retento, aui, ere, the frequentatiue of Reuneo, to retayne often, to holde backe.

Retentus, a, um, holden backe, reteined, taried.

Retexo, texui, ere, to vnweiſte, or vntwine, to vnwynde. ſometyme to twiſte or wynde eftſoones, to diſſolue, to vndoe that is once doone.

Penelopes telam retexere, to doe and vndoe.

Non poteſt niſi retexueris illa, he maie not, excepte thou change his purpoſe therin.

Se ipſum retexere, to change or alter his facis on other wiſe.

Retexere orationem, to chaunge and make it ſeeme otherwyſe, then it was before, or to beginne it afreſhe.

Retiáculum, li, n. g. a litteli nette.

Retia, æ, fœ. ge. was vſed of olde writers for a nette.

Retiárius, rij, m. g. he that caſteth a nette, prouyded in fightynge to apprehende his aduerſarie.

Reticéntia, æ, f. g. ſilence when one holdeth his peace, properly when one wittyngly not that he ſhuld tell.

Reticeo, rétices, cui, cère, to holde ones peace, to ſpeake no worde, to kepe ſecrete, to ſay nothynge.

Ne retice, tell me, hyde it not from me.

Reticula, læ, f. g. a litteli nette, wherein a mans or womans heare is truſſed.

Reticulâtus, a, um, made lyke a nette.

Feneſtræ reticulatæ, wyndowes hauyng as it were fyne nettes made before them to kepe out flies and ſuche vermine.

Reticulum, li, n. g. a copſe or call, whiche men or women vſed to weare on theyr heades, or on theyr faces, to the ende they ſhulde not be knowen. alſo a bagge, wherein meate is caried.

alſo

also a rakel to plaie at tennise with.
Reticulus, li, a litteil nette or calle.
Retináculum, li, n. ge. what so euer holdeth any other thyng, a staie, an holdefast.
Retineo, rétines, nui, nére, to holde agayne, to holde backe, to retayne, to kepe in remébrance, to holde vp that a man falle not.
Ah reune me obsecro. B. Obsecro quid tibi est? An. Disperij. B. Perij misera, quid stupes Antiphila? O holde me vp I praie the, B. Backe what aileth the? B. I am vndoone. B. Alas that euer I was borne, why dooeth thy herte faple the Antiphila?
Retinere, to restreigne or lette one from doyng that that he wolde.
Pudore & liberalitate liberos retinere satius esse credo quàm metu, I thynke it better to restreigne children from their wanton willes by shame and liberalitee, than with feare.
Si ius suum retinet, if he mainteine his title.
In officio retinere, To entertayne men to be euer redie to doe their duities, to kepe men still in obedience.
Inuidiam suam apud improbos retinere, To be alwaies hated of vnthrifty persons.
Iudicem retinere aliquem, to receyue one for a iudge.
Iudicium suum retinere, To persieuere in his opinion.
Iusticiam retinere, to mainteine Iustice.
Memoria retinere, to remembre.
Modum retinere, to kepe a measure.
Morbo retineri, to be sicke.
Morem retinere, to kepe alway one custome.
Nummos retinere, to kepe backe money whis the ought to be paied.
Officium retinere, to dooe well his duitie.
Sinistra manu retinebat arcum, id est, tenebat.
Existimationem retinere, to kepe still his estimacion.
Gratiam alicuius retinere, to be still in ones fauour.
Tempestatibus retineri, to be let with tempest that he can not departe.
Retinent tamen charitatem in pastores, yet they alwayes loue theyr kepers.
Custodiis retineri, to be kept in prison.
In sermone longo aliquem retinere, to holde or kepe one with a long talke or proceise.
Veritatem retinere, to be alwaies true.
Réuens, entis, om. g. that kepeth stil.
Retingo, tingere, to dippe in agayne.
Retiolum, a caule or copke.
Retondeo, tondi, dére, to clip or sheare all ouer.
Rétono, tónui, áre, to make a great sowne or noyse agaynste.
Retorqueo, torsi, ére, to caste backewarde, to throwe or shote agayne, to tourne backe againe violently.
Retorqueri sub terra, to be tourned backe, and put into the grounde.
Retorquere telam, to vntwyst yarne.
Oculos ad vrbem retorquere, To turne his heade and loke backe towarde the citie.
Retorquere aliquem, to turne one from his purpose.
Retorresco, retorrescere, to be burned with the sunne.
Retorridé, as it were burned with the sunne.
Retórridus, a, um, burned, seared or parched with the feruent heate of the sunne.
Retortus, a, um, turned or wrested backe.
Retostus, a, um, burned, rosted to muche.
Retracto, aui, are, to call backe, to reuoke a thing that is done, to drawe backe, or excuse, to laye to an other man, to drawe vp, to vnsaye that one hath saied, to handle agayne, to speake a gayne of a thyng, to repete, to write agayne.
Retracta e librum, to peruse & ouersee a boke agayne, or to write it a newe, to the intent to amende and correcte thinges that be in it.
Pedamenta retractare, to take vp stakes and forkes out of the grounde agayne, that were set vnder the vine the yere before, to the intent to newe dresse them, and caste those awaye that be rotten.
Augemus dolorem retractando, we increase our sorowe with communyng and talkyng of it agayne.
Vulnera cruda retractare, to handle greene woundes often.
Retractare dicta, to vnsaie that he hath once spoken.
Mecum sæpe retractans, reuolupng the matter often in my mynde.
Retractare aliquid, to repete that whiche is spoken.
Retractare largitiones, to cease from liberall geuyng.
Retractare actionem, To begyn his action a newe.
Retractans, antis, om. gen. that will not be led forward, that staggereth and draweth backe.
Retractatio, ónis, fœ. g. a retractacion, a reuokyng of ones opinion.
Retractátus, a, um, retracted, corrected, amended, full of blottes with correctyng and amendyng in writyng.
Retractus, a, um, drawen backe agayne, taken and brought home againe after one hath ronne awaie. also farre of, farre distant.
Rétraho, traxi, trahere, to pull or drawe backe, or to drawe to.
Retraham hercle ad me illud fugitiuum argentum tamen, in feith I trowe I will pet for all this pull backe to me agayne that slipper money, that wolde so fayne begone.
Retrahere aliquem à republica, to withdrawe one from the affaires or businesse of the cómon weale: or to perswade hym that he dwe not busie him selfe in matters of the common weale.

Retrahere ſe, to ceaſſe and leaue of from doyng any thyng.
Retractans, antis, om. g. idem quod retractans.
Retribuo, tribui, buere, to recompence, to rendre or geue agayne.
Retrica, cæ, fœ. g. olde writers called the water, wherwith gardeins are watered.
Retrimentum, ti, n. ge. the dregges of a thyng, ſometyme ordeur or dounge.
Retrò, behynde.
Eſt mihi retrò vltimis in ædibus conclaue, I haue a certain parlour behynde, or on the backe ſyde in the furthermoſt parte of all my houſe.
Retro vocare, to call backe.
Retrò ambulare, to go backe.
Retrò, ſometyme for Contra, or econuerſo.
Retro, for Ante.
Quum te ſemper vltra omnes retro principes laudari oportuit, aboue all that haue bene in tyme paſte, or before you.
Tam longe retro, ſo farre backewarde.
Retróago, egi, agere, to dryue backe.
Capillos retroagere, to caſte the heare backe.
Ordinem retroagere, To take that firſt that ſhoulde be laſt.
Retrocédo, ceſsi, ere, to go backe, to geue backe, to retyre.
Retróeo, iui, ire, to go backe.
Retrófero, retrótuli, ferre, to bryng backe agayne.
Retroferre ſe, to retourne backe agayne.
Retrogradior, graderis, gradi, idem quod retroceo.
Retrógradus, a, um, that goeth backewarde.
Retrorſum vel Retrorſus, backewarde.
Retrorſus, a, um, turned backewarde.
Retrûdo, ſi, dere, to put or thruſt backe.
Retundo, retudi, ere, to make blunt or dull that whiche is sharpe, to turne the edge of a thynge. alſo to beate often on a thyng.
Mucronem ſtyli retundere, to moderate the ſtyle in writyng, that it be not ſo vehement.
Improbitatem alicuius retundere, id eſt, reprimere.
Linguam & ſermones quorundam retûdere, to ſtop or ceaſe the naughtie wordes or yll reportes of certeyne men, or to confound them.
Retûſus, a, um, dull, blunt, contrary to sharpe.
Aliæ agrorum partes, quæ acuta ingenia gignant, aliæ quæ retuſa, ſome partes of countreyes there be, whiche doe bryng forth sharpe wittes, ſome bryng foorth dull.
Reualeſco, ſcere, to be recouered from ſickeneſſe, to ware whole.
Reuaneſco, ſcere, to vaniſſhe away agayne.
Réuecho, uexi, uehere, to bryng or carie backe or agayne.
Reuelátio, ônis, f. gen. a reueilyng or diſcloſyng of a thyng.
Reuello, uelli, and reuulſi, reuellere, to plucke backe, to pull agayne, to plucke vp, to pull away cleane.
Ventus clauum reuulſit, the wynde plucked the ſterne cleane awaie.
Reuellere tela de corpore, to plucke the dartes out of his bodie.
Reuellere omni memoria, to pull cleane out of memorie, to leaue no remembrance of a thyng at all.
Reuelâtus, a, um, diſcouered, opened, reueiled.
Reuêlo, aui, are, to diſcouer, to open, to reueile.
Reuénio, réuenis, uéni, ire, to come agayne, to retourne.
Reuenire in gratiã, to come into fauour again.
Reuera, matter in deede, or for a truthe.
Reuérbero, aui, are, to beate or ſtrike backe as gayne.
Reuerendus, a, um, worthy reuerence or honoure.
Réuerens, entior, tiſsimus, he that doeth reuerence or honour.
Reuerenter, reuerently.
Reuerêntia, æ, f. ge. reuerence or honour doone to one. ſometyme a reuerend feare.
Reuéreor, réris, réri, to haue in reuerence, to feare.
Reuérſio, ônis, fœm. g. a returnyng, a comyng backe agayne.
Reuerto, uerti, ere, is often vſed of Cicero, but onely in the preterperfect tenſe, or other tenſes fourmed of the ſame, to retourne, to come agayne.
Multa aduerſa reuertens, id eſt, reuoluens, reputans apud ſe, conſyderyng with him ſelfe, reuolupng in his mynde.
Legati Ameriam reuerterunt, the ambaſſadours returned to Ameria.
Reuertor, eris, ti, to returne, to come agayne to a place or thyng.
Ad Chryſippi laqueos reuertamur, let vs now retourne to the ſubtile and intricate argumentes of Chryſippus and ſpeake of them.
In gratiam cum aliquo reuerti, to come in fauour agayne with one.
Ad diem reuerti, to returne agayne at the daie appoynted.
Reuincio, uinxi, cire, to bynde backe or behynd, as to bynde ones handes behynde hym. alſo to bynde ſtreict or harde.
Reuinco, uici, uincere, to conuince, to confute.
Reuincere paratus eſt, which the lawiers doe ſay, Paratus eſt verificare, he is redie to auerre.
Reuincere crimen verbis, to confute a thynge that is laied to our charge with woordes.
Reuinci in culpa, to be proued fautie.
Reuiréſco, rui, ſcere, to become eftſoones grene, to ware grene againe. by tranſlacion to reuiue, to be renewed, to ſpryng newe agayne, to ware yong agayne.
Reuiſito, aui, are, to viſete agayne, to go to ſe as gayne.
Reuiſo, uiſi, ſere, to retourne to ſee.

Reuiſo

Reuiſo quid agant, I come to ſee what they doo.

Reuiſe ad me, come agayne to me and ſee.

Furor reuiſit, id eſt, redit.

Reuiuiſco, uixi, ſcere, to be reuiued, to recouer life agayne, by tranſlation, to be renewed and come to the olde ſtate agayne.

Reunctor, ôris, m. ge. a ſeruaunt or miniſter of a ſurgian or phiſition, whiche anoynted them that for theyr health vſed wreſtlyng and ſuche other exercyſes.

Reuocátio, ónis, fæ. g. a reuocation or callynge backe.

Reuocátus, a, um, reuoked or called backe, reſtored from death to lyfe.

Réuoco, aui, are, to call backe, to reuoke, to bring agayne, to drawe backe, to reyſe from death, to tourne from an enterpryſe or purpoſe.

Reuocare pedem, to tourne backe, to recule.

Ad quæ exempla reuocas? what exãples putteſt thou me for thy defence?

Ad manus rem reuocare, to bryngе the matter to that poynct that men will fyght for it, or trie it by dent of ſwoorde.

Reuocare, to reſtore, to renewe.

Item, circa omnium ordinum ſtatum domi foriſque, aut correxit, aut exoleta reuocauit, aut etiam noua inſtituit, more ouer, cõcernyng the ſtate of all degrees, as well within his houſe as without, eyther he dyd amende theim, or renewe thoſe thynges that were out of vſe, or elles ordeyned newe.

Reuocare promiſſum, to denie that he promiſed, to reuoke his promyſe.

Reuocare teſtes, to reherſe the depoſitions of wytneſſes.

Reuocare ad curam, to dwe a thing with much diligence.

Rem ad ſortem reuocare, to caſte lottes for a thynge.

In lucem reuocare, to bryngе agayne in vſe, to bryngе to lyght agayne, to bryng to knowlage of men agayne.

Morem reuocare, to renewe or bryng vp a cuſtome or faction agayne.

Defunctos reuocare, to reiſe men from death to lyfe.

An me ad M. Antonij frumenti æſtimationem reuocaturus es? wyll ye late that I dyd folow Antonie, or dyd any thyng lyke to Antonie in prayſyng of grayne?

Non reuoco ad arbitrium meum, I dooe not deſyre to haue the thyng ordeyned or determined after my pleaſure.

Ab incœpto vel ab inſtituto reuocare, To turne one from his purpoſe, to perſwade him to leaue of an enterpryſe that he hath begun.

Reuocare gradum, to retourne.

Ab inferis, vel a morte reuocare, to reyſe one from death to lyfe, to reſtore one to lyfe.

Ex itinere reuocare, to call one backe that is goyng in his iourney.

Libertatem reuocare, To reſtore libertee agayne.

Ad mediocritatem reuocare modum alicuius rei, to kepe a meane in a thyng.

Reuocarem animos veſtros ad Mithridatici belli memoriam, I wolde reduce or bryng into your remembraunce agayne the warre againſt Mithridates.

Reuocant ſe rurſum ad mœſtitiam, they bryng theym ſelfe agayne to heauineſſe or ſadneſſe.

Omnia ad potentiam ſuam reuocantis eſt ſententia, it is the opinion of hym, that wold haue nothyng at all dooen and ordeyned, but by his owne power and authoritee.

Ad rationem operum reuocare, To require accoumpte. &c.

Se reuocare, to chaunge his opinion, to vnſaie that he ſaied.

Ab opere aliquem reuocare, To make one leaue of his woorke.

A ſcelere reuocare, to tourne one from doyng a miſchieuous acte.

Ad vitam reuocare, to reſtore or bryngе one to lyfe agayne.

Reuocábilis, le, that maie be reuoked or called agayne.

Reuocâmen, minis, n. g. idẽ quod Reuocatio.

Réuolo, aui, are, to flee backe, to flee agayne.

Reuolant ex æquore, They flee out of the ſea agayne.

Reuolúbilis, le, that maie be reuolued and furned agayne.

Reuóluo, ui, uere, to tourne vp and downe, to reuolue, to tourne backe, to remoue, to tumble agayne.

Reuolui retrò, to bee tumbled backe agayne.

Reuolui ad ſententiã alicuius, to come or condeſcende at length to ones opinion.

Victoria ad irritum reuoluebatur, the victorie was in vayne, and came at lengthe to none effecte.

Reuolui in eandem vitam, to bee fallen again into the ſame kynde of lyfe that he was before.

Vulnus reuoluere, to wrappe or bynde vp the wounde agayne.

Reuolueris eodem, thou art come to the ſame purpoſe agayne: or thou ſpeakeſt nowe of the ſame matter, that thou ſpakeſt of before.

Reuoluor identidem in Tuſculanum, I reſturne often to my place at Tuſculum.

Reuoluere librum, to peruſe and ouer reade a booke agayne.

Reuolútio, ónis, a turnyngе backe to the fyrſte place or poynct, a reuolucion or turnyng of celeſtiall bodies or ſpheres.

Reuolútus, a, um, tourned backe, remoued, opened, vncouered.

Réuomo, mui, mere, to parbrake vp agayne.

Reuorto, tere, olde writers vſed for Reuertor, to retourne.

Reus, rei, maſ. ge. he that is ſued or accuſed, the perſone arreined. ſometyme he that is guilty. ſometyme a ſuretie, or he that hath vndertaken for a man.

Reus facti, guilty of an offence.

Reus agitur, he is ſued or accuſed.

Reus peragitur, he is condemned.

Reus ſtipulando, he that bargapneth.

Reus voti, he that hath auowed.

Reus de vi, accuſed of breakyng the peace.

Reum ſubdere, To accuſe one of a greatte offence.

Petitor & Reus, contrary.

Reus ſatis dandi, he that is bounde to bryng in ſureties to vndertake for hym.

Reus ſatis accipiendi, he that hath taken ſureties of a man for his debte.

Promittendi reus, he that hath made promiſe for an other man.

Facere aliquem reum, to accuſe one.

Reus auaritiæ, accuſed of couetouſeneſſe.

Reus alienæ culpæ, accuſed for an other mans faute.

Reum fieri, to bee accuſed, or haue ſomewhat laied to his charge. alſo to become ſuretie for an other mans debte.

Rex, regis, m. ge. a kynge. alſo a lorde, a great ryche man.

Rex ſacrificulus, was a chiefe miniſter of ſacrifices amonge the Romaynes onely.

Reges ærarij, they that had the keppng of the commun treaſure.

RHa, a ryuer of Sarmatia, called alſo Volga, or Voltia.

Rhabarbarum, or Ponticum, Rubarbe, a pꝛecious roote, medicinable to purge coler. alſo to coꝛroboꝛate and ſtrengthe the ſtomache and inner.

Rhacoma, mæ, fœm. g. an herbe, whiche Ruellius ſuppoſeth to bee that, which is called Rha Ponticum.

Rhadamanthus, a kynge of Lycia, whiche was a ſtricte executer of Juſtice, and therfoꝛe was ſuppoſed of the paynims, to bee afterwarde one of the iudges in hell.

Rhagades, & Rhagadia, neu. g. plur. certayne clefftes in ſome partes of the body.

Rhagion, gij, neu. gen. a ſpider, hauyng a littell blacke heade, and is ſomewhat white, and hath moꝛe feete, whoſe bityng is venomous, as the ſtyngyng of a ſcoꝛpion.

Rhagoides, the nether chynne of the eie.

Rhaguſium, a citee in Dalmatia.

Rhaia, lake Raia.

Rhamnes, & Rhamnetes, certayne gentyll men of Rome.

Rhamnus, nuntis, a famous village in the counſtrey of Athens.

Rhamnus, ni, m. g. a kynde of bꝛembles, which is white, and beareth moꝛe fruite than other doo. and alſo hath floures, and ſendeth fꝛothe bꝛaunches with ſtreyght pꝛickes, not crooked as other are, and hath bꝛode leaues, of this be diuers kindes.

Rhamnuſia, was called the goddeſſe of vengeance.

Rhamnuſis, ſidis, of Rhamnuſia.

Rhamnuſius, a, um, a man of the towne called Rhamnus by Athens.

Rhamponticum, the herbe and roote called the moꝛe and great Centoꝛie: it is named of Pontus (as Ruellius writeth) Rhacoma.

Rhamſinitus, the name of a certayne kynge of Egypte, as Herodotus writeth.

Rhaphanoſagria, a kynd of wylde radyſche.

Rhaphanus, an herbe called radyſche.

Rhaphia, a citee of Paleſtine, called of the Jewes Rhama.

Rhaphius, phij, m. gene. a certayne beaſt lyke a woulfe, and ſpotted lyke a leoparde.

Rhaphis, idem quod Napus.

Rhapſodi, the reherſers and interpꝛetoꝛs of Homers verſes.

Rhea, the mother of goddes, called alſo Cybele.

Rhea Syluia, the mother of Romulus and Remus, called alſo Ilia.

Rhebanus, a ryuer in the mouthe of Boſphorus, a counſtrey in Thracia.

Rhebas, an other ryuer there.

Rheda, dæ, f. g. a chariotte.

Rhedarius, rij, m. g. a chariotte man.

Rhedones, the citee of Reynes in Fraunce.

Rhegium, a citee in the boꝛders of Italie toward Sicile. alſo an other citee not farre fꝛō Parma.

Rheginus, a man of the citee Rhegium in Calabꝛe.

Rheginus, a, um, of Rhegium.

Rhemi, people in Fraunce, called alſo Rhemenſes.

Rhenæ, one of the iles called Cyclades.

Rheni, ôrum, people dwellyng by Rheyne.

Rhenenſes, people dwellyng on the ryuer of Rheyne.

Rhenenſe vinum, rheniſhe wyne.

Rheno, ônis, ma. ge. a coate made of a beaſtes ſkynne.

Rhenus, a noble ryuer of Germania, called the Rheyne.

Rheon, Reubarbe.

Rheſus, a kynge of Thracia, whiche came to the ayde of the Troians, and was ſlayne of Diomedes, of whom a ryuer about Troie was called Rheſus.

Rheti, a people in Italie nere the Alpes.

Rhetia, a counſtreye in Germanye, haunyng on the weſte the Heluetians: on the Northe it marcheth vpon Danubius: on the eaſte vpon the ryuer called Lycus: on the ſouthe it lieth vpon the mountaines called Alpes.

Rhe-

Rhetico, onis, m. ge. a certayne mountayne by Rhetia.

Rhéticus, a, um, of Rhetia.

Rhetor, óris, m. g. he that teacheth Rhetozyke.

Rhetórice, ces, oz Rhetórica, cæ, f. g. Rhetozyke, oz the crafte of eloquence.

Rhetórica, órum, the exercise oz feates of Rhetozyke.

Rhetoricè, lyke a Rhetozician.

Rhetóricor, àris, ari, to speake lyke a Rhetozician.

Rhetoricoteros, a better Rhetozician.

Rhetóricus, ca, cum, of Rhetozike.

Rhetórici, órum, bookes that teache Rhetozyke.

Retoriſſo, aui, are, to speake in the fourme of Rhetozyke.

Rheus, a grant, whom Dionise beynge tourned into a lyon, slewe.

Rheuma, rheumatis, n. g. a reume oz distillacion of humours.

Reumatiſmus, mi, m. g. the disease of the reume,

Rheumaticus, a, um, that hath the reume.

Rhexeta, the seconde hynde of Ancuſa.

Rhexenor, the soonne of Mauliſthous.

Rhibis, a bramble called Raſpis.

Rhibes, reasons of the coran tree.

Rhinoceros, rótis, m. g. a beaste that hath an hoyne in his nose, whiche naturally is ennemie to the elephant: it is also an oyle vessell, out of the whiche oyle is dzopped.

Rhinocerotis naſum habere, is saied of them that be wittie.

Iuuenes q, ſenes q, Et pueri naſum Rhinocerotis habent, younge men, olde men, and children, and all be wittie.

Rhinochiſia, æ, f. g. a certayne herbe.

Rhion, a promontoyre of Ætolia.

Rhithaces, a thynge that bees dooe make.

Rhipſaſpis, he that is fearefull, a cowarde, one that had rather renne awaye than fyght.

Rhirimna, a citee of Crete, called commonly Retrima.

Rhizias, a iuice cumminge out of the roote of Laſerpitium.

Rhoa, malus punica.

Rhodanus, a riuer in Fraunce called the Rone.

Rhodia, a hynde of vines. also a certayne nymphe.

Rhodia, a roote that groweth in Macedonie, hauyng the sauour of a rose. looke moze in Fuchſius, & in Geſnere, de catalogo plantarũ, where he correcteth Fuchſius in certaine poinctes.

Rhódinus, a, um, of Rhodes.

Rhódinum oleum, oyle made of roses.

Rhodites, tis, m. g. a certayne precious stone, of the colour of a rose.

Rhodius, a, um, of the Rhodes.

Rhodogune, the daughter of hynge Darius, whiche kylled hir nurse foz persuadyng hir to marie after hir fyrst husbandes death.

Rhododaphne, & Rododendros, a tree hauing leaues lyke to an almonde tree, but greatter, & fatte seedes, open lyke an hoyne, whiche hath in theym woulle lyke purple silke, a longe roote, salte in taste, it groweth in watrie places, commonly called Oleander.

Rhodoméli, honny and the iuice of roses boyled together, called commonly Mel roſatum.

Rhodon, a rose.

Rhodónia, æ, f. g. a gardeyne of roses.

Rhodophone, that parte of Syria, that goeth ouer the mountaine of Taurus.

Rhodope, a mountayne in Thracia.

Rhodopeius, a, um, pertaynyng to that mountayne of Rhodope, oz of Thrace.

Rhodopis, a famous harlotte of Thrace, of excellent beautie, and wonderfull ryche.

Rhodóra, ræ, f. g. an herbe, whiche hath a stalke with knottes and ioinctes, and a leafe lyke a nettle, white in the middes, and in continuance wareth all redde.

Rhodos, a famous ile in the sea called Carpathium, lyeng beyond Cãdy, hauynge on the north the countrey called Lycia: on the southe Egypte. In this ile were borne many excellent philosophiers and Rhetozicians: it was someteyme puissant and ryche.

Rhodoſtacti, idem quod Rhodomeli, all be it some doze put a difference betwene them, saiynge, that Rhodomeli hath thzee partes of the iuyce of roses, and one parte of honny: and that Rhodoſtacti hath two partes of the iuyce, and one of honny.

Rhœas, whan the cozners of the eies are open, so that there dooeth styll from theym continuall dzoppes.

Rhœteus, & Rhœteius, foz Troianus.

Rhœtus, a mountayne of Troie, where Iay Thelamonius was buried.

Rhoiton, ti, n. g. wyne made of pome granates.

Rhombus, bi, m. g. a figure foure square, hauynge the sydes equall, the cozners crooked. It is also a fysh (as some thynke) called in English a birte: it is called of the frenche me a Turbot, whether it be ỹ same, which we cal a Turbot, I cã not tel. also a spining wheele oz turne.

Rhomphæa, æ, f. g. a swoozde.

Rhonchiſonus, ni, m. g. he that routeth oz snozteth. also a mocker.

Rhonchus, chi, m. g. a routyng whan one dooeth sleape.

Rhonchiſſo, aui, are, to route oz snozte.

Rhopalon, a water lilie, called commonly Nenuphar.

Rhoxia, a countrey by Polonia.

Rhoxolani, people on the nozthe parte of the ryuer of Danubius oz Donow.

Rhus, is that, whiche apothecaries dooe call Sumach. Manardus libro primo, epiſtola quarta, sayeth, that it is also called Ros Syriacus.

Rhuteni, a people in Fraunce called Rhodes.

Rhymnus, a ryuer.

Rhyndacus, a ryuer whiche renneth into the ſea called Pontus.
Rhynitalcus, a man of Thrace.
Rhynton, a certayne comicall poete.
Rhyparógraphus, phi, m. g. a peinter of trifles, a ſtayner.
Rhytion, tij, n. g. a veſſell lyke to a moone.
Rhythmus, mi, m. g. noumbre or harmonie in ſpeahynge. it is alſo called ryme.
Rhythmicus, a, um, that ſpeaheth or ſingeth in noumbre, harmonie or proporcion.
Rhytus, a certayne cuppe, in facion of an hornе.

R ANTE I

Rica, cæ, f. g. a garment of purple, hemmed or purfled. alſo a herchicke, whiche women doe weare.
Ricina, an ile by Irelande.
Ricinus, ni, m. ge. and Ricinium, or Ricinum, ni, n. g. a cloke, whereof parte was caſte ouer a mannes ſhoulders. it is alſo euery garmente that is foure ſquare.
Ricinus, ni, maſc. gene. a dogge tyke. it is alſo that whiche the apothecaries doe call Cherua, wherof is made an ople, that ſerueth to dyuers vſes, Io. Agricola. but Ruellius maketh no mencion of Cherua, but ſaieth, that the Greekes dyd call it Cici, and ſome apothecaries doe name it Cataputia maior: and that the apothecaries of Fraunce doe call it Palma Chriſti.
Rictus, us, m. ge. the panynge or gappynge of the mouthe. alſo a grinnyng or ſcornefull opening of the mouthe. alſo the fourme of the vilage, whan a man grinneth, or a dogge nattreth.
Rictus ad aures deliſcens, when one gapeth ſo wyde that his mouthe ſemeth to reche from one eare to an other.
Diducere rictum, to gape.
Ricula, læ, f. g. a handkerchicke.
Ridens, entis, laughyng.
Rideo, riſi, ridêre, to laughe. alſo to ſcorne or mocke.
Aliquem ridere, to mocke one.
Ridibundus, a, um, that laugheth muche.
Ridica, cæ, fœ. g. a proppe, wherewith a vine or other lyke thynge is holden vp.
Ridiculum, li, n. g. a mocke, a fooliſche thynge, a thyng to be mocked and ſcorned.
Ridiculus, li, maſc. ge. a man, who ne men doe mocke or laugh at, a ieſtyng ſtocke, a laughyng ſtocke.
Mihi ſolæ ridiculo fuit, he was a laughynge ſtocke to me onely.
Ridiculum eſt iſtud me admonere, it is a fooliſche thynge that you ſhoulde tell me this.
Iacere ridiculum, to ſpeake a mery thynge to be laughed at.
Ridiculárius, a, um, idem quod Ridiculum.
Ridiculè, fooliſchely, in mockage.

Rigátio, ônis, f. g. a watrynge.
Rigeo, gui, gêre, to be feruently colde. alſo to be harde or ſtiffe.
Rigere gelu, to be harde froſen.
Rigens, entis, om. ge. colde, harde or ſtiffe for colde, that can not bowe.
Rigentes oculi, eies whiche doe neuer moue.
Rigeſco, ſcere idem quod Rigeo, to waxe hard, or to waxe colde.
Rigidè, ſtiffely, harpely, cruelly.
Rigiacum, a certaine citee.
Rigidor, âris, ari, to be made ſtiffe or ſtarke.
Rigidus, a, um, colde, harde, ſtiffe, harpe or cruell.
Rigidus leo, a cruell and fierce lyon.
Homo rigidus, a rigorous and harde perſone.
Rigo, aui, are, to make weate, or to water a garden or fielde.
Rigor, ôris, m. g. a vehement colde, hardneſſe, ſtiffeneſſe.
Rigor nervorum, ſtiffeneſſe of the ſinewes.
Rigor iuris, the rigour or extremitee of the lawe.
Rigor naturæ, rigorouſeneſſe & hardeneſſe of nature, rudeneſſe.
Riguus, a, um, that maie be eaſyly weate or watered.
Rima, mæ, fœ. g. a chinke or cleſte in woodde or ſtone, where it is not cloſe ioygned.
Rimas agere, to wexen or chinked, as timber or bourdes are with lyinge in the wynde.
Rimam inuenire, to fynde an occaſion or meanes to eſcape.
Rimarum plenus ſum, I am full of chinkes or holes: by tranſlacion I kepe no ſilence or counſaple.
Rimor, âris, ari, and Rimo, aui, are, to ſeeche buſyly, to ſeeche in euery corner or hole. alſo to cleaue as tymber is clouen.
Rimôſus, a, um, full of cleftes or chinkes.
Rimula, læ, f. g. a litteil chinke or cleſte.
Ringo, rinxi, ringere, or Ringor ringeris, to grynne or ſhewe the teethe, as a dogge doeth whan he will barke or byte. alſo to be inwardly angrie, to braule.
Ripa, pæ, f. g. a water banke.
Riparenſes, certaine ſouldiours amonge the Romaynes, whiche laie in the borders of theyr empyre to kepe out theyr ennemies.
Ripária, riæ, f. g. a byrde, whiche bredeth in water bankes.
Riparius, a, um, that abydeth on the water bankes.
Ripæ, ſeu Ripei, mountaynes in Arcadia.
Riphei, mountaynes in Scythia, where as is continuall winter, and ſnowe with huge windes.
Ripheus, one of the Centaures.
Ripula, læ, f. g. a litteil banke.
Riſcus, ci, m. g. a cofer couered with leather. alſo a litteil wyndowe, or a hole in a wall.
Riſibilis, le, that whiche can laugh.

Riſi-

Riſinum, a citee of Liburnia.
Riſo, ônis, f. g. a laughyng.
Riſor, ôris, m. g. a laugher.
Riſus, us, m. g. laughter.
Riſus ſardonius, a laughter without mirthe, as of them that bee madde or cruell. ſuche as Iepſichemen vſe whan they be angrie.
Riſum concitare, to make one to laughe.
Riſum captare, to dowe a thyng whiche cauſeth men to laugh.
Riſum ædere, to laughe.
Excipere aliquid riſu, to laugh at a thyng.
Riſus hominũ de te erat, men laughed at the.
Riſum tenere, to forbeare laughyng.
Rité, directly, truely, euen as it ſhulde be, well, conuenyently, accordyngly.
Rites, tis, m. g. idem quod Ritus.
Ritius, a citee of Crete.
Ritualis, le, pertaynyng to rites or cuſtomes.
Rituales, bookes, wherein the fourme of ceremonies and olde maners and cuſtomes are writen.
Ritus, us, m. g. an approued cuſtome, a rite.
Rim naturæ, the courſe or ordre of nature.
Riuâlis, lis, m. g. he that loueth the ſame woman that an other dooeth. Riuales be alſo they, whoſe landes be deuided by a riuer or broke. alſo they that dwell vpon riuers.
Sine riuale diligere, ſpoken prouerbially, of one that is ſolyſchely in loue with a thyng that no other man can phantaſie.
Riuâlitas, âtis, f. g. enuie or obſeruance betwene the louers of one woman, riualtee.
Riuinus, ni, m. ge. a woar, idem quod Riualis.
Riuus, ui, m. g. a riuer or broke.
Riuulus, li, m. g. a littell broke.
Riuulos conſectari, fontes rerum non videre, to ſpeake thynges of ſmall effecte, & omitte the chiefe poynete of the mattier.
Rixa, æ, fœm. g. a braulyng contencion, a ſcoldyng, a chidyng.
Rixor, âris, ari, to contende with braulyng, to ſcolde, & is moſt commonly referred to women.
Rixantur inter ſe, they braule and chyde one with an other.
Rixoſé, ſcoldingly, with braulynge or chydynge.
Rixóſus, a, um, that brauleth or chideth.

ROb & Robub, names barbarous, ſignifying iuice of herbes or fruites defecate: rede more in Papa.
Robigália, the ceremonies pertaynyng to Robigus, the preſeruatour of corne.
Robiginóſus, a, um, muche blaſted.
Robigo, ginis, f. ge. was honoured of the Romaines for a goddeſſe, whom they ſuppoſed mought preſerue their corne from blaſtyng. it is alſo that vice in corne called blaſtyng.
Robigus, the old Romaynes named the god that preſerued corne from blaſtyng.
Robor, or Robur, róboris, n. g. harde oke. it is alſo ſtrength & hardneſſe of the body or mynde. ſomtyme the ſtrength or hardneſſe of any thing generally. alſo a ſtockes in priſon, or place whes men were put to execution.
Tenere firmitatem & robur in virtute, to be firme and ſtrong in vertue.
Roboraria, places whiche are paled about.
Robórneus, a, um, of an oke.
Fruges roburneæ, oken maſte or acornes.
Róboro, aui, are, to fortifie, to make ſtronge.
Robóreus, a, um, of oken tymbre.
Roboſes, the olde writers vſed for Robur, an oke.
Robus, bi, m. g. olde writers called redde of colour. alſo all maner of mattier, whith had many redde veynes, was called Robus. it is alſo a kynde of wheate, that yelderh fayre meale, whiche we call now redde wheate.
Robuſteus, a, um, that is made of oke, oken.
Robuſtus, a, um, ſtronge and harde, ſturdie.
Rodo, ſi, dere, to gnawe as a mouſe or other lyke beaſt doeth. ſomtyme to detract or backe byte.
Rodóra, loke Rhodóra.
Rodus, a, um, a thyng vnperfecte or rude, vnpoliſched, vnwrought.
Rogâlis, le, of a great fyze.
Rogâmen, gáminis, n. g. a deſyre.
Rogatárii, notaries, which required the parties, that eche of them ſhulde promyſe.
Rogátio, ônis, was among the Romayns, when the Tribunes, whiche were the heade officers of the people, were contente, that any acte ſhulde paſſe, whiche was made by the ſenate, or by the ſame Tribunes deuiſed, an interrogacion, a demaundynge. alſo a lawe, an ordinaunce, a priuilege.
Ferre rogationem ad populum, to demaunde and aſke of the people, whether they be contente to admitte a lawe or ordinaunce.
Ferre rogationem per vim, to cauſe the people to receiue a law or ordinance againſt the mynde of al other magiſtrates, or any that do reſiſte it.
Accipere rogationem, to receiue or admitte a lawe or ordinaunce.
Rogâtor, ôris maſc. ge. a beggar from dooze to dooze, a praier, a deſyrer.
Rogâtor comitiorum, he that demanded the peoples mynde in admittyng any ordinaunce or lawe.
Rogatiúncula, læ, fœm. gen. a littell requeſte or demaunde.
Rogâtus, a, um, aſked, demaunded, praied, deſyred.
Rogâtus, us, m. g. a deſyre, a requeſt.
Rogitátio, ônis, fœ. g. a law, an ordinaunce of the people.
Rógito, aui, are, to intreate, to deſyre, to demaunde, to enquyre often, to aſke for a thyng.
Rogo, aui, are, to require, to praie, to enquyre, to aſke of one, to inacte.

Rogare plebem, to enquire of the commons, if they bee content that a lawe ſhall paſſe: or as in our parliament, to goe to the queſtion.
Rogare aliquem ſententiam, to demaunde of one what his opinion is.
Rogare ſacramento, to ſweare one, or to geue to hym an othe.
Rogare auxilium, to deſyre one to helpe vs.
Ab amico argentum rogare, To deſyre ones friende to lende hym money.
Vaſa inſpicienda rogare, to deſyre one to lend certaine veſſell onely to ſee theym.
Roget quis, one perchaunce wyll demaunde of me.
Suplice voce rogare, to deſyre one humbly.
Occidere aliquem rogando, to intreate one importunately.
Rogus, gi, m. g. a great fyre, wherin deade bodies were burned.
Roma, the citee of Rome.
Romanenſis, he that cometh from an other countrey, and dwelleth at Rome.
Romania, is a countrey called Thrace.
Romanus, a Romayne.
Romanus, a, um, of Rome.
Romandues, called nowe Veromandi, Vermandois.
Rómula, a tree, vnder the which Romulus, and Remus were founde.
Romuleus, a, um, of Romulus.
Romulidæ, Romaynes.
Rúmulus, li, the fyrſte kynge of Romaines.
Rómulus, a, um, of Romulus.
Ronchiſſo, lowe Rhonchiſſo.
Ronchus, lowe Rhonchus.
Ronchiſonus, lowe Rhonchiſonus.
Rorâlis, le, of deaw, deawy, that maie bee ſprinckled like deaw.
Rorans, antis, that mopſteth with a deaw.
Rorárij milites, men, whiche beyng lyght armed made the fyrſt ſkyrmyſhe in battaile.
Rorárium vinum, wyne that was geuen to the ſouldioures called Rorarij.
Rorátio, ônis, fœ. ge. a fallyng downe of deaw. alſo a diſeaſe in vines, by the occaſion wherof the chiefe grapes dwe fall awaie.
Roreſco, ſcere, to be waſhed with deaw.
Rorifácio, feci, cere, to ſprincle.
Roro, aui, are, to deaw or droppe downe lyke deaw.
Rorare aliquem cruore, to ſprincle one with bloudde.
Rorat, the deaw falleth.
Rórifer, rifera, rum, that bryngeth deaw.
Roruléntus, a, um, full of deaw.
Ros, rôris, m. g. deaw.
Ros ſyriacus, that whiche is called of the apothecaries Sunach.
Roſa, æ, fœm. ge. a roſe: ſometyme vſed for the opis of roſes.
Roſa mea, my ſweete one.
Roſáceus, a, um, of roſes.
Aqua roſacea, roſe water.
Roſago, idem quod Ciſthus.
Roſa canina, idem.
Roſália, garlandes of roſes.
Roſárium, rij, n. g. a gardeine or bedde of roſes, or many roſes ſette togeather, a roſier.
Róſcidus, a, um, that is wette or mopſted with deaw.
Nox roſcida, a deawy nyght.
Roſcius, a Romayne, and a player in comedies, whom for his excellencye in pronunciation and geſture, the noble Cicero called his iewell, and ſo muche delited in him, that he contended with hym, whether Roſcius coulde ſette foorthe one ſentence in mo facions of geſture and countenaunce, or he expreſſe the ſame ſentence in a more diuerſitee of eloquent woordes. The excellency of this man in his arte, howe it was eſtemed and fauoured of all the Romaynes, it appeereth well, in that they gaue to hym for a continuall ſtipende, one thouſande of theyr grotes for euery daye: whiche amounteth of our money to ſixtene pounde, thirtene ſhyllynges and foure pence. and Lucius Sylla beynge Dictatour, gaue to hym a ryng of golde, whiche was the token of a knyght at that tyme, as a colar or chayne of golde is at this tyme.
Roſetum, ti, n. g. a gardeyne of roſes.
Roſeus, a, um, of a roſe, or of the colour of a roſe.
Dea roſea, the morninge.
Róſidus, a, um, looke Roſcidus.
Roſio, ônis, f. g. gnawyng.
Roſmarinum, ni, neu. gen. or Roſmarinus, ni, ma. gen. roſemarie.
Roſmaris, a certaine tree.
Roſtellum, li, neu. gen. a littell beake or bill of a byrde, or a littell ſnowte.
Roſtra, ſtrorum, roſtris, was a place in Rome afore the courte called Hoſtilia, wherein was a pulpitte, in whiche the oratours of Rome were wont to ſtande, whan they preched to the people, or declared any matter: of the whiche proceded this woorde Pro roſtris, in the pulpitte, or at the barre.
Roſtrâtus, a, um, that hath a bill a beake or a ſnowte. alſo that is armed with a ſtemme, as a ſhyppe.
Roſtratæ naues, ſhyppes haunge pikes of yron without the ſtemme.
Roſtro, aui, are, to thruſte in the beake or bill.
Roſtrum, ſtri, n. g. a beake of a byrde, a ſnowte of a beaſt or fyſche. alſo the ſtemme of a ſhyppe or bote.
Roſtrum canis, a dogges mouſyll or noſe.
Roſtrum delphini, a delphins beake.
Suis roſtrum, a lowes ſnowte.
Rota, tæ, f. gen. a whiele. alſo a bynde of fyſche.

also a hynde of gotes.
Rotans, antis, turnyng or swingyng about.
Rotatus, a, um, swynged or tourned rounde.
Rothomagus, the citee of Roan in Normandy.
Roto, aui, are, to tourne a thynge lyke a wheele, to swynge about.
Rótula, læ, f. g. a litteli wheele.
Rotella, idem.
Rotundátio, ônis, roundenesse.
Rotundé, roundely, aptely, elegantlye, hansomly, properly in wordes, cõpactely, in good order.
Rotunditas, átis, f. g. roundenesse.
Rotundo, aui, are, to make rounde.
Rotundare caput, to haue a rounde head, or to growe with a rounde heade, as popie doeth.
Rotundus, a, um, rounde. sometyme well compare or fashioned.
Ore rotundo loqui, to expresse muche in fewe woordes.
Rotundus orator, id est, elegans & cõpositus.
Roxana, the daughter of Darius, and concubine of Alexander, which beynge greatte with childe, was drowned by hir sister Statyra.
Roxicum, a citee of the pie Lozica, called commonly Rogela.

RVbécula, læ, f. g. a robben redbreast.
Rubédo, dinis, rednesse.
Rubefácio, befacis, fêci, facere, to make redde.
Rubefio, fieri, to be made redde.
Rubefactus, a, um, made redde.
Rubellæ, redde grapes.
Rubellio, ônis, a fysshe called a rochette.
Rubellánus, a, um, somewhat redde.
Rubellianæ vites, idem quod Rubellæ vites.
Rubellus, a, um, somewhat redde.
Rubellæ vites, vines, the woodde whereof is redde.
Rubellum vinum, clarette wyne.
Rubens, entis, om. g. ruddie.
Rubeo, rubui, bêre, to be redde.
Rubesco, scere, to waxe redde, to bee made redde.
Ruber, bra, brum, redde.
Rubetra, æ, f. g. may be vsed for that byrde which we call a buntyng.
Rubéta, tæ, f. g. a tode that breedeth chiefely amonge brembles and briers, and is of colour somewhat redde.
Rubetarius, rij, m. g. a hynde of haukes, whiche we call a hen harroer.
Rubétum, ti, n. g. a bushy plotte.
Rubeus, a, um, redde. Hermolaus Barbarus deuideth it to bee latine. it is sometyme vsed for Spineus, a, um.
Rubi, bórum, a towne in Campania.
Rúbia, æ, f. g. called of the apothecaries Rubra maior, & Rubra tinctorum, or Rubea tinctorum, an herbe, wherewith they colour woull or skinnes, madder.
Rubia syluestris, woodrough.
Rubicilla, læ, a birde of the biggenesse of a sparowe, hauyng a verye shorte bil and broade, a broade tonge. Fẽ. wee call it a bulfinche.
Rúbicon, conis, a riuer in Italie, which diuideth Gallia from the parte of Italie, now called Romandiola, and in olde time Flaminea.
Rubicundulus, a, um, somewhat ruddy.
Rucundus, a, um, ruddy or verye redde.
Rúbidus, a, um, a swarte redde. also rough or course, as breadde hauyng muche branne.
Rubigália, órum, feastes ordeyned for the preseruation of corne from blastyng.
Rubígino, aui, are, to ruste.
Rubiginósus, a, um, rustie.
Rubígo, ginis, f. g. ruste. also the blastyng of corne.
Rubor, boris, m. g. rednesse.
Rúbrica, cæ, f. g. redde chalke, or ruddell, wherewith sheepe are marked.
Rubricéta, tæ, f. ge. rosette colour, suche as women vse to peinte theym with.
Rubricósus, a, um, redde.
Rubricátus, a ryuer in Spayne called Robres gat.
Rubricátus, a, um, coloured with redde, or ruddis, as sheepe are.
Rubrus, a, um, redde.
Rubus, bi, m. or fœ. ge. a brymble, a busshe, the blache berye tree.
Rubus caninus, the wylde eglantyne briar.
Ructátor, óris, m. g. he that beliheth.
Ructatrix, the feminine.
Ructatrix herba, an herbe that maketh one to belche or breake wynde vpwarde.
Ructátus, a, um, that is belched vp.
Ructito, aui, are, to breake wynde often.
Ructo, aui, are, to belche or breake wynde vpwarde.
Ructor, tari, idem.
Ructare crapulam, to sauour of to muche drynke.
Ructuário, ônis, idem quod Ructus.
Ructuósus, a, um, that belcheth muche.
Ructus, us, m. g. belchyng or breakyng wynde vpwarde.
Rudens, entis, om. g. brayyng lyke an asse.
Rudens, tis, m. & f. g. a cabell of a shyppe.
Ruderárium cribrum, a rangeyng sieue.
Ruderatio, ônis, f. g. a layyng of rubbisshe.
Ruderátus, a, um, where muche rubbisshe lyeth.
Rúdero, aui, are, to laie on olde stones and rubbell. also to daube or laie on morter.
Rudétum, ti, n. g. a place where lyeth muche rubbysshe or rubbell. also lande, whiche hath lyen ley, and is newely put in tylthe.
Rudiæ, diarum, an olde towne in Apulia, where the poete Ennius was borne.
Rudiárius, rij, masc. ge. he whiche is discharged of fyghtyng with a swoorde. also a bodger, or a mender of olde garmētes, and a sowter or mas ker of sheues.

Rudicula, læ, f. g. a potte sticke, wherwith men sturre thynges that are sodde ouer the fyre.

Rudimentum, ti, neu. gene. the fyrste trachynge of children, a rudiment, the fyrste instruction or beginnyng.

Rudimentum lucis, the beginnynge of the lyght.

Rudimentum ponere, to begynne to learne, to practise fyrste.

Rudimenta tyrocinij deponere sub aliquo, to learne or be fyrste instructed of one in feates of armes or any other thyng.

Rudio, dui, dire, to teache one, whiche is vn-learned.

Rudis, dis, fœ. g. a rodde or yarde, whiche was geuen to swoorde players, whan they came to xx. yeres olde, in token that they were set at lybertee: sometyme lybertee from labour. Lam-pridius writeth, that swoorde players did playe with suche roddes.

Rude donari, to be discharged of attēdāce, properly in swoorde playynge or in the warres.

Rudem accipere, hath the same signification.

Rudis, de, rude, ignorannte, vnlearned, vn-taught, that knoweth nothynge, not exercised or traded in a thynge, nothyng experte or coun-nynge. also rusticall.

Rudis in iure ciuili, ignorannte in the lawe ciuyle.

Rei militaris rudis, nothynge experte in feates of armes.

Rudis rerum omnium, that knoweth nothing.

Rude carmen, a grosse verse, a rough verse, an vnfactioned verse.

Ad seditiones rudis, that can not tell howe to gouerne and rule in the tyme of sedition and busynesse.

Rudus, rúderis, n. g. shardes or pieces of stones broken and scattered, rubbell or rubbysshe of olde houses.

Ruditas, ātis, f. g. rudenesse, lacke of learnynge, or witte, dulnesse of witte.

Rudo, rudi, rudere, to braie lyke an asse. it is sometyme spoken of a man, sometyme of a woman: sometyme of Lions.

Rufeo, fes, and Rufesco, scere, to be somewhat redde, to ware redde.

Rufinus, the name of certaine Romaynes.

Rufo, aui, are, to make redde.

Rufrimaceriæ, a towne of Campayne.

Rúfuli, certayne capitaynes made by the consull, who afterwarde were called Rutuli.

Rúfulus, a, um, somewhat redde.

Rufus, a, um, idem.

Rufam ne illam? What that redde headed wenche?

Rufus, the name & surname of diuers Romaines.

Ruga, gæ, f. g. a wrincle or plaite.

Rúgio, gíui, gire, to roze lyke a lyon.

Rugitus, us, m. g. a rozyng.

Rugo, aui, are, to be plaited or wrincled.

Rugo, xi, gere, to bethe.

Rugôsus, a, um, full of playtes or wrinckles, withered or riueled.

Ruidus, or Ruuidus, a, um, adiectiuum.

Ruidum pilum, a pestell that hath no pron at the ende, and is roughe and not planed.

Ruuidus panis, bread that is not throughe baked, and is therfore rough in eatyng.

Ruina, næ, f. g. ruine, extreeme decate.

Subdere caput ruinæ, to put his lyfe in daungier.

Neronis ruina, the death or decay of Nero.

Cæli ruina, thunder.

Ruinôsus, a, um, ruinous, in decay, lyke to fall.

Rulla, læ, f. g. the stalke, wherwith the ploughman clenseth the culter, or rather the pyon that is set on the stalke.

Rullus, a Romayne, which brought fyrst a whole boze to the table in seruice.

Ruma, mæ, f, g. was of the olde writers called a teate. it is also the throte bolle.

Rumbotinus, idem quod Rumpotinus.

Rumen, minis, n. g. the dewlappe of a beaste, also a place in the bealy, a panche. also a teate.

Rumentum, ti, n. g. a braynynge out, an impossume that braineth out of the flesshe.

Rumex, rumicis, f. g. sozrell. also a weapon lyke to a speare.

Rumia, a goddesse, whom the paynims supposed to bee beneficiall to womens breastes, and to suchyng children.

Rumifero, aui, are, to cary abzoade a rumour.

Rumigare, to chewe the cudde.

Rumigero, aui, are, to cary tydynges.

Rumigerulus, a letter of tidynges.

Ruminales hostiæ, sacrifices of those beastes, whiche chewe the cudde.

Ruminális ficus, a figge tree, vnder the whiche it is supposed that a woulfe gaue suche to Romulus and Remus.

Ruminátio, ônis, f. g. a chewyng of the cudde, as a beast doeth. also deliberation or aduisement, a callynge of a thynge to remembrance, or considerynge and reuolupng of a thynge in the mynde.

Rúmino, aui, are, & Ruminor, aris, ari, to chew the cudde. also to call ofte soones to remembrance, to wepgh and consider in the minde.

Rumis, mis, a teate.

Rumito, aui, are, to beare tidynges.

Rumo, aui, are, to geue the teate to a childe. also idem quod Rumino.

Rumor, ôris, m. g. tidynges, rumour, or bruite.

Parua aura rumoris, the least bruite or rumour that can be.

Rumor ait, the reporte or bruite is.

Differre rumorem, to spreade a rumour.

Rumores excipere, to hearken or knowe what rumour goeth abzoade.

Rumpi, porum, translomes.

Rum-

Rumpo, rupi, rúmpere, to breake, to make weary.
Rumpere moras, to make haſte.
Rumpere ſilentium, to bepe no longer ſilence, to ſpeake at length.
Vt me ambulando rumperet, that he wolde make me ſtarke wery with walkynge.
Aditus rumpere, to breake in.
Patientiam rumpere, to waxe angrie.
Fidem rumpere, to breake promiſe.
Vocem rumpere, to ſpeake at the laſt with indignacion.
Me rupi currendo, I haue wered my ſelfe with rennyng.
Rumpi malis, & non moueri, contrarie.
Rumpotinum, a buſh, which groweth in France, of whiche Columella writeth, that no cozne ſhoulde be ſowen within twentie foote thereof.
Rumpotinétum, the place where ſuche buſhes dooe growe.
Rumpotinus, the name of the poplar tree amõge them that dwell beyonde the riuer Po in Italy.
Rámula, læ, f. g. a litteil teate.
Rumuſculus, li, m. g. a litteil rumour oz bruite.
Runa, næ, fœ. gen. a weapon ſometyme vſed in Fraunce.
Runca, cæ, f. g. vſed of olde writers for Runcina.
Runcátio, ônis, f. g. weedyng.
Runcátor, ôris, a weeder.
Rúncina, næ, f. g. a whiplawe, wherwith tymber is ſawed. it is alſo a buſſheſithe oz bill to cutte buſhes. Runcina is alſo the goddeſſe of weedynge. it ſemeth alſo after ſome, to be a great plane, that ſopgners vſe.
Rúncino, aui, are, to ſawe timber.
Runco, aui, are, to weede oz pull vppe by the rootes.
Runſor, ôris, one of the names of Pluto, called god of hell.
Ruo, rui, ruere, to fall, to ruſſhe oz breake out oz downe violently, to renne headlyng and with violence, to goe haſtily, to poure out, to be deſtroyed, to ſubuerte, to ouerthrow oz caſt downe violently, to pluche vp, to digge vp oz out of the grounde, to breake aſunder, to throwe downe.
Quo moriture ruis maioraq; viribus audes? whether renneſt thou heading to be ſlayne, and attempteſt thynges aboue thy puiſſaũce? alſo to lyfte vp.
Et ruit atram ad cælum picea craſſus caligine nubem, and bepnge thicke, it lifted vp to heauen a cloude as blacke as pytche. ſometyme it ſignifieth to make a great noyſe.
Ruit arduus æther, the high firmament rumbled oz made a great noyſe.
Ruit imbribus cælum, it rayned ſore, oz it rayned as heauen wolde haue fallen downe.
Ruit dies, id eſt, oritur, the day cometh on.
Sol ruit, id eſt, diſcedit, the ſon goeth downe.
Ruit ver, id eſt, in finem vergit, the ſpꝛynge tyme drawyth towarde an ende.
Flumina ruunt per campos, the ryuers renne ſwiftely oz with great violence thꝛough the fields.
Vide ſis ne quid imprudens ruas, id eſt immodeſte agas, ſee ye plaie no wyelde touche ere ye be ware.
Portis ruunt, thei ruſſhe oz renne violently out at the gates.
Ruere ad interitum voluntarium, to renne headlonge to pꝛeſent deathe wyllyngly.
Patiẽtorem ruere, id eſt, decipi, to ſuffre the byer to be diſceiued and begyled.
Cæteros ruerem, the other I wolde caſt hedlong downe to the grounde.
Illum ruere nuntiant, they ſaie that he cometh with all haſte and ſpede that can be poſſible.
Rupes, pis, f. g. a hill, a banke, oz rocke ſo ſteepe downe, that no man maie clymme it.
Rupicapra, æ, f. g. a wylde gote.
Repicias, ſoꝛ damnum dederis, thou ſhalte paie oz yelde damages.
Ruptor, ôris, m. g. one that breaketh oz violateth.
Ruptus, ta, tum, broken oz braſte, wered, tozne oz rente.
Rurális, le, ruſticall oz of the village.
Rureſtris, ſtre, of the countrey, not of the citee oz towne.
Ruricola, læ, com, g. an huſband man, he that laboureth oz tylleth the earthe.
Rurigena, bozne in the countrey out of a citee oz great towne.
Ruro, aui, are, and Ruror, aris, ari, to dooe after the countrey faction, to dwell in the countrey oz out of the citee.
Rurſus, & rurſum, eftſoones oz backewarde, on the other parte, agayne.
Rus, ruris, n. ge. the countrey out of the citee, where as huſbandry is vſed and exerciſed.
Ruſcum, ci, n. g. oz Rurſcus, ci, m. g. reds Bruſcum.
Ruſcinum, Ruſſillion oz Perpignian in Fraunce.
Ruſpor, aris, âri, to ſcrethe diligently. it is pꝛopꝛely ſo ſhape as an henne doeth when ſhe ſeketh foꝛ meate.
Ruſſatus, a, um, idem quod ruſſus.
Ruſſus, & Ruſſeus, a, um, redde.
Rúſtica, cæ, f ge. a birde lyke a partriche, but he hath a longe byll.
Ruſticánus, a, um, ruſticall, oz of the countrey oz village.
Ruſticárius, a, um, perteinynge to one of the countrey, oz to huſbandry.
Falces ruſticariæ, hedgeyng billes.
Ruſticátio, ônis, f. g. a bydyng in the countrey.
Ruſtice, ruſtically, vncurteiſely, rudely.
Ruſticátim, idem, churliſhely, after the faction of the countrey.
Ruſticitas, tâtis, f. g. churliſhneſſe, ſometyme fearefulneſſe, ruſticite, rudeneſſe.

Et ſi

Et ſi ruſticitas non veràt, ipſa rogat, and yf that fooliſſhe baſhefulneſſe let hyr not, ſhe maſheth requeſte.

Rúſticor, âris, ari, to dwell in the countrey, or exercyſe huſbandrye.

Ruſticulus, a, um, ſomewhat rude or ruſticall.

Rúſticus, a, um, ruſticall, vplandyſſhe, homely, wythout courteſie.

Rúſticus, ci, m. g. one of the countrey, an huſband man.

Rúſticus, is alſo the proper name of a man.

Ruta, tæ, f. g. rewe, called alſo herbe grace.

Rum & cæſa, Marius ſaieth, that in Rutis, & cæſis, are thoſe thynges, that be not faſt in the grounde, nor are any parte of the buildynge, or the couerynge of a houſe: they bee properly all thoſe thynges that a man cauſeth either to bee digged out of the grounde, or to bee cut downe for the vſe of his houſeholde, as grauell, ſande, chalke, woodde, tymber, coles.

Ruta, órum, n. g. Plu. is amonge the lawiers all thynges dygged out of the grounde, as ſtone, ſande, grauell, chalke, leade, and other metalles.

Rutábulum, li, n. g. a cole rake to make cleane an ouen.

Rutaceus, a, um, of or pertenynge to rewe.

Rutárius, a, um, made of rewe.

Rutellum, li, n. g. a lyttell mattocke.

Rutheni, people beyonde Liuonia, of whome the countrey is nowe called Ruſsia, there bee alſo people in Fraunce about Towres ſo called.

Ruticilla, a little birde called a red taple.

Rutilátus, a, um, that is ſtained with a bryghte redde.

Rutilesco, ſcere, to ware ſomewhat ruddie.

Rutilius, the name of diuers Romaynes.

Rútilo, aui, are, to ſhine.

Rútilus, a, um, that is ſhynyng redde.

Rutuli capilli, yelow heare.

Ruto, aui, are, a frequentatiue of Ruo.

Rutrum, tri, n. g. a mattocke.

Rutuba, olde writers vſed for Turbatio.

Id poſtea viderimus, nunc ſumus in rutuba, we wyll afterwarde ſee, now we be in trouble.

Rutuba, a ryuer in Liguria, rennynge from the mountayne called Appenninus.

Rutuli, an auncyente people in Italie, of whom Turnus was kynge, whome Eneas vanquiſhed.

Rútulus, a, um, of the people Rutuli.

Rutúlus, a mans name.

Rutupiæ: an hauen in Kente called Sandwich.

Rutupinus, a, um, of that hauen.

Rutupinum promontorium, a goze or elbowe of lande in Englande, lyeng into the ſea about Sandwiche.

SABA, or Sabe, a great citee in Aethiope, alſo ỹ chiefe citee of the people called Sabæi in Arabie.

Saba, ſignifieth a miſterie.

Sabæa or Saba, a countrey in the middell of Arabia toward the eaſte, inuironed about with great roches, wherin is a great wod of pzecious trees, ſome of Sinamum and Caſſia, ſome bryngynge fooꝛth frankenſence and myrre. the length of that woodde is twentie of theyr myles called Schoeni, which comprehendeth of Italian myles, one hundzed and fiftie, Plin. li. 12. Theophraſtus li. 9. de hiſt. plant. Solinus writeth, that the region bryngynge fooꝛth frankenſence is from a towne there named Atramitæ. viii. manſions whiche in deede conteineth. 224. miles, Manſio or Stathmos beynge of. 28. Italyan myles. the chiefe citee of that realme is called Sabota.

Sabæi, people of the realme of Sabæa.

Sabaoth, in the plural nũbze, in the hebzew tonge, ſignifieth of hoſtes or armies, or powers.

Sabbathárius, rii, m. g. and Sabbatharia, æ, fœ. g. he or ſhe that kepeth the Sabboth daie.

Sabadi, a pzopze name, wherof cometh Sabadeni, the name of a people.

Sabbathiſmus, a vacation after labours.

Sabbathizare, to kepe Sabboth daie.

Sabbathum, thi, n. g. was amonge the iewes accompted the ſeuenth daie, in the which they faſted, in remembzance of the. vii. daies, in the whiche they were fatigate goyng faſtyng in the deſerte of Arabia, ere they came to the mount of Sinai. Sainte Auguſtine vpon the pſalmes writeth, that Sabbathum is taken thzee maner of waies: fooꝛ the. vii. daie is called by that name, in the whiche almighty god reſted after his warke of. vi. daies. Sabbathum is alſo eternall quieteneſſe. moꝛeouer Sabbathum is the conſcience of a quiete mynde, aduaunced by hope of the tyme to come, not beynge shaken or vexed with ſtoꝛmes of thynges preſent.

Sabæus, a, um, of the people Sabæi.

Sabacus, a kyng of Aethiope.

Sabata, Sabatia, or Sabatium, a citee of Liguria, called Sauona.

Sabatæ, a certaine poole.

Sabe, in the tongue of Syria, is the moneth of Febzuarie.

Sabelli, people dwellynge in the mountaynes betweene the Sabines and Marſy in Italie.

Sabellus, and Sabellicus, a, ũm, of the people Sabini in Italy.

Sabidius, a Romayne, which was a notable glutton.

Sabim, amonge the Arabians doeth ſignifie god.

Sabina, næ, f. g. a weapon lyke to a boze ſpeare, it is alſo the herbe called Sauine.

Sabini, people in Italie, betweene Latini & Vmbri.

Sabi-

Sabinus, a, um, of the Sabines.
Sabiusa, a gate at Rome, out of the whiche men went to the Sabines.
Sabota, a citee of Araby.
Sabriana, a creeke of the Britayne sea.
Sabrina, a great riuer in Englande called Seuerne, whiche renneth in to the sea by Bristow. Ptholomeus calleth it Sabriana.
Sabucus, lyke Sambucus.
Sabulétum, ti, n. g. a grauell pitte.
Sabulum, li, n. g. grosse sande, or grauell.
Sabulósus, a, um, grauelly, full of grauell.
Sabus, rs, a mans name.
Saburh, a kynde of sacrifice.
Saburra, ræ, fœm. g. lastage or balese, wherwith shippes are euen poysed, to go vpright, whiche is commonly of grauell.
Saburrátus, a, um, loded with grauell or other lyke erthe, balesed, and by translacion, full.
Saburro, aui, are, to balese a shippe.
Sabyllus, a tyran of a citee in Sicile called Gela.
Sacæ, people of Scythia.
Sacal, a kynde of ambre founde in Aegypte.
Sacarum, a countrey of Asia beyond the sea called Caspium, the people whereof haue no houses, but dwell in Caues.
Saccaria, æ, fœm. gen. marchandise of sackes or bagges.
Saccárius, a, um, that beareth a sacke.
Saccátus, a, um, that is put in a sacke.
Saccharum, ri, or Sacchar, ris, n. g. sugar.
Saccellare, to apparaile and amende wynes put into sackes.
Saccipérium, rij, n. g. a pouche.
Sacconia, æ, fœm. ge. a clothe to wype a thynge with, a naphyn. also a territorie, or rather (if the place of Vitruuius be not corrupted) the tongue of a balance.
Sacculárius, rij, m. g. a crafty deceyuour, whiche in sellyng of grayne out of sackes, will cõueigh away part, it is also a purse cutter.
Sácculus, li, masc. gen. a litteli sacke, a bagge or purse.
Saccus, ci, m. g. a sacke.
Sacellum, li, n. g. a chapell or litteli churche.
Sacer, cra, crum, holy, consecrate: somtyme cursed, detestable.
Sacer locus, a place consecrate or dedicate.
Sacer morbus, the fallyng sickenesse.
Sacer mons, an hill dedicate to Jupiter. iii. miles frõ Rome, beyond the riuer called Anienis: an other by Galatia, wherin gold is foũd.
Sacrum est ritu, it is a holy and laudable custome, that can not be let passe.
Sacer ignis, a sickenesse, wherin is vehement inflammation and burning of the body some doe suppose it to be sainct Antonies fire.
Sacerdos, dõtis, com. g. a prieste.
Sacerdotissa, a woman prieste.
Sacerdotális, le, belongyng to a prieste.
Sacerdótium, tij, n. g. priesthod, somtyme a benefice or spirituall promocion.
Sacra via, a streete in Rome, wher peace was made betweene Romulus and Tacius, and throughe the whiche the vanquisshers passed with theyr triumphe to the Capitoll.
Sacôma, cómatis, neu. ge. that is put in the balaunce to make euen weight, the tongue of the balaunce.
Sacramentum, ti, n. g. an other amonge vs christen men it signifieth a holy signe, or a signe of an holy thynge, wherin is conteyned a diuine misterie, and is called a sacrament.
Sacramentum militare, The othe that souldiours make.
Sacramenta, is taken for men of warre.
Sacramentum, as Varro writeth, li. 2. de lingua latina, was a gage in money laied by the parties, whiche contended together: so that he whiche recouered in iudgement, shulde take agayne his gage, he that was condemned, shulde lose his gage, which was brought to the cõmon treasury, and this was called Sacramentum.
Sacramento iusto contendere, to gage sute, as is before written.
Sacramento rogati, souldiours swore not to depart vntill the warres were all finished.
Sacramento teneri, to be swore.
Sacrani, certayne people in Italie.
Sacrárium, rij, n. gen. a sertrie or vestrie, wherin are kepte thynges halowed and relikes. also a chapel or oratorie in an house or other place.
Sacrátio, ônis, f. g. a consecracion.
Sacrátius, more holy.
Sacrátor, ôris, m. g. he that doeth consecrate.
Sacrátus, a, um, sacrate, holy, consecrate.
Sacratæ leges, lawes, in the whiche it is enacted, that who so dooeth offende against them, is accursed.
Sacres porci, weaned pigges that were sacrificed.
Sácrifer, crifera, rum, that beareth holy thynges.
Sacrificális, le, belongyng to sacrifice.
Sacrificátio, ônis, f. g. a sacrifisyng.
Sacrificium, cij, n. g. sacrifice.
Sacrifico, aui, are, to doe sacrifice, to consecrate, to aske forgeuenesse of god.
Sacrificulus, li, m. g. a priest.
Sacrificus, ci, m. gen. he that doeth the sacrifice, a priest.
Sacrificus, a, um, that is vsed in sacrifice.
Sacrilégium, gij, n. g. theefte, or takyng awaie of thinges halowed, called sacrilege: and by translacion, any haynous or detestable offence.
Sacrilegus, sacrilegi, m. g. he that violently taketh awaie or stealeth thynges halowed, or thinges vnhalowed out of a holy place.
Sacrilegus is vsed for impius, nepharius, sceleroſus.
Hunc perterrebo sacrilegum, I will make this wicked felow throughly aferde.
Paulus Iurecon. Sunt autem sacrilegi, qui pu-publica ſacra compilarint.

Sacrimum, mi, neu. g. muſte or newe wyne that was geuen in ſacrifice to Bacchus.

Sacriſcrinius, nij, m. g. he that kepeth the kinges letters or Recordes concernyng the crowne, or bokes of great affayres.

Sacrium, a kynde of aumbre, whiche cometh out of Scythia.

Sacro, aui, are, to dedicate, to halow. ſometyme to curſe a man and all his goodes.

Sacrare fœdus, id eſt, ſancire.

Sacrare caput cum bonis, among the Romains were olde lawes, that for a certayne offence it was lefull for any man, whiche did mete with the offender, to ſlea hym as a ſacrifice vnto the infernall Jupiter: and his goodes were dedicate to the diuelles of hell: and this was called Sacrare caput cum bonis.

Templum ſacrare, to dedicate a churche.

Vota diis ſacrare, To make vowes to the goddes.

Sacroſanctus, a, um, conſecrate or halowed, that whiche mought not be touched but reuerently, or was ſure from all iniurie, that might not be hurt on peyne of life and death.

Sacroſancta poteſtas, was properly attributed to the authoritee of the Tribunes, called Tribuni plæbis, it is now moſt conuenient for the authoritee of the catholike churche.

Sacrum, cri, n. g. any thyng dedicate to god, alſo ſacrifice, ſolemnitee vſed in ſacrifice, ſometyme a temple or churche alſo Sacra doe ſignifie holy woordes. alſo charmes.

Piaculare ſacrum facere, to make ſacrifice for purgeyng of a naughty offence.

Socialia ſacra, wedlocke.

Stata ſacra, ordinarie ſolemnitees, that be kept yerely.

Inter ſacrum & ſaxum ſtare, prouerbially to be in daunger.

Sacrum promontorium, a great mountayne or roche in the ſouthweſt parte of Spayne, lyyng on the ſea called now Cape ſainct Vincent.

Sadducæi, were men of a certayne ſecte amonge the Iewes, who helde opinió, that the ſoule was mortall, and that it died with the body, they were diuers in maners and cruell to ſtrangers.

Sadyattes, the ſonne of Ardys, whiche reigned after his father in Lydia.

Sæculum, is properly the ſpace of an hundred yeres: it is commonly taken for a ſpace of time, wherin one kation of the worlde hath continued, lyke Seculum.

Sæpe, often tymes, diuers tymes, more then ones or twyſe.

Sæpenumero, Sæpiuſcule, Sæpicule, idem.

Sæpius, more often.

Sæpiſsime, very often.

Sæpinum, a citee of the Samnites.

Sæuio, uiui, and ui, uire, to be verie angrie, to doe valiantly, to be fierce or cruell, to exerciſe tyranny, to be eiger, to ſhewe rigour, to rage.

Sæuiter, rudely, cruelly, fiercely.

Magis cogito ſæuiter, blanditerne alloquar, I thynke more whether I may ſpeake to hym rudely or gentilly.

Sæuitia, æ, f. g. crueltee.

Adhibere ſæuitiam, to vſe cruelter.

Sæuus, a, um, cruell, horrible, ſometyme angrie, infeſte, fiers, valiãt, mighty, rough, tirãnous.

Seuiſsima hyems, a mervaylous colde winter.

Saga, æ, fœm. g. a wyſe or ſubtyle woman alſo a witche or ſorcereſſe. Saga, is alſo a certayne garment, a caſſake.

Sagacuculla, the hoode of a cloke.

Sagacitas, ãtis, fœ. ge. wyttineſſe, or ſharpeneſſe of wyt, quickeneſſe of ſpirite and perceiuyng of a thynge.

Sagáciter, wittily, finely, with great ſharpeneſſe and quickeneſſe of witte.

Sagax, ácis, om. gen. wyttie, hauing the ſenſes ſharpe, that perceiueth or ſorſeeth a thynge quickely before it come.

Sagaces canes, hounds or ſpanniells.

Palatum ſagax in guſtu, that quickely perceiueth the good or ill ſauor of any meate.

Sagapérium, rii, n. g. a gumme or roſen that reyneth out of a tree or tree called Ferula.

Sagária, æ, fœm. ge. the craft to make clokes to weare vpon harneys, or to make caſſakes.

Sagárius, ii, m. g. a ſellar of ſuche clokes.

Sagaris or Sagarus, a riuer.

Sagãtus, a, um, apparayled in a ſouldiours cloke, or in a caſſake.

Sagdi, dæ, f. g. a greene ſtone, which the Caldeis haue made faſte to theyr handes.

Sagéna, æ, f. g. a great net to take fyſſhe.

Sagimen, giminis, n. g. nouriſshyng, after Caſtelpine, but the place in Columella, for Sagimine, hath Sanguine.

Sagina, æ, f. g. meate, wherwith all thyng is fatted, ſometyme ſuperfluous fatte or greace.

Sagina dicendi, id eſt, habertas.

Saginárium, ii, neu. g. a place wherin any thyng is franched or made fat, a coube or a pen. alſo an ore ſtall.

Saginárius, a, um, that is franched or made fat.

Saginátio, ônis, f. g. a fatting or crammyng.

Saginãtus, a, um, fatted, crammed.

Sagino, aui, are, to make fat, to franche.

Sagio, is, iui, ire, to perceiue quickely, or ſharpely, to ſmell a thyng quickely.

Sagitta, æ, f. ge. an arowe, alſo the top of a twyg or rod. alſo a ſigne in the firmament, and a certayne herbe called of the grecches Piſtana.

Sagitta magula, a quarrell.

Sagittárius, ii, m. ge. an archar. it is alſo one of the. xii. ſignes amõg the ſterres. alſo a coyne of the Perſians.

Sagittárius, a, um, that belongeth to arrowes, mete to make arrowes of.

Sagittifer, ra, rum, that beareth arrowes.

Sagit-

Saginipotens, that is of great power, or that can doo muche with his arowes.

Sagino, aui, are, to shote.

Sagma, æ, f. g. or Sagma, sagmatis, n. g. a packe saddle or sumpter saddle. also an heape. also a packe. also Sagmata be certayne ornetmentes.

Sagmen, sagminis, n. g. grasse plucked vp with the earth, whiche in the olde tyme the ambassadours of Rome did, when they denounced warres to other people.

Sagra, a riuer in Italie.

Sagona, a riuer in France called the Sone.

Sagulum, i, n. g. a little cloke, or casseche.

Sagum, i, n. g. a souldiours cloke, or a casseche.

Sagúntia, æ citee of Spayne.

Saguntus, vel Saguntum, a citee in Spayne beyonde the riuer of Iberus, about one myle frō the sea, the people therof beyng in amitee with the Romaynes, were of suche faithfulnes, that whan Annibal had long besieged them, and brought them at the poynt to be famished: the chiefe of the citee made great fires, and let cast into it theyr treasure, and many of them entred into the fyre, and were wylfully burned, all the residue caught and were slayne, so that none escaped, wherof came this prouerbe Saguntina fames, applied to a great and horrible famine. in the place where this citee stoode, is now the towne called Moruetrum.

Sai, a people of Thrace.

Sais, a riuer in Egypt, where is one of the entreis into the ryuer of Nilus, the entrey or poyte is called Sainicum.

Sal, alis, m. & n. g. salte, sometyme it is put for wysedome, mirthe, pleasaunte wittinesse in woordes, or pleasaunt faction, merie conceites bothe in woordes and otherwyse, pleasantnesse, grace, proper feature. sometyme it signifieth the sea.

Sal, is sometyme a faute in precious stones.

Sales, quicke or sharpe sentences, iestinges, merie conceites, pleasant and delectable communication, that make cause the hearers to laugh, and is somewhat sharpe and bityng withall.

Nulla est in tam magno corpore mica salis, there is not one croumme or drope of good faction in that great roules bodie.

Sala, a towne and riuer in Mauritania. also a towne of Phrygia, Panonia, and Armenia, and a ryuer of Germania.

Salabria, a citee of Cappadocia.

Salacia, the goddesse of water, sometyme it is taken for water.

Salácitas, átis, f. g. an instinction or tickling to lecherie.

Salacones, men that doe lyue alwaie in exceedyng pleasures, and doe thynke that all men doe delyte in that whiche ryseth theyr appetites.

Salamándra, æ, f. g. a beast in fygure lyke to a Lyzarde, full of spottes, whiche beyng in the fyre doeth extincte it, and is not burned.

Salamin, Salamis, or Salamina, an yle by Athens.

Salaminius, Salaminiacus, and Salaminus, a, um, of that yle.

Salaminia nauis, a shippe of Salamin.

Salamoniacus, a kynde of salte founde vnder sande, whiche is lyke to alume, and is medicinable, in dissolutinge and purgeinge of fleume.

Salanga, a promontorie of Irelande.

Salanga, a verie lyttle hyll betweene great Britayne and Irelande, nowe called our ladies hyll.

Salapia, a towne in Apulia.

Salapúsius, may be called a merry iestynge boy, it was a name geuen to Caluus an orator, which beynge of a childes personage, vsed muche iestyng and tauntyng merily.

Salárium, rii, n. g. wages geuen to seruauntes.

Salárius, rii, m. g. a salter, which selleth all thing that is salte.

Salárius, a, um, pertaynyng to salte.

Salária via, an high waie, by the which salte was caried to Rome.

Salassi, people by the Insubriens.

Salax, ácis, om. g. lecherous, geuen to lecherie or lustes of the body.

Aquæ salaces, water rysyng out of the fyrynge.

Salaces cibi, meates that stere to lecherie.

Sálebræ, árum, f. g. plu. places whiche are not playne, but goynge vp and downe, that a man can not passe, but as it were leapynge and hoppyng.

Salebra, is sometyme vsed in ỹ singular nũbre.

Salebrósus, a, um, vnplayns, where a man can not goe excepte he leape.

Salentia, the citee of the Messapians.

Salentinum, a countrey in Italie.

Salentini, a people in Italie.

Salernum, a towne in Italie.

Sálgama, orum, n. g. thynges condite or conserued, as peares, figges, grapes, and other lyke.

Salgamárius, rii, m. g. he that dooeth condite or conserue thynges.

Sália, a ryuer of Spaine.

Sali, a kynde of birdes, whiche be great breeders: as partriches or hennes, I suppose them to be heath cockes.

Saliáris, re, pertaynynge to the priestes of Mars.

Saliaris cœna, a banket or suppar made by the priestes of Mars, a costly or sūptuous suppar.

Saliares virgines, maydens, whiche were with the priestes of Mars, and did sacrifice with the bisshoppes, wearynge on theym cote armours, and bisshops miters on theyr heades.

Salicástrum, stri, n. g a kynde of wylde vyne, reunyng vpon wyllowe trees.

Salicetum, ti, n. g and by syncopation Salictum, ti, n. g. a place where willowes growe.

Salientes, the cockes or pypes of conduites, out of the whiche water spouteth.

Saligneus, and Salignus, a, um, of wyllow or withy.

withy.

Salij, the prieſtes of Mars in Rome, which daunced about the citee bearyng targates called Ancilia. Salij be alſo people of Germanie, called Franci, and their countrey Franconia.

Salillum, li, n. g. a litell ſaltſellar.

Salina, næ, f. g. a place where ſalte is made.

Salinum, ni, n. g. a ſaltſellar. alſo any other veſſell that a pooze man vſeth.

Salinæ, narum, a citee in Sicile.

Salinâtor, the name of a noble man of Rome.

Salio canus, an hauen in France called Sancte Paulus.

Salio, lini, lire, to ſalte or powder.

Salio, lini, lij, or ſalui, lire, to leape, to daunce, to hoppe, to leape as the male doeth the female in tyme of generacion.

Salit mihi cor, my herte leapeth for ioy.

Saliúdra, æ, f. g. poudryng or ſaltyng.

Salitus, a, um, ſalted, poudred.

Saliua, uæ, f. g. and Saliuum, ui, n. g. ſpettill.

Saliua is alſo taken for iuyce. alſo for the wine called Chium.

Saliua lachrymationum, the water that droppeth out of ones eies in weping.

Saliua ſyderum, the ſeiſon or ſyme that falleth of ſterres.

Saliuárius, a, um, that is clammy and thycke like ſpettill.

Saliuárius, rij, m. g. he that geueth a drenche to horſes or other beaſtes.

Saliuôſus, a, um, that hath the ſmacke or taſte of ſpettill.

Saliuo, aui, are, to ſpette or make ſpettill. alſo idem quod Saluio, to geue a drinke to horſes or other beaſtes.

Saliuâris herba, reade Pyrethrum.

Saliſi, people of the Alpes, conſynes to the Swyſſers, and the people called Boij.

Saliunca, called alſo Nardus Celtica, an herbe haupng a verie ſhorte ſtalke, and a blewe flower, ſomewhat longe lyke ſpike, and hath a veerie pleaſant ſauour, it is not our ſpike, whiche becauſe it is lyke in ſauour, is called Pſeudonardus.

Salix, ſalicis, f. g. a wyllowe or wythye.

Salix amerina, in Dioſcorides, is the tree called alſo Vitex and Agnus caſtus, a kynde of wyllow, of ſome called parkeleaues.

Salix equina, idem quod hippuris.

Sallio, lui, ire, to ſalt.

Sallo, ſalli, lere, idem.

Saluſtius, a notable hiſtoriographier, whiche wrote of the conſpiracie of Catiline, and of the warre againſt Jugurtha.

Salmacia, a place gotten without labour.

Salmácidus, a, um, of the fountayne Salmacis.

Salmacis, a fountaine in Caria, where a nymph kyndyng Hermophroditus, the ſonne of Mercurie and Venus naked, ſhe embracyng hym, deſyred of the goddes, that of them two might be made one body, and ſo it happened. alſo the people of Caria be ſometyme called Salmacj.

Salmática, a towne of Portugall.

Salmo, onis, m. g. a fiſſhe called Salmon.

Salmoneus, triſyllabum, the kynge of Elides, whiche takynge koothly vpon hym to haue diuine honours done vnto hym, and would ſeme to caſte lightninges lyke vnto Jupiter, beyng ouerthrowen with lightnyng, was caſt into hell.

Salmonis, nidis, Patronymicum fœmininum.

Salnácidus, a, um, that which is ſalte in taſte, after Calepine, but the place in Plinie hath Salmacidus.

Salnitrum, ſalte peter, whiche is put into gunne powder.

Salo, a riuer called alſo Bibilis, wherewith yron is tempred and made ſtronger.

Salomon, & Solomon, onis, is interpreted peaſible, the name of a kynge of the Iewes, the ſon of kynge Dauid, who exceded all men in wiſedome & knowledge, and neuertheleſſe was by dotage on women, brought vnto idolatrie.

Salomonius, a, um, of Salamon.

Salon, a countrey of Bithynia, verie cõmodious for the feedyng of cattayle.

Salone, a citee in Liburnia, betwene Dalmatia and Illiria.

Saloninus, the ſoonne of Pollio.

Salopia, a towne and countrey in England called Shrewſburie.

Salpa, pæ, f. g. a fiſſhe that wyll not be ſodden, except it be beaten, a ſtockefiſſhe: This fiſſhe is wonderfully peynted with golde raies from the neche to the tayle.

Salpiæ, a towne of Apulia.

Salpinx, is vſed of ſome for Solpuga.

Salpiga, æ, f. g. a kynde of emmotes or pyſmers, that be venemous.

Salſamentárius, rij, m. g. he that ſelleth ſawce, that ſelleth ſalt fyſſhe, or any other ſalte thyng.

Salſamentárius, a, um, pertaynyng to ſauce, ſalt fiſſhe, or any thyng that is ſalte.

Vas ſalſamentarium, a veſſell, wherinto ſauce is put.

Salſamentum, i, n. ge. ſauce, any thynge that is ſalted, as ſaltfyſſhe and ſuche lyke.

Salſe, wittily, wyſely, pleaſantly, merily, with a grace.

Salſédo, ſédinis, f. g. ſaltenelle.

Salſicortex, córticis, fœm. ge. a tree that beareth maſte, whiche nothynge wyll eate, except os neip ſurpne.

Salſilâgo, láginis, & Salſûgo, inis, f. ge. a ſalte iycoure.

Salſiúdo, inis, f. g. a dryne iycour that is ſalte.

Salſúra, æ, f. g. idem quod Salſamentum.

Salſus, a, um, ſalte in taſte: alſo merry, pleaſant, wittie, ſharpe or bytynge in woordes or other wyſe.

Salſuſe, a fountayne of ſalte water of Narbone in Fraunce.

Salta-

Salabundus, a, um, that whiche leapeth or daunceth.

Saltatio, ônis, f. g. a daunceyng.

Saltator, ôris, m. g. & Saltatrix, icis, fœm. ge. a daunter.

Saltatorius, a, um, pertaynyng to daunceyng.
Ludus saltatorius, a schoole of daunceyng.

Saltatus, us, m. g. daunceyng.

Saltem, at the leste waye, if it wyll be none other waye.

Saltus, people lopnyng to the sea called Pontus Euxinus.

Saltim, vel Saltuatim, by leapes.
Saltuatim scribere, to leape from one matter to an other in wrytyng.

Saltito, aui, are, to daunce, to leape often.

Salto, aui, are, to daunce, to leape.
Laudes alicuius saltare, to synge ones prayses in daunceyng.

Saltuàris, re, that daunceth with the stroke of the instrument.

Saltuarius, ij, m. g. a keper of a wod or forrest, a wodwarde.

Saltuôsus, a, um, full of wodes.

Saltûra, æ, f. g. idem quod Saltatio.

Saltus, us, m. g. a thiche wodde, or after some, a place voyde of trees, as a laune in a pathe or forrest. also a leape.

Saluàtor, ôris, m. g. a sauiour, he that keepeth or saueth a thyng from destruction or losse.

Salúber, bris, bre, or hic & hæc Salúbris, & hoc salubre, holsome, whole.
Salubre corpus, a bodie that is in helth.

Salubrior, ius, Saluberrimus, a, um, moze holsome, moste holesome.

Salúbritas, atis, f. g. health.
Salúbritas cæli, atque temperies, an holesome and temperate ayre.

Salúbriter, holesomely.

Salue, verbum defectiuum, god spede you, you be welcome, sometyme contrarie, farewell, god be with you.

Saluco, is vsed of Plautus, for Saluus & sanus sum.
Saluebis à meo Cicerone, my sonne Cicero commendeth hym vnto you.
Salue. S. Satis est mihi tuæ salutis, nihil moror, non saluco, god spede. W. it suffiseth me that you are in healthe: but in fewe woordes I am not well at ease.
Dionysium saluere iubeas, haue me commended to Dionysius.

Saluia, æ, f. g. an herbe called sauge.

Saluiâtum, i, neu. gen. a dynke for an horse or other beaste.

Saluifico, aui, are, to make saulfe, or to saue.

Saluito, aui, are, to geue the dzench called Saluiatum, to horses or beastes.

Salum, i, n. g. the sea.

Saluo, aui, are, to saue, the better printes haue alway seruo.

Salus, a litle birde, whiche hath deadely hatred towarde the asse, because that if he here the asse crie, he casteth his egges before tyme.

Salus, lûtis, health, saftee, the good state of a mans condition or lyfe.
Nosce omnia hæc salus est adolescentulis, to know all these thynges, is the verie saulfegarde of yong men, and that keepeth them from all yuell, or their singular profite.
Saluti esse alicui, to helpe one, to saue his life.
Dare salutem, to saue.
Consulere saluti, to prouide or doo for his health or sauegarde.
Salutem dicere, to salute, also to byd farewell, to take his leaue.
Salutem dicere foro, & curiæ, To take his leaue of the court or common place, to medle no moze in matters of the common weale.
Dic à me illi salutem, haue me commended vnto hym.
Impertire aliquem salute, and alicui salutem, to salute one.
Mittere salutem, to sende commendacions.
Referre salutem, to haue one commended, to beare salutacions agayne.
Salutem mihi verbis tuis nuntiauit, he saluted me in your name.

Salutâris, are, holsome, comfortable.
Salutares litteræ, comfortable letters.
Salutaris littera, the letter, T.
Salutare laxamentum ad confirmandos animos dare, to geue a cõfortable release or breathing tyme, to sette theyr hertes in full courage.
Salutaris digitus, the forefynger.

Salutâriter, in health, comfortably.
Salutariter recipere me possum, saulfe and sounde, without hurte.
Armis salutariter vti, To the health and conseruacion of the people, for their aduantage or profite.
Salutariter dantur in vino, they be verie holesome or medicinable to be ministred vnto sicke men in wyne.

Salutâtio, ônis, fœ. ge. a salutacion, a byddyng good spede, good morowe, or good euen.

Salutâtor, ôris, m. g. a saluter.

Salutatórium, ij, a place where one standeth to salute men.

Salutatórius, a, um, that belongeth to saluting or prayeng to god.
Salutatorium cubiculum, a chaumbre where men doe stande or abyde to salute a prince or a noble man in authoryte, called now a chamber of presence.

Salútifer, tifera, rum, holesome, that bryngeth helth or sauegarde.

Salutiger, i, or Salutigerulus, li, masc. gene. he that bryngeth recommendacions from an other persone.

Salutem, in olde tyme was vsed for salutem.

Saluto, aui, are, to salute, as well at commyng as at as at departyng, to sende commendacions, to byd good morowe, good euen or good spede, to bydde fare well, to take his leaue, to doue reuerence. also to honour.

Cur sternutamentis salutamur? why doe men saie Christ help when we neese?

Palmites salutentur, id est, seruentur incolumes, nec resecentur, Let them be reserued and kept.

Salutare conuiuas, to say to them at the table, muche good doe it you.

Saluto te priusq; eo, I take my leaue of you, or I bydde you farewell before I go.

Salutant, ad cœnam vocant, they byd me good spede, and desyre me to come to supper.

Domus te tota nostra salutat, al my house sendeth you commendacions.

Deum salutare precibus, To praie, to doe his deuocions to god.

Saluus, a, um, saulfe, whole, sounde, without daunger or harme.

Salua res est, the matter is come well to passe.

Saluo capite, without daunger of syfe.

Saluus sis, god spede.

Saluus sum siquidem. &c. I am saulfe and out of daunger, it. &c.

Satin' salue, is all well? or howe go all your matters? well?

Te saluum venisse, that you be come saulfe and sounde and in good helthe.

Galea mihi oportuna esset, salua si foret, if it were not loste, if I had it agayne.

Quæsiuit saluus ne esset clypeus, he asked whether his target were saulfe, and not taken of his enemies.

Salua lege, without any breakyng or violatyng of the law.

Vasa salua, vessells saulfe and sounde, not broken, not cracked.

Salua fide, without breakyng of his promise or allegiance.

Saluo iure nostræ amicitiæ, so that we hurt not or appayre not our frendeship, or doe nothyng agaynst the law of frendshyppe.

Sam, for Eam.

Samara, an hill in the east occeane sea, at the further ende of the mountayne Caucasus.

Samara, is also the seede of an elme.

Samaria, a countrey and citee in Syria, lyenyng to Judea, whiche was the chiefe citee of the. x. trybes of Israell, who beyng taken prisoners by the kynge of Syria, and ledde awaye captyue, thether were sent paynimes for them to inhabyte the countrey, whiche were after called Samaritani, and they myxt the lawe of Moyses with idolatrie, the citee was afterwarde called Sebaste.

Samarobrini, people in France about Cambrie.

Sambicus, a mans name, whiche was for spoylyng of Dianas temple, tourmented a whole perp most grieuously, and so died.

Sambûca, æ, f. g. an instrument of musiche, now called doulcimers. also an ingyne of warre, wherwith fortresses were assaulted.

Sambúcina, æ, fœ. ge. a woman that playeth on doulcimers.

Sambuceus, a, um, of elder or elder tree.

Sambucistria, idem quod Sambucina.

Sambûcus, i, f. g. an elder tree.

Same, an ile in the sea Jonium.

Samera, æ, f. g. the seede of an elme.

Samio, aui, are, to make sharpe.

Samiolus, a, um, made of erth.

Vasa samiola, erthen vessels made in Samos.

Samium, ij, n. g. an erthen potte.

Samius, a, um, of the ile of Samos, the old writers bydde vse it for sharpe and Samiare, to whette or make sharpe.

Samnites, people of Samnium, a countrey in Italie called now Aprucium.

Samonium, a promontorie of Crete, ouer against the Rhodes.

Samos, the name of two iles in the sea called Aegeum, one by Thracia, & therefore it is called Samothracia, the other lyeth against Ephesus.

Samosata, a citee of Asia by Euphrates.

Sampsúchinus, a, um, of maioram.

Sampsúchum, chi, or Sampsúchus, ci, an herbe, called maioram.

Samsa, sampsa, or Sansa, æ, f. ge. the stone of an Olyue.

Samsychon, idem quod Samsuchus.

Sanábilis, le, curable, that maie be healed.

Sanates, people dwellyng about Rome.

Sanátio, ônis, f. g. an healyng or curyng.

Sancio, iui, or sanxi, itum, or sanctum, ire, to consecrate, to confirme vnder a certaine print, to ratifie, to establishe, to ordeyne, to forbydde by ordinance or lawe.

Sancire leges, to constitute lawes.

Fœdera sanxit, he ratifieth or confirmeth the leages or couenaunces.

Sanxierunt ne quis emeret. &c. they ordined that no man shoulde by, or they forbode by a lawe, that no man shulde die. &c.

Sanxit edicto, ne quis ex Asia frumentum exportaret, he forbade by proclamation, that any man shoulde carie or conueyghe corne or graine out of Asia.

Dubia sancire, to confirme possessions that be doubtefull, with a certaine lawe.

Fidem dextra data sancire, to gene his hande to one, and promise by his faieth and trouth, that a thyng shall be sure or ratified.

Fide sanxerunt, they plighted their faieth and trouthe.

Fœdus sanguine alterius cum aliquo sancire, to conclude a peace with one on condicion that a certaine person be put to death.

Iureiurando sancire, to confirme with an othe.

Qui capite sanxit, which ordeyned vnder payne of death.

Multa

Mala sanxit, he made many ordinaunces.
Sanctum est lege, ne. &c. it is defended or forboden by a lawe, that. &c.
Sancte, kyndely, holily, deuoutly.
Sancte adiurat non posse, he sweareth a great ade, and confyrmeth that he can not.
Sanctificátio, ônis, f. g. hallowyng.
Sanctifico, aui, áre, to hallow.
Sanctitas, atis, Sanctimudo, inis, f. ge. holinesse, deuoutnesse, honestie.
Sanctio, ônis, f. ge. a lawe, a thyng decreed and stablished, an ordinaunce that forbyddeth a thyng vnder a certaine penaltie.
Sanctimónia, idem quod Sanctitas.
Sanctimoniales, Nunnes.
Sanctimónium, ij, neu. g. the profession of religious persons.
Sanctor, óris, m. g. he that maketh an ordinance or lawe.
Sanctuárium, ij, n. ge. a place consecrated or hallowed, a churche, a chapell.
Sanctum, a secrete thyng not to be reueled.
Sancti Iacobi herba, Ragge woorte.
Sanctus, a, um, holie, inuiolable by a lawe, confirmed by a law, pure and cleane, vncorrupted, without spotte of vice.
Vir sanctus, a blessed man, a perfect honest mã.
Sancta ad vos anima. &c. id est, incorrupta, nothyng faulte or spitie.
Ornatus sanctus, honest and not dissolute or lyght apparaple.
Sanctissima testimonia, most entire and vncorrupt witnesse.
Sancus, one of the names of Hercules.
Sandalarius, a name of Apollo.
Sandaligérulus, a, um, that weareth a slipper.
Sandálides, a kynde of palme or date trees.
Sandaliótis, an ile called now Sardinia.
Sandálium, ij, neu. ge. a slipper, also a kynde of wheate or meale.
Sandalus, a spice called Saunders.
Sandáracha, æ, f. g. a colour founde in mynes of syluer and golde, yelow oker.
Sandarachátus, a, um, that is myngled with yelowe oker.
Sandarachinus, a, um, coloured with yelow oker.
Sandastros, a precious stone, hauyng in it a bright colour, yelow specks, and is called also Garamantita.
Sandix, sandicis, m. g. is a poulder made of Cerussa, burned till it ware red, as Dioscorides, Galen and Aetius doo write other doo saie, that it is made with Cerule and red chalke, called Rubrica, mixte together. it was also called Siricon, or Syricon. it is also a certayne herbe, and a kynde of redde colour.
Sandicinus color, idem.
Sane, an aduerbe, whiche signifieth, ye, or certainely, truely, in deede, on gods name.
Bellum sane difficile gessit, he fought a verie daungerous battaile.

Sane vt vis, be it as thou wilt.
Sane quàm vtile, surely verie profitable.
Sane quidem, ye hardily.
Nempe ergo aperte vis quæ restant me loqui? D. Sane quidem, but wilt thou then that I shall tell plainely all the rest? D. ye hardily what els? Tulerit sane filius merito pœnas, id est, esto tulerit, fac tulerit, admitte that his sonne was woorthyly punished.
Sit sane vt vis, well, be it as ye will your selfe.
Habeat sane, well go to on gods name, admitte that he hath it.
Sane, for valde: as, Bellum gissit sane difficillimum. Sane bene, for bene quidem.
Sane si placet, ye sir, I am well content if it please you.
Sanè quàm sum gauisus, truely I was verie ioyous and gladde.
Rectè sane, ironice, it is very wel said of you.
Sane quia vero hæ mihi semper patent fores, truely because these doores. &c.
Sanesco, scere, to be or ware whole.
Sanga, a riuer in Portugall.
Sangaris, a ryuer of Galatia, whiche rennyng through Phrygia, falleth into the sea Propontis, it is commonly called Zagarie.
Sangarius puer, Ganymedes.
Sanguiculus, li, m. ge. the bloudde of a hydde or swyne made into meate.
Sanguinária, and Sanguinalis, an herbe that stoppeth bloudde, loke Polygonum.
Sanguinárius, a, um, cruell, bloudy, desyrous of bloudde.
Sanguinarius homo, a cruell person delityng in bloudshedyng.
Sanguinaria sententia, a bloudy sentence, that condemneth a man to die.
Sanguinâlis, le, pertaynyng to bloudde.
Sanguinâlis herba, idem quod Sanguinaria.
Sanguineus, a, um, full of bloudde. also cruell. sometyme of sanguine or blouddie colour.
Sanguinolentus, a, um, full of bloud, blouddy.
Sanguino, aui, áre, to bleede.
Sanguis, guinis, mas. gen. and of olde writers,
Sanguen, guinis, neu. ge. bloudde, kynrede, stocke, parentage, lineall discent, generacion. it is sometyme taken for life, Also strength in poetes often tymes for death, murder or slaughter, also a tree, the barke whereof is of the colour of bloudde.
Sanguinẽ mittere, & detrahere, to leat bloud.
Sanguis ærarij, the substance or money of the common treasourie.
Vitiosus sanguis, corrupt bloudde.
Facere sanguinem, to make effusion of bloud, to kyll men.
Sitire sanguinem, to thirst bloudde, to be desyrous of murther or slaughter.
Troiano è sanguine duci audierat, he hadde hearde, that he descended of the Troians.
Claro sanguine genitus, descended of a noble bloudde or hynrede.

Chari ſanguinis vincula, id eſt, conſanguinitas. Grada ſanguinis propior, nere hynne.

Conſors ſanguinis, a brother.

Attingere aliquem ſanguine, cohærere alicui ſanguine, and Coniungi ſanguine, to bee hyane to one.

Amiſſimus ſuccum & ſanguinem ciuitatis, the vigour, ſtrength and fozce.

Sanguis draconis, a certayne gumme, dzoppyng out of a hynde of trees, growpng in the ile of Medera: the frute of whiche trees is lyke cherries, of colour ſomewhat darker, but muche moze pleaſant in taſte.

Sanguiſorba, bæ, f. g. the herbe called burnet.

Sanguiſuga, æ, f. g. a wourme, which is in ſtandyng waters, and dooeth ſucke the bloudde of men or beaſtes that come into it. It is alſo called Hirudo, a leche, a bloudde ſucker.

Sanicula, an herbe, called Saniculum.

Sanies, ei, f. ge. matter comyng of putrifaction, corrupted bloud, ſometyme poiſon.

Sanies oleæ, id eſt, fæx, the dzege or groũdes.

Saniõſus, a, um, full of matter or corrupted bloudde.

Sanna, æ, f. g. a ſcoyne or mocke.

Sannio, ónis, a diſarde in a plate or diſguiſyng: alſo he whiche in countinance geſture and maners beryderh and mocketh other.

Sánitas, átis, fœ. ge. helth, the good ſtate of ones mynde or witte, ſoundeneſſe of memozie.

Reddere ſanitatẽ veram, to make one thzoughly whole, without any grudge or feelyng of the ſickeneſſe.

Sannus, a ryuer or pole in Ita.

Sano, aui, are, to heale, to cure.

Sanare vulnera reipublicæ, To amende the hurtes and diſpleaſures that the commõ weale hath receiued.

Sanquális, lis, after ſome the hynde of egles called Oſſifraga.

Sanſa, the ſtone of an Olyue.

Sanſucus, maiozam.

Sanſucinus, a, um, of maiozam.

Santalum, a certaine precious wooddc, that cometh out of Indie, whereof be thzee hyndes, white, redde, yelow.

Santerna, næ, fœ. g. ſoulder, wherwith golde is ſouldered.

Santones, & ſantoni, people of a countrey in Fraunce called Xantongue.

Santonicum, or Santonica herba, an herbe, called Lauander cotton.

Santonum portus, Rochell in Fraunce.

Santonum promontorium, a promontozie in Fraunce called Blaye.

Sanus, a, um, whole, holſome, not ſicke, vncozrupted by tranſlacion of ſounde memozie, well in his witte, wyſe.

Sanum fieri ex morbo, To be made or ware whole after a ſickeneſſe.

Sanus ſim, an ne inſaniam, whether I bee wel in my mynde or haſte madde.

Satin' ſanus es & ſobrius? art thou well in thy witte, and well aduiſed?

Pro ſano aliquid facere, to dooe a thyng as it becometh one that is wel aduiſed or in his right mynde. Sanus & curioſus, contrarie.

Male ſanus, haſte beſyde him ſelfe, madde, not well in his witte.

Vix eum ſanæ mentis exiſtimem, I wouldc ſcantly iudge hym to be in his right mynde, or well in his witte.

Sana & ſalua reſpublica, the common wealth ſafe and ſounde, or in good ſtate or condicion, not corrupted with miſorder.

Sapa, æ, f. g. newe wyne boyled to the thirde part of the meaſure: if it be to the haſte deale, it is named Defrutum, as Plinie writeth, lib. 14. and if there be but one part cõſumed, it is then called Calœnum, as Ant. Muſa affirmeth.

Sapa is alſo called ſomtyme Syreon, ſomtyme Hepſema and Hepſeton of Galenus in Meth. and of Nonius Mellacum.

Saperda, dæ, one that is wyſe and witte. alſo a certaine ſhell fyſſhe, whiche hath a verie ſtynkyng ſauour. it is ſometyme vſed for a dounge hill.

Sápidus, a, um, ſauourie, well ſeaſoned, that hath a good taſt or ſauour.

Sapiens, tis, om. g. wyſe.

Sapiénter, wyſely.

Vitam ſapienter inſtituit, he appoynted his life wiſely.

Sapiéntia, æ, fœ. g. the knowlage of thynges diuine and humane, wyſedome, ſapience.

Doctores ſapientiæ, philoſophiers.

Sapientipotens, of great power by his wiſedome.

Sápio, piui, pĩ, or ſapui, ſapitum, or ſápitum, pere, to haue taſte or ſauour, to feele, to bee wyſe, to haue a right opinion.

Rem meam ſapio, I knowe what I haue to dooe.

Sapiunt male, they be ill aduiſed.

Sapit hic pleno pectore, he is meruayloꝰ wyſe.

Sapit plus, he hath moze witte.

Sapit ſatis, he is wyſe enoughe.

Sapis multum ad genium, thou knoweſte how to make good chere.

Iucundiſsime ſapit, it hath a verie pleaſant taſte or ſauour.

Ei non ſapit palatum, his mouth is out of taſt.

Sapit mare, it hath a taſte, ſmacke or ſauour of the ſea.

Magis ſapuiſſet, he had been wyſer, he hadde ben moze wyſely.

Qui ſibi ſemitã non ſapiunt, alteri viam monſtrant, they whiche knowe not whiche waie to goe them ſelfes. ꝛc.

Si recta ſaperet Antonius, if Antony were wyſe, or of a right mynde or opinion in the matter:

matter: or if Antonie intended nothyng but that is right and honest.

Hic plane nihil ſapit, this felowe hath no witte at all.

Sapinus, ni, ſ. g. the lower parte of the firre tree, that hath no knottes. it is ſometyme taken for the whole firre tree.

Sapineus, a, um, of the firre tree.

Sapiri, people by Pontus.

Sapis, a ryuer of Italie.

Sapo, pônis, m. g. ſope.

Saponária, reade Struthio.

Sapor, pôris, m. g. a ſauour, a taſte: by tranſlation pleaſauntneſſe, or wittineſſe in woordes.

Sápphicus, a, um, of Sappho.

Sapphirátus, a ſaphire full of ſpottes.

Sapphirinus, a, um, of a ſaphire.

Sapphirus, ri, ſ. g. a ſtone called a ſaphire.

Sappho, a woman of the ile of Leſbos, a great poettreſſe, who made verſes called Lirici: at the laſt ſhe was taken with the loue of a ponge man called Phao, who rennynge awaie from hir, ſhe not ſuſteyning the anguiſhe of loue, threwe hyr ſelfe downe from an hill into the ſea.

Sappinus, looke Sapinus.

Saprophagus, he that receiueth the potiõ or drinke called Saprum.

Saprum, pri, n. g. a drinke made with ſalte and the fruite called Sorba, which helpeth men that haue the colyke.

Sapros, vineged.

Sapſa, of olde writers was vſed for ipſa, or ſeipſa.

Saraca, a towne of Media.

Sarace, a citee in Colchis,

Sarcárius, a ryuer of Phrygia.

Sarcaſmos, a maner of ieſting or ſcoffyng bitynge ly, a nippyng taunt.

Sárcimen, ciminis, n. g. a ſeame.

Sárcina, næ, ſ. gen. a truſſe or packe, a fardell. ſometyme it is taken for an vnprofitable bourdeyne.

Sarcinas colligere, is proprely of me of warre, whan they remoue or departe from theyr campe.

Sarcinæ, all ſtuffe that is cloſed or ſhut vp in cofers.

Sárcinas, âris, n. g. for Sarcina.

Sarcinárius, a, um, pertaynynge to packes or fardelles

Sarcinaria iumenta, packehorſes or mules.

Sarcinátor, ôris, m. g. a bodger of garmentes, one that mendeth or repaireth.

Sarcinátrix, tricis, the feminine.

Sarcinátus, a, um, laded with fardels or packes.

Sarcínula, læ, ſ. g. a littell packe or fardell.

Sárcino, aui, are, to lade: ſometyme to ſowe.

Sárcio, ſarſi, cire, to make whole againe, to amende a thynge decaied or appaired, to make amendes, to recompence, to pacche, to botche. Non video mihi ſarcire poſſe ædes meas, I can not ſee how my houſes may be repayred, Damna ſarcire, to make reparation, to make amendes.

Dum ſarcire acceptum detrimentum volunt, while they couet or go about to amende the hurte or loſſe that they had receiued before.

Infamiam ſarcire, to put awaie an infamie or ſklander, and to recouer his good name againe.

Sarcion, a ſtone of carnacion colour.

Sarcito, pate the domages or coſtes.

Sarcocolla, a gumme of a tree in Perſia, lyke to the poulder of incenſe, ſomewhat redde and bitter: ſome is white of colour, whiche is muche better than redde.

Sarcóphagus, gi, m. g. a ſepulchre, a tumbe. alſo a certayne ſtone.

Sarculatio, a wedynge.

Sarculo, aui, are, to take, or rather to weede vp.

Sárculum, li, n. g. a rake. alſo an inſtrument to weede corne: in ſome places huſbandmen vſe it in tillyng the grounde.

Sarda, a redde ſtone, wherin ſeales are grauen.

Sardanapâlus, a kynge of Aſſyria, monſtruous in all kynde of lecherie.

Sardanis, a man of Lydia, whiche moued Creſſus to make warre agaynſte the Perſians.

Sardemiſos, a promontorie of the mountayne Taurus.

Sardi, people of Sardinia.

Sardinia, an yle in the ſea called Liguſticum by Geane, not paſſynge. vii. myles from Coſtica. alſo a certayne fiſſhe.

Sardinenſis, ſe, Sardus, and Sardous, a, um, of Sardinia.

Sardis, a citee in Lidia.

Sardo, aui, are, for intelligo, to vnderſtande.

Sardóa, oæ, ſ. g. an herbe lyke to ſmallage, which groweth in Sardinia, wherof if a man doo eate, he ſhall grenne and make countinaunce of laughyng, and ſo die.

Sardonici, certeine hilles of Lyburnia, called Maranai.

Sardonius riſus, a grennyng or laughing without cauſe, a longe laughter.

Sardonychâtus, haupng apparayle garniſched with the ſtone called Sardonyx.

Sardónychus, chi, idem quod Sardonyx.

Sárdonyx. ónychis, m. & ſ. g. a ſtone of the colour of a mans naple.

Sarepta, a towne in Syria, where Hely the prophete was borne.

Sareptanus, a, um, of Sarepta.

Sargacæ, people in the northe part of the worlde, lopgning to the great mere of Meotis.

Sargapiſes, the ſon of Tomiris, taken by kinge Cyrus.

Sargus, i, m. gene. a fiſſhe beynge in the ſea of Aegypte.

Sari, an herbe, growyng in waters, haupnge an harde roote, & wonden, neceſſary for ſmithes.

Sariſſa, æ, ſ. g. a longe ſpeare.

Sarmata, a man of Sarmatia.

Sarmatia, a countrey of Europe, whiche boȝdereth on the noȝthe vpon the ſea called Sarmaticum: on the weſte vpon the ryuer Viſtula, and Germanie: on the ſouth vpon Sibenburgh, Dacia, and Myſia inferioȝ: on the eaſt vpon that Sarmatia, whiche is in Aſia, the ryuer Tanais, & the mariſh Meotis: vnder this be many cõtreies cõteined, Polonia, Rhuſsia, Pruſſia, Lituanica, Liuonica, Moſcouia. &c. the greatter parte of this countrey is now vnder Sigiſmũdus kinge of Pole.

Sarmaticus, a, um, of Sarmatia.

Sarmátice, lyke one boȝne in Sarmatia.

Sármans, tidis, f. g. of Sarmatia

Sarmántus, a gentill mán of Rome, in the tyme of Auguſtus, whiche was a great ſcoffer.

Sarmentum, ti, n. g. a twigge oȝ ſhoubbe of a tree cut of: ſometyme a vine bȝaunche growyng on the tree. Sarmenta bee alſo the litteli buſchie ſtalkes, wherõ the grapes do hange in cluſters. Sylueſcere ſarmẽtis dicitur vitis, when it ſhoweth vp plentifully, oȝ bȝingeth many bȝáches.

Sarmentárius, a, um, made of twigges oȝ ſmalle boowes.

Sarmentôſus, a, um, that hath many ſhzeddes oȝ boowes cut of.

Sarnus, a ryuer in Campania.

Sarónicus, a boſom of the ſea againſt Iſthmus.

Sarpa, a vine whan it is cutte oȝ ſhzedde.

Sarpedon, the kynge of Licia, whiche came to the ayde of ỹ Troianes againſt the Grekes. alſo a promontoȝie of Lilicia.

Sarpo, pere, to clenſe oȝ make cleane.

Sarracœni, a People of Arabia.

Sarra, a citee in Phenicia, called ſometyme Tyrus.

Sarrânus, a, um, of that citee.

Sarabalia, plu. nu. a wooȝde of Baldey, ſignifiyng bȝeeches.

Sarraca, the name of two citees, whereof the one is in Media, the other in Arabia felici, oȝ the ryche Arabie.

Sarracum, ci, n. g. a certayne carre, wherin wood oȝ ſtones be caried.

Sarranæ veſtes, garmentes of purple.

Sarraſtes, people in Campania.

Sarrio, rui, rire, to weede cozne.

Sarritio, ônis, f. g. and Sarritura, ræ, f. g. weedyng of cozne.

Sarritor, tôris, m. g. a weeder of cozne.

Sarſina, an olde citee in Italie, where Plautus the writer of comedies was boȝne.

Sarta tecta, winde tight and water tight, when houſes be letten to certain perſons to kepe them alway repaired ſufficiently, foȝ a certaine ſũme of money. Sarta tecta locare, to ſet out houſes at a pȝice certayne to be repayȝed.

Sarta tecta exigere, to charge a man with reparations oȝ to ſee that the houſes bee kepte in due reparations by theym that haue take the charge ſo to doe.

Sartum tectum habere, to kepe whole and ſounde, oȝ vncoȝrupted oȝ hurt.

Sarta tecta tua præcepta pater vſq; habui, fatther I haue ben alway moſte obedient to youre commaũdementes in euery point: oȝ I dyd neuer one iote contrary to youre wyll and cõmandement in any thynge.

Sarta tecta conducere, to vndertake at a certain pȝice to kepe houſes in due reparations.

Vt Marcum Curium ſartum & tectum conſerues, that you wolde kepe and defende Marcus Curius from all harme oȝ daunger.

Dicimus interdum cum coniunctione.

Sarta tectaq;, & Sartum & tectum.

Sartâgo, tâginis, f. g. a fryng panne.

Sarte, whole.

Sarticum, an entrie into the ryuer of Nilus.

Sartor, ôris, m. g. an harrower oȝ weeder of cozne, alſo a bodether oȝ mender of garmentes.

Sartus, a, um, amended, bodethed.

Sartûra, æ, f. g. a wedynge of cozne.

Sartutillus, ỹ bodie of a ſwine ſtuffed with meale.

Sas, olde wȝiters vſed foȝ Suas, oȝ eas.

Saſon, an ile fiue miles from the citee of Brunduſium, in the realme of Naples.

Sat, foȝ Satis, enough, ſufficient.

Quantum ſat eſt, as muche as is ſufficient.

Sat habet, it is ſufficient, he deſireth no moȝe.

Sat ſcio, I knowe well enough.

Non ſat commode diuiſa ſunt tibi temporibus hæc, theſe thynges are not appointed in theyr tymes halfe hanſomely, oȝ to the poynte.

Sat eſt teſtium, there is witnelle ſufficient.

Sat fecit officium, he dyd his dutie ſufficiently.

Sat habet, ſi tum recipitur, he is contented, oȝ he deſyzeth no moȝe, if he maie than be receiued into youre houſe.

Quæſo vt ſat habeas pater, quod. &c. I pȝaie you father, that you wolde content, youre ſelfe with this, oȝ thinke this ſufficient that. ỹc.

Sata, vſed ſubſtantiuely foȝ cozne.

Satagitæ, people, in the countrey now called Tartarie.

Sátago, ſatégi, gere, to bee diligent, to doe with ſpeede, to be buſy about a thynge, to be greatly occupied, to haue as muche as he can to doe, to haue buſineſſe oȝ matters enough to doe: and it is ſometime conſtrued with a genitiue: ſometime it is ſet abſolutely without any caſe.

Suarum rerum ſatagit, he hath enough to doo about his owne matters.

Nunc ſatagit, adducit domum. &c. now he is verey diligente, oȝ maketh ſpeede in the matter. ỹc.

Conſulibus de via ac multitudine hoſtium ſatagentibus, id eſt, ſolicitis.

Satan, is interpzeted an aduerſarie, by the whiche name the diuell was called, becauſe he was aduerſarie to Chziſte. alſo what ſo euer is contrary to peace, is called Satan.

Satarchæ, people in Scythia, whiche excluded from them the vſe of golde and ſiluer,

Sata-

Satrtes, a Perſian, the ſoonne of Teaſpes.

Satelles, tĕllitis, m. gen. one reteined to garde a mannes perſon. alſo a ſergeant, a catchepoll or bailiffe, that doeth attache men. alſo an armiger.

Satelles Iouis, an egle.

Satellitium, tii, n. g. a garde: the office of ſuche a perſon or officer.

Saterna, a beaſt, whiche dooeth lieue, ſometyme in water, ſometyme on lande.

Satias, ātis, f. g. ſaciete, fulneſſe or werynelle in muche vſyng of a thyng, ſometyme it ſignifieth aboundaunce.

Hi ſalubus occupatis externorum agros inuaſere, frumentiq; ex inopia graui, ſatias facta, after that they had gotten the wooddes or forreſtes, they inuaded the landes of them that wer borderers, and from ſcarſitee of corne thei happened to haue their fil or abundaunce.

Vbi ſatias cœpit fieri, commuto locum, whan I begynne to be wery, either of the one or of the other, I change my place.

Satiabilis, le, that whiche may be eaſily ſatiſfied.

Satiatus, a, um, filled, ſatiſfied.

Somno ſatiatus, that hath ſlepte ſufficiently.

Satie, for Satietas.

Satietas, ātis, f. ge. ſacietie or fulneſſe, lothſomeneſſe or werynelle.

Rerum omnium ſacietas, tedioſeneſſe of all thynges.

Sicubi eum hominum ſatietas ceperat, if he were at any tyme wery of the company of men.

Satietas noſtri, and Deſyderium, contrary.

Satin', for Satiſne.

Satin' ſanus es? art thou well in thy wittes?

Satin' ſalue? be all thynges well?

Satin' id tibi placet? dooeth that pleaſe the?

Satin' habes? ſi. &c. is this ſufficient for you: or will this content you, if. &c.

Satin' ſic eſt? is it well, if it be thus?

Satio, ōnis, f. g. ſowyng of corne.

Satio, āui, are, to ſaciate or fyll, whiche hath relation not onely to the body and ſenſes, but alſo to the mynde, to ſatiſfie.

Satiare cupiditatem, to ſatiſfie his appetite, to haue as muche as he can deſyre. Satiari, to haue enough.

Sātior, & hoc ſatius, oris, better.

Satis, enough, as muche as dooeth neede, ſufficient, verie well.

Satis iam verborū eſt, thou haſte ſaied enough: we haue talked enough of the matter now.

Satis habere, to be content, to deſyre no more.

Satis habeas, nihil me etiam tecum de tui fratris iniuria conqueri, be content, or content your ſelfe with this, that I haue not alſo laide to your charge, the wrong that your brother hath dooen me.

Quot ſunt ſatis? howe many will be ſufficient?

Satis certo ſcio, I knowe ſurely.

Satis credo tibi, I beleue well, I thinke wel.

Satis cum periculo, with great daunger.

Satis diu hōc iam ſaxum voluo, I haue labored about this now long enough, if that myght.

Satis multa me ſcripſiſſe arbitror, I thinke that I haue written enough.

Vt non eſt ſatis æſtimare, that one can not well iudge or eſteeme.

Non enim ſatis intelligebam, for I dyd not perceyue the mattier verie well.

Ne ſatis habeas, doe ye not thynke it enough.

Non ſatis me pernoſti qualis ſim, you doe not know me throughly what maner of man I am.

Oculis non ſatis proſpicio, I dooe ſcant ſee from me, my ſyght dooeth ſomwhat kayle me.

Pluſquām ſatis opus eſt, more than needeth.

Satis recte mones, thou dooeſt aduertyſe me tyght well.

Satis putabat ſe tempore vēturum, he thought he ſhoulde come tyme enough, or in good ſeaſon.

Satis ſuperq;, enough and to muche.

Satiſacceptio, ōnis, f. ge. a couenaunt, wherby a man is bounden, and ſureties with hym, a takyng of ſufficient ſureties.

Satiſaccipio, cēpi, cipere, to take ſufficient ſureties.

Satiſdatio, ōnis, f. g. the ſurete or bonde, wherby men are bounden for an other, for performāce of couenant, or the couenāter and ſureties with hym, a puttyng in of ſufficient ſureties.

Satiſdatum, ti, neu. gen. a bonde, whan one hath put in ſufficient ſureties for performance of a thynge.

Satiſdator, ōris, m. g. he that is bounden or hath putte in ſufficient ſureties for performance of couenant.

Satiſdo, dedi, dare, to put in ſureties for performance of couenantes. alſo to be bounden with ſureties for performyng of couenantes.

Satisfacio, ſatisfacis, fēci, cere, to ſatiſfie, to excuſe, to content, to make ſatiſfaction, to paie debtes, to purge.

Satisfacere ſuis, to cōtēt or paie his creditours.

Satisfacere de viſceribus ſuis, to paie debtes with his owne money.

Quām vt mandatis tuis ſatisfacerem, Than that I might dooe your commaundement in euery thyng.

Vt mihi ſatisfieri paterer à te, that I ſhoulde here your excuſe, or what ye coulde ſaye for your ſelfe.

Officio erga aliquem in re aliqua ſatisfacere, to dooe his duitie throughly.

Satisfacere immortalitati laudum alicuius, to make one haue immortall prayſes.

Non ſatisfacēre alicui, not to dooe that one woulde haue hym.

Alicui diſputationi ſatisfacere, to handle a mattier as it ſhoulde be.

Satisfactio, onis, f. ge. ſatiſfaction, contentyng, purgeyng, excuſyng.

Satiſpræſto, aui, are, idem quod Satiſdare.

Satius, the comparatiue of Satis.

Satiuus, a, um, that mate be or is sowen, set or planted.
Satiuum tempus, seede tyme.
Satnois, a ryuer in Phrygia.
Sator, ôris, m. gen. he that soweth corne, he that setteth or planteth. also a begetter, a father.
Sator mundi, Ianus.
Diuûm sator, Iupiter.
Sator litis, he that causeth contencion or vastyante.
Satórius, a, um, belongyng to hym that soweth.
Satræ, people of Greece, by the sea syde of Thrace.
Sátrapa, or Sátrapes, pæ, among the Persians was as a duke and an erle is here, a great ruler, a peere of a realme. it is also a capitayn or lieutenantcas the capitayne of Berwike, the lieutenant of Irelande.
Satrapia, æ, f. g. a prouince, duchie or countie.
Satullo, aui, are, idem quod Saturare, to satiate or fyll superfluously.
Sátum, ti, n. g. a measure of the Hebrewes, which receyueth of wyne. 33. li. and 4. vnces: of oyle 30. li. of honny 50. li. it is of our measure standerde. ti. gallons and a quarte: and beyng a measure of dry thynges, it is our peche, and the. iiii. parte of a peche.
Satur, sátura, rum, full sedde, sometyme abounsdant or plentuous.
Rus sáturum, a plentifull or fertile piece of grounde.
Saturâtus, a, um, filled, satisfied.
Satureia, æ, f. g. an herbe called sauerie.
Satúrio, ônis, m. gen. he that hath eaten enough and to muche.
Satúritas, âtis, f. g. fulnesse, saturitee, fertilitee or plentiousenesse. also abundance in excesse.
Saturitas ponitur aliquando pro excrementis ventris.
Saturnália, ôrum, neu. gen. plur. fine dates assigned to Saturne in December, wherin men vsed to feaste one an other, and to sende mutuall presentes.
Saturna colonia, a towne of Tuscan.
Saturnalitius, a, um, pertaynyng to the feaste of Saturne.
Saturnia, was the name of a towne also high places were called Saturnia.
Saturnius, a, um, of Saturnus.
Saturniniani, were heretikes, whiche affirmed, that onely. vii. angels made the worlde agaynst the conscience of god the father.
Saturnius, a mountayne at Rome, which was afterwarde called Tarpeius.
Saturnus, one of the. vii. planettes. also a god of the paynyms, sonne of Cœlus and Vesta, and father of Iupiter.
Sáturo, aui, are, to saturate or fill with any thyng superfluously, most commonly in eatyng.
Stercore saturare terrã, to dounge the ground sufficiently.

Saturelanus, a, um, of Saturum.
Saturum, & Satyrum, a cytee of Calabria, not farre from Tarentum.
Satus, a, um, sowen or begotten.
Satus Anchisa, hauyng Anchisa to his father Anchises sonne.
Stirpe diuina satus, hauyng some god to his father.
Satus, us, m. gen. sowyng, plantyng. also seede, generation, begettyng.
Iouis satu editus, begotten of Iupiter, hauyng Iupiter to his father.
Sata, vsed substantiuely for corne.
Sátyra, ræ, f. g. a poesy rebukyng vices sharpely, not regardyng the persons.
Satyricus, and Satyrius, a, um, belongyng to satyres, or that writeth suche poesies or verses.
Satyria, a crowe.
Satyriacum, an image of Priãpus.
Satyriasis, sis, f. g. a sickenesse, wherby the membre of a man standeth alwaie without appetite or dilectacion.
Satyrica, was a comedie, wherin satyres were brought in.
Satyricé, an aduerbe, whiche signifieth sharpely and with reproche.
Sátyrus, a beast, hauynge the head of a man, the bodie of a gote, the poetes vse Satyri, for gods of the woodes.
Satyrorum insulæ, three ies by India, the inhabitauntes wherof haue tayles lyke to the monstruous beastes Satyri.
Satyrion, rij, n. ge. an herbe, hauyng leaues lyke a lilie, but smaller, a knappe with many smalle purple floures, and a roote lyke the genitours of a man.
Saucio, aui, are, to wounde, to hurte.
Ferro, sauciare, to cutte.
Sauciátio, ônis, a woundyng.
Sauciâtus, a, um, wounded, hurte.
Sáucius, a, um, cutte, wounded. sometyme wery with labour.
Sáuior, aris, ari, to kysse sweetely.
Sáuium, ii, n. g. idem Suauium.
Sauo, a ryuer in Campayne.
Sauona, a ryuer of Liguria called Sauon.
Saura, ræ, f. g. a lyzarde, whiche lyeth in hedges.
Saurites, tæ, m. ge. a stone, whiche is founde in the bealy of a greene lyzarde.
Sauromatæ, people called also Sarmatæ, Russes, Tartarpens, Moscouites. &c.
Saurus, a notable image maker.
Saxetânus, a, um, that breedeth among stones.
Saxátilis, le, stonie.
Pisces saxatiles, fyshes bread among stones.
Saxêtum, ti, neu. gene. a place full of rockes or stones.
Saxeus, a, um, stonie, or of stone.
Saxiphagon, or Sexiphages, in greke, or Saxifraga in latin, Dioscorides and Plinie doe call it also Empetron, whiche in deede is the herbe called called Sampyre, vsed for a sauce and in sa-lates: and therfore is boyled and kepte in byne.

Anton. Musa denieth, that Saxifraga, and Empetron be one. Ruellius describeth Saxi-fragon with littell braunches, growynge on stones, haupng small stalkes, not vnlyke to Es-pithymus, but that they are blacke and shorte, and hath leaues lyke to maidenheare, sbut that they be greatter, or to Polypodi, on the toppe bushy, but out of order, haupng neyther floure nor seede, and a superfluous roote. He also saieth, that it is founde in olde buyldynges, in the toppes of the stones. In an other place he nameth that kynde of maydenheare, whiche is called Adiantum Saxifragon. Our Sax-frage I neede not to describe, it is so commonly knowen, and groweth in suche aboun-daunce, whiche is not lyke to any of the other:
nor yet to that, which in Fraunce (as Ruellius writeth) is called Saxifragia maior, whiche he affirmeth to bee Sefeli Massiliense: nor to that, whiche he supposeth to be a kynde of Na-
pi. Some thynke Saxifragum to be the herbe called Teintwoorte.

Saxificus, a, um, that tourneth into stones.

Saxoforatum, a towne in the confinees of Vmbria and Picene.

Saxones, the people of Saxonie.

Saxonia, Saxonie.

Saxósus, a, um, full of great stones or rockes.
Frutex saxosus, an herbe or shrub, that groweth amonge stones.

Saxulum, li. n. g. a littell roche or stone.

Saxum, i, n. g. a roche, sometyme a stone, some-tyme an hyll.
Signare carmine saxum, to wryte an Epitaphie vpon a tumbe.
Saxū voluere, to tourne the stone, a prouerbe, applied to theym that bee fatigate or weried with continuall and vnprofitable labours.

S ANTE C

SCabellum li, n. g. a lowe stoole or low setle.

Scaber, bra, brum, rusty, rough, sometyme filthy.
Dentes scabri rubigine, the teeth being filthy,
as it were with rust, whan they bee not washed.
Pecus scabrum, hoc est scabiosum.

Scabies, ei, f. g. a scabbe.

Scabile, lis, n. g. idem quod Scabellum.

Scabiósa, an herbe, rede Psora, scabiouse.

Scabiósus, a, um, scabbed.

Scabo, bi, bere, to rubbe or scratche.

Scabrárus, a, um, made rough or rugged, as it were a thyng that is scalde.

Scabrédo, brédinis, fœ. gen. a roughnesse of the shinne, as whan it dooeth wrincle.

Scabre, roughly, not playne or smothe.

Scabrítia, æ, and Scabrities, ei, fœ. g. rustinesse, filthynesse, roughnesse.

Scabro, ônis, a wourme, which is ingendred of the carrayne of a dead horse.

Scabrósus, a, um, idem quod Scaber.

Scabrum, bri, n. g. idem quod scabritia.

Scæa, an hauen at Troie, where as was the sepulchre of Laomidon.

Scæi, people in Thracia.

Scæna, næ, f. g. a place, whiche serueth onely for enterludes or comedies to bee plaied in, whiche was in the fourme of a halfe circle. it is also where trees or bushes are cut and laied ouer the head, in such forme as men may vnder them walke or sitte in the shadowe. it is also where a vice or offence is openly detected, in suche wyse as men dooe crie out, or wounder at it. looke Scena.

Scænaticus, vel scænarilis, for a player in comedies or enterludes.

Scænicula, a diminutiue of Scæna.

Scæ'nicus, a, um, pertenyng to enterludes.

Scæ'nicus, a player in enterludes.

Scænitæ, people of Arabie, whiche dwell alwaie in tentes, couered with the heares of gottes:
among whom yf a swine or hogge be brought, it dieth.

Scænóma, nómatis, n. g. a tente, also a bagge.

Scænopegia, orum, n. g. the feast of the tabernacles, wherin the Jewes dyd set vp tabernacles or tentes in similitude of theym, wherein they dwelled whan they came out of Egypte.

Scæua, uæ, f. g. the lefte hande. also he that vseth the lefte hande for the ryght.

Scæuus, a, um, ill. sometyme it signifieth good:
as, Scæuum omen, good lucke or chaunce.

Scæ'uola, a noble man of Rome.

Scala, læ, or scalæ, scalarum, f. g. a ladder. also a payre of Staires. some put this difference, that Scala, læ, is a ladder, and Scalæ, arum, a payre of Staires.

Scalabiscus, a citee of Portugall, called commonly Trugillo.

Scalde, a riuer in Fraunce.

Scalmus, mi, m. g. a littell piece of wood, wher-vnto shypmen dooe bynde their ores, to rowe the more easyly.

Scalpellum, li, n. ge. or Scalpellus, li, m. ge. a penne knife. also an instrument or fine knife, that surgions vse to leat blouddе with.

Scalper, pri, m. g. any instrument of yron, wherwith incision is made, as a lancette, cissours, or suche other.

Scalpo, psi, pere, to scratche, to clawe, to scrape,
also to graue in mettall or stone.

Scalprum, pri, n. g. an instrument, wherwith any thyng is scraped, or ripped: also a surgions instrument, wherwith he taketh corrupte flesshe from the bones. it is also a grauing iron, a shaping knyfe. also a knyfe, wherwith they cutte vynes.
Scalprum librarium, a penne knyfe.
Scalprum sutoriam, a shomakers paring knife, of shauyng knife.

Scalptor, ôris, m. g. a grauer.

Scalptûra, ræ, f. g. grauyng in mettall.

Scalpturâtum pauimentum, a pauement made with stones of diuers colours ioygned together, hauyng ymages of beastes made in them.

Scalpturio, or Scalpúrio, riui, rire, to scrape as a coche dooeth or other foules.

Scálpturo, aui, are, to ingraue.

Scalpurigo, riginis, f. g. a clawyng.

Scamander, dri, a ryuer of Troie descendynge from the mountayne Ida.

Scamandria, a towne by the hauen of Ilium, not farre from Troie.

Scamandrius, the soonne of Hector and Andromache.

Scamnum, ni, n. ge. a benche or fourme. also a steppe or grice, whereby a man goeth vp into a hyghe bedde, also a balke vntilled betwene two forowes: by a metaphore a barre or shelfe in the sea.

Scamna, bee sometyme taken for boughes of trees.

Scammonea, or Scamonia, æ, or Scamonium, nij, an herbe, the iuyce whereof is vsed in medicine to pourge choler vehemently. All be it that it is venomous, and leaueth worse matter behynde, than it doeth expell.

Scandalides, a kynde of dates.

Scandalizo, aui, are, to offende.

Scandalum, li, n. ge. occasion to sinne, geuen by an other to hym that sinneth: any thynge that one is offended in.

Scandiana mala, a certayne kynde of appuls.

Scandiania, an yle in the northe Ocean sea, the quantitee wherof was neuer founde.

Scandix, dicis, f. g. an herbe lyke to cherupll, but it is sweeter, and hath a white floure, and a litle roote, wylde cherupll.

Scandó, didi, dere, to clymme.

Scandor, scánderis, the passiue.

Scandulaca, cæ, f. g. an herbe, whiche renneth vppon ozne, as yuie dooeth on trees.

Scandula, læ, fœ. gen. a shingle, whiche is a tyle of woodde, wherwith dyuers churches bee couered.

Scandularij, they ỳ do couer houses with shingle.

Scándulum contectũ, a house couered with shingle or woodden tiles.

Scáncilis, le, that which may be climmed or gone vp on.

Scansio, ônis, f. g. a climmyng vp.

Scapha, phæ, f. g. a bote made of a whole tree, or a shyppe bote.

Scaphiárius, rij, m. g. a bote man.

Scáphium, phij, n. g. a basen or vessell to receyue vrine or ordure. Also a drynkeyng potte. sometyme a spade or lyke toole to digge with.

Scapilium, lij, n. g. the space betwene the shoulders: also the backe.

Scapténsula, a place in Macedonia, where syluer was digged.

Scaptia, an olde citee in Italie, wherof came Scaptia tribus.

Scápula, læ, f. g. the hynder parte of the shulders.

Scapulâris, re, pertcinyng to the shulders.

Scapularis vestis, a garment, whiche coueretb oncly the shulders.

Scapulâris, a boye or wenche, which is often beaten about the shulders.

Scapus, i, mas. g. the body of a pillour, betwene the chapitre and the base. also an instrumente that weauers vse: after Ruellius, it is a stalke, whiche riseth bolte vpright: some doe call it a hnappe, wherin seedes are contained, as a poscie: some doe so name the huske of a grape. also the greene skinne of a kilbarde, acorne, walnutte, or suche lyke. also a beane stalke.

Scapi candelabrorum, the parte of a candils sticke betweene the base or foote and the nose, the shanke.

Scapus cardinalis, the chiefe poste of a gate, whervnto the hynges ber fastned, and whereby in some places the gate is turned in a socket aboue and beneth, the head of a gate.

Scapus trutinæ, the tongue of the balance.

Scapus in chartarum ratione, a reame or a queare of paper.

Scarabæus, bæi, m. g. a flie with a blacke shell or huske, called a bitell, whiche breedeth and feedeth in rowe shardes, and is blacke. also there is a kynde of them, whiche hath hornes lyke to an harte.

Scarabæus aquilam, a prouerbe, applied to suche as indeuour them selfe to do displeasure to those that be more puissant then they are.

Scardona, a citee of Liburnia called Scardo.

Scarificátio, ônis, f. g. launcyng.

Scarifico, aui, are, to launce or open a sore, that the corrupte matter may issue out.

Scarites, tæ, m. g. a precious stone.

Scarium, rij, a certayne measure of corne, how muche it conteyneth I know not.

Scarus, a fysche, whiche doeth chewe lyke a beaste: some me suppose it to be a gilte head or goldnie

Scátebra, bræ, fœ. g. the bollyng or rysyng vp of water out of a spryng, or a surge of water.

Scáteo, scátui, tére, to renne or braste out, as water doeth out of a narrow or streict place, to renne ouer, to be full, to haue excedynge great plentie.

Scaturiginósus, a, um, that bursteth out or renneth ouer.

Scaturigo, riginis, f. g. brastyng out of water, or other thyng in like maner.

Scatúrio, scatúris, riui, rire, to renne out or aboode. also to sprynge or growe aboode plentifully, as some herbes doe.

Scaurus, ri, m. ge. he that hath his toes swollen, or his ancle crooked, that he maie not goe faste. it was also an honorable house of the Romaynes.

Scaus

Scaurus, a certayne fiſche.
Scazon, tis, m. g. a kynde of meeter.
Scelerate, miſcheuouſely, naughtily, wickedly.
Scelerátus, a, um, he to whom a miſcheuous deede is doone: or that dooeth a miſcheuous deede, miſcheuous, naughty, lewde. alſo noyſome, hurtefull.
Scelerátum frigus, id eſt, nocens.
Sinapis ſcelerata, ſharpe and bytyng muſtarde ſeede.
Haſta ſcelerata, proſcripcion and open tellyng of meanes goodes againſte reaſon and honeſtee.
Scelerátus campus, a fielde at Rome, where the nunnes of Veſta were buried quicke, if they were founde to lyue incontinently.
Scélero, aui, áre, to pollute, to defyle.
Scelerósus, a, um, that hath done an vngracious or miſcheuous deede, full of miſchiefe, a miſcheuous and a naughty knaue.
Scelestè, vngratiouſely, miſcheuouſely, wickedly.
Scelestus, a, um, vngracious, full of vnhappineſſe, miſcheuous, vengeable.
Scelus, ſcéleris, n. ge. a miſcheuous deede. alſo an vngracious perſone, a naughty felowe.
Abeſſe ab aliquo ſcelere, not to be giltie in any miſcheuous acte.
Aſtringi ſcelere, to be culpable or faultie.
Scena næ, fœ. g. a pauilion or haule, alſo a ſcaffolde. alſo a place couered with bowes or trees, growynge one within an other, and geuyng a ſhadow. the ſhadow of an hyll, woodde or other lyke thynge: lyke Scœna.
Scena totius rei hæc eſt, this is the ſome and argument of the whole mattier.
Seruire ſcenæ, to doe accordynge to the preſent tyme and occaſion.
Scena minore, id eſt, minore apparatu & oſtentatione.
Scenâlis, le, perteinyng to a ſcaffolde, or ſtage.
Scénice, lyke to them that plaie on ſcaffoldes in comedies, or tragedies.
Scénicus, a, um, belonging to the playeng of tragedies or comedies, or one that plaieth in a tragedie or comedie.
Scenitæ, people of Arabia felix.
Scenofactórius, a, um, that belongeth to the makyng of tentes, pauilions, ſcaffoldes, arbers or other ſhadowed places.
Scenográphia, æ, fœ. ge. is an adumbracion or lyght diſcripcio of ỹ front and ſydes of a houſe, where the lines do anſwere to the compaſſe and tentre of euery parte.
Scenôma, nómatis, n. ge. a pauilion, a ſacke.
Scenopégia, órum, n. g. plu. the feaſt of tabernacles or tentes.
Sceparnon, ni, n. g. a couerynge.
Scepſis, a citee in Phrygia.
Sceptici, were a ſecte of philoſophiers, which affirmed nothynge, the chiefe of that ſecte was Pirro and Herillus.
Scéptica, cæ, fœm. ge. the ſecte of theſe philoſophers.
Sceptrum, tri, a princes ſceptre.
Potiri ſceptris, to be kynge or rular.
Reponere aliquem in ſceptra, to reſtore one to his kingedome againe.
Scéptrifer, ra, rum, that beareth a ſceptre.
Sceptúchus, ci, m. g. he that holdeth a ſceptre.
Sceda, æ, fœ. g. a leafe of paper, a ſcrowe, a ſcedule. ſometyme a booke. it was vſed in olde tyme for writyng tables.
Schedia, órum, n. g. a thyng lyke to a bridge with trees pinned together, wheron thynges are caried in the water, in the ſtede of a barge, as it maie be ſeene on diuers great riuers in Germanie. alſo a bote or litteli ſhippe.
Schedia, órum, n. g. plu. verſes made without meditacion or ſtudie.
Schedia, chippes that carpenters make in hewyng of tymber.
Schedion, dii, n. g. any thynge ſodaynely made, and without muche labour, as a bridge or other thynge.
Schédula, læ, fœ. gen. a littell ſcrowe or leafe of paper.
Schema, ătis, n. g. and Schema, mæ, f. g. an ornament ſpecially in ſpeche. alſo Schema, mæ, is vſed for a garment.
Scheſis, where a multitude of wordes are brought in together vnioygned: as, Nubila, nix, grando, procellæ, fluminа, venti, cloudes, ſnowe, hayle, ſhowres, ſtuddes, wyndes.
Schilchi, amonge the Iewes was a weyghte of foure ounces.
Schinis, the name of a notable and cruell robber, that was ſlayne by Theſeus.
Schinos, the tree, out of the whiche renneth Maſtic. rede Lentiſcus.
Schinuſa, one of the yles called Sporades.
Schiſma, ſchiſmatis, n. g. a diuiſion ſpecially in the churche.
Schiſtum, ti, n. g. the milke that remaineth after that the milke is ſodden, whiche is called well tourdes: after Budæus it is creame.
Schœneus, called alſo Jaſius a kyng of Arcadie, father of Atalanta.
Schœneius, a, um, of Schœneus.
Schœneis, idis, patronymicum fœmin.
Schœniculæ, harlottes, whiche dreſſe them ſelfes with ſtinkyng oyntmentes.
Schœniſmos, a meaſuryng of grounde.
Schœnobates, he that goeth on a corde.
Schœnobáticus, a, um, perteinyng to him that goeth vpon a rope.
Schœnobaticam facere, to exerciſe the feate of walkyng on cordes.
Schœnóplocos, ci, m. g. a ropar
Schœnos, or Schœnum, a corde. alſo that whiche is called Iuncus odoratus: Celſus calleth it Iuncus rotundus: the apothecaries call it Squinantum.
Schœnus, nuntis, a ruler by Athens: alſo an other in Arcadia.

Schenus, a ſpace of grounde, conteining .60 furlonges, whiche is ſeuen miles, and an halfe.

Verbum ægyptium.

Schola, læ, f. g. a ſchoole, a college. alſo a place in a bayne, where men did abide, whyles other were bained. ipheweyle in a porche, wherin men taried for anſweres. Scholæ, are taken for diſputacions betwene the maiſter and his ſcholars.

Scholam explicare, id eſt, præcepta doctrinæ vel ſectæ alicuius exponere.

Pomeridianis ſcholis Ariſtoteles. &c. Ariſtotle in his diſputations at after noone. ꝛc.

Scholāris, re, perteinyng to ſchooles.

Scholaſticus, ci, a ſcholar.

Scholaſticus, a, um, ſcholaſticall.

Schōlium, lij, n. g. a ſhorte or compendious expoſition.

Sciamāchia, æ, fœ. g. a priuie exercyſe, a ſhadowe or image of contencion or fyghtyng.

Sciāter, teris, m. g. an inſtrument of Aſtronomie, that men vſed in chooſynge ſituations of cities.

Sciatēricon, ci, m. ge. a diall ſet vpon a wall to knowe by the ſoonne what is a clocke.

Sciathos, a certayne ple.

Sciens, entis, knowyng, wittyng.

Sciens feci, I dyd it wittyngly.

Nunc adeo vt tu ſis ſciens, and nowe I wolde thou ſhuldeſt knowe.

Vt ſis ſciens, that you may not bee ignorant of the matter.

Te ſciente faciam quidquid egero, thou ſhalte be of counſayle what ſo euer I ſhall doo: or I wyll dooe nothynge without your counſayle.

Sciens non faciam, I wyll not dooe it wittyngly.

Sciens latinæ linguæ, one that is ſkilled in the latyne tongue.

Sciens citheræ, counnyng on the harpe.

Scienter, counnyngly, wittyngly.

Scienter feci, I did it counnyngly.

Scientia, æ, f. g. counnyng, knowlage, ſcience.

Iuris ciuilis ſcientia, knowelage of the ciuile lawe.

Scilicet, as who ſayeth, it is as muche, that is to witte, ſurely, moreouer, yea what els, ſometyme it implieth a negatiue.

Id populus curat ſcilicet, yea the people careth muche therfore, as who ſaieth, they care nothing for it.

Scilicet equidem iſtuc factum ignoſcam, yea mary that is well ſaied, ye I wyll pardone the anone: or thynkeſt thou that I wyll pardone this deede of thyne?

Scilicet expectemus illud quinquennium, ye marie it is beſt that we tarie yet vntyll the fiue yeres be paſſed, as who ſhould ſaie, I wyll not tarie ſo longe.

Scilicet grauiorem dolorem tibi patrui tui mors attulit, quam C. Graccho fratris, maie that be true, that the death of thyne vncle greeued the more, then greeued Gracchus the death of his brother.

Scilicet ita res eſt, truely it is as I tell you.

Non videsne P. videā obſecro quem? Ph. hunc ſcilicet, ſeeſte thou not? See, I praie the whom? Ph. hym I tell the.

Fraeris igitur Thais tota eſt? C. ſcilicet, yea it is euen ſo.

Alterum quod iam diu fuit ſcilicet conſulere, iam perdidiſtis, that is to wit, that is to ſaie.

Scilla, læ, fœ. g. a certayne herbe, whiche hath a roote like an oynion, growynge bothe on the lande and in the ſea: ſome call it Squilla.

Scillinus, a, um, and Scillitius, a, um, made of Scilla.

Scillites, tæ, m. g. a kynde of wyne made with Scilla.

Acetum ſcillites, vineger, hauyng the rootes of Scilla ſtiped in it.

Scimpōdium, dij, n. g. a littell couche or benche.

Scincus, a kynde of ſmall crocodilles in the riuer of Nilus.

Scindo, ſcidi, ſcindere, to cutte, to diuide, to rent, to teare.

Scindere ſententiam, to diuide his opinion.

Humum ſcindere vomere, to plough the grounde.

Nebulas ſcindere, to goe through the cloudes.

Penulam ſcindere, prouerbially, to forſe or holde one to tarie.

Ne ſcindam ipſe dolorem meum, that I make not refreſſhe or renewe myne owne ſorowe or greefe.

Scinditur incertum ſtudia in cōtraria vulgus, hoc eſt, it in diuerſas ſententias tanq; partes.

Scindidi, is vſed of Plautus for Scidi.

Scintilla, læ, fœ. ge. a ſparke of fyre, ſuche as is ſtriken out of a flint.

Scintilla belli prō reliquis.

Vt nequa ſcintilla reterrimi belli relinquatur, that no ſparke of that moſt cruell warre be lefte.

Scintillātio, ōnis, a ſparkelynge vp of fyre: alſo a ſprynkelynge vp as newe wyne dooeth in the cuppe.

Scintillo, aui, to ſparcle.

Scintillula, læ, f. g. a little ſparcle.

Scio, ſciui, ſcire, to knowe.

Scire fidibus, to bee perfecte in playynge on inſtrumentes.

Scire ſciſſere ep. to ordeine and inacte, as it is in our parlyament.

Scire omnes linguas, to ſpeake all languages.

Scit fidibus, he can playe on the harpe.

Latine vel græce ſcire, to vnderſtande or be counnyng in greeke or latine.

Sciens non faciam, I wyll not dooe it wittyngly.

Scio vti foro, I knowe what I haue to dooe, alſo I can accommodate my ſelfe to other mennes maners, ye to the condicions of the tyme and place

place present.
De argento ni mater tua sciat, vt factum sit, if your mother knowe not what is become of the money.
Scire certum velim, I wolde know the truthe.
Non veneror quod sciam, he came not as farre as I knowe.
Sciri, the passiue.
Scin, for Scisne.
Scitur, the impersonall.
Scibo, for Sciam.
Scione, a towne of Macedonie.
Sciolus, li, m. ge. he that knoweth somewhat, a smatterer in any knowlage.
Sciomantia, a parte of nicromancie, wrought by shadowes.
Sciopodes, people, whiche lyng wpright, dooe shadowe them selfes with their feete: all be it euery one man hath but one legge, yet bee they wonderfull swyfte.
Sciotericon, lohe Sciatericon.
Scipiadæ, and Scipionidæ, they whiche were of Scipiones progenie, the noble capitaynes of Romayns.
Scipio, the surname of diuers noble Romayns, of the whiche. iiii. were most excellent, as well in marciall prowesse, as in other most notable vertues. The one, called Scipio Nasica, sonne of Gneius Scipio, who had ben bothe Consull and triumphed: and beyng a very yong man, was demed of al the people of Rome to bee the beste man in that citee. Two other were bretherne, ỹ sonnes of Publius Scipio. The one of them, L. Scipio, for the subduyng of Asia, was called Scipio Asiaticus, ỹ other, P. Cor. Scipio, for vanquisshyng Annibal, and the people of Affrica, was named Scipio Africanus Maior, this Publius Cor. Scipio, from his childhode was of a wonderfull towardnesse: for beyng but. xvii. yeres olde, in a great battaile by Pauie in Lumbardie, he rescued his father beyng enuironed with ennemies, and in danger to be slayne. Also after the discomfiture at Cannas, where the more parte of the floure of chyualrie was slayne, because the residue of the yong men concluded to haue forsaken Italie, this Scipio drewe out his sworde, and compelled them to sweare, that they shuld not leaue the citee, but defende it. After that his father and vncle were slayne, all men fearyng to be Capitaynes in so daungerous warres, he stept forth with a noble courage, proferyng hym selfe to take that charge in hande, whervnto the Senate and people consented, he beyng then but. 22. yeres olde, they beholdyng in his personage and visage a beautie incomparable, his countinance merry and gentill, and in his gesture and pase to be a wonderfull maiestee, whiche was had in suche admiracion, through out all the worlde, that after he had dryue Annibal out of Affrike, subdued the citee of Carthage, and costreigned the great kynge Antiochus to desyre peace of the Romayns, the warres beyng ceassed, men came out of all countrees to Rome, onely to see and honour hym, as one excedynge the state of mortalitee, whereby suche enuie was stirred fawarde hym, that he was accused for detenyng of certayne treasure, whiche shulde haue ben brought into the common Treasourie: but he with a noble and valiant courage came before the people, and remembryng what he had done for the weale publike, required them to go with hym to the Capitoll to geue thankes to god for his victorie: and so departyng, all the people followed hym, and lefte the iudges alone. But not withstandyng he so greuously tolde the ingratitude of the Senate and people, that he abandoned all common affayres, and went out of the citee of Rome to a manour place, whiche he had at Linternum, and there ended his life, when he had lyued liii. yeres. A notable remembraunce to them that dooe trust on fortune or fauour of the people. The fourth was Scipio Africanus Minor, sonne of Paulus Aemilius: he subuerted Carthage and Numantia.
Scipio, ónis, m. g. a staffe to walke with. also the stalke of a grape.
Sciron, a notable robbar, whose bones beyng caste into the sea, were turned into great rockes. lohe Scyron.
Scirôma, ătis, n. ge. hardnesse. also an infection or a disease of the liuer that can not bee healed.
Scironia saxa, rockes in the sea by Athenes.
Scirpea, æ, fœ. ge. a dounge potte or coine made with roddes, or rushes.
Scirpeus, a, um, that is made of bull rushes.
Scirpicula, læ, fœ. ge. a litteil hooke, wherewith rushes or any thynge is cutte of in byndyng of thynges.
Scirpiculum, li, n. ge. a basket or hamper made of twygges or rushes.
Scirpiculus, li, a litteil bull rushe.
Scirpi, subtile and capcious sentences.
Scirpus, pi, m. g. a bull rushe.
☞ Nodum in scirpo quærere, to seke for a knot in a rushe, is a prouerbe, wherby is signified, to seke to diligently for a thynge that maie not be founde, or to make doubte of a thyng, whith is playne. Scirpi in Aul. Gellius, are capcious argumentes, subtile saiynges, darke questions, riddils.
Scirrus, or Scirron, ri, neu. ge. is an hardenesse growen in the flesshe within the skynne, or in some other parte within the body, a kirnell.
Scirrhosis, sis, f. ge. a disease in the eies, comyng of a longe inflammacion, flesshe growyng in the somewhat blewe.
Scirta, a hynde of opnions growyng in wynter called scalions.
Scisciror, âris; ari, to demaunde, to aske, to inquire, to endeuoir to knowe a thyng, to watche to the intent to knowe.

Liber

Libet ſciſcitari, I haue a lantaly to inquire, I haue a great deſyre to aſke, that I may knowe.
Sciſcito, is vſed of Plautus actiuely.
Sciſco, ſciui, ſciſcere, to knowe. alſo to decerne or geue ſentence, to make ordinances or lawes, to ordeine.
Accurro vt ſciſcam, quid velit, I renne to him to knowe what he wolde haue.
Sciſsilis, le, that is or may be cutte.
Sciſsúra, ræ, f. g. and Sciſſus, us, m. g. a cutte, a chappe, a cleſte.
Sciſſus, a, um, cutte, diuided, cleſte, rent, torne.
Scitæ, people in the northe part of Aſia, whiche were cruell and harde to be vanquiſhed. thei be nowe called Ruſſians, Moſcouites, and Tartarians.
Scitè, counnyngly, craftily, pꝛeatyly, wittyly, gaiely.
Scitaménta, ôrum, neu. gene. pleaſantneſſe, by tranſlation ſuche thynges, as one perſwadeth hym ſelfe to be witty or ſubtile in his communication, fine and witty thynges ſet to adorne an oꝛation.
Scitor, aris, ari, to demande or inquire thynges ſecrete or vnknowen.
Scitum, ti, n. g. a decree or ſtatute, an ordinance.
Scitum facere, to make an ordinance or decree.
Scitulus, a, um, pꝛeaty, feate.
Scitus, a, um, wiſe or witty. alſo pꝛopꝛe or feate.
Hoc ſcitum eſt, this is a goodly wiſe ſaiyng.
Sciúrus, ri, m. g. a ſquyꝛrell.
Scius, a, um, that knoweth a thyng.
Scleriaſis, ſis, fœ. g. a ſwellyng of the eie liddes, with pepne and redneſſe.
Sclerophthálmia, æ, fœ. ge. where the eie liddes bene harde, and ware heauy with ache.
Sclopus, pi, m. g. a ſowne, whiche is made with puffyng of the cheekes.
Scobina, næ, f. g. an inſtrument that bowiers vſe to ſhaue their bowes with, called a grauer.
Scobino, aui, are, to wounde, to ſhaue of.
Scobs, ſcobis, f. g. that which cometh of ſawyng, ſhaupng, filyng, or boꝛyng of woodde or metall, ſawe duſte, pynne duſte and ſuche like. alſo gꝛpt of ſtones, wherwith mettall is ſcoured.
Scodra, a citee of Liburnia, called nowe Scutara.
Scolécia, æ, f. g. a kynde of ruſt or canker.
Scolécium, ci, a certayne wourme.
Scolopendra, dræ, a kynde of fiſhe that hath many feete, whiche beyng taken with an angle, caſteth out all his bowelles, vntill the hooke be out, and ſucketh them in agayne.
Scolopendria, æ, fœm. ge. the herbe called hartis tongue.
Scolopéndrion, an herbe called alſo Aſplenon, it groweth on ſtinte walles, where the ſon cometh neuer or ſeldome, and hath leaues like Polypodium, ſomwhat yelow by the grounde and rough, and aboue greene, haupng neither ſtalke, floure, nor ſeede. it is not hartes tongue, whiche is commonly called Scolopendria, but it is that whiche the apothecaries doo call Cetrac, rede before in Hemionitis, & Phillitis.
Scolopendra, ræ, f. g. a litteli wourme, with many legges, wherwith he goeth like to a barge with many oꝛes.
Scolus, a village in Aſopia, vnder the mountaine Citheron, a place vnpleaſaunt, vnfrutefull, vntilled and rough: Stephanus bounderh it in Bœotia.
Scolymos, mi, m. g. a thiſtell nowe called wilde Artichoke: of ſome men it is take for the thiſtill, whiche beaſtes doo eate, called cowthiſtell.
Scombrus, or Scomber, bri, m. g. a fiſhe, a certayne kynde of Tuny.
Scomma, ſcómmatis, n. gen. a ſcoffe or ſentence ſpoken in mirthe, whiche ſowneth otherwiſe then is ment of hym that ſpeaketh.
Scopæ, arum, f. ge. plu. a bꝛoome or beſome to ſweepe houſes.
Scopæ manuales camomeli, handfulles of the croppes of camomile.
Scopæ diſſolutæ, pꝛouerbially, diſſolute men without witte or counſayle.
Scopas diſſoluere, to faie or doe a thing without any purpoſe or reaſon, to make a thyng vnpꝛofitable, that it wyll ſerue to no vſe.
Scopa regia, an herbe called Wilfoyle.
Scopa regia, called alſo Bunium, an herbe haupng a ſtalke lower ſquare, a leafe like perſely, a flower like dill, and a ſwete ſede.
Scopæ, the croppes of herbes or trees.
Scopárius, rii, m. g. and Scopária, æ, f. g. he or ſhee that ſweepeth the houſe.
Scopas, a mannes name, a notable grauer.
Scopei, men of litteli ſtature.
Scopes, certayne birdes.
Scopelon, li, neu. ge. an high place, where men ſtande to beholde or eſpie.
Scopi, be grapes, after that the wyne is pꝛeſſed out, after Calepine.
Scopo, aui, are, to ſweepe.
Scoptula operta, two bones, whiche come from the neche to the ſhulders.
Scópula, læ, f. gen. a bꝛuſſhe, ſuche as peincters and pergettours doe vſe.
Scopulôſus, a, um, rochy or full of rockes.
Scópulus, li, ma. gen. an high rocke, by tranſlation that wherat a thynge taketh great hurte or periſſheth. ſometyme it is taken for Scopus, a marke to ſhoote at.
Ad ſcopulum ire, to renne on a rocke, to peꝛiſſhe or be deſtroied.
Ad eoſdem ſcopulos nauem appellere, To renne on the ſame rocke: by tranſlation, to take hurte or diſpleaſure by the ſame matter that a nother hath downe.
Geſtare ſcopulos in corde dicitur, when one is moued with no pitee or compaſſion.
Scopus, pi, m. gene. a marke whereat men doo ſhoote, a butte, a pꝛiche. ſometyme it ſignifieth any thing, wherunto that which is ſpoken, hath principall respecte, the ende or marke, where vnto a mannes purpose is directed. also the thicke and bushy stalke, that grapes bee on in clusters.

Scordion, dij, n. g. an herbe that hath leaues like to germander, but muche larger, and the stalke foure square, and hath some parte of the sauour of garlyke: whiche fourme declareth it to bee neither ramsons, nor yet sauce alone.

Scordotis, idem. it is called water germander.

Scordona, an ile lying towarde Dalmatia, called commonly Malconseglio.

Scoria, æ, f. g. the refuse of mettall tried out by fyre, drosse.

Scorodon, di, n. g. garlyke or treffis.

Scorpæna, a fysshe, whiche keepeth hir selfe to one make.

Scorpioides, the herbe called also Scorpius.

Scorpio, ônis, m. g. or Scorpius, pij, m. g. a venemous wourme, called a scorpion, which hath viii. feete, and stryketh with his tayle, and neuer ceaseth to searche, where he may haue occasion to strike. also a signe in the firmament, it is also an instrument of warre like a scorpion, that shooteth small arrowes, some take it for a crosse bowe, some for a facion of slinges. Also a whippe hauing plummettes of leade at the endes of the cordes. it is also an herbe, whiche hath seedes like to a scorpions tayle, and verye fewe leaues, this herbe is diuerselye described. also a certayne fysshe.

Scorpionárij, they whiche doo shoote in crosse bowes.

Scorpites, m. g. a stone of the colour of a scorpion.

Scorpiúron, ri, ne. g. called also Heliotropion hauing the name of the likeneſſe of a scorpions tayle, whiche is in the flowers.

Scortator, oris, m. g. he that haunteth harlottes.

Scortes, the codde of a man or beaste.

Scorteus, a, um, that is made of skinnes or leather.

Scortillum, li, n. g. a diminutiue of scortum.

Scortor, âris, ari, to haunte or companie with harlottes.

Scortum, ti, n. ge. the hyde or skinne of a beaste. it is also a cõmon harlot or strumpet, a queane, a drabbe.

Scotia, Scotlande, the parte of Britannia from the ryuer of Tweede to Catanes.

Scoti, scottes or scottisshe men, of whome saincte Hierome writeth in this wise: Quid loquar de cæteris nationibus, quum ipse adolescentulus, in Gallia viderim Scotos, gentem Britanniæ cãm humanis vesci carnibus, & quum per syluas porcorum greges & armentorum, pecudumq; reperiant, pastorum nates, & fœminarum papillas solere abscindere, & has solas ciborũ delicias arbitrari? what shall I speake of other nations, seyng that when I was a boy, I sawe in Fraunce scottes, a people of Britayne, eate mennes flesshe: and when they founde in the forestes herdes of swine, beastes and cattall, they would cutte of the buttockes of the boyes, whiche kepte them, and also the womens pappes, and tolde that to be the moste deintie and delicate meate.

Scotos, in greke, darkenesse: it is more aptely called in the northerne tongue mirke.

Scotôma, matis, n. g. dymnesse of syght, or a dasselyng of the eies.

Scotusa, a citee of Thessalie.

Scranteũ, tei, n. g. a shynne, wherin arowes are putte, it may be called a scheffe.

Scraptia, a wourme, whiche is founde in leaues. also a vile and slinkynge harlotte, a driuelynge queane.

Screabilis, le, that whiche may bee spette or retched out of the longes or stomache.

Screâtor, ôris, he that retcheth or spetteth.

Screâtus, us, m. g. a spettynge or retchynge to spette.

Screatio, ônis, idem.

Screo, aui, are, to reache in spettynge.

Scriba, æ, m. g. a secretarie, a notarie, a scrybe, a clerke of an office.

Scribâtus, us, m. g. the office of a clerke or scribe.

Scribello, aui, are, the olde writers vsed for scribo.

Scribligo, ginis, f. g. an vntrue forme of speakyng or writyng, called also Solecismus.

Scriblita, æ, f. g. a delicate meate made of paste, stouffed and wounden like a rope, I thynke it be suche as fritters of Portugall are, after some it is a tarte.

Scribo, scripsi, scribere, to write: also to make, as one maketh a booke or other woorke. sometyme to peynte.

Scribere seruo libertatem, to geue freedome to a bonde man in his testament.

Scribere nummos alicui, to deliuer money by exchange or out of the hande.

Supplementum legionibus scribere, to perfourme or make vp the legions with the iuste numbre of souldiours.

Scribere mea, tua, sua manu, non autem propria manu: nusquam enim apud bonos autores reperitur.

Ad me scripsit, quemadmodum. &c. he wrote to me how. &c.

Hæc igitur pluribus scripsi, therfore I haue written these thynges more at large.

Notis scribere, to write in cyphers.

Scribe salutem patri meis verbis, write commendacions to your father in my name.

Leges scribere, to make lawes.

Aliquem hæredem scribere, to make one his heyre: to appoint or ordeyne one to be his heire by testament.

Dicam alicui scribere, loohe Dica.

Scripta illa sunt in animo, those thynges are writwrytten or prynted in my mynde.

Scripſit & Apollinē & Dianam, id eſt pinxit.
De bonis græcis male ſcripta latine, bookes tranſlated into ill latyne, that were before in the greke tongue eloquent and good.
Scriniárius, rij, m. g. a keper of ſecrete letters.
Scriniolum, li, n. ge. a basket or forſar, a gardiuiance.
Scrinium, nij, n. ge. a coffre or other lyke place, wherin iewels or ſecret thynges are kept, as euidences and recordes of iudgementes or inrollementes.
Scriptio, ônis, f. g. an inſcription or any other wrytyng. alſo the acte of wrytyng.
Scriptito, aui, are, to wryte often.
Scriptor, ôris, maſ. g. a wryter, an authour, one that maketh a booke, epiſtol, or any other worke wryten. ſometyme a ſecretarie or ſcribe.
Scriptor legum, a maker of lawes.
Scriptórius, a, um, apte for wrytyng, or that belongeth to a wryter.
Atramentum ſcriptórium, wrytyng ynke.
Scriptum, ti, n. g. that whiche is wrytten.
Tradere aliquid ſcripto, to put a thyng in wrytynge.
Scriptum facere, to gette ones lyuynge with wrytynge, to be a ſecretary or clerke.
De ſcripto dicere, to rede a thynge vpon his paper: to pronounce a thynge that was penned before.
Scriptúra, ræ, f. g. wrytynge. ſometyme ſtyle, alſo the rente of common fermes. alſo a rekening of a common bailiffe, whiche byeth and ſelleth cattall, or hath the lettyng of common paſtures: or of hym whiche oughte to paie certayne reuenewes for that whiche he hath hired, as cuſtomers, or they that haue in ferme tolles and other common duties.
Reliquum ſcripturæ conſumetur in exemplis, the reſidue that is to be wrytten. &c.
Genus hoc ſcripturæ, for this kynde of wrytynge.
Magiſter ſcripturæ, he that hath the lettyng of common paſtures, and keepeth the regeſters and accomptes of the bailiffes, or them that haue in ferme the common tolles, coſtomes and other duties and paiementes.
Scripturárius, rij, m. ge. he that writeth thynges that be commonly done, or bookes of rekenyng for bailiffes and reues, a clerke: idem quod magiſter ſcripturæ.
Scriptúrio, riui, rire, to be with childe to be wrytyng, to longe or haue a great deſyre to be wrytynge.
Scriptus, a, um, wryten.
Scriptus, us, m. g. a wrytynge.
Scrobiculus, li, m. g. a littell diche or furrowe.
Scrops, ſcrobis, f. & m. g. a diche or furrow.
Scrobis, is ſometyme vſed in the nominatiue caſe.
Scróbulus, a littell diche or furrow.
Scrofulária, æ, f. g. ſome thynke it to be the blinde nettill, other the herbe called of Dioſcorides Chelidonium minus.
Scropha, or Scroſa, æ, f. g. a ſowe that hath had pigges more then ones.
Scrophipaſcus, ci, m. g. one that keedeth ſwyne, a ſwyne herde.
Scrófula, læ, f. g. a littell ſowe pigge. alſo the diſeaſe called Struma.
Scrotum, ti, n. g. the codde or ſhinne, wherin be the ſtones of a man. Scrota be alſo littel images made of paſte, whiche are wont to be geuen to childzen.
Scrupeus, a, um, of littell ſtones.
Scrupôſus, a, um, full of littell grauell ſtones.
Scrupulátim, by ſmall pieces.
Scrupuloſe, curiouſlyy, anxiouſely, ſcrupulouſely.
Scrupulâris, re, that belongeth to the coyne of money called ſcrupulus, or that is the thirde parte of a dramme in weight.
Scrupulátim, by littell peaces.
Scrupulóſitas, âtis, fœ. ge. anxietee, or curiouſenesse of conſcience, ſcrupuloſitee, ſpyced conſcience.
Scrupulôſus, a, um, full of littell grauell ſtones, ſcrupulous, curious or doubtfull in lighte thinges, ſometyme it ſignifieth difficile or difficultee.
Scrupuloſa res, a thynge wherin there ſeemeth to be ſome difficultee.
Scrúpulus, li, m. g. a littell sharpe ſtone, whiche ſometyme happeneth to fall into a mannes ſhoe and hurte his foote. it is alſo taken for muche ſolicitude: alſo for difficultee or ſpyced conſcience. alſo a poyſe, whiche is the thirde parte of a dramme, and then it is alſo written with a, y, as Scrypulus. it is more ouer a certayne meaſure of groũde, containynge. 100. foote ſquare, that is. 10. in bredth, and as many in lengthe.
Scrupulum injicere, to bringe into a mannes mynde doubt, carefulneſſe, or thought.
Scrupulum eximere, to put awaie doubte or care.
Inieci ſcrupulum homini, I haue geuen him a bone to gnawe vpon.
Qui fit in hac re ſcrupulus? what doubte is in this matter.
Vnus mihi ſcrupulus etiam reſtat, qui me male habet, I haue one gnawig bone or doubt lefte yet, whiche troubleth me curſtly.
Scrupus, pi, m. g. a littell sharpe ſtone, or pece of a ſtone: after ſome it is a doubt or intricate ſentence that vexeth a mannes mynde.
Scruta, ôrum, ne. ge. plu. olde garmentes, hoyſe ſhoes, and ſuche other baggage, ſolde for neceſſitee. alſo littell images made in paſte, ſolde to the people.
Scrutária, æ, and Scrutatio, onis, f. g. a ſerchyng. alſo a ſellyng of olde ſtuffe.
Scrutariam facere, to get ones lyuynge by ſellyng of olde ſtuffe.
Scrutárius, rij, m. g. he that ſelleth olde ſtuffe, or maketh maketh suche images.

Scrutitio, ônis, f. g. a sercheyng.

Scrutâtor, ôris, m. g. a sercher.

Scrutellus, li, m. ge. the bealy of a swyne farced or stuffed.

Scruto, aui, are, and Scrutor, aris, ari, to serche, to inquire diligently.

Vestigia scrutari, to trace out by the steppes.

Scrutinium, nij, n. g. a serche, a scrutinie.

Scrutum, ti, n. g. the singular numbre of Scruta.

Scuina, olde writers vsed for Sequester, an arbitrour.

Sculpo, psi, pere, to carue images in stone. sometyme to graue in mettall.

Sculponea, æ, f. g. a wollen soche.

Sculponeâtus, a, um, that dooeth weare wollen soches.

Sculptilis, le, that is carued or grauen.

Sculptor, ôris, m. g. a grauer, a caruer.

Sculptrix, tricis, a woman of that occupacion.

Sculptura, ræ, f. g. graupng or caruyng.

Sculptus, a, um, graued, carued.

Scumgum, a citee of Germanie.

Scurra, ræ, f. g. a railer, a scoffer.

Scurrâlis, ãlis, playyng the scoffer or iester.

Scurrilis, le, pertepnyng to railyng, scoffyng, or vnhoneste iestyng.

Scurrilitas, ãtis, f. g. railyng, scoffyng, immoderate iestyng.

Scurriliter, in railyng or scoffyng facion, saucily, malapertly.

Scurror, aris, ari, to playe the scoffer or railer.

Scutale, lis, n. g. the leather of a synge.

Scutârius, rij, m. g. a buckelar maker, or a maker of tergates

Scutârius, ria, rium, pertepnyng to shieldes or tergates.

Scutâtus, a, um, armed with a shielde or tergate.

Scutella, læ, f. g. a sauser.

Scutica, cæ, f. gen. a whippe made with leather thonges.

Scutigérulus, li, m. g. a rustrell or page, whiche beareth his maisters shielde or buckelar.

Scútilum, li, n. gen. that is leane and hath nothyng but shynne vpon it.

Scutiscum, ci, n. g. a synde of vessell.

Scutula, æ, a rounde figure, suche as spynners or spiders dwe wooche. also a vessell, whiche conteyneth viii. ounces. also a staffe, wherwith flaxe is beaten. also a certayne serpent. more ouer a litteil rounde pece cut out of the barke of a tree in the kinde of graffyng, called Inoculatio. also a staffe or yarde that the Lacedemonians vsed in writyng their priute letters, which is more truely called Scytala, lowe there.

Scutulâtus, a, um, rounde and wrought in the fourme of a copwebbe.

Scutulata vestis, a garment of silke, wherin be wrought figures like to round copwebbes.

Scutulâtus color, is a colour, I suppose watchet.

Scútulum, li, n. g. a litteil shielde or scouchin.

Scutum, ti, n. g. a tergat or shielde, a buckler.

Scyathos, an ile and a towne in the sea Aegeum.

Scylace, a citee in Grecia.

Scylaceum, a towne in the furthermoste parte of Italie, firste builded and inhabited by men of Athenes.

Scylatium, a citee of the Bzutians, called commonly Schilazo.

Scylax, a musician.

Scylla, a daungerous roche in the sea by Sicile. also a lady, daugheer of Nisus, king of Megarensis, whiche for loue of Minois, hir fathers enemie, stale a purple heare from hir fathers head, which cauled hym to be vanquisshed. But she beyng forsaken of Minois, threwe hir selfe into the sea, and was trãsformed into a birde of hir name. it is also a kynde of fysshe in the riuer of Liris in Campania. it is also an herbe, whiche hath a roote lyke to an oynion, and is of the apothecaries called Squilla.

Decidit in Scyllam cupiés vitare Charybdim, prouerbially, to fall into one daunger while he coueteth to eschewe an other.

Scylleus, a, um, of Scylla.

Scylliticus, a, um, of the herbe Scylla.

Scyllera, places wherin is taken the fysshe, called Scylla.

Scyllæum, a promontorie or hill in the parte of Grecia, nowe called Morea. also a towne of the Bzucians in Italie.

Scyllias, or Scyllis, the name of a grete, whiche swymmyng vnder water, did cut in sunder the cables of the Persians shippes.

Scyllus, luntis, a towne in Achaia.

Scylurus, the name of a man that had 80. sonnes, who whan he died called them afore hym, & deliuered to euerichc of them a sheffe of arowes, commandyng them to brake the sheffes incontinent: whiche when they mought not doe, he toke out of the sheffes one arrow after an other, & brake them all lightly, declaryng therby vnto his sonnes, that if they continued & agreed well together, they shulde be puissant: and if they varied and were discouered, they shulde be feble and shortly destroied.

Scymnus, ni, m. ge. the whelpe of a lion. also a mannes name.

Scynifes, bytyng gnattes.

Scyphus, phi, m. g. a great cruse or iugge: some take it for a bason.

Scyriades, women of the ile Scyros.

Scyricum, ci, neu. gen. a bionket colour or light wachet.

Scyritæ, people in India, whiche haue no noses, but in the stede of a nose, they haue two holes in their visage.

Scyricus, and Scyrius, a, um, of Scyros.

Scyron, a theefe in the countreye of Attica, who wolde sitte on an high roche, and compell them that came by to washe his fete, or els to honour hym:

hym: and when they had so doone, he threwe them downe into the sea. Finally he was slaine by Theseus, and it was surmised, that his bones were turned into roches, which of him were named Scyronia: and they be betweene Attica and Megaris, whereby the passage is harde.

Scyron, a certayn wynde, whose hurtfull blast, is of all Greece knowen, onely to them of Athens.

Scyros, an ile in the sea called Aegeum, stony and vnfrutefull, where Achilles was hidde by his mother in a womans apparaile, to the intent that he shulde not go with the greekes agaynst Troye.

Scyrpus, pi, loke Scirpus.

Scytala, læ, or Scytale, les, fœ. ge. a littell fielde mouse, called also Mus araneus, some suppose it to be an ermine, some, a shrewe. also a kynde of serpentes, whiche hath a backe of meruayllous glisterynge and beautifull colour.

Scytale laconica, a littell round staffe, that the Lacedemonians vsed to wryte their letters by. and therfore that kinde of letters be called Scytalæ, loke Gellius the. 17. booke and. 9. chaptre.

Scythia, a man or woman of Scythia. also Hercules sonne.

Scythes, one of Scythia. also Iupiters sonne, whiche first inuented bowe and arrowes.

Scythia, a great countrey, whiche is diuided with the riuer Tanais, and stretcheth into the easte. so that one parte therof is in Europa, the other in Asia, and hath on the south part Sacos and Sogdianos, people vnder the kyng of Persia: and on the north part be countreies vnknowen and desert: and is now vnder the dominion of the great Cane of Catate.

Scythicus, and Scythius, a, um, of Scythia.

Scythis, patronymicum, fœm.

Scython, a mans name, whiche whan he listed was man or woman.

Scythópolis, a citee of Decapolitana in Syria.

Scythotauri, people of Scythia, whiche sacrifice straungers that come thither.

S. ANTE E.

Se, a pronowne, the accusatiue case of Sui, and signifieth hym or hir.

Se, a prepositiõ, vsed alwaie in compositiõ, and noteth a separation, diuision, or negation: as, Separo, seduco, securus.

Se, a syllable in composition, signifiyng dimidiũ: as, selibra, semodium, semuncia.

Sebaste, a citee in Syria, called before Samaria.

Sebastópolis, a citee in Pontus, called saincte Gregories.

Sebennytum, a citee in Egypt.

Sebesten, is that fruite, whiche Dioscorides calleth Myxa.

Sebethis, béthidis, f. g. of Sebethos.

Sebéthos, a fountaine at Naples, whiche serueth the citee, rennyng through out the citee.

Sebinus, a poole, that the riuer Lollius maketh.

Sebra, or Sebre minor, is (as Antonius Musa saieth) our Sfula, or Spurge.

Sebritæ, a people sometyme called Sembritæ.

Sebum, bi, n. g. idem quod Seuum.

Sebo, aui, are, idem quod Seuo.

Secále, lis, neu. g. a certayne grayne, whiche serueth onely to put awaie hunger.

Secamentum, ti, neu. gen. that is cutte of or dispyded.

Secanabin, amonge the Arabians is our Oxymel. amonge the Latines it is called Acetum mulsum.

Secárius, a, um, that wherin shreddes are put.

Secêdo, secessi, dere, to goe backe, or to goe out of company, to goe a parte from other, to goe awaie, to goe to plaie or sporte from labour.

Secede huc, come a syde hyther.

Ad stylum secedere, to geue hym selfe to wrytynge and exercisyng of his style.

Secerno, secrẽui, secernere, to diuide or lase one from an other, to putte a sunder or a parte, to seuer, to separate from other, to chose from among other, to laie or put by it selfe.

Secéspita, tæ, fœ. ge. a cuttyng knyfe, wherwith the paynyms diuided theyr sacrifice. some take it to be an hatchet or axe of brasse, vsed for that purpose.

Secessio, ônis, fœ. g. a departyng from other, a separatyng of ones selfe from others company, a forsakyng.

Secessionem facere, to forsake other and go apart by them selfes.

Secessus, us, m. g. a departyng, a vacation from busynesse, a secrete place.

Seciuium, uĩ, n. g. a cake of breadde cutte in sacrifice, some call it secium.

Secius, later, lesse.

Nec eo secius, neuer the later.

Nihilo secius, idem.

Secludo, si, dere, to shutte out, to shutte aparte from other.

Secludite curas, put away care and heamines of mynde.

Vitam corpore secludere, to spill hym selfe.

A communi luce seclusum, To bee kepte in a doungeon or prison, that he can not see light.

Seclum, for Seculum, the space of one hundred yeres.

Seclusórium, rii, n. g. a place, wherin any thyng is shutte vp aparte from other.

Seclûsus, a, um, shutte, or kepte vp aparte from other.

Seclusa sacra, ceremonies that be secretly vsed, to be had in the more reuerence.

Seco, secui, care, to cutte, to cutte of, to cutte a sunder.

Viam secare, to leade the waie, to goe on forwarde.

Campos salis ære secare, To saile on the sea with shippes that haue stemmes of brasse.

Pabu-

Pabulum secare, to mowe grasse to make hey for beastes.
Spem secare, id est, tenere, habere, to haue a certaine hope, to be in hope.
Secors, dis, om. ge. heretlesse, apt to no purpose, profitable neither to him self, nor to any other.
Secordes agni, lambes late eaned or fallen.
Secordia, and Socordia, æ, f. g. sluggardnesse, sulkysshenesse, vnaptnesse, foolyshenesse.
Secrétio, ônis, fœm. ge. a separatyng or settyng apart from other.
Secretò, priuily, secretely, a parte from other.
Loqui cum aliquo secreto, to speake with one priuily or apart from other.
Secrétum, ti, neu. ge. a secrete place awaie from company. also a secrete thynge that one discloseth to no man or to very fewe.
A secretis, of the priuie counsaile.
Secrétus, a, um, secrete, apart from other, farre of, separate.
Consultant secrete, they consulte aparte by theym selfes.
Secta, tæ, f. ge. a diuerse consent in sundry wylfull opinions, a secte of philosophers, a secte of heretyches, a certaine maner of teachynge, a fourme of lyfe.
Sectáula, læ, fœ. g. a diminutiue of Secta, a following, an offspring, a sequele.
Sectárius, a, um, that other dwe folowe.
Sectarius verues, the bell weather, that goeth before the flocke.
Sectátor, ôris, m. g. a folower, he that immitateth an other, to the entent to learne.
Séctilis, le, that whiche is or maie be cutte, or that whiche is cutte, cropped or lopped to the vse of men. also that maie be taken one piece from an other.
Imagunculæ sectiles, images, whereof one piece maie be taken from an other.
Sectio, ônis, fœm. ge. a cuttyng, a diuision, the partynge of a praie in takynge of a towne. also all that is taken in praie at the wynnynge and takyng of a towne, the forfaite of ones goodes or penaltie, all that is forfaited or taken to the kynges vse.
Sectiuus, a, um, that is often cutte, idem quod Sectilis.
Sectiuum porrum, vnsette leekes.
Sector, âris, ari, to folow, to renne after one. also to folow in maners and fourme of speakyng or lyuyng, also to hunte or chase a beaste.
Sectari leporem, to hunt the hare.
Sectari iussi, I bade hym folowe my faction or trade of lyuyng, and learne at me.
Sector, ôris, m. ge. one that cutteth or loppeth, also an accuser that taketh profyte, he that profyteth by the condemnation of other, also a byer of forfapted goodes, one that by fauise complayntes causeth men to be put besydes all that they haue, to the entent to haue the profyte in the sale of the goodes.

Sectûra, æ, fœ. ge. a cuttyng. also a caue or mync vnder the earthe.
Sectus, a, um, diuyded, cutte.
Secúbitus, us, m. g. a lyeng a parte frō the other.
Sécubo, cubui, are, to lye aparte or a sunder frō other.
Sécula, læ, fœm. gene. a sythe, wherwith hey is mowen, a hoke.
Seculâris, re, that is renewed euery hundred yeere.
Séculum, li, n. g. some doe suppose it to bee the space of one hundred yeres, some of one thousande yeres, other of thyrtie yeeres, sometyme it is taken for tyme.
Seculum sterile, a barraine tyme.
In multa secula, for a longe tyme, for many hundred yeeres.
Aliquot seculis post, certaine hundred yeeres after.
Seculum, or Seclum, is vsed often of Lucretius, for Genus.
Secum, the ablatiue case of sui, with the preposition cum, with hym.
Secundæ, arum, pluraliter tantum, the shynne that the chylde or other younge thyng is wrapped in whan it is brought foorth. it is also called Secundina.
Secundânus, a, um, of or belonging to the seconde.
Secundani milites, souldiours of the seconde legion.
Secundárius, a, um, of the seconde sorte.
Panis secundarius, chete bread, browne bread.
Secundarium, for Secundum, or Proximum, the seconde, the next.
Secundo, an aduerbe, the seconde tyme or place, also ekesoones.
Secundo, aui, are, to prosper or make prosperous, also to make better or amende a thynge, sometyme for Obsecundari, to obey.
Vento secundante, the wynde blowyng prosperously.
Secundum, a preposition, signifieth nygh or by.
Secundum aurem, by the eare, also next after.
Secundum patrem, next after my father, sometyme, for.
Secundum te litem do, I iudge the matter for the, or on thy parte, also in.
Secundum quietem, in rest, in ones slepe, also vpon.
Secundum ea, therupon.
Secundum Platonē, after the saiyng of Plato.
Secundum Pythagoram viuo, I lyue lyke to Pythagoras.
Secundum flumen, a long by the riuers syde.
De absente secundum præsentem iudicare, to geue iudgement on his part that is present, as gaynst one that failed at the daie appointed.
Secundum hunc diem, after this daie.
Secundum ea quæro, seruarisne in eo fidem, id est, Postea, præter hæc, further more, more ouer than this,

Multa ſecundum cauſam noſtram diſputauit, he ſpake many thynges for our matter, or that concerned or touched our matter.

Secũdum eum fieri, to be done for his profite.

Secundus, a, um, ſeconde or next to the fyrſt, alſo proſperouſe.

Secunda fortuna, good or proſperouſe fortune, proſperitee.

Res ſecundæ, that whiche dooeth folowe our deſire or appetite, good fortune, proſperitee.

Secundo flumine nauigat, he goeth or ſaileth, or roweth with the ſtreame.

Secundus ventus, a good wynde.

Secunda menſa, the laſte courſe, wherin cometh fruite and confetues.

Secundo populo, with the peoples good will or fauour.

Secunda prælia, battailes proſperouſly fought.

Secundo lumine, the nexte daie.

Cæſaris interdicta, ſi te ſecundo lumine hic offendero, reſpuentur, if I fynde the here the nexte daie, I wyll ſet litle by Cæſars commandement.

Secundus panis, browne breade.

Paſti ſiliquis & pane ſecundo, fed with beane huſkes, and browne breadde.

Nulli virtute ſecundus, inferiour to no man in vertue.

Secundus à rege, next to the kyng.

Secundis admurmurationibus ſenatus illum accuſauit, the ſenatours ſpake ſoftely on my part whan I accuſed hym.

Secundis auribus aliquid accipere, to heare a thyng gentylly, gladly, or fauourably.

Secundis auibus, happyly, with good fortune.

Secunda exiſtimatio, good fame and eſtimation.

Maxime, chiefely, Secundo loco, next, Tertio, thirdely, Notæ ſecundæ vites, id eſt, bonitatis, præſtantiæ. Oratio ſecunda, id eſt, grata, plauſibilis.

Me in tuis ſecundis rebus reſpice, looke on me, or helpe me nowe in your proſperitee and good fortune.

Si mihi ſecundæ res de amore eſſent, if I had good fortune, or if all were well concernynge my loue.

Secundus rumor, gladde tydynges.

Secundæ authoritatis homo, he that is in better auctoritee than an other.

Secunda in aliquem voluntas, the good will or fauour towardes a man.

Secunda voluntate hominum, with the good wyll and fauour of all men.

Prælium ſecundum fecit, he fought proſperouſely, he hadde the victorie, or had good fortune in that battaile.

Secundus, a philoſophier of Athens.

Secure, quietely, ſurely, in ſauegarde.

Securicla, æ, f. gen. a ſwalowes tayle, or a doue tayle in carpenters worke, whiche is faſtnyng of two pieces of timbre or bourdes, ſo ſtrongly together, that they can not awaie.

Securicula, æ, f. g. an hatchet.

Securidaca, a certayne weede, that hurteth the pulſe, called Lintels.

Securifer, and Securiger, rigera, um, that beareth an axe.

Secũris, ris, f. g. an axe, ſomtyme it is taken for an officer that hath auctoritee to commytte men to the execution of death.

Infligere, or Injcere Securim, by tranſlation, to hurt ſore.

Secũritas, ãtis, fœm. g. quietneſſe, lacke of care, ſurete, negligence.

Secũrus, a, um, ſure, quiete, without care, aſſured, careles, negligent, fearyng nothyng.

Securus admodum de bello Romano, fearyng or miſtruſtyng nothing at all, that the Romaynes wouldе make any warre.

Teſtamentum ſecurum, a ſure teſtament, that needeth not to be feared.

Securus tam paruæ obſeruationis, nothyng at all regardyng ſo ſmall a mattier.

Securi animi homo, one that feareth nothyng.

Ab omni afflatu ſecurus, that feareth not the wynde.

Securus viuit, he lyueth at hertes eaſe.

Secus, a preпoſition, by or nyghe to.

Secus flumen ſeruntur ſalices, nyghe to the ryuer willowes are ſet.

Secus, an aduerbe, otherwyſe.

Non dixi ſecus ac ſentiebam, I ſaied none of otherwyſe than I thought.

Quid diximus tibi ſecus quam velles? what ſaied we vnto the otherwyſe than thou woldeſt haue vs ſaie?

Niſi quid ſecus tua ſententia eſt, except your mynde or opinion be otherwiſe.

Secus quam, Secus ac, Secus atque, otherwyſe than.

Longe ſecus, farre otherwyſe.

Sed, but.

Sed autem, yea but.

Sed quid hoc, admirantis, but what meaneth this.

Sed videon' ego Philoſium? but is not that Philoſius that I ſee?

Sed enim, for Certe.

Sed & noſtrorum gloriam percenſeamus, id eſt, quin etiam.

Tuus deus non digito vno redundat, ſed capite, collo. &c. id eſt, verum etiam, thy god hath not onely a finger to muche, but alſo an head and a necke. &c.

Hem, ſed mane, concrepuit. &c. but harke, tarye. &c.

Sedatè, without trouble, quietely, patiently.

Sedãtio, õnis, f. g. a mitigacion, a qualifyng.

Sedãtus, a, um, appeaſed, mitigated, qualified, alſo ſobre, temperate, quiete.

Sedãcula, æ, f. g. or Sedicula, a littell ſeate.

Seden-

Sedentárius, rij, m. g. he that wooꝛketh ſittyng, as a ſhoemaker oꝛ tapiꝛer.

Sedenim, all bee it.

Sedentárius, a, um, that is done ſittyng.

Sedeo, ſedi, ſedére, to ſitte, to bee idle and dooe nothyng, to cõtent oꝛ pleaſe, with a datiue caſe, to tarie oꝛ abide, to take counſaile.

Si ſedet hoc animo, if it pleaſe you ſo to doe.

Sedent niues, the ſnowe abideth oꝛ tarieth longe.

Ad latus alicuius ſedere, to ſitte harde by ones ſyde.

Ad gubernacula reipublicæ ſedere, to be occupied in the gouernance of the cõmon weale.

Sedere iudicem in aliquem, to ſitte in iudgement vpon one.

In equo ſedere, to ſitte on hoꝛſe bacbe, to ryde.

In ouis ſedere, to ſitte abꝛoode on egges.

Poſt aliquem ſedere, to ſitte behynde one.

Animo ſedet fixum, id eſt, ſtatui, I haue puꝛpoſed oꝛ determined with my ſelfe.

Adeóne penitus ſedet hic vbi morbus? is this diſeaſe ſo deepely rooted in the?

Nunc mihi parũ ſedet iudicij, now my iudgement is not conſtant and firme.

In ſedet melius toga, ſo his gowne dooeth ſit better on his bacbe.

Quambene humeris tuis ſederet imperium, how mete oꝛ apte ye were to haue the ſouereigne rule.

Paſſer ſedet in tecto, the ſparowe ſitteth on the houſe.

Si eſſent venti, nos Corſyræ non ſederemus, we woulde not abyde oꝛ tarie at Corſyra.

Arte ſedendi egerat, id eſt, cunctatione, by deliberation, taꝛying of counſayle oꝛ good abꝛiſement.

Sedeo, was ſometyme vſed of olde wꝛiters to conſider, to take counſayle.

Sedeor, deris, deri, the paſſiue.

Sedes, dis, f. g. a ſeate oꝛ place to ſitte on, alſo a manſion houſe, a place to abyde oꝛ dwell in, a reſtyng place, ſometyme a ſepulchre. ſometyme all that parte of the bodie, wheꝛon one dooeth ſytte.

Sedicula, læ, f. g. a ſettle.

Sedigitus, the name of Volcatius, a noble poete, whiche had .vi. fingers on one hande.

Sedile, lis, n. g. a benche oꝛ other place to ſit on, a ſettle.

Sedimentum, ti, n. g. a ſinking downe to the bottome.

Seditio, ônis, f. g. a ſedition and diſoꝛdre among the people.

Seditionem comprimere, to ſuppꝛeſſe oꝛ quiet a ſedition.

Seditionárius, a, um, a ſeditious perſone.

Seditioſè, ſeditiouſely, contentiouſely.

Seditiôſus, a, um, ſeditious, contentious, that louetb ſedition and debate.

Sedó, aui, are, to mitigate, to pacifie, to aſſwage, to reſtreigne, to extincte.

Animũ ſedare, to ſwage oꝛ quiete ones minde.

Bellum ſedare, to quiete oꝛ finiſſhe a warre.

Flammam ſedare, to quenche oꝛ put out the flame of fyre.

Sedare infamiam, to ceaſe the yll bꝛuite that goeth on a man.

Vt matris iram eſſe ſedatam ſciat, that he may knowe that my mothers anger is aſſwaged.

Vt ſedes laſſitudinem, that you maie caſe youꝛ ſelfe of this weꝛyneſſe.

Sedûco, duxi, cere, to leade a ſyde oꝛ leade away, ſometyme to deceiue, to ſeparate oꝛ diuide.

Animum a corpore ſeducimus, whõ we withdꝛawe our mynde from thinkinge on woꝛldely matters.

Etiam nunc me ſeducere, oꝛ (after ſome pꝛintes) ſubducere iſtis dictis poſtulas, thou woldeſt yet again deceiue me with theſe flikeryng woꝛdes.

Seducere arrogantiam, to laie aparte pꝛide.

Seductilis, le, that maie be deceiued.

Seductio, ônis, a deceiuyng oꝛ beggiyng, a leadyng aſyde oꝛ apart.

Seductus, a, um, ledde apart, ledde aſunder one from an other. alſo ſeduced oꝛ beggied. ſometyme foꝛ Diſtinctus, oꝛ Diſcretus.

Seductus, us, m. g. a voide place from companꝛ.

Seduculum, li, neu. g. a certayne ſcourge oꝛ whip that one is beaten with.

Sedulè, idem quod Seduló.

Sedulitas, âtis, f. g. diligence with muche care.

Sedulò, in dede, diligently, without feignyng.

Faciam ſedulo, I wyll doe it with a good will, I wyll doe the beſt I can.

Sedulus, a, um, he that plainely without craft dooeth a thyng diligently, diligent.

Sedum, di, an herbe called ſingrene oꝛ houſeleke.

Seges, ſegetis, f. g corne whan it ſtandeth: ſometyme the grounde ſalowed and redie to receiue corne. ſometyme it is ſpoken of pulſe.

Segetes quæ interquieuere. &c. thoſe landes that haue lyne ſalowe.

Seges ſcelerum.

Segeſta, an olde towne in Sicilie, alſo the name of a goddeſſe.

Segeſtanus, a, um, that dwelleth in the citee Segeſta.

Segeſtia, the goddeſſe called alſo Segeſta.

Segeſtria, was the ſtrawe that was leied in a lieter, wheꝛin great men were boꝛne by theiꝛ ſeruauntes.

Segmen, inis, n. g. idem quod Segmentum.

Segmenta, bee certayne lynes imagined, by the whiche Coſmographers doe deuyde the woꝛlde into poꝛcions, whiche bee called alſo Paralleli, wheꝛby the diſtaunce of places be founde.

Segmentárius, he that maketh garmentes of cloth of golde.

Segmentâtus, a, um, maie be ſaied of any thing, that hath bozders oz trayles, fynely wzought with small pieces fastened theron, be it of mettall oz tymber.

Segmentatæ vestes, garded oz purfled garmentes.

Segmentum, ti, neut. ge. a littell piece oz paring cut of from any thynge, bee it mettall oz stone. It is also a bee, colar oz ouche, which is about a womans neche. some doe take it foz the purfle of a womans gowne, it maie as well bee taken foz a garde oz bozder aboute any garment.

Segnis, ne, neutri. gene. slowe oz dull witted, barrayne. Haud segnis, quiche oz with spirite and lyfe.

Segniores ad imperãdum posthac cæteri sint, other mai not be so hasty to be in auctozite oz to beare rule.

Segnis ad credendum, harde of belike.

Non segnior discordia domi, there was no lesse variance oz discozde at home in the citee.

Segnis animus, a fepnte and base courage.

Segnipes, segnipedis, that goeth slowly.

Segnitas, ãtis, pro Segnitia, slouthfulnes.

Segniter, slowly.

Segnities, ei, oz Segnitia, æ, f. g. slowneſſe, dulneſſe, great negligence, also baraunneſſe.

Segodunum, Rhodes in Fraunce.

Segodunum, is also a noble citee in Almaine, now called Nurenberge.

Segobrida, a towne in the parte of Spaine, whiche is nowe called Bysshape.

Segrego, aui, are, to seuer oz separate from other company, to segregate.

Segregare suspiciones, to put away suspicion.

Segregare sermonem, to speake no wozdes.

Si quis ibi est odiosus, abeo domum, sermonem segrego, if any man be there, whõ I loue not, I get me home, and speake neuer a wozde.

Segrega sermonem, tædet, holde thy peace, I am werie, oz it irketh me to here the.

Ne abs te hanc segreges, that pou wouldе not put this woman from pou.

Vt culpam ab se segregent, that they maie put awaie the faute from them, oz shewe that they be not fautie.

Seque gregari, pro Segregarier. Vt segregaret pugnam eorum, that he mpght bzeake their arraie in battaple.

A numero ciuium segregare, to disfranchese and make no citisin.

Segrex, gregis, om. g. solitarie, aparte frõ other.

Segullum, li, ne. ge. a pepne of earth in mynes, whiche declareth that therein golde maie bee founde.

Segor, a citee, which was preserued by the praier of Lothe, whan Sodome was destroyed by the vengeaunce of god.

Segusiani, oz Segutiani, Wzesse in Fzaunce.

Segusium, the parte of the Alpes called mount Sion.

Seia, the goddes called Segesta.

Seianus, a mannes name.

Seir, a moũtapne in the countrey of Edom, where Esau, the bzother of Jacob the patriarke dwelled.

Seiugi, & Seiuges, a teeme of fyre hozses.

Seiugo, aui, are, idem quod Seiungo.

Seiũctio, ônis, f. g. a feparatyng oz puttynge a sundze.

Seiunctus, a, um, separated, put asundze.

Seiungo, nxi, ere, to separate, to put a sunder, to take from an other.

Seius, a mans name.

Selãgo, lãginis, f. g. a certapne herbe.

Seléctio, ônis, f. g. a cholynge out from other.

Selectus, a, um, cholen from amonge other, picked, also chiefe amonge other.

Selecti iudices, amonge the Romapnes were iudges appoynted of the state of gentilmen called Ordo equestris.

Selenétes, tis, m. g. a stone, wherein is a white, whiche decreaseth and increaseth as the moone dooeth.

Seleucia, the pzincipall citee of Syzia, whiche is 30 furlonges from Babylonia.

Seleucides aues, certapne birdes, which helpe the inhabitantes of the mountapne Casius to kpll the Locustes, that often tymes doe swarme there. and destroie thepz cozne: from whence they come, oz whyther they go, it is vncertaine.

Seleucus, a kynge of Syzia, nexte after Alexander the great.

Sélibra, æ, f. g. halfe a pounde.

Seligo, ligínis, a certapne herbe.

Séligo, légi. seligere, to gather a parte oz the chiefe thyng among many.

Sélinis, the name of thzee pueres in Greece.

Selinis, a pzuer by Lilybæum.

Selinon, an herbe called also Apium, wherof be dpuers kyndes, as Hipposelinon, Petroselinon, seeke foz theym in their places. this herbe Selinõ is of some take foz smalage. loke Apiũ.

Seliquastra, æ, f. g. a stoole to syt on.

Sel'is, a stoole, that was wonte to stande in the foze parte of the shippe.

Sella, æ, f. g. a stoole, chapze, oz seate.

Sella curulis, a chapze, wherein the chiefe officers of Rome sate in a charlote, and were so caried whan they came from thepz houses. some doe suppose that it was called Curulis, because the feete were croked, the iudgement thereof I remitte to the readers.

Sellaria, æ, f. g. a place, wherin were fourmes and stooles foz men to sit on.

Sellariolus, a, um, that belongeth to suttyng.

Sellulárius, a, um, that wozketh suttyng.

Sellularij opifices, artificers, whiche wzought suttyng.

Selymbria, a citee in Propõtis, nere to Bizaunce.

Sembella, æ, f. g. halfe a pounde.

Semel, once: also at one tyme, shortly, bziefely, sumsummarily, once for all together.

Semel anno, once in a yere.
Semel ac iterum, once or twyse.
Semel ac vities, one and twentie tymes.
Pharmachum semel totum hauriendum est, the drinche must be supt vp all at once.
Semel ait se in vita pertimuisse, he saied he was once sore afrayde in all his life, and neuer elles.
Semel à condito æuo, neuer but once sense the worlde beganne.
Vt semel finiam, finally, that I maie once make an ende.
Semele, the daughter of Cadmus and mother of Bacchus.
Semeleius, a, um, of Semele.
Semen, seminis, n. g. seede, a kernell, somtyme settes of young trees, or nurse gardaynes, somtyme the kynde, or generation: by translation the chiefe autour and begynner or cauler of a thynge. also that, whereby a thynge is nourished and mainteyned.
Deponere semina, to plante.
Huius belli semen tu fuisti, thou wast the verie cause or begynner of this warre.
Abire in semen, to seede as herbes doe.
Sementicus, a, um, that maie be sowen.
Sementinus, a, um, belongyng to sowyng.
Sementinæ feriæ, holy daies ordeined to praye that corne beyng sowen, mought come foorth and encreasle.
Sementina pyra, peares that haue many kernelles, or that continue tyll graffyng tyme.
Dies sementina, a feaste kepte after seede sowyng.
Sementis, is, fœm. g. the acte of sowyng, somtyme seede that is sowen, sometyme corne, also seede tyme.
Sementem facere, to sowe corne.
Prima sementis, id est, primum tempus sationis, the begynnyng of seede tyme.
Sementem malorum facere, to sowe mischiefe.
Sementim, was vsed in the accusatiue case,
Semento, aui, are, to bringe foorth seede.
Semestris, tre, of syx monethes.
Semestre regnum, a kyngedome that contynueth but halfe a yere.
Semestre aurum, money to prouyde vitaile for halfe a yere.
Semesus, a, um, halfe eaten.
Semet, hym selfe, the accusatiue case of Suimet.
Semi, indeclinabile, halfe.
Semianimis, halfe quicke halfe deade, almoste deade.
Semianimus, idem.
Semiapertus, a, um, halfe open.
Semiassus, a, um, halfe rosted or broyled.
Semibos, mibouis, that is halfe an oxe, halfe an other beaste.
Semicadium, dij, n. g. halfe a barrell.
Semicæcus, a, um, halfe blynde.
Semicaper, i, that is halfe a gote and halfe an other beast.
Semicinctium, ij, a certaine garment, that cometh no further than the bealy, or that cometh onely from the bealy downeward.
Semicirculâris, re, that hath the forme of halfe a circle.
Semicirculus, i, m. g. halfe a circle.
Semicoctus, a, um, halfe sodden.
Semicomestus, a, um, halfe eaten.
Semicõsumptus, a, um, halfe cõsumed or wasted.
Semicremâtus, a, um, halfe burned.
Semicremus, idem.
Semicrûdus, a, um, halfe rawe.
Semideus, a, um, halfe a god, or belongyng to halfe goddes.
Semidoctus, a, um, meanely learned.
Semiermis, me, halfe armed.
Semifactus, halfe made.
Semifera animalia, beastes engendred betweene a wilde beaste and a tame, as betwene a woulfe and a dogge, or betwene a wylde boare and a tame swyne.
Semiferus, a, um, somewhat wilde, halfe wild.
Semiformis, me, that hath halfe a forme or fascion, vnperfect.
Semifultus, a, um, halfe vnderset or staied vp.
Semigermanus, an halfe brother.
Semigræcus, a, um, halfe a greke.
Semigrauis, ue, halfe drowsie or heauie.
Sémigro, aui, are, to goe to dwell in an other place.
Semihomo, halfe a man.
Semihôra, æ, halfe an houre.
Semiiúgerum, i, n. ge. halfe as muche lande as conteyneth. 120. foote in length, and halfe as muche in breadeth.
Semilacer, a, um, halfe torne or rent.
Semiliber, a, um, halfe free.
Semilissula, & Semilixula, a littell cake, made with meale chese and water.
Semilixa, æ, masc. gene. a vile felowe, a scolian or drudge.
Semimadidus, a, um, halfe wette.
Semimares, they whiche are not perfecte men, as those whiche are gelded.
Semimarinus, belongynge partely to the sea, partly to the lande.
Sémimas, aris, m. g. any beast that is gelded.
Ouis semimas, a wether.
Semimórtuus, a, um, halfe dead.
Seminâlis, le, that belongeth to sowyng.
Seminanis, ne, halfe voyde or emptie.
Seminárium, ij, n. g. a place, from whence settes and plantes be translated or remoued, also a tree, of the whiche settes be taken, by translation, the fyrst begynnyng or chiefe cause of any yll or good.
Seminatio. ônis, f. g. sowyng.
Seminâtor, ôris, m. g. a sower.
Seminecis, ci, cem, ce, halfe slaine.
Seminium, nij, n. g. seede, also the gaine of seede.

Sémino, aui, are, to ſowe.
Semnúdus, a, um, halfe naked.
Semióbolus, the twelue the parte of a Greche dramme.
Semipagánus, a, um, halfe an houſebandeman, halfe a carle of the countrey.
Semipater, tris, halfe a father.
Semipedális, le, halfe a foote in quantitee or heyght.
Semipedáneus, a, um, idem.
Sémipes, mipedis, m. g. halfe a foote.
Semiplacentinus, halfe a placentine, partly of the citee of Placentia.
Semiplágium, ij, n. g. a littell neite.
Samiplénus, a, um, not full, halfe full.
Semiplótia, were ſhoes that couered but halfe the foote, whiche the Romaines dyd weare on whan they went on huntyng.
Semiputátus, a, um, halfe cutte, halfe vncutte, not all cut.
Semiquinárius, a, um, that whiche is halfe fiue in numbre.
Semiramis, mis, and idis, the wyfe of kyng Ninus that made the citee of Babylon, and conquered many countreys.
Semirâſus, a, um, halfe ſhauen or ſcraped.
Semirefectus, a, um, halfe refreſſhed.
Semirutus, a, um, partly decayed, halfe deſtroied or caſt downe.
Semis, halfe.
Semiſenex, & Semiſeneus, after olde writers, halfe olde.
Semiſepultus, a, um, halfe buried.
Semiſextula, læ, the. xii. parte of an ounce. alſo a meaſure of grounde. 10. foote broade, and 20. in length: that is, 200. fote ſquare.
Semiſomnis, ne, & Semiſomnus, a, um, halfe aſleape, halfe in a ſlumbre, halfe ſleappyng halfe wakyng.
Semiſonárius, he that playeth on a tymbrell.
Semiſopitus, a, um, halfe ſleppyng halfe wakyng.
Semiſoporátus, a, um, idem.
Semiſpathium, a ſhorte ſwoorde.
Semiſsis, is, m. g. halfe of any thyng, halfe a cubite. it is alſo the halfe pounde weyght, or. 6. ounces. alſo a certaine piece of money, whiche was halfe the Romaine coine called Aureus.
Semiſsis homo, a vyle perſone.
Semiſsis vſura, the gain of yr in an hundred.
Semiſupinus, a, um, halfe vpright.
Sémita, æ, f. g. a pathe, alſo a foote wate.
Semitárius, a, um, that haunteth pathe wates.
Semitarius mœchus, a vile knaue and lechour that haunteth quenes in the hyghe wates.
Semitâtus, a, um, deuided in pathes.
Sémito, aui, are, to make pathes, or to deuide in to pathes or wates.
Semitogátus, & Semitogatulus, he that weareth a ſhorte gowne.
Semitógium, gij, neu. gener. a ſhorte gowne, a prieſtes cloke.

Semitritæon, vel Hemitritæon, a feuer, the whiche is a tercian and a halfe, and of 48. houres, and vereth one. 36. houres.
Semitritus, a, um, halfe braied or pounded, halfe bruiſed, not all threſſhed.
Semiuiétus, a, um, ſomewhat ſoke.
Sémiuir, miuiri, m. g. an vnperfecte man, halfe a man, alſo an effeminate perſon.
Semiuiuus, a, um, halfe alyue.
Semiuſtulandus, a, um, to be halfe burned.
Semiuſtulâtus, a, um, idem quod Semiuſtus.
Semiuſtus, a, um, halfe burned.
Semimódius, ij, m. g. halfe a buſſhell.
Semótus, a, um, remoued, put alyde.
Semóueo, ſémoues, móui, ére, to moeue or goe awaie, to remoue awaie, to put alyde.
Semper, euer, alwaies, continually, from tyme to tyme.
Semperlæ'nitas, âtis, f. gene. accuſtomed gentilneſſe or mildeneſſe, continuall gentilneſſe.
Semperuiuum, i, n. g. an herbe called Sengreene.
Sempiterno, an aduerbe, euer, alwaies.
Sempiternus, a, um, euerlaſtyng.
Sempronius, a ſenatour of Rome.
Semuncia, æ, f. g. halfe an ounce.
Semuntia terræ, a platte cõtemyng. 1200. fote 30. fote broade and. 40. longe.
Semunciális, le, of halfe an ounce.
Semunciarius, a, um, idem.
Sena, a citee in Tuſcane, called Senes, whiche is an hundred myles from Rome, ſometyme it is writen Senæ, in the plurall numbre.
Senáculum, li, n. g. a counſaile hous, a counſaile chambre, alſo a littell ſenate.
Senárius, a, um, that is of the numbre of vi.
Senarij verſus, & Senarioli, verſes hauyng vi feete, propely lambici, or Trochaici.
Sanâtor, ôris, m. g. a ſenatour, a counſailour.
Senatórius, a, um, pertenyng to ſenatours.
Senâtus, us, m. gen. a ſenate or counſaile. alſo a place where the counſaile is holden.
Cogere, cõuocare, or vocare ſenatum, to call a ſenate, to aſſemble a counſaile or parliament.
Habere ſenatum, to hold a counſaile.
Dare ſenatum alicui, to cauſe ones matter to be heard before the ſenatours or counſailours.
Extinguere ſenatum, to abolyſſhe the auctoritee of the ſenate.
In ſenatum aliquem legere, to chooſe or elette one to be a ſenatour.
Mitti vel dimitti ſenatus dicitur, whan the ſenate is diſſolued, whan the prætor geueth licence to departe.
Mouere ſenatu, to put out of the ſenate.
In ſenatum venire, to be made a ſenatour.
Frequentem ſenatum efficere, to make a great aſſemble of the ſenatours.
Senatus diſcedit, the ſenatours departe and goe home to theyr houſes.
Senatum cooptare, to chooſe counſailours.
Senatus conſultum, ti, an acte of counſaile, or an ordinaunce made by the senate.

Séneca, æ, the name of two great learned men.
Senécio, ónis, an herbe, whiche groweth on walles and tiles, and is hote in sommer, and hath redde stalkes, called grounswell.
Senecta, æ, f. g. olde age.
Senectus, utis, f. g. age.
Adipisci senectutem, to become olde.
Confectus senectute, verie olde.
Obrepit non intellecta senectus, age crepeth on a man er he be ware.
Desipere senectute, to dote for age.
Senectus orationis, id est, maturitas.
Senectus, is also an adders skinne, whiche he casteth of in the spryng tyme.
Senectus, a, um, olde.
Seneo, & senesco, scere, to waxe olde, to growe in age.
Fama senescere dicitur aliquis, when his bruit or renoume decaieth.
Ne cunctando senescerent consilia, lest by longe delaynge theyr counsayle shulde come to none effecte.
Hyems senescit, id est, declinat, winter draweth towarde an ende.
Litteræ senescunt, learnyng or knowlage of good letters beginneth to decaie.
Luna senescens, the moone whan it is in the wane.
Morbus senescit, whan it beginneth to weare awaie.
Pugna senescit, the battaile beginneth to quaile, or to drawe towardes an ende.
Senescit laus, whan ones prayse beginneth to decaie.
Senex, senis, com. gen. an olde man or wooman. it is sometyme taken for Rugósus, withered or riueled.
Seni, æ, na, ꝑr.
Senio, ónis, m. g. a spee or numbre of syre marked in the dice.
Sénior, óris, m. g. a verie auncient persone, a graue father or counsailour.
Senior, & hoc senius, elder.
Senilis, le, belongyng to an olde man.
Seniliter, lyke an olde man.
Senium, nij, n. g olde age. somtime an olde man. sometyme sadnesse, heauinesse and mournyng.
Senium lunæ, the later parte of the wane of the moone.
Vtillum dij, deæque senium perdant, I praie god and all the saintes in heauen bryng that olde charle to a mischiefe.
Sennaar, the fielde, where the toure of Babylon was builded.
Senogallia, a citee in Italie.
Senones, people in Fraunce.
Sensa, the senses or those thynges, whiche we doe meane.
Sensibilis, le, that maie be felte, or that can feele, sensible

Sensiculus, li, the diminutiue of sensus, a fonlisshe or trifelyng sense.
Sénsifer, sifera, rum, that bringeth sense or feling.
Sensificus, a, um, that causeth feelyng.
Sénsilis, le, that maie be felte.
Sensim, littell and littell.
Sensim & repente, contrarie.
Sensus, us, mas. ge. sence, feelyng or perceiuing, sometyme that one thinketh or hath conceiued in his mynde. also the sense or meanyng of any writyng.
Nullus in te sensus est humanitatis, there is no sparke of gentilnesse in the.
Ego illius sensum pulchre calleo, I knowe the mans mynde or fantasie tolity well.
Suffugere sensum res dicitur, whan it can not be felte or perceiued.
Ostendere sensum suum, to shewe his mynde.
Exponere sensum, to shewe or vtter that he hath conceiued in his mynde.
Sensus communis, the common sense, experience & perceiuyng of thynges, ꝑ is in euery man.
Sensum, si, neu. g. that one hath conceiued in his mynde.
Senta, was called Fauna or Bona dea, the good goddesse.
Sententia, æ, f. g. sentence, iudgement, opinion or counsayle spoken or writen concernyng the ryse of man.
Contrariam sententiam accipere, to haue the cause iudged agaynst hym.
Sententiam dicere, to shewe his opinion.
Sententiam facere, to geue sentence or iudgement.
Sententiæ, arum, graue and morall sentences of counsaile, or any vertuous matter.
Si sententia est, ꝑ your mynde or purpose be.
Et sapiunt mea quidem sententia, and in faith after myne opinion and iudgement they doo wysely.
Quantum intellexi senis sententiam, as muche as I perceiued by the olde mans mynde or woordes.
Mouere aliquem sententia, to cause one to change his sentence or opinion.
Mihi per alium ostendit suam sententiam, he sheweth me his mynde vnder the colour or pretence of an other.
Ponere suam sententiam, to write his owne opinion.
In ista sum sententia, I am in this mynde, I thynke this, this is myne aduise or opinion.
Eorum magis sententiæ sum, I incline more to theyr sentence or opinion.
Sic sententia est, I haue so determined with my selfe.
Sententijs omnibus hostis iudicatus est, he was iudged an enemie of the common weale by euery mans voice and consent.
Sententiola, læ, f. g. a littell or shorte sentence.
Sententiosè, sententiously.

Sententiôsus, a, um, sentencious, full of thyrte sentences.
Sentica, a towne of Spayne called Simancas.
Senticétum, ti, n. g. a place full of bryers.
Senticôsus, a, um, sharpe as a bryer, ful of bryers.
Sentina, næ, f. ge. the pumpe of a shippe, a place where all filthe is receiued, a sinke: sometyme a tauerne: and by translation a place, whither all naughty people resorte, or a company of naughty packes, or lewde & mischeuous felowes: also the lowest & most base estate of the cõmõ weale.
Sentinária, a countrey in Italie.
Sentino, aui, are, to auoide perill. also to pumpe vp water out of a shippe, to labour harde to auoyde daunger.
Sentinum, a towne in Italie called nowe Saxoferratum.
Sentio, sensi, sentire, to perceyue, to vnderstande, to feele, to iudge, to suppose, to knowe, to be of opinion.
Aliud sentire, aliud loqui, to speake one thynge and thinke an other: to beare two faces in one hoode: to speake otherwise than he thinketh.
Sentio tecum, I am of thine opinion.
Sentio sonitum, I heare a noyse.
Famem sentire, to suffer hunger, to be hungry.
Sentire sitim, to be dry.
Sentire medicinam, to be somewhat better after the receiuyng of a medicine
Celeriter sentit cariem, it is quickely rotten.
Si me senserit eum quærituare, if he perceiue that I doe seke hym.
Recte sentire, to thynke well, or be of a good opinion.
Iste tuus ipse sentiet posterius, that marchaunt of yours shall feele it hym selfe an other date.
Iste haud mecũ sentit, this man is not of myne opinion.
Sentire grauiter de aliquo, id est, ei male cupere, to wish cruel to a mã, to desyre some great displeasure to come to hym.
Male sentire de aliquo, to haue an yll opinion of one.
Sentiet qui vir siem, he shall knowe what a felowe I am.
Sentis, is, m. g. a bryre or bramble.
Sentis canis, dogge bryre.
Sentisco, scere, to begyn to knowe or perceiue.
Sentus, a, um, heary, rough.
Seorsum, an aduerbe, a parte, a sonder, one from an other. also namely, specially.
Omnibus gratiam habeo, & seorsum tibi præterea Demea, I thanke you all, but namely ye Demea.
Seorsum ate sentio, I am of an other opinion then thou arte.
Seorsus, idem quod Seorsum.
Separ, separis, vnlyke, vnequall, diuers.
Separâbilis, le, easy to be diuided or separated.
Separate, aparte, separately.

Separâtio, ônis, separation, settyng aparte, puttyng one from an other.
Separâtim, aparte, seuerally.
Separâtus, a, um, separate, or diuided from an other thynge.
Séparo, aui, are, to put aparte or departe one from an other, to separate.
Sepâtus, a, um, of talowe, or made of talowe.
Candelæ sepatæ, talowe candels.
Sépedes, emotes.
Sepelibilis, le, that is or maie be buried.
Sepélio, sepelis, liui, lire, to burie, to interre, to laie in the earthe.
Sepelire se vino & epulis, to geue hym selfe to dronkennesse, and banketyng.
Sepes, or seps, sepis, f. g. a hedge.
Præxtendere sepem, to make a hedge before a place.
Sepia, æ, a fysshe white of colour, but it hath a blacke iopce, it is called a cuttell.
Sepiola, læ, f. g. a diminutiue of Sepia.
Sepimentum, ti, n. g. an inclosure or hedge.
Sepio, sepiui, sepitum, or sepsi, septum, sepire, to hedge or inclose.
Sepiuns, piuntis, Sipus, puntis, & Sipontum, a cittee in the realme of Naples.
Seplasiarius, a maker of soote oyntmentes.
Seplásium, or Seplasia, a shoppe where sweete oyntementes are solde. it was a strete in the cittee of Capua, wherin were diuerse delicate oyntmentes.
Sepono posui, ponere, to put or lay aparte.
Seponere pecuniam in ædificationem, to laie vp money to builde with.
Seponere sibi tempus ad rem aliquam, to reserue or kepe a tyme of leysure to doo any thynge in.
Sepósitus, put or laied aparte. sometyme for Remotus, that dwelleth farre of.
Seps, sepis, m g. a venemous wourme, of whose stroke or bityng the flesshe rotteth.
Seps, sepis, f. g. a hedge.
Septa, órum, n. g. the generall name of all places inclosed, looke septum.
Septangu'us, a fygure hauing seuen corners.
Septem, adiectiuum indeclinable, plur. nu. seuen.
September, bris, m. g. the moneth of september. it is sometyme vsed adiectiuely.
Septémfluus, a, um, that floweth in seuē partes.
Septémpeda, a place in Italie called Sancte Seuerine.
Septempedâlis, le, of seuen feete, seuen foote longe.
Septemgéminus, a, um, seuen tymes double.
Septemplex, plicis, seuen folde.
Septemuir, uiri, m. g. an officer in Rome, where seuen were of ythe authoritee.
Septemuirâlis, le, belongyng to those officers.
Septemuirâtus, us, m. g. the authoritee or dignitee of those officers.

Septéndecim, seuentene.
Septeni, næ, na, seuen.
Septennis, ne, of seauen peres.
Septennium, the space of seuen peres.
Septentrio, ônis, the noꝛthe cost. also the noꝛthe Pole.
Septentrionâlis, le, noꝛtherne, oꝛ towarde the noꝛthe.
Septentriones, the seuen sterres, which are seene by Charles wayne, oꝛ Vrsa maior.
Septiana mala, a kynd of rounde apuls grafted firste by one Septius.
Septicollis, by that name Rome was called, because of the seuen hilles, whiche were in it, Palatinus, Quirinalis, Auentinus, Cœlius, Viminalis, Exquilium, and Ianiculum.
Sépticus, a, um, putrifactiue, oꝛ coꝛrosiue.
Septies, seuen tymes.
Septifariam, seuen maner of factions, oꝛ waies.
Septifârius, a, um, seuen dpuers.
Séptimum, the seuenth tyme.
Septimâna, næ, f. g. a weke.
Septimatrus, was an holy daie, kepte the daie folowyng the sixte Idus of euery moneth.
Septimontium, a place hauing seuen hilles.
Séptimus, a, um, the seuenth.
Septingenârius, a, um, that conteyneth seuen hundꝛed.
Septingéni, and Septingenti, seuen hundꝛed.
Septingenties, seuen hundꝛed tymes.
Septingentesimus, a, um, the seuen hundꝛedth.
Septingéntuplus, a, um, seuen hundꝛed folde.
Septimius, a Romaine, of whome Catullus wꝛiteth.
Septuagenârius, a, um, thꝛee scoꝛe and ten peres olde.
Septuagênus, a, um, the seuenteth.
Septuagies, thꝛe scoꝛe and ten tymes.
Septuaginta, thꝛe scoꝛe and ten.
Septum, ti, n g. euery place inclosed, as the place of exercise at Rome, in the fielde called Martius, a close oꝛ leisew hedged about, sometyme a folde foꝛ sheepe. also an hedge: moꝛe ouer a sluice oꝛ locke in a riuer, either to stoppe oꝛ let go the water, made of stone, timber oꝛ other matter.
Septum transuersum, the midꝛiff, whiche diuideth the stomache from the lower bowelles.
Septuosè, darkely, obscurely.
Septunciâlis, le, of seuen vnces.
Septunx, uncis, m. g. a poice of seuen vnces. also a measure of lande conteinyng in bꝛeadth and lengthe. 16800. fote, and is halfe the measure called Iugerum, and a. 12. parte.
Septunx, seuen partes of any hole summe oꝛ measure: as, Septunx vini, a cuppe conteinyng seuen partes of the measure Sextarius. i. Septem Cyathos, and euery Cyathus, is two ownces. so that Septunx vini is. xiiii. ownces. but after phisitions, takyng Cyathus to be an ownce and an halfe, Septunx is but. 10. ownces, and an halfe.
Vsura ex septunce, the vsurie of vii. in the hundꝛed.
Septus, a, um, inclosed, hedged, oꝛ compassed about, fenced.
Sepulchrâlis, le, beloging to a sepulchꝛe oꝛ graue.
Sepulchrétum, ti, n. g. a solemnitee kepte about a graue oꝛ tumbe, a buriall.
Sepulchrum, cluri, n. g. a sepulchꝛe oꝛ tumbe, a graue.
Sepultûra, ræ, fœ. g. an interment, a sepulchꝛe oꝛ buryng. sometyme foꝛ sepulchrum.
Sepultus, a, um, buried oꝛ hidde. also lyke as it were dead.
Sepultus sum, I am but a dead man, I were as good be buried, I am vtterly vndoone oꝛ cast awaie.
Sepum, pi, n. g. talow.
Sequana, a ryuer in Fraunce called Sein.
Sequâni, burgonions of high Bourgoyne.
Sequax, âcis, om. g. that whiche foloweth, pliant. also clammie, that sticketh to ones fingers lyke birdelyme oꝛ pitche.
Sequax bytumen, the clammy slaie oꝛ lyme called Bytumen.
Hederæ sequaces, pute that groweth and spꝛeadeth abꝛoade on walles.
Sequêla, læ, f. g. the acte of folowyng, sequele.
Sequester, tris, tre, and Hic & hæc sequestris, & hoc sequestre, oꝛ Sequester, stra, strum, indifferent to bothe parties, with whom money is lefte, oꝛ in whose handes any thyng is putte by agreement of bothe the parties that be at controuersie. also he that at the election of officers receiued money to make frendes, and solicite the people to geue theyꝛ voyces: oꝛ one that is hyꝛed to coꝛrupte a iudgement, oꝛ vndertaketh to bꝛynge any naughty matter to passe foꝛ money. In Quintilian Sequester is taken foꝛ hym that is instructed of the partie that seweth, and informeth the aduocate oꝛ atturney, a solicitour.
Pax sequestra, a truce oꝛ league.
Sequestrarius, a, um, an adiectiue.
Actio sequestraria, an action in the law, when one is sewed to deliuer a thyng that was lefte in his handes.
Sequestro, aui, are, to laie oꝛ lette a thyng indifferently, oꝛ in the hepyng of an indifferent persone.
Sequestrò, an aduerbe, a parte.
Sequius, foꝛ Secius.
Sequor, séqueris, sequi, to folowe, to goe after, to ensue, to seke foꝛ.
Sequi lites, to sewe at the lawe.
Sequi quod assequi non queas, to labour to haue that thou canst not attaine.
A tergo sequi, to folow one at the bacbe.
Amicitiam populi Romani sequuti sumus, we haue alwaie sought the frendshyp of the Romaines.
Amicum sequi, to doe as his friende doeth, to obey obey his friende.

Quicunq; ex fuga Pompeium ſequerentur, all that dyd flee and folow Pompey.
Feras ſequi, to hunt beaſtes.
Cæſaris nidem ſequutus, beleuyng or truſtyng to the promiſes of Cæſar.
Imperat hortetur, vt fidem populi Romani ſequantur, he chargeth hym to exhorte them to be feithfull to the Romayns: or to take parte with the Romayns and ſtiche to them.
Compendia temporis ſequi, to auoyde the ſpendyng and loſſe of tyme, to beſtow or ſpend as litell tyme as one can about a thynge.
Gratiam Cæſaris ſequi, to ſeke Cæſars frendſhip or fauour.
Interuallo magno ſequi aliquem, to folow one a louſe of, or a great wate after.
Sequi matrimonium diuitis, to deſire the maryage of ſome ryche perſone.
Sequi naturam ducem, to folow nature in euery thynge as a gouerneſſe and leader.
Officium ſequi, to endeuour to doe his duitie, or that reaſon and honeſtie moueth hym to doe.
Credo illos ſequutos oportunitatem loci, I thynke they had reſpecte to the opportunitee of the place.
Pedibus ſequi, to goe after on foote.
Promiſſa alicuius ſequi, to truſte ones promiſſes.
Diſpares mores diſparia ſtudia ſequũtur, thei that be vnlyke in maners, haue vnlyke affections, and delite in contrary thynges.
Vtilitatem ſequi, to ſeke or loke for profite.
Veſtigijs ſequi, to folowe by the trace, to folow ſteppe by ſteppe.
Sequũtor, ôris, m. g. one that foloweth.
Sequũtus, a, um, that foloweth.
Die ſequuto, the nexte date folowyng.
Sera, an aduerbe, idem quod Sero.
Sera, a citee of Aſia.
Sera, ræ, f. g. a locke.
Seranus, the ſurname of a noble Romayne, which was fet from the plough and made Dictatour.
Serapias, an herbe called alſo Orchis, and hath leaues lyke to leeke blades, and a roote lyke to a mannes ſtones.
Seraphim, angels.
Serapion, an oratour of Alexandria, which wrote to Adrian the emperour: an other was biſſhop of Antioche, in the tyme of Commodus: an other was a notable peinter.
Serapis, or Seraphis, idis, a ſerpente, whiche the Aegyptians worſhipped for a god.
Serénitas, âtis, f. g. fayrenes of weather, dyuthe. alſo quietneſſe.
Sereniſſimus, a, um, is a terme appropried nowe adaies to kinges onely, and is vſurped for moſt famous, or moſt renowmed.
Serênum, ni, n. g. fayre weather.
Serêno, aui, are, to make fayre and clere.
Serênus, a, ũ, faire, clere, without clowdes or raine.
Cœlum ſerenum, fayre weather.
Tranquilla & ſerena frons, a glad and merry countinance.
Seres, a people in Aſia, hauig great plẽte of ſilke.
Séricus, a, um, of the people Seres or of ſylke.
Sericæ veſtes, ſilken garmentes.
Sereſco, or ſereneſco, ſcere, to be fayre and dyie, alſo Sereſco, is to turne into whey.
Sergeſtus, one of Eneas ſhipmen.
Sergia, a kynde of olyues.
Seria, a citee of Spayne.
Seria, erneſt, graue and ſad wooydes.
Seria, æ, f. g. a wyne veſſell, whiche is longe.
Sericárius, rij, m. g. a weauer of ſilke.
Sericâtus, a, um, apparayled in ſilke, or he that weareth a garment of ſilke.
Séricum, ci, n. g. ſilke.
Séricus, a, um, of ſilke.
Séries, ei, fœ. g. an order or proceſſe in any matter, whan a thynge hangeth well together.
Serilla, botes or ſhippes called with rowe.
Seriola, a diminutiue of Seria.
Seriô, in good erneſt.
Seriphius, a, um, of Seriphos.
Rana ſeriphia, ſpoken prouerbially of them that be as they were dumme, or can ſay nothing in any mattier.
Seriphos, an yle by Grecia, in the ſee called Aegeum, where the frogges that there breede, are dumme.
Sériphum, phi, n. g. a kynde of wormewoode, growyng in the ſea.
Seris, is, f. g. is the generall name of all ſtrange & endiue, rede Indybus.
Serius, a riuer of Fraunce.
Serius, a, um, erneſt, graue, of importance, that is doone or ſpoken erneſtly.
Sermo, ſermônis, m. ge. a ſpeche, a fourme of ſpeakyng. ſometyme an oracion. alſo communication. alſo ſermo is a bruite or a rumour: as ſermo datus per ciuitatem, a bruite ſpredde ouer all the citee.
Erat in ſermone res, there was a rumour.
Quum mihi in ſermone ineſſiſet, when he had caſte out a worde to me in communication.
Eccum tibi lupum in ſermone, prouerbially, ſee, here cometh the man that we ſpake of.
Sermonis caput & pes, the beginnyng and ende of ones communication.
Latialis ſermo, the latine tongue.
Obſcœni ſermones, rebaudyte.
Otioſi ſermones, idell talke.
Patrius ſermo, our mother or native tongue.
Pedeſtris ſermo, id eſt, humilis.
Abrumpere ſermonem, to breke of communication or talke of a mattier.
Conferre ſermonem cum aliquo, to common or talke with one.
Delabi in ſermonem, to fall by chaunce into communication of any mattier.
Diuulgare ſermonibus rem aliquam, by communication and talke to ſpreade a matter abrode.

Dare ſermonem alicui, to cauſe one to ſpeake of vs.

Habere ſermonem de re aliqua, to ſpeake of a matter, to intreate of a matter, to handle a matter.

Incidit ſermo de. &c. we chaunced to commen of. &c.

Sermo eſt de te, we talke of you.

Sermo eſt eum. &c. the brute or ſaying is, or men ſaie that he. &c.

Primus annus habuit plurimũ ſermonis, there was muche talke or ſpeaking of this matter the firſte yere.

In ſermone, as we talked together.

In ſermone omnium eſſe, to be in euery mans mouthe, to be talked or communed of of euery man.

Percrebuit omnium ſermone, idem.

Inſtituere ſermonem cum aliquo, to beginne to talke with one.

Multus eſt ſermo te. &c. it is a great brute or ſaying abrode: or men talke muche abrode, that you. &c.

Multi ſermonis ſunt iſta, theſe thynges require many wordes, or to be communed of at large.

Sermocinátrix, tricis, fœ. g. ſhe that inſtructeth to ſpeake.

Sermócinor, âris, ari, to talke, to commune.

Sermúnculus, li, m. ge. a litteli talke or communication.

Sernula, a citee of Macedonie.

Sero, aui, are, to ſhutte or locke.

Sero, ſeui, ſatum, ſerere, to ſowe, to plante, to ingendre, to ſpreade abrode a brute or rumour.

☞ Manu ſerendum non corbe, ye muſt caſt your ſeede by litle & litle with your hand, & not in heapes with the hole basket: for he that ſo doth by ouer muche haſt leſeth all his thrifte: haſt maketh waſt.

Serere bella, to moue or reiſe warre.

Bella ſermonibus ſerere, to ſpreade abrode rumours of warre.

Incuſauerat bella ex bellis ſeri, he laied to their charges, that they reiſed warres vpon warres.

Serere certamina, to moue diſcencion and debate. alſo to fight.

Leuia certamina ſerere, to ſkyrmiſche.

Secreta colloquia ſerere cum aliquo, to talke or commune ſecretely with one.

Crimina ſerebant in Senatum, they ſpake or reported ill abrode of the ſenatours, and blamed them for diuers thynges.

Diſcordias or lites ſerere, to ſowe or make debate or diſcorde.

Mentionem alicuius rei ſerere ad vulgus, to talke common or babble abrode amonge the people of any mattier.

Prælia ſerere, to fight, to ſkyrmiſche.

Sermones ſerere, to commune or talke.

Aliquid ſerere occultis ſermonibus, to ſpreade a thyng abrode in priuie communication.

Mihi iſtic nec ſeritur nec metitur, that is no thyng for my profite, I haue no thyng to doo with it.

Sero, an aduerbe, ſignifieth late, to late, after the tyme that it ought to be, alſo in the euenyng.

Longe abſum, audio ſero, I am farre of, it is long ere I here any thynge.

Sero enim eſt, for it is to late.

Venit ſero, he came late in the euenyng.

☞ Sero veniſti, thou comeſt to late, thou comeſt when the feaſt is done: or in an other ſens, after meate muſterd.

Sero, ſerui, ſertum, ſerere, to put to, to laie on. alſo to ſet or laie in order, as men doe floures in a gardein.

Serotum, idem quod Scrotum.

Seropta, a citee in Phenicia.

Serótinus, a, um, that whiche is in the euenyng. ſometyme late, or latewarde.

Serótini fructus, latewarde fruites.

Serpens, entis, om. gen. creppng or procedyng forwarde, augmentyng or ſpreadyng abrode by litteli and litteli.

Serpens, pentis, m. & f. g. a ſerpente, the generall name of all vermine that crepe as ſerpentes doe.

Serpéniger, ígera, rum, that beareth a ſerpent.

Serpentigenæ, ingendred of ſerpentes.

Serpentária, æ, ſ. g. an herbe, called Dragons.

Serperaſtum, a ſwathyng or ſwadlyng band, or rather a thynge bounde to childrens knees to make their legges ſtreight.

Serphus, a litteli breaſte, not vnlike an ampt or piſmere.

Serpillus, li, m. gen. or ſerpillum, li, neu. gen. an herbe, whiche groweth on old walles about welles or pondes: and in ſome places it ſmelleth lyke tyme, and in ſome places lyke to ſauoury: ſome doe take it for the common ſauoury.

Serpo, pſi, pere, to creepe, to procede or goe forwarde by litteli and litteli, to go or ſlyde vpon the bealy, as peles and ſerpentes do, to ſpreade abrode by litteli and litteli as herbes doe growyng harde by the grounde.

Serpit amicitia per omnem vitam, frendſhip & amitee ſpreadeth it ſelf in the life of all men.

Serpit conſuetudo, when it is taken vp by litteli and litteli.

Ad alios etiam hæc res ſerpit, this mattier extendeth it ſelfe, or appertayneth or belongeth to other alſo.

Serpit cura, it encreaſeth and waxeth more and more. likewiſe Serpit malum.

Serpit rumor, this rumour increaſeth and goeth abrode.

Serpula, læ, ſ. gen. of olde writers was vſed for Serpens, a ſerpent.

Serpyllus, li, ibke Serpillus.

Serra-

Serra, ræ, fœm. gen. a ſawe. alſo an inſtrument, that men were turmented with by dzawyng of oren. alſo a hynde of ſea fiſſhe, and the name of the riuer Tyber.

Serra prælíari, is to fight in battayle, ſomtyme marchyng forwarde, ſomtyme reculyng, as a ſawe goeth, whan it is dzawen.

Serrata, an herbe, whiche is called Germander.

Serrátula, læ, the herbe Betayne.

Serrátus, a, um, like a ſawe. alſo ſawed.

Serrati dentes, teeth ſtandyng a ſunder like the teeth of a ſawe.

Serrati, a certayne copgne, which had the pzinte of a ſawe in it.

Serro, aui, are, to ſawe.

Sérrula, læ, f. g. a litteli ſawe.

Sertor, óris, m. ge. he that ſoweth ſeedes oz ſetteth herbes.

Sertorius, a Romayne, whiche rebelled agaynſt his countrey.

Sertum, ti, n. g. a garlande.

Sertus, a, um, ſet with floures, as in a garland.

Serti flores, floures ſet in a garlande.

Serrula campana, an herbe called Wellilote.

Seruábilis, le, that maie be kepte.

Seruátor, óris, m. g. he that pzeſerueth oz deliuereth one from harme.

Seruátrix, tricis, the feminine.

Seruátus, a, um, kept, pzeſerued, ſaued.

Seruia, æ, f. g. a garlande of floures.

Seruilis, le, pertepnyng to ſeruantes, ſeruile.

Bellum ſeruile, warre, whiche the ſeruáuntes of the Romayns made agaynſt their lozdes.

Seruiliter, lyke a bondman oz ſlaue.

Seruio, uiui, uire, to ſerue, to geue all ones indeuour and diligence to a thynge, to labour oz dwe the beſte he can to helpe a thing oz perſone.

Seruire auribus, to flatter.

Seruire alicui rei, to intende vpon any thyng, to geue his whole diligence to a thyng.

Aetati ſeruire, to accommodate hym ſelfe to the age of one.

Petitioni ſeruire, to doe nothyng els but attende to the ſuite and labouryng foz an office.

Scænæ ſeruire, to dwe accozdyng as the tyme requireth.

Rumori ſeruire, to go about to get a great name.

Valetudini ſeruire, to pzouide foz his helthe, to haue regarde to his healthe.

Ne apud lenonem hunc ſeruiam, that I maie not ſerue this baude.

Vt huic bello ſeruirent, that they ſhulde attẽde and geue their hole diligence to this warre.

Quàm maxime ſeruire veſtris commodis, to dooe all diligent ſeruice that I can foz youre pzofites.

Summa ſedulitate culturæ ſeruiat, lette hym geue all diligence poſſible to huſbandzie and tyllyng of the grounde.

Cupiditatibus ſeruire, in all thynges to obey his ſenſuall appetites.

Niſi tuæ exiſtimationi ſeruiſſet, if he had not doone his endeuour to helpe oz ſaue youre eſtimacion.

Gloriæ ſeruire, to be deſirous oz courtous of glozie, to dooe all that he can to attayne glozie, oz foz glozis ſake.

Defenſioni patriæ ſeruiret, to defend oz helpe to mayntayne his countrey.

Matrimonio puellæ ſeruire, to dwe all that he can to helpe oz pzouide a mayden to be maried.

Poſteritati ſeruire, to geue all his diligence to pleaſe oz to dwe gwd to his poſteritee.

Rei familiari ſeruire, to be buſy and occupied about his houſholde affaires, to attende to his houſholde buſyneſſe.

Seruire ſeruitutem, to be in bondage.

Seruitur, the imperſonall.

Seruibo, oz Seruiam, in the future tenſe.

Séruior, uiris, uiri, the paſſiue, to be ſerued.

Seruitium, tij, n. gen. ſeruice, alſo the multitude of ſeruantes, the meyny.

Genitus in ſeruitio, a ſeruaunt oz bondman bozne.

Seruitia, órum, plu. ſeruantes oz bondmen.

Séruitus, tútis, f. g. bondage, ſeruage, ſeruitude.

Aſſerere in ſeruitutem vrbes, to bzyng cities in bondage and ſubiection of tyzannes.

Pati ſeruitutem, to be in bondage.

Seruius, a ſurname among the Romayns.

Seruo, aui, are, to kepe, to pzeſerue, to poſſede, to dwell in a place, to watche diligently and cautiouſely, to take good heede, to obſerue.

Seruare fidem, to kepe touche, to be feithfull, to kepe pzomiſſe, to do that he pzomiſed.

Seruare de cælo, to awapte what weather ſhall come, to obſerue tokens oz ſignes in the heauen oz firmament.

Omnia integra principi ſeruare, to reſerue the whole matter vnto the pzince.

Modum ſeruare, to kepe a meane.

Serua obſecro hæc nobis bona, kepe oz continue vs in this good foztune, felicitee, oz pzoſperitee I beſeche the.

Ad reditum ſeruare, to kepe till ones comyng agayne.

Concentum ſeruare fides dicitur, To be in tune.

Seruare conſuetudinem, to kepe a cuſtome oz facion.

Seruare quod deceat, to dooe that is comely and ſittyng.

Seruare fidem veritatis, to wzite ſymply as the truthe is.

Seruare officium aduerſus inimicum, to doe his dutie, oz that honeſtee requiretth euen to his ennemie.

In vetuſtatem ſeruare vinum, to kepe wyne a longe tyme.

Seruare ſuum, is vſed in the lawe, foz Recuperare, to recouer.

Seruaueris, beware what ye doo, take hede what ye doo.

Serum, ri, n. g. the laste parte of the date, the euentyde. it is also whey of milke.

Rem in serum trahere, to prolonge the matter vntill it be night.

Pasci sero pingui, to be fedde with fat whey.

Liquidum serum, clere whey.

Quia serum erat diei, because it was in the euenyng.

Serus, a, um, late, sometyme great: sometyme greuous or heauy, that is longe a comyng.

Sera arbor, a tree whiche bringeth foorthe leaues verey late.

Serum lumen, almost night.

Serę frondes, leaues whiche fall verey late.

Sera omnia, all full of sorowe or heauinesse.

Sera rosa, for serótina.

Serum bellum, great and greeuous warre.

Quid tam sera aduenis? why comest thou so late?

Serum est, it is to late.

Séruula, lę, f. g. a wenche or woman seruant.

Séruulus, li, a diminutiue of seruus.

Seruus, a, um, that is in bondage or subiection.

Seruus, ui, m. g. a seruant, properly whiche is compelled to serue, as bondmen or apprentises doone.

Seruum pecus, a prouerbe, applied to hym, which in speaking or writing, dare not digresse from an other mans steppes or fourme of writyng.

Seruus ordinarius, a chiefe seruant, that hath the ouersight of other.

Seruus vicarius, an vnder seruant.

Seruus mediastinus, a mongerell.

Serua, uæ, f. g. a wenche or woman seruant.

Sésama, mæ, f. g. & sésamum, mi, n. g. a white grayne, whiche groweth in India, wherof oyle is made, whiche is called oleum sesáminum.

Sesáminus, a, um, of sesama.

Sesamoides, an herbe, which purgeth melancoly.

Sesamus, a citee of Paphlagonia.

Sescuntiális, le, of an vnce and an halfe.

Sescunx, cuncis, m. g. and Sescuntia, æ, f. g. an vnce and an halfe

Sésquplum, pli, neu. ge. the whole and the halfe parte.

Sese, the accusatiue case of Sui.

Seselis, lis, f. g. an herbe, called also Siler

Sesostris, a kynge of Egypte, whiche intended to make a ryuer betwene the redde sea and the ryuer of Nilus.

Sesqui, as muche and halfe as muche, ioyned to an other woorde, it signifieth halfe as muche more.

Sesquiáltera, so muche and halfe so muche, a proporcion in musike.

Sesquihóra, an houre and an halfe.

Sesquiúgerum, an aker and an halfe.

Sesquihibra, bræ, fœ. ge. a pounde and an halfe.

Sesquimensis, a month and an halfe.

Sesquióbolus, a poise conteinynge three partes of a scruple: it may bee vsed of vs for three farthynges.

Sesquioctáuus, a, um, the eight and a halfe.

Sesquimódius, a bussheli and a halfe.

Sesquiópera, ræ, f. g. one tourney in tillage and a halfe.

Sesquiplaga, æ, f. g. a stroke and a halfe.

Sésquipes, pedis, m. g. a foote and a halfe.

Sesquipedália verba, great and stoute woordes, as some noble men dooe speake to theyr inferiours, when they are displeased.

Sésquiplex, idem quod Sesquialter.

Sessibulum, li, n. g. a benche to sitte on, a setle, a couche.

Sessilis, le, that sitteth or seemeth to sytte.

Tergum sessile, a backe whereon one may sit.

Sessilis lactuca, lettise that groweth harde by the grounde, so that it seemeth to sitte.

Sessio, ônis, f. g. a sittynge.

Sessito, aui, are, to sitte often.

Sestans, antis, m. g. a certayne coyne, lesse then that whiche is called Quadrans, by the thirde parte, and conteineth. ii. vnces: after some it is also called óbolus, the sixte parte of a dramme: after some other, it is the sixte parte of a pońde.

Sestans, the sixte parte of any somme, measure, or quantitee, which is diuided into twelue partes: as, Sestans vini, the sixte parte of sextarius, that is, foure vnces of wine.

Exsestante hæredem facere, to make an heire of the sixte parte.

Vsura ex sestante, two in the hundred: as in a hundred pounde. 40. shillinges.

Sestans agri, the sixte parte of iugerũ, conteynyng. 4800. foote.

Sestantárius, a, um, that is the weighte of Sestans.

Sestertius, seu Sextartius nummus, was a siluer coyne of the Romaynes, wherof Denarius conteined foure: so that when viii. grotes englishe made an vnce, then was Sestertius our englishe peny: and it was called Sestertius, as it were Semitertius: for it conteined. ii. and a halfe of the brasen coigne called As, and therfore it is writen with this figure ℔, whiche signifieth. ii. li. and dim. Sestertium, in the neutre gender, signifieth a thousande Sesterti, that is. ii. li. and an halfe of the Romaynes called libra, or pondus, in value. 25. crownes frenche, v. li. sterlyng.

Decem sestertia, and Decem millia Sestertium, idem, 250. crownes frenche. 50. li. sterl.

Dicimus autem mille sesterti, Mille nummi, mille sestertiũm, mille nummũm, and Mille sestertiũm nummũm, 25. crownes frenche, v. li. sterlyng.

Decies sestertiũm, idem quod decies centena millia sestertiũm. 25. thousande crownes frenche. 5000. li. sterl.

Mille

Mille seſtertia, idem.
Seſtértium, tij, n. g. a certayne lewſe garmente that men vſed to caſt about them ſyke a ſheete.
Seſtertiolum, li, n. g. a diminutiue of Seſtertium.
Seſtiæ aquæ, certayne water in the prouince of Narbon.
Seſtiana mala, a certayne kynde of apuls, named of one Seſtius.
Seſtos, a citee in Thrace.
Seta, tæ, f. g. a brſtill or bigge heare.
Setabis, a riuer in Spaine.
Setia, a citee in Campania.
Sétiger, ra, rum, that beareth or hath brſtils on his backe.
Setinum vinum, wyne made about the citee of Setia.
Setim, a tree, lyke to white thorne, whiche doeth neuer rotte: wherof was muche of the tymber in the temple of Salomon.
Setôſus, a, um, full of brſtilles.
Setubia, a towne of Spayne.
Setuoſe, lowe Septuoſe.
Setuôſus, a, um, olde writers vſed for obſcurus, darke.
Seu, for ſiue, either, or.
Seuére, ſeuerely, with grauitee. alſo ſharpely, cruelly rigorouſly.
Seuériter, idem.
Seuéritas, tátis, f. g. grauitee, conſtantneſſe, propꝛely in miniſtrynge iuſtice, ſeueritee, rigour, ſharpeneſſe, ſtrictneſſe, hardeneſſe.
Adhibere ſeueritatem, to vſe ſeueritee or grauitee.
Seueritas animaduerſionis, ſtrictnes, rigour, or ſeueritee in puniſchyng.
Seueritúdo, dinis, f. g. idem quod Seueritas.
Seuêrus, a, um, graue, conſtant, cruell, ſharpe, daungerous to meddill with, ſeuere, harde, ſtreicte, rigorous.
Acerbe ſeuerus in filium, very cruel and harde towarde his ſoonne.
Seuerus, the name of diuers men. alſo an hill in Italie, after Seruius.
Séuoco, aui, are, to call aparte or awaie, to call aſide from other.
Animum ab omni negotio ſeuocare, to withdꝛawe the mynde from cogitacion of all maner of buſineſſe.
Seuocare ſe à corporibus, to withdꝛawe hym ſelfe from cogitacion of corporall and wꝛoldely matters.
Seuo, aui, are, to make candils of talow.
Seuôſus, a, um, greaſy lyke talow.
Seuum, ui, n. g. talow of beaſtes.
Sex, ſyxe in numbꝛe.
Sexageni, næ, na, ſixtie.
Sexageni dies, thꝛee ſcoꝛe daies.
Sexagies, thꝛee ſcoꝛe tymes.
Sexaginta, thꝛee ſcoꝛe.
Sexangulus, a, um, hauyng ſixe coꝛneꝛs.
Sexcentéſimus, a, um, the ſixe hundꝛed.
Sexcénties, ſixe hundꝛed tymes.
Sexcentenus, and Sexcenus, a, um, ſixe hundꝛed.
Sexcenti, tæ, ta, idem.
Sexcentoplagus, he that receiueth ſixe hundꝛed ſtripes.
Séxcuplus, a, um, ſixe double, or ſixe tymes ſo muche.
Sexdecies, thꝛee ſcoꝛe tymes.
Sexennis, ne, of ſixe peres olde.
Sexennium, nij, n. g. the ſpace of. vi. peres.
Sexies, ſixe tymes.
Sextans, and Sextarius, looke Seſtans, and Seſtarius.
Sextarius, is a meaſure, wherby all other meaſures maie be made: it conteineth two meaſures called Heminæ or Cotilæ: and. vi. ſextarij dooe make one Congium: and. viii. Congij dooe make Amphoram: xx. Amphoræ, one Culeum. notwithſtandyng there is Sextarius Romanus, and Sextarius Atticus. Romanus conteineth the weyghte of oile. xviii. vnces: of wyne. xx. vnces: of honny. xxx. vnces. Atticus receiueth the weyghte of oyle. xv. vnces: of wyne a pounde. iii. vnces, ꝛ. dꝛagmes, and one ſcruple: of honny, ii. pounde and one vnce: This kar Tellote. But after Budei, Glarian, and moſte certaine triale by weyght and meaſure, Sextarius Romanus conteineth of wine or wheate, ii. pounde Romane, that is. xviii. ounces, a pounde and an halfe of habber de poyſe weyghte. leſſe then the pinte of Pariſe by eyghte ounces. ye may trie it by makyng a meaſure. iiii. inches longe by ſquiere, iii. inches deepe, and as many bꝛoade, whiche is the true ſextarius. Accoꝛding to this compte ſextarius is one pinte ⁊ an halfe. foꝛ in our pint (as I haue pꝛoued) is but. 16. ounces, I meane a wyne pinte: The phiſicions do aſſigne but. 18. ounces to ſextarius, and then is it but. ii. ounces moꝛe then our pinte.
Sextiana pyra, a certayne kynde of peares.
Séxtilis, the moneth nowe called Auguſte.
Sextus Caballus, the name of a notable ſcoffer or rapler.
Séxtula, læ, f. g. the ſixte parte of an vnce: whiche is a dꝛamme and a ſcruple. alſo a meaſure of lande, conteinyng. 400. foote.
Sextus, a philoſophier, Plutarchus nephew, and inſtructour of Marcus Antonius the empeꝛour.
Sextus, a, um, the ſixte.
Sextum, the ſyxte tyme.
Sextum conſul, the ſyxte tyme conſull.
Sexus, us, or ſexus, i, after Pꝛiſcian, m. g. a kynde.
Sexus virilis, the male kynde.
Sexus muliebris, the woman kynde.

Si, if, although, I wolde god.
Si dis placet, if god will, or on gods name: or in the name of god: a worde spoken either in disdeigne or in mockage, for any thyng not well done.
Etiam latini, si diis placet, hoc biennio magistri dicendi extiterunt, yea and also the latines, on goddis name, haue ben these two yeres maisters of eloquence.
Quin etiam, si diis placet, nephas aiunt consulem plebeium fieri, they saie also, on goddis name, that it is vnlefull for a commoner to be made consull.
Si sapis, if thou be wise.
Si nihil aliud, saltem vt. &c. if he coude do nothyng els, at the least wise that he might. &c.
Si modo senescere datum est, if it be my fortune or destenie to lyue tyll I be an olde man.
Si non perfectio, at conatus tamen, if there be no perfection, at the leaste wise there is an indeuour.
Præsentibus amicis, si tamen illa non grauantur, id est, si modo.
Magnus orator est, si non maximus, he is a great orator, if he be not excellent and passyng all other.
Non si capiũdos mihi sciam inimicos omnes homines, no though I knewe I shulde haue the displeasure of all men liuyng.
Non si me obsecret, no, not though she wolde desyre me.
Si for Etsi, as, Nam si ego digna hac contumelia sum maxime, at tu. &c. id est, etsi ego. &c.
Herus si redierit, id est, quum, or Postq̃.
Solui, si quid ad me literarum, nihil erat, id est, vt sciam si, that I might see or know, whether there were any letters to me.
Visam si domi est, id est, an, I wyll go see whether he be at home.
Si est vt velit, if it be so that he will.
Si concessa peto, si dant ea mœnia parcæ, id est, siquidem, for.
Si nunc se nobis ille aureus arbore ramus ostendat. &c. I woulde to god, or O that god wolde.
Si te in germani fratris dilexi loco, If you know that I haue. &c.
Siambis, an ile in the Wyttisshe ocean sea, on the north parte.
Sibaris, or rather Sybaris, an olde towne. xii. miles from Rome. also a citee in Calabria. sometyme it is taken for delicate and wanton liuyng.
Sibaritícus, or rather Sybariticus, a, um, wanton or delicate.
Sibi, to hym selfe.
Sibimet ipsis concitare mortem, to kill them selfes.
Sibilo, aui, are, to whistill, to hisse.
Sibilus, li, mas. gen. pluraliter. m. & neu. ge. a whistlyng, a hissyng, in poetes the blowynge of wynde.
Sibilo signum dare, to whistle when one shuld dooe a thyng.
Edere sibilum, to hisse, to whistle.
Sibilo consectari aliquem, to hisse at one.
Sibilus, a, um, that hisseth or whistleth.
Sibus, of olde writers was vsed for Calidus, or Acutus.
Sibylinus, a, um, of Sibylla.
Sibylla, læ, fœm. ge. a generall name to all women, which had the spirite of prophesie. of them (as Varro and Lactantius dooe write) were ten: the firste called Persica, the second Libyca, the thirde Delphica, the fourth Cumæa, the fifte Erythrea, the sixte Samia, the seuenth Cumana, the eight Hellespontia, the nynthe Phrygia, the tenthe Tyburtina, euery one of these (as Lactantius saieth) wrate of the incarnation of Christe.
Sic, so, in likewise, accordyngly, so lightly, in this wise, after this faction.
Mirabar, hoc si sic abiret, I wolde haue meruayled, if it shulde haue passed so lightly.
Sic ago, so I am wonte to dooe.
Sic sum, such a one am I, suche is my faction.
Sic est, sic est factum, sic est res, sic res habet, so it is as I tell you, the truthe is so, it is true that I tell you, it is euen so.
Sic cogitabam, I thought this or in this wise with my selfe.
Sic satis, soso, indifferently.
Sic est ingenium, suche is my nature, disposition or faction.
Sic est vulgus, this is the faction, maner or trade of the common people.
Sic vita erat, suche was his nature, suche was his life or faction.
Nihil sic celere est, id est, tam, nothynge is so swyfte.
Sic vt quimus (aiunt) quãdo vt volumus non licet, as we maie (accordynge to the olde prouerbe) when we can not as we wolde.
Sic salutas quasi, ye dowe salute me after that faction as though.
Sica, cæ, f. g. a shorte swoorde.
Sicambri, the people of Nassau and Hessen in Germany.
Sicâni, people of Sicilie, whiche came out of Spayne.
Sicania, the ile of Sicilie.
Sicanius, and Sicanus, a, um, of Sicilie.
Sicárius, rij, m. g. a murderer.
Siccaneus, or Siccanus, a, um, drie of nature, that hath no riuers or springes to water it.
Siccátus, a, um, dried vp.
Siccé, drily, without good moysture.
Sicceſco, scere, to drie, to ware drie
Siccine? of that faction? in suche faction.
Siccine tu illam? Siccine nos habes ludibrio omnes? wylt thou handle hir of that faction? wylt wyll thou in ſuche facion moche vs all?

Siccine eſt ſententia? be you of that mynde or opinion? be ye ſo mynded?
Siccitas, ātis, fœm. ge. dryneſſe, drythe, lacke of moyſture.
Sicco, aui, are, to drye or make dryte.
Siccóculus, a, um, that hath drye eies.
Siccus, a, um, drye, wythered, without moyſture or lycre. alſo ſobre.
In ſicco, out of the water on the lande.
Sicelion, an herbe, that groweth commonly in vyneyardes.
Sicelis, ſicelidis, of Sicilie.
Sicelides muſæ, the muſes of Sicilie.
Sicendus, a lake in Theſſalie, where the frogges bee dumme.
Sicera, æ, f. gen. all maner of dryncke, wherewith one maie be made dronke.
Sichæus, Didos houſbande.
Sicileo, ſiciles, cilui, cilere, or Sicilio, liui, lire, to cut agayne that whiche was not well cut before, properly graſſe in a medowe.
Sicilia, a noble ile firſt called Trinacria, afterwarde Sicania, and at the laſte Sicilia, it is in fourme three cornarde, and therfore hadde the name of Trinacria, The one corner called Pachynus, extendeth towarde the parte of Greece, whiche was called Peloponéſus, nowe Morea: The ſecond corner called Pelorus, lyeth towarde Italie: The thyrde called Lilybæus, is extended towarde Affrica: of the whiche Pelorus excedeth in the temperaunce of the earth. for with no weate there maie be any myre, nor by any dryethe duſt. This ile conteyneth in circuite (as Solinus writeth) three thouſande furlonge, whiche is of Italian myles. 375. as Diodorus Siculus writeth. 4360. but Plinius ſaieth, that the three corners be diſtaunt, from Pelorus to Pachynum by lande. 166. myles: from thens to Lilybæum. 200. myles: from thens to Pelorus. 170. myles. and ſaieth alſo, that Agrippa affirmed it to be in circuite 618. myles, whiche dooe not agree with Solinus nor Diodorus, whiche maie happen to be by the diuerſitee of furlonges. Reade therof in Stadium. The fertilitee of this ile in al grayne, beautie of medowes, delicateneſſe of waters colde and hote, mountains and caues miraculous, and other thynges there excedyng notable, many autours haue written and wondryed at, bothe Greekes and Latines.
Sicilicum, ci, or Sicilicus, ci, a poyſe or weyght weyghynge two drammes, and is the fourth parte of an ounce. alſo a meaſure of grounde, 20. foote broade, and. 30. longe, that is, a platte conteinyng 600. foote.
Sicilices, the broade heades of iauelins.
Sicilienſes, people dwellynge in Sicilie, whiche were borne elſe where.
Sicilienſis, e, that is in Sicilie.
Sicilimentum, i, n. g. that is cut or mowed after it hath bene all mowed before.
Siciliſſo, aui, are, to ſpeake the language of Sicilie.
Sicimia, after ſome, a kynde of trees growyng in Paleſtine, but after Hierome, it is a kynde of bryers that bryngе forthe beries.
Sicinius dentatus, a valiant warriour.
Sicinnium, nii, n. ge. or Sicinnis, is, fœm. gen. a kynde of daunſyng, wherin they that daunced didde ſyng, as they do in Chriſtmas whan they ſyng carrolles, and as maydens dooe nowe vſe to dooe in the ſtretes.
Siclus, cli, ma. gen. called alſo Tetradragmum, and Stater argenteus, is as well a coyne as a weyght, beyng halfe an ounce in poyſe, and in value about. iiii. grotes. ſome write, that amõg the Hebrues it is an ounce, among the Grekes and Latines, onely the fourth part of an ounce, ii. drammes.
Sicoris, a ryuer in Spayne.
Sicula, the herbe called bete.
Sicubi, where ſo euer, if in any place, if at any tyme.
Sicubi eum ſatietas hominum ceperat, if he were wery of mens company in any place.
Siculi, men of Sicile.
Siculus, a, um, of or belongyng to Sicilie, or that dwelleth in Sicilie.
Siculum mare, the ſea by Sicilie.
Sicunde, if from any place.
Sicunde potes eruere, if you can pull it out of any place.
Sicut, & Sicuti, as, lyke as, euen as.
Sicut dicis, as you ſaie.
Sicut, for Vt.
Sicut ſolebat Antiochus, as Antiochus was wont.
Sicut, for Tanquàm.
Sicut in aram confugit in huius domum, he fledde for ſuccour into this mans houſe, euen as it had ben to an aultar.
Sicynus, one of the iles called Sporades.
Sicyon, onis, or Sicyonia, æ, fœm. gen. a citee in Achaia, not farre from Corinth, called now Clarentia, where is greate aboundaunce of mettall.
Sicyonis, or Sicyonia, an ile in the ſea Aegeum.
Sicyonij, the inhabitantes of Sicyon.
Sida, a towne of Pamphilia.
Sidens, entis, ſynkyng, fallyng downe.
Siderites, is, maſ. gen. an herbe, whiche groweth on tyles and olde walles, walle ſage or ſtone ſage. alſo a kynde of diamandes. alſo a ſtone lyke yron, whiche hath the nature to cauſe variance betwene men.
Sidicinum, ni, n. g. a towne of Italie.
Sidicinus, a, um, of Sidicinum.
Sido, ſedi, ſidere, to ſettle, to ſynche to the bottome, to lyght downe as bryddes dooe on trees after they flyght.
Sidere ad ima vaſis, To ſinche downe to the bot-bottome of the veſſell.

Sidon, a citee in Phœnicia, vpon the ſea ſyde, ſo called for the plentie of fiſhe there beyng taken, there was glaſſe fyrſt made.

Sidones, people of Thrace by Hebrus. alſo people of Scythia.

Sidonij, people of Sidon.

Sidonis, is, f. g. a woman of Sidon.

Sidonius, a, um, of the citee Sidon.

Sidrona, a citee of Dalmatia, where ſainct Hieſome was borne, called commonly Sdrigna.

Sidus, eris, lyke Sydus.

Sifilare, vſed of olde writers for Sibilare.

Sifilator, oris, for Sibilator.

Siga, a citee of Mauritania Cæſarienſis.

Sigæum, a great mountaine in the ſea by Troy.

Sigæus, and Sigæius, a, um, of Sigæum.

Sigillaria, orum, plur. certain ſtreetes in Rome, alſo certain daies added to the feaſt called Saturnalia, on the whiche men dyd ſende littell images for gyftes one to an other.

Sigillaria opera, woorkes, wherin were ſette ſmall images.

Sigillaris, re, belongynge to ſeales or lyttell images.

Sigillatim, one after an other, lyke Singillatim.

Sigillatus, a, um, ſealed, that hath littell images ſet on it.

Sigillo, aui, are, to ſeale, ſomtime to cloſe or ſhut, to ſet a littell image vpon a thyng.

Sigillum, li, n. g. a littell image, alſo a ſeale.

Sigillum Solomonis, an herbe, reade Corrigiola.

Sigma, atis, n. g. a littell table, wherat ſyx men mate ſitte.

Signáculum, li, n. g. a ſeale.

Signatórius, a, um, that ſealeth, or that is vſed to ſeale with.

Signatorius annulus, a ſignet, a ryng with a ſeale.

Signátor, óris, he that ſealeth teſtamentes.

Signátus, a, um, ſealed, marked, alſo notable.

Signata virgo, a pure maiden of notable chaſtitee.

Signia, a citee in Campania, after ſome an hill, at the foote wherof ſtandeth Apamia.

Signifer, feri, he that beareth a ſtandard or banner in a fyelde. it is ſometyme taken for the circle in the firmament, called alſo Zodiacus, wherin bee the. xii. ſignes.

Significans, antis, that ſignifieth, that declareth a thyng playnly.

Verba ſignificantia, woordes declarynge well the thynges that they be ſpoken of.

Significanter, plainely, that it maie be well vnderſtande.

Significátio, ónis, fœ. g. a ſignification, a declaryng, a notifyng.

Significatio virtutis, a token and ſignification of vertue.

Ne qua ei' aduerſus ſignificatio fiat, that there myght be no token or ſygne of his comyng.

Significatio, is ſometyme taken for a meſſage or tidynges.

Significátus, us, m. g. a ſignifiyng, a declaryng, a betokenyng.

Significo, aui, are, to ſignifie or geue knowlage, to dwe to witte, to notifie, to ſhewe.

Significare per litteras, To geue knowlage by letters.

Vt ſignificent ſi fures venerint, that they might geue ſome token or warnynge if theaues dyd come.

Signini, people of Italie.

Signinus, a, um, an adiectiue.

Signinum vinum, wyne made by the people Signini.

Signinum opus, a woorke made with ſhelles and morter, or tiles and morter.

Signo, aui, are, to make a ſigne, to ſigne or ſeale, to ſignify or ſhew by a ſigne or token, to write.

Argentum ſignare, to make or coyne money.

Locum ſignat, he ſheweth the place, or poynteth to the place.

Signare numeris, to write or declare in verſes.

Exauro denarium ſignare, to coyne a piece of golde.

Vt proximè vtriuſq; differentiam ſignem, that I maie note, declare or ſignifie the difference of them both, as nere as can be poſſible.

Signum, i, n. g. a ſigne, a token, a marke, a miracle ſignifiyng a thyng to come. alſo an image or figure of a beaſte or other thyng, alſo a ſtandarde or ſtreamer, a ſigne of ſterres in the firmament. ſomtyme a ſeale, a ſignet, a ſigne maſnuell, a ſigne that hangeth at mens dores.

Signum dare militibus, to cauſe the trumpetters to blowe, that the ſouldiours maie prepare theim to battaile, or to aſſemble theym ſelfes together.

Signa ad ſalutem, tokens of health.

Clarum ſignum, a manyfeſte token or argumente.

Coniecturam facere ex ſignis, to coniecte by ſignes and tokens.

Id erit ſigni me inuitum facere, that ſhall be a ſigne or token, that I do it againſt my will.

Adulterina ſigna, counterfaite ſeales.

Imprimere ſigna pecori, To marke the cattayle.

Signis aſpera pocula, id eſt, ſigillata, cuppes haupng littell images grauen about theim.

Exculpere ſignum, to graue an image.

Signis collatis, topnyng in battaile.

Proſpera ſigna, luchy tokens and ſignes of thynges to come.

Multa ſigna dederat, quamobrem reſponſurus non videretur, he hadde ſhewed many ſignes or tokens. &c.

Sil, ſilis, neu. ge. certaine erth yelowe of colour, founde in the mines of golde and ſiluer.

Sila, ap helmette.

Silaceus color, a pelowe colour.
Silanus, an hyghe hyll in Irelande.
Silago, an herbe, whiche Brunfelsius supposeth to be common crowfote.
Silarus, or Silaris, a riuer of Lucania, which tourneth boowes, twygges and leaues into stones, and yet is the water holesome to be dronke.
Silatum, vsed of olde writers for ientaculum.
Silaus, an herbe called commonly Cressio.
Sile, lis, neu. g. an herbe, called also Seselis, the seede wherof was wont to be steeped in wyne that men dranke in the mornyng, and therfore Silatum was vsed for a breakefaste.
Silens, entis, om. ge. styll, keppng silence, without noyse or trouble.
Silentia loca, quiete places, wherin is no noyse.
Cœlum silens, a faire or calme weather.
Dies silens à ventis, a calme daye without wynde.
Spiritus silentis dies, idem.
Flos silens, a floure that is not full spredde.
Luna silens, the wane of the moone, or the tyme betwene the olde moone and the new whan she shyneth not.
Surculi silentes, shotes that doe not yet burge.
Venti silentes, styll and calme wyndes.
Vineæ silentes, vines that do not yet burgen.
Silentiarius, ij, m. g. an emperours seruaunt in his palaice.
Silentium, ij, n. ge. silence, quietenesse.
Silentio aliquid facere, to take a thynge patientlp, without speakynge any woorde, or maskyng any noyse.
Silentium noctis, mydnight whan all thinges be at quiete.
Agere silentiũ de aliquo, not to speake of one.
De omnibus ætatis suæ oratoribus silentium egit, he spake no whit of any of the oratours that were in his tyme.
Dissimulare silentio, to leat a thynge passe as thoughe he knewe it not.
Rumpere silẽtium, to speake after long silence.
Silentium facere, to cause men to kepe silence.
In silentium descẽdere, to holde his peace and sate nothyng.
Silentium est causarum & iuris, whan there is no pleadyng of causes, nor ministryng of iustice in the common place.
Tenuere silentia cuncti, they all kepte silence or helde theyr peace and sated nothyng.
Tramittere aliquem silentio, To leat a man passe and speake not of hym. Likewyse, Transire quippiam silentio.
Silentio, aduerbially, styly, patientely, without noyse.
Silenus, the foster father of Bacchus.
Sileo, lui, lẽre, to kepe silence, to speake nothing.
Siletur, the impersonall.
De iurgio siletur, they speake nothynge of the variaunce betwene theim.
Sileatur ille, leat hym not be spoken of.
Silent musæ Varronis, Varro writeth no more.
Silent inter arma leges, in the tyme of warre lawes be not exercised, or be of none auctorites or force.
Sileo verbum facere, I holde my peace.
Siler, leris, n. gen. a kynde of wyllowe or withy growyng in water, commonly called Osier.
Siler, or Silerus, a riuer in the royalme of Naples, some wryte it Silarus.
Silesco, scere, to be in silence or quiete.
Silex, icis, m. g a flinte stone.
Silex, is vsed of Virgile in the. f. g. Stabat acuta silex. &c.
Silia, a riuer in Asia, in the which (after some authours) nothyng doeth swymme, but sincke to the bottome.
Silicatus, a, um, made with flinte stones.
Silicernium, nij, n. g. a certayne puddyng, eaten onely at the tyme of funeralles, some doe take it for a feast or diner made at the funerall or interment of a man or woman, a dirige feaste.
Silicernio, is vsed of Terence, for an old creple that is ready to haue such a diner made for hym.
Siliceus, a, um, of a flynte stone.
Silicia, siue Silicula, an herbe called fengreche.
Silicius, cij, m. g. seemeth in Plinie to be a part of a carued or ioyned bed.
Siligineus, a, um, made of the wheate called Siligo.
Siligineus panis, manchet or fine breadde.
Siligo, ginis, f. g. a kynde of wheate hauyng an vpright stalke, and the corne verie white, and therof is made the finest breadde and most principall, as Galenus writeth. it was also called Olyra, of some Typha.
Siliginarius, ij, one that selleth or distributeth the fine wheate called Siligo.
Siliqua, æ, f. g. the huske or codde of any thyng, also a certain tree called of the Greekes Ceratonia. also the fruite of the same tree, which is in length of a mans fynger, and brode, and somewhat hooked, the weyght of sixe of them made the poyse called Scrupulus, whereof three doe make a dramme, it is now called a carate, and is vsed amonge finers of golde and siluer, and also coyners in the fynyng and alayng therof.
Siliqua, is also a tree, whiche the Jones doe call Cerauma, diuers from the other before mentioned.
Siliqua, is sometyme taken for Fœnugræcum,
Siliqua Aegyptia, is casia fistula.
Siliquastrum, i, n. ge. an herbe called costmarie, or alle quoode.
Siliquor, aris, ari, to growe in huske or codde.
Silis, a riuer by Venice.
Silla, idem quod Silia.
Silli, tauntes, scoffes.
Sillura, an ile in the Britaine sea.
Silo, lonis, he that hath great browes, or after some, he that hath a nose crookyng vpwarde.
Silon, an ile of Indie, where the trees neuer lose theyr

thrie leaues.

Siloſon, the brother of Polycrates, the tyranne of Samia.

Siloſontis chlamis, is ſpoken in a prouerbe, of him ꝑ boaſteth hym ſelfe of riche garmentes.

Silphq, propre of Libya.

Silphium, ij, an herbe, wherof cometh the gum called Benioin. Some learned men thinke Silphium to be a kynde of Laſerpitium.

Silurus, i, a fiſche called a ſturgion, or rather a fiſh muche lyke to a ſturgiõ, which is thickeſt foũde in the ryuer of Nilus.

Sius, li, m. g. a camoſed noſe, or a noſe that is tourned vpwarde.

Simbella, æ, f. g. halfe a pounde, alſo a paire of golde balaunce.

Simethis, a nymphe.

Simethius, a, um, of Simethis.

Simia, æ, ſcr. ge & Simius, ij, m. g. an ape, and by tranſlation, he that imitateth, counterfaytteth or endeuoureth to be lyke an other in any thyng.

Simichida, the name of a ſheepeherde in Theocritus.

Simila, æ, f g. fine meale of corne, or floure.

Similagineus, a, um, made of fine floure.

Similagineus panis, manchet breadde

Similago, ginis, f. g. idem.

Similax, idem quod Smilax.

Similis, le, lyke. Dyuers grammarians haue noted, that when Similis gouerneth a genitiue, it betoeneth lyke of maners or conditions: as, Domini similis es, ſuche maiſter ſuche man. Tui ſimilis eſt probe, he is verey lyke vnto the in condicions. whan it gouerneth a datiue caſe, than it doeth betoken lyke in fauour: as, Fratri ſimilior quàm patri, more lyke in fauour to his brother, than to his father. But this obſeruation is not alwaies true: for Plautus ſaieth, Nec aqua aquæ, nec lac lacti vnquam ſimilius, quam hic tui eſt, tuque huius, ſpeaking of the lykeneſſe of the witte, nature and maners. Similius veri, and vero eſt, it is more veritable or lyke to the trueth.

Similes inter ſe, one lyke an other.

Similes ſunt, vt ſi qui dicant gubernatorem, &c. they be lyke to them that ſaie. ꝛc.

Nihil in his ſimile, as lyke as an apple is to a nutte, or as wotte meale to grene theſe.

Similes habent labra lactucas, a prouerbe applied to them that beyng of lyke pli rondicions, be matched togither, as a lewde ſeruaunt with an pli maiſter, an vnruly people, to a negligente gouernour, a ſhrewd wyfe, to a frowarde houſebande. ꝛc. lyke maiſter lyke man, lyke will to lyke.

Simile gaudet ſimili, lyke will to lyke.

Simile, an aduerbe, lykewiſe.

Similitas, ãtis, f. g. lykeneſſe.

Similiter, lykewyſe: alſo after the ſame faſhion.

Similiter facis, ac ſi me roges cur &c you doe euen as thoughe you ſhoulde demaunde of me why. ꝛc

Similiter atq; ipſe eram, euen as I was my ſelfe.

Similitudo, inis, f g lykeneſſe.

Simillimus, a, um, moſte lyke.

Simulo, aui, are, to be lyke.

Simiolus, li, m g. a little ape: alſo he that counterfaiteth a man ſomewhat.

Simitu, pro ſimul, together.

Simius, loobe Simia.

Simmias, a philoſopher, of Thebes.

Simoeſius, a Troiane.

Simois, moentos, a ryuer by Troy.

Simon, the name of diuers learned men, and alſo of a notable hereſie, ſurnamed Magus, who was woorſhipped in Rome for a god.

Simonia, æ, f. g. ſymonie.

Simonides, a poete of Greece, borne in the ile called Cea, who was the fyrſte that inuented the verſes called Lyrici, and was excellente in prouokyng of teares, and in that kynde of wrytyng, there was in hym a wonderfull grace as is written, that Pauſanias kynge of Lacedemonians, at a banckette, deſpred inſtantly of hym, that he woulde than ſpeake ſome thynge notable, and that ſauoured of wiſedome, Simonides therat ſmylynge, remembre ſaied he, that thou arte a mã Pauſanias take ꝑ ſeemeſully, and eſteemed it nothyng afterwarde Pauſanias beynge putte in priſon in Chalcidico, and there beynge famiſhed or he died, remembred the ſaiynge of Simonides, & with a lowde and lamentable voice, ſaied: O my friende of Ceos, thy wordes were of great importaunce, but I for madde pride eſteemed theym nothyng.

Simplares armaturæ, hoſtynge harneys, ſo called becauſe they that weare it, haue but ſingle armeſwaunce.

Simplariæ, or rather Simpulariæ, ſimple thynges or of litle value.

Simplarius, a, um, belongynge to a thyng that is but once, or that hath a thyng but once.

Simplaria venditio, whan the ſeller byndeth hym ſelfe to tendre onely the price, and not the double or triple.

Simplex, icis, ꝑ is not double, ſincere or plaine, without decepte, of one ſorte, vnmixte.

Anni ſimplices, qui ſimplici numero efferuntur, all the yeeres vntill xi.

Cibus ſimplex, pure meate without ſauce or other delicate dreſſyng.

Homo ſimplex, an honeſt plaine man, without fraude or gyle.

Simplicitas, atis, f g plainneſſe, ſimplicitee.

Simpliciter, plainly, ſymple.

Simplicitus, for Simpliciter.

Simplus, a, um. ſyngle in noumbre, one onely.

Simpulatrices, women dedicate to diuine thynges.

Simpulum, li, ne. ge. a chalice or cuppe of earthe, where with they sacrificed in the olde tyme, before that golde and siluer were in great estimatiõ. it is of Varro taken for a cruet with a pipe, out of whiche wyne came droppynge by lyttell and lyttell.

✠ Excitabat enim fluctus in simpulo. &c. prouerbially vsed of Cicero, as though he had saied, he reised busines and trouble priuily or in a small and trifling mattier.

Simpuuium, idem quod Simpulum, li.

Simul, together with other, moreouer. also al vnder one, there with all, at ones.

Simul consilium cum re amisisti? Haste thou loste thy goodes or substaunce, and thy witte to? or didst thou lose thy witte also whan thou lost thy goodes?

Tecum simul conspicio, I behold or see it together with you, or nowe whan you doe see it.

Et simul tibi in mentem veniat facito, and also, or, and more ouer.

Duas res simul nunc agere decretum est mihi, I haue appointed now to doe two thynges at ones.

Simul, geminatum, habet eandem pene vim quàm Cum & Tum, siue partim.

Adeo omnes simul spernebant, simul tantam molem sibi meruebant, they all dyd bothe so contemne and despise theym, and also feare the danger of so great a mattier lyke to ensue.

Contempta simul senectute patris, simul societate Romana, contemninge partely the age of his father, partely the alyance or friendshyppe of the Romaynes: or as well the olde age of his father, as also the friendeship of the Romayns.

Simul ac primum ei occasio visa est, by and by as soone as he thought he hadde any occasion.

Simul &, for atq; etiam or praeterea.

Simul primũ magistram abijt, as soone as &c.

Qui simul in vestra potestate erat, extemplo omnia &c. id est, simulac.

Simul ac belli patiens erit, incontinẽte as sone as he shall bee able to abyde or endure the trauaile of warre.

Simulatque natum sit, as soone as it is borne.

Simul ac, simul atq;, as soone as, incontinent as.

Simulachrum, chri, n. ge. an image of a man or woman, the proporcion of any thyng, by a metaphore the signe or shadowe of any thyng.

Simulãmen, minis, n. g. an image.

Simulate, counterfaitly, feignyngly.

Simulatio, ônis, f. g. fantasy. also dissimulation, feignynge, counterfaityng.

Non mea est simulatio, I doe not vse, or it is not my faction to feigne and counterfaite.

Simulatione belli, vnder the colour of warre.

Simulâtor, ôris, m. g. he that dissembleth, he that feigneth or counterfaiteth.

Simulatus, a, um, feygned, counterfaitted.

Simulo, aui, are, to be lyke to one, to resemble. Also to feigne, to counterfaite, to make semblaunce, to make a countinaunce, to sette a face on a thynge, to pretende, to make as though a thynge were true that is not so in deede also to shewe a towardenesse of a thynge: as, Simulare philosophiam.

Simulare anum, to resemble or be lyke an olde woman.

Omnia se simulant scire, they make as though they dyd knowe all thynges.

Simulare amicitiam, to make countinaunce as though he dyd loue a man.

Simultas, âtis, for. g. priuie displeasure or hatred with dissemblyng countinaunce, priuie grudge, priuie hatred, breche of loue.

Simulter, for similiter.

Simulto, aui, are, to be at variaunce with one, to hate one priuily.

Simus, a, um, flatte.

Nasum simum habet, he hath a nose as flatte as a cake.

Sin, or els, if not, but if.

Sin est vt nolit, but if it be so that he will not.

Sin minus, if not.

Si ita est, omnia faciliora, sin aliter. &c. if it be so, all thynges will bee the more easie: but if it be other wise. &c.

Sina or Sinai, a mountaine in the deserte of Arabia, called also Oreb. it is of Solinus called Casius: Justinus calleth it Synæus. on that hill god appeered to Moyses, and deliuered to him the tables of the lawe: reade hereof abundantly in the olde testament. it is also a citie of Mesopotamia.

Sinada, a citie of Asia, nere to Caria.

Sinãpi, n. g. indeclinabile, lenuie seede, whereof mustarde is made.

Sinãpis, pis, f. g. and Sinape, pis, n. g. idem.

Sinãpium, pii, n. g. mustarde.

Sinapodes, people in Affrike, whiche doge eate as they crepte.

Sinarum Regio, a countrey beyonde the equinoctiall line.

Sincerastum, looke Syncerastum.

Sincêrus, a, um, looke Syncerus.

Sinciput, cipitis, n. g. the fore parte of the head, looke Synciput.

Sindo, ônis, m. g. a fine linnen clothe.

Sine, without.

Sine fraude mea, my ryght saued.

Sine corrice enarme, a prouerbe spoke of them, that neede none instructour.

Sine fine, without ende.

Singillatim, to euery one, or of euery one, one after an other.

Singulâris, re, singular, excellente, one without any mo, one that hath no felowe.

Singulârius, a, um, one, an olde woorde.

Singulâriter, singularly, onely, marueilously.

Singulâtim, euery thynge by it selfe.

Singulatim gratias agere, to thanke euery man by by name.

Singultans, antis, om. gen. that sobbeth a pace, or that pereth.

Singultiens, he that hath the pere.

Singultiens gallina, a clockyng henne.

Singultim, with sobbes or stoppynges.

Singultim pauca loquutus, id est, verbis interruptis.

Singúltio, tiui, tire, to pere.

Singultus, us, m. g. perynge.

Singultus gallinarum, clockyng of hennes.

Singulus, a, um, euery chone.

Singulis diebus, euery daie.

In singulos dies, euery daie, without passynge one daie, from daie to daie.

Sinister, stra, strum, pertcinyng to the left hand, that is on the left hande. sometyme it signifieth cõtrary, vnprosperous or vnhappie. in diuination of Augurs it signifieth prosperous, luckp.

Sinistris sermonibus carpere aliquem, To speake ill of one, to speake mischieuous woozdes against one.

Sinistéritas, átis, fœm. ge. vnhansomnesse, frowardenesse.

Sinistra, an aduerbe, on the lefte hande.

Sinistra, æ, fœ. ge. the lefte hande. also the parte towarde the lefte hande.

Sinistre, vnhappily, vnfortunately.

Sinistrórsum, on the lefte hande, towarde the lefte hande.

Sino, siui, sinere, to suffre.

Sine te hoc exorem, lette me intreate pou in this poincte.

Sine vt veniat, let hym come.

Sine sic habere, admitte the case that it be so.

Sinon, a mans name in Virgill.

Sinonia, an ile of Corsica.

Sinope, pes, a citee in the countrey of Pontus. it is also the name of an harlot, of whom grew a prouerbe, loke Sinopissas. Sinope is also the name of a maiden, to whom nothyng was so dere as virginitee.

Sinopeus, one of Sinope.

Sinopis, pidis, a redde stone, commonly called Sinoper.

Sinópicus, a, um, of or pertepnyng to Sinoper.

Sinuessa, a citee in Campania.

Sinuessanus, a, um, of Sinuessa.

Sinuo, aui, are, to tourne and wynde in ꝑ fourme of a serpẽt, making holow bosoms or furrowes. It is also applyed to garmẽtes that are pleighted or gathered vp. also to streames of riuers, whiche in rennynge make dyuers tournynges. Also to bankes, whiche haue holowe creekes or bosomes.

Sinuósus, a, um, that whiche hath many turnynges and wyndynges.

Sinus, us, m. g. a bosome. Also the tournynges or holownesse of water bankes. somtyme the hoslownesse of eies. Also a cup for wyne. also nettes. somtyme a saple whan the wynde fylleth it.

In sinu, seemeth to bee spoken sometyme for intima familiaritate, entier frendship. And in sinu meo, for in potestate & fide mea.

Sinus vrbis, the middyll of a citee.

In sinu habere, to haue secretely in his herte, or to haue secretely in his handes or power, that other knowe not of.

In sinu gaudere, to bee merp or glad without shewyng it openly.

Soluto sinu, with all liberalitee.

Sinus, is sometyme vsed for a sure place of refuge or succour.

Sinus vestium, playtes of garmentes.

Confugit in sinum tuum concussa respublica, the common weale beynge afflicted and troubled, fleeth to the for succour.

Ex toga facere sinum, to holde vp his gowne rounde lyke a lappe.

Calumniatores ex suo sinu apposuit, he subornced false accusers of his owne house or familie, or that were his great frendes & familiars.

Sinus maris, a bosome or goulfe of the sea.

In tuum ipsius sinum inspue, a prouerbe, monishyng hym that correcteth or carpeth other, to consider his owne life and state.

Sinus, nus, m. ge. and Sinum ni, n. ge. a littell cuppe to drynke wyne or milke in.

Sinus magnus, a bosome or goulfe of the sea in India, called now Mare de Sur.

Sion, ii, n. gen. an herbe growyng in the water, hauyng leaues lyke Alisanders, but somewhat lesse and swete in smellyng lyke Lauer.

Sipárium, and somtyme Sipparium, ii, n. gen. a curtaine vsed in stages.

Siphnius, a stone of nature softe, but beyng hette in oyle, it waxeth harde.

Siphnus. an ile in the sea Ægeum, wherein was founde sometyme plentie of golde and siluer.

Siphon, phonis, m. g. a pipe of a cundite.

Sipho, or Sipo, aui, are, to spyncle or scatter abroade.

Siphunculus, li, m. g. a roche in a cundite.

Sipius, pinus, or Sipontum, a citee in Apulia by the mountapne called Garganus.

Sipontinus, or Sipuntinus, a, um, of that citee.

Siqua, for si aliqua, if any.

Siquando, if at any tyme.

Negotii siquando odium ceperat, if he were at any tyme weap of busynesse.

Siquidem, for, because also if, truely.

Siquidem biduum, if it bee but the space of two daies.

Siquis, siqua, siquod vel siquid, if any.

Siquo pacto potes, if thou canste by any meanes.

Sir, a citee in Illiria or Slauonie.

Siraces, people towarde the southe parte of the worlde.

Siremps, for similis res ipsa.

Siren, renis, and Sirena, næ, fœm. gen. a meremayden.

Sirênes, were three daughters of Achelous and Calliope, whiche dwelled in an ile betweene Italie and Sicile, who with their swete syngynge drewe suche vnto them, as passed that sea, and than slewe them. As it happened to Ulisses to sayle that waie, he stopped the eares of all his company, to the entent they shoulde not heare the songes of Sirenes, and caused hym selfe to be bounde to the maste of the ship, and so escaped. Sirênes sorowed so much, that they were dispayred, that they threwe them selfes into the sea, whom poetes fayned to be mermaydens.

Siri, pittes, wherin corne was layed to be preserued.

Siriasis, a sycknesse of trees, whereabout the tyme of the canicular daies, by the excedynge heate of the soonne, the trees be brent and doe sterue. it is also a sickenesse in the heades of childrene, procedynge of the inflammation of the brayne.

Siringa, gæ, f. g. a pipe, recorder or flute: sometyme a reede of the fennes: sometyme a reede or other thing, through the whiche any thing is blowen or caste, properly a trunke or a squirte.

Siris, the name of the ryuer Nilus amonge the Aethiopians.

Sirius, a sterre in the middell of the firmament, vnto the whiche whan the soonne cometh, the feruentenesse of heate is doubled, wherby the bodies of men become sicke with heate. This sterre is also called Canicula: and the daies, wherin it appeereth, be called Caniculares, whiche doe begynne the. vi. daie of Julie.

Sirmion, a citee of Pannonia inferior.

Sirpea, æ, fœ. g. a matte or other thyng made of russhes.

Sirpeus, a, um, made of russhes.

Sirpices, were instrumentes made with teeth like to a sawe, whiche bynge drawen with oxen, plucked vp by the rootes flagges, & great weedes, whiche grew in medowes.

Sirpiculæ falces, hookes, wherwith vines ar cutte.

Sirpiculum, a littell basshette.

Sirpo, aui, are, to bynde or wynde with russhes or osiars, or other lyke thyng.

Sirpus, pi, m. ge. a russhe, lyke Scirpus.

Sirpi, be also wordes or verses, which be verie harde to vnderstande.

Sirus, a caue vnder the ground, in the which men kept wheate.

Sis, olde writers vsed for Si vis.

Sisacthea, æ, a rangeyng sieue.

Sisachthea, a lawe of the Athenienses, made by Solon, for the mitigacion of debtes or money owed.

Sisama, æ, fœm. gen. a maner of pulse or corne. it is also that, whiche the apothecaries doe call Sesama.

Sisamus, a citee of Paphlagonia.

Sisapo, a towne of Spaine.

Sisara, ræ, fœ. ge. after Varro is a tree, whereof the bees dwe gather liquide honny. Plinius calleth it Sisarum, it is supposed to bee that, whiche Dioscorides calleth Ericem, not muche vnlyke to Tamarix: the Athenienses (as Plinie writeth) call it Tetralicem.

Sisaron, or Sisarum, ri, idem quod Siser.

Sisenna, a mans name in Horace, whiche was a great detracter.

Siser, a delicate roote to be eaten, which some men dwe suppose to be yelow carrettes.

Siscia, a citee of Pannonia, called now Lubiana.

Sisigambis, kyng Darius wyfe.

Sisto, sistis, stere, to make to tarie or stande styll, to reteine or kepe backe, to stoppe, to appeere, as a man dooeth begynge sued in the lawe. also to state, to confirme, to make more strong.

Sistas tu, appeere thou.

Ore sistere. Eminor, interminorq; ne quis mihi obstiterit obuiam: nam qui obstiterit, ore sistet, I threten, and I menace, that no man leat me of my waie: for who so euer letteth me, shall kysse the ground. Likewyse Sister capite quemcunq; offendero.

Sistere vadimonium, to bynge in suretie.

Sistere gradum, to stoppe, to stande still, to goe no further.

Siste lachrymas, ceasse your wepyng, weepe no more.

Sistere sanguinem, to stent bleedyng.

Aluum sistere, to stoppe or bynde the belly.

Hic rem Romanam magno turbante tumultu sistet eques, id est, corroborabit, confirmabit.

Sistere fugam, to cause men to stoppe, that be fleeyng or rennyng awaie.

Templum eisdem vestigiis sisteretur, id est, conderetur.

Vas factus est alter sistendi eius, the other became suretie for his apparance.

Ego illam huc tibi sistam in viâ, I wyll bring hir hyther in to the strete before you.

Ecce me sisto, Lo I appeere here personally.

Rempublicam sistere negat posse, id est, consistere, stare.

Ruinas sistere, To do reparacions, and make that the house fall in no further ruine and decaye.

Sistrum, stri, neut. gener. an instrument lyke a horne, which was vsed in battaile in the stede of a trumpette. also a brasen tymbrell vsed in olde tyme.

Sisymbrium, an herbe, wherof bee two kyndes, the one is called Sisymbrium alone, whiche is also called Thymbrea, in englisshe water myntes: the other is called Sisymbrium Cardamine, whiche in englisshe is watercresses.

Sisypheus, a, um, of or belongyng to Sisyphus.

Sisyphus, a great theefe, which was slayne by Theseus, of whom it is feigned, that in hel he tureneth a stone vp to a great hill toppe: but whan it is it is at the toppe, it falleth downe agayne, and renewyth his labour.

Sitanius, a, um, made of newe corne.

Sitanius panis, breadde of newe wheate.

Sitarchia, a bagge or gardiuiandes, wherin meate is putte.

Sitella, æ, fœ. ge. a diminutyue of Situla, a littell potte, wherinto lottes were put.

Sithonis, nidis, f. g. she that is of Sithonia.

Sithonia, a countrey in Macedonia vppon the sea syde.

Sithonius, a, um, of Sithonia.

Sitibundus, a, um, verie thyrstie.

Siticen, citicinis, he that did blowe in a trumpet whan men were buried: or he that singeth at mens burialles.

Siticulosus, a, um, that is alwaie a thirste, very thyrstie, drie, lackyng moysture.

Siticulosa loca, drie places.

Sitiens, entis, om. ge. that is a thyrst, thirstie, drie, that coueteth or desyreth any thynge.

Sitienter, thyrstily, greedily.

Sitientia, drie places.

Sitis, is, fœ. g thyrst or desyre to drynke, and by translacion a great appetite or greedy desyre of any thyng.

Contipere sitim labore, to become thyrstie with labour.

Compescere, depellere, restinguere, explere sitim, to quenche ones thyrst.

Sitim sedare, leuare, to asswage ones thyrst.

Consumi siti, to be almost dead for thyrst.

Excesit sitim potio, he dranke more than he needed.

Sistere, and Alere sitim, contrary.

Facere alicui sitim audiendi, to make desyrous or greedy to here.

Sitocomia, an officer or magistrate, which hadde the prouision of grayne or wiaple.

Sitta, æ, a litle birde called a nuthobber, whiche clymeth often on trees, and eateth nuttes, brekyng them with his bill.

Situla, læ, f. g. a littell coffer, wherin lottes were putte at the choosyng of officers. also a bucket to drawe water.

Situs, a, um, of Sino, suffred, permitted.

Accusare non est situs, he was not suffred to accuse hym.

Situs, a, um, put or set, situate, placed.

Res omnis in incerto sita est, the whole mattier is in doubte.

In te spes omnis sita est, all our hope lieth or resteth in you.

Si in te solum sit situm, if it rested onely in you, if it were onely in your hãdes or power to do it.

Huiusce rei potestas omnis in uobis sita est, all the doyng of this mattier is in your handes, or you haue full power and auctorite to do in this mattier as ye wyll.

Ara sita Druso, id est, constituta, aut posita, was made or sette vp.

Hic siti sunt Acarnanes. &c. here lie buried the men of Acarnania. &c.

Situs, us, m. ge. fylthynesse gathered of moisture by lacke of clensyng. also of slutysshnesse, horenesse, duste. also the settyng or standynge of a place, which is nowe called the syte or situacion of a manour or countrey.

Ducere situm, to waxe hore and fylthy, to be foule with dust.

Siue, cuher, or if, whether.

Siue me amas, siue odisti, non magni æstimo, whether thou hate me or loue me, I do not greatly passe.

Postulo, siue æquum est, te oro Daue, I requyre, or if it be mete, I praie the Dauus.

S ANTE M

SMaragdinus, a, um, of an emerande.

Smaragdus, di, m. g. a precious stone called an emeraude.

Smegma, matis, n. g. sope, and all other thynge that dooeth putte awaie spottes or vncleanesse.

Smegticus, a, um, that hath the strengthe or efficacie to purge or clense.

Smerdis, the brother of Cambises kynge of Persia.

Smilax, smilacis, a tree, called of the latines Taxus. also an herbe, which hath leaues lyke an ivy with bearies, and a white floure, and smelleth lyke a lilly, and renneth vp vpon trees. Dioscorides reigneth it to be a weede, which dyenge for the loue of a younge man, called Crocus, was transformed into the saide herbe.

Smilium, li, n. g. a shoemakers paring knyfe. also a knife or instrument that surgians vse to cut woundes with.

Smynheus, one of the names of Apollo.

Smyrna, a citee of Ionia in the lesse Asia, whiche was supposed of some to be the countrey of Homerus.

Smyrneus, a, um, of Smyrna.

Smyrnium, an herbe, whiche Crittus Lozdus supposeth to be the commune Angelica. Manardus epist. li. 12. epist 4. interpreteth it to be Olusatrum, in englysche Alisander. Ruellius affirmeth it to bee that herbe, whiche in Fraunce is called Leneche, I suppose in englyche Louage: which saieth moste truly I referre to the reader

S ANTE O.

SOana, a ryuer in the ile Taprobana.

Soanes, people of Asia, dwellyng about the extreme parte of the mountayne called Caucasus.

Soboles, lis, f. ge. issue or succession of children, ofspryng.

Soboleſco, scere, to increase people.

Sobrie, sobrely, aduisedly, prudẽtly, temperately.

Sobrini, lifters children.

Sobrius, a, um, ſobre, not drunke, temperate, well aduiſed.

Tu pol homo non es ſobrius, in feith thou arte not well in thy wyttes or well aduiſed.

Rura ſobria, where no wyne is made.

Terræ ſobriæ, id eſt, ſteriles.

Soccatus, a, um, that weareth ſtertups or pinſons.

Soccus, ci, m. g. a hynde of ſhoes, and is fourmed of ſoccus a bagge, becauſe that when it was faſtned vpon the foote, it bagged and late full of plaites, and were vſed both of men and women, but moſte amonge the noble and ryche folke.

Soccos detrahunt, thei pull of my pinſons or ſtertups.

Sócculus, li, a diminutiue of Soccus.

Socer, ſoceri, and Socerus, ri, m. g. the wiues father.

Socia, æ, f. g. a felow, a mate.

Socialis, le, that belongeth to felowes, alies or confederates, that mayntayneth felowſhip or frendſhyp.

Carmina ſocialia, verſes ſonge at weddinges.

Sociale bellum, that warre, whiche is made with confederates or alies.

Socialitas, tatis, f. g. felowſhippe, companíe.

Socialiter, lyke felowes.

Sociabilis, le, that may be eaſily ioygned to other.

Sociatus, a, um, coupled, ioyned as a felowe.

Sociatrix, tricis, ſhe that coupleth or ioyneth.

Socienus, ni, m. g. a companion or felowe, an olde woorde.

Societas, atis, fœ. ge. felowſhippe, alpaunce, ſocietee.

Quorum tibi ſocietas cum illo eſt, which thinges thou arte partaker in as well as he.

Adiungere aliquem in ſocietatem, to make alliaunce with one.

Socio, aui, are, to ioygne or confederate, to accompanie.

Sociare ſermonem, to haue familiar communicacion with one.

Socius, ij, m. g. a felowe or companion, a mate. alſo Socii, be confederates, alies, they whiche in all counſailes & actes do participate one with an other. Looke for Comites and Sodales, in theyr places.

In negotio aliquo ſocius, he that taketh ſuche parte as an other doeth in any buſineſſe.

Conſiliorum ſocius, partaker of ones counſayles.

Addere ſe ſocium alicui, to aſſociate him ſelfe with one.

Socius, a, um, that helpeth aydeth or taketh parte with an other in any thynge, that is companion or felow with an other.

Socordia, æ, f. g. luſkyſheneſſe, ſluggiſheneſſe, ſometyme it ſignifieth idleneſſe.

Socorditer, ſlouthfully, lyke a luſke, luſkyſhely.

Socors, ordis, om. g. luſkyſſhe, apt to no goodneſſe, negligent, ſlowe, that hath no witte or vnderſtandyng, as it were without herte or ſpirite.

Socrates, an excellent philoſophier, ſonne of Sophroniſcus the maſon and Phanaritta a mydwyfe, who beyng firſte ſtudiouſe in naturall philoſophie, finally gaue hym ſelfe to morall philoſophie, teachyng openly vertue, and ſo diligently enſewed it in his liuynge, and in diſputyng was ſo ſharpe & ſo ſure againſt them that were called Sophiſtæ, that Apollo beynge demaunded whoe was the wyſeſt man lyuynge, anſwered, Socrates. he was maiſter to Plato, Xenophon, Xenocrates, and other the greateſt philoſophiers at that tyme lyuyng. Beſydes his excellency in vertue and knowlage, he was of a rare & meruailouſe nature, for he mought ſuſtayne colde, labour, honger, and thirſt, aboue any man at that tyme, as Alcibiades declareth in Plato. he affirmed that there was alwayes with hym a ſpirite or ſpirituall power called Dæmonium, the which as often as he was moued to doo any thynge not conuenient or neceſſarie, that ſpirite touched hym, and dyd prohibite hym to do it. Under ſharpe and merie tauntes in the fourme of argument called Inductiõ, he cauſed men to perceyue theyr ignoraunce, where before they thought them ſelfes to be wiſe. finally, beynge enuied of them which did then beare chiefe rule in Athens, he was accuſed of Anytus, Meliſſus the poete, and Lycon the oratour, that he ſpake againſte theyr goddes, and corrupted theyr childzen with peruers doctrine: but he contemnyng death, would ſuffer no man to ſpeake for hym, and ſo drynkyng poyſon with a ſopouſe countinaunce, and ſaiynge to Anytus, I dyng the good luche, died incontinent. But ſone after, the people were ſo ſorie for his death, & of his accuſers, ſome they ſlewe, and ſome they exiled, and dyd ſet vp openly the image of Socrates made of copper. he was before the incarnacion of Chriſte. 367. yeres.

Socraticus, a, um, that foloweth the doctrine of Socrates, of or belongyng to Socrates.

Socrus, us, f. g. the wyues mother, or the houſbandes mother.

Socus, a Troiane, the ſonne of Hippaſus.

Sodalis, is, m. g. he that kepeth company with other at meales or paſtime. it is alſo he that is of one fraternitee, companíe or colledge with other, a companion, a felowe.

Ille ſodalis iſtius erat in hoc morbo, he had the ſame diſeaſe that this man had, he was fautie in that point, as well as this man.

Sodalitas, atis, a fraternitee, a brotherherhode. alſo a companíe incorporate of any miſterie or craft, generally al felowſhippes, priuately aſſembling amonge the people.

Sodalitium, ij, n. g. idem.

Sodes, an interiection, or an aduerbe of exhorting tyng, if thou dare, on good felowſhip, I pꝛaie the, I beſeche the.

Dic ſodes, tell me on good felowſhip, tell me I pꝛaie the.
Sodoma, æ, f. g. and Sodomum, i, n. g. oꝛ Sodoma, orum, a citie in Iudea, whiche foꝛ ſynne doone againſt nature, was by almightie god conſumed by celeſtiall fire.
Sodomito, aui, are, to vſe oꝛ committe the ſinne of Sodome againſte nature.
Sogdiana, a countrey in Aſia extendyng to the noꝛth parte of Scythia.
Sol, ſolis, m. g. the ſunne.
Soles, ſignifieth ſometyme the daye, ſometyme the beames af the ſunne. alſo the heate of the ſunne.
Soles longi, longe dayes.
Sole nouo, at the ſunne riſyng.
A primo ſole, from the ſunne riſyng.
A ſole orto, idem.
Iam ſole infuſo, the ſunne beyng all readie riſen, and ſhinyng abꝛoade.
Solibus expoſitus locus, a place open vpon the ſunne.
Supremo ſole, a little befoꝛe the ſunne ſet.
A ſolibus coctus, ryped in the ſunne.
Abiit ſol, the ſunne is gonne downe.
Arcti ſoles, ſhoꝛte dayes.
Candidi ſoles fulſere mihi, I was foꝛtunate and happy.
Solamen, inis, n. g. ſolace, comfoꝛt, conſolation.
Solanum, i, n. g. an herbe called night ſhade.
Solanum ſoporiferum, an herbe called dwale
Solanus, a, um, idem quod Solaris, re.
Solaris, re, of oꝛ partayning to the ſunne.
Solaris herba, an herbe, the floure wheꝛof tuꝛneth about with the ſunne. The Gꝛeekes call it Heliotropium.
Solarium, ij, neu. ge. a place where by the ſunne, houres ar knowen, a diall. alſo a ſoliar of an houſe. alſo a penſion payde to the pꝛince, to lyue out of common buſineſſe.
Solati, they which be diſeaſed oꝛ ſicke by the heate of the ſunne.
Solatiolum, li, n. g. a littell comfoꝛte oꝛ conſolation.
Solatium, tij, neu, gene. ſolace oꝛ comfoꝛte, conſolation.
Afficere ſolatio, to comfoꝛte.
Solatia dare, and pꝛæbere ſolatium, idem.
Hoc ſibi ſolatij proponebat, they comfoꝛted them ſelfes in this poynte.
Solatio eſſe, to comfoꝛte.
Solator, oris, m. g. he that comfoꝛteth.
Solatus, a, ũ, ſãed, burned oꝛ heate in the ſũne.
Soldum, foꝛ Solidum.
Soldury, certaine contured perſones, oꝛ ſwoꝛne bꝛetherne amonge the Galles in the tyme of Iulius Cæſar, whiche vowed to lyue and die togeꝛther, called of the Latines Deuoti.
Solea, æ, fœ. gen. a ſhoe called a galage oꝛ paten, whiche hath nothyng on the feete but onely latꝛchettes. alſo a fiſhe called a ſole. alſo a groundſople, wheꝛon the wall of an houſe ſtandeth. it is alſo a ſhoe, wheꝛwith hoꝛſes and oxen be ſhodde, and an inſtrumente vſed in makyng ople.
Induere ſoleas iumentis, to ſhoe hoꝛſes oꝛ oꝛther beaſtes, to ſet on ſhoes.
Solearius, ij, m. g. a paten maker.
Soleatus, a, um, ſhod, oꝛ that weareth pattens.
Solennia, orum, feaſtes oꝛ holy daies.
Solenne, nis, n. g. a ſolemne feaſte perely obſeꝛued, an anniuerſarie.
Solenne habent, it is an oꝛdinarie faction, oꝛ a cuſtome muche vſed amonge them.
Solenne inſtituere, to inſtitute a ſolemne and oꝛdinarie feaſte, to be perely kepte at a certaine tyme.
Solennis, ne, annuall oꝛ perely, that whiche is ſolemne, wont, oꝛ done euery pere, oꝛdinarie, accuſtomed to be ſeene oꝛ doone oftentymes.
Iter ſolenne, a neceſſarie accuſtomed and oꝛdinarie voyage oꝛ iourney.
Sacra ſolẽnia, oꝛdinarie feaſtes oꝛ ceremonies.
Verba ſolennia, oꝛdinarie wooꝛdes.
Dies ſolennis, a ſolemne daye, that cometh once euery pere.
Solenne olim erat, it was once accuſtomable, a common thyng, often times vſed.
Noſtrum illud ſolenne ſeruemus, let vs kepe oure accuſtomable wont and faction.
Solennitas, atis, f. g. a ſolemnitee.
Solenniter, ſolemnely, oꝛdinarily.
Solennitus, idem quod Solenniter.
Solens, entis, wont, accuſtomed.
Soleo, ſolitus ſum, vel ſolui, ſolere, to be wont, to be accuſtomed.
Solere, to bepe companie.
Solet, it was wont, oꝛ the vſe hath ben.
Solens, foꝛ vt ſoleo.
Ego abceſſi ſolens paululum ab illis, I went a little from them as I was wont.
Solers, ertis, om. g. wyttie, pꝛudent, wyſe, full of craſte.
Solerti auditu animal, a beaſte that is quiche of hearyng.
Solertiorem cuſtodiam pꝛæbet, it watcheth moꝛe ſurely.
Solerter, wittily, cunyngly, craftily, ſubtylly.
Solertia, æ, fœ. ge. ſharpeneſſe oꝛ quickeneſſe of witte, wittineſſe, craftineſſe, oꝛ ſubtiltie in pꝛactiſyng good oꝛ yll.
Solicitacio, onis, f. g. a ſolicitation, an entyſyng oꝛ mouyng to dooe a thyng.
Solicitator, oris, one that doeth ſolicite oꝛ entiſe other.
Solicite, carefully.
Solicito, aui, are, to turne vp the grounde in tyllyng and plowyng, to ſtyre a thyng out of the grounde that it ſtandeth on, and remoue it out of his place, to ſhewe both hope and feare. alſo to disquiete or make sorie, to vexe, to trouble, to make heauy, solicitouse or carefull, to make pensyue, to solicite, to procure, to prouoke and tie instantly vpon one, and entyce him to dooe a thyng.

Cur me solicito huius amentia? why doe I trouble and vexe my selfe with this mannes madnesse.

Quid te solicitat autem? what thyng troubleth your mynde?

Nulla spe, nullo timore solicitor, I am not moued either with any hope or with any feare.

Siccine me arbitr illam opera tua miseros solicitarier? is it well done, that bothe I and she vnhappie bodies, be thus brought in hope and feare by thy meanes? or thus vexed, troubled and disquieted by thy meanes?

Amicos ad perniciem alicuius pecunia solicitare, to egge or entise ones frendes with money and rewardes to slea hym.

Ferro solicitare humum, to labour or tyll the grounde.

Remis solicitauit aquas, he rowed with ores on the water.

Arcu solicitare feras, to hunt wylde beastes with the bowe.

Quod me solicitauit ad emendū, which thyng moued me to by it.

Solicitare pacem, to labour or sue for peace.

Forem solicitare, to open the doze.

Solicitare ad se aues, to allure bydes vnto hym.

Solicitudo, dinis, care, heauinesse, pensiuenesse, trouble and veration of mynde.

Abstrahere se a solicitudine, to withdrawe his mynde from care and heauinesse.

Afferre solicitudinem, to make solicitouse and carefull.

Exedi solicitudine, to bee consumed with care and pensiuenesse.

Sibi struere solicitudinem, to wooxhe or purchase carefulnes & trouble of mind to him selfe.

Conficere alicui solicitudines, to bringe one in care and heauinesse.

Ex te duplex nos afficit solicitudo, we bee in double care and heauinesse of mynde, by your meane or for your sake.

Esse solicitudini alicui, to cause one to be full of trouble and care.

Esse solicitudini dicitur res aliqua, whē it vexeth and disquieteth the mynde.

Esse magna solicitudine, to be verye solicitous and carefull.

Solicitus, a, um, careful, solicitouse, pensike, and disquieted in mynde, busy, muche occupied, that hath as much to doe as he can turne him to.

Omnes solicitos habui, I had all my mayny as busy as they coude be to serue them.

Vt meam, non modo reipublicæ vicem videretur solicitus, that he semed to be carefull not onely for the cōmon weale sake or misfortune, but for myne also.

Solicitū habere, to vexe, to disquiete, to make solicitouse and carefull.

Solicitum tenere hostem ad lucem, to kepe the enemies solicitouse and carefull vntyll it were daie.

Res solicita, a thynge full of care and disquietnesse of mynde.

Solidago maior, wall woxte.

Solidarij, they that doe sell in grosse.

Solidē, whole, perfectly.

Solidesco, scere, to close together as a wounde doeth when it healeth, to waxe sounde and whole.

Solipes, that hath feete hole without toes.

Soliditas, atis, f. g. massiuenesse, soundenesse.

Solido, aui, are, to make fyrme, to consolidate, to make sounde & massiue, to make whole and stronge.

Solidurij, or rather Solduriī, were men of warre in Fraunce in the tyme of Julius Cæsar, which beynge once retayned with any people or capitayne, were so addicted vnto them, that in their quarelles they would die: or if victorie inclined on the other parte, they would slea theym selues.

Solidus, a, um, whole, sounde, continuall, not holowe, not broken or cutte, massy.

In solidum, wholy.

Solida terras spectauit imagine luna, with her full bodie.

Corpus solidū & succi plenū, a bodie sounde, lustie, and nothynge decayed, but full of good bloude and holsome humours.

Decem annos solidos, ten whole yeres.

Solida felicitas non est, that felicitie is not whole and perfecte.

Solida columna, massy & made all of one matter.

Non satis visum hoc solidum est gaudium? dyd not this ioye seme to the to be full and perfecte enough.

Inibis a me solidam & grandem gratiam, thou shalte get ernest and great thankes of me.

Solidum suum cuiq; reddere, to paie to euery one that he oweth full and wholy.

Solidus, was amonge the Romaynes diuersely taken, somtyme for a coyne of brasse contaynyng .xii. small coynes. Sometime it was taken for Dragma in siluer, as primi Esdræ. 8. & secundi eiusdem capite. 7. in Paralipomenō, capite. 29. some were of the value of Dragma, as in the tyme of Alexander the emperour.

Solidus aureus, was in the tyme of ỳ same emperour two drāmes of golde. After in the tyme of Justinianus. vi. of them made one ounce, they beyng the weight of our olde nobles.

Soliferreum, rei, a weapon made all of yron.

Solifuga, æ, fœ. g. a bynde of venemouse pilmyres, whiche keepeth hym selfe out of the sunne or sheeth from the heate of the sunne.

Soli-

Solipunga, æ, fœ. g. a flie, whiche in the heate of the sunne pricketh most sharply.

Soliloquium, cõmunication, which a man being alone, hath with god in contemplacion.

Soliloquus, he that talketh beyng alone.

Solimunt, for Solent, they are wont.

Solistimum, i, n. g. a kynde of daunceyng among the diuinours called Augures, or a diuinacion taken by the fallyng of breade on the ground, whiche was geuen to chickyns.

Solitanus, a, um, an adiectiue.

Solis insula, an ile in the Indian sea.

Solis ostia, places in Indie, where Alexãder was in great daunger by reason of great heate.

Solis mensa, a place in Aethiope, where the tables be alwayes full of good meate and readie for them that will come and eate it.

Solitarius, a, um, solitarie, alone without companie.

Cochlæ solitariæ, whiche be founde in Affricke.

Solitaurilia, orum, n. g. plu. an offringe of three thynges of sundrye kyndes, as a bull, a ramme, and a boye.

Solito, the ablatiue case vsed adverbially.

Solito magis, more then he was wont.

Solito, aui, are, to be wont often.

Solitudo, inis, fœm. gen. defert, where no man dwelleth.

Solitudo puerorum, when they haue neyther father nor mother.

Solitudo hominis, when one hath no man to defende and helpe hym.

Solitudo ante ostium, there was no man before the doze.

Solitus, a, um, of Soleo, wont, accustomed.

Solitus sum, I was wont.

Solitus, a, um, of Solus, alone.

Solituagus, a, um, that wandzeth alone.

Solium, lij, neu. gene. a place of estate, where a kynge sitteth. it is also a great vessell that serueth to diuers vses, as to translate lycour from one to an other, to washe linnen clothes, and for men and women to be bathed in, whiche was sometyme among the Romains made of syluer. it signifieth also a cossyne, wherin deade bodies be put.

Solo, aui, are, to make desolate and without companie.

Solo, in the olde tongue, signifieth all.

Solæ, a citie of Cilicia, the people wherof be called Solenses.

Solœcismus, i, m. ge. a vice in speakyng, wherin the true congruitee and right speache is peruerted, incongruitee.

Solœcophanes, a figure: as, Præneste sub ipsa.

Solfuga, gæ, a kynde of pismieres, called also Solifuga.

Solon, a noble man of Athenes, whiche by his mother lineally descended from Codrus the last kynge of Athenes: he was a man of excellent witte, and called one of the seuen wise men of Greece, and was in suche authoritie in that cuee, that he made and gaue to them lawes, whiche were neuer repelled: not withstandyng whan Pisistratꝰ (his kinsman) went about to chaũge the fourme of that common weale, whiche was popular, into a monarchie, he willyngly went in exile, and so died: Reade of him in Cræsus. whan he was writyng of his lawes, Anacharsis the philosophier saied, that Solons lawes shulde be lyke to copwebbes, that litell flies shuld be fast tied with the, but great flies shulde make holes and breake through them.

Solor, aris, ari, to recreate, to comforte, to solace, to make pastime.

Solox, locis, m. g. course woull or locches. also the beaste that beareth course woulle.

Solsequium, an herbe, whiche hath ben long taken for marigoldes. but Ruellius nowe doeth denie it, not withstandyng I am not so scrupulous, but that I am content with the olde opinion, the descriptiõ of Heliotropium not much abhorreng it, as me seemeth.

Solstitialis herba, an herbe, whiche doeth beare flowres onely at the tyme, when the sonne is at the highest: or as some men suppose, but one daye.

Solstitialis, le, belongyng to the tyme, when the sonne is at the farthest.

Solstitialis vita, a life, whiche dureth but a litell space.

Solstitialis morbus, a sickenesse, whiche hyllleth men shortely.

Solstitialis ægritudo, is of some men taken for the burnyng feuer, which happeneth about the canicular daies, of exceedyng heate of the aire.

Solstitium, tij, n. ge. the state of the sonne, when he can not be either higher or lower, whiche is twise in the yere, in wynter the eight Calendes of Januarye, and is called Solstitium hyemale, in sommer the eight Calendes of July, and is called Solstitium æstiuale.

Solum, li, n. ge. the sople or grounde. sometyme lande. generally it signifieth all thyng, whiche doeth sustaine or beare any other thynge on it, and is spoken sometyme of the sea. it is also the sole of the foote. also the sole of a shoe.

Natale solum, a mans naturall countrey.

Solum vertere, to make bankerupte, to forsake his owne countrey.

Solum fossæ, the bottum of a ditche.

Stellarum solum, the firmament.

Solum aquæ, the vpper parte of the sea, wheron shippes dwe saile.

Bonitas soli, good nature of the grounde or sople.

Aequare solo magistratum, to pull downe the authoritie of any magistrate or officer.

Solum, an aduerbe, alone.

Solummodo, idem.

Soluo, solui, uere, to lewse, to paie, to recompence, pence, to putte awaie, to deliuer, to resolue or melte, to open.

Soluere fidem, to breake promise.
Soluere venas, to open the veynes.
Soluere votum, to performe an auowe.
Alium or vētrem soluere, to make one lasshe, to lewse the beally.
Soluere vita, to slea one.
Soluere ebrietatem, to make one sobre, to put awaie dronkennesse.
Soluere legibus, to dispence with one, to geue hym a placarde.
Obsidione and obsidionem soluere, to reise a siege.
Soluere morem, to breake a custome.
Morbo solutus, dead.
Soluere, to make satisfaction.
Solue lachrymas, wepe no more.
Soluite corda metu, put all feare out of your hertes.
Ego vos solui curis cæteris, I haue deliuered you from all other cares.
Soluere nauem, to weigh vp the anchors and set forwarde, to take the sea.
Soluere fœdus, to breake the league.
Soluit Alexandria, he departed frō Alexādria.
E portu soluere, to departe out of the hauen and take the sea.
Niues soluuntur, the snowe is resolued and melted.
Misimus qui pro vectura solueret, we sent one to paie for the cariage.
Verbis soluere, to make amendes in woordes.
Neq; tu verbis vnquam solues, quod mihi re malefeceris, thou shalte neuer make me amēdes in woordes & purge thy selfe of that, which thou hast done me displeasure in in dede.
Soluere iusta funeri, to doue all thynges that appertayne to burials or interments.
Suprema alicui soluere, idem.
Soluitur acris hyems, The bitter and colde wynter is relented.
Soluendo non erat, he was not able to paie his debtes, he had not wherwith to paie his debtes.
Ad denarium soluere, to paie euery grote: or after some, to paie for the lone of euery grote.
Solus, alone, one onely, solitarie.
Solus omnium, ex omnibus, or inter omnes, onely amonge all other.
Solis erratis in agris, id est, desertis.
Locus solus, a deserte place.
Mihi solæ ridiculo fuit, he was a laughynge stocke to me onely.
Solis tribus ictibus, at thre strokes onely.
Solutè, wantonly, incontinently, lewsely.
Solutilis, le, that will bee sone lewsed or vndone, or that is lewsed and not sure fastned.
Solutio, onis, a lewsyng, a paieyng.
Solutus, a, um, lewsed, or louse. also paied.
Solutus risus, a great laughter.
Belli cura solutus, fearyng warre no more.
Iureiurando solutus, discharged of his othe.
Somno solutus, fast a slepe.
Vino solutus, dronke.
Cœtu soluto discedunt, they breake company and departed.
Optio eligendi soluta, free choyse.
Soluta oratio, contrarie to meter, prose.
Solymæ, plur. the citee of Hierusalem, an other citee in Licia.
Solymi, people by Lycia.
Somnians, antis, om. g. one that dreameth.
Somniator, oris, a dreamer.
Somniculosè, dreampngly, negligently.
Somniculosus, a, um, sleapy, drowsy, sluggishe: sometyme that maketh drowsy or desirous of slepe.
Somnifer, ra, rum, that inducth or bryngeth slepe.
Somnificus, a, um, idem.
Somniosus, a, um, that dreameth often, that is troubled with dreames.
Somnio, aui, are, to dreame.
Somniare aliquem, to dreame of one.
Vti somniis iucundissimis, to dreame very pleasant thynges.
Somnium, nij, n. ge. a dreame, by translation a vayne trifle not like to be true.
Somnolentus, a, um, disposed to slepe, drowsy, sleapy.
Somnorinus, a, um, of olde writers was vsed for any thyng that was seene in a dreame.
Somnus, ni, m. g. slepe. sometyme night.
Somnum hac nocte oculis non vidi meis, I slept not one wynke all this night long.
Datur in somnum eunubus, it is geuen to the that go to slepe.
In somnis, in the night, in his slepe.
Benignus somni, qui bene dormit.
Frigidus somnus, death.
Abrumpit somnos cura, care waketh men out of theyr slepe.
Si somnum possem capere, if I coude slepe.
Carpere somnos, to nappe.
Arctior quàm solebat somnus complexus est, I slepte more soundely then I was wont.
Conciliare somnum, to make one slepe.
Somno se dare, to lie downe to slepe.
Ducere somnos, to bryng a slepe. also to slepe.
Excitare é somno, to waken, to stere one out of his slepe.
Somnum facere, to make to slepe.
Animalia somnus habebat, beastes were a slepe.
Somnum petere, to go to bedde.
Somno priuare, To make that one can not slepe.
Repetere somnum, to fall a slepe agayne.
Sonabilis, le, that sowneth.
Sonans, antis, sownyng.
Sonandus, a, um, to be spoken or pronounced.
Sonchos, an herbe, whiche Lobus taketh for

Cicer-

Cicerbita, whiche is our Southistill. But Hieronymus Tragus taketh it to bee the ragged lettuse, whiche cometh vp in the begynnyng of the yere.

Sónipes, pedis, m. g. a lyght or swifte horse.

Sónito, to sounde often.

Sónitus, us, m. g. a sounde.

Soniuit, for Sonuit.

Sonnitus, a, um, for Sonans, antis.

Sono, sonui, are, to sounde or make a noyse.

Cuius vox auribus sonat procul, whose voice dooe I heare a farre off.

Vox hominem sonat, his voice sheweth him to be a man.

Idem sonant hæc verba, id est, significant.

Quid sonet hæc vox voluptatis, what this woorde voluptas dooeth signifie.

Sonor, oris, m. g. a great sounde or noise.

Sonoré, thrill or loude.

Sonóritas, âtis, a shrilnesse or loudenesse.

Sonorus, a, ũ, lowde or making a great sounde, thrill.

Sons, tis, om. ge. giltie.

Sónticus, a, um, noysome, hurtfull. sometyme iuste.

Sonticus morbus, in the Pandectes of the ciuile lawe, is taken of Cassius and Venuleius, for any continuall sickenesse, whereby one is lette to dooe his necessarie businesse, and therfore in the tyme of warre, they whiche were in that maner sicke, were discharged of their othes. Sextus and other interpretours of the twelfe tables, tooke it for a vehement and verey great sickenesse, it maie be taken for the fallyng sickenesse.

Sontica causa, was expounded in Nemo for a iust and laufull cause.

Sonus, ni, m. g. a sowne, a voice, a noyse.

Fundere sonum, to singe, to speake alowde.

Elicere sonum neruorum, to strike the stringes, and make them to sounde.

Sophaci, people of Africke.

Sophenæ, people of Armenia.

Sóphia, æ, f. g. wisedome.

Sophilus, a Theban poete.

Sophisma, matis, n. g. a craftie and deceitfull sentence, an oration or inuention, whiche seemeth to be true, when it is false.

Sophista, and Sophistes, tæ, m. ge. a dissembler of wisedome, a discriuer vnder an eloquent or crafty speakyng, he that professeth philosophie for lucre or vaineglorie.

Sophistice, ces, the parte of logike, which is captious and subtile, sophistrie.

Sóphocles, a writer of tragedies. also the name of diuers other lerned men.

Sophocleus, a, um, of Sophocles.

Sophos, or Sophus, a wyse man.

Sophron, phronis, m. g. a temperate persone.

Sophrónia, a matrone of Rome in the time of Decius the emperour.

Sophróſine, nes, f. ge. temperance, whereby carnall appetites and lustes be refrained.

Sopio, piui, pire, to set at rest, to bringe a sleape.

Sopites, æ, um, brought a sleape or to reste, or into a sowne with a sodaine stroke, astonied.

Ignis sopitus, fire couered with asshes or other thyng, that it shewe not.

Lecto sopitus, lyeng a slepe in his bedde.

Sopor, ôris, m. g. dead sleape.

Collocare aliquem in soporem, to bryngе a sleape.

Profligatus temulento sopore, lyenge drunke and fast a sleape.

Perpetuus sopor vrget illum, he is faste a sleape.

Soporatus, a, um, faste a sleape, brought a sleape, that hath rested or taken quiete.

Sopórifer, ra, rum, that bringeth sleape, that induceth or causeth sleape.

Soporo, aui, are, to bryng or induce sleape.

Sora, a towne of the Volcians in Campanie.

Sorani, people, called also Hirpini.

Soranus, a physician of Ephesus, whiche lyued at Alexandria.

Soracte, us, n. g sorax, ractis, and Soractes, tis, f. g. an hyll twentie myles from Rome.

Sorbeo, bui, sorbitum, or sorpsi, sorptum, bére, to sippe as one supperh pottage.

Odia sorbére, to sustеine displeasure patiently.

Quid eum non sorbére animo censetis? what naughtinesse thinke you dooeth he not conceiue and imagine in his mynde?

Sorbilis, le, that may be supped.

Ouum sorbile, a rere or softe egge.

Sorbillo, aui, are, to sippe, to sippe often.

Sorbillum, li, n. g. potage or other liquide meates ordeined to suppe, whiche women be wonte to call a litell suppyng, when they do exhorte a sicke man to eate.

Sorbitio, ônis, suppyng. also a supping or broth.

Sorbitues, ei, idem.

Sorbitiuncula, a thynne brothe.

Sorbus, bi, fœ. g a tree, which is longe, and hath a streight stemme and a thinne barke, somewhat fatty, and firste yelowe, and after whitissche, a leafe lyke to a laurell, but that it is thinner and lesse, and crenelled by the edges, which hangeth by a longe stalke: also white floures in a cluster, and beareth fruite, whiche is in fourme of an egge, and in a cluster: in frenche it is called Cormier, in Englishe, as some iudge, the serus tree.

Sorbum, bi, ne. ge. the fruite of Sorbus, whiche hath no stones, and they whiche growe in woodes haue a more sauour then those whiche be in gardains, in Fraunce it is called Corme.

Sordeo, dui, dére, to bee foule or vncleanely, to be sluttissche or filthy.

Sordere alicui dicitur res aliqua, when one iudgeth it vile and nothing woorthe, when he dooeth nothing esteme or regarde it,

Sordebat ille suis, his countrei men, seruantes or subiectes did contemne hym or sette naught by hym.

Sordes, dis, f. g. filthe or vncleannesse, the swepyng of houses and cancls. sometyme vilenes, couetousenesse.

Sordem vrbis, Cicero called naughty persons, or the common people, and the raskall or vile sorte of men.

Incusans eius sordes, layng to his charge his dishoneste couetousenesse.

Propter hominis sordes, for the couetousenesse and dishoneste facion of the man.

Sordes, is sometyme bribes or gyftes that officers receiue.

Sordesco, scere, to waxe filthy or sluttishe moze and moze.

Sordidatus, a, um, sluttishely arayed, vily appareiled for his auncelle of mynde, as a persone ashamed or accused.

Sórdide, vncleanely, sluttishely, couetously, filthily, dishonestly, with takyng bribes in dishoneste matters.

Sordidulus, a, um, somewhat sluttishe, or filthy, somewhat couetous, dishoneste or vile.

Sordidissime, moste vncleanely, verap couetously and dishonestly.

Sordido, aui, are, to make foule, to arraie filthily and sluttishely.

Sórdidus, a, um, filthy, vncleane, sluttishe, vile, couetous, of no estimacion.

Sordidus color, a naughty, vnpleasant, or yll fauoured colour.

Sordidus homo, a pinche penie, a gredy gutte, that mindeth nothig but hurdyng vp of money, a vile persone that doeth all thynge for money.

Sordido loco natus, descended of a base linnage.

Sordida lingua, a naughty and lyynge tongue.

Nihil illo consilio sordidius. i corruptius.

Sorditúdo, dinis, filthinesse, sluttishnesse.

Sorex, sóricis, m. g a ratte or a filde mouse.

Sorech, the Iewes doo call vines, whiche continually doe bringe forth most pleasant and delectable fruite.

Soriantes, swoyne bretherne.

Soricens, a, um, and Soricinus, a, um, of or pertenyng to a ratte.

Soriculatus, a. um, an adiectiue.

Soriculata vestis, a garment of changeable silke.

Sorilla, shippes, which are called or stopped with hempe or flare.

Sorita, te, f. g. a subtile and captious fourme of argugyng.

Sorite, people whiche are diuided from India by the ryuer called Arabis.

Soriati, is properly of maidens breastes, when they beginne to be imbosed.

Soror, ris, f g a sister.

Sororiæ, maidens peppes.

Sororiantes mammulæ, maidens papes rounde and harde, set out to the shewe.

Sororicida, dæ, he that hath killed his sister.

Sorórius, a, um, of or belongyng to a sister.

Sorórius, rii, m. g. my sisters husbande.

Sorracus, ci, m. g a coffar or basket, wherin are caried the instrumentes or apparayle, seruyng for comedies or enterludes.

Sors, sortis, f. g chance, lotte, fortune, portion in inheritance, patrimony, the whole summe in a common banke or stocke, wherin many haue parte. it is also the principall summe of money borowed. it is also destenie, iudgement, fatall necessitee: sometyme the free grace of god. also charge, office, state.

Sortes, be also oracles, or the rolles, wherin the answeres of idols were written.

Quod non suæ sortis id negotium erat, because that matter or businesse perteined nothing to his charge, or was no parte of his office.

Sors tua mortalis, thy state or condition is mortall, or thou arte a man mortall.

Saturni sors ego prima fui, I was the firste childe that Saturnus had. the wooyde of Juno.

Heu mihi etiam de sorte nunc venio in dubium, alas wretched felow that I am, now I am in doubte, whether I shall haue that money, whiche I laied out for hir.

Fatidicæ sortes, oracles that tell mennes destenies.

Sortem trahere, to take the lotte out of the potte.

Hic exitus illum sorte tulit, by fate or destenie.

Sorti, an aduerbe, by lotte.

Sorticula, læ, f. g. the scrow, wherin the lotte is written.

Sortilegi, be they, whiche doee tell mennes destenies by takyng of lottes or verses of holy scripture.

Sortilégium, gii, n. g. a diuination by lottes.

Sortior, tiris, tiri, to make lottes, to take or haue any thynge by lotte or chaunce. also to dispose or order.

Sortiri prouinciam, to receiue the rule of a countrey by lottes. it is vsurped to haue auctorites by election.

Sortiri aliquibus, to make lottes for men.

Consules sortiri vter dedicaret, the cõsuls did caste lottes, whiche shulde dedicate the temple.

Dicas sortiri, looke Dica.

Sortitio, ônis, f. g. castyng of lottes, a chosyng by lottes.

Sortitio prouinciarum, a poyntyng of the prouinces by lotte.

Sortitio iudicum, a chosyng of the iudges by lotte.

Sortitor, ôris, m. g he that casteth lottes.

Sortitò, an aduerbe, signifiyng by lot or chaunce.

Sortitus, us, m. g a castyng of lottes.

Sortitus, a, um, taken by lotte. also chaunsyng to haue a thynge.

Sorti-

Sortilig vices, and euery one of vs, haupnge his charge appopnted hym.

Sortiti remos, they had euery one theie charge appopnted theim by lotte in rowpng.

Sos, olde wziters vled foz eos.

Sosia, a mans name.

Sosij, certapne boke sellers.

Sosipatra, a pzopheteſſe of Libya, the wife of Aedeſius the ſophiſter.

Sospes, sóspitis, com. g. whole oz ſaufe. alſo he that geueth healthe.

Sóspita, tæ, fœ. ge. the that geueth helthe oz pzeſeꝛueth.

Sospitális, le, that is cauſe of helthe, that pzeſeꝛueth out of dangier.

Sóspito, aui, are, to hepe in healthe, to pzeſerue out of danger.

Sóstratus, a mans name, which buildeb the towze in the ile Pharos.

Sotades, the name of a laſciuious and wanton pocte.

Sótadeum, a hynde of meter conſiſtynge of fiue feete, the two firſt Ionici, the other thzee Trochæi: after other it is a meter of .vii. feete. Iohe Aldus.

Soter, téris, maſc. gen. a ſauiour, he that geueth healthe.

Soteria, æ, helthe, ſaluacion.

Sotéreꝛa, órum, gyftes ſent to men that be recouered from ſickeneſſe, by theiꝛ frendes.

Sotéricus, a poete whiche wzote Diocleſians pzaiſes.

Soucena, one of the names of Iuno.

S. ANTE P.

SPaco, hynge Cyzus nurſe, and ſignifieth in the tongue of Medes a dogge.

Spadicus, a, um, of ſkarlet colour.

Spadix, dicis, maſ. gen. a date with the bzanche pluckeb from the palme tree. it is alſo a ſcarlet colour. it is ſometyme taken foz the colour of an hozſe, called a bzight baie. it is alſo an inſtrument of muſike.

Spado, dónis, m. gene. a geldynge, be it man oz beaſte. alſo a bzanche that bzyngeth no fruite.

Spadonia, a hynde of laurell.

Spargonon, the roote of an herbe, called Linqueſoyle.

Spargapiſes, the ſonne of Thomiris, the queene of Maſſageres.

Spargo, ſi, gere, to ſcatter oz caſte abzode, to caſt here and there, to ſpzyncle, ſometyme to diuide into diuers partes.

Spargere bellum, to make warre in ſundzy partes of a countrey.

In brachia ramorum ſpargitur, it ſpzeadeth oz groweth abzode in bzanches.

Spargit ſe in amnem Moſam, it renneth by diuers heades into the riuer Moſa.

Sparſi per agros, ſcattered abzode in ꝑ fieldes.

Spargite humum foliis, ſtrawe the ground full of leaues.

Spargere ſemen, to ſowe.

Spargere in vulgus, to ſpzeade oz ſow abzode among the common people.

Spargite me in fluctus, caſte me peremele into the ſea.

Spargere corpus aqua, to ſpzincle water vpon the boop.

Sparſim, here and there.

Sparſus, a, um, ſcattered abzode, ſparcled here and there one.

Sparſis pellibus albo, haupng the ſhynne ſpekeled with white, oz haupng white ſpottes on theiꝛ ſhynnes.

Sparta, tæ, oz Sparte, tes, the chiefe citee of Lacedemonia: it was alſo called Lacedæmon and Theramne.

Spartam nactus es, hanc orna, a pzouerbe, ſignifipnge, the eſtate oz office whiche thou haſt, oꝛder oz applp it well.

Spartacus, was a fameus ſwoꝛde plaier, whiche gathered an hoſt of ſlaues, and made battaile againſt the Romains, and was vanquiſhed by Craſſus.

Spartárium, rij, neu. gen. a place where bzoome groweth oz the ſhzubbe Spartum.

Sparteum, tei, n. g. a money bagge.

Sparteus, a, um, of the ſhzubbe Spartum, of bzoome.

Spartiáta, tæ, and Spartanus, one of Sparta.

Spartum, ti, n. g. a ſhzubbe oz herbe, wheꝛof they vſed to make bondes to tie vines: alſo to make cabuls & ropes foz ſhippes. Dioſcozides ſaieth, it is the ſame that Geniſta is: but Fuchſius denieth it: foz ſo muche as Geniſta hath leaues, this hath none. it is a hynde of bzoome.

Sparum, ri, n. g. a littell darte.

Spara, be called caltropes, ſowen in tyme of battaile to wounde the feete of men and hozſes.

Sparus, ri, m. g. a clubbe.

Spaſmus, mi, oz Spaſma, ſpaſmatis, n. ge. a ſickeneſſe of the ſynewes and muſkles, called alſo Conuulſio: it happeneth ſometyme of repletion, ſometyme of inanition oz lacke of nouryſhement. ſometyme of griefe, as in the pzicking of a ſinewe, otheꝛwhyle of colde, as by dꝛinking colde aper, oz cold water. it is named in engliſh the crampe.

Spaſticus, a, um, out of the whiche any thyng is pluckeb.

Spatha, æ, f. g. a two handed oz baſtard ſwoꝛde. it is alſo an inſtrument of the kytchen to turne meate that is fried, a ſhiſe.

Spathálium, n. ge. an oznament pertepnyng to women. it is alſo a bzanche of palme with dates hangyng on it.

Spathe, thes, a certaine tree, alſo the bzaunche of a date tree.

Spáthula, æ, f. g. a diminutiue of Spatha.

Spatians, antis, that ſpzeadeth abzode.

Spa-

Spatiator, óris, Cato vseth for Errator, a wandrer.
Spáticus, a, um, vexed with an ill spirite.
Spátior, áris, ári, to walke abrode.
Spatiosè, & Spatiosius, largely, more largely.
Spatiósus, a, um, large, spacious, ample.
Bellum spatiosum, a longe warre.
Spatium, ij, n. gen. a space, as well in tyme as in place, laysure, a course or swaie in walkyng the length of any place, a place of rennyng or exercise. sometyme the measure or quantitee in a foote of meter.
Pari spatio distare vtring, to be in the myddes and equally distant from bothe partes.
Relicto spatio sequi aliquem, to folowe one a louke of.
Spatium vnum basilicæ, one course or swaie in walkyng vp and downe the palaice.
Duo aut tria spatia facere, To walke vp and downe once or twise.
Spatium vitæ, the course or tyme of ones life.
Euanescit dolor spatio, sorow vanisheth away in continuaunce of tyme.
Mihi si spatium fuerit, if I haue leisure hereafter.
Spatium hominis à vestigio ad verticem, the length of a man.
Vtiræ suæ spatiũ daretur, that is anger myght haue a delaie.
Hoc interim spatio, in this meane tyme.
In medio spatio, in the mydde waie, in the myddle of his life.
Breui spatio errauit, he wandred within a littell roume, a little circuite or compasse.
Speciális, le, speciall, peculiar, proper.
Specialiter, idem quod Speciatim.
Speciátim, specially, particularly, properly.
Spécies, ei, fœ. ge. a figure or image, a fourme, hinde, liuenesse, similitude, portrature, phisnomie, beautie, fauour, it is diffined by logicians, to be that whiche is saied of many thynges varyyng in numbre: as, Homo, whiche is spoken of Socrates, Plato, Tiero, which do not vary in figure but in numbre, sometyme Species, do signify spices, also it is apparance, a colour, a shadowe, a pretence. also a sight or thing seene.
Per speciem legationis, in Asiam ablegatus est, vnder the colour of ambassade, he was banished into Asia.
In speciem esse, to be to the honour.
Præsentare speciem alicuius rei, to resemble or be lyke a thyng.
Species, visions in the nyght.
Speciem habet hominis, it hath the portrature or lykenesse of a man.
Specie ouorum, lyke egges.
Species vrbis, The fourme and situacion of a citee.
Præter speciem stultus es, thou art more foolysshe than one wouldo iudge by thy countinãce or phisnomie.
Speciem boni viri præ se ferre, to resemble or be lyke an honest man.
Oris species, the fourme or faction of the visage.
Species, was of auncient lawiers taken for Casus.
In specie huiusmodi, in suche a case as this, or whan it chaunceth thus.
Specie rixæ, as thoughe they dydde chide together.
Præclara classis in speciem, a goodly nauie to see to.
In speciem modo, onely for a colour or faction.
Quæ speciem habent magnæ coniunctionis, that haue a colour or resemblaunce of greate friendship.
Speciem pugnantium præbere, to appeare as it were men that did fyght.
Specie quidem blanda, faire to see to at the fyrste.
Quæ habent speciem gloriæ, whiche haue an appearance or shadowe of glorie.
Specifice, particularly.
Specificus, a, um, particular.
Specillum, li, n. g. a small instrument, wherwith surgeans dooe serche the depenesse of woundes and sores, called a probe. also to annoynt sores. it is also a spectacle to loke with. also an eare picker.
Specillum auricularium, a tooth picker.
Spécimen, speciminis, n. g. an example, a proue, a saie, a token, a patterne, also beautie.
Specimen ædere, or dare, to shewe a proffe of a mans cunnyng.
Sumere, and capere specimen, to take a proue or saie.
Specimen innocentiæ, an ensample or patterne of innocencie.
Specio, spexi, specire, vsed of olde writers for videre, or inspicere.
Speciosè, beautifully, gaiely, goodly to see to.
Speciósus, a, um, beautifull, faire, goodly to see to, well fauoured, honest.
Spécito, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Specio.
Spécium, ij, n. ge. a littell instrument, wherwith surgeans serche woundes, a probe.
Spectabilis, le, worthy to be sene, of great renowme, notable.
Spectáculum, li, n. g. a thyng to be seene or looked on, a sight, a pageant, a plaie, sometyme the selfe beholding. also the place from whense men dooe beholde thynges, a scafolde.
Spectamen, táminis, n. g. idem quod Specimen.
Spectamen bono seruo, id est, qui rem herilem procurat, videt, collocat, it is a token of a good seruaunt, whiche attendeth about his masters businesse, and dooeth surueye all thynges and set it in order.
Spectatè, happily, goodly, faire to see.
Spectátio, ónis, f. g. a triall or proffe of money, also a vieweyng, a considereyng.
Spectatiuus, a, um, that belõgeth to speculation.

Spectá-

Spectător, ôris, maſc. gener. a beholder, a trier of money.

Quam elegans formarum ſpectator ſim, how well ſkilled I am in faire womã, or how demure or kene a kelowe I am in choſyng faire women.

Spectatrix, icis, the feminine of Spectator.

Spectătus, a, um, approued, well tried and conſidered.

Spectatus & honeſtus vir, an honeſt man, wel knowen and tried.

Fœmina ſpectatiſſima, a verie faire & godly woman, a woman of greatte honeſtee and well knowen.

Specto, aui, are, to beholde, to lowke vpõ, to view, to eie a man, to conſyder, to haue regarde, to approue, to tende to ſome concluſion or ende, to compare, to iudge, to eſteeme.

Qua ſpectat Africam, on the ſyde towarde Affrike.

Ne me ſpectes, dwe not eie me ſo.

Spectat orientem, it lyeth towarde the eaſt.

Aurum ſpectatur in ignibus, id eſt, probatur.

Spectare aliquem, to haue regard to one.

Spectare aliquẽ ex bona vita, to eſteeme what a man is by his good lyfe.

Animum alterius ſpectare ex ſuo, to eſteeme an other mans mynde by the exaumple of his owne.

Si aduitulum ſpectes, if you conſider the caſe.

Victoriam ſpectet, let hym loke for victorie, or haue deſyre of victorie.

Voluntatem ſpectet eius, let him conſider his wyll diligently.

Quorſum hæc ſpectat oratio? to what ende dwe ye ſpeake this?

Conſilium eius ad bellum ſpectat, his purpoſe or entent is to haue warre.

Omnia vtriuſq; conſilia ad concordiam ſpectauerunt, all the counſailes and deuiſes of thẽ bothe were to make peace and concorde.

Spectat ad rebellionem res, a rebellion is lyke to enſue.

Spectandum, we muſt beware or take heede.

Spectatur, the impersonall.

Spectrum, tri, n. g. an image or figure in a mans imagination.

Spécula, æ, f. ge. an hyghe hyll or toure, wheron thynges be eſpied farre of. alſo little hope, a diminutiue of Spes.

Speculabundus, a, um, lookyng about, ſpying.

Speculâre, ris, Specular, aris, and Specularium, rij, n. gen. idem quod Speculum, alſo a glaſſe wyndow. ſometyme the couerynge of a walke in a gardeyne.

Specularia, ſpectacles.

Speculâris, re, any thyng wherby a man maie ſee the better, pertaynynge to ſeyng or ſpying.

Specularis ſignificatio, a geuyng of a ſigne or token to other out of an hygh toure.

Lapis ſpecularis, a cleare and bright ſtone that they vſed in olde tyme in ſtede of glaſſe,

Speculârius, rij, m. g. he that maketh glaſſe wyndowes or ſpectacles, a glaſiar.

Speculâtio, ônis, f. g. a ſpying, a watchyng in an hygh toure or other place.

Speculâtor, ôris, m. gen. an eſpiall in warres, a ſhoutewatche.

Speculatrix, icis, the feminine.

Speculatórius, a, um, belongyng to a ſpie.

Speculatoria nauigia, ſhippes of eſpiall.

Speculâtus, us, m. g. ſpying.

Spéculor, âris, ari, to ſee farre, to conſider, to eſpie, to ſeethe out, to watche in an hygh toure, or other lyke place.

Spéculum, li, n. g. a lookyng glaſſe.

Specus, us, and ci, m. & fœ. g. or Specus, oris, neu. g. a denne. Lectum, eſt hæc Speca, æ, hoc Specum, ci, & hoc Specu indeclinabile.

Spelta, reade Zea.

Spelæum, læi, n. g. idem quod Spelunca.

Spelunca, æ, fœm. g. a denne or hole in a rocke, a caue.

Speſpondi, for Spoſpondi, I haue promyſed.

Sperábilis, le, that maie be hoped for.

Sperâtus, a, um, hoped or loked for.

Sperata virgo, a maiden aſked in mariage.

Sperchias, adis, fœ. ge. Patronymicum fœminum, of Sperchius.

Sperchionides, Patronymicum maſculinum.

Sperchius, a riuer of Theſſalie.

Speres, ris, olde writers vſed for Spes, hope.

Sperma, atis, n. gen. ſeede, moſt commonly vſed for the naturall humour, wherof all liuynge thynges be engẽdred and fourmed. alſo ſpauns of fyſches.

Spermatia, æ, f. g. the melon.

Spernax, ſpernacis, that contẽneth or deſpiſeth.

Spernendus, a, um, to be deſpiſed.

Sperno, ſpreui, ſpernere, to deſpite, to diſdeine, to ſet nought by.

Spero, aui, are, to hope, to truſt, to haue a good hope, to lowke for, to feare.

Si potui tantum ſperare dolorem, id eſt, timere.

Spero confore, I truſt it will come to paſſe.

Iubeo te bene ſperare, haue a good hope at my wooꝛde. Vt ſpero, as I truſt.

Bene de aliquo ſperare, to haue a good hope of one.

Sperabam iam deferbuiſſe eius adoleſcentiã, I hoped that the rage of his youth had ben paſt or well cooled.

Non vſu veniet ſpero, it ſhall not chaunce I truſte.

Spes, ſpei, fœm. ge. hope, truſt, lokyng for any thyng to come.

Spem abiicere, to diſpaire.

Spem alere, to make one hope and looke ſtill for a thing.

Spem fallere, to diſapointe one.

Plenus ſpei bonæ, that hath a great hope of a thynge.

Pertenuis ſpes oſtenditur, there appeareth but verie littell hope in the mattier.
Ad irritum ſpes cadit, our hope is diſapointed, and cometh to naught.
Abſciſſa omni ſpe, put clene out of hope, all hope beyng cleane taken awaie.
Adducere nos in ſpem dicuntur literæ, whan they put vs in hope to haue a thyng.
Spe deuoratum lucrum, a gaine that a man hopeth ernestly for, and dweth in a maner aſſure him ſelfe of it afore hande.
Adduci ſpe mercedis, To be meued or induced with the hope of ſome rewarde, to dooe a thynge.
Facere and Dare ſpem, to put in hope.
Ex illo fluere ſpes illorum cœpit, after that their hope beganne to wauer or be doubtfull.
Spes cum fruſtrata eſt, he is diſapoynted of that he hoped for.
Spem mihi afferebat ſummæ probitatis, he cauſed me to conceyue a great hope, that he woulde be a right honeſt man.
Spem pretio non emo, I had lieker haue one byrd in hand then two in the buſh.
Impulerunt in ſpem certiſsimam conſulatus, They cauſed hym to conceiue a ſure hope to be conſull.
Inducor in ſpem, I conceiue an hope.
Infringi ſpes dicitur, whan one begynneth to miſtruſt or deſpeyre.
Injicere ſpem, to put in hope.
Agitare ſpes, to wauer in hope.
Hac ſpe lapſus, deſpeyring to bring this to paſſe.
Capere ſpem de aliquo, to conceiue a great hope of one.
Spe qua iubes nitemur, we will ſtiche or truſt therto, as you bydde vs.
Occidit ſpes noſtra, our hope is dooen.
Tua profectio ſpem mihi debilitat, your goyng foorth cauſeth me to hope the leſſe.
Hac illi ſpe hoc inceperunt, on this hope, or hereto they truſtyng, beganne this enterpriſe.
Ponere ſpem in aliquo, To put his whole hope and confidence in a thyng.
Sed id quidem in optima ſpe pono, but I haue verie good hope of that mattier.
Spes eſt, & hunc aliquando. &c. we truſt or hope. &c.
Spes eſt de argento, I haue a good hope to get this money.
Præcidere vel incidere ſpem alicui, to putte out of hope.
Spem auferre, adimere, eripere, idem.
Ea ſpe iſtum fuiſſe prædium, that he had ſuche an hope.
Rapi ad ſpem immortalitatis, to conceiue an erneſt and great hope of immortalitee.
Deſerit me ſpes, I am cleane out of hope.
Exardere ad ſpem libertatis, id eſt, incitatũ eſſe.
Vna hæc ſpes eſt, there is no hope but this.
In ſpem tamen venio, yet I hope or truſt.
Plus habent ſpei hæc quam timoris, there is more hope in theſe thynges to come to paſſe, than feare of the contrary.
Spes, in the plurall numbre is ſometyme vſed.
Spem vultu ſimulat, id eſt, lætitiam.

Spéutici panes, loues of breade made in haſte, or that be quickely made and baked.
Speuſippus, a noble philoſopher couſen to Plato.
Sphæca, a waſpe.
Sphæra, æ, fœ. gen. a figure in all partes equally rounde, a ſpheare, a circle, a boule.
Sphæ'rica, æ, fœ. g. a bynde of cakes made of diuers rounde pieces.
Sphæ'ricus, a, um, in the forme of a ſpheare, roũd.
Sphæriſtérium, ij, n. g. a rounde place in a bigne where men are exercyſed, a tenise plate.
Sphæromáchia, æ, f. g. playng at tenise.
Sphagnos, a certaine gumme: lohe Plinii 12 ca. 25.
Sphaſelus, an herbe, ſomewhat differyng from ſauge. it is alſo a ſickeneſſe, that cometh of to muche wetneſſe. Theophraſtus writeth, that in the roote of plantes happeth ſuche a diſeaſe. Heſychius ſaith, that euery greeuous maladie may bee called Sphaſelus.
Spheninda, a bal made of lether or cloth, greater than a tenise ball.
Sphinx, gis, or ſpingos, f. g. a monſter, whiche had the head & handes of a mayden, the body of a dogge, wynges lyke a byrde, nayles lyke a lyon, a tayle like a dragon, the voyce of a man, whiche propoſed to men ſubtell queſtions. it is alſo a beaſte like an ape, but more rough, & hath a tayle, I ſuppoſe it to be a munkey or babion.
Sphirena, a beaſt of the ſea.
Sphondylium, lĩ, n. ge. or Spóndylus, or rather Spondilium, a toyncte or knotte of the backe bone. xii. of theim doo make the chyne, and the ſyue reſydue dooe make the loynes. it is alſo a certaine fyſche, which Ariſtotle calleth Sphondilena. alſo a brazen thyng that the Athenians vſed in geuyng voyces. alſo a whetue to ſet on a ſpyndell.
Sphrágide, es, m. g. a ſtone which printeth gleetly
Sphygmos, the pulſe.
Sphyræna, æ, fœ. g. a certaine fyſche, called alſo ceſtra, or Sudis.
Spica, æ, f. g. & Spicus, i, m. g. and Spicum, i, neu. gene. the eare of corne, properly whan it begynneth to come out of the huſe. alſo a ſpice called ſpikenarde. alſo a ſigne of ſterres and a cloue of garlyke.
Spica nardi, a ſpice called ſpikenarde.
Spica mutica, an eare of corne hauing no ward.
Spicátus, a, um, eared, or in eare as corne is.
Spicatum vnguentum, a ſweete oyle made of ſpikenarde.
Spiceus, a, um, that which hath eares like corne, or that is made of eares of corne.
Spicifera, the ſurname of Ceres, called goddeſſe of corne.
Spicifer, ra, rum, that beareth eares.

Spici-

Spicilegium, ii, n. g. glenyng of corne, gathering of eares of corne, leasynge of corne.
Spicilegium facere, to glene, to lease corne.
Spicio, spexi, ere, to looke, to beholde.
Spico, aui, are, to shoote out in eare.
Spiculatóres, they whiche be called of the kinges garde, some doo take Spiculator to bee an hangeman, or other persone which putteth men to deathe, by execution of the lawes.
Spiculo, aui, are, to make any thynge sharpe at the poynete, to poynete.
Spiculum, li, n. g. a darte, also an narrowe, it is more properly an narrowe heade.
Spilumenes, a sluttishe drabbe.
Spina, æ, fœminini generis, a thorne, also the backe bone. sometyme the stinge of a bee. also a pyckle, suche as is on hedgehogges and certayne fyshes.
Spinam facere, to grow and beginne to haue thornes or pyckes.
Spina Aegyptia, is of John Agricola supposed to bee that, whiche of some apothecaries is called Sucalia or Bedeguar. also that it is the tree, whereof cometh the fruite called Acacia.
Spina alba, our ladies Thistle
Spina acuta, the Berbery tree.
Spinacia, spinache.
Spineoli, a wylde fruite called sloes.
Spinétum, i, n. g. a place where thornes growe.
Spineus, a, um, of thornes.
Spinifer, ra, rum, that beareth thornes or pyckes.
Spinósus, a, um, full of thornes, by translacion, difficulte, harde, crabbed.
Spinter, êris, n. g. a pinne, also a tache, somtime a brachlet.
Spintharus, a notable carpynter, whiche builded the temple of Delphos.
Spinturnix, icis, f. g. a byrde, which was wonte to come to the aultars and catie awaie a burnynge cole, whiche was taken for an vnluckye byrde.
Spinus, i, f g. a sloe tree. also a birde, lohe ligurio.
Spio, onis, idem quod Nympha.
Spionia, a certaine kynde of vines called also Spinea.
Spionicus, of that vine.
Spira, æ, fœ. g. an ornament of a womans heade, also the tournyng of cables or ropes, whan thei be wounde vppe. also a bande or lace, wherewith a cappe or hatte is made faste vnder a mans chinne. also the base of a pyllar. also a cake made lyke a trendell. also a multitude of people.
Spiræ, thynges whiche dooe tourne and winde in diuers circles lyke a trendle or adder lynge rounde. Spiræ, by translacion, difficulte and harde thynges.
Anguis colligit se in spiram, the adder wrappeth hym selfe rounde.

Spirábilis, le, lyuely, or that wherby we liue.
Spiraculum, li, n. g. idem quod Spiramentum, out of the whiche the ayer or breath passeth.
Spirâmen, rámínis, ne. ge. that wherby ayer or breath issueth.
Naris spiramina, the holes of the nose.
Spiramentum, i, n. g. that wherby breath, aier, or smoke issueth.
Spirans, antis, om. g. breathyng, lyuyng. also that casteth a sauour or smell.
Spirantia signa, images so liuely made, that thei seme to breath.
Spirantia consulit exta, beyng as it were yet as lyue and mouyng.
Aura spirans, qua spiramus & viuimus, lyuely, that geueth lyfe.
Spirarchus, a capitaine in the forewarde.
Spirillum, a gotes bearde.
Spirituâlis, le, or Spiritalis, le, that breatheth, lyuely. Spiritales auræ, id est, vitales.
Spíritus, us, m. g. spirite, breath, wynde, sauour smell, sometyme aier, also stomache, hautnesse of courage, fiercenesse.
Angustus spiritus, a shorte breath.
Spiritus fœdi odoris, a stinking breath.
Reddere spiritum, to breath out.
Ducere spiritum, to fetche breath, also to lyue.
Communi spiritu frui, to lyue among men
Extremum spiritum alicuius excipere, to kisse one whan he is dyeng.
Patriæ reddere spiritum, to die for his countrey. Spiritum trahere, to lyue.
Vno spirita, at one breathe.
Auferre spiritum alicui, to spill.
Euadit spiritus per angustias, the breathe to meth foorth by narrowe passages.
Tranquillum & otiosum spiritum ducere, to liue quietely and without trouble or busines.
Miserum spiritum trahunt, they lyue wretchedly.
Suspendere spiritum in lectione, to pause.
Ac mihi nescio quos spiritus attulerunt, and I can not tell how they haue caused me to haue an haute and lofty stomache.
Ingentis spiritus vir, a man of great courage and of a lofty and haut stomache.
Vnguenti spiritus, the sauour or sweete smell of the ointment.
Placidi spiritus dies, a calme day without great wynde.
Spiro, aui, are, to breathe, to blowe as winde doeth, to sende foorth odour or sauour, to lyue.
Spirula, æ, f. g. a litteli rounde compasse, the base of a pillar.
Spissamentum, i, ne. g. any thynge that is put in ointmentes to make them thicke. also hare, cotton, woll, or any lyke thyng, wherwith a clefte or hole is stopped.
Spissatus, a, um, made thicke.
Spissé, an aduerbe signifyng thicke, sometyme slowly, grossely.

Spissé calcatis curbonibus, the coles being troden downe harde togethet.
Spissus virens gemma, hauing a thicke greene colour.
Spisse arare, to eare thicke togethet.
Spisse atq; vix, slowly.
Spissesco, scere, to waxe thicke.
Spissigradior, gradi, to go thicke or make many feete.
Spissigradus, di, m. g. he that goeth thycke.
Spissitas, atis, f. g. thickenesse.
Spissitùdo, inis, idem.
Spisso, aui, are, to make thicke.
Spissus, a, um, thicke, slow.
Spissum verbum, a longe woorde.
Spissum opus, a woorke longe in dooyng, or whiche requireth longe tyme.
Spissus tactus, whan one feeleth a thynge massyue.
Spissa theatra, id est, repleta spectatoribus.
Tardum & spissum.
Pro spisso euenit, it cometh slowly.
Spissa & solutioris humi regio, contrarye, harde and compacte.
Spithama, æ, f. g. called also Dodrans, is the measure betwene the thumbe & the litel finger, thet both beyng stretched foorth, and conteineth .ix. ynches, or .xii. fingers breadth, a spanne.
Splen, enis, m. g. the splene.
Splendeo, dui, dere, to shyne, to be beautifull.
Splendesco, scere, to shyne, to waxe fayre and beautifull.
Splendidè, an aduerbe, signifiyng clere or bright. also rychely, honorably, beautifully, goodly Splendidus, a, um, bright, clear, goodly, beautifull, famous, notable, excellicte, that hath great bruite and renowme, he whiche vseth to haue his house richely decked, with abundance of all thynges is called Splendidus, contrarie to Sordidus, and Auarus.
Splendor, ôris, m. g. light, brightnesse, somtime honor, nobleneſſe in liuyng, glorie, excellencie, bruite, renowme.
Splendor & dignitas, glorie and honour.
Imperii nostri splendor, the brightnesse, nobleneſſe or maieſter of our empyre.
Ad gloriam & splendorem, to glorie and renowme.
Splendor nominis, honorable fame and renowme, glorie.
Summo splendore præditi, men of excellent renowme and glorie.
Harum rerum duarũ splendor omnis & amplitudo, all the excellencie and great worthines of these two thynges.
Splenéticus, a, um, that is sicke in the splene.
Spleniátus, a, um, wrapped in a plaister of cloth or other thynge.
Splenion, the herbe commonly called hertes tongue.
Splénium, nij, n. g. a plaister of clothe or lether, made to laie to the bodie of him whiche is sicke.
Spodium, dij, n. ge. that whiche cometh of leade, lyke to sooure whiche is aboue vessels of brasse that door hange ouer the fyre.
Spoletium, a citee in Italie.
Spoletini, people of the citee Spoletium.
Spoliárium, ij, n. g. a place where men be robbed and spoiled.
Spoliátio, ônis, a spoilynge or robbynge, a taking from one.
Spoliátor, ôris, m. g. a spoyler, a robber.
Spoliatrix, the feminine.
Spoliátus, a, um, spoyled, depriued of that he had.
Spólio, aui, are, to robbe and despoyle, to pill.
Spoliare fama, to take awaie a mãs good name from hym.
☞ Alium spoliat, vt alium ditet, he robbeth Peter and paieth Paule.
Prouincia spoliare aliquem, to take the gouernaunce of a prouince from one.
Spoleare vita, to kyll.
Pampinis vitem spoliare, to pull leaues or braunches from a vyne.
Spoliare auxilijs, to take awaie the ayde or garison that was sette to defende one.
Spólior, áris, ari, to be robbed, somtime to robbe.
Spoliari fortunis, to haue his goodes or substance taken from hym.
Spoliárius, a, um, that which receiueth spoyle or thinges taken by robberie.
Spólium, ij, n. g. spoyle taken of ennemies.
Ampla spolia referre, to gette great spoyle.
☞ Alienis spoliis alios augere solet, he is wonte to robbe one and geue to an other: he is wonte to robbe Peter and paie Paule.
Sponda, æ, f. g. the syde of a bedde stede.
Spondalium.
Spondaicus, belongynge to the foote called Spondeus.
Spondeo, spospondi, êre, to promise freely, and with a good wyll.
Spondere pro aliquo, to vndertake for one.
Spondere puellam dicitur pater, to promyse to geue her in mariage.
De quo tibi homine hæc spondeo, of whome I promise you this muche.
Spondæus, dæi, m. g. a foote in meter of two longe syllables.
Spóndylis, lis, f. g. a kinde of serpentes.
Spondylium, ij, n. g. a certayne herbe lyke Ferula, or rather Ferula it selfe, lobe Sphondylium.
Spóndylus, li, masc. gene. a wheele, whiche is a rounde thynge of stone, woodde or leade, put on a spindell to make it renne rounde. it is also a white harde thynge in an oyster, whiche is couered with the fissche. also a toyncte or knotte of the backe bone, a brasen thynge that the Athenienses vsed in geuynge voyces, a fissche of the sea. Martiall vseth it for the bone of a fissche.
Spongia, æ, fœ. ge. a sponge, or that wherwith any any thyng is wyped.

Spongiare, to wype cleane with a ſponge.

Spongiola, læ, fœm. gene. a litteli ſponge. alſo that whiche the apothecaries call Bedaguar, that that groweth on a ſweete bzier and other trees lyke a ſponge. alſo the roote of the herbe Aſparagus.

Spongioli, muſhroms.

Spongiôſus, a, um, lyght and full of holes lyke a ſponge.

Spongites, m. g. a ſtone lyke a ſponge.

Sponſa, ſæ, fœm. gen. a woman ſpouſed oz affianſed.

Sponſalis, le, pertepnyng to ſpouſage.

Sponſalia, órum, neu. ge. plur. the ſpouſage oz betrothyng of a man and woman before that they be wedded.

Sponſio, ônis, f. gen. a promyſe, a bargayne, an agreement, a couenaunte; euery promyſe made by the demaundyng oz aſkyng of an other. alſo a certaine ſuite oz wager in the lawe, where by the prouokyng of one part, a certaine ſumme of money was pauned to abyde the triall of the matter: and was forfaited of hym, whiche was condemned in the ſuite.

Sponſio voti, a vowe, a promiſe made to god.

Sponſione laceſcere, and prouocare, to will one to abyde the triall of a matter with him vnder the peyne that he whiche is condemned ſhall loſe a certayne ſumme of money, whiche was pauned downe foz that intent.

Sponſione certare, oz ſponſionem facere, to laye a wager.

In ſponſionem deponere, To laye downe in wager ꝓ which men wolde leſe, which be ouercome.

Quanti placet ſponſionem facere, how muche will you laye.

Sponſus, us, idem quod Sponſio.

Sponſus, ſi, m. g. the man to whom a woman is betrothed, the bzide grome.

Sponſo, aui, are, to affiance oz betrothe, to promyſe.

Sponſor, ôris, m. ge. he that promyſeth oz bargepneth. ſometyme a ſurete, whiche vnderta-keth an other mans acte, he that betrotheth oz prompleth his daughter in mariage.

Sponſus, a, um, promiſed, affianked, betrothed.

Spontâlis, le, voluntarie.

Spontâneus, a, um, that doeth oz is done willyng-ly, naturally, without conſtreincte oz helpe.

Sponte, the ablatiue caſe, naturally, willyngly, of his free will.

Paxép fuit non ſponte ducum, and peace was made againſt the capitaines willes.

Sponte naturæ, naturally, of nature.

Homo ſuæ ſpontis, a man that is at his free li-bertee to dooe what he wyll.

Sponte, an aduerbe, willyngly.

Sporades, iles in the ſea called Ægeum.

Sporta, tæ, f. g. a backet oz maunde.

Spórtula, læ, f. g. money oz meate diſtributed by pꝛinces vnto the people, a litteli gefte oz almes, a ſmall banket oz drinkyng, that the riche Ro-maines made to them that came to ſalute them; the pꝛoper value of Sportula, whiche the aun-cient Romaines vſed to geue, was. x. ſeſterty, that is. x. d. ſterling, oz our common ſhillyng. alſo liuerey of coate was called Sportula.

Sportella, læ, fœm. gener. a bynde of tartes oz tunbettes.

Spretor, ôris, m. gen. he that contemneth oz deſ-ſpiſeth.

Spretus, a, um, contemned, deſpiſed.

Spuma, mæ, f. g. the ſome oz froth of any thyng liquide.

Agere ſpumas, to ſome.

Spumâtus, us, m. g. ſomyng.

Spumâtus, a, um, couered with frothe oz ſome.

Spumeſco, ſcere, to begynne to ſome.

Spúmeus, a, um, ſomy oz frothy, that hath the co-lour of ſome.

Spúmifer, and Spúmiger, ra, rum, that beareth ſome.

Spumo, aui, are, to ſome oz gather vnto ſome.

Spumôſus, a, um, that whereof cometh a ſome, ſomy, full of ſome.

Spuo, ſpui, ſpuere, to ſpette.

Spurcé, vncleanely, filthily, diſhoneſtely, villa-nouſely.

Dicere in aliquem ſpurcé, to ſpeake diſhoneſt-ly and villanouſely againſt one.

Spurcidicus, a, um, that ſpeaketh diſhoneſtly oz vncleanely, filthily.

Spurcificus, a, um, that maketh thynges vncleane oz filthy.

Spurcitia, æ, and Spurcities, ei, fœ. g. vnclean-neſſe, filthyneſſe, diſhoneſtie, villanie.

Spurco, aui, are, to defyle oz make vncleane, to bedurte, to diſhoneſt.

Spurcus, a, um, vncleane, filthy, vnpure, ſtin-kyng, bloudie, diſhoneſt, vile.

Spurcum vinum, wyne myngled with water.

Tempeſtas ſpurciſſima, a foule and greatte tempeſt oz ſtozme.

Spurcus ager, a barrayne and dzie ground vn-houſebanded.

Spurcus gladiator, a cruell & blouddy ſwozde player oz wounderer.

Spurciſſimus helluo, a vile and ſtynkynge glutton.

Spurina, a capitaine of the Parthians, whiche ſlewe Craſſus the Romaine.

Spurius, a, um, bozne of a common woman, that knoweth not who is his father, baſe bozne.

Spurij verſus, verſes feygned, the authour beyng falſe named oz vnknowen.

Spurius, rij, m. g. a baſtarde. alſo it was the ſur-name of diuers Romaines.

Sputâtor, ôris, m. g. one that ſpetteth.

Sputo, aui, are, to ſpette.

Sputum, ti, n. g. ſpettill.

SQualla, olde writers vſed for ſqualida.

Squalens, entis, beyng foule filthy or ſluttiſſhe, all couered with any thyng.

Squalens auro, id eſt, fulgens, all ſhynynge with golde.

Squaleo, or Squalleo, lui, lêre, to be filthy, ſluttiſſhe, ſoyled or ſtayned with ſome vncleane thyng, to be foule or out of facion for lacke of dreſſyng.

Squallent arua, the fieldes are full of weedes and foule for lacke of huſbandyng.

Arma ſqualent rubigine, the harneis & weapons be all foule with ruſte.

Squallidé, ill fauouredly, nothyng cleanly.

Squallidus, a, um, ſluttyſſhe, filthy, cauſyng one to abhorre the ſight therof. ſometyme it ſignifieth ſpotted. alſo carraine leane, nothing beautifull or faire, vnpleaſant.

Squallidæ res, thynges vnpleaſant.

Squallidus ager, grounde out of tilthe.

Squallor, ôris, m ge. ſluttiſſhenelle, filthinelle, vncleanenelle, the deformitee of any thynge for lacke of trimmynge.

Squalus, a fiſſhe.

Squama, mæ, fœ. gen. the ſcale of a fiſſhe. alſo a maile in habergioun, or a littell plate in a coate of fence.

Squama æris, the flower or offall of braſſe, that is blowen from it in meltyng, or that is beaten from it after it is cowled in the water.

Squamârim, in the facion of ſcales, like ſcales.

Squameus, a, um, full of ſcales.

Squamiger, ra, rum, that hath ſcales.

Squamigerum genus, fiſſhe.

Squamôſus, a, um, ſcaly, full of ſcales.

Squamoſum pecus, Plautus vſeth for fiſſhe.

Squarôſus, a, um, rough and ſharpe, lyke to a thynge whiche is ſcaly.

Squâtina, næ, fœ. ge. a ſole fiſſhe with a roughe ſhynne, wherwith fletchers dooe make their arrowes ſmoothe.

Squilla, læ, f. g. a fiſſhe called a ſhrimpe. alſo an herbe, reade Scylla.

Squinitij, people in Italie, called alſo Sabelli and Samnites.

ST, a voyce of hym that cõmaundeth ſilence, as we ſaye in engliſſhe, huſſhe, whan we wouldе haue one to holde his peace.

Stabilimen, liminis, and Stabilimẽtum, ti, n. g. that whiche keepeth a thyng ſtedfaſt, that ſtabliſſheth or confirmeth.

Stabilio, ſtabilis, liui, lire, to make ſtedfaſt or ſtable.

Stabilire rempublicam, to confirme and make ſtable and ſtronge the common weale.

Stâbilis, le, ſtable or ſtedfaſt, firme, ſtãt, durable.

Stabile eſt me patri aurum reddere, I haue ſurely determined to geue my father the money agayne.

Incertum & ſtabile, contrary.

Stabilis & firmus animus, a firme and conſtant mynde.

Imperium ſtabilius, an empyre or dominion that continueth longer.

Mala ſtabilia, apples that fall not from the tree.

Stabilitas, âtis, fœ. g. ſtablenelle, firmenelle, conſtancy, continuance.

Stabulâriæ mulieres, women whiche kepe victalyng houſes, for to refreſche wayfaring men.

Stabulârius, rij, m. gen. an inholder, an hoſtler, alſo he that hath the charge of the hous where cattell is kepte.

Stabulâtio, ônis, ſtandyng or lyyng of cattell, abydyng in a ſtable or houſe, as beaſtes doe in the wynter tyme. alſo harbouryng or lodgeyng of deere.

Stâbulo, aui, are, to ſtande as cattall doeth in a ſtable.

Stabulare pecus, to put beaſtes into the ſtable.

Stabulari damas aut ceruos, ſalowe deere or red deere to be lodged or harboured.

Stâbulum, li, n. g. an inne, where men doe lodge or baite. alſo it is the general name of the place, where cattall doeth abide, whan they come from their paſture. alſo a ſtable, wherin horſes or mules are kept. alſo a folde for ſheepe.

Stabulum pauonum, a place where peacockes are kepte.

Stabulum confidentiæ, flagitij, nequitiæ, a place of refuge or ſuccour.

Stachys, a certaine ſhrubbe, lyke to Marrubium, but hauynge ſomewhat longer leaues. ſome thinke it to be that, whiche apothecaries call Ambroſiam.

Stacte, tes, fœm. g. is that, whiche is called commonly Storax liquida, the floure of Myrrhe, or the fatneſſe that kyſt diſtilleth out of it.

Stacteus, a, um, that bryngeth out the gumme Stacte.

Stadiódromus, mi, m. gen. he that renneth in a courſe of rennyng. alſo the rennyng place.

Stadium, dij, n. g. a place, wherin rennyng is exerciſed, as well of men as of horſes. Stadium is alſo a quantitee or meaſure of ground, wherof (as Cenſorinus writeth) were thre ſortes: the one was of Italie, & that contained 625. feete, whiche is. 125. paſes: The ſecond was called Olympicum, and that was of. 600. feete, that is. 120. paſes: The thyrde was called Pythicum, whiche conteyned. 1000. feete, whiche is 200. paſes, whiche parauenture was forgotten of Plinius and Solinus, whan they wrate the deſcripcion of Sicilia: whiche maketh the variaunce betweene theim and Diodorus Siculus. Of the Stadia called Italica, or of Italie. viii. dooe make an Italian mile, conteynyng a thouſande paſes, euery paſe beyng fiue feete: we haue none other name to geue it but a furs longe.

Stagno,

Stagno, aui, are, is proprely of water: to stande and not to flowe.
Stagnare terra dicitur, whan water standeth on it, and is not sucked in.
Stagnum, ni, n. g. a standing water, a poole also the depest parte of the sea.
Stalagma, lagmatis, n. g. a certaine ointemente.
Stalagnium, nij, n. ge. a certaine ornament that men vsed to weare in their eares.
Stamen, staminis, n. g. the hempe or flare sette on the distaffe to spinne. also clothe whan it is in the lome or frame. also a threede.
Stamina trahere, or ducere, to spinne.
Leuia stamina ducere, to spinne fine.
Sollicitat stamina docto pollice, she spinneth cunnyngly.
Torquere stamina digitis, and Solicitare stamina pollice, idem.
Stamina, be also in woodde or herbes as it were small threedes.
Stamina, be also the chiefes or littell thynges standynge out ythe threedes in the middes of flowres, as in a lillie, a honny suckle, and suche other.
Stamineus, a, um, that hath in it as it were littell threedes.
Stanneus, a, um, of tinne.
Stannum, ni, n. g. mettall called tinne.
Stapedes, stroppes.
Staphis, phidis, f. g. called also Staphis agria, pituitaria, and pedicularis, a kynde of vynes, whiche hath a blacke stemme and strenghte, and hath a fruite more ythe to a littell blader, than to a grape, whiche is greene, within the whiche is a kernell three cornered.
Staphulinus, ni, m. g. a wylde parsenepe, or rather carrets.
Staphyle, a vyne, or grape that reasons bee made of.
Staphilodendron, a tree growynge beyonde the Alpes, like to Acer, and beareth a fruite in coddes tastynge ythe a kilberde.
Staphylus, he that dyd fyrste mingle water with wyne.
Starchaterus, a kynde of the Danes.
Statanus, a god, whiche the paynims supposed to haue the gouernaunce of childzen.
Statarius, a, um, stable, quiete, without sterynge.
Statarij milites, souldioures that abyde stylle in one place.
Stataria comœdia, a quiete comedie without sterynge and busines.
Stater, téris, m. g. a certayne coyne, whiche was in value foure dyammes, or foure grotes. viii. to an ounce.
Statêra, ræ, f. g. golde smithes balance.
Stâtice, ces, f. g. a certayne herbe.
Staticulum, li, n. g. a certaine wanton meuynge in daunsinge. sometyme a littell carte.
Statilinus, was called a primate god, whiche men supposed to be alwaie with theym.
Statim, anon, constantly, cõtinually, by and by, without tarying, foorthwith.
Statim à radice, harde by the roote.
Statim atq; negauerit, by and by as soone as he shall denie it.
Statim, quim vrbem egressi fuerint, foorthwith as soone as they shall bee departed out of the citee.
Statim ut literas tuas legeram, incontinente as soone as I had readde your letters.
Statio, ónis, fœ. g. a place, where either men of warre or shippes doe abide or rest for a certaine tyme. also a common place, where muche people dooeth resorte to here matters decided.
Statio nauium, a rode for shippes.
Stationem vitæ peregisse, to haue passed the walke of this lyfe.
Stationâlis, le, that standeth fast or abydeth.
Stationârius, a, um, that is appointed to abyde in any place.
Stationarij milites, souldioures assigned to abide still in one place to kepe a towne or fortresse, or the marches of a countrey.
Statiua, órum, or Statiuæ, árum, a certayne place fortified, where men of warre lae at the siege of a fortresse.
Statiua castra, idem.
Stauilicula, læ, f. g. a littell resting place.
Statius, a noble poete.
Statiuus, a, um, that belongeth to resting or abidynge.
Stator, óris, m. g. a seruant, whiche is alwaie ready or attendyng about an officer, to be at cõmandement: wherfore in that woorde bee included pursuantes, postes, sergeantes, bailiffes, and catchepolles. also Jupiter was called Iupiter stator of Romulus, because he supposed, that he made the Romaines to tarie when they fled, the Samnites pursuyng them.
Statua, æ, f. g. an image of mettall, puoyr, stone, or tymber.
Statuária, æ, f. g. the crafte of graueyng or pettyng of images.
Statuárius, rij, masc. ge. he that caruеth or petteth images.
Statuárius, a, um, pertainyng to images.
Statûmen, minis, ne. ge. that whiche is set vp to susteine or beare a thynge, a proppe, forke or other ythe.
Statuminо, aui, are, to proppe vp, to vnderset, to make sure.
Statuminare lapidibus, to vndersette with stones, to vnder pinne.
Statuo, tui, tuere, to ordeyne, to determine, to appoynte, to defyne, to iudge or esteme, to thynke or iudge for a surette, to set faste, to set vp, to stable a thyng, to purpose surely, to geue iudgement or sentence against one, to dedicate, to beate one thynge agaynst an other.
Statuere ex æquo & bono, to iudge or determine accordyng to equitee, lesse then the rigour of the lawe wolde require.

Statuere precium, to ſet a price on thynges vendible.
Sublimem illum arriperem, & caput primum in terram ſtatuerem, vt cerebro diſpergat viam, I woulde lifte hym vp aloſte, and firſte of all daſche his head to the groũde, that I mought ſcatter his brayne abrode in the ſtrete.
Apud animum ſtatuere, to determine in his mynde, to purpoſe & determine with him ſelfe.
Exemplum ſtatuere in aliquo, to puniſhe one in ſuch wiſe, that other male take example therby.
Statuere in aliquem exemplum, idem.
Statuere in aliquem, to make an ordinaunce agaynſt one.
Mercedem ſtatuere, to aſſigne to one what wages he ſhall haue.
Modum ſtatuere, to appoynete a rule.
Statuite quanti hoc putetis, & quam multo redemiſſe, thynke you what it is wooꝛthe, oꝛ of what value it is.
Statuere de ſe, to byll hym ſelfe, not lokyng foꝛ the iudgement of any officer agaynſt hym.
Statuere ſummum bonum non dolere, to determine and iudge with hym ſelfe, that it is the chiefe felicitee, to haue no ſoꝛowe oꝛ peyne.
Cum animo ſtatutum ac deliberatum habere, to haue thꝛoughly purpoſed & determined with hym ſelfe.
Statues ex noſtra dignitate, ye wyll determine the matter ſo, as ſhall be foꝛ myne honoure.
Vt in poſterum documentum ſtatuerem, ne quis &c. that I might geue an example in time to come that no man &c.
Statuam ſtatuere alicui, to ſet vp ones image.
Exemplum ſtatuite in me, ſhew you an example by me.
Vix ſtatuere apud animum meum poſſum, I can ſcante dekne oꝛ determine with my ſelfe.
Hanc legem mihi ſtatuo, I preſcribe this lawe to my ſelfe.
Locum colloquio ſtatuere, to appointe a place where they ſhall common together.
His ſtipendium de publico ſtatuit, he aſſigned oꝛ appointed them to haue wages of the cõmon treaſure
Vrbem præclarã ſtatui, I haue builded a goodly citee.
Crateraſq; duos ſtatuam tibi, id eſt, dedicabo.
Senatus ſtatuit, the ſenate hath oꝛdeined.
Statũra, æ, fœm. ge. the ſtature oꝛ bigneſſe of the bodie.
Statura humilis, a dwarfiſche lowe ſtature.
Statura arboris, the bigeneſſe and height of a tree.
Status, us, m g. ſtate, fourme, faction oꝛ geſture of the bodie, the condition oꝛ ſtate of ones ſelfe oꝛ other thynge, it is amonge oꝛatoures the pꝛincipall poynte, wherin all the controuerſie conſiſteth, called of Tullie, Conſtitutio cauſæ, the iſſue.
Collocare aliquem reipublicæ ſtatum, to eſtabliſſhe and ſet the common weale in ſome good ſtate oꝛ fourme.
Collocare in ſtatu ampliſsimo, to auaunce oꝛ ſet in ſome high degree oꝛ honour.
Concidere ex amplo ſtatu, to fall from high degre oꝛ great auctoꝛitee.
Conuellere reipublicæ ſtatum, to trouble the quietneſſe oꝛ good oꝛder, ſtate, and policie of the common weale.
Conuellere de ſtatu, to trouble and bꝛyng one out of his purpoſe.
Declinare de ſtatu, to doe ſome thinge that appertayneth not, oꝛ doeth not agree to the accuſtomed ſtate and foꝛme of his lyfe.
Deducere aliquem de ſtatu vitæ ſuæ, to cauſe one to doꝛe a thynge that he was not wonte to doe, oꝛ that is contrarie to his accuſtomed trade and facion.
Dencere aduerſarium de ſtatu, to make our aduerſarie that he can not tell what to ſaie.
Deterrere aliquem de ſtatu ſuo, to make one afrayde to continue in his purpoſe. To feare from his purpoſe oꝛ enterpꝛiſe.
Status corporis rectus, ſtandyng vpꝛyght with the bodie.
Status, a, um, firme, that chaungeth not, oꝛdinarie, certayne.
Stati dies, dayes appoynted, daies oꝛdinarie, dayes in banke foꝛ apperance, oꝛ foꝛ the parties to pleade.
Stata ſacrificia, ſacrifices cuſtomably doone at certaine daies of an olde oꝛdinance, oꝛdinarie.
Statæ matris ſimulachrum, an image ſet vp by the people in euery ſtrete at Rome.
Stati redditus, rentes certaine.
Statyelli, a people of Liguria.
Steatites, m. g. a pꝛecious ſtone lyke to tallowe.
Steatôma, a gatherynge of greace oꝛ fat in ſome place againſt nature.
Stechades, thꝛe little iles by Marſiles.
Stega, æ, f g. a cabin of a ſhippe. alſo a cote oꝛ cottage.
Stegnus, a, um, idem quod Strictus.
Stegnæ fabres, keuers, in the whiche a man may haue neyther ſiege noꝛ vrine, noꝛ ſweatte noꝛ none othꝛe euacuation.
Stela, æ, f. ge. a little pyllar, a croſſe oꝛ other lyke monument ſet vp by the high waie, foꝛ the memoꝛie of anye thynge.
Stella, æ, f. g. a ſterre. alſo a fiſſhe. alſo the name of a poete.
Stella crinita, a blaſyng ſterre.
Stellæ traiectio, ſhotyng of a ſterre.
Stellans, antis, ſhinyng lyke a ſterre.
Stellans volatus, a ſhotyng of a ſterre.
Stellatũra, æ, f. g. was an exaccion of capitains in takynge from ſouldioures the poꝛcions of victailes appointed vnto them by the emperour, oꝛ rather gather a certaine quantitie of vitailes appointed to ſouldiours.

Stellatus, a, um, full of ſterres. repleniſched or garniſched with ſterres.

Stelliter, and Stelliger, ra, rum, that beareth ſterres in it.

Stellio, ônis, m. g. a beaſt lyke a lyſarde, hauing on his backe ſpottes lyke ſterres.

Stellionatus, us, m. g. a deceite in diſſemblyng a thynge to take profite of an other vnlaufully, or els by counterfaityng of merchandiſe.

Stellis, a kynde of birdelyme made in Eubœa.

Stello, aui, are, to ſhine or glyſterne lyke ſterres, or to be made lyke ſterres. alſo to enuie.

Stemma, ſtémmatis, n. g. a garlande of floures. alſo the ſtocke or bloude of a gentle houſe. ſome tyme the degrees of kynred. alſo an inſcription grauen in a ſtone, ſometyme a great acte or enterpriſe.

Stemo, was ſiſter to Medusa.

Stennio, the doughter of Phorcus.

Stenobœa, the wyfe of Prœtus kinge of Ephire, who loued Bellorophon, that vanquiſched the monſter Chimœra.

Stentor, oris, a Greeke, whiche had a voyce as loude as fiftie men.

Stephanitæ vites, a certaine kinde of vynes, made rounde lyke garlandes.

Stephanoma, euery herbe that ſerueth for garlandes.

Stephanonia, the herbe called alſo Lotus Aegiptia.

Stephanoplocos, a maker of garlandes.

Stephanus, in greeke is a crowne or garlande.

Stercoratio, ônis, f. g. a dongynge.

Stercorarius, a, um, pertaynynge to dunge or mucke.

Stercoratus, a, um, dunged, mucked or compaſſed.

Stercoreus, a, um, of donge or mucke.

Stercoro, aui, are, to dounge or compaſſe.

Stercoroſus, a, um, full of dounge or mucke.

Stercus, oris, ne. ge. dounge, mucke, compaſſe, ordure.

Stercore ſaturare agrum, to donge the field.

Stercutius, the ſonne of Fannus, he firſte founde and vſed doungyng of the grounde.

Stereſis, priuation.

Stegetron, the herbe called Sedum maius.

Sterilia, olde writers vſed for Sterilis.

Sterileſco, leſcere, to be or ware barraine.

Sterilia, for Sterilitas.

Sterilis, le, barraine.

Sterilis amator, a louer that lacketh money.

Sterilitas, atis, barraynneſſe, ſterilitee.

Sternax, acis, om. g. that ſtyngeth or caſteth.

Sternax equus, a ſtyngeing horſe that caſteth his ryder.

Sterno, ſtraui, ere, to throwe downe, to ſpreade, to couer, to laie the table, to make playne, or ſmoothe, to lye downe to reſte.

Sternere lectum, to make a bed redie.

Sternunt ſe ſomno, they layed them downe to ſleape.

Sternere equum, to ſaddle and make redie an horſe.

Sternere menſam, to laie the table.

Iuuenci cæſi ſtrauere terram, id eſt, operuerunt, couered the grounde.

Venti placidi ſtrauerunt æquora, id eſt, plana fecerunt.

Humi ſternere aliquem, to ſtrike one to the grounde.

Flores humi ſternere, and Sternere humum floribus, to ſtrawe floures on the ground, to couer the grounde with floures.

Sternitur omne ſolum iaculis, all the grounde was couered with dartes.

Sternere locum ſaxis, to paue.

Viros ſternere cæde, to kyll men.

Segetes ſternuntur, the corne was moghed and cut downe.

Sternuo, nui, ere, to ſneſe.

Sternutamentum, i, n. g. ſneſynge. alſo a medicine that prouoketh ſneſyng.

Sternutamenta euocare, to prouoke ſneſyng.

Sternutatio, onis, f. g. ſneſynge.

Sternúto, aui, are, to ſneſe often.

Sterquilinium, ni, n. g. a dounge hyll or myxen: Terence calleth a lewde by that name, as one woulde ſaie, vile and ſtinkinge knaue.

Sterrogoma, a kinde of frankēſcence, called commonly Olibanum, in latine Thus maſculus.

Sterto, tui, tere, to route when one ſleapeth.

Stesibrotus, the ſonne of Epaminondas duke of Thebes.

Steſichorides, the numbre of eight in diſe, ſo called of the ſepulchre of Steſichorus the poete, made in figure lyke to eight dice.

Steſichorus, a famous poete, of whome it is written, that when he was an infant in his cradell, a nightingale ſate on his mouth and did ſinge, ſignifyinge that he ſhoulde be the ſweteſt poete that euer was afore him: he found firſt linging of ſonges in a daunce.

Steſilæa, a woman of excellent beautie, whome Ariſtides and Themiſtocles loued.

Steſimbrotus, an hiſtoriographier.

Stenelas, the ſonne of Capaneus and Euadnes: an other the ſonne of Perſeus.

Steneleus, a, um, of Stenelus.

Sthenobœa, the wyfe of Prœtus.

Stibádium, dii, n. ge. a chaire or couche made of herbes wounde together: ſome doe call it an herber or ſommer parlour alſo a litteli parlour, where it was writte how many gueſtes it woulde receiue.

Stibium, bii, ne. g. a white ſtone founde in ſiluer mynes, which ſtoppeth the renynge of eies, and dooeth make them ſeme very fayre.

Stibon, idem quod Antimonium.

Stichas, chados, lohe Stechas.

Stichos, a verſe or an order in a thynge, a lyne.
Stigma, matis, n. g. a marke made with fire, or a hotte yron. ſometyme it ſignifieth infamie and reproche obiected openly.
Stigmáticus, a, um, infamed, notably taken for a naughty perſone, marked with a hotte yron.
Stigmoſus, a, um, idem.
Stigo, aui, are, to pryche fooythe, to ſtere forwarde.
Stilico, a noble man in the tyme of Honorius the emperour.
Stilla, læ, f. g. a droppe.
Stillans, antis, droppyng.
Stillátio, ônis, f. g. a dropppng.
Stillaritius, a, um, that droppeth.
Stilbo, a philoſophier, vide Stilpo.
Stilbon, bonis, the ſterre of Mercurie.
Stillicidium, dij, n. g. the dropppng of an houſe, the eaues of the houſe, a littell gutter or ſinke.
Stillo, aui, are, to droppe.
Stilobata, looke Stylobata.
Stilpo, ponis, a philoſophier, borne in the citee of Megara in Greece, whiche (his countrey bryng burned, and his wyfe and childzen loſte in the fyre) eſcaped onely, and departynge alone, the kyng Demetrius aſked of hym, if he had loſte anythyng, he anſwered: I haue loſt nothyng: for all that is myne I carie with me, meanynge thereby, that vertue, (whiche is onely the proper goodes of a wiſe man, and can not be taken from hym) he tooke awaie with hym.
Stilpónes, dwarfes.
Stimicon, a ſhepeherdes name in Uergill.
Stimmi indeclinabile, idem quod Stibium.
Stimulátio, ônis, f. g. a pryckyng or feruent moouyng to doe a thynge.
Stimulátor, ôris, m. g. he that prycketh or ſtereth one forwarde to doe a thynge.
Stimulatrix, the feminine.
Stimuleus, a, um, that is done with pryckynge.
Stimulo, aui, are, to pryche, to moue, to ſtere forwarde, to greeue.
Stimulare ad arma, to ſtere to warre.
Stimulus, li, maſ. ge. a gode, wherwith oxen are driuen, a pryche: by tranſlation euery thynge that ſtereth or moueth one to doe a thyng.
Admouere alicui ſtimulos, to pryche, to ſtere or moue one to dooe a thynge.
Veneris ſtimuli, incenſynges to fleſchely appetites.
Stingo, & ſtinguo, ſtinxi, guere, to putte out lyght.
Stipâ, for Stupa, towe.
Stipárius, a, um, perteinyng to ſtoppyng or beatyng harde together.
Stipátio, ônis, f. g. a bolſteryng or holdyng vp on euery ſyde.
Stipatóres, they whiche dooe kraite a ſhyppe, or laie in ſuch fardels or bourdeyns, as are to bee caried. Alſo they whiche be of a kynges garde, alwaie aboute his perſone.

Stipâtus, a, um, inuironned with men to bee defended, as princes are with their garde.
Stipendiális, le, perteinyng to wages.
Stipendiárius, a, um, whiche paieth tribute, of ſome called contributorie to the kyndynge of an armie or defence of a countrey.
Populi ſtipendiarij, people that paie certaine tribute.
Stipendiarium vectigal, a certaine and ordinarie tribute.
Stipendiatus, he that taketh wages.
Stipendiôſus, a, um, that hath ben often tymes hired or reteined in warres.
Stipendior, aris, ari, to be hyred or reteined in warres.
Stipendium, dij, n. ge. wages proprely geuen to ſouldiours. alſo ſubſidie paied to princes.
Confectis ſtipendiis, when the tyme of their ſeruice was out.
Stipendiis duobus, two the firſte yeres that he was in wages.
Stipendia facere, to ſerue in warres as a ſouldiour.
Facere ſtipendia pedibus, to bee a foote man in warres.
Decernere ſtipendium, to appointe wages for ſouldiours.
Emeritis ſtipendiis libidinis, ambitionis, contentionis, when he can for age no longer geue hym ſelfe to lecherie, ambition, contencion.
Stipes, ſtipitis, maſc. gen. a logge that is ſet faſt in the grounde, a ſtake. alſo a ſticke: by tranſlacion a foole, a dull head, one that hath no witte.
Stiphelus, one of the Lapithes
Stipo, aui, are, to ſtoppe chinkes or cleftes, properly in ſhippes or botes with towe and pytche, alſo to inuiron to the intent to defende one.
Stips, vel ſtipis, pis, f. g. wages to men hyred. alſo money geuen to beggars.
Stipem confert, it bringeth in gayne.
Stipem ſpargere, to ſowe money amonge people, to geue a largeſſe.
Stipticus, a, um, that ſtoppeth.
Stiptica medicamenta, medicines that dooe bynde or reſtrayne.
Stipula, læ, fœ. g. holme, erige or ſtrawe. apte to thatch houſes, it is of ſome taken for ỹ huſk that cloſeth in the ſtraw. alſo ſtubble or ſtrawe lefte in the fielde after the corne is reaped.
Stipulátio, ônis, a ſolemne couenant or greement made with woordes ordinarie and accuſtomed in the lawe: wherin he that is demaunded of an othe, anſwereth, that he will dooe or geue the thynge whiche is required, a bargayne or promiſe or obligacion to paie money, or to performe a thyng, whiche is required.
Acceptam ferre ſtipulationem, to acquite or diſcharge one of a promiſe or couenaunte made to vs.
Stipulatiúncula, a diminutiue of Stipulatio.

Stipu-

Stipulator, oris, m. g. he that byndeth an other by requiryng or aſkyng a thyng of hym: or he, of whom a thyng is required.

Stipulatus, us, m. g. idem quod Stipulatio.

Stipulor, aris, ari, to require or demande a thing to be geuen to hym, or doone for hym, with the ordinarie and accuſtomed wordes of the law, to require afore by couenaunte, to make a bargayne, to promiſe effectually that whiche he is required to doo. it hath bothe the actiue and paſſiue ſignification. Stipulor abs te, I require of the, or I am required of the.

Stiria, æ, f. g. an iſicle or droppe of iſe.

Stiria, a countrey ioynyng to Auſtria and Carinthia in the eaſt parte of Germanie, full of mountaynes, ſauyng a litteil parte bordryng on Hungarie: the people be rude, and the women haue ſo great throtes by the corruption of the water and aire, that not onely their ſpeche is let therby, but (as ſome doe write) whē they geue ſuche to their children, ſome be fayne to caſt the bagges, whiche dwe hange vnder their chinne, ouer their ſhulders. In that countrey is plentie of iron and ſiluer, if the negligence of people dyd not let the fyndyng therof.

Stirpidium, dij, n. g. the droppyng of a houſe.

Stirpeſco, ſcere, to growe to a ſtemme, to ſpryng vp.

Stirpices, weeders in gardeins.

Stirpitus, an aduerbe, vp by the roote.

Stirpo, aui, are, to pull vp by the roote.

Stirps, ſtirpis, in the feminine gendre, ſignifieth a ſtocke in kynrede: being the maſculine gendre, it ſignifieth the ſtemme of a tree or herbe.

Stirpes, be alſo ſhootes that ſpryng or grow out of the rootes.

Stirps quæſtionis, id eſt, origo, fundamentum.

Stirpe ad eum bona redierunt, the goodes be fallen to hym, for that he is nerte of his kynne.

Striua, ux, fœ. ge. is that in a plough, whiche the plough man holdeth when he doeth eare, the plough tayle.

Stlata, tæ, fœ. gen. a brode ſhippe or bote, called an hulke.

Stlatārius, rij, m. g. he that conueigheth or carieth in ſuche a veſſell, or he that maketh them.

Stlatārius, a, um, that is brought or caried in ſuche a veſſell.

Stlembus, bi, m. g. ſlow and heauy.

Stlitem, olde writers vſed for litem, variance.

Stlitibus iudicandis, for lubus iudicandis.

Stlopus, pi, m. ge a ſoune made with the mouth when the cheekes are blowen.

Stlotium, for lotium.

Sto, ſteti, ſtare, to ſtande on the feete, it is alſo ſpoken of ſuche thinges as haue no life, as ſhippes, riuers. &c. alſo to endure or abide, to continue in ones opinion, to take parte with one, to maintayne ones quarell, to obey.

Stare promiſſo, To abide by his promiſſe, to kepe promiſe. to be full.

Stat ager ſentibus, the fielde is full of brembles.

Iam puluere cœlum ſtare vident, nowe ſaw they the ſkie full of duſte. Alſo to be immouable or awaie certayne.

Sic ſtat ſententia, ſo the ſentēce abydeth immouable, or it is determined, or I am vtterly determined appointed or mynded.

Alſo ſtat, my mynde is.

Stat conferre manum Aeneæ, my mynde is to fight with Eneas, or I am determined or appoynted. &c.

Stat, is ſet.

Omnis in Aſcanio chari ſtat cura parentis, all the care of the tender louynge father was ſet on Aſcanius.

Alſo ſtare, to coſte.

Nec ipſe hoc periculum ignoro, expertus non leue documento, quanti ſteterit mihi, quod ſemel imparata non feci, neither am I ignorant of that daunger, hauynge experience of no light warnyng, howe muche it coſte me that I dyd not thoſe thynges that I was commaunded.

Stare firmum, to ſtande faſte.

Stat per me, per te, per illum, when I or any other is the cauſe that a thyng is not done.

Si poterit fieri, vt ne pater per me ſtetiſſe credat, quo minus hæ fierent nuptiæ, volo, if it might be brought to paſſe, that my father maie thynke, that it was not long of me, that this mariage tooke none effecte, I wolde it were ſo.

Stat à me, he is of myne opinion.

Stat apud te fides parum, thou art of a ſmall credence, thou haſte not kepte promiſe, or thou haſte not donne that thou promiſedſt.

In acie ſtare, to be in the fielde or tāpe redy euery houre to fight.

Statur, I ſtande here.

Stare & fugere, contrarie, to ſtande by it and flee awaie.

Stat à cauſa bonorum, he defendeth the quarell of good men, or taketh parte with good men.

A ſe potius quam ab aduerſariis ſtare, To take parte with hym rather then his aduerſaries.

Si ſteterit idem, if he doo abyde ſtill in the ſame mynde and purpoſe.

Quod non in æquo illis ſtetimus, becauſe we were not equall with them.

Stamus animis, yet we haue good courage, and doo not feare or deſpeire.

Animo ſtare and Decipere, contrarie.

Quo ſatis certo authore ſteur, to whom a man might truſte, or whom a man might beleue as a ſure and credible author.

Conditionibus & conuentis ſtare, to kepe all conditions and couenantes.

Cum is contra populi ſtudium ſtetiſſet, when he had withſtand or reſiſted the peoples purpoſe or mynde.

Stare à mendacio contra verum, to maintayne a falſe lie againſt the trouthe.

Cum

Cum illo haud stares, thou woldest not take parte with hym or defende hym.
Decreto senatus stare, to obey the ordinaunce of the Senate.
In fide non stetit, he kept not promise.
Ad finem stare, id est, durare, to continue to the ende.
Stare fabula dicitur, when it dooeth please the audience.
Iudicio alicuius stare, to sticke to ones iudgement, to beleue one more then other.
Meliore loco stare, to be in better state and condition.
Ea omnes stant sententia, they all be of that opinion, or bide and sticke to that opinion.
Magno mihi stetit, it coste me much, I bought it deere.
Quum in senatu pulcherrime staremus, when the matter went verp well with vs in the senate.

Stebe, bes, fœ. ge. a certayne herbe, whiche hath stalke and leaues prched, and groweth onely in watrie groundes.

Stoecades, thre iles in the frenche sea agaynst Languedocke.

Stoecas, cadis, an herbe and floure, commonly called Sticados.

Stoecas Arabica, commonly called of apothecaries Sticades Arabica, the one and the other preserueth clothes from mothes, if it be laied among them.

Stoice, ices a stoike.

Stoici, a secte of philosophiers, whiche affirmed, that no greefe might happen to a wise man, & that felicitee was onely in vertue.

Stoicus, ca, cum, of the stoikes.

Stola, læ, fœ. ge. a womans gowne. it was also a long garment, which the princes of Persia did vse: and was the onely garment of honour, as we doe call suche apparaile a robe.

Stolátus, a, um, that weareth suche a robe. also it maie be called honourable: also honest, or that becometh an honest matrone.

Stolide, foolishely, lewdly.

Stólidus, a, um, foolishe, lewde of condicions, odiouse.

Stolo, a citezyn of Rome.

Stolo, ónis, ma. ge. a branche, whiche sprpngeth out of the stemmes or rootes of trees.

Stomaca, cæ, fœm. gen. a well in Germanie, or rather a disease, that the drinking of that water breedeth.

Stómachans, antis, om. gen. angrie, moued, fumyng.

Stomáchicus, a, um, that is liche in his stomake. also that hath the nature or strengthe to open.

Stómachor, aris, ári, to haue indignacion, to be vexed in mynde, to be angrie and moued, to be in a great fume.
Mecum stomachabar, I was angrie, or in a fume with my selfe.

Stomachosé, angrely, hatefully, disdeignously.

Stomachósus, a, um, disdeignous, soone moued to indignacion and displeasure, that is quickely angrie.
Res stomachosa, a thynge that breedeth anger and despite.

Stómachus, chi, m. gen. the pipe, wherby meate goeth downe. it is also that whiche is called Ventriculus, whereunto we haue none other name but the stomake. sometyme it signifieth indignacion, vehement wrathe, hatred, and abhorrynge of a thyng that liketh vs not. sometyme facilitee or gentilnesse, the mynde, will, or appetite of a man, that abhorreth or delyteth in a thyng.
Stomachi dissolutio, vomite.
Resolutio stomachi, when the stomake letteth the meate passe without concoction and nourishyng of the body.
Laborare stomacho, to bee diseased in the stomake.
Mei stomachi hæc est natura, this is the nature of my mynde, appetite or facion.
Ludi apparatissimi, sed non tui stomachi, but not suche as you woulde haue: but suche as you doe not delite in.
Stomacho suo viuere, to liue after his owne fantasie or mynde.
Argumentum huius stomachi mei habebis, of myne honestee or gentilnesse of mynde.
Bonum stomachum, Martialis pro æquanimi posuit.
Et bono sane stomacho cõtenti sunt, and thei be contented with the good will or mynde of the persone.
Vescires me in stomacho solere ridere, To laugh when I am displeased and wrathe.
Epistola plena stomachi & querelarum, a letter full of indignacion and complaintes or quarellynges.
Stomachum facere and mouere, to moue, to make angrie and wrath, to doe a despite.
Stomacho esse dicitur res aliqua, that maketh one moued and wrathe.
Ne in me stomachum erũpant, that they make not vtter theyr malice and anger against me.

Stomáticus, a, um, that hath a soze in the mouthe.

Stomoma, matis, neu. ge. a kynde of pouder or duste, that commeth from brasse in melting and tryng.

Storax, ácis, a sweete incense or gumme, whiche is also called Styrax, wherof be two kyndes: the one is called Storax calamita, the other Storax liquida.

Stórea, æ, f. g. any thyng that is spreadde on the grounde. it is also a matte.

Strabo, a lerned man, whiche wrote of Geographie.

Strabo, bónis, m. ge. he that loketh a squinte, or gogle eied.

Stra-

Stages, gis, f. g. a slaughter of men, or a discomfeture, a multitude of men slayne.
Stragē dare & edere, to sley a great multitude of men.
Stragona, a citie of Germanie.
Stragula, læ, f. g. and Stragulum, li, n. g. euery ouermost garment, any couerynge that is layed vppon a bedde, hoyse or other thynge, a counterpoynt.
Stragula vestis, a counterpointe, a coueried.
Straměn, stráminis, n. g. strawe, litter.
Stramentum, ti, n. g. idem.
Stramentitius, a, um, that is made of strawe.
Stramineus, a, um, of strawe.
Strangulátio, ónis, f. g. strangelynge, chokynge, stoppyng.
Strangulátus, us, m. g. idem.
Strangulátus, a, um, strangled, choked.
Strángulo, aui, are, to strangle, to choke, to thrattell.
Strangulare segetes dicitur terræ lætitia.
Stranguria, æ, f. g. difficultee to pisse, the strangurie.
Strategēma, or Strategema, matis, n. g. a policie or wise counsell in warres.
Strategia, a capitainehippe, a gouernyng of soudiours.
Strategus, gi, m. g. a generall capitayne of an armie.
Strationes, tis, masc. ge. a man of warre. also an herbe, whiche John Agricola saieth, is our milfoyle or parowe.
Strationicus, a, um, warrelyke, perteinynge to warres.
Stratius, a, um, idem.
Stratius, the name of one of Nestors soonnes.
Stratiphocles, a mannes name.
Strato, the name of diuers noble lerned men.
Strator, óris, m. g. he that helpeth his maister to hoyse bache, yeoman of the sterroppe.
Stratum, ti, n. g. any thinge that is strawed. also a bedde.
Strata, all that is laied on the bedde. also a hoyse harneis, a strete or causey paued with stone.
Stratúmino, aui, are, to paue.
Stratúra, æ, f. g. paueng of causets or waies.
Stratus, a, um, spred abrode, couered, paued.
Via strata, a causey.
Strębula, in the olde tongue of Umbri, was a pece of the flesshe, that was offered in sacrifice.
Strena, næ, f. g. a newe yeres gefte or present.
Strenue, valiantly, quickely, boldely, with a courage, manly, with great diligence.
Strenuitas, átis, f. g. actiuitee.
Strenuus, a, um, valiant, prompt, actiue, bolde, lieger, doughty, stoute.
Strenuum hominem præbuit, he plaied the hardy man, he shewed him selfe a man.
Facies strenua, a manly and valiant countenance.
Strépito, aui, are, to make a noyse often, to make a great noyse.
Strépitus, us, m. g. a noyse made with the handes or feete, a creking, a crakyng. also the trayne or company that goeth with a noble man.
Strepitus vitæ, poztlynesse of lyuyng.
Strepo, pui, pere, to make a great noise, properly in goyng or clappynge of handes: sometyme generally: sometyme to mutter or murmour.
Strepsicerōn, certayne beastes in Affrike, hauinge croked hoznes.
Stria, æ, fœ. g. a rebbat or small furrow made in stone or tymber, chamferyng: after Vitruuius description Stria seemeth to bee the boltell or thynge that riseth vp betwene the two chanels, and Strix the chanell it selfe or chamferynge.
Striátus, a, um, chamfered, chanelled, wrought inwarde.
Striata frons, a frownyng forehead.
Striata folia, leaues, in which creueles or small lines are seen.
Stribligo, liginis, f. g. a vicious fourme in speakynge, where the woordes agree not, and the partes of speche be out of ozder.
Striblita, bzeadde made ipke to ropes or coydes wounden.
Strichnos, called also Solanum, the herbe called night shade or petit morell.
Stricte, streictly.
Strictim, shortely touched one after an other in few woordes.
Strictim referre, to repozte muche in fewe woordes.
Strictim attondere, to clippe all at ones.
Strictior, tius, moze streicte.
Strictissimus, a, um, moste streicte.
Strictinella, a foule ill fauoured harlotte.
Strictiuus, a, um, that is gathered or cropped off with the hande.
Strictiuæ oleæ, olyues gathered with mans hande.
Strictúra, ræ, f. ge. a sparke, whiche dooeth issue from mettall, when it is taken out of the fyre and beaten with hammers. also ryon ooze.
Strictus, a, um, streicte. also drawen out as a swoozde is.
Strictus gladius, a swoozde drawen.
Stridens, entis, makyng a noise
Strideo, dui, dére, & Strido, dis, dere, to crasshe or make a noyse ipke to coydes, whan they bee drawen.
Stridon, a towne in Dalmatia, where saincte Hierome was borne.
Stridor, óris, m. g. a noyse, a crasshyng, a gnasshyng.
Stridor pennæ, the flutteryng of a feather.
Stridulus, a, um, that maketh a crakyng or noise.
Striga, gæ, f. g. a rewe of thynges when they bee laied in lengthe. Also a ridge of lande, wherof cometh Strigatus ager.
Striges, gis, a kynde of corne.
Strigia, wyde garmentes made of leather, vsed in warres warres.

Strigilis, lis, f. g. an hoyſe combe. alſo a lyke inſtrumente made of golde, ſyluer, yron or ſtone, that men vſed in bayngne to rubbe filthe from their bodies, as they doe now kerchiefes. alſo a thyng, wherwith wraſtlers bounde their bodies, when they had wraſtled. alſo a certaine veſſell.

Strigiles, were rubbyng cõbes made of ſweete woodde, wherwith in Jndia the men were rubbed for an exercyſe. Alſo kerchiefes, wherwith wraſtlers after their labours wiped their bodies. alſo pieces of fine golde foũde in mines vnmixte with any other matter. alſo litteli fiſſhes, moſt commonly taken in winter tyme. alſo chanelles in imbowed woyſes.

Strigilécula, a diminutiue of Strigilis.

Strigilo, aui, are, to ſtreigne harde.

Strigium, gij, n. g. a ſpaniſſhe garmente.

Strigimentum, ti, n. g. filthynelle, whiche commeth from a mans body, whan he is waſhed. it maie be vſed for a truſſyng poynte.

Strigmentum olei, the filthe of oyle rubbed of ſcraped of wraſtlers bodies, wherewith they were annointed.

Strigmenta, bee ſometyme the parynges of cucumbers or ſuche lyke fruite.

Strigo, gõnis, m. g. a well pyght man, or well compacte and ſtronge.

Strigõſus, a, um, carrayne leane, it is proprely ſpoken of hoyſes or routher beaſtes.

Strigoſus orator, a barraine oratour, that hath no pleaſantneſſe or grace in his ſtyle, or that is voide of all good matter or pleaſant eloquence.

Strimon, onis, a riuer in Thracia.

Stringo, ſtrinxi, gere, to ſtreigne or wrynge, to truſſe. alſo to ſtrike, to make thinne in cutting, to gather, to ſhaue, to wounde.

Stringere enſem, to draw a ſwoorde.

Stringe me, truſſe me.

Denſas ſtringunt frondes, id eſt amputant, rarefaciunt.

Stringere arbores, to prune trees.

Stringere lauri baccas, to plucke or gather with the handes.

Stringere ripas, to touche in paſſing or flowing by, to beate againſte.

Hunc primum leuis haſta ſtrinxerat, id eſt, vulnerauerat.

Strio, aui, are, to make rebattes, chanelles or ſhamfrynges in ſtone or tymber. alſo to make furrowes. it is alſo when beaſtes in earynge at the ende of a furrowe turne to make a new furrowe: ſome dooe call it, to wynde.

Stritauus, olde writers vſed for Tritauus, my grandefathers grandefather.

Stritomellus, a ſparroe, whiche haunteth the ſea coſte.

Strix, ſtrigis, fœ. ge. a ſhricheoule, a witche that chaungeth the fauour of childzen, the hegge or fairie. alſo a chanel in rabatyng of pillours. alſo Striges are groſſe herbes or wooztes.

Ströbilus, li. fœ. g. a pyne appull. ſometyme the hernelles of fruite. alſo a kynde of wylde pine trees. alſo a certayne thiſtill, which hath a heed or knappe in facion lyke a pyne appull. alſo Ströbilus in latine, ſignifieth Cochlea.

Strobus, bi, f. g. a tree, wherof perfumes were made, mixte with the wyne of dates, whiche perfume was ſweete, but it made the heade heauy, albe it without any peyne.

Stroma, ſtrómatis, neu. ge. tapeſtry, any thynge ſpread on the grounde, or vnderneth a thinge.

Strombon, a kinde of Labdanum.

Strombus, bi, m. g. a ſhell fiſſhe of the ſea, which haue a king, whom they folow: it was thought ſometyme, that he whiche had ſeen that fiſſhe, ſhoulde haue good lucke in his affaires.

Strongyle, les, and Strongylos, an ile in the ſea Aegeum, now called Axos: ſometyme it was called Dia.

Stropha, phæ, f. g. ſubtillitee in arguyng, a wyly deceite.

Strophas, a whirlyng or ſodaine turnyng.

Strophades, two iles in the Greche ſea.

Strophiárius, rij, he that maketh garlandes.

Ströphium, phij, n. g. a garlande, which priſtes were wont to weare: a maidens kercheefe or lynnen partlette.

Strophiólum, li, n. g. a litteli garlande.

Strophius, a kyng of Phocis.

Strophos, frettyng in the bowels.

Structilis, le, made of many peces, or of diuers thinges.

Structiles columnæ, pillours made of diuers pieces.

Structor, ôris, m. ge. a caruer or ſewer at the table, or rather a maiſter cooke. alſo a builder, a carpenter or maſon.

Structúra, ræ, f. g. buildyng, ſettyng of thynges in good order.

Structus, a, um, ſet in order, builded, made.

Strues, is, f. g. a pile of woodde. alſo a cake.

Strufectari, to carie cakes to the temple to be offered, as they dooe now carie the holy loſe on the ſondaie.

Strufetarij, thei that did ſacrifice at the trees that were burned with lightnynge.

Strufetani, thei that brought meale to be offered.

Struices, an ordinance of many thinges to gether.

Struma, a mans name in Catullus.

Struma, mæ, f. ge. a ſwellynge within the throte whiche is gathered mattier and bloudde. ſome thinke it to be that, whiche is called the kynges euell.

Strumea, an herbe, whiche beggars vſe to make their fleſhe rawe. it is the fourth kynde of Ranunculus.

Strumõſus, a, um, that hath the kinges euell.

Strumum, a medicine or plaiſter for the kinges euell.

Struo, ſtruxi, ſtruere, to ſette in order, facion or arraie, to builde, to make a frame: by tranſlacion, cion, to imagine or go about to do a thyng.

Aggeres ſtruere, To make cauſeis or bulwarkes.
Fercula luxurioſe ſtruere, to make ſumptuous feaſtes.
Mendacium ſtruere, to forge a lye.
Orationem ſolutam ſtruere, to write in proſe.
Verba ſtruere, to ſet his woordes in order.
Num me fefellit hoſce id ſtruere, was I deceyued when I ſaied theſe felowes went about ſuche a thyng.
Struebantur qui monerent perfugere, id eſt, inſtruebantur.
Aciem ſtruere, to ſet ſouldiours in araie of battaile.
Conuiuia ſtruere, to make feaſtes.
Crimen alicui ſtruere, to imagine ſome great faute to laie to ones charge: to go about to accuſe one falſely of ſome haynous offence.
Inſidias alicui ſtruere, to laie an ambuſhemēt to attrappe one: by tranſlacion to go about to deceyue, to woorke wiles with one.
Medicina ſtruitur dolori, a medicine, or remedy is prepared for that greefe.
Odium ſtruere in aliquē, to go about to bring one in hatred and diſpleaſure of men.
Opes ſtruere, to heape vp riches, to gather riches.
Periculum ruinæ ſtruere, to woorke meanes to make one haue a fall.
Bellum ſtruitur, prouiſion is made for warre.
Conſilia ſtruere, to conſulte and take aduiſement.
Struere ignem, to make a fire.
Strupearia, holy daies amonge the people called Phaliſci, at the whiche daie the people doe go with garlandes on theyr heades.
Struppum, is a lyke holy daye among the people called Tuſculani.
Struppi, were littell wyethes made of leaues, put on the heades of images in the temples, as now ſuperſticious fooles dooe ſet on images heades in the churches.
Struthcus, the priuie membre of a man.
Struthia mala, and Struthiomēla, a certayne kynde of quinces.
Struthio camelus, li, m. g. an oſtriche.
Struthio, onis, idem.
Struthion, an herbe and roote, called of apothecaries Condiſi.
Struthium, thij, a ſparoe.
Struthopus, a round kynde like a ſparoe.
Struthopedes, they which haue littell round feet.
Strychnus, an herbe, which maketh men madde that eate of it.
Strychnum bibit, a prouerbe, ſignifiyng the man is madde.
Strychnon, ni, n. g. an herbe, called nightſhade, rede Solanum and ſolatrum.
Strymon, ſtrymonis, a ryuer of Thrace.
Strymónius, a, um, of that riuer.

Studeo, dui, dēre, to ſtudie, to applie the minde, or care for a thynge, to endeuoir, to fauour, to deſyre, to geue his diligence, to geue his mynde or affection to a thyng, to goe about, to haue a deſire or mynd, to phantaſie.
Studuit Catilinæ, he fauoured Catiline, or tooke part with Catiline.
Dum ſtudes verba dare nobis, while thou dooeſt endeuour or goe about to begyle vs.
Studeo exte audire, I wold faine here of you.
Studet meus audire Cicero, my Cicero hath a great mynde, deſyre, or phantaſie to here.
Nouis rebus ſtudebat, he indeuoired or went about to trouble the common weale: or to haue a mutacion or alteration of the common weale.
Studet elegantiæ, he indeuoireth to be nete and minion, he geueth his mynde to be trimme and cleanly.
Artibus & literis ſtudere, to geue his ſtudie and mynde to learnyng.
Laudi & dignitati ſtudere, to couette prayſe and honour.
Studere pecuniæ, to geue his mynd to get money.
Student magis mellificiis, they labour more to make honny.
Minus has res ſtudeant, they woulde deſyre or couette thoſe thynges the leſſe, they would fantaſie theſe thynges the leſſe.
Vnum ſentiis omnes, vnum ſtudetis, you all be of one mynde, you deſyre all one thyng.
In id ſolum ſtudent, they labour or indeuour this onely.
Studioſe, ſtudiouſely, deſyrouſely, diligētly, with diligence and affection of the mynde.
Studioſus, a, um, ſtudious, diligent, conſtant, addict or feruently diſpoſed. alſo that fauoureth or loueth, that ſetteth or geueth his mynde to a thyng, deſyrous of learnyng, that hath a great deſyre of a thyng.
Studioſus literarum, a ſtudiouſe perſon and geuen to learnyng.
Studioſa quæſtio, id eſt, literata & docta.
Studioſus laudis, deſyrous of prayſe.
Studioſus Cæſaris, Cæſars friende, one that fauoureth or loueth Cæſar.
Pilæ ſtudioſi, that haue a great deſire to plaie at the ball.
Venandi ſtudioſi, geuen to hunting.
Tui ſimilium ſtudioſi ſunt, they fauour and loue ſuche men as you be.
Mei ſtudioſiſsimus, my great friende, and that loueth me exceedyngly.
Nobilitatis ſtudioſus, that fauoureth the part of the nobilitee.
Studium, dij, n. g. an erneſt bendyng or ſetting of the mind on a thyng, a great affection or deſire that one hath to do a thyng good or ill, ſtudie: ſometyme exercyſe, endeuour, will or appetite, fantaſie, deſire, diligence, labour, fauour, loue. ſometyme a thyng that one fantaſieth.

Scin-

Scinditur incertum ſtudia in contraria vulgus, the vnſtedfaſt people was diuided in diuers opinions.

Viris eſſe aduorſas æque ſtudium eſt, they all haue lyke deſire or delite to ouerthwarte theyr huſbandes.

Tantum fuit in militibus ſtudium, the ſouldiours had ſo great an affection or deſyre.

Quibus militia in ſtudio eſt, which haue a deſire or delite to exercyſe them ſelfe in warre.

In quibus eſt ſtudium, whiche haue a deſire to lerne.

Studium tuum in me, your good will or affection towarde me.

Quãtum meum ſtudium fuerit dignitatis tuæ tuendæ, how great an affection or deſire I had to maintaine your honour.

Tui vnius ſtudio me eſſe qui poſſe confido, I truſte ſurely that I maie attaine it by your onely diligence and labour.

Quo ſtudio vitam tranſegerit, in what occupation or exercyſe he hath ledde his life.

Verſari in ſtudio literarum, to be exercyſed or occupied in the ſtudie of lernyng.

Efferor ſtudio videndi, I haue a verie erneſt deſyre to ſee.

Studio accuſari, to accuſe or blame of affectiõ.

Quàm iniquus es præ ſtudio? howe vnreaſonable ye are for affection.

Studio reipublicæ dixiſſe, that he ſpake it of a good affection, fauour, or loue that he bare towarde the common weale.

Acquirere ſtudia vulgi, to gette the fauour of the common people.

Diſſimili ſtudio eſt, his mind affection or fantaſie is geuen to other thynges.

Studióne id ſibi habet? hath he a delite or pleaſure in it? is it a pleaſure to hym?

Stulté, foolyſhely, vnwiſely.

Stulté arrogans, foolyſhely proude.

Stultiloquéntia, æ, fœm. g. and Stultiloquium, quii, neu. gen. a foolyſche babblyng, foolyſche talke.

Stultiloquus, he that talketh or ſpeaketh foolyſhely.

Stultitia, æ, folie, foolyſhneſſe.

Stultus, a, um, that dooeth a thynge vnaduiſedly or without diſcretion, foolyſche.

Stultior Moricho, he that neglecteth his own buſineſſe at home, and applieth other mens abrode. it is alſo a prouerbe, touchynge theim, which dwe thinges that cauſe theim to be laughed to ſcorne.

Stultior Chorœbo, a prouerbe, applied to fooles, which will aſſaie to do a thing that is aboue their wit or lernyng. for Chorœbus was a fellowe, that aſſaied to numbre the waues of the ſea, whan he hym ſelf couldo not tell any numbre aboue fiue.

Stultorum feriæ, was a tyme in the moneth of Februarie, that fooles hepte holy, fooles holy daie.

Stupa, or Stypa, pæ, fœ. gen. towe, or hirdes, the courſe parte of flaxe.

Stupárius, a, um, belongyng to towe.

Stuparius malleus, the hammer, wherwith ſaylhars dwe beate towe into ſhippes or boates.

Stupefácio, pefacis, feci, facere, to make aſtonied, or to cauſe to meruayle, or be abaſhed.

Stupefactus, a, um, aſtonied.

Stupeſio, I am aſtonied or abaſhed.

Stupens, entis, aſtonied, amaſed, in great admiracion.

Stupeo, pui, pere, to be aſtonied, to be amaſed or diſmaied. ſometyme to meruaile at, to be in a great admiracion.

Stupere aliquem, to wonder at one, to haue one in great admiracion.

Stupentia vel ſtupida membra, the membres whiche haue loſte all their ſenſe or feelyng.

Stupeſco, ſcere, to become aſtonied or amaſed.

Stupeus, a, um, of hirdes, or of towe.

Stupiditas, ãtis, f. g. idem quod Stupor.

Stúpidus, a, um, diſmaied, abaſhed, aſtonied: alſo he that feeleth nothynge, or lacketh his ſenſes. ſometyme foolyſhe, he that perceyueth nothyng that is doen.

Stupor, pôris, ma. ge. abaſhement, the lothyne pꝛiuation of ſenſe or feelyng, aſtonyng of the mynde, that one perceyueth not what is doen.

Stuprátor, ôris, m. g. an aduoutrer.

Stuprè, diſhoneſtly, ſhamefully.

Stupro, aui, are, to commit auoutrie or rape, or to deflowre a virgin.

Stuprôſus, a, um, corrupte, geuen to aduoutrie and hoordome.

Stuprum, pri, n. ge. auoutrie or deflowryng of a virgin, hoordome.

Facere ſtuprum cum aliqua, to cõmitte auoutrie with one.

Inferre ſtuprum virgini, to rauiſhe a maiden.

Illicere in ſtuprum, to intice to naughtineſſe.

Sturæ, an ile againſt the mouthe of Tyber.

Sturnus, ni, m. ge. a kynde of byrdes that flee in flockes, called a ſterling, or a ſtare.

Stygia, a fenne in Aegypte not farre from the citee of Memphis.

Stygius, a, um, pertaynyng to Styx, the greatte fenne.

Stylis, lis, a litteli pillour.

Stylóbata, batæ, fœm. gener. a trowe of tymber, wherin water rennech, or is conueighed into a ceſterne.

Stylus, li, m. gene. a pillour ſharpe towarde the toppe, alſo an inſtrumente to wꝛite in tables. Alſo a ſtyle, whiche is qualitee of woordes in ſpeakyng, ſometyme harde, ſometyme eaſie, ſometyme in a meane: alſo an elegant fourme or order in wꝛityng or ſpeakyng. Alſo anythynge made of iron, tymber, or other matter, ſharpe lyke a pillour.

Stylus, is ſometyme vſed for Stolo, a ſhoote, that that ſpryngeth out of a tree.

Stymma, matis, n. g. the groſſe or thicke matter of any oyntement.

Stymphálides aues, byrdes ſuppoſed to bee ſo bigge, that they ſhadowe all the ſonne beames, whiche waſted the countrey of Arcadie.

Stymphalius, a, um, of Stymphalus.

Stymphálus, a riuer or poole of Arcadie.

Stymphálum, a towne by the ſaied poole of Arcadie.

Styrax, ácis, maſcu. gene. a ſoote gumme called Storax, wherof be two kyndes, the one is called Storax calamita, the other Storax liquida, whiche is Stacte. alſo a tree, out of the whiche that gumme iſſueth.

Styx, ſignifieth ſorowe or heauineſſe, portes dwe regne, that it is a fenne or riuer in hell, by the whiche the goddes vſed to ſweare: in deede it is a well of Arcadie, the water wherof is a verie ſtronge poyſon, ſo extreme colde, that nothyng can conteyne it, but the houfe of a mule.

SVada, æ, fœm. gen. called in Greeke Pitho, was called the goddeſſe of eloquence or diſlectable ſpeche.

Suadéla, læ, f. g. perſuaſion, faire ſpeeche.

Suadeo, ſi, dére, to ſpeake faire, to intreate with fayre wooydes, to endeuoire to induce a man into our opinion, or to beleeue vs, to exhorte, to counſaile.

Legem ſuadere, to ſhewe reaſons to men why they ſhoulde admitte a lawe.

Pacem ſuadere, to exhort to peace.

Sualternicum, ci, n. g. a kynde of aumber, which is yelowe, wherof beades be made, and is called laumbre.

Suamet, the ablatiue caſe of Sui, with the addition met.

Suapte, of his owne nature.

Suarius, rij, m. g. a ſwyne herde.

Suarius, a, um, belongyng to ſwyne.

Suasibilis, le, that maie be perſuaded.

Suaſibiliter, an aduerbe, ſignifiyng in maner to perſuade.

Suaſio, ônis, f. gen. an exhortation, a motion or perſuaſion.

Suaſor, ſóris, maſc. gen. he that dooeth exhorte, he that indeuoireth to induce an other to his opinion.

Suaſórius, a, um, that perteineth to exhortyng or counſailyng.

Suaſum, ſi, n. ge. euery colour, that maie be turned into an other colour.

Suaue, idem quod, Suauiter.

Suauiátio, ônis, a ſweete kyſſyng.

Suauiátor, óris, m. g. he that kylleth ſweetely.

Suauídicus, a, um, that ſpeaketh pleaſantly.

Suauiloquéntia, æ, fœ. g. ſweete and pleaſaunte ſpeache.

Suauilóquium, quij, n. g. a ſweete ſpeche.

Suauiolum, li, n. g. a litteil kyſſe.

Suauilaquus, a, um, and Suauiloquens, entis, that ſpeaketh ſweetely.

Suatim, ſythe a ſowe.

Suáuior, áris, ari, to kiſſe ſweetely, or for ioye.

Suauis, ſuaue, ſweete in taſte, ſoote in odour or ſmell: in a man it ſignifieth gentyll or courteiſe, pleaſaunt.

Suauitas, átis, f. g. ſweeteneſſe, pleaſauntneſſe.

Suauiter, ſweetely.

Suauitúdo, dinis, f. g. idem quod ſuauitas.

Suauium, or Sauium, uij, n. g. a wanton kyſſe.

Suauium dare, to kyſſe.

Suauium ſumere, to kyſſe.

Suauium facere, idem.

Suauium, and Sauium, ſweete herte.

Sub, vnder, by, or about.

Sub idem tempus, in the ſame tyme, or about the ſame tyme.

Sub horam pugnæ, about the tyme of the battaple.

Sub eas autem redditæ ſunt, for they were deliuered after theim.

Sub ſarcinis, with the truſſes, fardels or cariage.

Sub veſperum, in the twye lyght.

Sub veſperum Cæſar portas claudi, militeſq; ex oppido exire iuſsit, in the twye lyght Cæſar commanded the gates to bee ſhutte, and the men of warre to depart out of the citee.

Sub Alexandro, in the tyme of Alexander.

Sub aduentu or aduentum, at the tyme or at the poynct of his arriuale or compyng.

Sub exitu vitæ, at his deathe, a litteil before his death.

Sub manu, at hande.

Sub oculis, in his preſence.

Sub vrbe, harde by the citee.

Sub lucem, at the breake of daie, by dais lyght.

Sub finem, at the ende.

Poſtes ſub ipſos, afore the poſtes.

Sub manu habere, to haue in hande.

Sub manu eſſe, to be at hande or redy.

Sub manu, after hand, forthwith.

Sub manus, eaſily, handſomely.

Bono animo es, negotium omne iam ſuccedit ſub manus, be of good chere, all the matter cometh to paſſe handſomely.

Lepidè hoc ſuccedit ſub manus negotiũ, this matter cometh well and eaſilye to paſſe.

Sub iugum mitti, to bee ſubdued. It was proverbially whan a battaile was vanquiſſhed, the vãquiſſhers cauſed three ſpeares to be ſet vp ſythe a galowes, and conſtreigned theym that were vanquiſſhed to goe vnderneth it, in token that they were ſubdued: which was the greateſt reproche that mought be deuiſed.

Sub poſtquàm literas ad te dedi, id eſt, ſtatim poſtquam, by and by after, incontinent as.

Sub ea conditione, on that condicion.
Sub dio, abrode in the ayre, without couert.
Sub ipſa die, about the ſame daie.
Sub ſpecie pacis, vnder the colour or pretence of peace.
Non ſtarim ſub mentionem, not incontinent, or by and by after it was ſpoken of.
Subabſurdus, a, um, ſomewhat abſurde or contrarie to reaſon.
Subabſurdè, ſomewhat abſurdely, ſomewhat fondly.
Subaccuſo, aui, are, to accuſe or blame ſomewhat.
Subacidulus, a, um, a littell ſower.
Subácidus, a, um, ſomewhat eager or ſower.
Subáctio, ônis, fœm. gen. exercyſe, labourynge of a thynge.
Subactus, a, um, conſtreigned, ſubdued, dryuen vnder, kneaded or wrought with handes, as dowe is laboured, exercyſed.
Subactum ingenium, a witte well exercyſed.
Subâmus, us, m. ge. idem quod Subactio, onis, the appetite or ſteering to generation in ſwine.
Subærâtus, a, um, that whiche is braſſe within and other mettall without.
Subæratum aurum, braſſe within and golde without.
Subæro, aui, are, to myngle with braſſe.
Subágito, aui, are, to ſolicite, alſo to grope or be buſie with one, to haue to dowe with a woman.
Subagito blandis & benedicis verbis, I ſolicited with kayre and well ſpoken woordes.
Subagreſtis, te, ſomewhat rude, or vncurteiſe, lachynge ciuilitee.
Subalâris, re, that whiche is vnder the wynges.
Subálbico, aui, are, to be ſomewhat white.
Subálbidus, a, um, ſomewhat white.
Subalpinus, a, um, that is vnder the Alpes.
Subalpini, people vnder the mountaines Alpes called Piemountaines.
Subalternátio, a ſucceſſion by tourne.
Subalterno, aui, are, to ſuccede by tourne.
Subamârus, a, um, ſomewhat bitter.
Subaquáneus, a, um, & Subaqueus, that whiche lyeth vnder the water.
Subáquilus, a, um, ſomewhat browen of colour.
Subare, is ſpoken of women, whiche are as filthy as ſwyne in the acte of lecherye.
Subareo, & Subareſco, ſcere, to be or ware ſomwhat drie.
Subargûtus, a, um, ſomewhat ſubtyle, ſomwhat ſhrille.
Subarátio, ônis, f. g. an earyng vnderneth.
Subarâtor, ôris, m. g. he that careth vnderneth.
Subáro, aui, are, to eare vnder.
Subárrogans, antis, ſomwhat arrogant or proud.
Subaroganter, ſomewhat proudely.
Subaſper, ſomewhat ſharpe.
Subáudio, iui, ire, to heare or perceiue a littell.
Subauſculto, aui, are, to herken a littell.
Subbaſilicânus, a, um, that walketh vnder the place where iudgementes are practiſed.
Subbibo, bibi, bibere, to drinke a littell, to ſippe.
Subbuteo, a kinde of haukes, called a ringe taile.
Sublandior, iris, iri, to flatter a littell.
Subcæ rulus, a, um, ſomewhat blew.
Subcálidus, a, um, ſomewhat hotte, warme.
Subcándidus, a, um, ſomewhat white.
Subcentúrio, ônis, f. g. a petie capitaine.
Subcernicula, læ, f. ge. a fine boulter, wherwith the floure is ſeuered from the branne.
Subcerniculum, i, n. g. a rayngeynge ſieue.
Subcineritius, a, um, roſted or bakē vnder the aſſhes or embres.
Subcingulum, li, n. g. a braſyng gyrdle.
Subciſiuus, a, um, idem quod Succiſiuus.
Subciſiua tempora, tymes borowed or ſpared from ſerious buſineſſe.
Subciſiua opera, workes donē at tymes ſtolen from ordinarie buſineſſe or labours neceſſarie.
Subcœno, aui, are, to make a ſhort ſupper, alſo to ſuppe vnder.
Subcollo, laui, lare, to laie a thyng vnder ones nethe.
Subcontumelioſè, ſomewhat diſpitefully, ſomwhat tauntyngly, or rigorouſely.
Subcontumeliôſus, a, um, ſomwhat ſpitefull and outragious in woordes.
Subcreſco, idem quod Succreſco.
Subcriſpus, a, um, that hath a head ſomewhat curled.
Subcrûdus, a, um, halfe rawe, not throughly boiled.
Subcruentus, a, um, ſomewhat blouddie.
Subcurâtor, ôris, m. g. he that hath the charge of a thyng vnder on other.
Subcuſtos, tôdis, m. g. an vnder keper.
Subcutáneus, a, um, that whiche is within the ſkynne, betweene the ſkynne and the fleſſhe.
Subdebilitâtus, a, um, ſomewhat weakened.
Subdelego, aui, are, to committe to an other any matter, whiche is committed vnto vs by the kyng or prince.
Subdialia, places to walke in without any couerynge.
Subdiâlis, le, abrode in ỹ ayre, without the hous.
Subdiales inambulationes, open walkes.
Subdifficilis, le, ſomewhat difficile or harde.
Subdio, that is not in a houſe or vnder couerynge.
Subditítius, a, um, whiche is not properly his or hirs, whoſe it is feigned to be, a changelynge, that is put or laied in the place of an other.
Partus ſubditítius or ſubditus, a birthe feigned of an other mans childe.
Libri ſubditíj, bookes with falſe titilles or counterfaite auctours.
Subditiuus, a, um, idem quod Subditítius.
Subditus, a, um, ſubiect, put or ſet vnder, counterfaite or ſet in the place of an other.
Subditus iudex, a iudge that is ſet in the place of a iudge that is departed.

Subdiu,

Subdiu, in the date tyme.
Subdo, didi, ere, to put vnder, to adde, to putte in the place of an other, to put in ieopardie or daunger.
Subdere in locum alterius, to remoue one, and put an other in his place.
Calcaria subdere, to thruste to the spurres.
Puerum subdere, to change a childe, whiche children be called commonly changelynges.
Subdere spiritus, to geue one courage, or to make one proude or stately.
Stimulos subdere, to pricke forwarde.
Subdere sub solum, to put or burie vnder the grounde.
Subdere boues iugo, to yoke oxen.
Ignem ac materiam seditionis subdere, to encrease, augment, and set forwarde a sedition.
Reum subdere, to accuse.
Subdoceo, subdoces, cui, ere, to teache somewhat, to teache meanely.
Subdole, craftily, cautously, wittily, discretly.
Subdolus, a, um, that deceiueth craftily, cautously, full of discretes and wyles, deceitfull.
Subdubie, somewhat doubtfully.
Subdubitanter, idem.
Subdubitatio, onis, f. g. a litteil doubt.
Subdubito, aui, are, to doubte somewhat, to be halfe in doubte.
Subdubius, a, um, somewhat in doubte or vncertayne.
Subduco, duxi, ere, to take awaie, to plucke or drawe awaie, to remoue, to lifte vp, to drawe vp, to goe or steale awaie priuily, to conueighe awaie priuily, to put vnder, to pull backe, to drawe backe, to deceiue, to steale.
Etiam nunc me subducere istis dictis postulas? and yet nowe wilte thou goe about with theese woordes to deceiue me?
Tempus est subducere hinc me, it is tyme to get me hence.
Vires subducere, to make weake or feeble.
Si illinc subducet, he wyll get awaie, or conueigh hym selfe from thense.
Voluptatum calculis subductis, prælium ineunt? do they reckon or cõpt how much pleasure they shall haue whan they enter into battaile?
Qua se subducere colles incipiũt, where the hilles beginne to wexe lower.
Lac agnis subducere, to steale the milke from the lambes, to milke the ewes before the lambes dooe suche.
Cibum subducere, to kepe one from meate, or to take ones meate from hym.
Subducere numerum stellarum, to number the sterres.
Subducere copias in collem, to bringe the hoste vp to the hyll.
Naues subducere, to drawe ships to the lande.
Aliquem subducere dictis, to deceiue one.
Subducere se custodiæ, to steale out of prison.
Succum subducere spiritu, to sucke or drawe vp.
Subductũ omnibus ventis ædificium, the house is set for all maner of wyndes.
Subducere rationes, to examine the charges with allowances in accompt.
Subducere summã, to make a reckenyng, or to caste the summe in an accompte or reckenynge.
Subductarius, a, um, that wherewith any thyng is lifted or haunced vp.
Subductio, onis, f. g. a drawynge vp of a shippe out of the water, deduction or alowaunce, an accompt, a bringyng vp to an high place.
Subdulcis, ce, somewhat sweete.
Subdũro, aui, are, to make somewhat harde.
Subduror, subdurari, to bee made somewhat harde.
Súbedo, edi, edere, to weare awaye, to eate away vndernethe, as the water consumeth awaie the foote of a roche or stone walle.
Subeo, iui, ire, to enter, to suffre or susteigne, to enterprise, to goe vnder or in, to take, also to succede, to come in the place of an other, to resiste, to clyme or mounte vp, to ascende vp. also to take charge of any thynge. also to growe or springe vp, to come to remembraunce, to put vnder, to answere.
Qui retinendi officij causa cruciatus subieris vltro, he that wyll for the accomplishemente of his duties, suffre tourmentes willingly.
Quis enim curæ tuæ molem sponte subeat? who woulde willyngly take on hym the greatte weight of thy charge?
Sera pœnitentia subiit regem, late repentance came to the kynges remembraunce.
Aeneas subiit mucronem, ipsumq; morando sustinuit, Eneas put vnder his swoorde, and tarying lifted hym vp.
In quarum locum subierunt inquilinæ, impietas, perfidia, impudicitia, in whose place succeded newe inhabitantes, contempte of vertue, disloialtee, lecherie.
Hemi excelsitas sex millibus passuum subiitur, the height of the mountaine of Hemus, is clymed or mounted in sixe thousande paces.
Tectum subire, to enter or come into the house.
Subire ad montes, to goe from the valey vp to the hilles.
Vultũ alicuius subire, to come before ones face.
Spes animũ subibat, I or he trusted or hoped.
Subeunt morbi, sicknesses doe come.
Subire aliquid, to take charge of any thynge.
Cõditiones pacis subire, to accorde vnto peace
Deditionem subire, to render vp a garrison besyeged.
Fortunam subire, to abyde the aduenture, or put all in an hasarde.
Labores subire, to take peine.
Per vices subire, to come in place nowe one and than an other, by turne.
Cruciatus subire, to suffre or endure tourmentes.
Aleam subire, to put hym selfe in daunger.

Subire crimen, to ſuſteigne blame.
Incommoda ſubire, to be endamaged.
Subire infamiam, to be diſhonoured.
Iudicium alicuius ſubire, to abyde the iudgement of one.
Nomen exulis ſubire, to be a baniſhed man.
Subire pœnam, to be puniſhed.
Supplicia ſubire, idem.
Tela ſubire, to receiue ſtrokes.
Verbera ſubire, to be beaten.
Ne ſubeant herbæ, that the weedes ouergrowe not.
Cogitationi noſtræ nunquam ſubiit, it neuer came in our thought.
Subit antiquitatem mirari, it cometh to my remembrance to wonder at men of the olde tyme.
Subit recordatio, I remembre well.
Subit cogitatio, I haue bethought me, I begyn to conſider or thynke.
Subit animum, I doo remembre, it cometh to my mynde or remembraunce.
Calamitatem ſubire, to haue a greatte loſſe.
Subire mortem, to receiue death.
Periculum ſubire, to putte hym ſelfe in ieoperdie.
Subire ſermonem, to cauſe hym ſelfe to be ſpoken of.
Minus ſermonis ſubiiſſem, men woulde not haue ſpoken ſo much againſt me, or there ſhulde not haue ben ſo greatt an infamie or obloquie of the people againſt me.
Tempeſtates ſubire, to put him ſelfe in danger.
Turpitudinem ſubire, to renne in ſclander.
Subire vim, to put hym ſelfe in ieoperdie to bee ſlayne.
Subeunt in hac reputatione, nowe cometh to remembraunce.
Subiit regem verecundia, the kynge was aſhamed.
Fallendus eſt iudex & variis artibus ſubeundus, the iudge muſte be wonne by preetie meanes, that he maie not perceiue.
Subit ille loquentem talibus, he anſwered him in this wiſe.
Subuſſe eam in cœlum, that it aſcended vp hygh into the aper.
Cuius nunc ſubeunda defenſio eſt, whom I muſt now take vpon me to defende.
Dextræ alæ ſiniſtra ſubijt, the left wynge came in place of the ryght.
Ne famam ſubeam crudelitatis, that I maie not be called cruell.
Triſtitiam illorum temporum non ſubiiſſem, I ſhulde not haue abiden the ſadneſſe or heauineſſe of that tyme.
Subire tacitam religionē, that a certaine feare of conſcience cometh vpon them.
Subire aliquem humeris, to beare or ſtaie one vp with his ſhoulders.

Suber, ſúberis, m. or f. g. but moſt cõmonly, n. g. corke.

Subérulus, a, um, of corke.
Suberro, aui, are, to wander vnder, to wander ſomewhat.
Subeth, is a barbarouſe worde perteinyng to phiſicke, and ſignifieth a deepe ſlepe not naturall, proceedynge of groſſe vapours, ingendred of fleume, beyng in the principall membres, reſolued and aſcendynge into the fore parte of the heade, and cauſynge oppilacion in the celles of the brayne.
Subferuefio, fis, fieri, to be made ſomwhat hot or ſcaldyng.
Subferuefactus, a, um, made ſomewhat hotte.
Subfibulum, li, n. g. was a white ornament foure ſquare, and longe, whiche the nunnes called Veſtales, ware on theyr heades whan they dyd ſacrifice. alſo a tache.
Subfrigidus, a, um, ſomewhat colde, halfe colde.
Subfrigidé, ſomewhat coldely.
Subgrandis, de, ſomewhat bigge or great.
Subgrauis, e, ſomewhat heauy, greuouſe or vnpleaſant.
Subgrunda, æ, the eaues of the houſe.
Subgrundátio, ônis, f. g. the makynge of the eaues of the houſe.
Subgrundia, órum, n. g. plur. the eaues of an houſe.
Subhaſto, are, to ſell any thynge in tyme of warres that was praiſed. Haſta, is a parde, whiche was delyuered to hym that was appointed to ſell any thynge that was taken in warres.
Subhórridus, a, um, ſomewhat hydious or horrible to ſee to.
Subiaceo, ſubiaces, iacui, ére, to lie or be vnder nethe, to be ſubiecte.
Appennino ſubiacent, they ſtande or bee ſituate at the foote of the mountayne Appeninus.
Subiacto, aui, are, to caſte vp as corne is whan it is fanned.
Subicito, aui, are, to cõpany often with a woman.
Subiculum flagri, a beatyng ſtocke.
Subiectio, onis, a caſtyng or puttyng vnder, an addyng to.
Subiectio teſtamentorum, a bringynge in of falſe teſtamentes.
Subiecto, aui, are, to caſte vnder often.
Subiectare ſtimulos, to pricke or ſtire forward.
Subiector, óris, m. g. a forger of teſtamentes, or he that bringeth forth one teſtamente for an other.
Subiectus, us, m. g. a caſtyng vnder.
Subiectus, a, um, put vnder, ſubiecte, obedient, lyng vnder.
Subiecta eſt ſpes illi, id eſt, Iniecta.
Subiecti oculis imperatoris, before the captaines face that he maie ſee theim.
Subiectus animus, an obedient mynde.
Subigo, egi, igere, to conſtreigne or ſubdue, to driue vnder, to whette, to beate or ſtampe: ſometyme to eare or tyll truely, to digge, to meddle with a woman. ſometyme to lifte vp.

Neceſ-

Necessitas me subigit vt rogitem, necessitē constreigneth me to aske you.
Subigit fateri, he constreigneth me to confesse.
Ad deditionem subegit, he constreigned them to yelde.
Subigere nationes, to subdue countreis.
Subigere terram, to labour & till the grounde.
Subigere in cote secures, to make sharpe the axes with a whetstone.
Subigere terga equorum, to rubbe the horses backes.
Scrobem subigere, to digge a dyche.
Ratem conto subigere, to shoue forthe the flyt with a longe pole.
Subigere gypsum, to worke playster as pargetters doe with their truell.
Subigere farinam, to make dowe, to kneade.
Subigere terram, to make morter of dirte.
Subigatrix, icis, a woman that constreigneth one by force.
Subjcio, subjcis, iēci, jcere, to putte vnder, to make subiecte, to bringe in myndē, to bringe in remembrance, to answere, to shew or tell a reason or cause, sometyme to caste vp, to reherse. also for Submittere, or Subornare, to sende in privile to deceyue men.
Subjcere se periculo, to put him selfe in perile.
Si meministi quod olim dictum est, subjce, if thou doest remembre what once was spoken, reherse it or bringe me to remembraunce.
Ova gallinis subjcere, to sette egges vnder the hennes to be hatched.
Spem subjicere, to put one in comfort.
Aliquid oculis subjicere, to make a thynge so plaine that a man maie perceiue it as well as if he sawe it.
Exemplum subjicere, to put or shew an exāple.
Subjicere ferro terram, to till the lande.
Subjicere sensibus, to purpose a thing cuidētly.
Crimini subjici, to be put i faute, to be blamed.
Faces subjicere, to bring one more in hatred, to intense or sette forwarde a matter more.
Testamentum subjicere, to bringe forthe a false testament.
Vis subiecta voci, the signification and importaunce of a woorde.
In equum subiecit, he set him vp on horsbacke.
Subiecit ille, he answered & said after ꝑ other.
Securi subjici, to be putte to death, to bee beheaded.
Prælo subjicere, to putte vnder the presse, to presse. also to printe.
Ignem subjicere, to put vnder fyre.
Pedibus subjicere, to cast vnderfoote, to contemne, to set naught by.
Tutelæ alicuius subjici, to be in ones tuition or subiection.
Subiiciunt se homines imperio alicuius, men submit them selfes to the rule or gouernaunce of any man.
Quæ subiiciebantur oculis, whiche we sawe with our eies.
In locum eorum subiecit, he set in their places.
Causam subjicere, to shewe or tell a cause.
Subjicere pullos, id est, Supponere, subdere.
Voci præconis subjicere, to cause a thynge to be cried and solde.
Odio ciuium aliquid subjicere, To make a thing to be hated of the people.
Huic verbo, voluptatis, duas res subjiciunt, they saie that this worde voluptas, hath double strength or signification.
Subjicere indicem, to sende in privily a false felowe to discouer a matter.
Subimpetro, aui, are, to entreate somewhat for a thynge.
Subimpudens, entis, somewhat vnshamefast or saucie.
Subināis, ne, somewhat vaine, of no great importaunce.
Subinde, moreouer, forthwith or anon, oftentymes, euer nowe and than, nowe and than amonge, euer amonge.
Subin, idem.
Subinfluo, fluxi, ere, to flowe in vnder.
Subingere arietem, to deliuer a sheepe to be killed for hym that dooeth sacrifice.
Subis, a birde, whiche breadeth the egles egges.
Subinfusus, a, um, somewhat swifte, halfe vnsauourie, that hath no great grace.
Subinuisus, a, um, somewhat hated or maligned.
Subinuito, aui, are, to allure or prouoke somewhat.
Subirascor, āris sum, irasci, to be somewhat moued, to be halfe angrie or displeased.
Subito, sodeinly, incontinent.
Subito quum mihi dixisset. &c. incontinents as soone as he had saied. ꝛc.
De subito, sodeinly.
Subitaneus, & Subitārius, & Subitus, a, um, sodein.
Subitum est ei remigrare, it is to some for him to come againe.
Subiugālis, le, vsed to the yoke.
Subiugia, ōrum, thonges or bondes wherwith the yokes were fastned to the oxens nethes.
Subiugis, ge, idem.
Subiugo, are, to make subiecte, to subdue, to bringe in subiection.
Subiungo, iunxi, ere, to adde and ioygne to.
Oratori omnes artes subiungere, To put all artes and sciences vnder the profession of an orator.
Subiungere vrbem sub imperium Romanū, to bring a citee vnder the Romaine empire.
Sublābor, bēris, psus sum, labi, to slippe awaie priuily, to fall or slyde vnder, to fall downe or decaie by little and little.
Sublabro, aui, are, to put vnder the lippes.
Sublatē, haultily.
Sublatē de se dicere, to make great auant of hym selfe, to speake glorioussly of hym selfe.

Sublateo, ſublates, ſublatui, tẽre, to be hyd vnder a thyng.
Sublátio, ônis, fœm. gen. a lyftyng vp, a takyng awaie by ſtelthe.
Sublátus, a, um, lifted vp, mounted, aduaunced, alſo ſtolen, taken awaie.
Súblego, aui, are, to ſubſtitute.
Sublego, legi, ere, to ſtraie, to paſſe ouer a thing quickely, to ſtealc a thynge that is hyd, to gether exclesoones. alſo to chooſe an other into the place of hym that is dead.
In locum demortui ſublegere, idem.
Sublegere ſermonem. Clam noſtrum hunc illæ ſublegerunt ſermonem, priuily they herkened, and bare awaie all that we communed
Subleſtus, a, um, feeble, feynt, light, of no force or value, an olde woorde.
Súbleuo, aui, are, to helpe or aide, to ſuccour, to defende, to lifte vp, to ſuſteyne.
Subleuare & lædere, contrarie.
Inopiam ſubleuare, to helpe one in tyme of pouertee and neede.
Laborem ſubleuare, tõ eaſe ones labour.
Res aduerſas alicuius ſubleuare, to helpe one that is in aduerſitee.
Subleuare teſtamento aliquem, to diſcharge one by teſtament.
Sública, cæ, fœm. g. a proppe, a ſhore, a poſt, or other like thyng, to ſuſteine or kepe a thing vp: a pyle driuen into the grounde for building or other lyke purpoſe.
Sublicium, cij, n g. idem.
Sublícius, a, um, that is made of pyles or poſtes of tymbre.
Sublicius pons, a bridge at Rome, made on piles.
Subligáculum, li, n. ge. a nether cope or breche, moſt properly a truſſer or breche, whiche onely coureth the priue membres, and that extendeth no farther vpwarde nor downewarde.
Subligar, gâris, n. g. idem.
Súbligo, aui, are, to vnderbynde.
Subligare enſem latere, to hange his ſworde by his ſyde.
Sublimẽ, on hygh.
Sublimis, me, hygh, that whiche is aboue vs.
Sublimem hunc intro rape, horſe me vp this felow a loofe and carie hym in.
Sublimem medium arriperem, I wolde take hym by the middell and horſe hym aloofe.
Sublimem rapi, to be horſed vp on highe, to be hoyſed into the ayre.
Sublimem abire, to aſcende vp into heauen, to mounte vp into the aire, or vp an hygh hill.
Iacens in ſublime, caſtyng it vp aloofe.
Sublimitas, âtis, f. g hepght.
Sublimiter, hyghly, on hygh.
Sublimo, aui, are, to ſette on hygh, to extolle.
Súblino, leui, liui, liui, linere, to annoynt or touche, to peynete or ſtayne, to smere somewhat.
Os ſublinire, to deceyue.

Sublitio, ônis, the grounde colour, wherein the perfecte colour is laied, in clothe died it is called graſyng.
Subliuidus, a, um, halfe blacke and blewe.
Sublucânus, a, um, of or pertenyng to the morenynge.
Sublucanum tempus, the ſpringe of daie.
Sublúceo, luces, luxi, cere, to ſhyne somewhat, or to geue a litteli lyght.
Sublucide, somewhat brightly, or clearely.
Sublúcidus, a, um, somewhat lyght.
Sublúco, aui, are, to vnder ſtreadde boowes, that the lyght maie come vnder the treee.
Súbluo, lui, luere, to vnder waſche, as water, whiche renneth lowe vnder a banke or hill, and waſheth the foote therof. alſo to waſche somewhat cleane.
Subluridus, a, um, somewhat pale or wanne of colour.
Subluſtris, ſtre, that hath ſome light.
Subluſtris nox, a nyght that is somewhat bright with the ſterres.
Subluuies, ei, fœm g. a diſeaſe of cattell, whiche is betwyxte the clees of theyr feete. alſo filthe, or dure.
Submergo, merſi, mergere, to deepe or plunge vnder the water, to drowne.
Submerum, almoſt pure.
Subminia, æ, f g. a womans garment, I ſuppoſe a kyrtell.
Subminiſtro, aui, are, to doo ſeruice vnder one, to geue or deliuer any thyng that is aſked for.
Tela ſubminiſtrare, to reache one weapons or dartes.
Aquam radicibus ſubminiſtrare, to water the rootes.
Pecuniam ſubminiſtrare, to find one money.
Subminiſtrare vires, to ſtrenghthen.
Subminiſtrátor, ôris, m ge an vnder ſeruaunt, he that deliuereth any thynge that is called for, one that miniſtreth to a man that he nedeth or lacketh.
Submiſſe, & ſubmiſsim, ſoftly, properly in ſpeakyng. alſo humbly, lowly.
Submiſſe ſupplicare, to make hũble intreatie.
Eo ſe gerat ſubmiſsius, ſo muche the more lowly ought he to behaue hym ſelfe.
Submiſſe dicere, to pleade temperately without great vehemence.
Submiſſe loqui, to ſpeake low or ſofte.
Submiſſe ſe gerere, to behaue him ſelf gẽtilly.
Submiſsio, ônis, f. gen. a ſubmiſſion, a puttyng vnder, an humblyng.
Contentio & ſubmiſsio vocis, cõtrarie, ſtretchyng of the voice and temperate ſpeakyng.
Elatio & ſubmiſsio, contrarie.
Submiſſus, a, um, humble, put vnder, brought in ſubiection, put downe, lowe.
Submiſſa voce loqui, to ſpeake lowe.
Submiſſa oratione loqui, to vſe temperate and gentill wooordes.

Submit-

Submitto, miſi, mittere, to ſende priuyly or by ſtelth, to plante or ſette in the grounde, to ſende or byynge in the meane tyme. alſo to putte or ſette vnder, properly as a calfe, a lambe or a fole to ſette vnder the damme to ſuche. alſo to bowe downe.

Submittere ſe, to humble hym ſelfe.

Submittere capillum, to let heare to growe.

Submittere barbam, to let his bearde growe.

Pretium ſubmittere, to diminiſh the price.

Submittere alicui, to ſende one to ſuccede a mā in the gouernance of any prouince or office.

Faſces lictorios ſubmiſit, he dyd reuerence by holding downe the bundles, that the ſergeantes or officers bare before hym.

Submittere pampinum vitis, to plante a vine braunche, or ſet it in the grounde to grow.

Submittere prata in fœnum, to huſbande and dreſſe vp the meddowes to bringe foorth hey.

Submittite tauros, poke your oxen, or put the bulles to the kyne.

Genua ſubmittere, to make courteſie, to bowe the knees.

Ne decet periculo vllo ſubmittere animum, it is not semely for vs to bee aferde or abaſhed for any perill.

Submittere fœtum matribus, to put the yonge to the dammes to be nouriſhed.

Ad menſuram diſcentis ſe ſubmittere, to accōmodate hym ſelfe to the capacitee of the ſcholar.

Ad matrem ſubmittebat, he ſente priuily to his mother.

Submiſi me & ſuplicaui, I ſubmitted or humbled my ſelfe. &c.

Submittere ſe in humilitatem cauſam dicentium, to humble or ſubmitte hym ſelfe to the low ſtate or vilitee of perſones arreined or accuſed.

Submittere alicui delatores, to ſende priuily falſe accuſers to appeche one.

Submoleſtus, a, um, ſomewhat greuous or diſpleaſaunt.

Submoleſte, ſomewhat greuouſely or diſpleaſauntly.

Submóneo, ſúbmones, monui, nére, to warne one priuily, to put one in mynde of a thynge, to geue hym warnynge, to geue a bie warnynge, to geue halfe a warnig, to geue a watche worde: ſometyme to gyue halfe a cheche, to giue a priue cheche or taunte.

Submordeo, dere, to bite ſoftly, or priuily.

Submorôſus, a, um, ſomewhat crabbed or froward, ſomewhat harde to pleaſe, ſomewhat rigorous.

Submoueo, ſúbmoues, moui, uere, to remoue or carie a thinge farre of. alſo to driue out of a place: alſo to diſcharge a man of his office, to depoſe.

Submoue turbam, cauſe the people to make waie, make theym auoyde or geue place.

Magnitudine pœnæ maleficio ſubmoueri, to be kepte from doynge euell by the greuouſeneſſe of puniſhement.

Germaniam ab Italia ſubmouent, id eſt, ſeparant.

Aliquem ſubmouere à conſulatu, to depoſe, to diſcharge.

Submota concione, the aſſemblie beyng diſſolued or departed.

Deſcendenti in forū gladio ſubmouetur, they make rowme or place before him with a ſworde, as he wente towarde the common place.

Submôtor, ôris, m. g. one that putteth aſyde or maketh rowme.

Subnaſcor, nâtus ſum, naſci, to growe or ſpring vp vnder thynges that be growen vp already.

Subnecto, nexui, tere, to binde to, or hang to. alſo to ſubſcribe, to adde or ioyne to after other.

Súbnego, aui, are, to denie ſomewhat, to denie halfe.

Subneruo, aui, are, to cutte ſinewes.

Subnéxio, ônis, f. g. a byndyng or hangyng to,

Súbniger, gra, grum, ſomewhat blacke.

Subnitor, nixus ſum, niti, to leane or ſtaie againſt a thynge, to be ſuſteyned vp.

Subnixus victoria, truſtyng to his victorie.

Subnodo, aui, are, to make a knotte vnder a thynge.

Súbnoto, aui, are, to note or marke, to ſubſcribe, to halfe note, to note after a facion.

Subnúbilus, a, um, ſomewhat cloudy, halfe ouercaſte with cloudes.

Subo, aui, are, to grunte as the ſowe doeth when ſhe deſyreth the boze to doe their kynde.

Subobſcœnus, a, um, ſomewhat vnhoneſt or vnchaſte.

Subobſcûrus, a, um, ſomewhat obſcure or darke, ſomewhat harde to vnderſtande.

Subodiôſus, a, um, ſomewhat odious.

Suboffendo, di, dere, to offende ſomewhat or a litteil

Suboleo, ſúboles, olui, lére, to ſauour or ſmell a litteil, to haue halfe the ſauour of a thynge, to haue ſome perceyuyng of the matter.

Nunquid patri ſubolet? doth my father perceiue any thyng of the matter.

Subobto, aui, are, to deſire a litteil.

Subordior, diris, diri, to begynne.

Suborno, aui, are, to preyſe or honour. alſo to ſuborne or bryng in a falſe witneſſe, or meſſanger, or feigne one perſon for an other to deceiue with, to ſende one priuily and inſtructe hym to doo or ſaie a thynge, to deceiue men.

Subornare oratorem, to make out a ſpokeſman in the behalfe of other.

Subornare falſum teſtem, to ſuborne or ſende in a falſe witneſſe.

Subornatus criminibus, priuyly inſtructed with cautes to laie to ones charge.

Subórior, riris, rui, to begyn to ſpringe or ariſe.

Subpallidus, a, um, ſomewhat paale, halfe paale.
Subpinguis, gue, ſomewhat fatte, fatte a littell.
Subpudet, I am halfe aſhamed of it.
Subráncidus, a, um, ſomwhat hoze and ſtinking.
Subraucus, a, um, ſomewhat hoarſe.
Subrectus, a, um, lifted vp a littell and littell, halfe vpright.
Subremigo, aui, are, to rowe vnder.
Subrepo, pſi, pere, to ſteale awaie oz renne away pziuily.
Subrepere animo, to enter ſodaunely oz pziuily into the mynde.
Subrepere ſe alicui, to ſteale away pziuily frō one.
Subrepſit hæc appellatio paulatim, it came by littell and littell to bee called by this name at lengthe.
Obliuionem cibi ſubrepere aiunt, they ſaie that he forgetteth his meate.
Subreptitius, a, um, ſtollen oz falſely come by.
Subreptitiæ literæ, letters ſtollen out by a falſe ſuggeſtion.
Subreptitius puer, a ſtolen chylde.
Subréptio, ônis, f. g. a ſtealynge awaie, an obteinyng of a thynge by falſe ſuggeſtion.
Subrideo, rides, riſi, ridere, to ſmile oz laugh pziuily, to make countinaunce of laughyng.
Subridicule, ſomewhat merily, ſomewhat mockingly, oz ſcoffyngly.
Subrigo, rexi, rigere, to heaue oz lifte vp by littell and littell.
Se paulatim ſubrigens, liftyng vp hym ſelfe by little and little.
Subríguus, a, um, idem quod irriguus.
Subripio, pui, pere, to ſteale, to take awaie ſecretely. ſometyme to lifte vp haſtily.
Subriſio, & Subriſus, a ſmilunge.
Subrogo, aui, are, to ſubſtitute oz ſubzogate, to make a deputie in an office, to put in an other mans roome.
Subroſtrarius, a, um, vnder the place called roſtra: oz one that vſeth to ſit vnder that place.
Subrubeo, ſubrubes, bui, bére, to bee ſomewhat redde.
Subrubicundus, a, um, ſomewhat ruddy.
Subrûfus, a, um, ſomewhat redde.
Súbrumus, mi, m. g. a lambe that doeth ſucke.
Súbrumor, aris, ari, to be ſucheled, oz put to ſuche, as calues, lambes. &c.
Subruo, rui, ruere, to enter with force, oz pziuily by littell and littell. alſo to digge the erth, to caſt downe to the grounde.
Subrúſticus, a, um, ſomewhat ruſticall oz rude.
Subrútilus, a, um, ſomewhat ſhinyng oz bright lyke the colour of golde.
Súbrutus, a, um, deſtroied, caſte downe to the grounde.
Subſalſus, a, um, ſomewhat ſalte in taſte.
Subſanno, aui, are, to ſcozne oz mocke.
Subſannátio, ônis, f. g. a mocke with bendyng the bzowes, and ſnuffyng vp of the noſe.
Subſannátor, ôris, m. g. a mocker.
Subſcribo, ſcripſi, ſcribere, to write vnder, to ſubſcribe, to fauour a matter, to aſſigne a cauſe why, to affirme, to note certaine thinges in writyng, at a ſermō oz other place. alſo to beginne oz moue a ſuite in the lawe. olde lawyers vſed it for that they ſaie now, Adiungere ſe, which Cicero ſpeaketh oftentymes in this wyſe, Accedere ad cauſam, deſcendere in cauſam, Incumbere in eandem cauſam, & diminere ſe in cauſam, to ioyne oz take parte with other in any accuſation, ſuite oz variance in the lawe.
Vt ſubſcribere audita pigeat, that it ſhulde loth you to write thoſe thynges that you here.
Scis te mecum non ſubſcripſiſſe, id eſt, mecum quærelam non eſſe experti, that you haue not ſubſcribed in the lawe againſt me, oz entred any bpll of complainte oz action againſt me.
In aliquem ſubſcribere, to ſubſcribe to ones accuſation, to ioyne oz take parte with other againſt one.
Cauſam vel cauſæ ſubſcribere, to ſubſcribe oz take parte with other in any quarell, ſuite oz contention of the lawe.
Cauſam ſubſcribere, to ſubſcribe oz adde a reaſon why he dooeth a thynge.
Si voto fortuna ſubſcripſerit, if fortune fauour me ſo muche, as to dooe that I require, if fortune fauour my deſyre.
Subſcripſit orationi eius, id eſt, fauit.
Voluntati alicuius ſubſcribere, to graunte that one requireth.
Odȝs alicuius ſubſcribere, to aide oz helpe one to be reuenged on his enemie.
Subſcriptio, ônis, f. g. a leanyng to oz a partakyng with the accuſar oz plaintife, a ſubſcription, a wzityng vnderneth.
Subſcriptio cenſoria, reformacion made by the Cenſours.
Subſcriptor, ôris, m. g. he that in cauſes iudicials all dooeth fauoure the parte of the accuſar oz plaintife.
Subſcus, Subcus, and Suſcus, cûdis, f. g. called alſo Securicla, a caſtynge of bourdes oz tymber togethet, one within an other, in ſoigners craſte oz carpentrie, called of the frenche men, for the likenes of the thyng, a ſwallowes tayle, and in engliſhe a douke tayle.
Súbſeco, ſecui, care, to cutte vnder, oz cutte a littell.
Vngues ferro ſubſecare, to pare ones nayles.
Subſecundárius, a, um, idem quod ſucciſiuus.
Subſecundaria tempora, tyme ſpared from other neceſſary buſyneſſe.
Subſéllium, lȝ, n. g. a benche, fourme oz ſtoole vnder other.
Subſellia, amonge the Romains were benches oz ſeates, wheron men ſate in the Theatre to beholde fightes and plaies. alſo wheron iudges ſate in diuers courtes and places of iudgement, and is ſometyme taken for iudges.

A ſub-

A ſubſelliis in roſtra rem deferre, to bryngē the matter from the iudges into the common place before the people.

Subſentio, ſenſi, ſentire, to perceiue ſomewhat, to haue ſomewhat an ingling of a matter.

Subſequor, ſequeris, ſequi, to folowe fooſthes with.

Subſequi aliquem, to ſtudie to folow ones maners.

Iudicium alicuius ſubſequi. Subſequenti anno, the nexte yere.

Subſero, ſeui, ſertum, to ſowe or ſette vnder a thynge.

Subſeruio, uiui, uire, to ſerue, to accorde, to agree.

Subſeruire orationi alterius, to helpe forwarde ones tale.

Subſeſſa, æ, f. g. an ambuſſhement, whereby hoſtes of men are intrapped as they paſſe.

Subſeſſor, ôris, m. g. he that ſpeth in waite to take one and kyll hym.

Subſideo, ſubſides, ſedi, ſidére, to ſitte vnder, to laie in awaite for one, to reſte in the bottum, as dregges or groundes doue in a veſſell, to tarie behynde.

Subſidet pecunia apud eum, the money remaineth in his handes.

Si quæ fæces in fundis vaſorum ſubſederint, if any dregges or lies reſte in the bottum of the veſſelles.

Quæ in caſtris ſubſederunt, whiche remained or taried behynde in the campe.

Subſedi in ipſa via, I reſted or taried by ỹ way.

Subſidiarius, a, um, that is ſente or geuen to the aide of other, that cometh to aide other.

Subſidiarius palmes, a vine braūche nouriſhed to mainteine the vine.

Subſidium, dij, n. ge. aide in an extreme poynte, helpe, ſuccour.

Currere alicui ſubſidio, to renne to helpe one.

Inuocare ſubſidium, to deſyre aide or helpe.

Subſidium noſtræ ſenectutis, the helpe or refuge of our olde age.

Subſidior, áris, ari, to ſtande by to the intent to aide and ſuccour if nede be.

Subſido, ſédi, ſidere, to fall downe, to ſinke downe, to deſcende downe to the bottum ſometyme to ſitte and hyde hym ſelfe in a place.

Subſidere and Conſurgere, contrarie.

Subſidere dicitur fœmina in coitu.

Subſidere regnum mundi, id eſt, inuadere.

Subſidere in loco aliquo, to abide or tarie in a place.

Subſigno, aui, are, to ſubſcribe or wryte vnder, to confirme with his ſigne manuell.

Subſimilis, le, halfe lyke, ſomewhat lyke.

Subſilio, ſubſilis, liui, and lui, lire, to leape a litell, to hoppe.

Subſilles, litell plates belongyng to ſacrifice.

Subſimus, a, ū, ỹ hath ſomewhat a ramoſe noſe.

Subſipere, to ſauour ſomewhat.

Subſiſto, ſtiti, ſiſtere, to reſiſte, to abyde, to withſtande, not to geue place, not to recule and geue backe, to ſtande ſtill, to ſtoppe. ſometyme to doubte.

Subſiſtere feras, to reſiſte and withſtāde the violence of wylde beaſtes.

Pergami ſubſtiti, I dyd abyde or tarie at Pergamum.

Subſiſtere & expectare.

Subſiſtere ſumptui, to beare or mainteine the coſte or charge.

Lingua ſubſtitit timore, his tongue ſtopped for feare, or he coude not ſpeake for feare.

Subſiſtit vnda, the water ſtandeth.

Subſiſtunt opes Romanorum apud eos, the money or riches of the Romayns remayneth or is ſtill with them.

Subſiſtit proceritas balſami intra bina cubita, the balme tree is neuer aboue two cubites high.

Subſolānus, ni, m. g. the eaſte wynde.

Subſortior, tiris, tiri, to chooſe by lotte after there hath ben other choſen before.

Iudices ſubſortiri, to chooſe iudges by lotte, to fulfill the numbre of them that were before refuſed.

Subſortitio, ônis, fœ. g. the chooſyng by lotte to fulfil the places of them that were refuſed after they were firſt choſen by lotte.

Subſortitus, a, um, choſen by lotte in the place of other.

Subſtántia, æ, fœ. gen ſubſtance: alſo matter: ſometyme goodes, which is alſo commonly called ſubſtance.

Subſterno, ſtráui, ſtérnere, to ſtrawe or laie vnder any thynge, as ruſſhes, carpettes, and floures.

Nidos quàm molliſſime ſubſternūt, thei make their neſtes as ſofte in the bottum as can bee.

Subſternabat animo omnia, he made all thynge ſubiecte or inferiour to the mynde.

Subſternere alicui pudicitiam ſuam, to abandone hir ſelfe to any man.

Subſtillum, li, n. g. a tyme or fallynge miſte, or a droppynge before and after rayne. it is alſo a ſickeneſſe, when a man maie not piſſe well.

Subſtituo, tui, tuere, to ſubſtitute or ordeine one in the place of an other.

Subſtitútio, ônis, f. ge. an appointyng or ordeinyng of one in the place of an other.

Subſto, ſubſtiti, ſtare, to ſuſteine or abyde conſtantly.

Subſtraho, lyke Subtrahio.

Aluum ſubſtrahere, to purge the bealy.

Subſtrámen, minis, n. ge. litter or any thynge laied vnder horſes or other beaſtes.

Subſtrâtus, a, um, ſtrawed vnder or laied vnder.

Subſtratus, us, m. g. a ſpredyng or layeng vnderneth. ſometyme litter or other thynge laied vnder beaſtes.

Subſtrepo, ſtrepere, to make a litell noyſe.

Subſtrictus, a, um, ſtreigned or bounde harde vnder, ſtreitte.

Sub-

Subſtringo, ſtrinxi, ſtrigere, to binde ſtreicte vnderneth, to ſtreigne harde, to gyrde vnderneth.
Subſtruo, ſtruxi, ſtruere, to vnderpinne, to builde vnder, to make a foundation vnder.
Subſtructio, ônis, fœm. ge. an vnderpinning or groundſellyng of a houſe, a buildyng vnderneth, or makyng a fundation vnder a houſe.
Subſtupeo, and Subſtupeſco, ſcere, to be ſomewhat diſmayde.
Subſtúpidus, a, um, ſomewhat fooliſhe or doltiſhe, halfe aſtonied, as it were one that lacked his ſenſes.
Subſulto, aui, are, to iumpe, to hoppe.
Subſultim, by iumpes.
Subſuo, ſuere, to ſowe vnderneth.
Subſum, ſubeſſe, to be vnder or within.
Subeſt intra cutem vulnus, the wounde is vnder the ſkinne.
Cauſas ſubeſſe oportet eaſdem, there muſte be the ſame cauſes or reaſons.
Si vlla ſpes ſalutis ſubeſſet, if there were any hope of lyfe.
Ne ſubeſſet ſuſpicio, that there might be no ſuſpicion in the matter.
Subſurdus, a, um, halfe deffe. alſo that is ſcant heard, or maketh almoſte no noiſe.
Subtal, talis, n. g. the holowneſſe of the foote. alſo the paime of the hande.
Subtegmen, minis, n. g. the threede, whiche in weauyng is called the woufe.
Subtegulánea, órum, places vnder the eiues of houſes.
Subtendo, tendi, tendere, to extende or ſtretche abrode vnder or beneth.
Subtento, aui, are, to aſpie, to attempt or aſſaie priuily.
Subténuis, tenue, ſomewhat thinne or ſklender.
Subtépeo, pere, to be ſomewhat warme.
Subtépidus, a, um, ſomwhat warme, luke warme.
Subter, vnder,
Subter humum, vnder the grounde.
Subter denſa teſtudine, poëticé.
Inciſuras vero habent ſubter, ſine caſu.
Subterclúdo, cluſi, cludere, to ſhutte vnder.
Subterdúco, duxi, cere, to withdrawe, to eſcape awaie, to ſteale awaie priuily.
Subterducere ſe alicui, to conueigh him ſelfe awaie priuily out of ones companie.
Subtérfluo, fluxi, fluére, to renne or flow vnder a thinge, as water vnder a bridge.
Subterfúgio, ſubtérfugis, fúgi, fugere, to eſcape, to eſcape awaie priuily, to eſchew.
Subterfugere crimen, to auoide the daunger of a thinge laied to his charge.
Miliciam ſubterfugere ſimulatione inſaniæ, to eſcape goynge to warre by feignyng him ſelfe madde.
Subtergrédior, di, to go vndernethe.
Subterlábor, láberis, lapſus ſum, labi, to eſcape or ſlippe awaie quickely, to renne or flowe vnderneth.

Subtermeo, aui, are, to renne vnder,
Subterlíno, lini, liui, and leui, linere, to annointe or ſmere vnderneth.
Subtéro, triui, terere, to bruiſe or weare, to breake in peeces.
Boues ſubterunt pedes, the oxen breake or weare out their houfes.
Subterraneus, a, um, that is vnder the ground.
Subterténuo, aui, are, to conſume or weare vnderneth, or on the nether parte.
Subtexo, texui, texere, to weaue to after, to ioigne to after other, to ſpeake in the ende or after other thynges.
Subticeo, ſubtices, cui, cere, to anſwere nothing to that whiche is ſpoken, to holde his peace, to ſpeake neuer a woorde.
Subtiſcefco, ſcere, idem.
Subtilis, le, ſubtile, litteli, ſmall.
Subtilitas, atis, f. g. ſubtilitee, ſharpeneſſe of wit or reaſonyng.
Subtiliter, ſubtilly, finely.
Subtimeo, ſubtimes, timui, timere, to bee ſomewhat afeerde, to be halfe afeerde.
Subtondeo, dere, to clippe vnder.
Subtraho, traxi, trahere, to take awaie, to ſteale, to withdrawe.
Subtrahere ſe, to drawe vnto quietenes. alſo to withdrawe him ſelfe from other.
Subtrahere famæ, to withdraw from bruite, to kepe or let one to haue any bruite or fame.
Subtrahere aliquem inuidiæ, to bringe one out of hatred and diſpleaſure of the people.
E pondere ſubtrahere, to take ſomewhat from the weight.
Aliquid ſubtrahere alicui, to take or ſteale awaie a thynge from one.
Collum iugo ſubtrahere, to get his necke out of the yoke.
Subtrahere ſe labori, to withdraw him ſelfe frō labour, to eſchewe labour and peine.
Aliquem bello ſubtrahere morbus dicitur, to let or kepe a man that he can not go to warre.
Subtriſtis, ſte, ſomewhat heauy or ſadde, ſomewhat ſorie, halfe in a dumpe, not halfe iocunde.
Subtundo, ſubtudi, tundere, idem quod Tundo.
Subturpiculus, a, um, a litteli diſhoneſt.
Snbturpis, pe, ſomewhat foule, in parte foule or diſhoneſt, the matter or thinge diſhoneſt couered with cleane wooꝛdes.
Subtus, vnder.
Subucula, læ, f. g. a ſhyrte. Suetonius ſeemeth to take it for a petycote. alſo a cake.
Subuculatus, a, um, that weareth a ſhyrte.
Subuecho, vexi, vehere, to beare, to extolle, to carie vp, to carie or conueigh in a ſhippe or wayne.
Subuectio, ónis, f. g. a conueighyng or caryng.
Subuecto, aui, are, to beare or carie often.
Subuectus, us, idem quod Subuectio.
Subuénio, ſubuenis, ueni, uenire, to helpe, to ayde, to ſuccour.

Subue-

Subuenire inopi, helpe me poore man that am succourielle.
Erroribus subuenire, to defende and make playne the truthe.
Subuentaneus, a, um, wynde, or of the wynde, or conceiued of the wynde.
Subuentanea oua, idem quod Hyponemia.
Subuento, aui, are, to come to one often.
Subuerbustâ, tæ, fœm. ge. meate burned on the spitte.
Subuereor, ueritus sum, uereri, to be somewhat afeerde, to be halfe afeerde.
Subuersio, aui, are, to subuerte often.
Subuersus, a, um, turned vpside downe, caste to the grounde, destroyed.
Subuerto, uerti, tere, to tourne vp so downe. also to destroie, to subuerte, to take one awaie by false accusacion.
Subuexus, a, um, bowed vpwarde lyke an arche rouffe.
Subuiridis, de, somewhat greene of colour.
Subula, læ, f. gen. an aule, that cordeners doe vse for a boodkyn.
Subulcus, ci, m. g. a swyneherde.
Subulo, ônis, m.g. an harte hauyng hornes withe out tynes, called (as I suppose) a Spittarde: in the Hetruscian tounge it is a minstrell.
Subuolo, aui, are, to flee awaie, to flee a littell, to flee vpwarde.
Subuoluo, uolui, uoluere, to tumble vnder, to rolle vnder.
Subur, a towne in Spayne, called commonly Cubelles.
Suburbânitas, âtis, fœ. g. the neighbourhode of them that be in the suburbes, in respecte of the that dwell in the citee.
Suburbânum, ni, n. g. a manour or farme without the walles of a citee.
Suburbâna, ôrum, suburbes, houses and villages nere the citee.
Suburbânus, a, um, nere the citee, of or pertenynge to the suburbes.
Suburbia, ôrum, n. g. plu. the suburbes of a citie or towne.
Suburra, ræ, f. g. a strete in Rome.
Suburrana regio, the strete in Rome, where the brothell houses were.
Subûro, ussi, urere, to burne somewhat or a littell.
Subuulturius, a, um, that whiche apprehendeth men like as rauens doe carrayne.
Succedaneus, a, um, that succedeth, that cometh in place or stede of an other.
Succedo, cessi, cedere, to succede, to approche or come to, to come in the place of an other, to go well forwarde, to haue good successe, to prospere or come to effecte, to entre, to go in, to go vnder, sometyme to chaunce.
Muris succedere, to approche vnto the walles.
Et nostris succede penatibus hospes, and enter thou my friende into my house.
Hac non successerit, alia aggrediemur via, It dooth not prospere or come to effecte this waie, we will assaie an other.
Antro successimus, we be come or entred into the denne or caue.
Tectis succedere, to entre or go into the house.
Succedere in locum vel vicem alterius, to succede or come in the place or stede of an other.
Integri & recentes defatigatis succedunt, the lusty and freshe souldiours come in place of them that be wery.
In orbem succedere prælijs, to come in fight by course one after an other rounde about.
Eques in pugnam succedit, the bande of horse men entred in to geue battaile or fight.
In paternas opes succedere, to possesse the riches that his father had before hym.
Succedam ego vicarius tuo muneri, I wyll succede you, or take vpon me your office and charge.
Aetas succedit ætati, one age foloweth an other.
Negotium omne iam succedit sub manus, all the matter prospereth or goeth well forwarde with vs.
Parum successit, it came but easily to passe.
Si minus succedit, if it dooe not prospere, or come to good effecte.
Succedit ex sententia, it cometh to passe or goeth forwarde euen as we wolde haue it.
Quod si successerit alienari mente. &c. If it chaunce or fortune. &c.
Succendo, di, ere, to inflame, to burne.
Succenseo, ui, ere, to be angry for a good cause.
Succensus, a, um, inflamed, burned.
Succinto, tonis, was a certaine garment, whiche onely horse did weare.
Succinto, aui, are, to syng a base.
Succentor, ôris, m. g. he that syngeth a base.
Succenturiatus, a, um, that made vp the numbre of the bend of men that lacked, that is set in the place of hym that is dead or absent.
Succenturio, aui, are, to make vp the numbre of an hundred souldiours, or of that cõpanie that is called Centuria.
Succerda, æ, fœm. ge. swynes dounge, a pygges tourde.
Succerno, creui, cernere, to raunge meale in a syeue, to separate or take from other.
Successio, ônis, fœ. ge. succession, commyng in place of other.
Successor, ôris, m. ge. a successour, one that cometh in the place of an other.
Successorem dare vel mittere alicui, to depose one out of his office, and sende an other to succede hym.
Successus, a, um, that whiche prosperously happeneth or spedeth well, that commeth to effecte.
Successus, us, m. g. successe, be it good or ill.
Successus prosperos dare, to prospere, to geue prosperous successe.

Suc-

Succida, æ, f. g. woull newe shorne, vnwasshen.
Succidaneus, a, um, that whiche foloweth the firste. also that cometh in the place of an other, that succedeth.
Succidaneæ hostiæ, beastes for sacrifice, whiche were kylled in the seconde place, or nexte to the firste.
Succidia, æ, scr. g. a piece or slyche of bakon salted. also larde.
Súccido, súccidis, succidere, to fall vnder, to fall downe as one doeth vpon his knees.
Succido, cidi, idere, to fell or cut downe.
Segetes succidere, to mowe or reape downe corne.
Succiduus, a, um, lowe, redie to fall.
Súccidus, a, um, mopste or full of iuice.
Succingo, xi, gere, to gyrde. also to enuironne, to compasse.
Frustra se terrore succinxerit, qui septus charitate non fuerit, armis enim arma irritantur, in vayne shall he inuirone hym selfe with terriblenesse, whiche is not walled about with the loue of his contrey: for with violence, violence is styred.
Succingere se armis, to arme hym selfe. also to haue men of armes alwaies about hym for his defence.
Succincte, compendiously.
Succinctorium, a shorte tachet or terben.
Succinctus, a, um, gyrte, compassed, inuironed, also prompt, in a redinesse, apt.
Succinctus cultro, ferro, pugione, that hath a knife, sworde, or dagger about hym.
Vrbs succincta portibus, a citee hauynge hauens on euerie syde.
Succincta oratio, a compendious or shorte oration.
Succingulum, li, n. g. a swordе gyrdle.
Súccino, succinui, ere, to make a softe noise, to synge a base or tenour.
Súccinum, ni, n. g. aumber, wherof some beade stones are made.
Súccinus, a, um, of aumbre.
Succisiuus, a, um, that is cut or drawen from other.
Succisiuum tempus, tyme that a man spareth from other busines.
Succisiuæ operæ, thinges that a man doeth by tymes when he leaueth of necessarie busynesse.
In succisiuum esse, spoken of fieldes or landes when they be measured, where some parte remayneth aboue the measure.
Succipio, súccipis, succepi, cipere, idem quod Excipio.
Succlamátio, ônis, a cryng to.
Succlâmo, aui, are, idem quod Acclamo.
Succlamari, to be communed and talked of of all men.
Succollo, aui, are, to put vnder the neche or shoulders, to beare a thynge, to beare vp with the shoulders, as they doe that carie men in liters.
Succorrilla, a small voyce and a shryll.
Succósus, a, um, full of iuice or moisture.
Succrescо, scere, to growe vnder or lowe, of a litle and litle, to encrease and ware more and more.
Succubi, diuels, which in the likenesse of women dooe companie with men.
Súccuba, an harlot that lyeth with an other womans housbande.
Súccubo, aui, are, to lye vnder.
Succulentus, & Succiplenus, a, um, full of iuice.
Succumbo, cubui, ere, to be subdued, to be ioyned to, to fall or lye downe vnder, to fayle for feblenesse, to faynte in courage, to lese his courage, to be ouercome or ouercharged with any thynge.
Succumbere oneri, to fall downe vnder a burden, not to be able to sustayne a burdeine.
Animo succumbere, to fainte in courage, to become feble or fayntе herted.
Ne labori succumbant, that they be not ouercome with labour.
Precibus alicuius succumbere, to be ouercome with intreaty or desyre that a man maketh.
Succumbere viro dicitur mulier.
Succumbere doloribus, to be ouercome with sorowe and peine.
Fortunæ succumbere, not to be able to sustayne aduersitee.
Senectuti succumbere, for age to be able to dooe no more.
Succurro, curri, currere, to helpe, to aide, to succour, to come in mynde or remembrance.
Vt infamiæ cõmuni succurrerẽ, that I might helpe to put awaye the infamy, that goeth in generall vpon all.
Vt vitæ & pudicitiæ sororis succurreret, that he myght helpe to saue the lyfe and chastitee of his syster.
Succurrere celeriori via, to helpe by a more redie waye or meane.
Neq; mihi succurrebant verba, quæ. &c. neither did I remembre the wordes whiche. &c.
Succus, i, m. ge. iuice or humour, whiche the bodie receyueth of meate and drynke. also generally all maner of iuice.
Succus ciuitatis, the vigour or strength of the citee.
Succus lactis, whey.
Succussarius, ii, m. g. a trottyng horse, an horse that often casteth his rider.
Succusо, idem.
Succussátio, onis, Succussura, æ, & Succussatura, æ, fœm. gen. a trottyng or shakyng of an horse.
Succusso, aui, are, to shake as an horse doeth when he trotteth. also to trot.
Succussor, ôris, m. ge. a trottyng horse. also an horse that often casteth his ridar.
Succussus, us, m. g. a shakyng, a trottyng.

Succútio, ſúccutis, cuſsi, tere, to ſhake a thynge, to iogge vp, to ipkre as the horſe that trotteth harde ipkteth one at euery ſteppe in the ſaddle.

Súcula, æ, a ſowe pigge. alſo a certaine inner garment. alſo a certaine company of ſterres, called the .vii. ſterres, whiche doe appere the .xii. calendes of June, and bee called Suculæ, & Hiadæ. Sucula, is alſo an inſtrument or ingin to drawe with, whiche is made of one longe and roũde poſte, hauing certaine barres in the middes to turne it with all. Of it bee .iii. ſortes, one lyng betwene two poſtes lyke the barrell of a welt: an other ſtandeth vpright, and is drawen about with ſtrengthe of men ſhouyng with theyr breaſtes againſt the barres in the middes: The thyrde ſorte is that, whiche they vſe to lifte vp the water pile ſledge, in makyng bridges.

Suctus, us, m. g. a ſuckyng.

Sudabundus, a, um, ſweatynge.

Sudarium, rij, n. g. a napkyn, a handkerchike.

Sudatio, onis, a ſweatyng.

Sudatorium, rij, n. g. a ſtewe or hotte houſe.

Sudatorius, a, um, that belongeth to ſweatynge.

Sudator, oris, m. ge. a great ſweater, one that ſweateth.

Sudatrix, tricis, f. g. the feminine.

Sudatus, a, um, beſweated, all weatte or moyſted with ſweatte.

Sudes, dis, f. g. a certaine ſpeare, whiche is burned at the ende, a ſtake.

Sudis, is, f. g. a certaine fiſſhe, called alſo Sphyræna.

Sudo, aui, are, to ſweate, to labour ſore, to haue muche to dooe.

Sanguine ſudare, to ſweate bloudde.

Sudare mella, to ſweate out honny.

Satis ſudabis ſi cũ illo incœptis homine, thou ſhalte haue enough to dooe. &c.

Sudor, oris, m. g. ſweate. alſo labour.

Sudor remittit ſe, the ſweatte begineth to leaue.

Sudum, di, n. g. the clere parte of the firmament betwene cloudes. alſo the clere firmament without cloudes. ſometyme faire weather after rayne.

Sueo, ſeui, ére, to be wonte, to accuſtome, an olde woorde.

Suefacio, feci, facere, to bryng in vſe or cuſtome, to accuſtome.

Suefco, ſeui, ſueſcere, to bee wonte, to take a cuſtome.

Sueſſa, a towne of Campaine.

Sueſsiones, people of France.

Suetus, a, um, accuſtomed, brought in vſe.

Sueui, people in high Germanie.

Sueuia, the chiefe countrey of Germanie in fertilitee, holſomeneſſe and beautifull perſonages, it hath on the eaſte Bauiere, on the weſte Hallate, and the ryuer of Rhene, on the ſouthe the mountaynes Alpes: on the north Frãke lande: It was ſometyme called Alemania, wherof all Germanie was called Almayne, in duche it is nowe called Swaue.

Suffarcinatus, a, um, laded, truſſed, ſtuffed vp. Vidi Cantharam ſuffarcinatam, I ſawe the olde woman Cantharo hauynge hir lappe truſſed vp about hir.

Suffarcino, aui, are, to lade or burdeyne, to truſſe vp, to ſtuffe vp.

Suffarraneus, a, um, that carieth meale or floure to any place to ſell in littell quantitee.

Suffectus, a, um, that is ſette in the place of an officer, whiche is remoued or dead.

Suffenus, a poetes name in Catullus, of all other moſt fooliſhe.

Suffero, ſuſtuli, ſufferre, to ſuſteine, to put vnder, to ſuffre, to take vpon hym.

Nunq̃ ſufferre eius ſumptus poſſet, he coude neuer be able to beare or ſuſteine the ſumptuous charges of hym.

Plus oneris ſuſtuli q̃ ferre poſſum, I haue taken a greater bourdeine vpon me then I am able to beare.

Supplicium ſufferre, to ſuffre or abyde puniſhement.

Suffertus, a, um, ſtuffed, filled, repleniſſhed.

Sufferueo, ferbui, uére, to be ſomewhat hotte.

Sufferuefacio, feci, facere, to make to ſiethe or be ſomewhat hotte.

Suffes, ſuffetis, m. g. was amonge the Carthaginenſes as the Conſull was at Rome.

Suffibulum, li, n. g. an attire, which the nunnes of Veſta dyd weare on theyr heades when they did ſacrifice.

Sufficio, ſufficis, fẽci, ficere, to ſuffice, to be ſufficient or enough, to content, to ſet or chooſe one in the place of an other, to indure, to miniſtre, to ſubſtitute, to ſtaine.

Sufficit, it ſufficeth.

Laboribus ſufficere, to bee able to endure labours.

Sufficere tibi debet, ſi &c. it ought to ſuffice or content you, if &c.

Nec obniti contra ſufficimus, neither be we able to withſtande or reſiſte them.

Nec ſufficit vmbo ictibus, the ſhielde or buckler is not able to abide or beare the ſtrokes.

Non ſufficientibus tam viribus, his ſtrengthe failyng hym.

Sufficit humorem, it miniſtreth moiſture.

Ne ſufficiatur conſul non timent, they feare not that he ſhalbe made conſull in the other mãs place.

Suffectus in Lucretij locum Horatius, Horatius beynge choſen or ſet in the place of Lucretius.

Large ſufficiens prædium annuis victibus, a ferme or manor able abundantly to finde a man his lyuyng.

Animo ſufficere, to gyue courage.

Suffigo, fixi, figere, to faſten or naile vp.

Suffigere cruci, or in cruce, to hange vp one on a gibbet.

Suffi-

Suffimen, minis, and Suffimentum, ti, n. g. perfume or fumigation.

Suffio, fiui, fire, to perfume.

Suffiſcus, ci, m. g. the codde of a ramme, whiche was made for a purſe to conteine money.

Suffitio, ônis, a perfumyng or fumigation.

Suffitor, ôris, m. g. he that bloweth the fyre, he that maketh a perfume.

Suffitus, a, um, perfumed.

Suffitus, us, m. g. a perfumyng.

Suffilamen, minis, n. g. that wherwith a whele is reteined or ſtopped of his courſe

Suffilamino, aui, are, to ſtaie or holde backe with the inſtrument called Suffilamen.

Suffiatio, ônis, f. g. a blowyng.

Suffiator, ôris, m. g. he that bloweth.

Suffiatus, a, um, blowen.

Suffiatus, us, m. g. idem quod Suffiatio.

Suffiauus, a, um, ſomewhat pelow.

Suffilo, aui, are, to blowe.

Suffilare buccas, to puffe vp the chekes.

Suffilauit neſcio quid vxori, he hath whiſpered ſomewhat in his wyfes eare what ſo euer it is.

Suffocatio, onis, a ſtrangiynge, a cholynge, a ſtiffelyng.

Suffocator, oris, he that ſtrangleth or ſtiffeleth.

Suffoco, aui, are, to ſtoppe the breathe, to ſtrangle, to ſtiffle.

Suffocare vrbem fame, to deſtroie a citee with hunger.

Suffodio, ſuffodis, dere, to digge vnder, to make holow vnderneth.

Suffodere equos, to thruſte horſes through.

Suffoſſio, onis, a diggyng vnder, a mynyng.

Suffoſſus, a, um, digged vnder, caſte downe, deſtroyed. alſo ſtumblyng as an horſe doeth.

Suffoſſus equus, a ſtumblyng horſe.

Suffragatio, onis, f. g. a declaration of a conſent or fauour, a geuyng of a mans voice or fauour in election.

Suffragator, oris, m. g. a ſupporter or maintepner, one that helpeth or aideth with his good woorde or voice.

Suffragatorius, a, um, that perteineth to fauowryng with voice in election, that helpeth a man with his good woorde.

Suffragium, gii, n. g. the voice of people aſſembled in geuyng their conſent. alſo helpe or ſuccour. alſo a wreche in the ſea.

Suffraginoſus, a, um, that is diſeaſed or peined in the houſes or ioyntes of the hinder legges.

Suffraginoſi equi, horſes whiche haue the peines or ſcratches.

Suffrago, ginis, fœ. ge. the ioynte of the hinder legge of a beaſte, called the hoxe. ſometyme it doeth ſignifie the paſterne. it is alſo the pong ſpraynge of a vine.

Suffragor, aris, ari, to beare fauour, to fauour, to helpe one, to ſpeake on his parte fauourably, to geue one his good woorde.

Nullis ſuffraganubus meritis meis, without any merites or deſertes on my parte.

Alicui ad conſulatum ſuffragari, to helpe one to be conſull.

Fortuna ſuffragante, by the good helpe of Fortune, if Fortune fauour vs.

Suffrænatio, onis, a kinde of buildyng, whiche faſtneth the ſtones in the walle.

Suffrico, fricui, care, to rubbe of.

Suffrigidus, a, um, halfe colde.

Suffringo, fregi, fringere, to breake in the middeſt, to breake ſomewhat, to breake vnder.

Suffrio, aui, are, to breake in ſmall pieces, to crumme ſmall.

Suffrutex, ticis, that thynge whiche groweth, hanyng the fourme meane betweene an herbe and a ſhrubbe.

Suffuerat, olde writers vſed for ſub eodem tecto fuerat.

Suffugio, ſuffugis, fugi, fugere, to flee awaie priuily.

Suffugium, gii, n. g. a place of refuge.

Suffulcio, ciui, ctum, or ſulſi, ſultum, cire, to ſtaie or holde vp, to ſuſteine or beare vp.

Suffultus, a, um, ſtaied vp.

Suffumigo, aui, are, to make ſmoke vndernethe, to make a fumigation.

Suffundatus, a, um, laied vnder.

Suffundo, fudi, dere, to caſte downe or poure licour on a thynge, to caſt abrode.

Suffendere aciem oculorum, to trouble or confounde the eie ſyght.

Vt cibo ſuffúdamus vires ad fœtum, that with meate we maie geue them ſtrẽgth, or cauſe them to haue ſtrengthe to generation.

Suffurror, aris, ari, to ſteale priuily.

Suffuſio, onis, a webbe in the eie, alſo a ſpreading abrode, a pourpng vpon.

Suffuſus, a, um, ſprynkled, endewed, that hath any thynge poured on it.

Suffuſus rubor alicui dicitur whē one bluſheth.

Suffuſi cruore oculi, the eies bepng blouddie ſhotte.

Suffuſus maleuolentia animus in cæteros, a mynde full of rancour or malice towarde other.

Sales ſuffuſi felle, merye ieſtinges full of byting tauntes.

Suggero, geſſi, gerere, to miniſter or geue a thinge, to ſende foorthe thynges, wherof are plentie, to put in mynde, to prompte. alſo for Refero, to ſhewe or tell.

Tellus ſuggerit alimenta, the grounde geueth foode or nouriſhement.

Bruto ſtatim Horatium ſuggerunt, foorthewith they chooſe Horatius in Bruius place.

Tuum eſt vt ſuggeras, it is pour parte to put me in mynde of it, or tell me of it, or to put me in remembrance of it.

Suggerere ſumptus, to allowe expences.

Res ſuggerit, the matter requireth.

Suggeſtus, us, m. g. or Suggeſtum, ti, n. g. a pulpitte or high place, out of the whiche orators tours or capitaynes made propolicions vnto the people. Suggeſtus is alſo a ſuggeſtion, a reporte.

Sugillo, or after ſome, Suggillo, aui, are, to make a blacke ſpotte in the ſkynne with beatyng. it is alſo to ſcorne, to detract or infame, to reproue, to condemne, to nppde, to taunte.

Sugillatio, onis, fœm. ge. a marke in the viſage, blacke or blewe, made by ſome ſtroke, a mocke a detraction, an infamacion bdynde one, a condemnacion.

Sugillatus, a, um, ſpotted, mocked, detracted, infamed, condemned.

Sugo, ſuxi, ſugere, to ſouke.

Suggredior, greſſus ſum, gredi, to go by ſtelth or priuily.

Suggrunda, æ, f. g. or Suggrundia, órum, n. g. the eaues of a houſe, whiche defendeth the walles from rayne.

Suggrundária, burialles of younge infantes, whiche were not aboue. xl. daies olde.

Suggrundátio, ónis, fœm. gen. the eauelyng of a houſe.

Sui, pronomen reciprocum, of hym ſelfe.

Vt ſe dimitterem, that I wolde diſmiſſe hym, or leat hym departe.

Vt veniam ad ſe rogat, he deſyreth me that I woulde come to hym.

Sibi, is ſometyme ioygned with ſuo, without any ſignification.

Suo ſibi hunc gladio iugulo, I kyll hym with his owne ſwoorde, I confounde hym with his owne argument.

Suile, lis, n. g. a ſwynes ſtie.

Suilla, læ, f. g. ſwynes fleſſhe, porke.

Suillus, and Suinus, a, um, of a ſwyne.

Sulcátim, in furrowes, furrow by furrow.

Sulcátor, óris, m. g. one that maketh furrowes, one that roweth in a bote on the water, becauſe he cutteth it as the earth with a ploughe.

Sulcátus, a, um, made in furrowes.

Sulco, aui, are, to ſalowe, to make furrowes.

Súlculus, li, m. g. a litteli furrow.

Sulcus, ci, m. ge. a furrow. alſo a longe range or trenche like a furrowe to plante vines or other trees in, tillyng, labouryng of the grounde.

Serere tertio, quarto, quinto ſulco, to ſowe in the thirde, the fourth, the fifte ſalowe. ſometyme it is put for a diche. alſo any maner of cuttyng of the earth: properly it ſignifieth any thyng, that is long and sharpe edged. Biſulcum animal, a beaſt that hath the feete clouen with two talons.

Infindere ſulcos telluri, to till the grounde.

Aquarius ſulcus, a furrow to dyayne water by.

Sullanus, a, um, for Syllanus.

Sullaturire, for Syllaturire.

Sulmo, monis, a towne in the countrey of Pelignа, where Ouidius the poete was borne.

Sulmonenſis, one of the citee of Sulmo.

Sulphur, ſúlphuris, n. g. brymſtone.

Sulphurária, æ, fœm. g. a place where brymſtone is boyled.

Sulphurâta, órum, neu. gen. matches made with brymſtone.

Sulphuratus, a, um, dreſſed with brymſtone.

Sulphuratum ramentum, a matche.

Sulphureus, a, um, of brymſtone, like brymſtone in colour, or that ſauoureth of brymſtone.

Sulpitius Galba, the name of a Romaine.

Sultanus, a ſoudan, whiche was the name of a kyng of Egypt and Syria.

Sultis, for Si vultis.

Sumach, in the Arabie tongue is that, which Dioſcorides calleth Rhus. It is alſo called Ros ſyriacus, Manardus, lib. 1. epiſt. 4.

Sumanus, he that alwaies taketh.

Sum, es, fui, to be, with a genitiue or an ablatiue caſe to be of value: with a datiue, for Habeo, to haue.

Sum amphitrionis, I am Amphitrions ſeruãt.

Sunt mihi bis ſeptẽ præſtanti corpore nymphæ, I haue fortene maydens of excellent beautie.

Sum in mora illi, I make hym to tarie.

Sum in metu, I am afeerde.

Sum in noxia, I am put in the blame.

Sum, olde writers vſed for eum, hym.

Sit veſtra benignitas ad audiendum: pleaſeth it you to here?

Sunt ſeptem dies, it is ſeuen daies agone.

Eſſe deſyderio, to be deſyred.

Quæ eſui potuicq; non ſunt, which ſerue not for meate and drynke, or be not eaten or dronken.

Hoc melli eſt, this is pleaſant and ſweete.

Indis eſt magno precio, among the Indians it is greatly eſteemed, or of great value.

Eſſe in ſermonibus, to be muche communed or talked of abrode.

Eſt, for Licet. Quæ verbo obiecta verbo negare ſit, ſuche thynges as bee laied to ones charge in woordes, a man maie denie with woordes.

Eſt adoleſcens eſcæ maximæ, he is a verie great eater.

Magni ſunt oneris, they carry a great burdein.

Mentiri non eſt meum, it is not my propertee to lie.

Non eſt noſtrum onus, it is no part of our charge.

Iudicabunt nihil æque diſſoluendæ religionis eſſe, thei will thynke that nothing ſhall ſo ſone diſſolue honeſt religion.

Quanti eſt ſumito, receyue as muche as it is woorth.

Eſt ſeſtertiis tribus modius, a buſſhell is ſolde for three ſeſtertij.

Quis pluris fuit Annebale, cõſilio, virtute. &c. who was better ſe.

Magni apud aliquem eſſe, to be much ſet by of any man, to be in great fauour or eſtimation.

Sum domi meæ, tuæ, veſtræ, &c.

Eſt

Est derisui omnibus, he is a laughyng stocke to euery man, euery man maketh him a sowle.
Mihi magnæ molestiæ fuit, it greued me sore.
Quanto sumptu fuerim tibi, how great charge I haue ben to you.
Est mihi melius, it is better with me, I am better.
Ni mihi tecum minus esset, if I were not lesse aquainted or familiar with you.
Amori esse, to be loued.
Odio esse, to be hated.
Cui bono fuerit, to whom it shall bee profitable.
Crimini esse, to be laied as a faute to ones charge.
Tibi gloriæ esse putasti, thou thoughtest it to be a glorie or praise to the.
Factum illud inuidiæ ei fuit apud patres, he was hated of the senatours for so doyng.
Esse miraculo dicitur res, whan men doe meruaile at it, as a thyng wonderfull and straunge.
Qui oneri ferendo essent, whiche were able to beare the bourdene or charge.
Prædæ esse, to be a praie or bootie.
Præsidio esse, to aide or succour.
Quæ signo sunt omnia, all whiche thynges doe signifie.
Testimonio alicui esse, to beare one witnesse.
Vsui esse, to be expedient or profitable.
Sum, is eloquently vsed with certayne prepositions.
Vide ne hoc totum sit à me, but consider, whether this whole matter make not for me.
Id est ad lateris dolorem, that is holesome or medicinable for the pepne in the syde.
Ad vrbem esse, for in vrbe.
Fac apud te sies, see that thy wittes be thine owne.
Ad eam partem quæ est ad Hesperiam, whiche lieth towarde Hesperia.
Etiam ex his qui cum imperio sunt, whiche be in auctoritee, whiche beare a rule or stroke in the common weale.
In delitiis alicui esse, to be ones dearlyng.
In animo est, I am aduised or mynded, I haue determined, my fantasie is.
Et est hodie in bonis, and he is now in possession of the goodes.
Cuius in ditione sunt, in whose auctoritie or power they be.
Est in exemplis, it is writen.
In expectando sum, id est, expecto.
In infamia esse, to be defamed, to haue an ill name.
In mentem mihi fuit, I was mynded.
In meis intimis est, he is one of my nerest and especiall frendes.
Esse in oculis hominibus, to be loued of men.
In pabulo esse, to be good to eate.
Esse in noxia, to be faulte.
In publico esse non audet, he dareth not come abrode.
In quæstu lingua est, he getteth his liuyng by his tongue.
Magna esse in spe, that men haue a great hope of it.
Quandiu vos eritis in spe, as long as ye haue any hope.
Multum fuit in venationibus, he vsed hunting muche.
Esse in vita, to liue.
In vsu esse, to be vsed or occupied.
Pro nobis sunt, they be on our parte.
Esse in procuratione regni, to haue the charge or gouernaunce of the common weale.
Iam ego hic ero, I will be here by and by.
Vbi illic dies est complures, whan he had ben or taried there a good space.
Male sit tibi, the deuill take the.
Bono animo es, be of good cheere.
Est mihi nomen, my name is.
Nomen Mercurij est mihi, my name is Mercurie.
Est, onely in the thirde person, for conuenit.
Non est inter patrem & filium &c. id est, non conuenit.
Fuit quoddam tempus, the tyme was ones.
Est quod gaudeas, thou haste a cause to reioyce.
Non est quod &c. there is no cause whie.
Erit vbi te vlciscar, I shall ones haue a tyme to be reuenged on the.
Sin est vt velis, but if it be so that ye will.
Est mihi iter Lemnum, my iourney is to Lemnos.
Est vbi damnum præstet facere quàm lucrũ, it chaunceth or cometh to passe sometyme, that it is. &c.
Quæ huius loci esse videbuntur, whiche shall seeme to be proper, conuenient or agreyng for that place.
Non tam facile his opitulari est, it is not possible to helpe them so easily: or it is not so easie a matter to helpe them.
Vt hic sitis hodie, that you would tarie here to daie.
Esto, be it, I am content.
Quod si vt es, cessabis, lacessam, if thou playe the slouggarde, as thou art wont, I will prouoke the or stere the vp.

Sumenalia, lowe Summanalia.

Sumen, sũminis, n. ge. is made of the pappes of a sowe, cut from hir the daie after she hath farowed, and powdered with salte.

Summa, æ, f. ge. a collection of thynges or woordes, also the principall poynct of a matter, the conclusion of a thyng.
Quanta istæc hominum summa est, how great is the nombre.
Summam promissi sui complere, to performe me and accomplishe his promise.
Victoriæ summa in eo constat, the chiefe poynct of the victorie consisteth in that.
Ne summæ rei periculum faceret, That he shoulde not hasarde or put the whole matter in adin aduenture.

Summa quadrans, loke Quadrans.
In ſummam belli profectum foret, he had atchiued and finiſhed the whole warre.
In ſummam proficit, it cometh at lengthe to perfection.
Summa illa fit, for a concluſion, to conclude, to make ſhorte and ſpeake it in fewe wordes.
Summa fuit, the ſumme of the whole matter was thus.
Summa eſt in teſtibus, the chiefe or principall poynct of all the matter is in the witneſſes.
Deceder nihil de ſumma, there ſhall nothyng of the ſumme be diminiſched.
Subducamus ſummam, let vs caſt the whole ſumme.
De ſumma detrahere, to debate of the ſumme.
Deceſsionem facere de ſumma, idem.
Summam conficere, to ſomme.
Hanc ſummam orationis habuit, all his wordes came to this poynete.
Ad ſummam, to be ſhorte.
Summanália, æ, fœ. ge. a great cake made lyke a whele, ſuche as is made at brydales and churche goinges.
Summanus, a god, whom the paynyms thought to haue preheminence in the nyght, ſome take it for Pluto.
Summárium, ij, n. g. an Epitome, or bridgemẽt.
Summárius, rij, chiefe or principall aboue other.
Summátes, tum, the chiefe perſons of a realme or citee, peeres or great men.
Summâtim, compendiouſely, by euery parte of the matter, ſummarily.
Summâtim, of Summus, by the toppes or higheſt partes.
Summâtus, us, m. g. empyre, ſouereignetee, dominion, chiefe rule.
Summè, excellently, chiefely, as riche as is poſſible, very greatly.
Summergo, merſi, gere, to plunge vnder water, to drowne.
Summiſsi, murmurers.
Summiſsim, & Summiſſe, ſoftely, not lowde.
Summiſſus, a, um, baſe, lowely.
Summiſſa voce, with a ſofte voyce, ſometyme with humble wordes.
Súmmitas, atis, f. g. heyght, or highneſſe, ỹ toppe.
Summitto, miſi, ere, to conueygh in priuily, alſo to ſuffer to grow.
Summittere barbam, to let the bearde growe.
Summo, aui, are, to ſumme or make an accompt.
Summœnianæ vxores, whores kept in the ſtede of wiues.
Summœ'nium, nij, n. gen. a place where baudry was kept without the walles of a towne.
Summœ'nius, a, um, that whiche is vnder the walles.
Sũmóneo, ſúmmones, nui, ere, loke Submoneo.
Summopere, aduerbium, very diligently. Cic. de inuent. 37.

Summoueo, ſúmmoues, moui, ẽre, to put away, to ſet a parte, to laie aſyde.
Summus, a, um, hyghеſt, extreme, greateſt or very commendable, excellent, ſometyme very deepe.
Summum, at the moſt.
Summo iure agere, to take the rigour or extremitee of the law in ſuite, to vſe extremitee.
Summum faſtigium imponere, to finiſſhe a thynge perfectely, to bryngе a matter to a poynete.
Summam manum addere, idem.
Summum & profundum, contrary, the toppe and the bottome.
Vixit ad ſummam ſenectutem, he liued vntill he was a verie aged man, or as longe as any man coulde liue.
Amicus ſummus meus, my great and eſpeciall friende.
Summa aqua, the toppe of the water.
Aetas ſumma, the laſt age.
Aeſtas ſumma, the laſt ende of ſummer.
Summo artificio facta, mutuallouſely cunnyngly wrought.
In ſumma deſperatione, whan there was no hope in the worlde, whan all hope was paſt.
Summa fide, without any fraude or gyle, very ſincerely and truely.
Summa forma, excellent beautie or fauour.
Inſcitia ſumma, extreeme folye or ignoraunce.
Summo loco natus, deſcẽded of a noble linage.
Ad ſummam magnitudinem peruenire, To come to the greateſt, to be as bygge as euer they will be.
Omnia ſumma in eo ſunt, all excellent vertues that can be in a man, are in hym.
Summus mœror, great heauineſſe.
Sũma quæſtio, the principal poinct or queſtiõ.
Summa voce pronunciare, to ſpeake alowde.
E ſummo puteo, out of the very deepe pitte.
Summuto, aui, are, to change one for an other.
Sumo, ſumpſi, ere, to take vppon one, to take generally, to bryng, to conſume, to beſtowe. alſo to ſpend or beſtow on one, to receiue, to chooſe, alſo to take kayre and ſofely. it differeth frõ Rapio.
Quoad enim peruentum, quo ſumpta nauis eſt, non domini nauis eſt, ſed nauigantium, vntyll they come to the place whyther the ſhip was hyred, the ſhippe is not the owners, but theyrs that be paſſagers.
In mala vxore atque inimico, ſi quid ſumas, ſumptum eſt, on a ſhrewde wife and an enemie, what ſo euer thou beſtoweſt is waſt.
Sumere aquam de puteo, to drawe water out of the well.
Sumere confidentiã, to truſt, to take courage.
Sumere mutuum, to borowe.
Sumere obſequium animo, to liue after his owne phantaſie or pleaſure.
Sumere operam fruſtra, to labour in vaine.
Sumere optionem, to chooſe.

Sumere personam, to counterfaite an other.
Sumere supplicium, to punisshe.
Mihi non sumo tantum, I doe not make my boaste that I can dooe so muche.
Mihi non sumo, vt meum consilium valere debuerit, I doe not attribute so muche vnto my selfe, as to thinke that my counsaile ought haue bene followed.
Hoc mihi sumpsi, vt id à te peterem, I was so bolde as to desyre that of you.
Mihi pro meo iure sumo, I claime this by good ryght.
Sumeret alicundè, he shulde borow it of some body. Sumere in re aliqua, id est, impendere, to bestow.
Sumat sibi aliquem iudicem, id est, eligat, let hym chouse or take to him a iudge.
Bellum sumere, to begyn or enterpryse warre.
Sumere, for Consumere, to spende.
Diem sumere, to take a daie to dooe a thyng.
Hilarem sumamus hunc diem, leat vs spende this daie merily.
Exordium, or Initium sumere, to begynne.
Ientaculum sumere, to breake his fast.
Cibum sumere, to eate.
Imperatorias sibi partes sumere, to take on hym the office of a captaine.
Spatium ad cogitandum sumere, to take leasure to muse on the mattier.
Tantos sibi spiritus sumpserat, he became so haut mynded and proude.

Sumptifácio, féci, ere, to spende.
Sumptio, ônis, f. g. a takyng.
Sumptito, aui, are, to take often.
Sumptuárius, a, um, that perteineth to expenses.
Sumptuariæ leges, lawes made for restreignyng of outragious expenses.
Sumptuosè, sumptuously, chargeably.
Sumptuósus, a, um, sumptuous, costly, that spendeth muche or outragiously.
Domus sumptuosa, a costely house or family, wherin is muche superfluitee of expenses.
Sumptuosa cœna, a sumptuous and costely supper.
Sumptus, us, m. g. expense, cost, charge.
Effusus sumptus, riotte, superfluous expense.
Dare sumptum, to geue money to spende or bestowe.
Ne sumptui reipublicæ essent, that they might not be chargeable to the common weale.
Prouinciam sumptu exhaurire, to ouercharge the countrey with exceedyng cost and expenses.
Facere sumptum in aliquem, to spende or bestowe cost on one.
Aductus noster ne minimo quidem sumptui vobis fuit, was no charge at all to you.
Nullus teruntius sumptus factus est, there was not one farthyng spente or bestowed.
Facere ampliter sumptum, to spende or bestow largely.
Impendent infiniti sumptus in hos exercitus. &c. these armies will stande vs in infinite charge.
Inferre sumptus ciuibus, to putte the citesins to coste.
Insumere sumptum magnum in rem aliquã, to spende verie muche vpon a thyng.
Ponere sumptum, to bestowe cost.
Minuere sumptum in aliquem, not to spende or bestowe so muche on one.
Ne extra modum sumptu prodeas, that you spende not beyonde measure.
Sumptus suppeditare, to fynde ones costes and charges.

Sunium, a promontorie or elbow of the countrey of Attica, also a village there.
Suo, sui, ere, to sowe, to ioyne or make fast together.
Suere aliquid capiti, to get a shewed turne.
✠ Videat ne quid suo suat capiti, let hym take heede lest he gette hym selfe a shewed turne, or lest he make a rodde for his owne taile.
Metuo lenonem ne quid suo suat capiti, I am aferde of the baude, lest he procure or get hym selfe a shewed turne.

Suopte ingenio, of his owne propre witte.
Sup, for Super, aboue.
Supellecticárius, rii, m. g. a bondeman or slaue, whiche is accompted for chatell.
Supellex, léctilis, or Hic & hæc Supellectilis & hoc supellectile, householde stuffe, all thynges moueable within the house.
Super, vpon, aboue, beyonde, moreouer, also of, sometyme for Præter, besyde.
Super Garamantas & Indos proferet imperium, he shall aduance his empyre beyonde the Garamantians and Indians.
Super cœnam, at supper tyme.
Super hæc, moreouer.
Super Euclionis filiam, of Euclions daughter.
Super Priamo, super Hectore, of Priamus, of Hector.
Hac super re scribam ad te, of that mattier I write vnto the.
Super, for Propter.
Nec super ipse sua molitur laude laborem, nor he taketh the peine for his praise.
Super, for Valde, His accensa super, with those woordes she beyng greatly inflamed or sterred.
Studui super mediam noctem, or media nocte, halfe the night and more, or til it was past mydnight.
Erant super mille, they were aboue a thousande.
Super veteres amicos & familiares, besydes his olde frendes and familiars.
Super bellum, annona præmente, ouer and besydes the warre, being in great distresse for lacke of vitailes.
Gratias aliis super alias epistolis agit, he geueth me thankes in many letters one after an other.

Super

Super vinum & epulas, at the tyme whan they were drinkyng and makyng mery.
Super se collocare aliquem, to place one aboue hym selfe.
Super gratiam esse, id est, maius esse, vincere. Satis superq, enough and to muche.
Et super é vallo prospectant, id est, desuper.
Superquam quod, for Præterquàm quod.
Super somnum seruus, a chamberlayne.
Super, sometyme for Insuper.
Supera, for Supra.
Súpera, ôrum, is vsed substantiuely for heauen.
Superabundo, aui, are, to abounde, to be superfluouse.
Superaddo, didi, ere, to put to, or adde to more ouer.
Superalligo, aui, are, to binde vppon another thynge.
Superamentum, i, that is superfluouse or ouerplusse.
Superbé, proudly, stately, loftely.
Subérbiter, idem, vsed of Ennius.
Superbius aliquem appellare, to speake to one proudly and disdeinefully.
Supérbia, æ, f. g. pryde, loftinesse of mynde, arrogancie.
Supérbibo, pérbibi, bire, to drynke after, to drynke more than neede is.
Superbificus, a, um, that doeth a thinge proudly.
Superbiloquens, & Superbiloquus, he that speaketh proudly or hautly.
Superbiloquentia, æ, f. g. proude or haute wordes, proude and arrogant speakyng.
Superbio, bíui, ire, to be proude, to be high minded, to haue a lofty stomache, to goe stately and arrogantly.
Superbus, a, um, proude, sometyme magnifike or noble. also high, sumptuous, ornate or garnished, riche, wicked.
Superbos, olde writers vsed for Mortuos, because of the pompe which was at the buriynge.
Faciam ego hodie te superbum, nisi hinc abis, I wyll hyll the, if thou get the not hens.
Superbum bellum, vniust, vnhappy, or wicked warre.
Populum late regem belloq superbum, id est, excellentem, nobilem.
Tyburq superbum, magnifike, builded high.
Postes spolys superbi, id est, ornati.
Superbas aures habemus, when we disdeigne to heare one speake.
Superbum est, it is a proude acte.
Supercalco, aui, are, to treade vpon, or rather to late ouer with lyme.
Supercerno, creui, ere, to syfte or rainge vpon.
Supércido, pércidi, ere, to fall on.
Supercilióſus, a, um, sower in countinance.
Supercilium, ii, n. g. the ouer browe, sometyme it signifieth pryde, grauitee. it is also the hanee, whiche is ouer the dooze.
Supercilij salir, spoken prouerbially, whē one hath a good hope ỳ a thynge wyll come to passe.
Supercilium attollere, to be stately or proude.
Supercilij ponere, to late aparte pryde or stately countinance.
Supercilium contrahere, to lowre.
Supercilium remittere, contrarie.
Seueri supercilij matrona, a sadde housewife or a sower dame.
Supercilium montis, the ridge of an hyll.
Supercilium, is sometyme vsed for Nutus, a becke.
Supercóntego, texi, gere, to couer ouer.
Supercorruo, ui, ere, to fall downe vpon.
Supercresco, creui, scere, to ouergrowe.
Supércubo, cubui, are, to lie vpon, to slepe vpon.
Supercurro, curri, ere, to ren vpon, to ren aboue.
Supercurrere ager dicitur vectigali, quũ habet ampliorem prouentum, to bee better than the rent.
Superdico, dixi, ere, to late more ouer, to adde to in woordes.
Superdo, pérdedi, ere, to late vpon, to put vpon.
Superdúco, duxi, ere, to bryng beside them that be brought alredy, to couer ouer or late vpon.
Supéredo, éredis, édi, ere, to eate after a thyng.
Superémineo, minui, minere, to be higher than other, to be aboue other.
Superérogo, aui, are, to geue more ouer, to geue ouer and aboue that was geuen alredy.
Superexto, stiti, tare, to remaine ouer.
Supérfero, fers, pertuli, ferre, to beare ouer.
Superficiárius, a, um, that hath an house of his owne, builded on an other mans grounde, and pareth therfore a quite rente.
Superficiariæ ædes, houses builded on the lãde of an other man than builded them.
Superficies, ei, f. g. the ouermoste parte of any thynge.
Superfit, for Supereſt.
Superfloresco, florui, scere, to bud or spryng ouer.
Superflué, superfluouselp.
Superfluitas, âtis, f. g. superfluitie.
Supérfluo, fluxi, ere, to abũde or be superfluous.
Supérfluus, a, um, superfluouse.
Superfœto, aui, are, when beastes after theyr first conception conceiue an other ponge.
Superfúlgeo, fulsi, fulgére, to shyne, or caste a great lyght vpon.
Superfundo, fudi, ere, to poure vpon.
Superfusus, a, um, poured vpon, spred or spared abrode.
Superfusus Tyberis, the ryuer of Tyber ouer flowyng.
Superfundens se lætitia, exceedynge great ioye comyng vpon a man.
Superfusa gens montibus, spread abroad vpon the mountaines.
Supérgero, gessi, gerere, to caste or heape vpon.
Supergrádior, or Supergrédior, gredi, to goe vpon. Supergredi omnem laudem, to passe or excell all prayse.

Superi, thei whiche be in heauen.
Superiácio, superiacis, iéci, ere, to caste vpon or laie vpon. also to adde to.
Superiacto, aui, are, to caste vpon often, to passe ouer or beyonde, to leape ouer.
Superiectus, us, m. g. a leappng as an horse doth a mare, a castyng vpon.
Superilligo, aui, are, to bynde vpon.
Superillino, lini, liui, linere, to anointe or smere vpon.
Superincido, incidi, ere, to fall on.
Superimpendens, entis, om. g. hangyng ouer.
Superimpono, posui, ponere, to put vpon, to charge moreouer.
Superinduco, duxi, ere, to laie vpon, to couer.
Superinduo, indui, ere, to put vpon.
Superingero, ingessi, ingerere, to cast or heape vpon.
Superinnício, iniícis, iéci, ícere, to caste vpon or laie vpon, also to adde to.
Superintego, texi, ere, to couer ouer.
Superintono, ui, tonare, to thunder from aboue, to make a great noise from an high place.
Superinungo, unxi, ere, to anoint vpon.
Superior, & hoc superius, hygher.
Superior ætas, the tyme or age passed.
Accumbit superior, he sitteth higher.
Tota domus superior, all the vpper parte of the house.
Superioribus temporibus, in tyme paste.
Superiores, auncestours, seniours, they that lined before our time. also thei ꝑ excell or passe.
Superiorem esse largitione, to excell or passe one in liberall geuyng.
Superlachrymo, aui, are, to wepe or droppe vpon.
Superlátio, ônis, f. g. a bearyng ouer.
Superlatiuus, superlatiue.
Superlâtus, a, um, that is set to augment the matter.
Superliminre, âris, n. g. the transome or lintell ouer a doore.
Supérlitus, a, um, smered ouer.
Supermando, mandi, ere, to eate ouer an other thyng.
Supérmeo, aui, are, to goe ouer, to slippe ouer, to renne or flowe ouer.
Supérmico, aui, are, to excell or passe.
Supernas, âtis, f. g. that is aboue.
Supérnato, aui, are, to swimme vpon.
Supernâtus, a, um, that is borne or growen beside other.
Supernati, they that haue the hynder parte of the yi shyghes nerte the buttockes cut away.
Superábilis, le, that maie be passed or ouercome.
Superné, a high, aboue, from aboue.
Supernia, the inwarde and hindermost part of the thighes nerte the buttockes cut of Supernus, a, um, hygh or ouer, that is aboue.
Superna regio, the highe countrey.
Súpero, aui, are, to goe ouer, to surmount, to excede, to passe, to ouercome, to excell, to bounde, to bee lefte, to remaine, also to vanquisshe or ouercome. also to ouerliue, sometyme to kyll.
Quod superat, whiche is more, or is lefte in a surplusage.
Aqua vix superat genua, the water scantly cometh aboue the knees.
Si quæstum sumptus superat, if his expences be greatter than his gaines, if he spende more than he getteth.
Hæc superat ipsam Thaidem, this passeth Thais her selfe.
Adamante superare duritia, to be harder than the Diamonde.
Cursu superare canem, to renne swifter or faster than a dogge.
De eo quod ipsis superat, of that thinge whiche they haue to muche of.
Si quid ære meo alieno superabit, if I shall haue any thyng lefte whan my debtes be paied.
Multa die superante, before it was night by a good while.
Superáne & vescitur aura? is he alue. ꝙ.
Aliquem ferro superare, to kyll one.
Superobruo, óbrui, ruere, to ouerwhelme or cast vpon, to couer quite and cleane.
Superpendeo, pendi, pendére, to hange ouer.
Superpondium, ii, n. g. ouerweight, that whiche is added to the iust weight.
Superpóno, sui, ere, to put ouer or to set vpon.
Superrado, rasi, ere, to strape vpon, to shaue the vpper parte.
Superscando, scandi, ere, to clyme vp vpon.
Superscribo, scripsi, bere, to wryte vppon or ouer.
Supersedeo, supérsedes, sedi, ere, to omitte or leaue to doo a thynge, to leaue of.
Supersedere pugnæ, to geue ouer battaile, to cease from battaile.
Supersedeas hoc labore iuueris, take not the payne to come nowe, or forbeare the peyne tarying in this iourney.
Supersede istis rebus, let these thynges alone.
Supersede istis verbis, let these woordes passe, holde thy tongue.
Supersedi scribere, I forbare to wryte, I lefte vnwritten.
Verborum multitudine supersedendum est, we must not vse many woordes.
Supersilio, supérsilis, silui, ꝙ siliui, lire, to leape or hoppe vpon.
Superspargo, or spergo, sparsi, spergere, to sprincle or cast vpon.
Superstagno, aui, are, to ouerflowe.
Supersterno, straui, ere, to strawe or couer ouer.
Superstes, pérstitis, om. g. a surviuour, he that ouerliueth or remaineth alyue after that other be deade. also alyue, sometyme present, olde writers called Superstites, witnesses.
Superstes toti conuiuio, he that riseth last from the table.
Superstitem alicui & vitæ alicuius esse, to liue after after an other.

Superstes Syllæ vixit vsque ad Antonium, he liued after Sylla, euen to Antonius tyme.
Multi superstites bellorum, infamiã. &c. many escapyng and liuyng after the warres. &c.
Se superstitem gloriæ suæ supereſſe, to lyue and remaine after the tyme of his glorie.
Superstitem reipublicæ viuere, to liue after the common weale is vtterly destroyed.
Superstes, he that is late.
Deos quæso vt sis superstes, I beseche god saue you, longe mought you lyue. also present.
Superstitẽ vtrumq; monui, ne inuiſi abirent, I aduised theim bothe beyng present, that they shoulde not depart before they were bedden.
Superstitio, ônis, f. g. a superfluous or vaine religion or deuocion, an honourynge of that which ought not to bee honoured, a vaine reuerence or feare towardes that thing, wherein is no efficacie or power, but by the illusion of the deuill, as diuination by the fleeyng and cryng of byrdes, obseruacion of tymes and dreames, and other lyke vanitees. finally, euery vndiscrete or vnreasonable deuocion of religion, may be called superstition.
Superstitiosè, superstitiously, vainely, scrupulously, curiously.
Superstitiosi, they whiche be timorous without cause, fearynge that God is displeased where none offence is doen, they were at the fyrste so called, because they continually prayed and offered to the goddes, to preserue their children, that they myght ouer liue theim.
Superstitiósus, a, um, superstitious.
Supérstito, aui, are, to make whole, or recouer from death. also to liue after other.
Superſto, ſtiti, are, to stande vpon.
Superſtruo, ſtruxi, ere, to builde vpon.
Superſum, perfui, eſſe, to abounde, to remaine, to vanquiche, to be superfluous, to endure, to be alyue after other.
Superesſit, for supererit, shall lyue or be lefte on lyue.
Supereſt, he liueth, or is on lyue.
Supereſt, there is plentie, more than enough.
Aliis quia deſit quod amant ægre eſt, tibi quia supereſt, dolet, some because they lacke the thyng that they loue be discontent, and thou art sorye that thou hast more than thou nedest.
Porro auſculta quod supereſt fallaciæ, but yet heare what was the residue of that crafte or deceite, or heare that is behinde more of that subtilitee or falshode, to defend or pleade for one.
Cunctari ſe, ne ſi supereſſet, eriperet legibus reum, he woulde tarie, leste if he came & spake for hym, he shulde deliuer an offender.
Quod supereſt, for the rest, or that is behinde, to conclude.
Tuæ supereſſe vitæ, to liue after the.
Tu plane superes, non ades, id eſt, ſuperfluus es.
Supereſſe labori, to ouercome the labour.
Supereſſe and deeſſe, contrarie.
Modo vita ſuperſit, if my life kayle me not, if god sende me lyfe.
Supernacaneus, a, um, superfluouſe, that serueth for nothyng.
Supernacuò, an aduerbe, in vaine.
Supernácuus, a, um, not necessary, superfluous, in vaine, that serueth to no vse.
Dicere supernacuum habeo, I coumpte it in vaine to tell.
Superuãdo, uãſi, ere, to go vpon, to tryme vpon, to go ouer.
Superuadere omnes aſperitates, to goe & passe ouer all harde and daungerous places.
Superuagnea auis, was of the diuinours or south sayers called that birde, whiche cried from the toppe of any thyng.
Superuagor, aris, ari, to wander abrode more than needeth: in trees to haue mo boowes than needeth, to extende or growe abrode superfluouſely.
Supérucho, uexi, uehere, to carie vp vpon.
Superuenio, pérueniſ, uẽni, uenire, to come vnlooked for, to come vpon or after an other thing, to come vpon sodeynly, to ascende aboue, to leape vpon, as the male dooeth the female.
Huic lætitiæ Quintus superuenit, in the great ioye Quintus came vpon theim sodeynely.
Si quis eam supérueniat humor, if any moyſture come vpon it.
Taurus vbi iuuencum supérueni, The bull whan he leapeth on a bullocke.
Matrem ſtupro superuenit, he hadde to doos with his owne mother.
Si superuenerit iugum, if it grow vp vpon the rayle or frame.
Superuentus, us, masc. gen. a comynge vpon one sodeynely.
Superueſtio, ſtiui, ſtire, to ouercouer, or to shew outwarde.
Superuiuo, uixi, uiuere, to recouer from peryll of death, or whan a man seemeth to be dead.
Superungo, unxi, ungere, to annoynt vpon.
Superuolito, aui, are, the frequẽt. of Superuolo.
Supérvolo, aui, are, to flee ouer.
Superuoluo, uolui, uoluere, to rolle or tumble vpon.
Súperus, a, um, the hyghest or ouermoſt.
Superum mare, the sea, whiche is called Hadriaticum, wherin standeth the cite of Uenice.
Ex ſupero, for Superne.
Supinátus, a, um, laied vpryght.
Supiné, negligently.
Supino, aui, are, to laie vpryght, or the healy vpwarde. also to goe stately and arrogantly, holdyng the nose vp into the wynde.
Supinor, aris, ari, the passiue.
Supinus, a, um, vpryght, the healy vpwarde. sometyme it signifieth on an hill or high place. also idell.

Supina aure audire, to geue a dull eare, to here negligently.
Cursus supinus, id est, qui retro fit, whan a ryuer renneth backewarde towarde the head agayne.
Manus supinas ad cœlũ tendere, to lifte vp the hãdes to heauen, as men doe in prayeng to god.
Animus supinus, a slouthful mind or courage.
Supinus iactus, a castyng vpwarde.
Tibur supinum, standyng on a hyll syde.
Supinis manibus excipere aliquem, to receyue one willyngly whan he cometh.
Suppar, paris, mas. gen. almost euen, one almost equall or euen.
Supparasitor, ãris, ari, to folowe or flatter for a mans dinner.
Supparium, rii, n. g. a clothe or courtaine hanged vp where enterludes were plaied.
Súpparus, ri, m. g. vel suppãrum, ri, neu. ge. a smocke, it is also a topsaile of a shippe.
Suppedáneum, nei, n. g. a foote stoie, any thing that is sette vnder the foote.
Suppédito, aui, are, to geue or minister sufficiently. also to be enough or sufficient. sometyme for Suppeto. also to oppresse, to endure.
Ac stomacho non queo labori suppeditare, my stomache wil not leat me endure the labour. Also to furnisshe expenses, to geue as muche as a man wolde haue.
Nam si illi pergã suppeditare sumptibus Menedeme, mihi illæc vero ad rastros res redit, surely Menedeme, if I wold geue him as much as he wold spende, that thynge wold bryng me to the poinct to rake for my liuyng.
Suppeditare, to subdue or treade vnder.
Nunc video, in iudicio mecũ contendere non vis, vbi suppeditari turpissimũ, superare pulcherrimum est, now I perceiue thou wilte not contende with me before iudges, where it were a great shame to be subdued, and very muche honestie to haue the better.
Vt sit vnde suppeditentur sumptus necessarij, that we maie haue wherwith to maintaine our necessarie charges.
Testes suppeditare, to furnisshe one with witnesses.
Non suppeditat mihi charta, I haue no paper, I lacke paper.
Quæ suppeditant & ad victum & ad cultum, that bee sufficiente for meate and drynke and clothyng.
Vix in fundamenta suppeditauere, they were scant enough to make the foundations.
Si vita suppeditasset, if he had liued.
Suppéditor, aris, ari, the deponent.
Suppeditátio, ônis, f. g. a findyng geuing or ministryng of thynges that one lacketh.
Suppendo, pendi, pendere, to hange.
Suppétiæ & Suppetias, aide, succour, helpe.
Suppetias ire, to goe to the succour or aide of one. Suppetias mihi, bringe to me succours.
Suppetias venire, to come to succour.
Suppetias occurrit, he came forthewith to the succours.
Suppetias aduenì, come and helpe me.
Suppetias ferre, to aide or succour.
Suppétior, aris, ari, to succour or aide.
Súppeto, tiui, tere, to aske prayly or craftily.
Suppĕtit, it is in a readinesse, whan one hath enoughe of a thynge that he maie vse and occupie it.
Cui abunde suppetunt facultates, whiche hath riches enough.
Cui rerum suppetit vsus, which hath all thing that he nedeth.
Suppetere and deesse, contrarie.
Dum vires suppetunt, while we be of power or strength.
Si vita suppetet, if he liue.
Lingua non suppetebat libertati, he coulde not vtter and speake his woordes freely & boldely.
Vt vitæ tuæ superstes suppetat, that he maie out liue you.
Suppetunt dictis data aut facta.
Non suppetunt dictis data, he performeth not that he promised, or he hath not geuen that he promised.
Vtinã quæ dicis dictis facta suppetunt, would god thou wouldest doe as thou saiest, or would god thy deedes did agree with thy woordes.
Suppetit lucrum, there is gaine sufficient.
Res ita súppetit, the matter so requireth.
Suppilo, aui, are, to steale vnder hande or crafte ly, to robbe, to pyll.
Supplanto, aui, are, to putte vnder the foote, to ouerthrowe, to supplante, or deceiue in preuentynge one to his hyndrance or damage, to vnderplant or sette a tree or vine.
Supplaudo, si, dere, to reioyce prayly.
Supplementum, ti, n. g. that supplieth or maketh vp that which lacketh in quantitee or noumbre.
Súppleo, pleui, plere, to make vp that which lacketh, to make euen, to fill the place of hym that lacketh, sometyme to fill vp.
Si fœtura gregem suppleuerit, if he haue as many lambes as sheepe.
Remigio naues supplere, to fournish his shippes with rowars.
Remis zephiros supplere, to helpe the winde with ores, to driue forwarde the shippe.
Librum imperfectum supplere, to make perfecte a booke.
Exercitum supplere, To furnysshe an armie where some of the numbre lacked.
Bibliothecam supplere, to furnysshe a librarie with bookes there as it lacketh.
Vsum prouinciæ supplere, to geue one that is necessarie to spende in the tyme that he is in the prouince.
Supplex, súpplicis, om. g. that desyreth any thing kneelyng or prostrate, suppliant.
Veniam supplex poposci, I desired pardon for geues

geneneſſe humbly vpon my knees.
Libelli ſupplices, requeſtes, ſupplications.
Supplices venerunt pacem petentes, thei came crowchynge and kneelyng, deſirynge peace.
Verbis ſupplicibus orare, to intreate one humbly.
Supplicátio, ônis, ſ. g. a prayer, a requeſte, a proceſſion.
Supplicaſsis pro ſupplicaueris.
Supplicans, tis, he that deſpreth a thynge.
Supplicíter, humbly kneelyng.
Supplicíter loqui, to ſpeake humbly.
Literas ſupplicíter mittere, to ſende letters to one in maner of ſupplicacion.
Supplícium, cij, peine, tourment, or execution of deth. ſomtime ſupplicia, are prayers, ſupplications.
Supplicia péndere, to be put to execucion.
Dabis ei vltro ſupplicium, thou wilt be content to be puniſched at his hande.
Afficere ſupplicio, to puniſhe.
Perire ſupplicio, to be put to deathe
Sumere ſupplicium, to puniſhe.
Súpplico, aui, are, to beſeche humbly, to make requeſte.
Deo thure & vino ſupplicare, to make ſacrifice to god with incence and wine.
Supplódo, ſi, dere, to ſtampe or make noiſe with the feete, alſo to reiecte or caſte away.
Supplóſio, ónis, ſ. g. a ſtamppnge or noiſe made with the feete.
Suppœ́nitet, it ſomewhat repenteth, it halfe repenteth.
Suppóno, ſui, nere, to put vnder, to put into the place of an other, to ſet a falſe or feigned thyng in the place of that whiche is the very true thynge.
Ova ſupponere gallinis, to ſet egges vnder an henne.
Tumulo ſupponere aliquem, to burie one.
Suppoſuit exemplum epiſtolæ Domitij, he wrate vnder. ꝫc.
Supponere ſe reum criminibus pro aliquo, to take vpon hym to anſwere to the faultes that are laied to an other mans charge.
Supponere vicarium, to ſet an other vnder hym.
Teſtamentum ſupponere, to bringe a forged teſtament or will.
Supporto, aui, are, to bringe or carie priuily, to conueigh vnder.
Suppoſitio, ônis, ſ. g. the puttyng or ſettyng of a falſe or feigned thynge in the place of the thinge ſelfe, as one childe for an other.
Suppoſititius, a, um, that is ſet in the place of an other.
Suppóſitus, and ſuppoſtus, a, um, put or ſette vnder, put falſely in the place of an other.
Suppoſitus partus, when the childe of one woman is laied with an other woman, whiche is not the verey mother, as though ſhe had borne it, a chaungelyng.
Suppoſtor, ôris, m. g. he that priuely conueieth a mans childe to an other as his owne.
Supprǽdes, countrefaytes, thei whiche are bounde to the ſuretees, to ſaue them harmeles.
Suppreſſio, ônis, ſ. g. ſuppreſſyng.
Nocturnæ ſuppreſſiones, when in the night a mans breathe and voice is ſtopped, whiche the common people beleue to be hegges.
Suppreſſus, a, um, drowned, beaten vnder, ſuppreſſed, kepte vnder, kepte downe, hidde, conceled.
Victi Perſi naues confugerũt, ex quibus multæ ſupreſſæ, multæ captæ, the Perſians fledde vnto their ſhippes, wherof many were drowned, and many taken.
Voce ſuppreſſa loqui, to ſpeake lowe.
Súpprimo, preſſi, primere, to kepe downe, to kepe ſecrete, to kepe in ſilence.
Impetum ſupprimere, id eſt, reprimere, to ſtoppe the violence.
Famam rei ſupprimere, to ſtent the fame or bruite of a thynge.
Nummos vel pecuniam ſupprimere, to reteine or kepe money with hym ſecretely, or by craft, or by vnlaufull meanes.
Supprimere iter, to ſtaie or omitte a iourney.
Supprómo, prompſi, mere, to draw out drinke.
Supprómus, mi, m. g. a butlar.
Bono cella ſuppromo credita, the cellar or butterie was committed to a good butlar.
Súppudet, I am halfe aſhamed, thou art halfe aſhamed, or he is halfe aſhamed.
Suppudet mei illius rei, I am halfe aſhamed of that matter.
Suppurántia, æ, ſ. g. matterynge of a ſore.
Suppurátum, ti, n. g. that is growen to an impoſtume.
Suppurátio, ônis, ſ. g. an impoſtume or ſore that hath matter.
Suppuratio rupta, an impoſtume or ſore broken.
Suppuratórius, a, um, that whiche perteineth to impoſtumes, or to make a ſore to matter.
Suppúro, aui, are, to matter or be an impoſtume.
Supputo, ſúputas, aui, are, to prune or cut trees ſleightly. alſo to caſt accompte.
Supra, aboue or ouer.
Supra tres cyathos, aboue three cuppes.
Supra modum, beyonde meaſure.
Nihil ſupra, nothinge can paſſe it or be more excellent.
Supra for Ante or Superius.
Supra demõſtrauimus, we haue ſhewed before.
Supraq̃ for Supra id quod.
Supradíctus, a, um, ſpoken before.
Suprapóſitus, a, um, put or ſet before.
Supraſcriptus, a, um, written before.
Supremo, higheſt of all, laſte of all.
Suprémus, a, um, the higheſt or greateſt of all other.

Suprema desperatio, vtter despeyre, whē there is no hope at all, when one can not tell what to doo.
Supremis suis annis, in the later ende of his lyfe.
Iter supremū carpere, to passe out of this life.
Manum supremam imponere, to atchieue, to finisshe, to make perfect.
Officia suprema, funerall obsequies, solemnitees kept at a mans interrement.
Sole supremo, at the sonne goyng downe.
Supplicium supremum, extreme punisshement.
Circa suprema Neronis, about Neroes latter daies.
Ordinare suprema sua, to make his testament or last wyll.
Germānici suprema defleuerat, he bewailed the deathe of Germanicus.
Supus, olde writers vsed for Supinus.
Sura, æ, fœ. ge. the tayle of the legge. somtyme the whole shanke or legge from the knee downe.
Suræ, be also vsed for botes.
Surculaceus, a, um, lyke a sette, graffe, or ponge sprynge.
Surculāris, re, that whiche bringeth foorth ponge settes or sprynges of trees.
Surculārius, a, um, belongyng to shootes sprynges or graffes.
Súrculo, aui, are, to cutte of shootes or sprynges from trees, to prune trees.
Surculosè, from shoote to shoote, one sprynge or shoote after an other.
Surculōsus, a, um, full of slippes, shootes or sprynges.
Surculus, li, m. g. a ponge sette or slippe. also a slippe of a tree or ponge graffe, a science.
Surdaster, a, um, that is somwhat deffe, and can not here, halfe deffe.
Surde, deafely.
Surdeo, dui, dēre, to be deafe.
Surdesco, scere, to wax deafe, or to be deafe.
Súrditas, atis, f. g. deafenesse.
Surdo, aui, are, to make deafe.
Surdus, a, um, deafe. also that whiche hath no sauour. also that speaketh not, that sowneth not, that maketh no noise.
Ictus surdi, strokes that make no sownde, that be not hearde.
Ad munera surdus, that is not mooued with gyftes or bribes.
Buccina surda, a trumpet that is not hearde.
Non erit officij gratia surda tui, I wyl not forget to thāke you for the great pleasure that you haue doone me.
Herbæ surdæ, herbes that be nothyng notable or spoken of.
Locus surdus, a place that rendreth not the sownde of a voice.
Nomen surdum, id est, ignobile, not famous or notable.
Posteritas surda, that speaketh nothynge of a man when he is dead.
Surdus color, a dathe colour.
Surdus veritatis, that herkeneth not to the truthe, that regardeth not the truethe.
Surgo, surrexi, surgere, to arise, to growe or sprynge.
Surgere à lecto, mensa, &c.
Surgere de cathedra, sella, &c. to rise out of a stoole or chaire.
Surgere cubitu, to rise from bedde.
De nocte surgere, to rise in the night.
In somnum surgere, to rise vp that he may goe to slepe.
Aedificia surgere dicuntur, when they be buylded vp.
Aequora surgunt, the seas arise and begyn to be troublous.
Surgentibus astris, when it began to be night.
Surgens in cornua ceruus, an harte beginning to haue hornes growyng.
Homo surgere dicitur, quando crescit.
Surgere dicuntur venti, when they beginne to blowe.
Luna surgit, the moone riseth.
Rumor surgit, a bruite or fame begynneth.
Surrexe, for surrexisse.
Surpiculus, li, m. g. a basket, a hamper, a pannier.
Surrentum, a towne in Campania.
Surrentinus, a, um, of that towne.
Súrregit, olde writers vsed for Surgit, wherof cometh surrectio, a risyng.
Surrēpo, repsi, repere, to creepe vnder, looke Subrepo.
Surreptitius, a, um, that which is doone by stelth, that none other man knoweth it.
Surreptus, a, um, taken or stolen awaie.
Súrrigo, rexi, gere, to lifte vp.
Surrigere aures, to lay his eare to a thynge to hearken.
Surripio, súrripis, pui, pere, to steale or take away priuily, also to lifte vp on high, to preuent.
Cupio illam operam seni surripere, I woulde faine preuent the olde man in that matter.
Surpite for surripite.
Surpuerit for surripuerat.
Surripere operam. Clanculū abij à legione, operam hanc surripui tibi, I departed priuily from the hoste, this tyme I haue borowed to doo you pleasure.
Surripere se, to steale awaie.
Vt surripuisti te dudum mihi de foro, O how byddest thou steale away from me late out of the market.
Surrogātio, ōnis, a substitution.
Súrrogo, aui, are, to substitute or put in an others place.
Sursum, vpwarde.
Ne sursum deorsum cursites, that thou shouldest

deſt not renne vp and downe.
Surſum verſum, vpwarde.
Surus, a ſtake.
Sus for ſurſum.
Suſq; deq; fero, & ſuſq; deq; habeo, I force not, I reche not, I care not muche, I litteli paſſe.
Sus, ſuis, com. g. a ſowe or hogge, a ſwyne.
Sus Mineruam, a prouerbe applied vnto hym, whiche preſumeth to teache or correcte one, of whom he rather ought to be taught or corrected.
Suſa, æ, and Suſa, ôrum, the chiefe towne of Perſis.
Suſceptio, ônis, f. ge. an enterpriſe, a takyng of a thynge in hande.
Suſceptum, ti, a thinge that one hath vndertaken or enterpriſed.
Suſceptus, a, um, vndertaken or enterpriſed, receiued, begotten as a childe is.
Soboles mihi ſuſcepta de te, I haue had iſſue of you.
Filius patri de nouerca ſuſceptus, the father had a childe of the ſtepmother.
Suſcio, ſcire, for, ſcio, to know.
Suſcipio, ſuſcipis, cepi, pere, to take on hym, to admitte, to receiue.
Suſcipere liberos, to gette children and fynde theym, to haue children by a woman.
Suſcipere fidem, to promiſe.
Quas partes impleturum te ſecundum ſuſceptam fidem confido, whiche parte I truſte thou wilte perfourme, accordinge to the promiſe that thou haſte made.
Conſilium ſuſcipere, to take counſaile or aduiſe.
Pœnam dignam ſcelere ſuſcipere, to bee puniſhed accordyng to his merites.
Simultates ſuſcipere, to bee at debate or variance with one.
Deo votã pro aliquo ſuſcipere, to make ſolemne vowes and prayers to god for one.
Aes alienum amicorum ſuſcipere, to take vpon hym to pay the debtes of his frendes, to charge him ſelfe with his frendes debtes.
Aliquem ſuſcipere & tueri, to receiue a man into his protection and defence.
In amicitiam ſuſcipere, to admitte one for his friende.
In ciuitatem ſuſcipi, to bee made a citezen or bourgeis of any place.
Bellum ſuſcipere, to enterpriſe warre.
De his rogo vt cogitationem ſuſcipiatis, that you wolde muſe or thinke on theſe mattiers, or that ye woulde conſyder and caſte theſe matters in your mynde.
Conſuetudo ſuſcepit, the cuſtome or faction of men hath receiued it.
Crimen aliquod ſuſcipere, id eſt, agnoſcere, to acknowlage or confeſſe. alſo to take on hym to defende a thinge that is laied to ones charge.
Crimen culpæ ſuſcipere, to take the blame.
Exercitationem corporis laboriosã ſuſcipere, to exercise his bodie in ſome peinfull labour.
Caſum ſuſcipere, to put hym ſelfe in daungier, to auenture, to hasarde.
Inimicitiam ſuſcipere, to put hym ſelfe in the enmitee and diſpleaſure of men.
Inimicum aliquem ſuſcipere, to renne in ones diſpleaſure, and haue him his ennemie.
Offenſas ſuſcipere, to renne in diſpleaſure of men.
Vt ſuſciperem partes ſuas, that I ſhoulde take his charge vpon me, or dooe as he had done before me, or plaie the parte that he had plaied.
Patrocinium rei alicuius ſuſcipere, to take vpon hym to defende a mattier.
Periculum pro ſalute alicuius ſuſcipere, to put hym ſelfe in dangier to ſaue an other mans life or good eſtate.
Perſonam boni viri ſuſcipere, to counterfait hym ſelfe to be an honeſt man.
Profectionem ſuſcipere, to take a iourney or voiage.
Vigilias ſuſcipere diſcendi cauſa, to watche.
Suſcito, aui, are, to awake one out of his ſleape, to call one to his warke, to reiſe vp, to ſturre or prouoke.
Somno and è ſomno ſuſcitare, to awake or reiſe one out of his ſleape.
Ignem extinctum ſuſcitare, to make the fier that is out burne againe.
Crepitum ſuſcitare pede, to make a noyſe with his foote.
Suſcitare aliquem ad ſuum officium, to exhorte or ſtere one to doe his duetie.
Suſcitabulum, li, a prouocation or ſtirryng, an exciting.
Suſcus, looke Subſcus.
Suſiana, næ, or Suſiane, nes, a prouince of Aſia.
Suſinus, a, um, made of lilies
Suſpecto, aui, are, to beholde aboue, to loke vp often. alſo to ſuſpecte. ſometyme to ſee beneth, or to looke downe.
Suſpectio, ônis, idem quod Suſpitio.
Suſpectus, us, m. g. a lookyng or beholdyng vpwarde. alſo heigh: ſometyme admiration.
Suſpectus, a, um, ſuſpected, miſtruſted.
Suſpectus ſuper aliquo ſcelere, ſuſpected of ſome lewde or naughty acte.
Suſpectus in aliqua virgine, miſtruſted to bee to familiar with a maiden.
Falſo inceſtu ſuſpecta, falſely ſuſpected of inceſte.
Hoc mihi ſuſpectum eſt, this is the thyng that I dooe ſuſpecte, or this mattier I doe ſuſpecte.
Locus ſuſpectus, id eſt, altus, cliuoſus.
Suſpendeo, di, dêre, to be hanged ouer or on hie. alſo to appere a litteli.
Suſpendiôſus, a, um, that is hanged.
Suſpendium, dij, n. g. a hangyng.
Suſpendia ſæua cogitabas, thou didſt thynke cruelly to hange thy ſelfe.
Suſpendo, di, dêre, to hange vp, to delaie, to deferre,

ferre, to make doubtfull or vncertaine.
Ex cerutice suspendere, to hange at ones neche.
Aedificium suspẽdere, to builde vpon arches.
Fluctiones oculorum suspendere, id est, cohibere, sistere.
Suspendere se é fico, to hange hym selfe on a figge tree.
Suspendere in arbore or arbori, to hange on a tree.
Medio responso rem suspenderunt, with a doubtefull answere they delaied or foded foorth the matter.
Ita mihi suspendit animũ, it maketh my minde so doubtefull or carefull.
Spiritum suspendere inter legendũ, to pause, reste or kepe his pointes in redyng.
Suspendere animos expectatione, to make men long for a thynge.
Naso adunco suspendere aliquem, prouerbyally to scorne or mocke.
Suspensúra, ræ, f. g. a hangyng vp.
Suspensio, ónis, f. g. a hangyng vp. also doubte or vncertaintie of the mynde.
Suspensus, a, um, hanged vp. also vncertayne, doubtefull, carefull, that can not tell what to doo.
Suspensa manu scribere, id est, dubitanter.
Suspenso gradu incedere, to goe a stalkynge pase.
Hæc vbi ego audiui ad fores suspenso gradu placidè irepetexi, when I herde those woordes, I went to the doore faire and softely.
Suspensus animo, haunge doubte, or kepnge adzadde.
Nec te suspensum tenebo, I will not kepe the any longer in doubte.
Animus suspensus, a mynde solicitous and carefull, or so in doubte, that he can not tell what to doo.
Suspensus somnus, a slumber, an vnquiete slepe.
Auribus suspensis bibere, to here diligently.
Suspensissimum pastinatum, a place which afterit is delued, is neuer troden downe with the feete, nor beaten or pressed downe with a rammer or rolle, but is lefte light and hollow.
Si terram suspensam relinquas, if ye doo not treade downe the grounde or presse it downe with a rollar.
Suspicans, antis, that hath suspicion, suspecting.
Suspicax, acis, that suspecteth or demeth.
Suspicio, ónis, f. g. suspicion.
Absoluere suspicione, to put out of suspicion.
Abesse á suspicione, to be out of suspicion.
Adduci in suspicionem, to bee brought in suspicion.
Aspergere suspicione, to make one suspected.
Assequi suspicione, to suspecte as the matter is.
Dare locum suspicioni, to gene occasion to suspecte.
Sic suspicio est, this euery man suspecteth.
Suspicio mihi nunc est, now doe I suspecte.
Expurgare suspicionem, to put awaie suspicion.
Importat suspicionem hæc res, this thynge maketh hym suspected.
De me suspicio incidit, they suspected me.
Injecere suspicionem alicuius rei, to make a thynge suspected.
Suspicióse, suspitiously.
Suspicióstus, a, um, suspitious.
Suspiciosa mula, a mule that feareth sodaynly and staggereth in the waie.
Suspicio, suspicis, spexi, spicere, to loke vp. also to honour, to answere, to meruaile, to haue in admiracion, to be in loue with a thynge. also to suspecte.
Suspicere cælum and in cælum, to looke vp to heauen.
Suspicere aliquem, to haue one in admiracion.
Suspicor, áris, ari, to haue suspition, to suspecte. also to suppose, to deeme.
Suspicor fore, I thynke it will come to passe.
Suspirans, antis, om. g. sighyng.
Suspiratio, ónis, f. g. a sighyng.
Suspirátus, us, m. g. a sighe.
Suspirium, ri, ne. ge. a sighe. also the disease of drawyng or fetchyng the breathe streite.
Petere and ducere suspirium, to fetche a sighe.
Rumpere suspiria in vocis, after great sighyng to breathe out and speake.
Suspiriósus, a, um, drawing or fetchyng the breath streicte, shorte wynded, or he which fetcheth his breath peinfully.
Suspiro, aui, are, to sighe, also to desyre feruently.
Ab imo pectore suspirare, to fetche a sighe from the bottum of his herte.
Ad honores suspirare, to haue a great desyre to come to honour and promotion.
Suspirat matrem, he sigheth after his mother, or for desyre of his mother.
Susq; deque habere, to passe nothynge whether the matter go vp or downe, to be nothynge solicitous or carefull how the matter goeth.
Susque deque habeo, loke before in Sus.
Sustilio, lire, for Subsilio.
Sustendo, stendi, stendere, to goe about a thyng to deceiue one.
Sustendere insidias, to late watche.
Sustentáculum, that whiche susteineth or beareth vp a thynge.
Sustentátio, ónis, f. g. a staiyng vp, a delaiyng.
Sustento, aui, are, to sustaine or beare vp, to aide, to helpe, to nourische, to feede, to maintayne, to endure, to suffer, to abide patiently.
Schola se sustentauit, he founde him selfe with teachyng a schoole.
Solus omnem familiam sustentat, he only findeth and norisheth all the housholde.
Alere & sustentare.
Aliorum opibus casus meos sustentabam, I

dyd prouyde for myne owne neceſſitees by the helpe of other.

Ipſa ſpes inopiam ſuſtentabat, the hope that they had did helpe or eaſe theyr nede.

Laborem ſpe otij ſuſtentat, he doeth ſuſteine or endure labour on hope of quietneſſe.

Suſtentare aliquem ſuis officiis, To helpe or ayde one with all the frendly pleaſures that he can doe hym.

Ex meis anguſtiis illius ſuſtento tenuitatem, with my ſmall ſubſtance I helpe his pouertee or neede.

Suſtenta te mea Terentia vt potes, ſuccour or help your ſelfe my deare Terentia in theſe iuells, as well as you can.

Tua virtute te ſuſtentes, comforte your ſelfe in the conſyderacion of your owne vertue.

Præclara conſcientia ſuſtentor, I cõforte my ſelfe with the teſtimonie of my good conſcience.

Aedificationem ad tuum aduentum ſuſtentari placebat, id eſt, differri, to be deferred or delayed vntyll your comyng.

Suſtentare mœrorem, id eſt, perferre, to endure or abyde.

Suſtentatum eſt, the impersonall.

Aegre eo die ſuſtentatum eſt, they had muche adoe to reſiſte or withſtande theyr enemies that daie.

Suſtineo, ſuſtines, nui, nêre, to holde vp, to ſuſtayne, to ſuffer, to endure, to forbeare, to defende, to mainteyne, to ſuppoꝛte, to fauour, to ſtop, to ſtaye, to holde backe, to defer, to feede, to refrayne, to beare of.

Quantum malarum rerum ſuſtineam, howe muche euill I doe ſuſteyne or abyde.

Meq; ſuſtinebam, and I did refreine my ſelfe.

Suſtinere ſe à reſpondendo, to refrayne from anſweryng.

Non ſuſtineo, id eſt, nequeo, non poſſum, nõ audeo, nolo, I can not, I dare not.

Nec iam ſuſpendere fletum ſuſtinet, neither can ſhe now forbeare weppyng.

Non ſuſtinui inducere in animum, I coulde not thinke or perſwade my ſelfe.

Qui ſpectare ſuſtinuiſſet, whiche had beholden it.

Rem in noctem ſuſtinuere, they deferred the matter, or medled not with the matter vntill it was night.

Apuleium tua authoritate ſuſtinere debes, you ought with your authoꝛitie to defende helpe and ſuppoꝛt Apuleius.

Artus infirmos baculo ſuſtinere, to ſtaie vp his weake lymmes with a ſtaffe.

Cuius mortis cauſam fugitiui ſuſtinent, of whoſe death certaine vagabounders and renagates beare all the blame.

Nonne furor eius omnem cauſam ſuſtinet, ought not all the blame to be laied on his furie.

Cauſam publicam ſuſtinere, To defende the quarell of the comme weale.

Poſſunt hoc cibo ſuſtineri, they maye be fedde or nouriſhed with this meate.

Crimen ſuſtinere, id eſt, defendere, to excuſe, to defende.

Maximam ſolicitudinem curámque ſuſtineo, I am in greate ſolicitouſeneſſe and care, I am verie ſolicitous or carefull.

Currum ſuſtinere, id eſt, retinere, to ſtop.

Dignitatem & decus ciuitatis ſuſtinere, to defende or mainteyne.

Equos incitatos ſuſtinere, to ſtoppe or holde backe.

Suſtines non paruam expectationem, men haue no ſmall expectacion of the.

Suſtinui gradum, I ſtopped or ſtode ſtyll.

Impetum ſuſtinere, to abyde or beare of.

Manum ſuam ſuſtinere deus dicitur, quando retrahit.

Sumptum ſuſtinere non poſſem, I could not beare the charges.

Vultum alicuius ſuſtinere, to abide ones lohe.

Milites piſce & herbis ſuſtinebãtur, the ſouldiours were nouriſhed with fiſſhe and herbes.

Suſtinere & tueri expectationem ſui, to hepe and mainteine the good eſtimacion that men haue of hym.

Onus magnum ſuſtinere, to ſuſteyne a great charge or bourden.

Suſtollo, tuli, lere, to lifte vp high.

Suſtollere animos, to be proude or to haue an high courage.

Suſtollere æs alienum, to paye debtes.

Suſtollere puerum, to bryng vp a childe.

Suſtulit, is proprely of the father, as Peperit is of the mother.

Suſtuli, I haue had, I haue brought vp, I haue lyfte vp.

Metum ſuſtollere, to take awaye feare.

Libertatem ſuſtollere, to take awaie libertie.

Conuiuium ſuſtollere, to take vp the table.

Vrbem funditus ſuſtollere, to deſtroye a citee vtterly.

Virginem ſuſtollere, to rauiſche a mayden.

In equum ſuſtollere, to lifte vp on horſebacke.

Suſum, olde writers vſed for Surſum.

Suſurrãtio, ônis, f. g. a whiſperyng.

Suſurro, aui, are, or Suſurror, aris, ari, to whiſper, to mutter.

Aures ſuſurrare, to whiſper in ones eare.

Suſurro, ônis, a whiſperer. alſo he that with falſe and ſecrete repoꝛte, maketh diſſencion betweene men, a tale bearer.

Suſurrus, i, m. gene. a whiſperyng or ſofte murmuryng, or ſuche noyſe as trees doe make with the wynde, or a riuer when it renneth, or birdes when they chatter.

Suſurrus, a, um, that whiſpereth or muttereth.

Sutãris, a ſeamſter or cheapſter, one that alwaye ſoweth.

Sutêla, æ, fœ. ge. ſubtyltee, or crafty warkyng, a craftie

ferre, to make doubtfull or vncertaine.
Ex cervice suspendere, to hange at ones neche.
Aedificium suspēdere, to builde vpon arches.
Fluctiones oculorum suspendere, id est, cohibere, sistere.
Suspendere se é fico, to hange hym selfe on a figge tree.
Suspendere in arbore or arbori, to hange on a tree.
Medio responso rem suspenderunt, with a doubtefull answere they delaied or foded foorth the matter.
Ita mihi suspendit animū, it maketh my minde so doubtefull or carefull.
Spiritum suspendere inter legendū, to pause, reste or kepe his pointes in redyng.
Suspendere animos expectatione, to make men loke for a thynge.
Naso aduncо suspendere aliquem, prouerbyally to scorne or mocke.
Suspensūra, rae, f. g. a hangyng vp.
Suspēnio, ōnis, f. g. a hangyng vp. also doubte or vncertaintee of the mynde.
Suspensus, a, um, hanged vp. also vncertayne, doubtefull, carefull, that can not tell what to doo.
Suspensa manu scribere, id est, dubitanter.
Suspenso gradu incedere, to goe a stalkynge pase.
Haec vbi ego audiui ad fores suspenso gradu placidē me perexi, when I herde those woordes, I went to the doore faire and softely.
Suspensus animo, haunge doubte, or bevnge adradde.
Nec te suspensum tenebo, I will not kepe the any longer in doubte.
Animus suspensus, a mynde solicitous and carefull, or so in doubte, that he can not tell what to doo.
Suspensus somnus, a slumber, an vnquiete slepe.
Auribus suspensis bibere, to here diligently.
Suspensissimum pastinatum, a place which after it is delued, is neuer troden downe with the feete, nor beaten or pressed downe with a rammer or rolle, but is lefte light and hollow.
Si terram suspensam relinquas, if ye doue not treade downe the grounde or presse it downe with a rollar.
Súspicans, antis, that hath suspicion, suspecting.
Suspicax, acis, that suspecteth or demeth.
Suspicio, ōnis, f. g. suspicion.
Absoluere suspicione, to put out of suspicion.
Abesse á suspicione, to be out of suspicion.
Adduci in suspicionem, to bee brought in suspicion.
Aspergere suspicione, to make one suspected.
Assequi suspicione, to suspecte as the matter is.
Dare locum suspicioni, to geue occasion to suspecte.

Sic suspicio est, this euery man suspecteth.
Suspicio mihi nunc est, now doe I suspecte.
Expurgare suspicionem, to put awaie suspicion.
Importat suspicionem haec res, this thynge maketh hym suspected.
De me suspicio incidit, they suspected me.
Injecere suspicionem alicuius rei, to make a thynge suspected.
Suspicióse, suspitiously.
Suspicióstus, a, um, suspitious.
Suspiciósa mula, a mule that feareth sodaynly and staggereth in the waie.
Suspício, suspicis, spexi, spicere, to loke vp. also to honour, to answere, to meruaile, to haue in admiracion, to be in loue with a thynge. also to suspecte.
Suspicere cælum and in cælum, to looke vp to heauen.
Suspicere aliquem, to haue one in admiracion.
Súspicor, āris, ari, to haue suspicion, to suspecte. also to suppose, to deeme.
Suspicor fore, I thynke it will come to passe.
Suspirans, antis, om. g. sighyng.
Suspiratio, ōnis, f. g. a sighyng.
Suspirātus, us, m. g. a sighe.
Suspirium, ri, ne. ge. a sighe. also the disease of drawyng or fetchyng the breathe streite.
Petere and ducere suspirium, to fetche a sighe.
Rumpere suspiria in vocis, after great sighyng to breake out and speake.
Suspiriósus, a, um, drawing or fetchyng the breath streite, shorte wynded, or he which fetcheth his breath peinfully.
Suspiro, aui, are, to sighe, also to desyre feruētly.
Ab imo pectore suspirare, to fetche a sighe from the bottom of his herte.
Ad honores suspirare, to haue a great desyre to come to honour and promotion.
Suspirat matrem, he sigheth after his mother, or for desyre of his mother.
Susq; deque habere, to passe nothynge whether the matter go vp or downe, to be nothynge solicitous or carefull how the matter goeth.
Susque deque habeo, loke before in Sus.
Sussilio, lire, for Subsilio.
Sustendo, stendi, stendere, to goe about a thyng to deceiue one.
Sustendere insidias, to laie watche.
Sustentáculum, that whiche susteineth or beareth vp a thynge.
Sustentátio, ōnis, f. g. a stayng vp, a delayng.
Sustento, aui, are, to sustaine or beare vp, to aide, to helpe, to nourische, to feede, to maynteyne, to endure, to suffer, to abide patiently.
Schola se sustentauit, he founde him selfe with teachyng a schoole.
Solus omnem familiam sustentat, he onely findeth and norisheth all the householde.
Alere & sustentare.
Aliorum opibus casus meos sustentabam, I

dyd prouyde for myne owne neceſſitees by the helpe of other.

Ipſa ſpes inopiam ſuſtentabat, the hope that they had did helpe or eaſe theyr nede.

Laborem ſpe otij ſuſtentat, he doeth ſuſteine or endure labour on hope of quietneſſe.

Suſtentare aliquem ſuis officiis, To helpe or ayde one with all the frendly pleaſures that he can doe hym.

Ex meis anguſtiis illius ſuſtento tenuitatem, with my ſmall ſubſtance I helpe his pouerte or neede.

Suſtenta te mea Terentia vt potes, ſuccour or help your ſelfe my deare Terentia in theſe iuells, as well as you can.

Tua virtute te ſuſtentes, comforte your ſelfe in the conſyderation of your owne vertue.

Præclara conſcientia ſuſtentor, I cõforte my ſelfe with the teſtimonie of my good conſcience.

Aedificationem ad tuum aduentum ſuſtentari placebat, id eſt, differri, to be deferred or delayed vntyll your comyng.

Suſtentare mœrorem, id eſt, perferre, to endure or abyde.

Suſtentatum eſt, the impersonall.

Aegre eo die ſuſtentatum eſt, they had muche adoe to reſiſte or withſtande theyr enemies that daie.

Suſtineo, ſuſtines, nui, nēre, to holde vp, to ſuſtayne, to ſuffer, to endure, to forbeare, to defende, to maintayne, to ſuppoꝛte, to fauour, to ſtop, to ſtaye, to holde backe, to defer, to feede, to refrayne, to beare of.

Quantum malarum rerum ſuſtineam, howe muche euill I doe ſuſteyne or abyde.

Mecy ſuſtinebam, and I did refreine my ſelfe.

Suſtinere ſe à reſpondendo, to refrayne from anſweryng.

Non ſuſtineo, id eſt, nequeo, non poſſum, nō audeo, nolo, I can not, I dare not.

Nec iam ſuſpendere fletum ſuſtinet, neither can ſhe now forbeare weppng.

Non ſuſtinui inducere in animum, I coulde not thinke or perſwade my ſelfe.

Qui ſpectare ſuſtinuiſſet, whiche had behol den it.

Rem in noctem ſuſtinuere, they deferred the matter, or medled not with the matter vntill it was night.

Apuleium tua authoritate ſuſtinere debes, you ought with your authoꝛitie to defēde helpe and ſuppoꝛt Apuleius.

Artus infirmos baculo ſuſtinere, to ſtaie vp his weake lymmes with a ſtaffe.

Cuius mortis cauſam fugitiui ſuſtinent, of whoſe death certaine vagabounders and renagates beare all the blame.

Nonne furor eius omnem cauſam ſuſtinet, ought not all the blame to be laied on his furie.

Cauſam publicam ſuſtinere, To defende the quarell of the comme weale.

Poſſunt hoc cibo ſuſtineri, they maye be fedde or nouriſhed with this meate.

Crimen ſuſtinere, id eſt, defendere, to excuſe, to defende.

Maximam ſolicitudinem curámque ſuſtineo, I am in greate ſolicitouſeneſſe and care, I am verie ſolicitous or carefull.

Currum ſuſtinere, id eſt, retinere, to ſtop.

Dignitatem & decus ciuitatis ſuſtinere, to defende or maintayne.

Equos incitatos ſuſtinere, to ſtoppe or holde backe.

Suſtines non paruam expectationem, men haue no ſmall expectacion of the.

Suſtinui gradum, I ſtopped or ſtode ſtyll.

Impetum ſuſtinere, to abyde or beare of.

Manum ſuam ſuſtinere deus dicitur, quando retrahit.

Sumptum ſuſtinere non poſſem, I could not beare the charges.

Vultum alicuius ſuſtinere, to abide ones loke.

Milites piſce & herbis ſuſtinebātur, the ſouldiours were nouriſhed with fiſſhe and herbes.

Suſtinere & tueri expectationem ſui, to hepe and mainteine the good eſtimation that men haue of hym.

Onus magnum ſuſtinere, to ſuſteyne a great charge or bourden.

Suſtollo, tuli, lere, to lifte vp high.

Suſtollere animos, to be proude or to haue an high courage.

Suſtollere æs alienum, to paye debtes.

Suſtollere puerum, to bryng vp a childe.

Suſtulit, is proprely of the father, as Peperit is of the mother.

Suſtuli, I haue had, I haue brought vp, I haue lyfte vp.

Metum ſuſtollere, to take away feare.

Libertatem ſuſtollere, to take awaie libertie.

Conuiuium ſuſtollere, to take vp the table.

Vrbem funditus ſuſtollere, to deſtroye a citee vtterly.

Virginem ſuſtollere, to rauiſſhe a mayden.

In equum ſuſtollere, to lifte vp on horſebacke.

Suſum, olde writers vſed for Surſum.

Suſurratio, ônis, f. g. a whiſperyng.

Suſurro, aui, are, or Suſurror, aris, ari, to whiſper, to mutter.

Aures ſuſurrare, to whiſper in ones eare.

Suſurro, ônis, a whiſperer. alſo he that with falſe and ſecrete repoꝛte, maketh diſſencion betweene men, a tale bearer.

Suſurrus, i, m. gene. a whiſperyng or ſofte murmuryng, or ſuche noyſe as trees doe make with the wynde, or a riuer when it renneth, or byrdes when they chatter.

Suſurrus, a, um, that whiſpereth or muttereth.

Sutāris, a ſeamſter or ſheapſter, one that alway ſoweth.

Sutēla, æ, fœ. ge. ſubtyltee, or craftye warkyng, a craftie craftie deceyte, a cauillacion inuented to breake a couenaunt.

Suterna, æ, f. g. shoemakers crafte.
Sútilis, le, that whiche is sewed.
Sutor, ôris, m. g. a shoemaker.
Sutórius, a, um, pertcpyng to a shoemaker.
Sutorium atramentum, souters bleche.
Sutrina, æ, f. g a shoemakers shop.
Sutrinum, i, n. g. a shoemakers crafte.
Sutrinus, a, um, of shoemakyng.
Ars sutrina, shoemakers crafte.
Sutrium, æuerp auncièt towne of Hetruria. xxiiii. myles from Rome.
Sutúra, æ, f. g. a seame, a fastnyng together.
Suturnium, ij, n. g an ewer or lauour.
Suus, a, um, his or hirs. also for Progrius, his owne. but how this woorde shalbe moste aptly and conuenientlp vsed, Reade Valla or Budeis commentaries. for it is more aboundantly and properly declared of them, then can be expressed in Englisshe.
Suus cuiq mos, euery man hath his facion.
Suo sibi telo, for suo telo, with his owne weapon.
Suus, for eius.
Lege collegæ sui non tenebatur, he was not subiect to the lawe of his companion in office.
Sua concio risit hominem, his owne assemble or compaine laughed at hym.
Quid quisq habeat sui, what euery man hath of his owne.
Ne suum adimerem alteri, I wolde not take from an other that is his owne.
Semper erit in disputando suus, he shall neuer nede in reasonyng to vse other mens argumentes, but his owne.
Sua sponte, of his owne accorde, motion or nature.
Vt sua vnius in his gratia esset, to the ende that he onely myght haue the thanke.
Suapte culpa, id est, propria, by his owne faute.
Suopte ingenio, of his owne wit or nature.

S, ANTE Y.

SYades, sterres, called also Hyades, seuen in numbre.
Syagros, a wilde bore.
Sybaris, a towne. xii. myles from Rome, an other in Greece also a riuer of Calabre.
Sybarita, æ, a man of that citee.
Sybaritanus, a, um, of Sybaris.
Sybariticus, a, um, of Sybaris, also sumptuous, deintie, wanton.
Sybaritica mensa, a prouerbe, applied to feastes and banbettes, whiche doo excede in delicatenesse.
Sybaritici libelli, wanton bokes.
Sebaritici ludi, playes whiche are wanton and costly.
Sybariticum carmen, a verse or poeme, conteynyng wanton matter.
Syboi, people in the northe part of the worlde.
Sycaminus, a mulberie tree.
Sycheus, a mans name.
Sycion, he that firste founde garlandes.
Sycómorus, or as summe write it Sicomórus, fæ. ge. a great tree like a fyg tree, whiche hath aboundance of milke, whose fruite cometh not out at the toppes of the bowes as fygges do, but out of the same boowes, and sweete like to a wilde fygge. The grapnes thereof be lesse then the grapnes of fygges, and they be neuer ripe, except they be scraped with an instrumẽt of irõ.
Sycon, olde writers called a figge.
Sycophanta, æ, m. ge. he that falsely accuseth an innocent. also a bearer of tales, or a cõplainer, a Sycophant.
Sycophántia, æ, f. ge. a false accusation, deceite.
Sycophantias struere, to deuise or inuente falsehoode.
Sycophantiosè, deceitfully, by crafte.
Sycophantor, aris, ari, to accuse falsely.
Sycophantisso, idem.
Sycôsis, f. ge. a disease in the fundament, whiche maketh a warte like a fygge.
Sycôsis, where within the eyelid groweth a little wart or other like thynge.
Syderâlis, le, belongyng to planettes or sterres.
Syderátio, ônis, f. gen. a disease when a man is benommed or taken, striking with a planette. in trees it is taken for blastynge.
Syderâtus, a, um, blasted, stricken with a planette, taken, benomed.
Sydereus, a, um, of planettes or sterres also high, shynyng or bryght.
Syderis, a riuer, where the sea Hircanum taketh his name firste.
Sýderor, aris, ari, to be blasted or stryken with a planette.
Sydiæ, the rynde of pomegranades.
Sýdus, sýderis, n. g. a sterre, a signe of sterres, a planete. also idem quod syderatio.
Regina syderum, the moone.
Ferre sydera vertice, to touche the skye.
Ferre ad sydera nomen alicuius, to extolle and praise one exceedyngly.
Tangere sydera vertice, to be in heauen, to be verie blessed and happy.
Sydus, somtyme the sonne, somtime the moone.
Gentis suæ sydus, id est, Decus, ornamẽtũ.
Sublime sydus, the northe pole.
Volantia sydera, shootyng sterres.
Syene, a citee in the confines of Aegypte and Aethiope.
Sygeum, a promontorie of Troye.
Syla, a mountaine in Lucania, and a woodde in it.
Sylla, a great tyran of Rome, whiche was of an vnsaciable crueltie.
Sýllaba, æ, f. g. a syllable.
Syllabâtim, by syllabes.

Syllábicus, a, um, perteinyng to syllables.
Syllamon, a famouse maker of images, whiche was neuer taught.
Syllanus, a, um, of Sylla.
Syllatúrio, syllatúris, rire, to haue an appetite or desyre to follow Sylla: to haue a desyre to proscripte, banisshe and murder men.
Syllepsis, is, fœ. ge. a figure, where the singular numbre and the plurall be ioyned together, as Socius & rege recepto.
Syllogismus, mi, m. g. a perfecte argumente, whiche hath a necessary conclusion.
Syloson, the brother of Policrates, the tyran of Samia.
Sylphium, reade Laserpitium.
Sylua, æ, f. g. a woodde, or a place ouer growen with wooddes. it is sometyme spoken of herbes, sometyme of vynes. also any matter hastily written without studie.
Syluanus, ni, m. g. the god of wooddes.
Syluáticus, a, um, perteinyng to wooddes.
Syluesco, scere, to waxe or growe into wooddes or bushes.
Syluester, tris, tre, or hic & hæc Syluestris, & hoc Syluestre, of woodde or forest, wooddie, wylde, vplandisshe, of the fielde or countrey.
Arbor syluestris, a wilde tree.
Materia syluestris, timber or trees, taken out of the wooddes.
Musa syluestris, an vplandisshe songe.
Locus syluestris, a place full of trees or woodes.
Syluestria tecta, houses in the woodde, villages in the countrey.
Syluia, the name of Ilia Romulus mother. Syluia, is Erithacus, as Gaza translateth.
Syluicola, æ, m. g. he that dwelleth in a forest or woodde.
Syluicultrix, icis, fœ. ge. she that dwelleth in the wooddes.
Syluifragus, a, um, that breaketh wooddes.
Syluiger, ra, rum, that beareth wooddes.
Syluius, the name of Eneas sonne, of whom all the kynges of Albania were called Syluij.
Syluósus, a, um, full of wooddes or trees.
Syluula, æ, f. g. a little woodde.
Syma, a citee in Asia.
Symbola, æ, is read in Plautus, for Symbolum.
Symbolum, li, ne. ge. a collacion, a shotte. also a token geuen by one to an other, vppon certayne apointmentes, a seale in a ringe, generally a signe or marke to knowe a thynge by. it is also the money that diuers persons lay together, as in a common purse, to make good chere withall, and suche banketes be called Collations.
De symbolis quid actum est? what is doone with our banketyng money?
Symbolus, li, m. g. a signet or seale, or a signe manuell.
Symbúlus, m. g. a wise and good counsailour.
Syme, an ile betwene Rhodes and Cnidus.

Symethus, a ryuer of Sicilie, not farre from Etna.
Symmáchia, æ, f. ge. aide in battaple, or league made amonge men of sundrie countreies, to fyght against the other parte,
Symmachus, a mans name.
Symmétria, æ, f. g. is a conuenient agrement betwene the membres or partes of any thynge answerynge in euery parte separate vnto the proportion of the whole figure. as in the arme, the hande, the legge, the finger, the foote and other membres hauyng respecte to the whole bodie, and semblably in all other thynges.
Symmista, a secretarie or one of the priuie counsaile.
Symmoniachum trifolium, a certayne herbe.
Sympathia, æ, f g. a mutuall combinacion of thinges natural in the operacion of thir powers and qualities. as water in coldenesse doeth participate with earth, in moisture with the aire, the aire with the fyre in heate, with the water in mopsture.
Symphonésis, f. g. collysion of vowels.
Symphónia, æ, f. g. a consent in tune, also harmonie.
Symphoniæ cantus, the consent and harmonie of diuers playng or singyng together.
Symphoniaca, or Symphonia, an herbe, whiche as Appuleius saieth, is henbane, called Hyosciamus.
Symphoniachus, a, um, belongyng to consent of musyke or harmonie.
Symphoniaci serui, were they whiche in shippes dooe sometime with singyng, and sometime with playng on drumsladdes and fyfes, stire vp the souldiours to fight more eigerly.
Symphonio, aui, are, to agree or accorde in one.
Symphreatides, or rather Symphreaudes, they that resorte to the same pittes for water.
Symphiton petræum, an herbe called bugle.
Symphitum, reade Consolida maior.
Symphitum magnum, comfrey.
Sympinaticæ, women addicte to ceremonies or deuocion.
Sympinium, a cuppe seruyng for wyne in sacrifice.
Symplator, a friend of him that is maried, which accompanieth hym to feastes.
Symplega, a warke wherin wrestlers & thei which doe contende in fightyng are beholden.
Symplegades, two iles in the grekisshe sea.
Symplegas, symplégadis, f. g. an embracyng or clyppyng together.
Symplegma, plégmatis, n. g. an embracyng together.
Symposiastes, he that maketh a feast or banckette.
Sympósium, sij, n. ge. a banket or assemble at drinkyng.
Sympótria, æ, f. g. a woman that kepeth compasse at drinkyng.
Symphalma, a contorde in singyng.

Syme

Symptoma, a greeke woꝛde vſed amonge phiſitians, foꝛ lacke of a latine woꝛde fyt foꝛ the thynge which it ſignifieth, it is a certaine effecte folowynge ſickeneſſe, lyke as cauſe doeth pꝛocede, oꝛ to beſoꝛe ſickeneſſe it is a ſenſible gricke ioyned with the ſickeneſſe.

Syn, a greke pꝛæpoſition ſignifiyng Simul.

Synada, a citee in Aſia.

Synæreſis, a contraction of .ii. woꝛdes, as Bigæ, foꝛ Biugæ.

Synagóga, æ, f. g. a congregation eſpecially of Iewes.

Synálephe, a collition of vowels.

Synánche, ches, fœ. ge. a ſickeneſſe in the thꝛote called the ſquince, of barbaroufe men Squinantia.

Syncategorêma, id eſt, conſignificans.

Synceraſtum, ti, n. g. all kynde of meate.

Syncerè, purely, vncoꝛruptely.

Syncéritas, âtis, f. g. puritee, ſyncerteſſe, integritee.

Syncerner, idem quod Syncere.

Syncêrus, a, um, ſyncere, pure, vncoꝛrupted, ſymple, without diſſimulacion.

Synchriſis, a compariſon of contrarie thynges oꝛ perſons.

Synchronos, of one tyme.

Synchyſis, confuſion.

Synciput, ſyncipitis, n. g. the foꝛeparte of the heade, alſo a ſwynes heade ſowſed.

Syncopa, æ, oꝛ Syncope, es, fœ. ge. a figure, where a lettee oꝛ ſyllable is taken awaie in the middes of a woꝛde, as Cõpoſtus, foꝛ Compoſitus, it is alſo a ſoundyng foꝛ debilitie of the vitaile ſpirites.

Syndici, two, thꝛee, oꝛ moe, which haue charge to defende the matteꝛes of a commone weale againſte anye foꝛen pꝛince oꝛ people.

Syndicus, i, m. g. an aduocate oꝛ attourney in defendyng a common cauſe.

Syndipnium, ii, n. g. a ſuppyng together.

Synécdoche, ches, f. ge. a fygure where parte is vſed foꝛ the whole, oꝛ the whole foꝛ parte.

Synechon, continente.

Synedrus, dri, a counſailour, a ſenatour.

Synephebi, yong men oꝛ ſtriplynges of one age.

Synephites, a ſtone, whiche is called alſo Leucongra.

Syneſius, a chriſtian philoſophiter of the citee Pentapolis in Affrike.

Sýngrapha, æ, fœ. ge. Syngraphus, i, m. ge. & Syngraphum, phi, n. g. the writynges oꝛ dede made oꝛ aſſigned with the hande of hym that maketh a bargayne oꝛ couenant.

Synochites, a ſtone, wherwith nigromanceꝛs doe call vp ſpirites.

Synódia, órum, conſent of muſiche.

Synodus, dontis, a certayne fiſſhe.

Synodus, di, f. g. an aſſemble of men oꝛ generall counſayle, a ſynode.

Synónima, órum, plur. woꝛdes ſignifiyng one thyng, as Enſis, Gladius, bothe doe ſignifie a ſwoꝛde.

Occidit, Interfecit, Necauit, doe ſignifie he killed.

Sýnopis, ſynoper, oꝛ red leade.

Syntſtratiotes, companions together in warre.

Syntagma, tágmatis, n. g. a treatiſe oꝛ oꝛdinaunce.

Syntaxis, eos, oꝛder in conſtruction. it is alſo a tribute oꝛ ſumme of money to be diſtributed to ſundꝛy companies. it is alſo a volume gathered of diuers wꝛitees.

Syntécticus, a, um, that ſowneth often.

Syntéreſis, the pure parte of conſcience.

Syntexis, is, fœ. g. lacke, oꝛ weakeneſſe, whiche happeneth by longe ſickeneſſe, ſownyng

Synthema, atis, n. g. a token geuen to ſouldiours, a watche woꝛde.

Sýntheſis, theſeos, f. g. a figure, when a nowne collective ſingular, is ioined to a verbe plurall, as Pars in fruſtra ſecant. Alſo a certayne garment of diuers colours, that the noble men of Rome vſed in the feaſtes called Saturnalia. Alſo the rayment, oꝛ chaunge of apparayle, in a pꝛeſſe oꝛ wardꝛope is called Syntheſis. It is alſo a kynde of earthen veſſell, oꝛ platters and diſſhes ſo made that one is put within an other, it maie be vſed foꝛ a garniſſhe of veſſell.

Syntomon, foꝛ Circumciſum.

Syphar, the dꝛie ſkinne, that the adder oꝛ other ſerpent caſteth of once a yeꝛe.

Syphárium, rii, n. g. a courtayne hangyng beſoꝛe minſtreſſes when they ſynge.

Syphax, acis, a kynge of Numidia.

Syracuſæ, arum, a citee in Sicile, nowe called Sarrogoſa, in the olde tyme of a meruailous renoume in ſtrength & richeſſe. moꝛeouer it is ſituate, that all the daie longe the ſonne is neuer out of ſight by no cloude that couereth it.

Syracuſius, Syracuſanus, oꝛ Syracoſius, a, um, of that citee.

Syrcum, a decoction made of figges.

Syria, a great realme in Aſia, whiche hath on the eaſte the ryuer of Euphrates, on the weſte the middeſt ſea, and the realme of Aegypte, on the noꝛthe Cilicia and Cappadocia, on the ſouthe Arabia.

Syria, called alſo Aſſyria, a great countrey in the eaſte, haunyng on the noꝛthe parte Armenia, on the weſte Meſopotamia, on the ſouth Suſiana, on the eaſte Media. it alſo conteineth Phœnicia, Paleſtina, and Babylonia.

Syriacum, a kynde of ſweete radiſſhe.

Syriacus, a, um, of Syria.

Syrianus, a philoſophiter of Platoes ſecte.

Syriaſis, an inflammacion in the partes about the bꝛayne and the paniclcs, whiche happeneth to infantes.

Syricte, people, whiche receiue theyꝛ meate in oten reedes.

Sýricum, ci, n. g. a colour mixte with ſinoper and ruddell.

Syricus,

Syricus, Syrus, and Syrius, a, um, of Syria.
Syrica mala, certaine appuls, which at the firſt came out of Syria.
Syringites, a ſtone like the parte of a wheate ſtraw betwene the knottes, and is holowe thꝛough.
Syrinx, ſyringis, a pipe oꝛ recoꝛder, lyke Syringa.
Syrinx, a nymphe of Arcadie, whiche was turned into a reede oꝛ cane.
Syris, coꝛne kepte in holes in the grounde, and couered with chaffe.
Syriſſus, a, um, of Syria.
Syrites, a ſtone founde in the mawe of a woulfe.
Syritha, the daughter of Spiualdus kynge of Danes.
Syrium, wyne boyled to the thyꝛde part.
Syrus, a, um, of Syria: as, Syria pyra, peares of Syꝛie.
Syrus, a ſterre in the mouthe of the ſigne Canis, whiche whan he riſeth, cauſeth moſt commonly peſtilence.
Syrma, atis, n. g. the traine of a womans gown. alſo a garment that players in tragedies vſed.
Syrnia, a thiefe oule.
Syrophœnix, one that dwelleth on the ſea coaſt of Syꝛie.
Syrſigambis, kynge Darius mother.
Syrtes, quiche ſandes oꝛ ſhelfes in the water, made by the dꝛyfte of ſande oꝛ grauell: they be pꝛoꝛpely places in the boꝛdeꝛs of Affrike towarde Aegypte.
Syrticus, a, um, of the places called Syrtes.
Syrus, a, um, of Syria.
Syrus, ri, m. ge. a caue vnder the grounde where wheate is kepte.
Syrus, an ilande belongyng to Greece.
Syrupus, a ſyꝛupe.
Syſimbrium, I ſuppoſe to be hoꝛſemynte.
Syſimbrium cardamine, water creſſes.
Syſitia, feaſtes & cõpanies aſſembled at feaſtes.
Syſitos, a felow.
Syſtole, a figure, whan a longe ſyllable contrary to his nature is made ſhoꝛte.
Syzigiæ, ſinewes, whiche doe come frõ the bꝛayne to the eies, ſo that he whiche cometh from the lefte ſyde, goeth to the right eie: and that, which cometh from the right ſyde, goth to the lefte eie: ſo that the ſinewes dwe croſſe eche other.

TABAE, arum, a citee of Latia.
Tabânus, ni, m. gen. a flie, which hath foure wynges, and biteth a man oꝛ beaſt, that the bloud foloweth.
Tabefácio, befacis, fẽci, fácere, to coꝛrupte.
Tabella, læ, fœ. ge. a litteli table. it is ſometyme taken foꝛ a piſtoll. ſometyme a table, wherin the name of iudges were wꝛiten.
Tabellárius, rij, maſ. gen. a carier of letters, an auditour.
Tabellárius, a, um, belongyng to cariers oꝛ auditours.
Tabéllio, ônis, m. gene. a ſcriuener that wꝛiteth common inſtrumentes and deedes. alſo a carier of letters.
Tabeo, bui, bere, idem quod Tabeſco.
Tabereni, people of Calips.
Taberna, næ, f. g. a little hous oꝛ lodgeyng made of bourdes. alſo a ſhoppe oꝛ tauerne, where wares be ſolde, and all thyng that is vendible, as wyne, oyle. ꝛc. a warehouſe.
Taberna meritoria, an inne.
Tabernáculum, li, n. g. a pauilion, tente oꝛ hale.
Tabernárius, rij, m. g. he that ſelleth any maner of wares. alſo a tauerner, a vintner.
Tabernarius, a, um, belongyng to tauernes, ſhoppes, oꝛ warehouſes.
Tabernaria fabula, a comedie oꝛ enterlude, wherin are baſe perſonages, and no perſones of dignitee oꝛ ſtate.
Tabes, bis, f. g. coꝛrupcion in the body. alſo extreme leaneneſſe, by a longe conſumyng ſickeneſſe. it is alſo mattier and coꝛrupt bloud mixt together. alſo the impoſtume of the longes, pꝛoceedyng of humours deſcendyng from the head into the ſtomake. and ſo woundyng and coꝛꝛuptyng the longes. ſometyme the ſtrength to rotte oꝛ putrifie.
Tabeſco, bui, ſcere, to languiſhe oꝛ conſume, to be extremely leane, to be coꝛrupted.
Otio tabeſcere, to coꝛrupte with idelneſſe, to conſume oꝛ weare awaie with idelneſſe.
Deſyderio alicuius tabeſcere, to languiſſhe foꝛ the deſyre of any mans companie.
Tábidus, a, um, coꝛrupted, conſumed.
Tabida nix, ſnow well nere all melted, lyke to dyrte oꝛ dꝛegges.
Tabificábilis, le, that may be coꝛrupted oꝛ fall in to a conſumpcion.
Tabificus, a, um, that maketh one coꝛrupted, oꝛ conſumeth the body, oꝛ bringeth in a conſumpcion.
Tablinum, ni, neu. ge. a winter parlour, wherin were peincted tables and bokes of hiſtoꝛies, a place to kepe common regeſtres, letters and wꝛitynges in.
Tabo, a conſumpcion, waſtyng, oꝛ putrifaction of thynges.
Tabor, a mountaine in the countreie of Galilea, where Chꝛiſt was tranſfigurate.
Tabraca, a towne of the leſſe Affrike.
Tabula, læ, f. g. a table, a bourde, a planke. Alſo a boke of common places made foꝛ the memoꝛie of thinges, called Diarium, oꝛ Ephemeris, in the plurall numbꝛe Tabulæ dooe ſignifie a teſtament, inſtrumentes, obligacions, letters, common wꝛitynges. alſo Tabula is a table to plaie on with diſe oꝛ cheſſe men.
Tabulæ nouæ, were whan debters were not conſtreyn-constreigned to paie their debtes, that they did owe, and the olde obligations were dissolued, and newe were to bee made for that whiche shoulde newly be borowed.

Tabulæ pictæ, peincted tables.

Tabula cerata, a table couered with waxe, that men vsed to write on.

Tabulæ accepti & expensi, a rehenyng boke, wherin a man keepeth accompte, what he hath laied out and receiued.

Tabulárij, they that steale testamentes, recordes, or deedes.

Tabulária, certaine instrumentes.

Tabulâris, re, of or belongyng to tables.

Tabulárium, rij, n. ge. a chest, in the whiche euidences, recordes or regesters are put.

Tabulâtum, ti, neu. gener. a flooze bourded or paued, in a solar, chambze or other vpper parte of the house.

Tabulata in arboribus, be the great bowes in trees & bushes, whiche doe grow streight forth in bredth, and not vpwarde.

Tabulátio, ônis, fœ. g. a ioygnyng or closyng of bourdes together, a buildyng made of bourdes or plankes, a flooze bourded.

Tabulâtus, a, um, made of bourdes.

Tabulo, aui, are, to make a thing with bourdes, or to ioygne bourdes together, to bourde a flooze.

Taburnus, an hill in Cãpania, wherin doe grow many olyue trees.

Tacapa, a citee in Affrike, called cõmonly Capis.

Taceo, cui, cêre, to kepe silence, to be in rest, to be quiete, to be sure, to kepe secrete thynges of counsaile.

Potin' est hic tacere? can this felowe concele any secretes, or kepe any counsaile?

Taceo & contineo optime, I holde in and kepe secrete very well. where note, that Taceo and Contineo be taken for one thyng, and the one dooeth expowne the other.

Tace, egomet conueniam iam ipsum, lette alone, be in rest, holde thy peace, I my selfe wil commune now with hym.

Quum tacet omnis ager, when there is no noyse in all the feelde.

Tacitum est, neuer a worde was spoken of it.

Taceantur, let them not be spoken of.

Tacens, centis, om. ge. speakyng nothyng, still, quiete, without noyse.

Oratio tacens, an oyacion that is not pronounced, an oyacion writen.

Tacendus, a, um, not to be spoken.

Tacitè, without speakyng one worde, priuily, quietely, without makyng noyse.

Tacitè dare potestatem, to geue power priuily or couertly without speakyng.

Habere aliquid tacite, to kepe a thyng secrete and make no woordes of it.

Tacite execrari, To curse one in our mynde without woordes that we bee not hearde, or softly that the person here vs not.

Tacitúrnitas, tâtis, f. g. silence.

Tacitúrnulus, a, um, a diminutiue of Taciturnus.

Taciturnus, a, um, that naturally keepeth silence, that is no babler of thynges that is told hym, that maketh no noyse.

Tácitus, a, um, that holdeth his peace, and is secrete, still, without noyse. also passiuely, that is not spoken of, that is kepte secrete, that is lette passe without any mencion.

Tacito pede, softly, by stelthe.

Tacitus citius audies, holding thy peace thou shalt here it the sooner.

Abi tacitus tuam viam, goe on thy waie and saie nothyng, or make no noyse or woordes.

Suspendas potius me, quàm tacita hæc auferas, thou maiest as soone hange me, as make me to kepe these thynges secrete.

Corripuit se de repente tacitus ad filiam, sodeynely without speakyng any woorde.

Tacita corporis figura coniecturã affert hominibus, men maie coniecte by the proporcion or facture of his body without any speakyng.

Tacita mœstitia, still sorowe that a man vttereth not in woordes.

Tacitum os præbere alicui, to offre his face to one and saie nothyng.

Tacita inimicitia, enmitee that is not vttered in woordes.

Voce tacita aliquid dicere, to whisper, to speake softly.

Tachoniso, an ilande in the riuer Nilus.

Tacitus Cornelius, a notable historiographier.

Tacola, a marte towne of India.

Tactio, ônis, f. g. a touchyng.

Tactus, us, m. g. the sense of touchyng or feelyng.

Tactus, a, um, touched.

Tactus é vel de cælo, stryken with lightenyng, burned, blasted.

Tactus spiritu diuino, inspired.

Tactus fulmine, burned or blasted with lightenyng.

Tæda, lowe Teda.

Tædet, it wereth me, it greeth me, I am were of it.

Tædet sermonis tui, I am wery of thy communicacion or talke.

Tædet vitæ, I am wery of my lyfe.

Tædet harum quotidianarum formarum, I am wery of these that amonge vs are called and taken for faire women.

Tædium, dij, neu. gene. werinesse or beauinesse of mynde.

Adducere, afferre, & parere tædium, to bring or cause werinesse.

Capere tædium, to become were.

Effugere tædium varietate, to eschewe werinesse with varietee and change.

Leuare tædium lectionis, to make that a man be not so wery of redyng.

Tædulus, an old dotarde, of whõ all mẽ be wery.

Tænarus, a darke place at the foote of the hill called called Malea, by the citee of Sparta, which was supposed to be an entrie into hell.

Tænarius, a, um, of that place.

Tænaris, ris, f. g. of Tænarus.

Tænia, æ, f. g. the edge of a fillet. also a womans fillet, or that which now they cal rolles, properly it is a kerchife, whiche maidens do weare on their heades, or a wollen ornament that men ware on their heades. also a white stone, which in the water sheweth long like a kerchife. it is also a village betweene Micenas and Lozinthum. also a certaine fische.

Tæniola, læ, f. g. a little fillet or other like thing.

Tælemeneus, one that came to aide the Troians.

Tænon, a citee in Laconia, an other in Acaia.

Tagasta, a citee in Affrike.

Tagax, acis, m. g. a felon, whiche happeneth on a mans fynger.

Tages, he that taught first the Thuscans the craft of diuination, called Aruspicium.

Tago, gi, gere, olde writers vsed for Tango.

Tagus, an hill in Portugall, where mares do conceiue of the wynde.

Tagus, a riuer in Spaine, whiche dimideth Castile from Portugall, wherin hath ben founde grauell of golde.

Taigete, one of the seuen sterres, whiche so appeareth, as it made scantly be perceiued. it is also called Maia, and Electra.

Talaon, the son of Jasius, kyng of Argos.

Talaria, n. g. plu. were shoes, whiche Mercurius did weare, wherein were sette wynges.

Talaria induere, prouerbially spoken of hym, that prepareth to renne awaie.

Talāris, re, that cometh downe to the ancley.

Toga talaris, a long gowne to the ancley.

Talārius, a, um, pertepnyng to dise, as Lex talaria, a lawe against dise playyng.

Talasio, or Thalasio, a songe conteyned in certaine verses, songen at weddynges. also an exclamatiō or crie vsed at mariages, ỹ beginnyng wherof was, whan Romulus & the Romaines rauished the maydens of the Sabines, among whom was one of excellent beautie, whom whā many of the Sabines would haue rescued, they whiche caried hir toward Romulus, to the entent that she should not be taken from them, cried Talasio, which was the name of a noble prince of the Sabines, as if they would haue brought hir to hym: and by that meane they escaped, and brought hir to Romulus, and afterwarde they vsed at mariages to crie Talasio.

Talea, æ, f. & m. g. a stoche set in the earth, whereon men dooe graffe. also a truncheon, a staffe, a billette. Also a certaine stake vsed for an ingin of warre.

Talentum, ti, n. g. was accompted sometyme for a poyse or weyght, wherof were sundry sortes: one called Atticum minus, or Cōmune, which cōteyned. 60. pounde of Athenes weyght called Minæ, or Mnæ, whiche is of Troie weyght 62. pounde and an halfe. An other was called Talentum Atticum maius, whiche conteyned 80. Minas: of Troie weyght. 83. li. and. 4. ounces: and that was also called Euboicum. An other was called Talentum Hæbraicum, which conteyned. 100. Minas: of Troie weyght. 104. li. and two ounces. An other, called Talentum Syrum, whiche was but of. 15. Minas: of Troie weyght. 15. li. 7. ounces and a halfe. Diodorus writeth, that the commune Talent was but. 40. li. and nameth three sortes: The one called Ptholomaicum, whiche conteyned. 272. li. The secounde conteyned. 125 li. The thyrde. 100. li. Talentum was also accounpted in valuation, Atticum minus vel commune, to the value of. 60. Minæ, whiche of our money (accounptyng. 100. grotes to euery Mina) is. 100. li. sterlyng, euery pound beyng of. 60. grotes. Notwithstandynge the iust value of Talentum is more or lesse after the fineneſſe, baleneſſe or weyght of the englische grotes. Talentum atticum maius, was accounpted to. 80. Minas, whiche of our sterlyng money is 133. li. 6. s. 8. d. Talentum Hebraicum sanctuarii, conteined 100. Minas Hebraicas, wherof euery one was 60. Sicli, euery Siclus beyng. 4. sterlyng grotes: so that Talentum was of our money sterlyng. 500. li. Talentum Hebraicum vulgare, halfe so muche. whom maister Aciote folowed in this distribucion and valuacion of Talentum I knowe not: but sure I am, that in diuers thynges he swarueth from Budeꝰ and other learned men, whiche thyng I can not in this place dispute. It shall be sufficient to know that Talentum atticum minus is most writen of, and conteined. 60. Minas, euery Mina containyng an. 100. Drachmas or Denarios, and euery Denarius being a groate sterlyng. so that the value of Mina is. 33. s. iiii. d. or after Tonstall. 40. s. and Talentum. 100. l. or after Tonstall. 120. l. sterlyng.

Talia, the swellyng of the goute about the ancles.

Talia, the blade of an oynion, or a chiboll.

Talio, ōnis, f. g. an equall peyne in recompence of an hurt, as for the cuttyng of a mans hande, to lose an hand, and for puttyng out of an eie, to lose an eie.

Talipedo, aui, are, to go on the pasternes, to go as one dyd drawe his feete after hym for feblenesse or weakenesse.

Talis, le, suche.

Aliquid tale, some suche thyng.

Honos talis paucis delatus est ac mihi, suche honour was geuen to fewe as to me.

Talis qualis, suche as.

Taliter, in suche wise, after suche facion.

Talitrum, tri, neu. gen. a fillyp geuen with ones fynger or nayle.

Talius, was vsed of the Sabines for a forename.

Talpa, æ, f. & m. g. a mole, a woant.

Talpa cæcior, blynder then a mole, a prouerbe be applied to theim that lacke iudgement in thynges that are plaine.

Talthibius, Agamemnons crier or publiſcher of thynges in the Grehe armie at Troie.

Talus, li, m. g. the ancle aboue the foote. it is alſo ỹ paſterne bone of a beaſt. alſo a die, or dice.

Talum reponere, to reſorme that whiche was negligently done, with more diligence.

Talus, a man made of bralle (as it is feigned) by Vulcan, and ſent for a preſent to Minos, to defende the ile of Crete.

Tam and Quam, aduerbes vſed with the poſitiue, comparatiue and ſuperlatiue degree, as well, alſo as, ſo.

Quam plurimum ederit, tam citiſsime ſanus fiet, the more that he ſhall eate, the ſooner he ſhalbe whole.

Parmœnonis tam ſcio eſſe hãc technam quàm me viuere, I know as well as that I am aliue, that. ꝛc. Tam ego homo ſum quam tu, I am as muche a man as thou.

Non tam perſcribere poſſum q̃ mihi gratum feceris, ſi, &c. I am not able to write how great a pleaſure you ſhall doo for me, if. ꝛc.

Tam conſimilis eſt atque ego, he is as muche like hym as I am.

Tam cito, ſo quickely.

Tam veſperi, ſo late in the euenyng.

Tam ob paruulam rem, for ſo ſmall a mattier.

Tam bonus, as good.

Tam ſum amicus reipublicæ, q̃ qui maxime, I am as friendly, or as muche friend to the publike weale, as he that is moſt.

Tam magis, for Tanto magis.

Tama, whan with muche trauaile, or goyng, the bloude cometh downe to the legge, and cauſeth it to ſwell.

Tamaris, a riuer of Spaine, of whiche the people there be called Tamarici.

Tamaritæ, people in Aſia, not farre from the ſea called Caſpium.

Tamarix, icis, or Tamárice, es, f. ge. a tree vulgarely called Tamariſcus, rede Myrice. ſome cal it white beame, the frenche mẽ cal it Briaria.

Tamen, notwithſtandynge, alſo yet. ſometyme it ſignifieth foorthwith, at the laſt, ſo that.

Si tamen, for Si modo.

Si tamen illi non grauantur, if they doe vouchſafe, or be not diſcontented with it.

Libertas quæ ſera tamen reſpexit inertem, which beyng longe a comyng, yet at the laſt regarded me.

Tamen à malicia non diſcedis? yet wilte thou not depart from thy malice? or leaue thy naughtineſſe?

Quod potero faciam, tamen vt pietatem colam, I will do what I maie, ſo that notwithſtandyng I ompt not my duetie to my father.

Tamerindi, a fruite growynge in India, the tre whereof is like to a palme or date tre, the fruit ſower like greene damaſyns, whiche is medicinable in aſſwageyng the heate of choler.

Tameſis, the noble riuer of Tampſe in England.

Tameti, all be it, although.

Tameti, for Tamen.

Tameti hoc verum eſt, and yet this is true.

Taminea vua, Dioſcorides, libr. 4. ſaieth, that it is the herbe, whyche is called Briona nigra. Cornelius Celſus, lib. 3. ſaieth, it is that, which of the Grecches is called Staphis agria, which is thought to be falſe. for Plinius, libr. 26. cap. 1. ſuppoſeth, that it is wilde vine, called Labruſca, the ſame is affirmed by Ruellius.

Tamne, old writers vſed for Eouſq, vntill that.

Tanager, a riuer in Lucania, betweene Campania and Calabria.

Tanagra, a towne in Bœotia.

Tanagrœus, a, um, of Tanager.

Tanais, a great riuer in the northe parte of the worlde, whiche diuideth Europa from Aſia.

Tanas, a towne not farre from Tana, vnder the Venetians dominion.

Tanaquil, the wyfe of Tarquinius Priſcus, the kyng of Romains.

Tanaus, was kyng of Syria.

Tandem, at the laſt, ſometyme at the leaſt way. alſo vneth, notwithſtandyng.

Quam obrem tãdem? and why ſo I praie you?

Tandem, Expletiua particula, as Quouſque tandem abutere Catilina. &c.

Itáne tandem quæſo Menedeme? &c. in whis the examples, it ſemeth that Tandem, hath a certaine earneſt vehemencie, and requireth a ſpedy anſwere.

Itáne tandem vxorem duxit Antipho iniuſſu meo? I praie you, and hath Antipho maried a wife contrary to my commandement in deede?

Tandem aliquando, once at the length.

Vt hæream in parte aliqua tãdem apud Thaidem, id eſt, ſaltem, that I maie bee an hanger on with Thais at the leaſt wyſe on one parte or other.

Nunc tãdem, now at length and neuer before.

Tándiu, ſo longe.

Tándiu dum lego, ſo longe as I reade.

Tanes, a Perſiã, one of kyng Darius capitaines.

Tango, tetigi, gere, to touche, to moue, to vnderſtande, to perceiue, to come, to deceiue, to quippe, to taunte, to take vp, to write, to ſpeake or mention a thyng.

Tangere vlcus, to rubbe on the galled place, to ſpeake to one of a thynge that greeueth hym to heare.

Tetigit aures meas, it came to mine eares.

Vbi primum terram tetigimus, as ſoone as we arriued.

Simul ac tetigit prouinciam, as ſoone as he arriued in the prouince.

Qui Tyberim fere omnes tangunt, all whiche well nere, touche or ioyne hard to the riuer of Tyber. Quo pacto Rhodium tetigerim in con-conuiuio, how I tohe vp or taunted the felow of Rhodes at the table.

Tangere ferro arbores, to pzune or cut trees.

Leuiter vnumquodq; tangere, to touche or mẽtion euery thynge bzefely.

Tetigit rem acu, pzouerbyally, he hit the naile on the head, he hath hit the very mattier.

Quem nisi crudelem non tangat lasonis ætas, id est moueat.

Hæc mediocriter me tangunt, these thynges moue me but little, or doe not greatly moue me.

Tetigit animum memoria earum rerum, the remembzaunce of those thynges moued or stirred my mynde.

Si uestri nulla cura tangit, yf you be nothynge carefull for your selfe, or if you feare nothynge for your owne partes.

Si te cura pomorum tangit, if you haue an affection or desyre to haue apples.

Vbi Aristoteles ista tetigit? where dyd Aristotele mention these thynges?

Te istam ob rem tetigi triginta minis, for this thynge I haue deceiued the of .xxx. li.

Tangor, tangeris, the passiue, to be touched, to be moued, to be pricked.

Tangor patris desyderio, I feele the lacke or misse of my father.

Tanis, the principall citee of Egypte, where Moyses did shew meruailes.

Tanos, a stone of the kinde of Emeralde, greene and blacke.

Tanquam, as it were, lyke.

Tanquam, with Sic, for Quemadmodum.

Tantaleus, and Tantalius, a, um, of Tantalus.

Tantalides, the progenie of Tantalus.

Tantalis, Tantalidis, the daughter or neese of Tantalus.

Tantalus, the sonne of Iupiter and Plota, kynge of Phrygia, of whome the poetes good write, that because he disclosed the counsayle of the gods, he is in hell tourmented in this wise, he standeth by a fayre ryuer, hauynge before hym a tree laden with pleasant apples, and yet he is alwaies thursty and hungry, for as often as he stowpeth to drinke, or holdeth vppe his handes to gather the apples, bothe the water and the tree doe withdrawe them so from hym, that he can not touche them.

☞ Tantali horti, a prouerbe, signifiynge good thinges to be at hande, which not withstandyng a man maie not vse.

Tantidem, for so muche, at that price.

Tantillus, a, um, a diminutiue of Tantus, so little. Haud tantillum dederis verborum mihi, thou shalt not deceiue me thus muche.

Tantillum, an aduerbe, so little.

Tantisper, so longe, and requireth after hym Dum, Quãdiu, Quoad.

Tantisper dum, so longe as.

Tantò, an aduerbe, signifiyng so muche as.

Tantò magis, so muche more.

Tanto pejor, so muche worse.

Quinquies tanto amplius, fyue tymes so much more.

Tantopere, so muche, so vehemently, so earnestly.

Ne seui tantopere, leaue your rage, bee not so fierce, be not so angrie.

Quoniam tantopere dissentiunt, because they disagree so muche, or because there is so great variance or diuersitee betwene them.

Tantulus, a, um, so littell, so small.

Tantuli doni causa, for so small a gyfte.

Non tantulum intermittit tempus, quin eum nominet, he nameth hym continually.

Tantulum, an aduerbe, so little, neuer so little.

Tantum, onely, so muche.

Tantum abest, it is farre from, or so vnlyke: it is almost of the same strengthe that Non solum non est, is. Tantum non, almost, welnere, lacke lyng but little.

Tantum sat habes? art thou content with that, or thinkest thou that enough?

Tantum interest, there is this onely difference.

Et tantum non circuniri à dextro cornu, and to be almost inuironed, or that there lacketh but little, but that they were compassed or enclosed of the ryght wynge.

Tantum num, for Etiam.

Addas huc licet tantumnum, quæ inter hyemem & æstatem, you maie adde therto also, those that be betwene &c.

Tantum est, that is all, it is euen so muche as I haue tolde you and no more.

Tantum mihi confido, I haue so muche confidence in my selfe.

Tantum, quantum, so muche, as.

Si gradere tantum quantum loquere, if thou didste goe as fast as thou talkest.

Tantum abesse dicebat, vt consentaneum esset, vt maxime etiam repugnaret, he saied that it was not onely not conuenient or mete. &c.

Tantum abfuerunt, vt perturbarentur, vt incensi potius. &c. they were not onely nothing aferde or abasshed, but rather inflamed. &c.

Tantundem, euen so muche.

Tantundem periculi, so great daungier.

Tantundem argenti quantum debuit, euen so muche money as he ought.

Tantundem est quasi sit signum pictum. &c. it is euẽ as much to me as it were an image painted. &c.

Tantundẽ ego, euen so much do I & no more.

Tantus, a, um, so muche, so great, such.

Vicies tanto addito aquæ, twenty tymes so muche water beyng put to it.

Tanti, for so muche, this worde doeth pertaine to byinge and sellyng.

Tanti estimo, facio, pendo, I set so much by, or I so muche esteeme it.

Tantus natu, so aged, beyng so olde.

Sexcenta tanta, sixe hundzed tymes so muche or so many.

An tantus quantus videatur, or ſo great, or of that bygneſſe as it doeth appere.

Tantus homo, id eſt, tanti pretij, ſo woorthy a perſon, ſo great a man.

Eſt alienum tanto viro virtutes, it is not fitting for ſo noble a man or ſo great a perſone as you are.

Tribus tantis illi minus reddit, it yeldeth to hym thryſe ſo muche leſſe.

Tantúmne rem tam negligenter agere, was it mete to doon ſo great a mattier, or a mattier of ſo great importance ſo negligently.

Tanti non fuit Arſacem capere, it was not ſo great a mattier to take Arſaces, or the takynge of Arſaces was not a mattier of ſo great value or importance.

Tanti fuit mihi crede, it was well woorth beleue me, or ꝑ mattier was wel of ſo great value.

Eſt mihi tanti huius inuidiæ tempeſtatem ſubire, dummodo. &c. I eſteeme the mattier wel wooꝛthy to putte my ſelfe in daungier of this ſtoꝛme of enuie and hatred, ſo that. ꝛc.

Nihil mihi tanti fuit, there was nothynge that I eſteemed of ſo great value.

Nihil tanti fuit, quo fidem venderemus, there was nothyng of ſo great value or eſtimacion, as that we ſhoulde ſell our trueth and honeſtie foꝛ it, and become bonde.

Taos, a ſtone of the colour of a peacocke.

Tapetia, hãgyng of houſes, or clothes where with paunmentes are couered.

Tapétum, i, n. g. Tapéte, tis, n. g. and tapes, ẽtis, maſc. gene. tapeſtrie or clothes wherin are wꝛought diuers pictures with thꝛedes of ſondꝛi colours.

Taphiæ, certaine iles by Grecia.

Taphiuſa, a place by Leucades.

Taphnis, a citee in Egypt, the people whereof were called Taphnei.

Taphos, in greke is a ſepulchre or a tombe.

Tapinóſis, f. g. a fygure, wherby a great thynge is baſely diſcribed.

Tapoſiris, a citee in Aegypte.

Taprobane, an ile in the Indian ſea, and was of ſome olde writers ſuppoſed to be in the contrary parte of the woꝛlde agaynſt vs, and therfoꝛe they called it an other woꝛlde. it lyeth in the pointe betwene eaſte and weſte, the quantitee therof is diuerſly deſcribed by ſũdry authours. foꝛ Strabo writeth, that it is in lengthe. viii. thouſande furlonges, whiche is a thouſand miles. Plinius, Marcianus and Solinus doe affirme it to be in lengthe. vii. thouſand furlonges, whiche is. viii. C. lxxv. myles, in bꝛeadth 5000. furlong, which is. 625. miles: parte of it extendeth beyonde the equinoctiall line moꝛe ſouth, and hath on the noꝛtheaſt, the ileſſe Inde. it is nowe called Samotra, and is vnder the dominiõ of the great Cam, and is gouerned by 4 kynges in an exquiſite fourme of iuſtice, notwithſtandynge that the people bee idolatours, they hunt Tygers, Olyphantes, and Panthers, of the whiche there is great plentie. alſo, there be founde Carbuncles, Saphires, Jacinctes, Topaces, Rubies, & Granates, in great numbꝛes. there groweth Cinamome, Canell, Beniomme and other ſweete trees in great abundãce, and they haue money of golde, ſyluer, & bꝛaſſe, of the ſame weight and value, that the ancient coine of the Romines was. there is alſo founden great plentie of oꝛient perles.

Tapſagum, a towne in the countrey Cirenaica.

Tapſus barbatus, an herbe, reade Phlomos and Verbaſcus.

Tapſus, an ile by Sicile, not farre from Siracuſe.

Tapula, a lawe made foꝛ feaſtes.

Tapyri, people in Parthia, which vſe to geue their wyues in mariage to other men, after that they haue had foure or fyue childꝛen by them.

Taraconia, the thꝛyde parte of Spayne, on the noꝛth it hath the ſea called Cantabꝛicum: on the weſt Poꝛtugall, and Granate: on the ſouthe the ſea Ibericum: on the eaſte the mountaines Pyrenei. it doeth nowe conteine theſe kynges domes, Caſtyle, Gallice, Nauarre, Arragon.

Taracon, the chiefe citee therof.

Tarandrus, a beaſte in bodie lyke to a great oxe, hauyng a head lyke to an harte, and hoꝛnes full of bꝛaunches, the heare rough and of the colour of a beare, I ſuppoſe it to be a raine dere.

Tarándulus, maſ. gene. the beaſte called a buffe, whiche is lyke an oxe. but that he hath a beardе lyke a gote.

Tarrántula, a kynde of beaſtes called Stelliones, lyke to a Lyſarde, of whoſe bityng no man diꝛeth, onely it aſtonieth hym that is bitten.

Taras, the ſoonne of Neptunus, who builded Tarentum.

Tarrantantara, a voice feigned lyke the ſowne of a trumpet.

Taraxacon, an herbe called ſowthiſtle, reade Cicerbita and Sonchus.

Taraxis, whan the eies do boine out muche and be redde.

Tarbeli, the citee of Tarbes in Gaſcoine.

Tarcheſius, a miſchieuouſe kynge of the people called Albanienſe.

Tarchon, a duke in Hetruria, whiche was alſo a great diuiner or ſouthſaier. alſo the herbe called Terrogant.

Tardátio, ônis, f. g. a tarieng.

Tardátus, a, um, bꝛydged, taried.

Tarde, ſlowly, late.

Triennio tardius, thꝛee yeres later.

Tarde & otius, contrary.

Tardeſco, ſcere, to ware ſlowe or ſlacke.

Tardigradus, a, um, that hath a ſlowe pace, or that goeth ſlowly.

Tardiloquéntia, æ, f. g. a ſlowe ſpeache.

Tardiloquus, he ꝑ bꝛaweth his ſpeache in length.

Tárdipes, pẽdis, that goeth ſlowly, that halteth.

Tárditas, átis, fœ. ge. ſlowneſs.

Moram

Moram & tarditatem afferre bello, to hinder the warre, to cause the warre to be prolonged or deferred.

Tarditas ingenij, slowness or dulnesse of wit.

Tardities, ei, f. g. olde writers vsed for Tarditas.

Tarditudo, dinis, f. g. idem.

Tardiuscule, somewhat slowly.

Tardiusculus, a, um, somewhat slowe or dull.

Tardo, aui, are, to tarie, to be slowe, to hinder, to make longe a comyng, to kepe backe.

Gratia ab officio quod mora tardat abest, dooeth kepe backe.

Impetum inimici tardare, id est, reprimere, to lette, to stoppe.

Tardare & frænare.

Vereor ne tardē studia multorum, I fere lest I shulde let or hinder the studies of many men.

Tardare & procrastinare negotium aliquod, to hinder or kepe backe a matter, and drive it of from date to date.

Tardus, a, um, slow, dull, long in comyng, rude: sometyme well dwryng, also thycke or grosse.

Vt cæteri sint ad iniuriam tardiores, that other maie not be so redy to dooe iniurie and wronge.

Ad referendam gratiam tardiorem esse, to be slacke in requityng a good tourne or pleasure.

Aut sunt tardissimi, or els they be verye dull witted.

Noctes tardæ, nyghtes verie long a comyng.

Vomens tardum fumum, grosse and thicke.

Vt ea res tardior spe fuerit, howe that thyng came more slowly to passe than we thought.

Taracina, a towne in Cāpania, called also Anxur.

Tarentinus, a, um, of the citee Tarento in Calabria.

Tarentum, and Tarentus, a noble citee in Calabria, called Tarento.

Tarichus, is taken for salte fysshe, brine, gruell, corrupt fysshe, and poudered flesshe.

Tarmes, a worme, whiche eateth flesshe, a magot.

Tarna, the citee of Sardis.

Tarpeia, the daughter of Tarpeius, whiche betraied the Capitoll to the Sabines.

Tarpeius, an hill at Rome.

Tarquinij, orum, an olde towne of Campayne.

Tarquiniense, the lande of Tarquines.

Tarquinius Superbus, the laste kynge of Romaines, whiche was expelled out of Rome for his pryde and cruelnes. it is also the name of diuers other Romains.

Tarraco, a citee of Spaine, of the whiche that parte is called Tarraconia.

Tarsensis, se, of Tarsus.

Tarsis, a region in Judea, to the whiche Jonas saiedhe would̄e goe.

Tarsus, the chiefe citee in Cilicia, where saincte Paule was borne.

Tartaria, is a countrey of incomparable greatnesse, it boundeth on the west vpon Russia, and extendeth into the east, after the description of the laste charte, aboue. 1600. duche miles: whiche is of Italian miles 6400. and more: the bredth from the south into the north, is more vncertaine: it marcheth on the south vpon Persia, and India. The north is muche part desert, for the coldnesse and barrainnesse therof. The people haue no citees or townes, or els verie fewe, but they lie in pauilions, and vnder theyr cartes, whiche they dwe remoue into sundrie partes, as the tyme of the yere dooeth require, drivyng their cattaile with them, of whō they dwe eate the flesshe muche parte raw, and dooe drinke the mylke and bloud of them. The people bee fierce and cruell, and therwith vile and beastly in their livyng. they be all vnder the dominion of the great Cam, yet haue they many puissant princes, which do vse a wonderfull obedience towarde their emperour. They beleue in one god, creatour of all thynges, but they be not christened. They are so populous, hardie and fierce: that the great kinges, which do marche vpon them, haue muche to do to resist them, as the great kyng of Russi, and the kynge of Persia Sophi. also one of theyr princes toke in plain battaile Bazageten, the great Turke, whom being bounden with chaines and giues of golde, & enclosed in a cage of yron, he caried about with him till he died: and there were slain in that battaile. 200000. Turkes, the capitaine of the Tartarians was named Tamberlane. Their emperour Chaam, besides Tartaria hath also subiecte vnto hym the lesse India, and all the realme and iles in the east and south east part of the worlde: & he nameth hym selfe in his stile, the sonne of god. Reade more in Chaam. Muche of Tartaria was that countrey, whiche was sometyme called Scythia.

Tartareus, a, um, of hell. also terrible, stronge.

Tartari, people of Tartaria.

Tartarum, the lees of wyne.

Tartarus, & plu. tartara, ōrū, a depe place in hell.

Tartessij, people in Iberia, among whom be cattes of exceedyng greatnesse.

Tartessiacus, & Tartessius, a, um, of Tartessus.

Tartessus, a citee in the vttermost part of Spain, on the sea side by Gades, nowe called Cales, where Columella (the most eloquent & perfect husbande) was borne, it was called also Gadir and Carteia.

Taruanna, Terouenne in Fraunce.

Taruedum, a promontorie in Scotland.

Taruntius, the name of an excellent philosopher and Astronomer.

Taruscum, a towne in France, called Tarascon.

Tascanium, a white claie or marle.

Tasimenes, seu Tasmenes, one of the sonnes of duke Nestor.

Tata, dadie, whiche children calle their father.

Tatæ, a wanton wooyde, wherwith one answereth to an other.

Tatcus, a kinde of salte, whiche cometh out of Phrygia, and is medicinable for the eies.

Tatius, a duke of the Sabines.
Tatianus, a mans name.
Tatta, a water of naturall salt in Cappadocia.
Taua, Tynmouth in Englande.
Tauchira, a citee of the Barcæans.
Taulantij, people of Illiria.
Taura, a barrayne cowe.
Taurarij, people in Scythia.
Taurea, a man of notable strength in the armie of Anniball.
Taurea, æ, fœ. ge. a buckler or targate made of a bulles hide.
Taureus, the name of Neptune.
Taureus, a, um, of a bulle.
Tauria, a scourge made of netes lether.
Taurica Chersonesus, a countrey in the northe parte of Europa, whiche is almost cõpased with the meeres of Mœotis, Cimmerius Bosphorus, and the sea Euxinum, it is now called of some the lesse Tartarie.
Tauri, people of cruell maners in the northe part of Europe, that offered straungers in sacrifice to Diana.
Tauri, and Taurilia, plaies made in the honour of infernall goddes.
Tauricus, a, um, of the people Tauri.
Taurianum, a towne in Italie.
Taurini, people at the foote of the Alpes towarde Italie.
Taurifer, ra, rum, that beareth bulles or nete.
Tauriformis, me, like a bulle.
Taurinus, a, um, of a bulle. also of the people Taurini.
Taurominium, nij, neu. ge. a towne in Sicilie, so called for the plentie of nete, whiche fedde there about. also there was by it a citee of the same name.
Tauromitanus, a, um, of the citee Tauromitanium.
Tauroscythæ, people of Scythia, dwellyng by the mountaine Taurus.
Taurubulæ, an ile by Naples.
Taurunum, or Taurunum, a citee of Hungarie, called Alba Græca.
Taurus, ri, m. g. a bulle. sometyme a strong ore. it is also one of the. xii. celestiall signes: sometyme the roote of a tree.
Adiungere tauros aratro, to yoke oxen into the ploughe.
Taurus Beritius, a philosophiers name.
Taurus, a great and famous mountaine, whiche begynneth at the Indian sea, and risyng into the northe, passeth by Asia vnto the fenne or mere called Mœotis, and bordereth vpon a great numbre of royalmes. also the hill called Caucasus is parte therof.
Taurus auis, a litle birde, whiche hath a voyce muche like an ore.
Tautologia, æ, f. g. a figure, where one thyng is twyse spoken.
Tax, n. ge. the sounde of a stroke with a whippe, a clappe, a strike.
Taxa, a hynde of baies or laurell, wherwith bees bers ar made.
Taxatio, ônis, f. g. a settyng of a tare or subsidie.
Taxâtor, ôris, m. ge. he that rebuketh or taxeth an other.
Taxeus, a, um, of yewe.
Taxilia, a great towne of India.
Taxim, softely, gently touched.
Taxis, olde writers vsed for Tetigeris, thou shalt touche.
Taxillus, li, m. g. a small die.
Taxo, onis, a gray or broche, a badger.
Taxo, aui, are, to touche often. also to tare or sette a thyng at a certaine value, also to reproue one an other.
Taxus, i, a tree lyke to firre, whiche beareth berries, wherin is mortall poyson. it is also the tree called yewe.
Taygeta, or Taygetus, an hill, vnder whiche be sette the citees of Sparta and Amycle.
Taygete, one of the sisters, called Pleiades.

T, ANTE E.

TE, a syllable sygned to pronownes.
Teanum, the name of two citees in Italie.
Tearco, a famous kyng of Aethiope.
Tearus, a riuer of Thracia, at the head wherof Darius, kynge of Persia, whan he went into Scythia, pight his pauilions, and there abode three dates, And delityng at the most pleasant water of that riuer, he set in the same place a pillour grauen with letters of Greke, declaryng his beyng there, with commendacion of the water.
Tearea, a citee in Italie, called commonly Tieti.
Technia, næ, fœm. ge. a crafte, a wyle or subtile meane, a crafty imagination.
Techynes, were they, which also were called Corybantes, and were feigned to be the sonnes of Minerua and Vol.
Technicus, a, um, artificiall, inuentiue.
Technides, a craftes man.
Technophyon, a settyng foorth of crafte.
Tecólithus, thi, m. g. a certayne stone, whiche is medicinable to breake the stone in the body.
Tecte, an aduerbe, couertly.
Tector, ôris, m. g. a pargettour, a plaisterer.
Tectoriolum, li, a diminutiue of Tectum.
Tectórium, rij, n. ge. the plaisterynge or pargettynge of walles.
Tectorium opus, pargettyng or plaisterynge woorke.
Tectórius, a, um, pertaynyng to couering or pargettyng.
Tectosage, Tholose in Fraunce.
Tectosagi, people of Tolose.
Tectosages, Languedoche in Fraunce.
Tectum, ti, n. g. the rouke of an house, sometyme all the all the houſe. alſo a certaine kynde of ſheepe.

Tectus, a, um, couered, hidde, kepte cloſe.
Tecum, with the.
Tecum oro & quæſo, I praie and beſeche the.
Tecum ſentio, I am of thyne opinion.
Tecum ſimul, together with you.
Teda æ, ſ. g. a tree, out of the whiche iſſueth a liquour moze thinne then pitche, impzopzelp it is taken foz all woodde, which beyng dzeſſed with roſe oz ware, will burne bzight lyke to a tozche: it is ſometyme taken foz a tozche, ſometyme foz a weddyng, oz a ſonge ſongen at a weddyng.
Teda pinea, the kernell of a pine appull.
Tedifera dea, Ceres, whoſe ſacrifices were done in the night by tozche lyght
Tegea, a citee in Arcadia.
Tegeæus, and Tegeaticus, a, um, of Tegea.
Tegeaticus deus, Pan.
Tegeæus, oz Tegeaticus volucer, Mercurie.
Tegeates, men of Tegea.
Teges getis, ſ. g. a courſe blanket oz couerled, whiche lieth on pooze mennes beddes. it is alſo a matte.
Tegeticula, læ, ſ. g. a diminutiue of Teges, a littell matte.
Tegillum, li, n. g. a littell couerynge.
Tegimen, minis, n. g. a couerynge oz couer.
Tegimen, minis, and Tegmentum, ti, n. g. idem quod Tegimen.
Tego, texi, tegere, to couer, to hyde, to cloke, to kepe cloſe oz ſecrete, to defende.
Caput texit galea, he put his baſnet on his heade.
Sepulchro tegi, to be buried.
Latibulis ſe tegere, to hyde them ſelfes in their caues.
Vultu dolorem animi tegere, with his conſtinance to diſſemble and hide the ſozow oz greke of his mynde.
Rem turpiſsimam tegere honeſta præſcriptione, with an honeſt title to couer oz hide a matter moſt vyle and diſhoneſt.
Sententiã ſuam tegere, to kepe cloſe his owne opinion.
Tegere & tueri, to kende and kaue harmeleſſe.
Tegere & nocere, contrarie.
Tegula, læ, ſ. g. a tyle.
Tegulum, li, n. g. a couerynge oz rather a tyle.
Tegumen, minis, and Tegumentum, ti, n. g. a couerynge, a couer oz lidde.
Teium, a citee in Paphlagonia, where Anacreon the poete was bozne.
Teij, the people of Teium.
Teius, a, um, of Teium.
Tela, læ, ſ. g. the webbe of clothe.
Telam exordiri, to beginne any buſineſſe.
Telamon, the ſon of Æacus, the father of Aiax.
Telamones, images, whiche dooe beare vp pilloures oz poſtes.
Telamonides, the ſonne oz nephew of Telamon.
Telchius, and Amphitus, the charioter men of Caſtoz and Pollux.
Teleboæ, people in Greece.
Teleboas, one of the Centaurs.
Telegonus, the ſoonne of Ulliſſes by Circe the witche, who folowynge his father into Ithaca, ſlew hym vnwittyng.
Telemachus, the ſonne of Ulliſſes and Penelope.
Telemus, the ſonne of Eurimus, a ſouthſaier amonge the Cyclops.
Telephion, ij, n. g. an herbe, which Leonicenus ſuppoſeth to bee that, whiche the Arabians call Cali, but Ant. Muſa ſuppoſeth it to bee rather a kinde of Anthyllis: but Dioſcozides doeth deſcribe it to haue a ſtalke, and leaues lyke to purſelane, euery leafe hauing lyke two winges, viz. oz. viij. bzanches, compyng from one rwte full of blewe leaues, whiche are thicke and tender, and hath floures yelow oz white. wherfoze Ruellius ſuppoſeth it to be that herbe, whiche ſome dooe name faba inuerſa, ſome Craſſula minor.
Telephus, the ſonne of Hercules, which was norriſhed with an hynde. an other of that name was a grammarian of Pergamum.
Telepnium, an herbe in Aſtolie called Oxyon.
Teleſco, a nymphe, the daughter of Oceanus and Tethys.
Teleſilla, a woman excellent in poetrie.
Telethuſa, the wyfe of Lictus mother of Iphis.
Telecardios, a pzecious ſtone of the colour of an herte.
Telina, a certayne garment.
Telinum, an ointment greatly commended of the phiſitians.
Tellen, téllinis, a fooliſſhe poete and mynſtrell.
Tellias, a ſouthſaier amonge the people called Phocenſes.
Tellus, li, a mans name, whom the wyſe Solon iudged to be moze foztunate then the ryche king Cræſus.
Tellus, lûris, ſ. ge. the earthe. alſo a goddeſſe amonge the painims.
Telo, lônis, an inſtrumente of warre, whiche is in this wiſe: a great poſte and high is ſet faſte, then ouer it cometh a longe beame, whiche renneth on a pynne, ſo that the one ende hangynge moze poyſe then the other, cauſeth the lyghter ende to ryſe. with ſuch, beere bzewers in London dooe dzawe vp water, they call it a ſweepe.
Telonarius, rij, m. g. a collectour oz gatherer of tributes oz tolles.
Telónes, nis, oz Telon, ônis, m. g. idem quod Telonarius, alſo a polle to dzawe water out of a well.
Telónium, nij, n. g. the place where taſkes oz tributes are paied and tolles taken.
Telos, in greke, is an ende, honour, a legion, a tribute oz pencion. it is alſo the name of an yle, where the ointment called Telinum, is made.
Telphuſa, a citee in Arcadia.

Telphuſsium, a towne in Bœotia.

Telum, li, n. g. all thynge, whiche maie be throwen or caſte with the hande, be it ſtone, woodde or yron, a darte, an arrowe, a quarell. it is alſo the generall name of al that, wherwith a man doeth fight, called a weapon. ſometyme it is taken for a ſwoorde.

Tela, artillary.

Depromere tela pharetris, to take arrowes out of quiuers.

Iacere tela, to caſt dartes.

Cuſtos telorum, a quiuer.

Teliphonon, idem quod Aconitum.

Tembrius, a riuer by Pontus.

Temerarius, a, um, more hardy then needeth or wiſedome requireth, foolehardy. ſometyme diſcdefull, or to be diſdde, raſſhe, vnaduiſed, without iudgement, without conſideration, vndiſcrete, harebrained.

Temerator, ôris, m. g. he ỹ violateth or breaketh.

Temeratus, a, um, violated, broken.

Temere, vnaduiſedly, fooliſhely, aduenturouſely, raſſhely, without conſideration, without regarde, without grounde, at rouers, at al aduentures, vndiſcretely, harebrainely. ſometyme it ſignifieth almoſt. alſo without cauſe.

Temere non eſt, it is not without a cauſe, it is not without a conſideration.

Non hac temere tranſiue poteſt, id eſt, ſine periculo.

Haud temere vnq̃ péruenit ad frugem, it neuer almoſte cometh to good proffe.

Nec temere rumpuntur, they be neuer broken ſpightly.

Temeritas, atis, f. g. raſſhenneſſe, foolehardineſſe, vnaduiſedneſſe, vndiſcreteneſſe, haſtineſſe.

Temeritudo, dinis, f. g. idem.

Temeriter, idem quod temere.

Temero, aui, are, to violate. alſo for ſtuprare.

Temeſa, a towne of the Bruttians, ſome write it Temeſſa.

Temeſeus, a, um, of Temeſa.

Temetum, ti, n. g. wyne.

Temno, tempſi, temnere, to ſet littell by, to contemne, to deſpite.

Temo, monis, maſ. ge. the beame of the wayne, or the draught tree, whereon the yoke hangeth: ſometyme a ſtake or polle lated ouerthwarte.

Tempe, a place in Theſſalia wonderfull pleaſant, hauing trees and medoes meruaylous delectable, wherin birdes of dyuers kyndes dooe ſynge continually with excellent melodie: therof al pleaſant woddes haue ỹ name of Tempe.

Temperamentum, ti, n. g. a moderation, a temperature.

Temperans, antis, temperate, moderate.

Temperanter, temperately, moderately.

Temperantia, æ, f. g. temperance, moderation, whiche is a firme and moderate gouernaunce of reaſon agaynſte ſenſualitee, and other vicious affections of the mynde.

Temperate, temperately, moderately.

Temperatio, ônis, fœ. ge. a moderation, a temperyng.

Temperator, oris, ma. ge. he that tempereth or moderateth, he that knoweth how to rule or order.

Temperatus, a, um, temperate, moderate, without exceſſe, kepyng meane.

Temperatura, ræ, f. g. temperature or moderation in the mingling of thinges together.

Temperatura cæli, id eſt, temperies, temperateneſſe of the aire.

Temperies, ei, f. ge. temperateneſſe, properly in heate or colde. ſometyme it is vſurped for temperamentum, and for temperantia. alſo conuenient tyme or occaſion to dooe a thyng.

Tempero, aui, are, to tempre or moderate in order or meaſure, to rule, to gouerne, to order, to forbeare, to abſteyne, to refrayne.

Temperamus ſtylum, calamum, appetitum, when we kepe in our writyng a meane forme, or dooe eate no more then nede.

Tẽperare alicui, to ſpare one, or forbeare him.

Si ynq̃ cuiquam temperauit, if he did cure forbeare doing wronge or iniurie to any man, if he dyd cuer ſpare. ꝛc.

Temperare animis, to moderate affections, to refrayne the doyng of a thynge.

Vix temperauére animis, they dyd ſcantly forbeare or refrayne.

Cædibus temperare, to refraine from manſlaughter.

Victoriæ temperare, to be neuer the prouder for his victorie.

Ciuitates temperare, to rule or gouerne citees.

Iram temperare, to moderate anger.

Lympha temperat merum, water dooeth alaie wyne.

Vectigalia temperare, to moderate or diminiſh tributes or paimentes.

Ætati iuuenum temperare, id eſt, moderari iuuenibus.

Verum etiam hoſtibus ſuperatis temperauit, but alſo he ſpared or intreated gentilly his enemies that he had ouercome.

Non potuit ſibi temperare, he coude not refraine.

Linguæ tempera, bable not ſo muche, leaue thy ill woordes.

Manibus temperare, to forbeare ſtrikyng or fightyng.

Vino temperare in vnum diem, to forbeare wyne for one daies ſpace.

A lachrymis temperare, to forbeare weepyng.

Quũ in amore temperes, ſeing thou doeſt loue moderately, or ſeeyng thou dooeſt vſe moderation in thy loue.

Temperare lætitiæ, to vſe moderation in his mirthe.

Maledicere huic temperabis ſi ſapis, thou wilt leaue thy raylyng agaynſt this man, yf thou bee wiſe, wise.

Temperatum est, the impersonall, they dyd spare, or they did forbeare and abstaine from.
Temperare vibibus oppugnandis, to abstaine or forbeare laying siege to cities.
Tempestas, ātis, fœ. ge. signifieth sometyme the same tyme, somtyme a tempest or storme, somtyme a fayre weather. also tyme conuenient: by translation a great trouble and tuffelyng in the common weale, a great daungier or perill.
Ea tempestate, at that tyme.
Inuidiæ tempestas, a storme of enuie.
Tempestiue, in season or tyme conuenient.
Tempestiuitas, ātis, f. ge. season or tyme conuenient, opportunitee.
Tempestiuus, a, um, that is doone in conuenient tyme, doone in season.
Tempestum, olde writers vsed for Tempestiuum.
Tempestuōsus, a, um, tempestous or stormie.
Templum, pli, n. ge. a temple or churche: somesyme it signifieth heauen. also the principall beame of a house. also a sepulchre.
Mentis templa, secrete thoughtes of the minde.
Temporalis, le, that whiche dureth vntyll a certayne tyme, temporall.
Ingenia temporalia, vnconstant and mutable wittes.
Temporaneus, a, um, that is doone sodainely and at a tyme.
Temporarie, for a tyme.
Tempori, aduerbium, in a tyme, at the houre appointed.
Temporarius, a, um, that dureth or continueth for a tyme. also that whiche pertaineth to time.
Temporius, an aduerbe, signifieth in tyme, or by tyme, or rather before tyme, sooner than needeth.
Tempsa, a citee of the Bruttians.
Tempus, pŏris, n. g. tyme. also the state of time, commoditee of the presente tyme, opportunitee, season. sometyme the power or authoritee, that a man beareth at any tyme, when he is in greatest estimation. sometyme the temples of the heade.
Illa oratio potius temporis mei ꝙ iudicij fuit, I spake those thynges rather for the cause that I then presently defended, then of any veray iudgement.
Vbi tempus promissa iam perfici, when tyme cometh that al promisses shulde be kepte.
Ab æterno tempore, from the beginnyng of all thynges.
Ad tempus, for a tyme.
Ex eo tempore, from the tyme.
Ex tempore viuunt, they liue but from hand to mouth: or they bee not carefull for the morowe.
In sempiternum tempus, for euer and euer.
Atq; eccum ipsum nobis obuiam in ipso tempore, and lo ponder he cometh to mete vs as well as can be.
Obedire tempori, to doe accordyng to the necessitee of the tyme present.
Per idem tempus, about the same tyme.
Id temporis, idem.
Actum tempus, the tyme that is paste.
Alienum tempus, an vnconuenient and vnmete tyme to doe a thynge.
Dextrum tempus, contrarie.
Tempus arrox, asperum, difficile, dubium, durum, triste, graue, turbulentum, miserum, luctuosum, a daungerous and perillous tyme, a tyme full of trouble or aduersitee.
Tempori amicorum seruire, to doe all the diligence we can to helpe our friendes in their necessitee and trouble.
His temporibus extremis, in this moste daungerous tyme, at this tyme of my greatest aduersitee.
Genitale tempus, the tyme of ones natiuitee.
Leuum tempus, id est, importunum.
Maximis reipublicæ temporibus, in the tyme of the greatteste busines of the common weale, or when the common weale is in moste trouble, and hath most cause to be holpen.
Nocturnum tempus, the night tyme.
Vacuum tempus habere, to haue leisure.
Temporibus illis, in those daies, at that tyme.
Arripere tempus, to take occasion.
Summo tempore, at the beste occasion that coude be, at the best and most conuenient tyme that coude be.
Vno tempore, at ones.
Assentiri tempori, to rule hym selfe accordyng to the tyme present.
Dare tempus alicui rei, to bestowe the tyme vpon a thynge.
Quam egeam tempore, how I lacke tyme, how muche I haue to doo.
Vbi tempus tibi erit, when you shall haue leisure.
A quo tempore capti sunt, from the tyme that they were taken.
Temulenter, drunkenly.
Temulentia, æ, f. g. drunkennesse.
Temulentus, a, um, drunken, cupshotte.
Tenacitas, atis, f. g. hardenesse in sparyng of expenses, nigardship, persecurance, retaynyng or kepyng.
Tenaciter, fastly, surely.
Tenasmus, mi, m. ge. a desyre to go often to the stoole, and make doon nothyng, with a burning, and sometyme a blouddy siege.
Tenax, nacis, om. g. that which holdeth faste as glewe, clammy, glewisshe, sometyme sparyng or nigarde, to muche constant, harde to be moued.
Equus tenax, a horse that is stiffe necked.
Memoria tenax, a good and sure memorie.
Morbus tenax, a harde sickenesse, that one can not ouercome.

Tenax

Tenax iuris sui dominus dicitur, when he will remitte no parte of his right.

Tenax propositi, constant, that continueth still in his purpose.

Tendicula, læ, f. g. a nette or snare to take birdes or beastes in. also a teinter, and a tent that byo therers wooyke on.

Tendines or Tendones, the great sinewes or coyo des of the bodie.

Tendo, tetendi, téndere, to extende, to stretche out, to laie a snare. to dwell, to goe, to go foyo warde, to goe on, to endeuoir, to pyoke, to reche, to pyepare. also to lifte vp, to pyetende, to pitche pauilions, also to assaie, to holde vp.

Paruum sy patri tendebat lulum, he helde vp littell Iulus vnto his father.

Tendere alicui insidias, to lie in awaite to hurt one, to laie waite to deceiue one.

Tendere plagas, to pitche haies or nettes.

Tendere aduersus, to repugne.

Quum aduersus tendẽdo nihil moueret socios. &c. when that he nothynge moued his felowes with resistyng or withstandynge theyr inynades. ꝛc.

Tendere ad altiora, to assaie to clymme hygher

Tendunt in aduersum sententiæ, the opinions be repugnant one to an other, or they be of contrarie opinions.

Tendere ad consulatum, to endeuour or labour to be consull.

Contra tendere, to withstande, to resiste, to repugne.

Tendere aduersus authoritatem senatus, to go about to doe any thynge agaynste the authoyoitee of the senate.

Manibus tendit diuellere nodos, he assaieth with his handes to vndoe the knottes.

Pertinaciter tendere, to goe foyoarde with his pourpose obstinately.

Tendere summa ope, to indeuour with all diligence, to labour all that one can.

Salapiam tendit, he goeth towarde Salapia.

Ad naues Romanas tendit, he goeth towarde the Romaines shippes.

Tendere ad reliqua, to pyosecute the residue.

Tendere cursum aliquo, to renne towarde any place, to goe streight to a place.

Tendit palmes sursum, the vine branche groweth, syringeth or riseth vpwarde.

Gressum tendit ad mœnia, he goeth toward the walles.

Lumina tendens ad cælum, liftyng vp his eies towarde heauen.

Manus supplices in cælum tendere, to lifte vp the handes to heauen, as men dooe in pyayynge

Tendit ad stomachum, vel in ventrem, to extend or stretche downe to the stomache or bealy.

Tendutes, olde wryters called them, whiche had great tecthe.

Tenea, a certaine village nere to Corinthe full of woodde, and delectable.

Tenebræ, ârum, fœ. gen. plu. the lacke of lyghe, darkeneſſe.

Offundere tenebras alicui rei, to obscure or make darke a thynge.

Obducere tenebras, idem.

In tenebris ruere, to renne headlonge in the darke.

Iacére in tenebris, to lie in the darke, to be vnknowen.

Trahere vitam in tenebris, to leade his lyfe without renowme or fame.

Tenebresco, scere, to be darke.

Tenebricor, aris, ari, to make darke.

Tenebricósus, a, um, that maketh darke, or that is darke.

Tenebricus, a, um, darke, obscure.

Tenebrio, onis, m. g. a lyer and a craftie knaue. also he whiche wyll not be seene abyode by daie tyme.

Tenebrosus, a, uum, very darke.

Tenedius, a certayne kynge, who made a lawe, that the man and woman, taken in aduoutrie shulde bee cutte a sunder with an axe: whiche lawe he executed on his owne sonne.

Tenedius, a, um, of Ténedos.

Ténedos, an yle in the sea Ægeum, betwene Mitelene and Hellespont, not farre from Troie.

Tenedia bipennis, aut securis, a quiche or sharpe axe. A prouerbe applied to iudges, whiche be hasty and cruell in theyr sentences.

Tenellulus, a, um, a diminutiue of Tenellus.

Tenellus, a, um, tender.

Teneo, tenui, tenere, to holde, to appyehende, to possede to hold, or kepe in, to couer, to vnderstande, to keepe backe, to perfoyme, to hinder, to lette, to make to tarie, to kepe in remẽbyance, to remembye: Teneri, to be let or hindyed.

Tenes quid dicam? vnderstandeſte thou, or perceiueſt thou what I saie?

Tene tibi, take thou that.

Per duas noctes ac diem vnum tenuit, it dured one daie and two nightes.

Verecundia teneri, to be ashamed.

Tenere se loco, not to departe out of that place.

Argumentis & testibus teneri, to be vanquiſshed bothe with reasons and witnesses.

Tenere consilium, to doe by counsayle.

Præcipe, vt teneat consilia nostra, geue hym aduise, that he doe after our counsaile.

Propositum tenere, to haue his intente or purpose.

Tenet me cunctatio, I am in doubte.

Ad horam quartam diei sequentis tenuit, it indured tyll. iiii. a clocke the nexte daie.

Tenuit consuetudo, the custome toke place or was vsed.

Tene tene, tary tary.

Redi, quo fugis nũc? tene tene, turne againe, whither renneſt thou nowe? tarie tarie.

Tenere consensũ, to agree or consẽt vnto other.

Tener

Tenet me amor, loue moueth me muche, I am in loue.
Tenere insaniam, to be madde, to be out of his witte.
Tenere ius, to know the lawe.
Tenere legem aliquam, to be vnder a lawe.
Lege teneri, to be subiect or in danger to the law.
Tenere memoria rem aliquam, and memoriam alicuius rei tenere, to remembre a thynge.
Tenere medium, to kepe a meane.
Tenere modum, to kepe measure.
Tenere aliquem manifestum mendacij, to take one manifestly with a lie.
Tene tibi, take it as thyne owne.
Tenere causam, to vanquisshe or recouer agaynst one in a matter.
Teneri desiderio, to desyre muche or feruently, to haue a great desyre.
Teneri ludis, to take pleasure in beholding plaies and sightes.
Teneri furti, to be giltie of felonie.
Tribus rebus animantium vita tenetur, the life of all creatures is maintened and nourished with three thynges.
Manu tenere inditia mortis, to know surely and manifestly.
Tenet se trans Tyberim in hortis, he dwelleth or abydeth beyonde Tyber in his orcheyarde or gardeine.
Multa dotibus tenebantur, many thynges were possessed by dowerres.
Tulliam mecum teneo, I kepe Tullia with me.
Nisi quid te tenuit, except some thynge did let or hynder you, or cause you to tarie.
Ne diutius teneam, to make shorte.
Non tenebo te pluribus, I will not holde you with many wordes, I will tell you briefely.
Teneo melius ista quàm meum nomen, I remembre these thynges. &c.
Amore alicuius magno teneri, to be greatly in loue with one.
In armis milites tenuit, he kepte the souldiours ready armed.
Complexu suo tenere, to embrace.
Consuetudinem tenere, to kepe a custome.
Tanta cupiditas tenebat dimicandi. &c. he had so great a desyre. &c.
Cursum tenere, to kepe on the course or viage that he hath begonne, to continue on.
Delectum rerũ tenere, to haue choise of thynges.
Sed tenendus dolor est, but I must refraine my sorowe.
Dominatu alterius teneri, to be in subiection or vnder the rule of an other.
Expectatio me tenet, I loke for.
Fama tenet, the fame is, the reporte of men goeth.
Fœderibus alienis teneri, to be bounde to kepe the leagues & couenantes that other haue made.
Gratiam alicuius tenere, to be in fauoure with one.
Graujtatem tenere, to kepe a grauitee.

Gubernacula reipublicæ tenere, to haue the gouernance of the common weale.
Imperium tenere, to be a rular or gouernour.
Imperio Romano teneri, to be in subiection of the Romayne empire.
Irretitum teneri, to be intangled or snared.
Lachrymas tenere, to forbeare wepyng.
Risum tenere, to refrayne laughyng.
Mare tenere, id est, occupare.
Metu teneri, to be let or hindred with feare.
Morbus eum tenuit, he was sicke.
Tenere in oculis, to loue exceadyngly.
Quos tantũ odium ordinis vestri tenet, which do so extremely hate your order or estate.
Tenent omnia, they haue all in their power.
Ora tenebant, they kept silence, they spake nothyng.
Palmam tenere, to haue the victorie.
Quum tenuerit planta, when the plante shall haue taken roote.
Ea pœna tenentur, they be in danger of that punishement.
Portum tenere, to arpue.
Principatum tenere, to be chiefe.
Sententiæ principatum tenet, he pronounceth his sentence or sheweth his opinion first.
Promissum tenere, to kepe promise.
Religione teneri, to haue a conscience or religion in dooyng of a thyng.
Ab improbis res publica tenetur, naughty persones be maisters of the common weale, or beare greatest swynge, stroke, or rule in the cõmon weale.
Se in silentio tenere, to kepe silence.
Sese castris tenebant, they came not out of their campe.
Se domo tenere, to kepe him selfe at home and not to come abrode.
Tenere se non potuit, he coude not refrayne, he coude not forbeare, he coude not holde his peace.
Tenuit sententia altera, the other opinion was taken and allowed.
Hanc ego quum teneam sententiam, seyng that I am of this opinion.
Spem tenere, to hope.
Magna me tenet spes, I haue a good hope.
Teneo manifesto furẽ, I haue taken or cõuinced the theefe manifestly, that he can not awaie.
Tenetur manifesto auaritia hominis, The mans couetousnesse is manifestly knowen or proued.
Teneri voto, to be bound to fulfill his vowe.
Teneor, neris, neri, to be bounden, to be beholden to one.
Tener, ra, rum, tender, ponge, gentill, softe, meruelous. also geided.
Tenera ætas, youthe, infancy, babeship.
Teneris annis, in his youth.
Tener puer, an infant, a babe.
Tener animus, a gentill mynde, easily indusced

ged to a thyng.
Equus tener, a ponge horse.
A tenero, á teneris, sens he was a babe or ponge childe.
Tenere, & Teneriter, tenderly, louyngly.
Tenerescо, or Teneraſco, to become tender and ſofte, to waxe mercifull and gentill.
Teneritas, atis, f. g. tenderneſſe.
Teneritudo, dinis, idem.
Tenia, lohe Tænia.
Tenitæ, were called goddeſſes of lottes.
Tenni, olde writers vſed for Tenui.
Tennis, or Tennum, a citee of Æolia.
Tennites, or Temnites, one of Tennis.
Tenontes, the great and ſtronge ſinewes, whiche dwe hepe the necke vpright. alſo a brode ſinewe, which goeth from the hamme downe to the hele.
Tenor, noris, m. g. an order, a continuaunce of a thyng, forme, faction.
Idem tenor vitæ, the ſame faction or trade of liuyng.
Tenore vno rem peragere, to doe the thynge all at one tyme without ſtoppynge or interruption.
Vno tenore in dicendo eſſe, to haue one maner of ſpeahyng, to ſpeake thzoughly all after one facion, not chaungyng the forme of his ſtile.
Tenos, an ile in the grehe ſea, one of them which are called Cyclades.
Tenſus, a, um, ſtretched out.
Tentabundus, a, um, ſaiyng, prouyng.
Tentamentum, ti, n. g. temptacion, aſſaiyng.
Tentatio, ónis, f. g. a prouke, a ſaie, temptacion.
Tentator, óris, m. g. a temptour.
Tentatus, a, um, tempted.
Tentigo, ginis, a ſtiffeneſſe.
Tentipellium, a ſhoe with an iron ſole, wherton the ouer leather is ſtretched.
Tento, aui, are, to handle or feele often, to tẽpte, to aſſaie or prouc, to tempte one to dwe euell.
Morbo tentari, to be vexed with ſickeneſſe.
Caput tentare, to trouble the head.
Tentare pedes dicitur vinum, when it maketh men ſo drunke, that they can not well go.
Vt eius tentarem ſententiam, that I might aſſaie or proue what his mynde was.
Ciuitatem animos literis nuntiiſque tentauit, he did aſſaie or proue by letters & meſſangers, whether he coude wynne the hertes of the citees there aboutes.
Animos hominum ſpe & metu tentare, To proue what he can make men doot bothe with hope and dreede.
Experientia tentare, to make a proffe, to aſſaie.
Tentoriolum, li, neu. ge. a diminutiue of Tentorium.
Tentorium, rii, n. g. a tente or pauilion.
Tentum, a mans priuie membre.
Tentus, a, um, ſtretched out.
Tenteritæ, a people dwellyng in an ilande with in the riuer of Nilus, whom the crocodyll ſo much feareth, that he can not abyde their doore.

Tentyra, orum, a citee in Egypte.
Tenuatus, a, um, made thynne, ſhlender, or leane.
Tenue & tenuiter, poorely, ſimply.
Tenuiculus, a, um, very ſimple or littell in eſtimacion, ſhlender or thynne.
Tenuis, nue, littell or ſimple in eſtimacion, ſmall in quantitee, poore, thynne, leane.
Tenui filo, with a ſmall threede, applied to a ſtyle in writing, whiche is not eloquent, but playne.
Aër tenuis & craſſus, contrarie.
Aqua tenuis, id eſt, modica.
Argilla tenuis, id eſt, fine humore.
Cælum tenue, a clere and pure aier, not groſſe and corrupted.
Cultu tenuiſsimo viuere, to liue ſparyngly, to hepe no great poore.
Diſcrimen tenue, littell difference.
Dubitatio tenuiſsima, the leaſte doubte in the worlde.
Homo tenuis, a poore man.
Tenui loco ortus, deſcended of a poore kynrede, haupng poore people to his father and mother.
Oratio tenuis, a playne and eaſy ſtyle.
Pecunia tenuis, littell money, ſmall richeſſe.
Tenuis pluuia, littell rayne.
Præda tenuis, a littell praie, a ſmall botie.
Suſpicio tenuiſsima, the leaſte ſuſpicion in the worlde.
Victus tenuis, ſhlender and poore liuyng.
Tenuis viribus, weake, of ſmall force.
Vita á filo tenui pendet, our life hangeth by a ſmall threede.
Tennis fortuna, lowe degree, ſhlender habilitee, low ſtate.
Tenuitas, atis, for. g. ſmalneſſe, pouertee, thynneſſe, ſhlenderneſſe.
Cauda in tenuitate deſinens, ſharpe and ſmall towarde the ende.
Tenuitas fugit aciem, it is ſo ſmall or thynne, that it can not be ſeen.
Tenuitas ærarij, pouertee and lacke of richeſſe in the common Theſaurie.
Tenuiter, ſcantly, poorely, barely, thynnely, ſhlenderly.
Tenuo, aui, are, to make ſmall, to make leane or feeble, to make thynne or ſhlender.
Tenus, us, m. ge. a ſnare, Verrius iudgeth it to be the nockes or endes of a bowe.
Tenus, a preposition, ſignifieth nighneſſe, or vnto till a thyng, vnto or vp till.
Titulo tenus, in a title onely or in woordes without effecte.
Credito tenus, to the whole ſumme that he lente.
Ore tenus, vp to the mouthe.
Tenus vrbem tendit, it extendeth vnto the citee, or no further then the citee.
Capulo tenus, euen to the hafte.

Porta

Porta tenus, euen to the gate.
Tauro tenus, to the mountaine Taurus and no further.
Vino tenus, to the quiche.

Teos, a citee of Jonia: an other of Scythia, by the whiche is a ponde of fisshe, whiche, in faire weather make so muche ople, that it maie be skommed of the water.

Tepefacio, pefacis, feci, facere, to make warme.

Tepefio, fieri, to be made warme.

Tepens, entis, warme.

Tepeo, tepui, pere, to be warme or hotte.

Tepesco, scere, to wexe hotte or warme.

Tephrites, a stoane, whiche hathe the fygure of a new moone, in colour blesche, or asshe colour.

Tephria, a kynde of marble.

Tepidarium, rii, n. ge. a vessell, wherin water is made temperate. also a chambre, whereinto men dooe goe out of a baine, a hotte house or baine.

Tépido, aui, are, to become hotte, or to make warme.

Tépidus, a, um, meane betweene hotte and colde, warme. also cooled from heate. sometyme noisfull or vnprofitable. sometyme for Calidus, hotte.
Tepidum lac, milke hotte from the cowe.
Sol tepedus, the hotte sunne.
Hic homo factus est tepidior, this mā is waxed somewhat colde in his mattier.

Tepor, óris, m. g. & tepiditas, tatis, fœm. gen. warmithe or warmenesse.

Teporatus, a, um, made somewhat warme.

Ter, thrise.
Ter millies, thre thousande tymes.
Ter centum, thre hundred.
Tercenteni, plur. tantum adiect. idem.
Ter tanto peior, thre tymes so yll.
Ter & vicies, thre and twenty tymes.
Ter ternus, thrise thre.
Ter quatuor, twelue.

Terapne, nes, or Terápnæ, arum, plu. a countrey in Lacedemonia, where the faire Helaine was borne. also an Ilande now called Corsica.

Terapneus, a, um, of Terapne.

Terdenus, a, um, the therteth.

Terebellum, li, n. g. a percer.

Terebinthina thesina, the right turpentine.

Terebinthus, thi, f. g. a tree, the woodde wherof is blache, and harde lyke bore: out of this tree dooeth renne a gumme, called commonly Turpentine: albe it the common Turpentine is not it, but an other, whiche is as clere as glasse, and is a soueraigne medecine to clense the stomache of putrified humoures.

Terebráto, ónis, f. g. a borying with a wimble or auger.

Térebra, bræ, fœ. g. an auger or wimble, wherwith holes are bored. also an instrument, wherwith men graue in stones.

Terebris, a riuer of Spayne.

Térebrum, bri, n. g. idem quod Terebra.

Térebro, aui, are, to bore or make an hole with a wymble or auger.

Teredo, dinis, f. g. a littell wourme that eateth woodde. sometyme a mothe that eateth garmentes.

Terentabin, is Manna, whiche cometh out of Arabia.

Terentia, Ciceros wife.

Terentianus, a, um, of Terence.

Terentinus, a, um, of Terentus.
Terentini ludi, plaies kepte euery hundreth yere, thre daies and thre nyghtes continually togeither.

Terentius, the most eloquente writer of comedies.

Terentus, a place in the fielde by Rome, called Campus Martius, wherin is an auter of Pluto and Proserpina.

Teres, teretis, om. ge. longe and rounde, lyke a tree or a pillar.
Oratio teres, an oration flowyng pleasauntly, without great ornament of eloquence.
Plagæ teretes, nettes made of rounde cordes.

Terétrum, tri, ne. ge. an instrumente, wherwith a thynge is made rounde.

Tereus, a kynge of Thrace, the housbande of Progne.

Tergemini, thre children borne at one bourdene

Tergeminus, a, um, triple.

Tergeste, a citee in Italie.

Tergestum, a towne in Slauony, nowe called Trieste.

Terginus, a, um, that is made of a beastes hide.

Tergiuersátio, ónis, f. g. an nonsuite in the law. when the plaintife geueth ouer his suite, hasting, ouerthwarting.

Tergiuersator, óris, m. g. an hafter, an ouerthwarter, one that renneth vnethe, and yet wyll not geue ouer.

Tergiuersor, aris, ari, to turne bache, to denie: in the lawe it signifieth to bee nonsuite. also to hafte, to ouerthwarte, to renne awaie and fighte styll.
Tergiuersari contra aliquem, to hafte as they dooe, that wyll in no wise come to reason or any honest point.

Tergo, or Tergio, tersi, tergere, to wype or make cleane.
Tergere fossas, to scoure diches.

Tergoro, aui, are, to put on a skinne, hyde, or couerynge.

Tergum, gi, n. ge. the bache of a man or beaste, or of any other thynge. sometyme it signifieth the hyde of a beaste, sometyme a tergate.
Tergá dare and vertere, to renne awaie prosperely in battaple, to flee.
Recuruum tergum, a croked bache.
Tergum collis, the hynder parte or bacheside of a mountayne or hyll
Scriptus a tergo, written on the backeside.
Tergibus, is redde in Lucretius in the dative case tase plurall.

Tergux, tergoris, m. g. a hyde of a beaste.
Terma, matis, n. g. the extremitee, the ende of a thyng. also the sole of the foote.
Termentarium, a linnen clothe, wherwith the body is couered.
Termentum, ti, n. g. for Detrimentum.
Termera, a citee in Licia, so called of Termero.
Termerium, a place in Caria, betweene Melus and Halicarnassus, whiche tyrannes vsed for a prison.
Termeria mala, extreme euels, Vide adag. Eras.
Termes, termitis, m. ge. a branche plucked of a tre with the fruite on it. also a wourme, whiche eateth flesshe. it is also a mountaine in Elia.
Termes is also a towne in Spayne.
Termillum, li, n. g. a potte for wyne, which was alwaie sette on the table, that euery man might take as muche wyne as he wolde.
Termilæ, a people in Lycia.
Terminalia, ôrum, ne. ge. plu. a certayne holy daie, at the later ende of the yere, to the god Terminus.
Terminalis, le, belongyng to boundes.
Terminalis lapis, a mere stone, laied or pight at the ende of sundry mennes landes.
Terminatio, onis, f. g. a boundyng.
Terminatus, a, um, bounded.
Termino, aui, are, to ende or finisshe, to bound, to appoynte the boundes or marches in any place.
Terminare bona voluptate, to define, that the ende of all goodnesse is pleasure, or that nothing is good but pleasure.
Sententiam terminare, to ende his sentence.
Imperium terminare oceano, to make the ocean sea the boundes of his empire.
Terminare modum alicuius artis, to appoint an ende of any arte.
Terminus, i, m. ge. a signe, whiche declareth one mans lande from an others, or one countrey or territorie from an other. A precinct or limittes. also it signifieth the buttyng, the ende of euery thynge.
Terminus deus, an idole, which was supposed to haue the preeminence ouer boundes of lande, whose temple had euer an hole in the roufe, for as muche as they thought it vnlefull, that bondes of landes should be couered or hid.
Termo, onis, olde writers vsed for Terminus.
Ternarius, a, um, of three.
Ternarius numerus, the numbre of three.
Ternundenum, the thyrtenth.
Ternus, a, um, three.
Tero, triui, ere, to rubbe, to breake or bruise, to crombe in pieces.
Terere iter, to go his waie.
Terere tempus, to consume the tyme.
Terere otium, to liue idly.
Terere mola, to grynde.
Sermonibus tempus terere, to passe the tyme in talkyng.
Terpandrus, dri, an olde musitian, who added vii. stynges to the harpe.
Terpnus, an harper in the tyme of Nero.
Terpsichore, one of the nyne muses.
Terra, æ, fœ. g. earthe: sometyme all the worlde, also a prouince or territorye, a countrey, lande, grownde.
Arduæ terrarum, mountaines.
Bonitas terræ, good nature of ỹ grouid or soile.
Oræ terrarum, regions, countreis. also the vttermost borders or bankes towarde the sea.
Tremor terræ, an erthe quake.
Viscera terræ, the innermost parte of the erthe.
Quoties terra mouisset, as often as there was any erthequake.
Premere terras, to gouerne the worlde.
Terra defossum habes, prouerbially spoken of him that hydeth his gifies, and doeth not exercise them to the vse of other.
Terram video, I see lande, prouerbially vsed when one noteth the ende of some great labour to be at hande.
Aut terra aut mari, by one meanes or an other.
Terræ filius, he that is commen vp of naughte, and no man knoweth his kynred. a persone of little reputacion, or whose stocke is worne out by longe continuaunce of tyme.
Terraceus, a, um, of earthe.
Terræmotus, us, m. g. an erthequake.
Terrænum, i, n. g. a fielde, lande.
Terrænus, a, um, on erthe or lyeyng on earthe, earthly, that is doen on the earth or in the erth.
Terræni colles, hilles that bee not stonie, nor full of roches.
Terrænum iter, a iourney by lande.
Terrameola, æ, a bryde lyke to a larke, whiche we call a buntyng.
Terrefacio, terrefacis, fēci, ere, to make as ferde.
Terreo, rui, rēre, to make aferde.
Terrestris, stre, erthly, that lyeth on the earthe.
Iter terrestre, a iourney by lande.
Præsidium terrestre, an ayde by lande.
Terreus, a, um, of erthe, made of earth.
Vas terreum, a vessell of erth.
Terribilis, le, terrible, that which is to be feared, dreadfull, horrible.
Terricola, æ, cō. g. he that dwelleth on the lāde.
Terricrepus, a, um, that rebuketh one terrible.
Terricula, æ, f. g. is sometyme vsed for Terriculum.
Terriculamentum, i, ne. ge. a feare or a fearefull thinge.
Terriculum, li, n. g. a thynge that putteth a man in great feare or dread.
Terrifico, aui, are, to make aferde.
Terrificus, a, um, terrible, or that whiche indoeth feare.
Terrigenus, a, um, begotten on the earth.

Terri-

Terriloquus, that ſpeaketh terribly, and dreadfully.

Terriones, ploughmen.

Terripauium, & Terripudium, for Tripudium, daunſyng.

Terriſonus, a, um, that ſoundeth terribly.

Territo, aui, are, to make afeerde, to put in a feare or dreade.

Territórium, rii, neu. ge. the fieldes or countreyſyng within the iuriſdiction or boundes of a citee, a territory.

Térritus, a, um, made afeerde.

Terror, ôris, m. g. feare, terrour, dreade.

Miros terrores ad me attulit, he brought me woorde of wonderfull great feare that they were in.

Terſus, a, um, cleane, pure.

Terſus dies, of olde writers was taken for a fayre daie.

Tertiani, orum, ſouldiours of the thyrd troupe, bande or company.

Tertiánus, a, um, of the thyrde daie, or of the thyrde ordre.

Tertiana febris, a feuer tercian.

Tertiárium, a mixt mettall, wherin are. ii. partes of leade and one of tynne. Alſo a thirdendeale, a thirde parte.

Tertiarius, a, um, of the thirde parte.

Tertiata verba, woordes not perfectly pronounced, as when one is in dread or feare of hym, to whom he ſpeaketh, and trembleynge in ſpeche, vneth pronounceth the thyrde woorde that he woulde ſaie.

Tertiátio, ônis, fœ. g. the dooyng of a thyng the thyrde tyme.

Tertio, aui, are, to dooe a thyng the thyrde tyme, or to make the thirde tithe in eareyng.

Tertiò, the thyrde tyme.

Tertio conſul, where two haue ben conſulles before hym. Tertium conſul, he that hath been thryſe cõſull, ſo that Tertio ſignifieth the third in ordre and place, two goyng afore: Tertium ſignifieth the tyme, where twyſe goeth before. the ſyke is of Secũdo, Quarto, & other nũbres.

Tertio pedato, at the thyrde returne or comyng againe.

Tertius, a, um, the thyrde.

Tertio quoq; die, euery thyrde daie.

Tertio quoq; verbo, at euery thyrde woorde.

Tertius decimus, the thyrtenthe.

Tertullianus, a great lerned man of Carthage, the ſonne of a capitaine of the Romains, was in his tyme a verie excellent man in witte and leerning, and wrate many faire woorkes in defence of chriſtendome, but beyng in his myddle age made a prieſt, vexed with ſundrie wronges and diſpleaſures, by the enuie of the clergie of Rome: he (as it were inforced) at the laſte fell into the hereſie of Montanus, which hereſie he did enterlace with his bookes that he wrate, and liued tyll he came to extreme age. he flouriſhed about the yeere of our lorde. 270 ſainct Cyprian, whan he luſted to reade Tertulians woorkes, he woulde byd his ſeruauntes byrng hym his maiſter.

Terruncium, ii, n. ge. and Teruncius, ii, m. ge. a poyſe or coyne of three ounces, idem quod quadrans, ſoke there.

Teſqua, places harde and difficile to come by to, where the Romains did practiſe theyr diuinations by ſleepyng of byrdes, called Auguria.

Teſſelia, æ, f. ge. a diminutiue of Teſſera, ſmall pieces that men make checker woorke with, on tables and bourdes.

Teſſellátus, a, um, that whiche is wrought with ſmal pieces of ſtone, wod or bone, as in playyng tables or counter bourdes.

Pauimentum teſſellatum, a flooze paued with ſquareſquare tyles.

Teſſera, æ, fœm g that whiche is in euery parte ſquare as a die. alſo it is a die, moreouer a watche woorde or priuie token geuen to ſouldiours. alſo a token of leade, leather or other thynge, geuen to people at dooes, or whan they receiue coyne of the kynges almes. alſo a table, wherein is ſcored or marked the numbre of thynges receiued, whiche is called alſo Teſſerula.

Teſſera hoſpitalis, a token geuen to gueſtes, wherby men did knowe alwaie after, that they were their olde gueſtes and frendes.

Teſſeram hoſpitalem confregiſſe dicebatur, whiche had broken the lawe of hoſpitalitee and olde friendſhippe.

Teſſeræ nummariæ, tokens geuen to men to receiue a ſumme of money by.

Teſſera frumentaria, a token geuen to a man in leade or other ſyke, by the whiche he ſhall receiue a certaine meaſure of coyne.

Teſſera, is alſo a figure of gometrie, called Cubus.

Teſſerádecas, cadis, f g. a curteyne.

Teſſerárius, rii, he that geueth the watche woorde.

Teſſerarius, a, um, belongyng to dice.

Teſſérula, læ, fœ. ge. a litteli pauyng tyle. alſo a tayle or ſcore.

Teſſo, ſsi, ſſere, to deſpoyle or pull of a garment or harneis by violence.

Teſta, æ, fœm g. a ſharde of a pot or tyle. Alſo a piece of a bone broken. alſo an erthen pot. alſo all maner of ſhell fyſhe, and the ſhell of euery thyng. ſometyme Teſtæ be taken for the lottes that the greekes call Oſtraci.

Teſta oui, an egge ſhell.

Teſta limacis, a ſhell of a ſnaple.

Teſtáceus, a, um, that hath a ſhell, or that is made of ſhardes or of erth baked, alſo baked vnder a panne.

Teſtaceum flagellum, a prouerbe applied to ſodeyn alteration of thynges, or of vanyſſhement vnlooked for.

Opus teſtaceum, any thyng made of erth neiſled with the fyre.

Teſta-

Testacea pyra, a certayne kynde of peares.
Testamentārius, ij, masc. gen. a forger of testamentes. also a writer or maker of testamentes, a notarie.
Testamentārius, a, um, perteinynge to testamentes.
Testamentum, i, n. g. a testament or last will.
Testamento tutorem instituí, I haue appointed him by my last wil, to be tutour or gardiā.
Relinquere testamento, to leaue to one by his testament or last will.
Supponere & Subijcere testamentum, to bring forth a false testament or will.
Testātim, in pieces or shardes.
Testātio, ōnis, f. g. witnesse bearyng.
Testātor, an aduerbe, makyng his will or testament.
Denunciare alicui testātor, to shewe one expressely and plainely.
Testātor, ōris, m. g. he that maketh a testament.
Testātus, a, um, that is dead and hath made a will, also openly knowen of all men or proued, sure, certaine, and as it were tried by witnesse.
Monumentis testatum relinquere, To leaue written in recorde.
Clara & testata res, a thyng manifest & openly knowne of all men.
Relinquere apud aliquem testatum, to proue a thyng certaynely to one.
Religione testatum, id est, approbatum, approued, alowed, confirmed.
Redigere in testatum, to make registers or writynges of recorde.
Testiculor, aris, ari, to putte the male to the female. Testifor, idem.
Testiculus, li, m. ge. the stone of a man or beast.
Testificātio, ōnis, fœm. g. a witnesse bearyng, a prouyng by witnesse.
Testificātor, & Testificatrix, he or she that beareth witnesse.
Testificātus, a, um, witnessed, testified.
Testificor, aris, ari, to beare witnesse, to confesse me, to testifie.
Deum testificari, to take god to witnesse.
Testimonium, ij, n. g. witnesse borne of a thyng doorn, testimonie, deposition, euidence.
Dicere testimonium, to beare witnesse.
Perhibere testimonium, and Reddere testimonium, idem.
Quod testimonio sit, that maie be a witnesse or euidence.
Dicere pro testimonio, to depose or beare witnesse before a iudge or examinour.
Testis, is, com. gene. he that beareth witnesse, a witnesse, a testis, a geuer of euidence.
Sine teste dolere, to bee sorowefull without semblant, to sorow inwardly, makyng no shew of it.
Testes, be also a mans genitours.
Teste Herodoto, as Herodotus witnesseth.
Oculatus testis, a witnesse that hath seen the thyng.
Religiosus testis, a feythfull and sure witnesse.
Citare testes, to alledge witnesses.
Dare testes, to bryng forth withnesses.
Planum facere testibus, to make the matter plaine by withnesses.
Testor, āris, ari, to beare witnesse, to call to witnesse, to praie god, to shew or declare manifestly, to denounce, to tell openly. also to make his testament or last will, to affirme, to auouche.
Deum testor, I take god to witnesse.
Nunc illud testabor, now I will tell you this plainely.
Te per superos omnes testatur, she beseecheth the for gods sake and all the sainctes in heauē.
Testatus per edictum, declaryng by a proclamation.
Testu, olde writers used for Testa.
Testuaceum, ei, n. g. that whiche is boyled in an erthen potte.
Testudinātus, a, um, holowe or bowyng lyke a vault, or lyke the shell of a tortoyse.
Testudinatum tectum, a rouke whiche is hollow in foure partes vaulted.
Testudineus, a, um, belongyng to the tortoyse or snayle. also made holow with a rouke.
Testudineus gradus, a slow pace.
Testūdo, tūdinis, f. ge. a snayle, or rather a tortoyse. also an engin of warre, to beate downe walles, whiche was made of bourdes & couered with lether or other thig that would not burne, within it was a piece of tymbre, that hadde a great hole of yron at the ende, whiche piece might be pulled backe, and put foorth with the strength of men, and therwith pluche stones out of the walles of townes beseiged. also it is the holdyng of the souldiours tergates close together ouer their heades like a rouke in approching to the walles or gates. it is also the rouke or vault of an house. also ỹ braip or body of a lute, or other lyke instrument. it is vsed for a lute.
Testudine facta, holdyng their tergates close ouer their heades.
Prius testudo leporem præuerterit, ye shall as soone catch an hare with a tabbar.
Testus, us, m. ge. a pan, vnder the which tartes and other lyke thynges of past, are bakē, some vse it for an ouen.
Tetānicus, a, um, that hath the disease, called Tetanus.
Tetanicus morbus, idem quod Tetanos.
Tetanos, whan the sinewes are styfe, so that a mā can not bowe some parte of his body.
Tetanōthra, medicines, wherwith the face of a man or womā is made smoth without wrinkles.
Tetara, foure.
Tetartæus, a, um, of the fourth.
Tetartemorion, rij, neu. gener. the fourth part of the Zodiake circle, wherin ar the. xii. signes: it is also that whiche astronomers call the quadrate aspecte of the planettes, also the coyne called Quadrans.

Tete, thy selfe.
Teter, tra, trum, foule, stynkyng, cruell, horrible, naught, mischeuous.
Nullum genus hominum tetrius, no sorte of men more mischeuous.
Teterrimus hostis, an enemie most cruell.
Tetra belua, an horrible and cruell beast.
Cadauera tetra, foule and stinkyng carcases.
Colores tetri, foule and stinkyng colours.
Odor teter, a foule stynkyng sauour.
Facinus tetrum, an horrible and mischeuous acte.
Teterrima hyems, a verie harde and sharpe wynter.
Teterrimè, most abominablie, most cruelly.
Tethys, thys, and thyos, the wife of Neptunus, called goddesse of the sea, sometyme it is taken for the sea.
Tetinieris, for Tenueris.
Tetinus, for Tenus.
Tetra, foure.
Tetrácinus, a coyne, whiche was in value foure dragmas, or olde poyse grotes of. viii. to the ounce.
Tetracolon, a sentence hauyng foure membres.
Tetracordium, dij, neu. ge. an instrument with iiii. strynges.
Tetradôron, of. iiii. hande bredth.
Tetradragma, mæ, f. g. or Tetradragmum, mi, n. gen. a coyne of the value of. iiii. grotes.
Tetragnathius, thij, a certaine scorpion.
Tetragônus, a, um, that hath foure corners.
Tetragrammaton, the name of god, whiche the Iewes doe call Ineffabile, that is to saie, vnspeakeable.
Tetragrammaton, in greke signifieth of foure letters.
Tetrámetrum, tri, n. gen. a kynde of metre, hauyng but foure feete.
Tetrao, ônis, the birde called a bustarde or a bystarde.
Tetrapharmacon, a kynde of meate made of foure deintie thynges.
Tetrápolis, the countrey of Antioche, wherin be foure notable cities.
Tetraptôtum, ti, neu. gene. a noune that hath foure cases.
Tetrarcha, chæ, m. gen. the ruler or gouerner of the fourth part of a royalme.
Tetrárchia, æ, f. g. the gouernance of the fourth part of a prouince.
Tetrásticon, a sentẽce concluded in foure verses.
Tetrasyllabum, of foure syllables, as Imperator.
Tetrè, sharpely, cruelly, wickedly.
Tetricitas, âtis, fœ. ge. sowernesse or sadnesse of countinaunce.
Tétricus, a sower felow and alwaie vnpleasant.
Tétricus, or Tetrica, a rough hill in Italie, full of roches, and harde to go on.
Tetrinno, aui, are, to swymme lyke a ducke.
Tetrius, more sharpe or cruell.
Tetrix, idem quod Tetrao.
Tetro, aui, are, to make foule, to pollute, to make bitter.
Tetrobolum, li, neu. gene. a coyne being. iiii. Oboli, lackyng the thirde parte of Drachma in value. ii. d. ob. q.
Tetulit, for Tulit.
Tettigómetra, the mother or damme of grasse hoppers.
Tettius Caballus, a scoffer in the tyme of Vespasian.
Teuca, a quene of Illiria, which liued euer chast, and vanquished many noble capitaines, and diuers hostes of the Romains.
Teucer, or Teucrus, cri, the name of a kynge of Troians. also of the sonne of Telamon the valiant greche.
Teucer, cra, crum, idem quod Troianus, of Troie.
Teuchitis, a certaine rushe.
Teuchos, a vessell, an instrumente, a volume.
Teucrium, an herbe, whiche Ant. Musa supposeth to be Pimpinella.
Teudámedus, the father of Pelasgus.
Teuderium, a citee of Germanie, called cõmonly Badborne.
Teumesus, a litteil hill in Boeotia.
Teumesius leo, a lion, which Hercules didde slea whan he was a childe, and of his skynne made hym a coate.
Teurion, the herbe, called also Tripolium.
Teutates, was in olde tyme amonge the frenche men taken for Mercurius.
Teutha, idem quod Téuca.
Téuthalis, lidos, an herbe, called also Polygonaton, Polygonon, Centinodia, Sanguinaria, and Geniculata, because it is full of knottes.
Teuthania, a piece of the countrey of Troye.
Teuthis, a noble man, whiche went with the gresshes towarde Troie.
Teuthrania, the farthest parte of Mysia.
Teuthras, thrantis, a kyng of Mysia, the son of Pandion.
Teuthranteus, a, um, of Teuthras.
Teuthrion, an herbe, called also Polyon.
Teutonicus, a, um, of the Almayns.
Teutones, Teutoni, or Teutonici, people called Almayns.
Texo, texui, or texi, texere, to weaue or wynde threde, also to make, to builde, to write, to gather, to ornate.
Ea tela texitur, prouerbially, thei labour about that.
Texuit basilicam, he builded a palaice.
Nauigium texere, to make a shippe or bote.
Epistolam texere, to write or drawe out a letter.
Plagas texere, to knitte nettes.
Texta, an hearelace, wherewith the heare is bounde vp.

Téxtile, lis, a thyng wouen.
Téxtilis, le, that is weaued or wounden.
Textilia serta, garlandes made of dyuers floures.
Textilis pictura, tapestrie.
Textilis vmbra palmitis, the shadow of a vine laied in ordre vpon a frame.
Textim, an aduerbe, signifiyng in weauyng or wyndyng vp.
Textor, ôris, m. g. he that weaueth or wyndeth, a weauer.
Textrina, næ, f. g. a weauers shop, or the craft of weauyng.
Textrinum, ni, n. g. a weauers shoppe.
Textrix, tricis, and Textricula, læ, f. gen. a woman, whiche woorcheth in a frame or stoole.
Textum, ti, n. g. a thyng that is wouen.
Textum vimineum, a pannier made of twigges or osiers.
Textum orationis, id est, stylus.
Textûra, ræ, f. g. weauyng.
Textus, us, m. g. the acte of weauyng.
Textus, a, um, wouen, platted, or wounden in and out.

T, ANTE H.

THabis, a mountaine of Scythia.
Thäis, the name of an harlotte.
Thálamus, mi, m. g. a chambre, where the housbande and the wife doe lie together.
Thalamus, is sometyme vsed for an hyue for bees.
Consors thalami, an housbande or wife.
Thalassio, vide Talasio.
Thalássicus color, a colour like the waues of the sea, a blew colour.
Thalássinus, a, um, of the sea colour or blew.
Vestis thalassina, a garment of blewe colour.
Thalassomeli, a licour made of hony, salte water, and raine water, and is put into a vessell raised with pitche.
Thales, a philosophier, one of the seuen wyse men of Greece. also a poete of Candy.
Thalestria, a queene of Amasones, the whiche came to hynge Alexander with .300. women with hir, to the entent to haue issue by hym and his men, and whan she perceyued, that she and hir ladies were speddy, they departed home agayne.
Thalia, one of the graces, whiche the auncient poetes did suppose to be one of the daughters of Jupiter, and geuers of delectable speche and pleasant pronunciation.
Thalictrum, an herbe, hauyng leaues lyke coriãder, but somewhat grosser, more fattie, and a stalke lyke poppie.
Thalli, the pillynges of an oynion or garlyke: or rather the middell stalkes betweene the blades and the head or roote, sometyme it is vsed for the budde of a tree.

Thalus, a man of excedynge cunnynge, whom poetes feigne that Jupiter made with brasen feete.
Thamnos, in latine Arbustum, a shrubbe.
Thamyras, was he, whiche first played on an harpe, without syngyng therto.
Thánatos, mors in latine, death.
Thapsia, an herbe like to fenell, and hath a yelow floure, and a flatte roundе seede.
Tharia, pickell, wherin fysshe is salted and kepte.
Thársus, a citee in Cilicia.
Thasia, an almande.
Thasia nux, called also Græca.
Thasium, a certaine wine, whiche is in Aegypt.
Thasii, people dwellyng in the ile Thasus.
Thasus, a towne: also an ile in the sea Aegeum.
Thassus, Lath. Eras. is an ile nere to Thrace, noble and fertile.
☞ Thassus bonorum, a prouerbe applied to them that prompte great thynges, as a man woulde saie, a worlde, a countrey of welthe. in Cambridgeshyre the vulgar woorde is, a myne of golde.
Thauma, in greeke, is a meruayle or miracle.
Thaumantias, tis, the daughter of Thaumas and Electra.
Thaumantis, tidis, idem.
Thea, a nymphe, the daughter of Oceanus and Tethys.
Theagenes, the name of thre diuers men of Athens.
Theano, a woman of the secte of Pythagoras, excellently learned in philosophie and poetry.
Theanum, a towne of Apulia.
Theatrâlis, le, and Theatricus, a, um, that pertayneth to Theatrum.
Spectacula theatrica, plaies exercised in the Theatre.
Theatridium, dii, neu. g. a diminutiue of Theatrum, a little Theatre.
Theâtrum, tri, n. g. a Theatre, a place made halfe rounde, wherin the people assembled to beholde plaies and sundrie exercises. sometyme it signifieth the multitude, that beholdeth: sometyme the sight or plaie sette forth in that place.
Versari in Theatro, to lyue or bee in an open place, where euery man dooeth beholde hym.
Nullum theatrum virtuti conscientia maius est, there is no place where vertu is more seen and better beholden, than in a mans owne conscience.
Theatra tota reclamant, all the people that beholde the sightes, crie out against it.
Magnum theatrum habet ista prouincia, this prouince or charge hath many that door beholde it.
Magno theatro spectata familiaritas, id est, permultis comperta, well knowen or proued of many men.
Thebæi, people of the citee of Thebe in Aegypte.

Thebæ,

Thebæ, arum, Theba, bæ, and Thebe, bes, the name of cities, wherof one was in Egypte, builded by Busiride: an other in Boecia, builded by Cadmus: an other in Cilicia, where Andromache, the wyfe of Hector was borne.
Thebaicæ, and Thebaides dates of the best sort.
Thebe, a maidens name, out of whose bosome sine two sculuers: one to the fountaine of Hammon, an other to the wood Dodonæa, where they gaue answeres.
Thebais, idis, and idos, a countrey of Egypte. It is also the name of a booke made by Statius the poete.
Thebanus, a, um, of Thebes.
Theca, cæ, f. g. a case, a sheathe or scabberde, a box.
Grani theca, the huske of wheate.
Theca calamaria, a pennar.
Theca nummaria, a purse or dagge for money.
Thecæ vasorum, cases that plate is kepte in.
Thelbencane, a citee in the countrey of Babylon, called now Waraga.
Theleboæ, people of an yle called Lapyx, whiche lyeth agaynst Naples.
Thelebois, idem.
Thelephus, a kynge that came in the aide of the Troians, and was slayne by Achilles.
Thelphusia, a citee in Arcadia.
Thelphusium, or Thelphosion, a citee in Boeotia, where Pyndarus praysed Bacchus.
Thelygonum, ni, ne. ge. an herbe, whiche hath bearies lyke to an olyue.
Thelyphonon, ni, n. g. an herbe, the rote wherof doeth kyll scorpions.
Thelipteris, ris, f. g. the kerne, or the female kerne.
Thema, matis, n. g. a thynge proposed to be disputed or reasoned. it is also a figure, wherin astronomers doe write the state of heauen, in placeynge or settyng the planettes in suche signes and degrees, as they bee in at the tyme of a mānes natiuitee, or whan any thyng shal happen that they seeche for.
Themachinachia, a countrey called also Nemea.
Themes, an olde towne in the ile of Cyprus, where brasse was first founde.
Themillas, læ, a mans name in Virgill.
Themis, mis, midis, or mistis, a goddesse, one of the sisters of Jupiter, on whō he begat Minerua, the which commanded men to aske that which was lefull: some take hir for iustice. There was an other woman called Themis, named also Carmentis: it was sometyme taken for Fas, lefull.
Themiscyra, a citee in Cappadocia, called afterwarde Cæsaria.
Themisones, people by Lycia.
Themista, idem quod Themis, iustice and prudent of counsailes.
Themistius, a philosophier, whiche wrate commentaries on Aristotles woorkes.
Themistocles, a noble capitayne of the Atheniens ses, whiche beyng expelled out of his countrey, & commen to Xerxes kynge of Persia, was sent by hym with a great armie agaynst the Athenis enses: but whan he perceiued his countrey in perill to bee destroyed, he dranke poison, and chose rather to die, then ether to be vnkeithfull to Xerxes, orels to destroie his countrey, although it were vnkynde towarde hym.
Themistogenes, a historiographier in Syracuse.
Thensa, sæ, f. g. a halowed carte or chariote.
Theoclimenus, a southsayer, whiche tolde Penelope of hir housebande Ulisses retourne.
Theocritus, a poete of Syracuse, whiche wrate Bucolica, or the contencion of herde men.
Theodomas, the father of Hyla.
Theodomanteus, a, um, of Theodamas.
Theodectes, a orator of Cilicia, Platos scholer.
Theodorus, a famos philosophier. also a notable caruer.
Theodosia, a citee of Chersonesus, called nowe Capha.
Theodosius, an emperour. also the name of dyuers learned men.
Theodotus, the instructour of the last Ptholomeus.
Theognis, a poete of Greece.
Theogónia, æ, the beginnyng of the goddes.
Theológia, æ, f. g. diuinitee.
Theólogus, gi, f. g. a diuine.
Theombrotion, an herbe that magitiens doe vse.
Theomedes, a precious stone, whiche putteth awaie iron, lyke as the lode stone draweth it.
Theomenia, the wrathe of god.
Theon, the name of diuers learned men.
Theoninus, a, um, of or lyke Theon, whiche was an horrible railer and carper of other mennes doeynges.
Theonino dente rodere, to rebuke a man shamefully.
Theóphilus, deuoute, louyng God, also the name of diuers bisshoppes.
Theophrastus, a noble philosophier, and of excellent eloquence.
Theopompus, an historiographier after the time of Herodotus and Tucidides. also an auncient poete, and a kynge of Lacedemonia.
Theópolis, the chiefe citee of Syria, called also Antiochia.
Theoréma, matis, n. g. speculacion.
Theorétice ars, a science that nedeth no practise, but onely speculacion.
Theória, riæ, f. g. speculacion, vnderstandyng.
Theos, in greeke is god.
Theótocos, the mother of god.
Thera, a citee by Athenes. also one of the iles called Cycladες.
Theramne, a towne of the Sabines.
Theramenes, a philosophier of Athens.
Theramneus, a, um, idem quod Sabinus.
Therasia, an ile by Eubœa.
Theriaca, cæ, or Theriace, ces, triacle.
Theridamas, antis, a dogges name in Ouide.

Therimachus, a famous peincter.

Theriôma, atis, ne. ge. a ſore of the priuie membʒes, wherby al the partes there about are coʒrupted, and therof iſſueth blache and ſtinkynge humour.

Theoriomachus, one of Hercules ſonnes.

Theorionarcha, a certayne herbe that ſtonieth ſerpentes.

Theriotróphion, phij, n. g. a place where wilde beaſtes are kepte, as a foʒeſt oʒ parke.

Theriſtrum, ſtri, a thynne veile, whiche the women of Paleſtina did weare.

Thermæ, ærum, fe. g. plu. bathes of hotte water, alſo a towne of Sicilie.

Thermefacio, feci, facere, to chauſe oʒ make one hotte with outragious eatyng and dʒynkynge of hotte thynges.

Tharmodoon, a ryuer of Thrace.

Thermodontius, tius, and tiacus, a, um, perteinynge to that ryuer.

Thermopólium, lij, n. ge. a place, where meates and dʒynkes were ſolde, wherwith men were made hotte oʒ warme in colde weather.

Thermopóto, aui, are, to dʒinke hotte oʒ warme dʒynke.

Thermopylæ, a mountayne whiche paſſeth thoʒough Greece, haunynge a narowe entrie oʒ paſſage, where .2000. Lacedemonias, with their capitayne Leonidas, fought agaynſte fiue hundʒed and .xxviii. thouſande Perſians, and reſiſted theym two daies, vntyll the ſaied Lacedemonians were all ſlayne.

Thermos, the herbe called lupine.

Thero, a mans name in Pyndarus.

Therodamas, oʒ Therodamon, a kynge of Scythia, whiche fedde lions with mennes bloudde

Therpſichore, one of the muſes.

Therſander, the ſonne of Polynices.

Therſilochus, a mans name in Virgill.

Therſites, a prince that came with the Greekes to the ſiege of Troie, whiche in perſon and condicions was of all other moſt dekoʒmed.

Theſaurárius, a, um, belongyng to treaſure.

Theſaurizo, aui, are, to gather treaſure.

Theſaurus, ri, m. g. treaſure. ſometime abũdance.

Theſaurum, ri, n. g. idem.

Theſeus, the ſoonne of Ageus kyng of Athenes, a ſtronge & valiant man, the companiõ of Hercules, and in famous actes nerre vnto hym, which was much defaced by breakyng his feith, whiche he had promiſed to Ariadne the daughter of Minois kynge of Creta, whom he lefte in a deſerte ile called Naxus, foʒ the whiche (as Virgill writeth) he is perpetually tourmented on a whele in hell.

Theſeus, a, um, of Theſeus.

Theſides, the ſonne oʒ nepheu of Theſeus.

Theſiphon, tis, a citee in Parthia, not farre from Seleuſia the great citee of Aſſyria.

Theſis, a clauſe in writynge oʒ ſpeakyng, whiche conteyneth a ſentence.

Theſmophoria, the ceremonies of Ceres the goddeſſe of graine.

Theſmophoros, a name of Ceres.

Theſpia, a free towne in Bœotia.

Theſpius, and Theſpiacus, a, um, of Theſpis.

Theſpiades, the muſes abiding about Theſpias.

Theſpis, a towne in bœotia, by the hill called Helicon, alſo the name of an auncient poete and certayne other men.

Theſproti, people of Epire.

Theſſalia, a region in Greece, called alſo Æmonia, ſometyme Pandora, ſometime Pyrrhea, of ſome Pelaſgia, of Homere Argopelaſgicon. it is inuironed with foure greate and famous hylles. on the eaſt, the mountayne of Pelion & Oſſa. on the noʒth with Olympus on the weſt with Pindus. on the ſouthe with Othrys. it marcheth on Macedonia on the eaſt: the people were valiaunt men on hoʒſe bache and inuincible in battaile, as Polybius writeth, but very vniuſt of theyʒ pʒompſe, the women there beyng wonderfull witches, tranſkourmed men into the fygure of beaſtes.

Theſſalicus, a, um, and Theſſalus, a, um, of Theſſalie.

Theſſalónica, a citee in Macedonia.

Theſſalis, lidis, a woman oʒ maiden of Theſſalia

Theſſalonicenſes, people of Theſſalonica.

Theſtius, the ſonne of Parthaon.

Theſtor, theſtoris, the father of Calcas the ſouthſaier.

Theſtorides, dis, m. g. the ſoonne oʒ nepheu of Theſtoʒ.

Theſtilis, a womans name in Virgill.

Theta, a greke letter, whiche amonge the Grekes in iudgement was a letter of condemnation, as, Ł. was amonge the Romains.

Thetis, tidis, the mother of Achilles.

Theuſitis, a ruſſhe growyng in Nabachia, whiche hath the taſt of ſharpe wyne.

Theoſitas, foʒ Sodalitas.

Theutones, & Theutonici, people in Germanie called duchemen.

Thiaſias, he that is burſt oʒ bʒoken in his ſtones.

Thideus, the father of Diomedes.

Thieum, foʒ Succinum, Iumbʒe.

Thimbra, æ, f. g. ſauerie.

Thiniſſa, the citee of Tunice in Affrike.

Thiodamas, the ſoonne of Melampus.

Thirromachus, one of the ſonnes of Hercules by Megara.

Thiſbe, a mayden of Babylon.

Thiſbeus, a, um, of Thiſbe.

Thiſias, an auncient writer of Sicilie.

Thlaſpi, oʒ after ſome Thlaſpidion, an herbe called alſo Naſturciumrectorum, Capſella, and Scandulacium, of ſome Burſa paſtoris: it hath a ſmache of muſtarde ſeede, and is therfoʒe called Sinapi ruſticum.

Thoanteus, a, um, of Thoas.

Thoas, antis, the name of .ii. kynges, one of Tauria,

Taurica, and an other of Lemnos.
Thoe, one of the nymphes.
Thoes, bee woulues of Aethiope, Arrianus dweth call theim Tygers in India.
Tholos, li, masc. gene. a scochen or smal tergate, also the sliding or holow rouke of an house, or a rounde house.
Thomices, lyches of hempe, wherwith halters be made, they be also litell bolsters, whiche men do weare whan they carie burthens, for frettyng their neckes or shoulders with cordes or ropes.
Thon, nis, he that fyrst brought phisicke into the fourme of a science amonge the Aegyptians. an other was kyng of Canopus.
Thonis, a citee nere to Zephyrium.
Thonius, one of the Centaures.
Thoon, a Troiane flame of Ulisses.
Thoota, the daughter of Phorcus, on whom Neptunus gate Polyphemus.
Thootes, a mans name in Homere.
Thoraca, æ. idem quod Thorax.
Thoracatus, a, um, that weareth curettes or brest plates.
Thorax, a mountain by the citee Magnesia, where Daphita the gramarian was hanged on a gybbet for makyng verses agaynst kynges, wherof cometh this prouerbe, Caue à Thorace. Stephanus saieth Thorax is a citee of Aetolia, and also of Magnesia.
Thorax, âcis, m. ge. is properly the whole bulke of a man from the neche to the middle. it is also curettes or brest plates. also a stomacher or plasarde. sometyme it signifieth a toure.
Thous, a duke of Troie.
Thoxeus, the sonne of Eurithus and brother of Iotes. also the sonne of Thestius.
Thrace, es, Thraca, æ, and Thracia, æ, a region in Europa, on the north it is bounded with the lower Mysia, on the weast with the higher: on the south with the sea Aegeum, on the west with Bosphorus Thraci⁹ & Propõtis, therin is the citee of Cõstantinople, sometime called Bizãtiũ.
Thraceas, vel Thracias, a north weast wynde.
Thracius, Thraicus, and Thraicius, a, um, of Thrace.
Thraessa, or Thraissa, a woman of Thrace.
Thrasibulus, a noble man of Athens, whiche put downe the tyrannes.
Thrasillus, or Thracius, he that taught Bucyris to offre his guestes to Jupiter, to the entent to obteyne raine, and was fyrst hym selfe killed in sacrifice.
Thrasimachus, the scholar of Isocrates.
Thraso, a souldiours name in Terence. also a peincter that Strabo mencioneth.
Thrasymedes, the sonne of Nestor.
Thrasymenus, a riuer in Italy nigh to Perusia.
Thrax, acis, a man of Thracia.
Thrauston, one kynde of the gumme called Ammoniacum, lorke Plinii, lib. 12. cap. 23.

Threces, idem quod Gladiatores.
Threnodia, a mournyng songe.
Threnos, a lamẽtacion that was vsed at burials.
Thressa, or Threissa, a woman of Thrace.
Thridax, idem quod Lactuca.
Thria, the leaues of a figge tree.
Thriæ, the three nurses of Apollo.
Thrips, saith Erasm⁹, is a very litteil birde, loke the prouerbe, Aquila Thripas aspiciens. He saith againe in the prouerbe Mali Thripes, that Thrips is a litteil wourme, that breedeth in tymber, and annoyeth it.
Throni, is one of the ix. orders of angelles.
Thronus, ni, m. ge. the seate or chaire of an emperour or kyng, a throne.
Thrulla, læ, f. g. a trueil, whiche masons, tylars and pargettours doe vse for layeng of morter.
Thrullisso, aui, are, to laie on morter.
Thryallis, lis, fœm. gener. an herbe, called rose campine.
Thryps, pis, m. g. a mothe.
Thryus, a riuer of Elis, whiche renneth into Alpheus.
Thucidides, a notable historiographier.
Thucididius, a um, that followeth Thucidides, or of Thucidides.
Thule, les, the name of two iles, one beyonde Scotlande, an other ouer against Carthage.
Thunnus, a fysshe, called Tunie.
Thureus, a, um, of frankensence.
Thurianus, a certayne sea fysshe.
Thuribulum, li, n. g. a censar.
Thuricremus, a, um, that breaketh frankensence, or wheron frankensence is broken.
Thurifer, ra, rum, that beareth frenkensence.
Thurifico, aui, are, to make a perfume or to sence.
Thurij, Thuria, and Thurion, a citee of Calabre.
Thurilegus, a, um, that gethereth frankensence.
Thuringia, Thurin in Fraunce.
Thurini, a people of Italie.
Thurinus, a, um, of Thurij.
Thurium, a towne of Italie where Herol⁹ died, and was buried in the high strete.
Thurius, a, um, of insence.
Thus, ris, n. g. frankensence, some write it Tus.
Thuscana, a citee in Italie.
Thusculani, a people by Rome.
Thusculanum, a place not farre frõ Rome, where Tullius, Cato, Varro, and diuers other noble senatoures of Rome, had manour places.
Thusculum, li, n. ge. a diminutiue of Thus, also a citee in Latium.
Thyamis, a riuer that diuideth Thesbrotes from Cestrina.
Thyamon, an hill in Thrace.
Thyas, adis, a woman that offereth sacrifice to Bacchus.
Thyasus, si, a daunce dedicated to Bacchus.
Thybris, one of Eneas companions.
Thyella, a storme.
Thyestes, the son of Pelops and Hyppodamia, who aſpiring to the kyngdome of Mycenæ, cõmitted auoutrie with the wife of his elder brother Atreus, who therfore ſlew the children of Thyeſtes, and cauſing them to be roſted, made his brother to eate them vnwares.

Thyeſteus, a, um, of Thyeſtes.

Thyle, the ile, called Iſelande.

Thymbra, an herbe, called ſaucrie, alſo a place nere Troie, where muche ſaucrie groweth.

Thymbreus, the name of Apollo.

Thymele, les, a woman, which firſt taught daunſyng in open places.

Thymelici, players of enterludes: hereby wolde the place bee corrected in the digeſtes, L. de his qui notantur infamia, where, for Temelici, woulde be putte Thymelici. they bee alſo comon daunſers called morrice daunſers.

Thymiãma, atis, n. g. a ſwete perfume.

Thymion, the warte, called alſo Thymum, like there.

Thymites, a wyne made with thyme.

Thyminus, a, um, made with thyme.

Thymoſus, a, um, full of thyme.

Thymus, mi, m. g. or Thymum, i, n. g. an herbe called thyme.

Thymum, is alſo a warte, whiche is as great as a beane.

Thynia, an ile by Bithynia.

Thynnus, a fiſſhe, called Tunie.

Thynus, a, um, of Thynia.

Thynos, a towne of Cilicia.

Thyoneus, tryſylla. a name of Bacchus.

Thyre, a citee of the Æcenians.

Thyrea, an ile of Peloponeſus.

Thyridion, ridij, n. g. a wyſket or littell doze.

Thyros, a citee vnder Nectors dominion.

Thyriageteæ, people of Scythya, which liue onely by hunteyng.

Thyrſus, ſi, m. gene. the ſtalke of lettiſe or other herbes, whiche maie be eaten, ſome take it for a ſpeare with a ſharpe head, whiche had boowes and leaues of iuie wrapped about it. ſuch ſpeares did Bacchus, and his flocke of drunken harlottes beare about in theyr handes. Lucretius the poete, taketh Thyrſus for furie of an ardent mocion. ſome doe name it to be a longe ſteme and ſtreigth, ſuche as is of a teſell, or ſuch as dooe growe in fennes, hauyng blacke knaps and rounde.

T, ANTE I.

Tiãra, æ, fœ. ge. a round ornament, whiche the women of Perſia did were on their heades, and it couered onely the hinder parte of their heades, princes and prieſtes vſed alſo to weare it.

Tiatura, a citee in the countrey of Myſia.

Tibareni, people of Scythia, beyng in Aſia.

Tiberias, tiberiades, a citee in Galilea.

Tiberis, or rather Tyberis, a riuer called Tiber in Italie, whiche comyng from the mountayne Apenninus, diuideth Etruria from Vmbria.

Tiberius, the name of an emperour of Rome.

Tibia, æ, fœ. gen. the legge, properly the ſhanke or ſhynbone. it is alſo an inſtrument called a ſhalme, a pipe, a flute.

Tibiãlis, le, pertenyng to ſhalmes, belongyng to the legges, mete to make pypes of.

Tibiãle, is, n. g. plu. tibialia, legge harneis called greues. alſo the nether ſtockes of hoſes.

Tibicen, tibicinis, m. gen. that bloweth a trumpette, or playeth on a ſhalme, it is taken for any maner minſtrell.

Tibicen, is alſo that, whereby any thyng is ſuſtened, a ſhore or proppe.

Tibicina, æ, f. ge. a woman that playeth on a recorder or other pype.

Tibin, a baſket or cocken made of wickers or bulruſhes or barke of a tree, in ſuch one was Moyſes founde by Pharaos daughter.

Tibiluſtria, were daies, whan men went with trumpettes as it were in procceſſion aboute their lambes.

Tibini, tunes made with ſhalmes.

Tibiſcus, a riuer of Dacia.

Tibiſis, a riuer in Scythia.

Tibullus, a poetes name.

Tibur, lyke Tybur.

Tiburtes, people in Italye, nyghe to Rome.

Ticinum, a citee in Lõbardie, called now Pauia.

Tifernus, a riuer of Italie.

Tigillinus, a Romaine in the tyme of Nero, of his liuyng moſt filthy and corrupte.

Tigillum, li, n. g. a rafter.

Tignãrius, a, um, of or belongyng to carpentry. Tignarius faber, is carpenter that maketh an houſe of tymber.

Tignus, ni, m. g. & Tignum, ni, n. g. a logge, a beame, a rafter or an houſe that beareth ỹ rouſe. it is alſo generally all the tymber that ſerueth to an houſe, alſo euerie thyng that a wyne is vnbelette with, as proppes, forkes, ſtakes.

Tigrana, a towne in the countrey of Media.

Tigranes, the proper name of a kyng of Armenie the greatter.

Tigrinus, a, um, of or lyke a Tigre.

Tigris, a beaſte of a wonderfull ſwyftenes, it is alſo one of the foure riuers, whiche come out of paradiſe called Gion, it palleth thorowe Armenie and Media.

Tigullia, a citee of Liguria.

Tigurini, people of Germanie, whiche doe inhabite the fourth parte of Heluetia or Swytzerlande.

Tile, lyke Thule.

Tilia, æ, fœ. ge. a tree, which ſome ſuppoſe to be byrche, not withſtandyng our byrche doeth not beare fruite as great as a beane, rounde and longe, and lyke to pype bearies, in the whiche are ſeedes lyke to arage ſede, as Theophraſtus writeth. ſome call this tree teile.

Tilia-

Tiliaceus, a, um, of the tree called Tilia.
Tilium, a citee in the weste parte of Sardinia on the sea syde called nowe. S. Repera.
Tilos, an ile in the sea, wherin is plentie of peele and trees of dyuers fruittes, and the leaues of trees there growyng, do neuer fall. Also wooll groweth on trees there, whiche doo beare gourdes of the greatnesse of quinces, and being rype, doo open, in the whiche doeth appere the woulle, wherof be made fyne and precious clothes. about that place doeth begon the mountayne of Caucasus, whiche doeth passe through a great parte of the worlde.
Tilphosa, a well at the foote of the mountayne Tilphosium.
Timæus, a noble philosophier of Pythagoras secte.
Timagines, a famouse writter.
Timagoras, a noble man of Athens.
Timalos, an herbe and floure growing in waters, called commonly of Apothecaries Nenufer.
Timandies, a famouse peincter.
Timanuus, a ryuer in Italie beside Aquilia.
Timarchides, a notable grauer.
Timens, entis, he that feareth for a tyme.
Timeo, ui, ēre, to feare or dreade.
Timeo te, I feare the as myne enemie, leste thou wylte doo me harme.
Timeo tibi, I am aferde on thy behalfe as my frende, leste thou shouldest haue any harme.
Timeo mihi abs te, I am afraide that thou wilte doo me harme.
Timeo furem pomis, I am afrayed that one wyll steale myne appies.
Timeo moriatur, I am afraied that he wyll die. De republica valde timeo, I am greatly afrayde or solicitous for the common weale, leste it shoulde take any harme.
Timeo ne non impetrem, I feare leste I shall not obteine it.
Timide, fearfully, shamefastly, timorously, bashefully, nothyng boldly, with a faynte courage.
Timiditas, ātis, f. g. feare.
Timidus, a, um, that alwaie feareth, called timorouse, fearefull, false herted.
Timidus ad mortem, aferde to die.
Timiopōlæ, ingrossers or regraters of marchettes, whiche doe bie muche corne or vitaile together to make it scarce and deere.
Timocles, a poete of Athens.
Timolaus, a learned man of Larissa, who wrate of the warre of Troie.
Timoleon, a duke of Corinth.
Timon, a man of Athens, notable for his inhumanitee, and hatynge of the company and societie of men.
Timor, ōris, m. g. feare of some euyll coming.
Afficere timore, to make aferde.
Timorem iniicere, conferre, & facere, idem.
Magno timore de nobis afficiuntur, they be sore afrayde for vs.
Timor meus de te, the feare that I haue leste you shoulde take any harme.
Magno timore sum, I am greatly aferde.
Timore perculsus, strikē with a sodayne feare.
Timotheus, the name of a noble capitayne of the Athenienses, who for the good fortune that he had in battayle, was permitted hyng a sleye, and hauyng by him a nette pitched, wherin fortune was taken. also a tounnynge musician, whiche vsed to take of his scholars, which had learned before, double salarie, that he toke of others whiche neuer lerned, saiynge, that he toke with them double labours, that is to saie, to make them to forget that, whiche thei had lerned afore, and then to teache them perfectly.
Tin, olde writers vsed for Eum.
Tina, a ryuer in Englande called Tine.
Tina & tinia, a great bolle, whiche beynge full of wyne, euery man myght drinke therof as muche as he lysted.
Tinca, cæ, f. g. a littell freshe water fysshe.
Tinctilis, le, that wherwith any thynge is died.
Tinctor, ōris, m. g. a dier.
Tinctūra, ræ, f. g. dyeng.
Tinctus, us, m. g. idem.
Tinctus, a, um. died.
Tinea, æ, f. ge. a mothe. Tineæ, be also wormes in the dealy: also wourmes breedynge in ber stalles.
Tineōsus, a, um, full of mothes or wourmes.
Tinge, a promontorie or elbowe of Affrike.
Tingitana, a parte of Mauritania or Barbaria against Spayne,
Tingo, xi, gere, to deepe a thynge into lycour, to die colours.
Tingere conchilio, to die violet.
Tinia, looke Tina.
Tinimentum, ti, n. g. the ringyng in the eare of a man.
Tinnio, nini, nire, to ryng or make a sowne as mettall dooeth, or as a mannes heade dooeth sometyme.
Tinnitus, us, m. g. a ringyng lyke golde, syluer, or other mettall.
Tinnulus, la, lum, sharpe in sowne, ringynge, as that whiche is made by bearyng on mettall.
Orator tinnulus, an oratour with a sharpe ringing voyce.
Tintinnabulum, li, n. g. a littell bell.
Tintinnāculus, li, m. g. he that beateth with rodes a transgressour of the lawe, he that maketh a ringyng.
Tintinnio, niui, nire, and Tintino, aui, are, to ryng lyke a bell.
Tinunculus, a birde, whiche maketh a sharpe ringyng noyse, and is of the kynde of haukes, and in some place doeth breede in houses, whiche with his voice driueth awaie other haukes, and therefore the byrdes of hym are kepte in erthen potters couered with claie, and hanged vppe in doue houses, whiche causeth coluers meruailously to loue their house, it is called a kistrell, or a kastrell, or a steingall.

Tipasa, a citee in Mauritania, called nowe Tenese.

Tiphernum, a towne in Italie.

Tiphis, an excellent carpenter, whiche founde firste the meane to gouerne a shippe: it is also a rother.

Tipula, læ, f. ge. a wourme lyke a spider, whiche renneth on the water, as other wourmes dooe on the lâde, and hath fire feete, a water spider.

Tiresias, a poete of Thebes, who for stirkynge two adders, whiche he founde ingendrynge together, was fourthewith tourned into the forme of a woman. Seuen peres after he lyke wise fyndynge two serpentes together, strake also them, and became effeloones a man. Iupiter and Iuno contendyng together, whether the man or the woman was more prone vnto lecherie, they chose Tiresias arbiter, whiche had experience in bothe kyndes, who gaue sentence on Iupiters parte: wherwith Iuno beyng angrie, toke his sight from hym. But Iupiter, to comforte hym in his blyndenesse, gaue to hym that parte of diuinitee, to know all that was doone or shoulde happen: by reason wherof he was had in great honour, and his aunswares were esteemed equall to them of Apollo.

Tirins, rintis, m. g. a ryuer in Grecia: Tirins, rintis, fœ. g. the countrey where Hercules was borne in Peloponesso, nowe called Morea.

Tirinthius, was a surname of Hercules.

Tirinthus, a famous olde citee in Grecia.

Tiriscum, a citee of Dacia, nowe called Groscoma.

Tirrhenus lapis, a stone, whiche beyng whole, swimmeth though he be great, but being broken, euery peece synketh.

Tis, for tui, the genitiue case of tu.

Tisarenus, a ryuer of Scythia.

Tisias, the name of Cozar scholar.

Tisiphone, one of the furies of hell, whiche was supposed to tourment homicides, or fleers of men.

Tissa, a citee of Sicile, called Tis.

Titanis, nidos, the daughter of Titan, called also Latona, it is taken also for the moone.

Titan, and Titanus, the brother of Saturne, and is taken for the sonne.

Titanius, and Titanicus, a, um, of Titan.

Titanus, a ryuer of Aeolus, and a citee of the same name.

Titaretus, a ryuer rennynge into Peneus, and yet is not the water mixed with it, but renneth lyke oyle in the middes of the other ryuer.

Tithonus, the brother of Laomedon, whiche begatte Memnon vpon Aurora: an other of that name was sonne to Laomedon.

Tithonius, a, um, of Tithonus.

Tithymalus, an herbe called spurge, wherof bee vii. sortes, all hauing milke sharpe and byting, rede in Catapucia, Lathiris, and Ricinum.

Titianus, an oratour of Greece.

Titij, priestes of Apollo.

Titillatio, ônis, f. g. a tickelyng, a steryng.

Titillatus, us, m. g. idem.

Titillo, aui, are, to tickle, to prouoke or meue pleasantly.

Titio, ônis, m. g. a fire brande or wodde, whiche hath ben in the fyre.

Titillitium, ti, n. g. a vyle thynge of no value.

Titornus, an hierde man, whiche contended with Milo the wrestler, and ouercame hym.

Titubanter, stammerynglye, stutterynglye, vnconstantly.

Titubantia, æ, f. g. stammerynge, stutterynge, trippynge in a mans wourdes.

Titubatio, ônis, idem quod Titubantia.

Titubatus, a, um, tripped, stumbled.

Titubo, aui, are, to stagger in speakyng or going, as a man beyng dronke or sicke, to stumble, to trippe, to faple in his wourdes.

Si verbo titubarint, if they trippe or faple in a wourde.

Si tantulum titubarum sit, if thei faile or trip in any thyng be it neuer so litteil.

Titulus, li, masc. gen. the tytle or inscripcion of a warke or acte: sometime dignitee, preise, honour, also a monument or other remembrance, sometyme a pretence.

Titulo tenus, no further then his title.

Titus, the name of a man.

Titus Liuius, the moste excellent historien or writter of stories, in whom was the fountaine of the milke of pure eloquence.

Tityrus, a shepeherdes name in Virgill.

Tityus, the sonne of the Erthe, whom poetes feigned to be slayne by Apollo, becaule he wold haue rauisshed Latona his sister. and therfore lieth in hell, hauyng an egle alwaie eatynge his ryuer. And it is also saied, that his bodie was in length nyne furlong: witnes Tibull, which was a poete, and also a great louer, and therfore coulde not lie.

Tlepolemus, Hercules sonne, a kinge of Rhodes, whiche came to the battaile of Troie with nyne shippes.

T, ANTE M.

TMesis, sis. g. a figure when one wourde is diuided, & an other or two set betweene: as, Septem subiecta trioni, for Septentrioni.

Tmolus, a mountayne in Lydia, wheron dyd growe great plentie of saffron and vines. it is also a litteil bushe, whiche beareth flowres of saffron colour.

TOdi, litteli byrdes, I ſuppſe it to be the birde called a tumouſe.

Toga, gæ, fœ. g. the common garment of men and women, called a gowne. and becauſe the Romaines dyd ſpecially weare that garment in the tyme of peace, Toga was taken for peace, as Arma was for warre. Toga was alſo amonge the Romains the propre garment of them, whiche wente to ſalute the great magiſtrates, or were attendant to bringe them forth and whome.

Toga prætexta, a garmente, whiche the Romains dyd weare afore that they were of the age of. xvi. peres: afterwarde it was worne of them, whiche were in authoritee.

Toga polymita, a garment, made with threedes of ſondry colours, as motely or baudkyn.

Toga candida, was a garment whiche they did weare, that ſued for any great office in the citee of Rome: and therfore were called Candidati.

Fuſa toga and reſtricta, contrarie, looſe about a man, and gyte to hym.

Toga pura, a gowne that oratours ware whan thei pleaded firſt in the common place.

Toga picta, a gowne or robe that onely the chiefe magiſtrates in Rome vſed, and receiued it at the Capitoll or pallace.

Pulla toga, a mournyng gowne, vſed in funerals.

Attollere togam, to holde vppe his gowne as they doe, whiche goe in longe gownes for tarying of them.

Colligere togam, to gather his gowne about hym and holde it vp as preſtes doe.

Togam dimittere, to let downe his gowne about hym.

☞ De toga ad pallium, he is promoted out of the haule into the kitchin, from a furd gowne to a Jerkyn.

Togátus, a, um, that weareth a gowne.

Togata comœdia, a comedie or enterlude, wherin the maners of the Romaines were expreſſed.

Togata Gallia, the countrey now called Lumbardie.

Togata opera, is vſed of Marciall for the office and attendance of them, whiche waited on the great men of Rome forthe to the common counſailes and home againe: and therfore be called Togati.

Togátulus, a, um, a diminutiue of Togatus.

Tógula, læ, f. g. a litteli gowne.

Tolentum, a citee of Italie, the people wherof be called Tolentinates.

Tolerábilis, le, that maye be ſuffered or abyden, tolarable, indifferent.

Tolerabiliter, tolerably, patiently, alſo eaſily.

Toleranter, patiently.

Tolerántia, æ, f. g. ſufferance.

Tolerans, antis, ſuffering, abidyng.

Penuriæ toleratiſſimus, that can abide or endure hunger very well.

Toleratio, onis, f. g. ſuffering, abidyng.

Tólero, aui, are, to ſuffre, to endure, to beare, to lyue poorely or nyghly, to nouriſhe, to mainteine or ſuſteine hardly.

Tolerare vitam, to liue, or mainteine his lyfe.

Paſſus centum ſexaginta tolerare, to be able to renne or goe the ſpace of. 160 paſes.

Tolarare ſe, to liue, to mainteine and fynde hym ſelfe poorely and hardly.

Equitatum tolerare, to finde and nouriſſhe his horſemen.

Tolerare ſua pecunia milites, to fynde ſouldiours of his owne coſte.

Nihil erat, quo famem tollerarent, they had nothyng wherwith to ſuſteine their hunger, thei had nothyng to eate.

Impenſas autſumptus tolerare, to beare coſtes or charges.

Inopiam, laborem, ſitim, tolerare, to abyde, to ſuſteine, to indure.

Tolerare vitam colo, to get hir lyuyng with ſpinnyng.

Toleratu difficilis, harde to be ſuffered.

Toletum, a citee in Spaine called Toledo.

Toles, or Tolles, a warpng hernell.

Tolinpis, the ile of Tenet by Kent.

Tollenon, an ingin to drawe vp water, whiche hath a great poiſe at the one ende, a ſwepe.

Tollo, ſuſtuli, or retuli, tollere, to lyfte vp, or ſet vp, to take awaie, to kyll, to diſpatche out of lyfe, to nouriſſhe, to bringe vp, to deferre or prolonge, to haue a chylde by a woman.

Tollere clamorem, to crie out.

☞ Tollere criſtas, to ſet vp the creſte, applied to them that bee proude or arrogant, and doon ſtretche vp thepr browes with a diſdeigneſull countinance.

Tolle digitum, holde vp thy finger, confeſſe thy ſelfe vanquiſſhed.

Tollere gradum, to ſet foorthe or to marche foorthe.

Tolle hanc patinam, take awaie this diſſhe.

Verum quod erit natum tollito, what ſo euer is borne, put it to nouriſyng.

Omnes tollo ex hoc die in alium diem, I put them all of from one date to an other.

Tollere minas, to threten or menace.

Animos tollere, to be proude.

Cachinnum tollere, to laugh out of meaſure.

In cælum fama or laudibus aliquem tollere, to praiſe exceedyngly.

Aliquid oneris tollere, id eſt, ſuſcipere.

Tollere ſupercilia, to caſte vp the browes.

Tectum altius tollam, I wyll make my houſe hygher.

Tollere de terra lapides, to take vppe ſtones from the grounde to caſte.

A terra ſe tollere altius, to growe higher, to ſpringe vp as herbes and trees doo.

Animos tollere, to waxe proude & high mynded,

ded. also to make proude and arrogant.
Clamor tollitur in cælum, they made a great shoute or crie.
Tollam ego te in collum, I will take the vp vpon my necke.
In crucem tollere, to hange vpon a gibbette.
Hinnitum tollit equa, the mare neigheth.
Humo se tollere, to ryse from the grounde, to springe vp, and by translation, to get honour or a great name.
Risum tollere, to beginne to laugh, to take vp a laughter.
Tollere aliquem, to take one with him in iourney to kepe him companie.
Sustulit hic matrem, sustulit ille patrem, this man killed his mother, the other bare his father on his backe, spoken of Nero and Eneas.
Tollere & interficere.
Aes alienum tollere, to paie ones debtes, to discharge one of his debtes.
Anchoras tollere, to weigh the anchours.
Sublatum est conuiuium, the table was taken vp.
De medio tollere, to kyll.
De oratione sua aliquē tollere, to name or mention a man no more, to speake no more of him.
De foro aliquem clamore tollere, to crie so at one, that he is faine to auoide the cōmon place.
Veneno tollere, to poyson.
Legem tollere, to forbee a lawe.
Inducias tollere, to breake the truce.
In sublime tollere, to lifte vp on high.
Manu tollere, to take with the hande.
Tollere moram, to make haste or speede.
Quærelas tolle, complaine no more.
Spem aliquid faciendi tollere, to put one clene out of hope to doe a thynge.
Testimonio aliquem tollere, to conuince with witnesse, that he shall bee punished and forbidden the common place.
Tollere liberos, to haue & nourishe children.
Corpora in altum tolluntur potius q̄ in latū, bodies are stretched on lengthe rather then on bredthe.

Tolossa, a citee in France called Tolouse. wherof grew a prouerbe, Tolossanum aurum.
Tolumnius, a diuinour.
Tolutārius, a, um, and Tolutaris, re, ambling, that ambleth
Tolutarius equus, an ambling horse.
Tolutiloquentia, a swifte or fast speche.
Tolūtim, with an ambling pace, roundely.
Tulutim loqui, to speake faste one woorde after an other.
Tomāculūm, li, or Tomāclum, cli, n. g. Tomacula, læ, or Timacina, næ, f. g. a certaine sorte of puddynges, properly swynes puddynges.
Tomarus, a mountayne of Aetolia.
Tomentum, ti, ne. ge. flore, whiche is shorne of woollen clothe. also loches clipped of white wolle. also any hynde of flore, wherwith beddes be stuffed.
Tomex tomicis, f. g. a hempen corde. also a collar, which is put on carte horses for hurtyng of their neckes.
Tomitanus, a, um, of Tomos.
Tomos, a citee of Pontus.
Tomus, mi, m. ge. a tome, a volume, where diuers woorkes of one authour be seuered into sundry partes.
Tomiris, a noble queene of Walagetis in Scythia, agaynste whome when Cyrus the great kynge of Persia came, and had slayne her son, she by her policy trapped hym into such streictes, that she slewe hym and all his hoste, and causynge a great vessell to bee filled with the bloude of Cyrus and of the other Persians, did cast his head therinto, saiyng: Bloudde thou hast thirsted, and nowe drinke therof thy fyll.
Tonarion, a certaine shalme with a softe sowne, the whiche in the olde tyme some oratours vsed to haue to plaie by the when they pleaded, that by the tunes of y shalme, the oratour mought moderate and order his pronunciation.
Tondeo, totondi, tondēre, to clippe or sheare.
Tondere prata, to mowe the medoes.
Brachia arborum tondere, to loppe trees.
Tondēre dumeta dicuntur iuuenci, id est, pascere, to eate or bite of the toppes.
Tondere herbas, to cutte herbes.
Tondēre aliquem auro, to steale all the money that one hath from him.
Tonesco, tonui, tonescere, to thunder.
Tongri, the duchie of Brabant.
Tonimus, for Tonamus.
Tonitruo, aui, are, to thunder.
Tōnitrus, us, m. g. Tonitruum, trui, and Tonitru, indeclinabile, n. g. thunder.
Tonitrus mouere, to make thunder.
Cælum tonitru cōtremit, it thundreth verie sore.
Tono, naui, and tonui, nare, to thunder, to make a great sound or noise, to speake loude.
Tonare laudes alicuius, to speeke ones prayses with a loude voice.
Tonsa, sæ, f. g. a sheepe, whiche is shorne or clipped. also an ore of a bote or shippe.
Tōnsilis, le, that whiche is shorne or clipped, that is lopped, that is rounded.
Tonsilla, æ, f. g. a poste hauyng one ende armed with yron, whiche is pitched into the grounde, to the ende that shipers or botes maie bee tyed therat.
Tonsillæ, plurali. a disease within the cheeks and mouth, like to great hernelles.
Tonsito, aui, are, to clip often.
Tonso, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Tondeo.
Tonsor, ōris, m. g. he that clippeth or shereth, a barbour.
Tonsōrius, a, um, pertainynge to clippynge, belongyng to a barbour.

Tonso-

Tonſorius culter, a raſour.
Tonſtrina, æ, f. g. a place where they dooe vſe to chippe, a barbours ſhoppe.
Tonſtrix, icis, fœ. g. a woman barbour. Tonſtricula, idem.
Tonſúra, æ, f. g. clippyng, pollyng, roundyng.
Tonſus, a, um, ſhorne or clipped, polled, rounded, lopped, ſhred.
Tonſi montes, hylles without woodddes.
Homo tonſus, a man that is rounded or polled, notted.
Tonus, ni, m. ge. a tune or accent. alſo the ſpace or diſtance, whiche is betwene the erthe and the moone.
Toparcha, m. gen. he that hath the gouernaunce and charge of one onely countrey.
Topárchia, æ, f. g. the rule of one countrey.
Topazion, & Topazius, zij, m. gen. a precious ſtone of the colour of goulde, a topaze.
Topazos, or zios, an ile in the redde ſea.
Tophaceus, and Tophinus, a, um, of the ſtone Tophus.
Tophus, phi, m. ge. a ſtone, whiche is ſoone reſolued into ſande.
Topiárium, ij, n. g. a worke made of trees, buſſhes, bryers or herbes for pleaſure, and contepned places to ſit or walke in, as it is vſed now with box, eglantyne, iacimyne, and other ſuche trees or thornes, that be flexible & wil be wounden, the makyng of images in herbes or trees.
Topiária, æ, fœ. g. the feat of makyng of images or herbours in herbes or trees.
Topiárius, he that maketh ſuche woorkes.
Tópica, workes in that parte of logike, whiche declareth the places, out of the whiche hargumentes may be inuented, that moſte properly perteyneth to oratours.
Tópice, es, f. gen. the crafte of inuentyng argumentes by places.
Tópicus, a, um, perteynynge to places of inuention.
Topium, ij, idem quod Topiarium.
Topográphia, æ, f. ge. the deſcription of a place, as of a contrey or citee.
Topper, the olde writers vſed for ſoone, ſhortly, or quickely.
Topos, a place.
Toral, ralis, & Torálium, lij, n. g. euery thyng that ſpeth on the bedde, as ſheetes, blankettes, and couerleddes. In olde tyme it were certeyn flowers and ſweete herbes wounden together in ropes and hãged before the place where men dyd lye, ſuche as nowe they vſe in London at mydſomer, to hange before theyr dores.
Tórcular, âris, & Torculâre, ris, & Torculum, li, & Torcularium, rij, n. ge. a preſſe for wyne, ſyder or veriuce.
Torculárius, a, um, belongyng to a preſſe.
Torculárius, rij, m. g. a preſſer.
Tórculus, a, um, of a preſſe.
Tordile, lis, the ſeede of Seſelis.
Toréuma, atis, & Toreumatum, i, n. ge. worke imboced in mettall or ſtone, plate chaſed or engraued.
Toréutes, æ, m. g. a grauer.
Toréutice, es, f. g. the crafte of grauyng.
Tori, the brawnes of the armes and legges, or the fleſhe myxte with ſinewes and griſtelles.
Tórmina, minum, n. g. plura. kreatyng or tourmentes in the bealie or guttes.
Torminâlis, le, that kreateth the guttes or bowelles.
Tormentum, i, n. g. tourment, or an enginne to tourment men: generally all ordinance perteynyng to warre.
Torminósus, a, um, that hath tourmẽtes or fretynges in the guttes.
Tornacum, a towne called Tourney.
Tornátilis, le, that which is turned with a whele, or that is made with a whele or turne.
Torniamen, maie be taken for a tournayment or iuſtes.
Torno, aui, are, to tourne or worke with a whele, as tourners doe, to tourne rounde.
Tornus, ni, m. gene. the inſtrument or wheele, a turne.
Toroſus, a, um, mighty or ſtronge in brawnes of the legges and armes.
Torpédo, pédinis, fœm. ge. ſloutfulneſſe alſo a fiſſhe, whiche in the takyng, maketh the handes of them that doe drawe, to be aſtonied or dead for the tyme.
Torpeo, ui, ère, to be aſtonied or ſlowe, to be a ſlepe, as partes of the bodie often tymes be, to be dull or heauie.
Torpere metu, to be aſtonied with feare, that he can ſcant ſtere.
Torpeſco, ſcere, to become ſlowe or heauie, to ware a ſlepe or deade, that it can not ſtere.
Tórpidus, a, um, ſlowe, dull, a ſlepe, drouſie, aſtonied.
Torpor, óris, m. g. a debilitation or feblyng of mynde, an vnaptneſſe to doe any thing, a ſlouthfull heauineſſe as one were aſtonied.
Torpóro, aui, are, to aſtonie or make aſtonied.
Torquâtus, a noble man of Rome.
Torquâtus, a, um, that weareth a colar or chaine.
Torquati equites, knyghtes.
Torquatus palumbus, a tyng doue, a ſtocke doue.
Torquella, idem quod lynx.
Torqueo, torſi, quere, to wreſte, to wrythe, to bowe, to turne rounde, to wynde in, to whirle about lyke a whele, to ſuſteyne or beare vp, to tourment, to vexe, to greue, to ſpinne, to ſlyng or caſte furthe violently, with the arme or with a ſlyng. ſometyme to drawe.
Torquere telum, to throwe or caſte a darte or iauelin that he renne rounde.
Torquere ſaxa, to tourne or drawe ſtones.
Oculum torquere, to lohe aſyde.
Torquentur in arcus, they be bowed compaſſe lyke lyke a bowe.

Capillos torquere ferro, to crispe the heare with an iron pyn.
Torquere manu alicuius, to wrest or wryng out of ones hande.
Fusos torquere, to turne rounde or whirle about the spindles.
Iter torquere, to go a syde out of the waye.
In orbem torquere, to bowe rounde.
Stamina torquere police, to spinne.
Torquere ius, to wrest or peruert the lawe.
Atlas axem humero torquet, id est, sustinet.
Eculeo torqueri, to be racked.
Expectatione torqueri, to be greued with the expectation or longe lokyng for a thyng.
Torqueri dies & noctes, to be tourmented daye and nyght.
Vt sequatur quocunq; torqueas, id est, trahas, whither so euer ye drawe it, or turne it.
Torquere dicteria in aliquem, to taunt one.

Torques, quis, m. & f. ge. a colar, chayne or bee of golde or syluer, suche as is worne by knightes or esquiers about their neckes.

Torrefacio, feci, cere, to broyle or roste by the fyre, or by the heate of the sunne.

Torrens, entis, mas. gen. a streame that cometh downe from hilles, whiche is caused by muche rayne or snowe.

Torrens, an adiectiue, signifieth flowynge with a great swepe, vehemente, rennyng violently.

Torrentior, more flowyng, with a greatter violence.

Torreo, rui, rere, idē quod Torrefacio, to roste or burne, to parche, to roste.
Frigore torret, it is stiffe for colde.
Solis ardore torrere, to burne with the vehement heate of the sunne.
Et viscera torrent, and they roste the flesshe or bowelles.

Torrens, entis, of Torreo, bournyng, parchyng, rostyng, rostyng.

Torresco, scere, to be broyled, rosted or dryed.

Torridus, a, um, dry or burned.
Torridæ Zonæ, are two gyrdles imagined in the firmament, on euery side of the equinoctiall lyne, vnder the whiche gyrdles, the people that inhabite there, are burned with the feruēt heate of the sunne, because the sunne abydeth longest in those two places, and are also named Tropicus Cancri, & Tropicus Capricorni.
Torrida gelu membra, frosen.

Torris, is, m. g. a fyrebrande.

Torsio, onis, fœ. gen. a whyrlynge, a tournyng, a writhyng, a wrestyng, a turmentyng or paynyng to peyne.

Tersio, onis, Theodorus Gaza and Longolius supposed to be a sturgion. Paulus Iouius is of a contrary opinion.

Torté, an aduerbe, crookedly, as it were bent awrie.

Tórtilis, that is bent or bowed, wrested, writhed.

Tortiuus, a, um, that is pressed out laste, that is wronge harde out.
Tortiuum vinum, wyne of the laste presse.

Torto, aui, are, to tourment vehementlye.

Tortor, tóris, m. g. a tourmentour, or he that casteth a stone with a sprnge.

Tortum, i, neu. ge. an ingine to throw great stones with.

Tortuósus, a, um, wounden or tourned many wayes, croked.
Tortuosus amnis, a croked riuer, wyndyng many waies.
Tortuosum disputandi genus, an intricate, confuse and harde maner of reasonyng.
Tortuosa vrina, whan one pisseth with great peyne, so that his vrine goeth from hym crookedly.

Tortus, us, m. g. a bendyng croked.

Tortus, a, um, croked, bowed, wrested, wrong, tourmented, greeued.
Tortus verberibus, tormented with stripes, beaten.

Torue, torua, proprely in beholdyng, sowerly, grymmely, lowryngly, awrie.

Tóruitas, átis, f. g. lowernesse, lowryng, crabbed lokyng, croked frownyng.

Tóruiter, idem quod Torue.

Toruinus, an apparaile of a womans head.

Tórulus, li, m. g. a little bedde.

Torus, ri, m. g. a bedde. it was sometyme made with herbes wounden together.
Socia or consors tori, a wife.

Tori, the brawnes of the armes and legges, or the flesshe mixte with sinewes and gristilles. it is spoken also of the veynes, when they be thycke or bigge swellynge in any place. Lykewise of vines.

Toruum, sowerly, lowryngly, ruggedly, terribly, grymmely.

Toruus, a, um, cruell and sturdy in lokynge, grymme, terrible.
Facies torua, a grymme and sower loke.
Frons torua, a frownyng forehead.
Toruo vultu intueri, to loke vpon one sowerly and grymmely.

Toryna, a thyng pertaynyng to the kechyn, wherewith the potte is remoued. Eras.

Tostus, a, um, tosted, rosted.

Tot, as many.
Tot quot, so many as.

Toties, so many tymes.
Toties quoties, as oftentymes as.

Totidem, so many, euen as many.
Bis totidem, twyse so many.
Totidem verbis quot Stoici, euen in as many wordes as the Stoikes, and no mo.

Totus, a, um, all the whole, euery whitte.
Ossa atque pellis totus est, he is nothyng but synnue and bone.
Ego mihi totus displiceo, I am very angrie, or greatly displeased with my selfe.

Toman

Totum me futurum ſuum, that I wyll bee his wholly, or in all that euer I can doe.
Aedes totæ, the whole houſe.
Totis ædibus, in all the houſe ouer and ouer.
Totum triduum, whole thre daies.
Quem ego toto non vidi die, whom I ſawe not all this daie longe.
Toto corpore atq; omnibus vngulis, prouerbially, with all ſtrengthe and endeuour.
Tota erras via, thou arte cleane out of the way, thou arte vtterly deceiued.
Tota mente incumbe in hanc curam, applie your mynde wholly to this matter.
Totis viribus, with all force and endeuoir.
Tóxicum, ci, n. g. venym, poyſon.

TRabâlis, le, perteinyng to a beame.
Trabales claui, a certaine torment.
Trabalis clauus, an yron pynne, or a great nayle, wherwith beames are made faſte to the rafters.
Haſta trabalis, a great ſpeare almoſte lyke a beame.
Trabea, æ, f. g. a kyrtell worne by kynges vnder their mantilles of eſtate.
Trabeâtus, a, um, that weareth ſuche a kyrtill.
Trabicus, a, um, that is made of beames or rafters.
Trabica nauis, a ſhippe made with great beames
Trabs, trabis, and trabes, bis, f. ge. a beame of a houſe. it is ſometyme taken of poetes for a ſhippe.
Tracallus, an oratour in the tyme of Domitian.
Trachal, the ouer parte of a fiſſhe called Murex, of whom purple colour is made.
Trachea, or Trachia, the weſon or pype of the lunges, the wynde pype.
Trachelum, li, n. g. or Trachelus, li, m. g. the middeſt parte of the ſayle of a ſhippe.
Trachelus, the chyne of a man or beaſte, from the head to the haunche.
Trachida, trachina, and trachurus, I ſuppoſe is a banſticle.
Trachina, a towne of Campayne.
Trachinia, a kynde of roſes not perfectly redde, lyke to them that we call frenche roſes.
Trachyna, a citee of Theſſalia, whiche was of Hercules called Heraclia.
Trachynus, or Trachynius, a, um, of Trachyna.
Trachoma, matis, n. g. a roughneſſe within the eie liddes.
Trachonitis, a countrey in Syria, ſoynynge to Arabia.
Tractábilis, le, tractable, that maie be intreated, that maie be handeled.
Non tractabile cælum, a rough and ſtormie weather.
Pelagus tractabile, a ſaulme ſea, pleaſant to ſayle on.

Tractátio, ônis, f. g. handlyng, manurynge.
Tibiarum tractatio, the playyng on flutes.
Tractatus, a, um, intreated, handled.
Male tractatus, yll handled.
Tractâtus, us, m. g. a handlynge, a deſcription, a parte of a booke, wherin any thynge is intreated of.
Tractim, on lengthe a longe tyme or ſpace, by drawyng out alonge.
Tracto, aui, are, to intreate, to handle, to touche, to vſe or exercyſe, to order or gouerne.
Hæc arte tractabat virum, ſhe handled the man craftyly.
Tractare rationes, to meddell with reckenynges, to be accomptable.
Manu tractare, to touche.
Si quis recte aut commode tractaret, if a man dyd intreate or handle hym well, and as he ſhoulde be.
Durius tractare aliquẽ, to intreate one ſhrewdly, to handle hym curſtly.
Qui artem tractant muſicam, whiche exerciſe muſike or poetrie.
Tractare ſe recte in munere aliquo, to behaue and gouerne hym ſelfe wiſely in any office, or charge, that he hath taken vpon hym.
Tractare bibliothecam alicuius, to haue the charge and kepyng of ones librarie.
Tractórium, ri, neu. ge. a wyndlas to drawe vp heauy thynges.
Tractus, a, um, drawen.
Tractus, us, m. g. a drawyng, a ſpace, a countrey, a region, a coaſte. alſo for Tractatus, a handlyng or declaryng of a thynge.
Trado, didi, dere, to delyuer. alſo to teache, to committe in truſte to an other man, to geue, to yelde, to put in writyng.
Mores opibus tradere, to ſet more by his richeſſe then by his honour.
Per manus tradere, to leaue it from one to an other, to reache to other that they maie deliuer it.
Prouinciam tradere alicui, to geue one the charge.
Huic noſtro tradita prouincia, the matter was committed to this our ſeruaunt here.
Memoriæ tradere, to put in writyng.
Ventis tradere, to forget and put out of minde.
Ad ſupplicium tradere, to delyuer one to bee puniſſhed.
Conſuetudini latinæ tradere, to tranſlate into latyne.
In cuſtodiam tradere, to committe to priſon.
Cuſtodiæ tradere aues, to put birdes to bee kepte in a cage.
Effectum tradere aliquid, to bryng athynge to paſſe.
Fama traditur, the olde ſaiyng or reporte is.
Inimicitias poſteris tradere, to leaue enmitie and hatred to his poſteritee to be reuenged.
Traditus mos eſt, the faſhion was lefte amonge them, them.

Palmam alicui tradere, to geue one the pryce.
Traduntur per succesiones morbi, sicknesses go from the fathers to the sõnes euen as due heritage.
Tradere puerum præceptori, to put a childe to a maister to be taught.
In disciplinam tradere, to cõmitte to one to bee instructed and taught.
Sartam tectã ædem tradere, to kepe the house in due reperations, to kepe it wynde tyght and water tight.
Tradere se dicitur miles, to yelde.
Se libidinibus constringendum tradere, to abandone and geue hym selfe to his sensuall lustes and appetites.
Quieti se tradere, to lie downe to slepe.
Totum me ei tradidi, I yelded my selfe wholly to him, or applied my selfe wholly to his mynde.
Traditur vel traditum est, it is written, it is lefte in wrytyng.
Tradidit Cicero, Cicero lefte in writynge.
Artem dicendi tradere, to teache rhetorike.
Traditio, onis, a tradition, a deliuerynge, a doctrine, a teachyng.
Traditus, a, um, geuen, deliuered.
Neci traditus, put to death.
Traduco, duxi, ducere, to bryng or conueighe from one place to an other, to bryng ouer, to translate out of one language into an other, to shlander, to defame, to passe ouer as a man doeth the tyme, to bryng in infamie and obloquie of the people, to dishonour.
Traducere tempus, to passe the tyme.
Traduc & matrem & omnem familiam ad nos, bryng hyr mother and all hir familie home to our house.
Copias flumen traducere, to bryng or conueigh the armie ouer the ryuer.
Ad magnam admirationem traducere, to bryng into a great admiration, to make one to meruaile muche.
Animum a re aliqua ad aliam traducere, to bryng, turne, or withdrawe the mynde from one thynge to an other.
Aliquem à seueritate ad hilaritatẽ traducere, to turne one from his seuerite and sadnesse, and cause hym to be more merry or pleasant.
Vt summa modestia hoc munus traducamus, id est, administremus.
Adolescentiam ad rei militaris scientiam traducere, to passe al the tyme of his youthe in exercise of warre.
Traducere vitam otiosam, to leade an idel life.
Vitam sine vllo corporis langore traducere, to lyue all his lyfe without sickenesse of the body.
Traductio, ônis, fœ. g. a defamynge, a shlander ynge, a bringynge to an other place, a passyng ouer.
Traductio temporis, a passynge forth of tyme,
Traductor, ôris, m. g. he that bringeth from one place to an other.
Tradux, trãducis, when the bowes of many trees be bounde together, that a vine may renne as longe vpon them.
Tragacantha, a thynge like to a gumme, whiche vulgarly they call Dragagantium.
Tragelaphus, a beaste in parte like an harte, in parte like a gote.
Tragemata, banketting disshes, sunnettes.
Tragia, one of the Iles called Sporades.
Tragicus, a, um, belongyng to a tragedie.
Tragice, cruelly, in the maner of a tragedy, with great busines and stirryng.
Tragicum tueri, to loke grymmely.
Tragicus, ci, m. g. a writer of tragedies.
Tragion, gn, n. g. an herbe, growynge onely in Sicilie, hauyng bowes, leaues, and sede like to iunipre.
Tragœdia, æ, fœ. g. a tragedie, whiche is an enterlude, wherin the personages doe represent some history or fable lamentable for the cruelte and miserie therin expressed.
Tragœdias mouere, proverbially, to make a great stere or businesse.
Tragœdus, di, m. ge. he that exercyseth some parte in a tragedie, a player in a tragedie.
Tragonis, siue Tragion, a tree growyng in Candie, like to iuniper, the iuice whereof is like to milke, and waxeth thicke like gumme.
Tragónia, æ, f. g. an herbe nowe called Taragon, late seene in this realme, whiche hath a taste like ginger: whiche herbe laied to the left syde, cõsumeth the splene.
Tragopa, a birde in Ethiopia, greatter than an egle, and hath on his head hornes like a gote.
Tragopogon, an herbe, vsed in salettes, called of some Hirci barbula, of some Come.
Tragópogus, a fysshe called a barbell.
Tragorigonon, an herbe, whiche I suppose is called penyroyall, growyng wilde.
Trágos, a gote. also a certayne herbe; and a shell fysshe that hath an ill sauour.
Trágula, læ, f. g. a iauelyn with a barbed heade. also a certayne urtte, a dragge.
Tragulam iniicere, to practise deceite, to goe about some deceite.
Tragum, is like a tyran made of wheate. it is also a fyshers nette called a dragge.
Tragúrium, an ile in the sea called Hadriaticum.
Tragus, gi, m. ge. a certayne shell fysshe. also a certayne kynde of sponges.
Traha, hæ, f. g. a dreye or sledde drawen without wheeles.
Trahax, acis, om, g. a couetous person, whiche drawyth all thynges vnto hym.
Traho, traxi, trahere, to drawe, to leade, to deferre, to delate, to prolonge, to driue of, to extende, to remoue, to tarie, to lyue, to prouoke, to intice.
Atque egomet me adeo cum illis vna ibidem traho,

traho, and I my selfe tarie as longe there with them.

Et vos vt tutam tranquillamq; fortunam trahe-retis, mea perfeci vigilantia, and by my vigilance I haue brought to passe that you myght liue in a sure and quiete prosperitee.

Trahere diem, noctem, tempus, to passe the daie, the nyght, or the tyme.

Rubiginem trahere, to ware rustie.

Pallorem trahere, to be pale.

In diuersum trahere, to bringe in doubt.

Trahere in religionem, to make conscience of a thynge.

Trahere amiculum, to let his garment drag on the grounde after hym.

De medio aliquem trahere, to take one out of the place or companie.

Trahere puerum, to leade a childe that can scantly goe.

Bellum trahere, to prolonge the warre. Iphewple conuiuium trahere.

Partem diei ad se trahunt, they cause me to bestow parte of the daie with them.

Trahere ad defectionem, id est, incitare.

Maternum trahere alimentum dicitur agnus, to suche the damme.

Pœnam trahere, to prolonge ones peyne or punishement.

Trahens aluum, id est, extendens, stretching out.

Animam in spe trahere, to liue in hope.

Cariem trahere, to moulde or ware mouldie.

Nomen ab aliquo trahere, to be named after one.

Cognomen ex contumelia traxit, he hadde that surname geuen hym in despite or reproche.

Colorem rubicundum trahere, to ware ruddy.

Consilium & rationem trahere, to take counsaile, to consult.

Contagia trahere, to be infected.

Dictum aliquod trahere ad voluntatem suam, to interprete a thyng that is doubtefully spoken, as he wolde haue it.

Trahere aliquem in disceptationem, to begynne to reason or contende with one.

In altitudinem trahere, to stretche vp in heyght.

In diuersum trahit me hæc res, this maketh me to doubte, or to be vncertaine what to folowe.

In diuersum authores trahũt, authours doe write diuersely, or be of diuerse opinions.

Fata me trahebant in pœnam, fate or destenie ledde or drewe me to punishement.

Obsidionem in aduentum principis trahere, to prolong the siege vntill the comyng of the prince.

Noctem per pocula trahere, to spende the night in drynkyng.

Originem à rege trahere, to discende lineally of a kyng.

In serum rem trahere, to prolonge the matter vntyll it be late.

Trahere rubiginem, to rust.

Spes eo trahit, hope leadeth him to go thither.

Spiritum trahere, to fetche breath.

Suspiria trahere, to sighe.

Senium trahere luctu, to spende his olde age in weppng and mournyng.

Nomen trahere ere aliqua, to be named of a thyng.

Traiana, a citee of the Pirenes, called nowe Potentia.

Traianus, the name of a noble emperour.

Traiectio, ónis, f. g. a passyng ouer, a conueighyng or carying ouer.

Traiectiones stellarum, mouynges of sterres.

Traiectitia pecunia, money caried ouer the sea.

Traiectus, a, um, caried or conueighed ouer, thrust through.

Traiectus, us, masc. gen. a passage, idem quod Traiectio.

Traiicio, traiicis, iéci, iicere, to leade ouer, to carie or conueigh ouer, to bringe ouer, to strike thorough.

Traiicere classe in Italiam, to saple or passe ouer into Italie with a naule of shippes.

Amnem vado traiicere, to go ouer the riuer on foote.

Traiicere Cyprum, to saple into Cypers.

Traiicere exercitum Rhodanum, to conueygh the armie ouer the riuer of Rhone.

Si se Alpes traiecerit, if he passe or come ouer the Alpes.

Traiciunt in alia vasa, they poure it into other vesselles.

Traiicere culpam in alium, to caste or transferre the fault to an other.

Rem ad nouos magistratus traiicere, To referre or put the matter to newe magistrates to be decided, or to deferre the matter vntil newe magistrates be chosen.

Latus dextrum lancea traiicitur, his right syde is striken through with a launcyn.

Tralatio, looke Translatio.

Tralatitius, and Tralatus, looke Translatitius & Translatus.

Tralli, a people of Illiria.

Trallis, a citee of Lydia, an other in Phrygia.

Trallianus, a, um, of that citee.

Tralúceo, lúces, luxi, lucere, to shyne through.

Tralúcidus, a, um, clere, that a man maie looke through.

Trama, æ, f. g. the woufe in weauyng, also a garment made of course clothe.

Trames, itis, m. ge. a crosse waie, a crosse pathe.

Tramitto, looke Transmitto.

Tranio, a seruauntes name in Plautus.

Trano, aui, are, to swymme ouer, somtyme to flee ouer, to passe ouer or by, Tranato, idem.

Tranor, the passiue.

Tranquille, sokly, without noyse, quietely.

Tranquillitas, átis, f. g. tranquillitee, rest, quietnesse, caulmenesse.

Tranquillo, an aduerbe, at a quiete tyme, in a caulme weather.

Tran-

Tranquillo, aui, are, to make quiete or caulme.
Tranquillus, a, um, quiete, in reste, peasible, caulme, without surges.
Tranquillum est, it is fayre & calme weather.
Tranquillus locus, a good place to rest in, a place of quietenesse.
Tranquillum ex irato facere, to appease, to qualifie.
Trans. ouer from one place to an other.
Transabeo, tránsabis, iui, ire, to go awaie by a thyng place, to go beyonde.
Transactio, ônis, an agreement vpon communication, a dispatchyng, a finisshyng.
Transactor, ôris, m. g. he that dispatcheth, finisheth, or bryngeth a matter to a poynct.
Transactus, a, um, passed longe agone, atchieued, finisshed, brought to a poynct.
Facta transacta omnia, all thynges be doon and cleane dispatched.
Transádigo, adégi, adigere, to thrust or strike through.
Iuuenẽ transadegit costas, he strake the ponge man through the sydes.
Transalpina Gallia, Gallia on the other syde of the mountaynes, whiche is now the realme of Fraunce.
Transalpinus, a, um, ouer the mountaines Alpes.
Transcendo, di, ere, to go ouer, to clyme ouer, to excede, to passe.
Transcindo, scidi, ere, to cut in sundre.
Transcribo, psi, ere, to write out a copie, sometyme to translate, to geue, to transferre, to geue his right to an other, to transpose from one to an other, to put ouer from one to an other, also in reckenyng bokes, Transcribere, is whan ones name is put out of the booke, & the charge or dette is sette on an other mans heade.
Turne tot incassum fusos patiere labores, & tua Dardaneis transcribi sceptra colonis? wylt thou Turne? suffer thy labours to bee lost, and thy realme to be geuen to the inhabitaunts of Troie?
Transcribere aliquem authorem, To take or transferre out of any authour, that whiche is for our purpose.
Eodem pretio mulier transcriberet viro, id est, iure cessio traderet, shoulde geue ouer, or deliuer hir right and title.
Nomina transcribere, to sette one mans debt vpon an others head.
Transcriptio, ônis, f. gen. an excuse, a pretense, allegyng of a thyng for ones selfe.
Transcurro, curri, ere, to renne foorth, to renne ouer quickely, also to wander.
Præter oculos alicuius transcurrere, to passe before ones sight.
Transcurrere, to touche byckely, or to passe ouer and not to speake of.
Transcurrit æstas, the sommer is past.
Transcursus, us, masc. gen. a course, a rennyng ouer quickely.

In transcursu, in passyng foorth.
Transdo, tránsdidi, are, to geue ouer from one to an other.
Transdúco, duxi, ere, to leade ouer.
Arbores transducere, to transpose or remoue trees from one place to an other.
Transenna, æ, fœ. g. a loupe to looke out at. also a wyndowe or casement, also a rope stretched out, a snare or trappe, a lattise.
Per transennam aspicere, prouerbially, to see a thyng lightly, and passyng by.
Transeo, iui, ire, to go foorth, to passe ouer, to passe, to leaue vntouched, to shyppe ouer, to let passe and not speake of, not to mention.
Transire domum, to go home.
Ad te continuo transeo, by and by I come ouer to the.
Transit equum cursu, he ouerrẽneth the horse.
Omnis mensis transiit, the whole moneth is passed.
Silentio aliquid transire, to passe ouer a thyng, and not speake of it.
Transire quædam in legendo, to shyppe ouer or leat passe some thynges in readyng.
Neronem transeo, I leat passe Nero & speake not of hym.
Transire ad partitionem, to leaue the present matter and beginne to speake of partition.
In sententiam alterius transire, to assent to an other mans opinion.
Ad hæredem transire, to come to the possession of the heyre.
Violentam transit in iram, he beganne to be sperce and angrie.
Transiit hasta duos, the speare ran thorough two of them.
Facile transire mala, to passe ouer lyghtly and not care for them.
Modum transire, to passe measure, to goe beyonde measure.
Legem transire, not to passe or care for, to neglecte.
Limias transire, to passe the bounder or lymittes.
Vitam silentio transire, to passe ouer their lyfe without fame or renowme, or doe nothyng notable or worthy memorie.
Transfero, sẽui, ere, to take out of one place, and plant or graffe in an other.
Transeunter, passyng by or ouer.
Tránsfero, tuli, ferre, to carie or bringe from one place to an other, to transferre, to translate frõ one language to an other, or from ones possession to an others.
Ad se transferre, to bringe home into his countrey, or home to his house.
Se ad aliquid faciendum transferre, to leaue of one thing and geue his minde to do an other.
Transferre amorem suum alteri, to sette his loue some other where, or vpon some other person.

Oculos

Oculos transferre ad aliquid, to looke vpon a thyng.

Animum ad aliquid transferre, to geue his minde to doo a thyng.

Culpam in alium transferre, to cast or laie the faute vpon some other.

Sermonem alio transferamus, let vs common of some other mattier.

Iudicia transferre, to trãsferre or remoue matters out of one court into an other.

In linguam latinam transferre, to translate into latine.

Transferre verbum aliquod dicimur, whã we turne it somewhat from the signification.

Transfigo, xi, gere, to thrust through, to stycke through.

Transfigûro, aui, are, to transforme, to tourne into an other figure.

Transfiguratio, ônis, f. g. transfiguracion, chaunging from one fourme to an other.

Transfixus, a, um, stycked through, thrust thorough.

Transfluo, uxi, ere, to leake or to renne out, as water out of a broken pitchar, to passe or flowe ouer or thorough.

Dies transfluxere, The daies bee passed and gone.

Transfodio, transfodis, di, ere, to digge thorough, to stycke or thrust through.

Transformis, me, that is transformed or chãged.

Transformo, aui, are, to transforme, to change into an other forme.

Transforo, aui, are, to make an hole through.

Transfossus, a, um, digged or stycken throughe.

Transfretatio, ônis, f. g. a passage ouer the sea.

Transfreto, aui, are, to passe ouer the sea.

Transfuga, æ, masc. gen. he that fleeth from his owne people or capitaine to the parte of the ennemies, or of theim that are suspected in tyme of truce.

Transfugio, transfugis, fugi, ere, to flee from place to place, to forsake his owne capitaine, and people, and goe to theyr enemies.

Transfugere ad hostes, is to goe and yelde hym to the contrary parte.

Transfugium, ij, neu. g. yeldyng to ennemies, a forsakyng or rennyng awaie from his owne capitayne to the contrarie part.

Transfulgeo, si, ere, to shyne through.

Transfumo, aui, are, to smoke through.

Transfundo, fudi, ere, to poure out of one vessell into an other, to translate from one to an other.

Suas laudes ad alterum transfundere, to attribute and geue his own praises to an other man.

Amorem in aliam transfudit, he hath set his loue wholely vpon an other and forsaken hir.

Transfusio, ônis, f. g. a pouryng out of one vessell into an other.

Transgredior, deris, di, to passe or goe ouer or beyonde, to excede or trangresse a law or commaundement.

Transgredi aliquem, to passe or excell one.

Transgressio, ônis, f. g. a figure of Rhetorike, where a man leaueth the principall mattier, and entreth into an other thyng, and after retourneth to his mattier, we commonly call it a digression. also a passyng or goyng ouer.

Transgressus, us, m. g. passyng ouer.

Trãsigo, ẽgi, igere, to driue forth, to treate a matter, to agree, condescende or come to a poynte, to fall at agrement, as happeth betweene men, whiche doo contende for somewhat, to performe, to thrust through, to perse through, to make an ende of, to dispatche, to finysshe, to atchiue.

Aeuum transigitur venatibus, all their life is spent in huntyng.

Transegit pectora mucro, id est, penetrauit, it pierced.

Hanc fabulam dum transigam, while I plaie this comedie to an ende.

Transigere vitam, to passe his or their life.

Gladio seipsum transegit, he thrust hym selfe through with a swoorde.

Intus transigetur, the mattier shall be finished and made an ende of within.

Multitudinem rerum vno tempore trãsigere, to dispatche many mattiers at once.

Cum aliquo transigere, to fall at a poynct or greement with one.

Non potuerat transigi minori pecunia, the mattier coulde not be ended, or we coulde come to no maner of poynct, for lesse money.

Transactum est, it is doon or dispatched.

Transiacio, trãsiacis, ieci, ere, to caste ouer or through.

Transiectio, ônis, f. g. idem quod Traiectio.

Transiectus, a, um, idem quod Traiectus.

Transilio, trãsilis, lui, ire, to leape ouer, to leape beyond, to skype, to passe and not to speake of.

Trãsilis, le, that groweth ouer other.

Transiluania, a countrey beyond Hũgarie, where of the people were sometyme called Getæ.

Transitio, ônis, fœ. g. a passynge ouer, a goynge foorthe.

Ad hostes transitio, a rennyng awaie to the contrary parte.

Transitorius, a, um, that whiche shortely passeth bie.

Trãsitus, us, m. g. a passing, a changeyng from one place to an other.

In transitu, id est, obiter, lyghtly passing bie.

Transiungo, iunxi, ere, to remoue an oxe or horse from one parte to an other.

Transilabor, laberis, labi, to slyde or renne ouer.

Translatio, ônis, f. ge. a translation or bringyng from one place to an other.

Criminis translatio, a reiectynge of the faulte from one to an other.

Translatitius, a, um, that is transferred from one to an other.

Translatiuus, a, um, idem, also vulgare, cõmon, of the meane sorte, not excellent.

Transtatiue, negligently, sleyghtly, with litteli diligence.

Transtâtor, oꝛ Tralâtor, ôris, m. g. he that translateth oꝛ conueyghteth from one to an other.

Transtâtus, a, um, transferred, oꝛ conueyhed from one to an other.

Transtego, tegi, ere, to reade ouer.

Transtuceo, luxi, ere, to shyne thꝛough, to shyne bꝛight.

Transtúcidus, a, um, that shyneth thꝛoughe, bꝛyght thꝛough.

Transmarinus, a, um, that cometh from beyonde the sea, that is bꝛought from beyonde the sea.

Trânsmeo, aui, are, to passe oꝛ goe beyonde.

Transmigrátio, ônis, f. g. a going oꝛ departing from one place to dwell in an other.

Transmigro, trânsmigras, aui, are, to goe further, to dwell further of, to transpose my dwelling, to go to dwell further of, oꝛ in an other place.

Transmissio, ônis, f. g. a goyng oꝛ sendyng further oꝛ ouer.

Transmissus, us, m. ge. a passage, oꝛ the space of any passage betweene place and place.

Transmitto, misi, ere, to sende from one place to an other, to go oꝛ renne quickely, to sende thoꝛtely oꝛ quickely, to passe ouer a water, to put oꝛ cast thꝛough, to let goe thꝛough.

Transmittere mare, to passe ouer the sea.

Transmittere tempus, to passe the tyme, to spende the tyme.

Transmittere discrimen, to escape a daunger.

Tectum lapide transmittere, to thꝛowe a stone ouer the house.

Bellum transmittere alicui, to committe the charge of battaile to one.

Transmittere literas papirus dicitur, where paper soheth in pnche, that the letters maie be seen on the other syde.

Transmittere exercitum, to suffre an armye to haue passage thꝛough.

Transmittere vitam per obscurum, to passe his lyfe without renowme oꝛ fame.

Transmittit cuspide pectus, he thꝛust a tauelen thꝛough his bꝛeast.

In Africam transmittere velis, to saple ouer into Affrike.

Transmittere cursu campos, to renne ouer the fieldes quickely.

Quatuor menses trãsmittere in specu, to tarie oꝛ abyde foure monethes cõtinually in a denne.

Transmontanus, a, um, that dwelleth beyonde the mountaines.

Transmótus, a, um, moued from one place to an other.

Transmouco, trânsmoues, ui, ere, to remoue from one place to an other.

Transmúto, aui, are, to chaunge from one place to an other.

Transnato, aui, are, to swymme ouer, to swymme beyonde.

Transno, aui, are, idem.

Transnómino, aui, are, to chaunge his name, to geue one name foꝛ an other.

Transnumero, aui, are, to ouernumbꝛe.

Transpadanus, a, um, beyonde the riuer, called Padus in Italie.

Transpicio, xi, ere, to looke thꝛough, to lohe beyonde.

Transpectus, us, m. g a lokyng ouer oꝛ beyonde.

Transpôno, posui, ponere, to transpose oꝛ remoue from one place to an other.

Transporto, aui, are, to carie oꝛ conueigh from one place to an other, to carie ouer.

Transquiétus, a, um, in quiete oꝛ rest from hence foꝛth, verie quiete.

Transrhenânus, a, um, that is beyonde the riuer Rhene.

Transtra, ôrum, neu. gene. plur. traunsomes, whiche door go ouerthwart an house, also the seates, wheron they we sitte that row in a ship, bote oꝛ galie.

Transtyberinus, a, um, that is oꝛ dwelleth beyonde the riuer of Tyber.

Transuádo, aui, are, & Transuador, âris, ari, to wade ouer a shalow place of a riuer.

Transuéctio, ônis, f. g. a conueighyng oꝛ carieng ouer. also a musteryng of men of warre.

Trânsueho, uexi, ere, to carie oꝛ conueygh ouer, also to muster.

Transuerbero, aui, are, to stirke thꝛough.

Transuersárius, a, um, that is set ouerthwarte.

Transuersus, a, um, ouerthwarte, not streight oꝛ directe.

Transuersum agere, to turne hastily awaie frõ the purpose, whiche a man went about.

Transuersum unguem non discedere, not to goe a naple bꝛedth from it, a pꝛouerbe, signifying a little distaunce.

Transuersum digitum, idem.

Transuersa tueri, to lohe awꝛy.

Transuerto, uerti, tere, to tourne awꝛie, oꝛ out of the ryght facion oꝛ waie.

Transuideo, uidi, dere, to see thꝛough a clere thyng.

Transulto, aui, are, to leape ouer.

Transúmo, sumpsi, sumere, to take of oꝛ from another, to remoue from one to an other.

Transumptum, that which is writen out of a recoꝛd, and appꝛoued vnder the hynges seale, oꝛ the signyng of a iudge. In the common lawe they call it an exemplification, some do also call it a Transumpte.

Transúmptio, ônis, fœm. gene. a figure, called also Metalepsis, wherby one signification is gathered of an other: as, of Nox atra, a blacke nyght is gathered, Nox tenebricosa, a darke nyght.

Transuo, sui, ere, to sowe thꝛoughe.

Transuólito, aui, are, to flee ouer often.

Trânsuolo, aui, are, to flee oꝛ leape ouer, foꝛ to goe

Trapes, trapẽtis, m. g. or Trapetum, ti, n. ge. a mylle, wherin ople is made.
Trapẽtus, ti, m. g. idem quod Trapes.
Trapeza, zæ, f. ge. a table, wheron an exchanger doeth tell money.
Trapezéphoron, ri, ne. ge. a certayne prieste of Minerua. also an Image that beareth vp a table or dreſſer.
Trapezita, tæ, maſcu. gene. an exchaunger or banker.
Trapezus, zuntis, a citee in the countrey of Pontus.
Trapezuntius, a man of that citee.
Trapit, olde writers vſed for Vertit.
Traſibulus, a duke of Athenes, whiche deliuered the citee from. xxx. tyrannes.
Traſimenus, a ryuer by Perusium in Italie, where Annibali ſlewe Flaminius the conſull of Rome, and. xxiii. thouſande Romains, and tooke. 6000. priſoners.
Traſimenus, a, um, of that poole or ryuer.
Traſton, a certayne reſine or gumme, the beſte of that whiche is called Gummiham oniacum.
Trauio, aui, are, to paſſe or goe throughe or beyonde.
Traulus, li, m. g. he that ſpeaketh with great difficultie, one that ſtutteth or ſtammereth.
Traũſi, a people adioynyng to Thrace.
Trebatius, a lawier verye familiar with Cicero.
Trebia, a ryuer in Italie by Placentia. also a citee in Spayne.
Trebellicum vinum, or tribulanum vinum, wyne growynge aboute the citee Trebia, in Spayne.
Trebonius, a Romayne that conſpyred with Brutus and Caſſius in Aſia.
Trebula, an olde towne nigh to Rome.
Trebulani, men of that towne.
Trecæ, trecarum, a citee in Campaygne.
Trecẽni, næ, na, three hundred.
Trecenti, tæ, ta, idem.
Trecentenus, a, um, the three hundreth.
Trecenteſimus, a, um, idem.
Trecenties, three hundred tymes.
Tredecim, thirtene.
Tredecies, thirtene tymes.
Trechedipnum, ni, n. g. a certayn garment, which ſhoulde be rather writen Rechedipnum.
Treis, the accuſatiue caſe plurall for trees.
Tremebundus, a, um, that trembleth muche, fearefull.
Tremefácio, méfacis, feci, facere, to make to tremble or quake.
Tremeſco, ſcere, to tremble.
Tremendus, a, um, to be feared or dreadde.
Tremens, entis, that trembleth.
Tremo, tremui, mere, to quake as one dooeth in a feuer, to tremble, to feare.
Animo tremere, to be ſore afeerde in his mind.
Tremor, ôris, m. g. quakynge, trembleyng. also feare.

Trémulus, a, um, that quaketh for feare, that trembleth or ſhaketh.
Trépidans, antis, trembleyng, fearyng.
Trepidanter, fearefully, with trembleyng and quakyng.
Trepedátio, ônis, trembleyng, feare.
Trepidé, haſtyly, as one weare in a great feare.
Trépido, aui, are, to feare, to tremble for feare, to make haſte, to be aſtonied or amaſed.
Trepidulus, a, um, ſomewhat afeerde.
Trépidus, a, um, fearefull, trembleyng for feare, aſtonied, amaſed for feare. also he that doeth a thynge haſtily.
Trepidi rerum ſuarum, fearynge what woll come to paſſe of theyr matters.
Trepando, vndecyned, three pounde weight.
Tres, & hæc tria, three.
Trium literarum homo, id eſt, fur.
Tres viri, three men in lyke authoritee.
Treſbys, idem quod Trochilos.
Treſis, ſis, that is the weyght of three the poyſes called Æs, three pounde. looke the prouerbe Treſsis homo.
Treua, a citee in Almaine called Hamburgh.
Treueris, a citee in Germanie called Trire.
Treueri, people called Treues.
Triambi, were they whiche ſpake together in a tragedie.
Triangulãris, re, haueng. iii. corners.
Triángulus, li, maſ. ge. a figure that hath three corners.
Triarchus, a maiſter of a ſhippe with three toppes, or of a galie that hath three orders of ores.
Triarij, ſouldioures whiche be ſette alwaies in the rereward, which were the ſtrongeſt men, they fought euer ſtandynge, bowynge theyr kneſe, as they woulde rather die than remoue from theyr places.
Triárius, ii, m. g. a famous oratour.
Triatrus, a feſtiuall date, kepte after the thirde Ides of euery moneth.
Tribaces, they whiche be wrone with ſtripes.
Triballi, people of the countrey beyonde Hungarie, nowe called Seruia.
Triboci, people of the countrey of Alſate.
Tribracus, a foote in metre of. iii. ſhorte ſyllables.
Tribula, æ, fœm. gen. & Tribulum, li, neu. ge. a litteil dreie or carre made of a rough bourde, whiche they vſed to threſſhe corne, it maie bee taken for a flaple, or other lyke thynge, wherwith corne is threſſhed.
Tribulárium, a place where ſuche inſtrumentes be ſet.
Tribũlis, lis, maſ. ge. a hynſeman that cometh of the ſame ſtocke that I do, one of the ſame tribe or warde.
Tribulo, aui, are, to breake with a carre, flayle, or other lyke inſtrument.
Tribulor, aris, ari, to be troubled with heauineſſe of mynde.

Tribulus, li, m. g. a bremble, also a caltroppe.
Tribûnal, alis, n, g. the place where a iudge sitteth in iudgement.
Tribunâtus, us, m. g. the office or dignitee of a Tribune.
Tribunianus, a mans name in the tyme of Justinian, a contemner of god and all religion, and specially of Christianitee.
Tribunitius, a, um, perteining to the Tribunes.
Tribûnus, ni, m. gen. an officer amonge the Romains, haupnge chiefe iurisdiction amonge the commons.
Tribunus militum, a capitayne in warres, hauing auctoritee ouer souldiours, to viewe and see that they were well armed and exercised. it may be nowe vsed for the marshall of the fielde.
Tribunus celerum, an officer in Rome, before the kynges were deposed, whiche was chiefe of the horsemen.
Tribuni Aarij, generall receiuers, to whom money was deliuered to paie the souldiours.
Tribuo, ui, ere, to geue, sometyme to set muche by. also to fauour, to impute, to attribute.
Beneuolentiæ eius tribuendum est, it must be imputed to his good will or loue towardes vs.
Quibus ille plurimum tribuebat, whom he did greatly esteme or set by.
Quod illi tribuebatur ignauiæ, for so muche as it was coumpted a poynete of cowardise in hym.
Fidem sensibus tribuere, to beleue the senses.
Gratiam tribuere, to thanke.
Honorem tribuere, to honour.
In duas partes vim loquendi tribuere, id est, distribuere.
Misericordiam tribuere, to shewe pitie.
Tribuere officium, to doe a friendely pleasure to one.
Tribuenda est opera rei publicæ, I muste doe my diligence to serue the common weale.
Palmam mensarum alicui pisci tribuere, to compte it to be the moste excellent fysshe that is serued to the table.
Primas tribuere, to geue pryche and pryce, to compte most excellent.
Priores tribuere, to preferre.
Præmia tribuere, to paie wages.
Tributum est, it is geuen.
Tribus, us, f. g. a Trybe, a warde, a part of the people, sometyme diuided in three partes. it seemeth that it was somtyme taken for a family or particular iurisdiction among the people: and therof cometh Tribulis, & therfore the partition of the people of Israell were into. 12. Tribes. hereof be sundrie opinions, reade Calepine.
Tributarius, a, um, that paieth tribute.
Tributim, by sundrie families or partes of the people, by euery tribe or warde.
Tributio, onis, a geuyng.
Tributum, ti, n. g. tribute.
Tributus, in the masculine gendre, is sometyme read for Tributum.

Trica, after Pli. li. 3. cap. 11. was sometyme a towne of Apulia. Stephanus saith, it was a towne of Thessalie, so named of Trica, Peneis daughter.
Tricæ, arum, f. g. plu. heare or feathers wrapped about the feete of thynens and pigeons, whiche doue let them to goe, and therfore all thynges that doue leat a man, are called Tricæ, also vaine trifles be called Tricæ.
Tricastini, people of France nere the ryuer Dyuentia.
Tricena, cometh of Triginta, thirtie, it is sometyme taken for Tricentena.
Tricenarius, a, um, belongyng to three hundred. Tricenariæ vites, when an acre yeldeth three hundreth of the measures called Amphora.
Tricenteni, æ, a, three hundreth.
Tricenties, three hundred tymes.
Tricentuplus, a, um, three hundred folde.
Triceps, cipitis, omnis. generis. haupng three heades.
Triceiberus, a great hell hounde.
Tricesimus, the thyrtithe.
Tricesis, the weight of. 30. pounde.
Trichaptum, a garment, which was so fyne, that it semed to be made of small heares.
Trichiæ, be fisshes called Sardines.
Triculum, li. n. ge. a vessell haupng three lauers, out of the whiche water is poured.
Trichitis, tis, a kinde of alume.
Trichomanes, an herbe called maidē heare, whiche groweth by welles and springes, and is a little herbe, in facie syke to ferne, the leafe therof beyng tourned as it were the backeside forwarde, and is narrowe. The braunches whereon the leaues be, doe glysten and be very small, browne in colour and bitter in taste: it is of a good temperaunce betwene hotte and colde, reade Adiantō.
Trichrus, chri, a certayne precious stone.
Tricies, thirtie tymes.
Tricinus, a, um, an adiectiue of Tricas.
Tricliniaris, re, belongyng to a parlour.
Triclinium, idem quod Triclinum.
Triclinarius, a seruaunt that dooeth serue in the parlour.
Tricliniarius, a, um, perteinyng to the parlour or dinyng chaumbre.
Triclinium, nij, n. g. a parlour to suppe in, where in were three tables or three beddes, for in olde tyme they vsed to lie when they did eate.
Trico, onis, m g. a sadde or solen person, sower, that dooeth almost neuer laugh, after some, contentious, euer busie in suits and stryfe, also a picker of quarrelles.
Tricoccus, ci, a kynde of the herbe called Heliotropium.
Tricōlon, haupng three membres.
Tricones, are they that tarie men with trifles.
Tricongius, was one whiche dranke or he rested three thꝛee meaſures of wyne, called Congij, whiche was as I ſuppoſe thꝛee gallons and a pynte of our meaſure, wherfoꝛe Tiberius the emperour pꝛomoted hym to honour, and at the laſte made hym conſull of Rome.

Tricor, aris, ari, to tꝛiſſe, to dalie.

Tricornis, & hoc tricorne, idem quod Tricornium.

Tricornium, ij, n. g. that hath thꝛee hoꝛnes.

Tricorpor, oris, that hath thꝛe bodies.

Tricubitalis, le, of thꝛee cubites in meaſure.

Tricubitus, a, um, idem.

Tricus, a ſtone, whiche although it be blacke, yet ſheweth he at the roote blache, in the middle ſanguine, and at the toppe white.

Tricuſpis, cuſpidis, that hath thꝛe poynctes.

Tridacna, opſters ſo greatte, that a man muſte make iii. moꝛſelles of one.

Tridens, entis, om. g. euery weapon, tole, oꝛ inſtrument hauyng thꝛee teeth.

Tridentifer, and Tridentiger, the ſurname of Neptunus.

Tridentum, a citee in Italie called Trent.

Triduanus, a, um, of thꝛee daies continuaunce.

Triduum, i, n. g. the ſpace of thꝛee daies.

Triennis, ne, of thꝛee peres olde.

Triennium, ij, n. g. the ſpace of thꝛe peres.

Triens, entis, m. g. a copgne, which is the thꝛid part of the peece of money called As, moꝛe thē halfe the copgne called Obolus, in valuc about our farthyng. It is alſo the thirde parte of any thyng whiche is diuided, as Triens vini, the third parte of Sextarius, whiche is. iiii. Cyathi, oꝛ viii. ounces of wine.

Ex triente hæredem facere, to make hepꝛe of the third parte.

Vſura ex triente, when in the hundꝛed. iiii. is gapned, as in a hundꝛed pound lone. iiii. poūd.

Trientalis herba, an herbe, whiche hath leaues as great as the copgne called Triens, that is foure inches bꝛoade.

Triental, alis, neu. gen. a veſſell conteynyng the thirde parte of that meaſure, which was named Sextarius.

Trientarium fœnus, lowe Fœnus.

Trierarchus, the capitaine of a ſhippe, whiche is called Trieris, the maiſter of a galie that hath thꝛee oꝛders of oꝛes.

Trieris, ris, f. g. a great ſhippe, which hath thꝛee oꝛes on euery ſeate.

Trietericus, a, um, foꝛ Triennalis, that is doen euery thꝛide pere.

Trietēris, teridis, fœm. gene. the ſpace of thꝛee peres.

Trifariam, in thꝛee partes, oꝛ thꝛee maner of wates.

Trifarius, a, um, that is of thꝛee ſoꝛtes oꝛ faſcions.

Trifaux, aucis, omnis generis, that hath thꝛee mouthes.

Trifax, & Triforum, a weapon of thꝛee cubites longe.

Trifer, oꝛ Triferus, a, um, that bꝛyngeth fruite thꝛiſe in a pere.

Trifera, is a medicine and other delicate ſpices to expulſe caſtile coꝛrupt humours.

Trifidus, a, um, diuided into thꝛee partes.

Trifinium, the buttyng of thꝛee fieldes, whiche topgne together.

Trifolium, lij, n. g. maie be taken foꝛ a generall name of all herbes hauyng thꝛee leaues, how be it there is one herbe ſo called pꝛopꝛely.

Triformis, me, that hath thꝛee fourmes oꝛ faſcions.

Trifur, furis, om. ge. moꝛe than a theke, thꝛee tymes waꝛſe than a theke, ſemblably Tri, topgned with any thyng, ſignifieth moꝛe.

Trifurcifer, a veꝛie naughtie knaue oꝛ vilaine, a ſtarke and arrand theke.

Trifurcus, a, um, that hath thꝛee koꝛkes.

Triga, æ, fœm. gene. a carte, dꝛawen with thꝛee hoꝛſes.

Trigamus, mi, maſcu. gene. that hath had thꝛee wyfes.

Trigarium, rij, n. ge. a certain courſe with ſuche cartes called Trigæ. alſo a place at Rome by Campus martius, wheꝛe they exerciſed rēnyng with ſuche cartes.

Trigarius, rij, m. ge. a carter that dꝛiueth a carte with thꝛee hoꝛſes.

Trigemini, thꝛee childꝛen at one bꝛithe.

Trigemina porta, a gate in Rome, out at the whiche the thꝛee bꝛetheꝛne called Horatij, went to fyght their challenge.

Trigeminus, a, um, idem quod tres, thꝛee.

Trigemmis, mis, m. g. a plant oꝛ ſtippe, hauyng thꝛee topnctes and thꝛee buddes.

Trigeſimus, a, um, the thirtithe.

Trigeſies, thirtie tymes.

Triginta, adiect. plu. num. indeclin. thirtie.

Trigla, a fiſche, I ſuppoſe it be a ſoꝛe mullette, ſuch as are taken in Deuonſhire and in Coꝛwall.

Triglites, a ſtone, which is of the colour of a ſoꝛe mullette.

Trigo, aui, are, to bynde oꝛ to dꝛawe a thynge cloſe togethꝛer.

Trigon, gonis, a balle. alſo a turtill. alſo a fiſſhe called a thoꝛnebacke.

Trigonalis, le, that is thꝛee coꝛnerde, hauyng thꝛee lines.

Trigonia, æ, f. g. the thꝛide age.

Trigonus, ni, m. gene. a triangle that hath thꝛee coꝛners.

Trilibris, bre, that is thꝛee pounde weyght.

Trilinguis, gue, that ſpeaketh thꝛee langages.

Trilix, licis, a garment with thꝛee dpuers thꝛeedes, oꝛ that is made of thꝛe thꝛedes of diuers colours.

Trimacrus, a foote in meter, conſiſtyng of thꝛe longe ſyllables.

Trimâtus, us, maſc. gen. the tyme oꝛ age of thꝛee peeres.

Trimembris, bre, hauyng thꝛee membꝛes.
Trimeſtris, ſtre, of thꝛee monethes.
Trimetrum, metri, neut. gener. a verſe of thꝛee feete.
Trimma, a wyne made with ſpices, as that which is called ypocras.
Trimodia, æ, a meaſure, whiche conteyneth thꝛee buſſhelles.
Trimodium, dij, idem.
Trimorion, is named of thꝛee ſignes in heauen, whiche conteyne. lxxx. degrees oꝛ pozciones. Wherfoꝛe Trimorion is in calculacion of natiuitees from the time of the byꝛth oꝛ conceptiõ, the. lxxx. and tenth part of thꝛee degrees.
Trimus, a, um, of thꝛee yeeres.
Trimulus, a, um, the diminutiue of Trimus.
Trimyxos, a lampe oꝛ candilſtycke, beaꝛynge thꝛee lightes.
Trinacria, the ile of Sicilie.
Trinacris, cre, of Trinacria.
Trinacrius, a, um, of Sicilie.
Trinepos, potis, m. g. he whiche is thꝛee diſcentes lineall from my childes childe.
Trineptis, a woman in lyke degree of bloudde as Trinepos, potis.
Trinitas, atis, fœm. gen. a trinitee, the noumbꝛe of thꝛee.
Trinoctialis, le, belongyng to thꝛee nyghtes.
Trinoctium, tij, n. g. thꝛee nightes.
Trinodis, de, that hath thꝛee knottes.
Trini, foꝛ Terni.
Trinundinum, oꝛ Trinumnundinum, the thirde faire oꝛ markette, whiche was wont to be pꝛoclaymed, to the entent it ſhoulde bee the better remembꝛed: after ſome it is thꝛe daies ſpace aſſigned to thoſe officers.
Trinus, a, um, thꝛee.
Trioboluris, re, vile, of ſmall eſtimation, little wooꝛthe.
Triobolum, li, n. g. a copyne of thꝛe halfepence, called Obuli. It is halfe the Athenies Drachma, whiche is of lyke value as Denarius Romanus, whiche of our money is a grote, ſo that Triobolum is ii d. ſome called it a Dandipzat.
Triobolo homo, a man wooꝛthe thꝛee halfe pence, of litteli value, ſcant wozth a Dãdipzat.
Triones, plough oxen. alſo they be ſeuen ſterres, beyng in the nozth.
Triophthalmus, a little ſtone, hauyng in hym the figure of thꝛee eies.
Triorches, chis, m. gen. a kynde of haukes, hauyng thꝛee ſtones. alſo a kynde of the herbe called Centaurie.
Triparcus, a, um, verie ſparyng oꝛ niggiſſhe.
Tripartior, tiri, to diuide in thꝛee partes.
Tripartito, and Tripertito, an aduerbe, ſignifiyng in thꝛee partes.
Tripartitus, a, um, diuided into thꝛee partes.
Tripatinum, ni, n. g. the laſt and chiefe diſſhe in banketteyng.
Tripectus, pectoris, that hath thꝛee bꝛeaſtes.

Tripedalis, le, that is thꝛee foote longe.
Tripedaneus, a, um, hauyng thꝛee feete, thꝛee foote longe.
Tripes, pedis, m. ge. with thꝛee feete, that hath thꝛee feete.
Triphillon, thꝛe leaued graſſe.
Triplaris numerus, when one numbꝛe is founde thꝛiſe in a bigger numbꝛe.
Triplex, plicis, om. g. thꝛe folde, treble, a table with thꝛe leaues. ſometyme foꝛ thꝛe.
Triplicitas, atis, f. g. treble.
Tripliciter, thꝛe folde.
Triplico, aui, are, to dooe oꝛ folde a thyng thꝛe tymes.
Triplum, a veſſell like a baſket.
Triplus, a, um, treble, idem quod Triplex.
Tripoda, æ, fœ. ge. a ſtoole oꝛ bourde that hath thꝛe feete.
Tripolis, a countrey in Affrike, an other in Syria, the thirde in Phœnicia.
Tripolitana regio, idem quod Tripolis.
Tripolium, lij, n. ge. an herbe, whereof the roote is of ſome men ſuppoſed to be Turbit.
Tripondium, dij, n. g. thꝛe pounde weight.
Tripontium, a towne in Umbꝛia in Italie, ſo called, becauſe it hath thꝛe bꝛidges.
Triptolemus, a man, whiche founde the vſe of grapne in the countrey of Athenes.
Triptõtum, a noune that hath thꝛe caſes.
Tripudium, dij, n. g. daunſyng.
Tripudia ſoliſtima, a diuination, taken by bꝛead fallyng to the groũd, that was caſte to chickens.
Tripudio, aui, are, to daunſe.
Tripus, podis, m. ge. euery thyng that hath thꝛe feete, a thꝛe ſooted ſtoole.
Tripodes, were alſo tables of golde in the tẽple of Apollo.
Triquetra, træ, f. g. oꝛ Triquetrum, tri, n. gen. a figure thꝛe coꝛnerde. It was alſo a name of the ile of Sicile.
Triquatrus, a, um, hauyng thꝛe coꝛners.
Triremis, mis, f. g. a galey, hauyng thꝛe oꝛders of oꝛes, oꝛ thꝛe oꝛes on euery ſeate.
Tris, the accuſatiue caſe plurall foꝛ tres, thꝛe.
Triſago, ſaginis, a certeyne herbe, called of the grekes Camedris, germander.
Triſippium, a rowell, with whiche beeyng made hotte, they vſed to marke an hoꝛſe on the iawe bone.
Triſſis, thꝛe pounde weight.
Triſtega, orum, neu. g. plu. a houſe, that hath thꝛe loftes.
Triſticulus, a, um, ſomewhat ſadde oꝛ heauy.
Triſtificus, a, um, that maketh ſadde oꝛ heauy.
Triſtis, ſte, heauy, ſadde, full of diſcomfoꝛte, ſoꝛrowfull, cruell, of muche grauitee, bitter, moꝛe difficile oꝛ harde: ſometyme angrie.
Triſtis, againſt his will, not well content.
Accipio triſtis, I take it with a ſadde countinance.
Inuitat triſtis, he bade hym welcome againſt his his will.

Mihi erit triſtior, he will be ſomewhat angrie or diſpleaſed with me.
Abſynthium triſte, bitter wormode.
Sapor triſtis, an vnpleaſant and bitter taſte.
Triſtis iudex, a ſeuere and rightfull iudge
Triſto, aui, are, to make heauy or ſorowfull.
Triſulcus, a, um, hauyng three edges.
Triſulcum telum, a weapon hauynge three edges.
Triſyllabus, a, um, hauyng three ſillables.
Tritanus, a notable wreſtler or ſworde player.
Tritauia, æ, fœ. g. my great graundefathers mother.
Tritauus, ui, maſ. gen. my great graundfathers father.
Tritees, a people of Greece.
Trithales, an herbe, whiche hath thriſe in the yere floures.
Triticeus, a, um, of wheate.
Triticum, ci, n. g. wheate.
Tritium Metallum, a citee of Spayne called now Talalla.
Trito, aui, are, to breake or beate ſmall.
Triton, onis, one called god of the ſea, the ſonne of Neptunus, it is alſo a ryuer in Affrica.
Tritonia, the name of Minerua.
Tritonis, nidos, f. g. of Minerua.
Tritoniacus, a, um, of Minerua.
Tritonice, a towne of Pontus.
Tritor, oris, m. gen. he that weareth or breaketh awaie a thynge: he that breaketh or crummeth ſmall.
Trituro, aui, are, to threſſhe corne.
Tritura, re, f. g. threſſhyng, breakyng or crummyng.
Trituratio, onis, idem.
Tritus, a, um, worne, broken, waſted, muche vſed.
Tritus, us, m. g. the acte of breakynge or threſſhyng.
Triuenefica, a great ſorcereſſe.
Trieueri, Treier in Almayne, whiche nowe is vnder a biſſhoppe.
Triuia, a name of Diana.
Triuialis, le, commune or of ſmall eſtimacion, vſed or taughte in high waies: alſo rude, not elegant.
Triuialis lingua, a homely ſorme of ſpeche.
Triuialiter, communely, in the vulgar or homely faſhion.
Triuiatim, by euery thre men.
Triuium, ui, neu. ge. a place where thre ſundry waies doe mete. alſo where common reſourſe of people is.
Trium literarum homo, was ſpoken in ſcorne of hym, that woulde ſeeme to bee a gentill man, where he was none: whiche woorde was made by this occaſion, that among the olde Romains gentill men vſed to wryte theyr names with thre letters, as Q. F. M, for Quintus Fabius Maximus. alſo this prouerbe was ſpoken of them whiche were theues, becauſe that Fur, conteyned but three letters,

Triumphalis, le, belongyng to triumphes.
Triumphalis uir, he that hath triumphed.
Currus triumphalis, a charriotte, in the whiche he rode that triumphed.
Prouincia triumphalis, for conquerynge or ſubduyng wherof, the capitayne triumpheth.
Triumphalia, orum, triumphyng, or a triumphe.
Triumphator, oris, m. g. he that triumpheth, or hath triumphed for vanquiſſhing his ennemies.
Triumphatus, a, um, of the whiche one hath triumphed.
Triumphatus, us, m. g. a triumphe.
Triumphatio, onis, idem.
Triumpho, aui, are, to triumphe, to reioyce exceedyngly.
Triumphauit Achæos, he hath triumphed for his victorie ouer the people Achæi.
Id vero ſereo triumphat, for that in deede he is exceedingly glaade, or he triumpheth or reioiceth greatly.
Triumphus, phi, m. ge. a triumphe, whiche is a ſolemne pompe or ceremonie, where a prince, a conſul, or principall capitayne of an armie, hath had victorie of the enemies of his countrey: and therfore is brought home and receiued with all reioyſyng and honour that maie be deuiſed of the people. the order and fourme therof ye maie ſee in Titus Liuius, Ipianus, and Julius Capitolinus.
Agere triumphum, to triumphe.
Qui tot habuit triumphos, whiche hath triumphed ſo often tymes.
Triumphum agere ex inimicis, to triumphe ouer their ennemies.
Deportare triumphum, to obteine ſuche victorie on his ennemies, that he maie triumphe for it.
Ducere aliquem in triumpho, to bryng one captiue or priſoner in his triumphe.
Triumuir, uiri, m. g. one of them that is in any office, wherof three be in lyke authoritee.
Triumuiralis, le, perteinynge to an office or authoritee, wherin be thre perſonnes.
Triumuiratus, us, m. g. an office in the publyke weale, wherin three men haue equal iuriſdicton together, it is alſo the office or authoritee of Triumuir.
Triuncis, ce, that is of thre vnce weight.
Triuncium, cij, n. g. a thynge that is thre ounces.
Trixago, ginis, f. g. an herbe called iermander, rede Camedris.
Trixialis, a wourme lyke to that whiche is called Locuſta, but he hath no wynges.
Troas, adis, the countrey about Troie, called the leſſe Phrygia.
Trochæus, chæi, m. ge. a foote in meter, whiche is of two ſillables, the firſte longe, the ſeconde ſhorte.

Trochilos, a littell birde, whiche is called kynge of birdes, a wrenne.

Trochiſcus, ci, m. g. a littell whele. also Trochiſci bee of phiſicians called littell balles, flat at bothe endes, whiche be made of ſundrie poudres.

Trochlea, æ, f. g. a poley, wherein the corde renneth, wherby any thynge is drawen vp. it is also the gin, whiche is called a crane.

Trochulus, li, m. g. a littell rope.

Trochum, chi, n. g. a certayne ſtoole or chaiere, whiche wyll be turned about.

Trochus, chi, m. g. a toppe, wherwith childzen doe playe. Trochus, is also a fiſſche, whiche cõtaineth of it ſelfe.

Trœzen, zenis, or Trœzene, nes, a citee in the parte of Greece called Peloponeſus. it is also a countrey in the leſſe Aſia, wherof the people are called Trœzenij.

Trœzenius, a, um, of Trœzen.

Troglodiтæ, people in the furtheſt parte of Affrica, beyonde Aethiopia, whiche dwell in caues, and doe eate the fleſſhe of serpentes.

Troglodites, a certaine birde, whiche by the deſcription of Aetius is a hedge ſparowe.

Troia, & citee of Troie. also the countrey wherin Troie ſtode. also a playe that childzen vſed on horſe bacbe.

Troianus, a, um, of Troie.

Troianus ludus, a playe of childzen on horſebacbe.

Troicus, a, um, of Troie.

Troilus, the ſonne of Priamus and Hecuba.

Troius, a, um, of Troie.

Troiugena, one borne at Troie.

Tropeus, pei, maſ. ge, he that doeth a thrwede turne, and renneth awaie when he hath done.

Trophæum, phæi, n. g. a marke or token of timber or ſtone, ſet vp in the place, where ennemies were vanquiſſhed or put to flyght, wherin was ſette the harnois or other ſpoyle taken from the enemies. ſometyme it is taken for victorie.

Trophonius, a notable maſon.

Tropice, figuratiuely.

Tropice, ces, a hynde of bull ruſſhes, the ſeede wherof wyll make one to ſleepe.

Tropicus, a, um, figuratiue.

Tropei uenti, wyndes, whiche doe come from the ſea.

Tropis, pis, fœ. ge. the bottum or the keele of a ſhippe.

Tropologia, æ, f. g. a figuratiue ſpeakyng.

Tropus, pi, m. g. a figure, a maner or faction, an alteracio of a woorde or ſentence from his proper ſignification.

Tros, troos, or trois, a troian. also the name of a kynge of Troians, ſonne of Erichthonius.

Troſſulum, a citee in Italie.

Troſſulus, in the olde tyme was taken for a horſeman, or a man of armes, it is also a perſone delicate, well fedde or fleſſhy.

Troximi, grapes to be eaten.

Trua, æ, f. g. idem quod Trulla.

Trucidatio, onis, a kyllyng, a ſleayng, murdrynge.

Trucido, aui, are, to ſlea cruelly, to murder.

Trucidatrix, ſhe that kylleth one.

Truculenter, cruelly.

Truculentia, æ, f. g. cruelte.

Truculentus, a, um, cruell in countinaunce or menacyng.

Truculus, li, m. g. a diminutiue of Truncus.

Trudes, dis, f. g. a certaine inſtrument.

Trudo, truſi, trudere, to thruſte out with violence.

Truella, a veſſell, wherwith water is throwen in to the ſinke.

Truentum, a citee in Italie called Tronto.

Trulla, læ, f. g. a trey, wherin meate is put when it is roſted or ſodden. it is also a piſpotte: of ſome it is taken for a great cuppe, brode and deepe, ſuche as great maſters were wonte to be.

Trulla, a truell, wherwith maſons, tylers, and pargettours doe laie morter.

Trulleum, a bolle, a baſon.

Trulliſſo, aui, are, to pargette.

Truncatio, onis, a cuttyng of a thynge ſhorter, a maihempng, a mangtyng.

Truncator, oris, m. g. & Truncatrix, icis, f. g. he or ſhe that cutteth in pieces.

Truncatus, a, um, cutte in pieces, maihemed, mangled, cutte of ſhorter.

Trunco, aui, are, to cutte ſhorter, to cut in pieces.

Truncus, ci, m. g. the ſtumpe or ſtocke of a tree, when the bowes are cutte awaie.

Truncus atq; ſtipes, a dull perſone, a bloche heade.

Truncus, a, um, cutte of, that is cutte ſhorte or mangled.

Truo, onis, a birde, called alſo Onacrotalus, and is lyke to a ſwanne.

Truſatilis, le, that whiche maie be tourned and driuen about with a mannes hande.

Truſatilis mola, a querne, ſuche as malte is ground in, or muſterde is made in, and is turned with ones hande, a hande mylle.

Trutina, næ, f. g. a weighyng balance. after Coſnutus, it is taken for the hole, where the tounge of the balance goeth.

Trutino, aui, are, to weigh or examine.

Trutinor, aris, ari, the deponent, idem.

Trux, trucis, om. g. cruell, horrible, dredefull.

Trux tactu herba, an herbe rough in handeling.

Vultu truci, with a fierce and cruell countinaunce.

Trychnon, a certayne herbe called alſo Strichnon, ſome take it for Alchaquengi.

Triginon, a hynde of bieche or inke.

Tringa, a littell birde not muche bigger then a threuſche, which liueth about moores and duſhes: ſome take it to be a water hen, or a more hen.

Tryo-

Tryphiodorus, a poete of Aegypte.
Tryphon, a grammarian of Alexandria.
Tryxalis, a vermin like a Locuste, lackynge wynges.

T, ANTE V.

TV, tui, vel tis, tibi, thou, of the, to the.
Tibi est domi, for you he is at home.
Tutemet, you your selfe.
Tuæsis, the ryuer of Twide in Scotlande.
Tuatim, after thy faction or custome.
Tuba, bæ, f. g. a trumpette.
Tuba ductilis, a brasen trumpette.
Tuber, beris, n. g. a puffe growing on the ground like a musherome or sponge. it is also generally euery swellyng in a mannes body or visage. it is also in a tree like to a great knot also a herbe called Cyclominos, and Panis porcinus.
Tuberculum, li, n. g. a littell swellyng or pusshe.
Tubero, a Romayne.
Tubero, aui, are, to swell.
Tuberum, a riuer in India.
Tubicen, cinis, m. g. a trumpettour.
Tubulatus, a, um, made holowe like a pype.
Tubulus, a littell pype, wherin water renneth from a spynge. it is also a reede.
Tuburcinor, aris, ari, to eate hastily.
Tubus, bi, m. g. a pype, wherin water is conueighed to a cundite. it was also a thyng, wherwith they made walles hotte before there were chimneies.
Tucetum, a meate made with chopped flesshe like to a gigot or alow.
Tucia, a virgin vestale, that boze water in a sieue.
Tucris, a ryuer of Spayne.
Tuder, a towne of Umbria.
Tudicula, læ, fœ. gen. a ladill, a printynge iron, wherwith vessell is marked. also a littell betyll, wherwith they beate olives.
Tudiculo, aui, are, to steere, to printe a marke.
Tuditantes, they that trauayle in businesse.
Tuditanus, the name of a man, so called because he had a head as bigge as a beetyll.
Tuditis, a malette.
Tudito, aui, are, to labour for auantage.
Tuesis, the ryuer called Twede, whiche diuideth Englande from Scotlande. it is also the towne called Berwike.
Tueor, tutus vel tuitus sum, tueri, to defende, to kepe, to preserue, to maintene.
Aedificia tueri, to kepe a house in reperacion.
Dignitatem alicuius tueri, to mayntayne ones honour.
Mediocritatem tueri, to kepe a meane.
Munus tuum tuere, cõtinue still in doyng your duetie and office.
Tugurium, rij, ne. ge. a house of husbandrie, a house in the countrey, a cotage.
Tuguriolum, li, n. g. a cotage.
Tuipse, thou thy selfe.

Tuitio, onis, a safe kepyng, a defence.
Tuliphurdum, a towne in Germanie called Lotzingen.
Tulit, he brought.
Tulisargium, Brunswike a citee in Almayne.
Tullij, some suppose thē to be ryuers, some flowynges of bloud out of sundry mēbres or iuncures.
Tullianum, a doungeon within the common prison of Rome.
Tullius, the name of a noble Romayne of excellent wisedome lernynge and eloquence, rede in Cicero.
Tullius Hostilius, the thyrde kynge of Rome.
Tum, than: when it goeth before Cum, or Tum, it signifieth as well, on the one syde.
Tum autem, for Et, also for Præterea.
Tum autem hoc timet, and more ouer, or furthermore she feareth this to.
Tum ver . for Deinde, then after, and furthermor . nd more ouer.
Tum demum nd um denig, finallie, then at length and not afore.
Tumba, bæ, f. g. a holow place in the grounde, a sepulcher.
Tumens, entis, swellyng, risyng.
Tumefacio, fec , facere, to make to swell.
Tumeo, tumei, tumere, to swell, to be puffed vp, to waxe proude.
Tumesco, scere, to swell, to rise, to be puffed vp, to waxe proude or stately.
Tumidus, a, um, swollen, puffed vp.
Tumulosus, a, um, full of hilles or knappes.
Tumor, oris, m. g. swelling, puffing vp, rising.
Tumulo, aui, are, to make the grounde holow, to burie.
Tumulor, aris, ari, to be buried.
Tumultuarie, in haste, without muche aduisement.
Tumultuarius, a, um, that is doone without aduisement or in haste, that is doone sodaynly or with muche feare.
Tumultuarij milites, men of warre, whiche in the tyme of a sodaine rebellion, or other sodaine daungier, were taken without any musters or other election.
Opus tumultuarium, a woorke done or ruffeled vp in haste.
Tumultuatio, onis, a troublynge or businesse, a ruffelynge or sturrynge in a sodaine feare.
Tumultuo, aui, are, to make rumour, to make a ruffelynge and businesse, to trouble.
Tumultuor, aris, ari, the Deponent, idem.
Tumultuose, troublously, or without studie, with businesse or ruffelyng, in haste.
Tumultuosus, a, um, troublous or makynge rumour, full of businesse sterynge or ruffelynge, he that maketh businesse and trouble, that stereth the people to sedition.
Nuntius tumultuosus, tydynges that causeth businesse and sterynge.
Somnia tumultuosa, troublous dreames.

Tumul-

Tumultus, tus, m. g. a rumour, a commocion of people, ſedicion, inſurrection, tumultte, trouble, buſineſſe, ſterynge, ruffelynge, that riſeth of ſome ſodayne and great feare.

Tumulus, li, m. g. a litteli hill or barowe. ſometyme a tumbe or ſepulchre.

Tunc, than.

Tunc temporis, at that tyme.

Tundo, tutudi, tundere, to ſmyte, to beate or beate, as in a morter, to thumpe, to knocke.

Tundere aures alicuius, id eſt, obtundere.

Tundere eandem incudem aſsidue, to labour cõtinually with great diligẽce about one thyng.

Tunetum, a citee in Affrica, called now Tunice.

Tungo, gere, olde writers vſed for Noſco, noſcere, to knowe.

Tunica, cæ, a kynde of Gilouters.

Tunica, cæ, f. g. a iackette, a coate: ſometyme a ſherte or petie cote, alſo a womans kyrtell or gowne.

Tunica pallio propior, my iackette is nerer thẽ my gowne, a prouerbe applied where we wyll ſignifie that all frendes are not to be lyke eſtimed or made of.

Tunica moleſta, a kynde of puniſſhement.

Tunicæ oculorum, the eie liddes.

Tunica arboris, the rynde or backe of a tree.

Tunicatus, a, um, that weareth a iackette or coate.

Tunici, an herbe, whiche ſome doce ſuppoſe to be that, whiche bringeth foorth Gilofers.

Tunico, aui, are, to put on a iackette or coate.

Tunicula, læ, f. g. a ſerken or litteli iackette.

Tuor, tueris, tutum vel tuitum, tui, and tueri, to beholde: all be it that woorde is not in vſe.

Turarius, a ſtrete in Rome.

Turba, bæ, f. ge. a multitude or aſſembly of people. alſo trouble, debate, buſineſſe, ruffelynge.

Quæ illæc turba eſt? numnam ego perij? what great trouble or adoce is there? am not I vndoone for euer?

Propter eam'hæc turba atq; abitio euẽnit, for hir ſake is all this trouble or diſſencion.

Ingens turba, a great rable or route.

Rareſcit turba, the multitude wareth leſſe.

Turbamentum, ti, ne. g. a diſturbynge or trouſbyng.

Turbate, with trouble or buſineſſe.

Turbatio, onis, f. g. trouble.

Turbator, oris, m. g. one that troubleth, a trouſbler.

Turbatus, a, um, troubled, ſtered, moued.

Turbatum eſt, impersonale.

Neſcio quid profecto abſente nobis turbatum eſt domi, there hath I wot not what trouſble chanced at home in myne abſence.

Turbaſis, ſterche.

Turbella, læ, f. g. a litteli trouble or buſineſſe.

Turbide, troublouſely.

Turbidus, a, um, troublous, not clere.

Aqua turbida, water that is troubled and foule

Turbidũ cælum, foule ſtormy weather, cloudy or weather.

Tempus turbidum & tranquillum, contrarie.

Turbinatio, onis, the facion of a thyng brode aboue and ſmall beneth.

Turbinatus, a, um, rounde and ſharpe like a top, brode aboue and ſmall beneth.

Turbineus, a, um, of a ſtorme or bluſterynge wynde.

Turbino, aui, are, to make ſharpe at the ende.

Turbiſtum, is a thing mixt with the licour, wherewith woulle is died, whiche maketh the die to ſynke into the woulle, whereby the colour is made perfecte.

Turbit, a thinge muche vſed now a dates to purge fleume, and yet men be vncertayne what verp Turbit is. Ictuarius ſaieth, it is the roote of Pityuſa. Manardus affirmeth, that Turbit, wherof Meſue maketh mention, is the ſeconde kynde of Tithymalus, called of Dioſcorides Myrſinites: but that Turbit, wherof Serapio maketh mention, is thought of ſome men to be Tripolium, after the deſcription of Dioſcorides.

Turbo, aui, are, to trouble, to ſtere, to make vnquiete.

Turbo, binis, m. gen. a boyſtous wynde, whiche doeth blow downe trees and houſes, alſo a top, wherwith children doe playe. it is generally all thyng, whiche is rounde and brode aboue, and ſharpe beneth. alſo the violence of a greate ſtreame. ſometymes roundelles or wyndynges of ſerpentes. alſo a litteli veſſell, wherin they vſed to ſende plummes and quinces one to an other in the feaſtes called Saturnalia: by tranſlation, that whiche diſturbeth or troubleth.

Turbulente, and Turbulenter, troublouſly, with trouble and ſterynge.

Non turbulente pati, to ſuffre patiently.

Turbulentus, a, um, troublous, angrie, full of contention, full of trouble and ſedicion.

Conciones turbulentæ, aſſembles full of trouble and ſedition.

Turbulento, aui, are, to trouble, to diſturbe.

Turcæ, people called Turkes, whiche inhabited the countrey lopynge to the ſea Laſpium, & the hill Caucaſus, ſome of them were accompted amonge the people of Scythia, of whom Põponius Mela maketh mention: whiche about. 725. peres paſſed, wandrynge about as vacabunde robbers, waſted and deſtroied diuers contries: but afterwarde by the valiant proweſſe of chriſtian princes, in the tyme of Godfray de Boloigne, and after, their puiſſance was abated. But afterwarde in the yere of our lorde. 1300. one Othomanus, the tenth from Solymanus, whiche nowe is the great tyran of the Turkes, a plough mans ſonne, valiant and ſubtile of witte, gatherynge a great armie of vacabundes, wanne a great countrey in Aſia the leſſe: and ſo ſucceſſiuely euery one ſens hath increaſed ſed their dominion: hauyng nowe vnder their ſubiectiõ, all Aſia the leſſe, Syria, Media, Meſopotamia, Aegypt, Grecia, Illiria, euerithe of theſe conteynyng many great and famous ropalmes: beſydes Hungarie, the ile of the Rhodes, and many other iles ſometyme chriſtened. They dooe nowe call Turchia propꝛely that, which was named Aſia minor: and ſome dooe name it Natolia.

Turde, a citee in Italie, called now Tudertum.

Turdetania, a countrey now called Granado.

Turditani, and Turduli, people of that coũtrey.

Turdulus, li, a diminutiue of Turdus.

Turdus, di, m. g. a kynde of birdes, of the which Ariſtotle ſaieth, that there be thꝛe ſoꝛtes: one is of the greatneſſe of a Pie, and is called in greke Ixiboron, oꝛ Ixiophagon, as it were an eater of miſſelden, which wee call a thꝛuſch. An other is leſſe, and is in greke called Trichas, a thꝛoſſell, oꝛ mauis. The thirde is very littell, and in Greke is called Tyla, as Itheneus writeth a wingethꝛuſch. Plinius ſaieth, that Turdus is in ſommer ſomewhat redde, and in wynter waxeth blache: alſo that in ſommer his neche is of a diuers colour, in wynter of one colour: and that he maketh his neſte with clate on the toppe of a tree. ſome ſuppoſe it to be the birde, which is called an oufell oꝛ blache birde. Turdus is alſo a fiſſhe, called in greke Cichle, liuyng among ſtones & rockes, and is not a foote long, and hath iiii. fynnes, beſydes the hyndermoſte fynne: and is in figure like to a tenche, in colour ruſſette, and hath on his bealie ſpottes of purple and white.

☞ Turdus cacat ſibi malum, he hath made a rod foꝛ his owne taile: a pꝛouerbe applied to hym that is cauſe of his owne euill.

Tureus, a, um, lyke Thureus.

Turgeo, turſi, gẽre, to be ſwollen, to ſwell vp, to burgen, alſo to ſwell foꝛ anger.

Turgere alicui, to bee angrie and moued with one.

Turgeſco, ſcere, to ſwell oꝛ riſe vp, to burgen.

Turgidulus, la, lum, ſomewhat ſwollen oꝛ boined out, ſomewhat inflate oꝛ puffed vp.

Turgidus, a, um, ſwollen, puffed vp, riſen, inflate, bigge, ſtroutyng out.

Turia, idem quod Duria.

Turiaſſo, a citee in Spayne.

Turicremus, lyke Thuricremus.

Turio, onis, fœ. g. the tendzell oꝛ ponge bzanche of a tree.

Turma, mæ, f. g. a companie of ſouldiours, conſteynyng. 32. hoꝛſe men, a troupe: and their capitayne is called Decurio.

Turmalis, le, of the ſame troupe oꝛ bande.

Turmatim, in oꝛder of battaile, by companies oꝛ bandes.

Turnus, the name of a capitaine ſlaine by Eneas.

Turones, people in Fraunce by the riuer Leir.

Turonica, Tours in Fraunce.

Turpiculus, a, um, ſomewhat filthy, diſhoneſt oꝛ vncleane, ſomewhat ill fauoured

Turpificatus, a, um, made filthy oꝛ vncleane.

Turpis, pe, foule, diſhoneſt, cruell. alſo great. Fuga turpis, a diſhoneſt flight.

Turpe caput, a foule great head.

Turpiter, ſhamefully, diſhoneſtly, filthily, villanouſly.

Turpitudo, dinis, f. ge. diſhoneſtie, villanie, deformitee, ill fauouredneſſe ſometyme rebuke.

Turpo, aui, are, to defile, diſhoneſt, oꝛ bꝛyng out of good faction.

Turricula, læ, f. g. a littell toure. alſo a bore, out of the whiche dice are thꝛowen.

Turris, ris, fœ. gen. a toure, oꝛ any thyng made like to it.

Turris biſſonis, a citee of Sardinia, now called Sardos.

Turrifer, and Turriger, ra, rum, that beareth a toure, as an elephant.

Turritus, a, um, highe: alſo toured, oꝛ full of toures.

Elephanti turriti, elephantes bearyng toures on their backes.

Turſio, onis, a certaine fiſſhe like a delphin.

Turulis, a riuer of Spayne.

Turtur, turis, m. and ſomtime f. g. a birde called a turtill. it is alſo a fiſſhe called Trigon.

Turunda, dæ, form. gen. a pellette of bꝛeadde oꝛ paſte, wherwith capons oꝛ other foules are crãmed: after ſome it is a cake vſed in ſacrifice. alſo a tent of linte, which ſurgions dooe put into a wounde.

Tus, turis, n. ge. frankyncenſe. it is alſo writen with h, as Thus.

Tuſcania, a towne of Tuſcia.

Tuſcia, a countrey in Italie, wherin be the citees of Florence, Sene, Luca, and Piſe.

Tuſci, people of Tuſcane.

Tuſculanenſis, ſe, of Tuſculum.

Tuſculum, a littell piece of frankyncenſe. alſo a citee by Rome ſette on an hill.

Tuſculanus, a, um, of that citee.

Tuſculanum, was the territoꝛie about Tuſculum, where Cicero, Varro, and diuers other noble men dwelled.

Tuſculus, a, um, of Tuſculum.

Tuſcus, a, um, of the countrey of Tuſcia.

Tuſcus, a ſtrete in Rome.

Tuſſedo, dinis, f. g. the cough.

Tuſsicula, læ, f. g. a littell cough.

Tuſsilago, ginis, f. ge. an herbe, whiche putteth awaie the cough. ſome men ſuppoſe it to be coltes foote oꝛ hoꝛſe hoffe, oꝛ fole fote, called of the apothecaries Vngula caballina, it hath leaues like iuie, but ſomewhat biggar, with many coꝛners, the vppeꝛ paꝛte of the leafe greene, the nether whitiſſhe, the ſtalke an handfull hygh, and beareth a pale floure.

Tuſsio, ſiui, ſire, to cough.

Tuſsis, ſis, f. g. the cough.

Tutamen, minis, and Tutamentum, ti, n. gen. a defence, a safegarde.

Tutanus, was supposed to bee a god, whiche had the custodie of men.

Tute, thou thy selfe.

Tute tibi imperes, dooe you gouerne or rule your selfe.

Tutè, aduerbium, safely, without daunger or perill.

Tutela, læ, fœ. ge. the wardshippe or custody of infantes, a safe kepyng, a defendyng, a fence or hedge about a grounde.

Factus suæ tutelæ pupillus dicitur, whan he is no more vnder the tuition of a creansour or gardian.

Tutelaris, re, pertepnyng to a creansour or gardian.

Tutelaris diuus, the saincte whom we dooe take for our speciall aduocate to god.

Tutelarius, idem quòd ædilis, one that hath the custody of the temples or common houses.

Tutia, is called of the greekes Πόφολιξ, the thicker parte therof is Spodium.

Tutilina, a goddesse, vnder whose custodie was corne in barnes and rikes.

Tutissimè, most surely.

Tutius, more sure.

Tutò, without perill or punishement.

Tutò, aui, are, to defende.

Tutor, taris, tari, to defende, to maintayne, to kepe safe.

Tutor, oris, m. gen. a gardian, he that hath the warde of an infant, a creansour.

Tutorius, a, um, pertepnyng to a gardian.

Tutulus, a top of the heare wounden with a purple lace on the crowne of a womans head, whiche was onely worne of hir that was wife to the great priest at Rome, called Flamen Dialis.

Tutus, a, um, sure, safe, defended from perill, out of daunger.

Tutus à calore, defended from the daunger of the heate.

Ad omnes ictus tutus, that can not be hurte with any stroke.

Locus tutus, a sure place, where one needeth to feare no daunger.

Tuus, a, um, thyne.

Tuum est, it is your parte, duitie, or office.

Tuo arbitratu, after your owne fantasie and pleasure.

Tetigine tui quicquam? didde I touche any thyng that is youres?

Tui studiosus, that loueth you well.

Tui charitas, the loue that I beare towarde you.

De tuis vnus, one of your friendes.

Pro amicitia tua, for the loue and friendeshyp that I owe you.

TYana, a citee of Cappadocia.

Tyanæus, a, um, of that citee.

Tyber, bris, a great riuer by Rome.

Tyberinis, nidis, patronymicum fœmin. of Tyber.

Tyberinus, a, um, of Tyber.

Tyberinus, the god of the riuer Tyber.

Tyberius, the name of an emperour of Rome.

Tybur, ris, n. g. a citee by Rome.

Tyburinus, a, um, of the citee Tybur.

Tyburs, burtis, om. ge. and hic & hæc Tyburtis, & hoc Tyburte, of Tybur.

Tyca, a nymphe.

Tyche, ches, a citee in Sicilie.

Tychius, a mans name in Homere.

Tydeus, Bissyl. the father of Diomedes the noble capitaine, whiche wounded Venus & Mars at the battaile of Troie.

Tydides, the sonne or nepheu of Tydeus.

Tyle, called also Thule, an ile within one daies iourney of the frosen sea.

Tylus, a wourme, whiche lieth vnder stones and tiles, that haue lien longe on the grounde, and is somewhat blacke and scaled, and hath many legges: whiche beyng touched, closeth hym selfe rounde as a peasc, and is most commonly called a chelelippe.

Tymber, a mans name. also a riuer.

Tymbra, a great fielde in the countrey of Troie, through whiche the riuer of Tymber renneth into the riuer of Scamander.

Tymbus, bi, a tumbe or monument.

Tymœtes, one of the sonnes of kyng Priamus.

Tymolus, idem quod Tmolus.

Tympanicus, a, um, he that is diseased with a tympanie.

Tympanista, æ, m. g. he that playeth on a drumslade or tymbrell.

Tympanistria, æ, f. ge. a woman that playeth on a tymbrell.

Tympanites, a kinde of dropsie, wherin the bealy swelleth great, wherof wynde is the chiefe occasion, a tympanie.

Tympanizo, aui, are, to play on a tymbrell, labour or drumslade.

Tympanotriba, idem quod Tympanista.

Tympanum, ni, neu. g. a tymbrell, a tabbour or drumslade. Seruius calleth it a couered chariot or carte: other suppose it to be the strake of a carte wheele: I thynke it maie be taken for the corse of a chariot or horse litter, made with barres or bourdes ioygned, whiche is not muche from the opinion of Seruius.

Tympanum, is also a great wheele, wherin men dwe goe to drawe vp thynges of great weyght. it is also a platter, which serueth for meate. also an ingin to draw water with.

Tymphei, people in Etholia, which is in Grecia.

Tyndareus, a, um, of Tyndarus.

Tyndaridæ, Castor and Pollux.

Tyndaris, daridis, the daughter or neece of Tyndarus.

datus. Tyndaris was also a citee of Sicilie.

Tyndarus, the father of the fayre Helene, for whom Troie was destroied, and also of Castor and Pollux.

Typha, groweth in fennes, with a longe & smothe stalke, hauyng on the top a floure, which fleeth away like the floure of a thistill.

Typha cærealis, is a kynde of corne, like to ourrie, by Theophrastus description: and I suppose it is that, whiche we call rie.

Typhis, a carpenter, whiche first founde the waie to gouerne a shippe.

Typhoeus, trissylla. a great giant, the sonne of Titan. Typhon, idem. also a great puissant wynde, a whirle wynde.

Typhoeus, and Typhonius, a, um, of Typhoeus.

Tephonæ, be certaine impressions in the aire, like globes of fyre or dartes.

Typhus, hauteneſſe of mynde, pryde, arrogancie.

Typus, pi, m. g. a figure, an exemple, or forme, a likeneſſe or a shadow of a thyng.

Tyra, a riuer nere Ister.

Tyrambe, a citee of Sarmatia.

Tyrannicè, cruellp, tyrannouſelp.

Tyrannicida, dæ, m. g. he that sleeth a tyrante.

Tyrannicidium, the hyllyng of a tyrante.

Tyrannicus, a, um, of a tyrante.

Tyrannis, nidis, fœ. g. a cruell or violent rule or gouernaunce for a pryuate commoditee, and not for a publike weale, tyrannie.

Tyrannion, a learned mã in the time of Pompei.

Tyrannoctanus, ni, masc. gene. he that hylleth a tyrante.

Tyrannus, the name of a sophister.

Tyrannus, ni, m. ge. a tyrante, also a birde called of some a npa murder.

Tyras, a riuer of Sarmatia.

Tyrianthina, a garment of purple colour.

Tyrianthinus color, purple colour.

Tyres, a citee of Scythia.

Tyridates, a kyng of Armenie.

Tyrinthia, a citee by Argos, where Hercules was nourished.

Tyrinthius, a, um, of Tyrinthia.

Tyrius, a, um, of the ile called Tyrus, also violet or purple colour.

Vestes tyriæ, garmentes of purple colour.

Tyro, onis, a ponge souldiour, a man of armes. also he that first entreth into the experience of any arte, science, or exercise.

Tyro vsu forensi, one that is newly exercised in pleadyng.

Tyro ac rudis in re aliqua, one that is but a ponge begynner and yet ignorant in a thyng.

Tyrocinium, nij, neu. ge. the first exercise in any thyng.

Ponere tyrocinia, to be first exercised.

Deponere rudimenta tyrocinij, idem.

Tyrocinio ætatis lapsus, by reasone of his youth, or for ignorauncc, lacke of experience, or knowlage.

Tyrocinium nauium the fyrste tyme that one maketh any viage on the sea.

Tyrocinium oratorum, the fyrste exercise of ponge oratours being admitted to pleade in the common place.

Facere tyrocinium, to bee firste exercised or trayned.

Tyrocinium animi, simplicitee, lacke of perfecte vnderstandyng, or good iudgement.

Tyro, a mans name, by whom Tullie dyd lerne so muche store.

Tyros, a citee in Phœnicia, also an yle where the colour purple was first founde.

Tyrotarichus, tarichi, m. g. a sauce made with chese.

Tyrrheni, the people of Tuscane.

Tyrrhenus, a, um, of or by Tuscane.

Tyrrhus, the sheepardes name in whose house Lauinia was brought a bedde.

Tyrsis, the circle without the walles of a towne, wherin men may walke for their solace.

Tyrteus, a greeke poete.

Tyrunculus, i, m. g. a verie ponge souldiour or ponge lerner.

Tyrus, a citee by the mountayne Libanus.

Tysias, æ, he that firste inuented Rhetorike.

Tytigias, the name of a notable theefe and robber, whiche therby grew ryche.

V ANTE A

VACANS, ANTIS, that is at leysure, that hath nothynge to doe.

Vacat, it serueth to no purpose, it is superfluouse: also it signifieth, I am at good leysure, or without busines. sometyme it signifieth to care or force.

Et cui esse dicerto vacat? and who careth to be well spoken or eloquent?

Vacatio, onis, f. g. vacation or tyme whan a man is out of his cõmon busineſſe, ceassyng, leysure, exemption, immunitee.

Vacatio militiæ, truce.

Vacatio adolescentiæ, excusacion of youth.

Legis vacatio, dispensacion of the law.

Dare vacationem militiæ, to geue vp warre for a space, to make truce.

Omnium munerum vacatio, the beynge without any administracion, gouernaunce, office or charge.

Vacatio rerum gestarum, immunitee from labour and busineſſe that one hath deserued for the good seruice he hath dooen to the common weale.

Habere vacationem, to cease or bee vacante from labour, to be without busineſſe.

Dare vacationem rerum omnium, to exempte or discharge from all maner busineſſe.

Vſi vacatione, to vſe his priuilege of exemption.

Vacanter, at good leyſure, with leiſure enough, as though he had nothynge to doo.

Vacanter hoc etiam cumulauit & inaniter, he added to this in vayne, and to no purpoſe.

Vacca, æ, f. ge. a cowe, alſo a citee in Numedia. alſo a ryuer in Portugall.

Vaccei, a people of Spayne.

Vaccinus, a, um, of a cowe.

Vaccus, a capitaine of the people called Fundani.

Vacerra, æ, m. gen. a madde perſon without wit. alſo a perclose or railes made of tymber, within the whiche ſome thynge is cloſed. alſo a ſtake or poſte, wherunto horſes are tied in a ſtable.

Vacillans, antis, om. g. wauerynge, waggynge, mouyng, vnconſtant.

Vacillantes literæ, letters written crokedly, or out of order, ſome hygher and ſome lougher, as where ones hand trembleth for weakeneſſe.

Vacillans teſtis, a witneſſe whiche vnconſtantly doeth varie in repoſte and depoſicion.

Vacillatio, onis, f. g. a waggynge or wauerynge, an inconſtant meuynge, lewſeneſſe, inconſtancie, waggynge nowe to one parte, nowe to an other.

Vacillo, aui, are, to moue inconſtantly, to wagge or wauer, to bee vnſtable or vnſure, to be vnconſtant, to be lewſe.

Vacillare ex vino, to haue dzunke ſo muche wyne, that he ropleth or ſtaggreth.

Vacillant claui, the naples be lewſe, or dooe wagge.

Vacillare alternis tibiis, to weale with our legges, ſettynge nowe the one before, nowe the other.

Tota domus ſuperior vacat, all the vpper part of the houſe is voyde, and hath nothynge in it.

Tellus vacillat ſub pedibus, the grounde moueth or trembleth vnder vs.

Vacinia, æ, a certaine tree.

Vacinium, ij, n. ge. a floure, whiche is alſo called Hyacinthus, & hath longe leaues, a rounde roote, a ſtalke of a ſpanne longe and more, hauynge on it many purple floures, wherwith in ſome places they doe die purpull.

Vaco, aui, are, to applie witte and ſtudie, to be at leyſure, to attende and geue his mynde or diligence to a thynge.

Vaco ſapiētiæ, I applie my ſtudie to haue wiſe dome.

Vaco rei diuinæ, I applie my witte to goddes ſeruice: alſo to be emptie or voyde.

Fac vacent ædes, cauſe the houſe to be voyded.

Vacat occupatione, he is without occupacion, he is idle, he hath nothynge to doe. ſomtyme it ſignifieth to be ſuperfluous or vnprofitable.

Quantum temporis vacabit ab officio publico, durynge the tyme that I ſhall be at leyſure, as longe as I ſhall haue leyſure.

Nullum tempus ei vacabat a cogitando, he neuer ceaſed to thynke, he was alwaies muſynge or thynkynge on the mattier.

Vacare ab omni adminiſtratione rerum, to medle with nothynge.

Vacabam culpa, I was nothynge giltie.

Si vacat, yf you be at leyſure, if ye haue nothing to doe.

A metu vacare, to be out of feare.

Populo vacare, to take no hede or regarde what the people ſaieth.

Vacat mihi eſſe diſerto, I haue ſo little to doe that I haue good leyſure to ſhewe myne eloquence, or to ſhew how eloquently I can ſpeake in the mattier.

Philoſophiæ vacare, to ſtudie philoſophie.

Corpori vacare, id eſt, curare corpus, to cheriſhe the body.

Vacare poſtulationibus, to heare and diſpatche ſuttes and requeſtes.

Sermoni alicuius vacare, to herken to ones wooydes, or what he ſaieth.

Vacant agri, the fieldes bringe forthe nothing, or be not huſbanded or occupied.

Cum a ſcribendo vacaret, whan he was at leiſure and not let with wrytyng.

Nullum eſt tempus quo iuſticia vacare debet, there is no tyme wherin iuſtice ſhoulde not be miniſtred and exerciſed.

Vacare omni vento, to haue no wynde at all.

Vacare animo, not to thynke or muſe in his mynde of any thynge.

Vacabat lamentis mors eius, his death was not bewailed.

Vacorium, a citee in Mozie called Villacum.

Vacuefacio, feci, facere, to emptie or make voide.

Vacuo, aui, are, idem.

Vacuitas, atis, f. g. emptineſſe, voideneſſe.

Vacuna, a goddeſſe, vnto whom houſebandmen after haruеſt was clene dooen, did ſacrifice, as to the goddeſſe of quietneſſe after labour.

Vacuus, a, um, voyde, emptie, or without a thyng.

Vacuæ aures. Date mihi vacuas aures dum eloquor, geue your eares onely to me whyle I ſpeake, or here nothynge elſe.

Vacuus animus, a mynde without care or ſolicitude.

Animo vacuo, at leyſure.

Vacuus equs, a ſpare horſe that hath no man on hym.

Vacuus a periculo, out of daunger.

Si es animo vacuo, yf ye bee not let with ſome earneſt cogitation or buſineſſe, if ye bee at leyſure.

Vacuus a re aliqua, deliuered of any thyng.

Vacuos dies habere, not to be leat with any occupation or buſineſſe.

Gladius vagina vacuus, a naked ſwoorde.

Hora nulla vacua a furto, there is no houre voide wherin he doeth not cõmit ſome robbery.

Lectus vacuus, an emptie bedde.

Locus

Locus vacuus à turba, a place where is no compañe of people.
Prædia vacua, fermes and manours voyde, that no man is in poſſeſſion of.
Vacuum tempus ne quod dem mihi laboris, that I maie not ſuffre my ſelf to haue any time vacant or voyde of labour.
Vacuum ab omni moleſtia eſſe, to be cleane without all trouble or griefe.
Nulla pars Galliæ ab exercitu vacua, there is no coaſt of France, that hath not an armie in it.
Vacuum à defenſoribus oppidum, a towne without a garriſon of men to defende it.
Animi vacuus, fearefull, timorous.
Vacui ab omni ſumptu, that be not contributorie to any thyng.
Timore vacuus, without feare.
Viriam vacuus, feble, without ſtrength.
Vacuus ad narrandum aliquid, at leyſure to ſhew or tell a thyng.
Vadens, entis, om. g. goyng.
Vadimonis lacus, a certaine poole, wherin be Ilandes that ſwymme and moue with the water.
Vadimonium, ij, n. g. a promyſe or bonde to appeare at a date appoynted.
Vadimonio obſtrictus, let to baple or mainprize, whan a man is bounde to appeare at a date aſſigned by a iuſtice.
Vadimonium obire, to appeare at a date aſſigned.
Vadimonium deſerere, to make defaut at the date and not to appeare.
Vadimonium miſſum facere, to diſcharge recognisaunce or ſuretie that were bounden.
Vadimonium differre, to geue a longer date of appearance.
Vadimonium promittere, to promyſe or binde hym ſelfe to appeare at a date appoynted.
Ad vadimonium venire, to appeare at the date appoincted.
Vadimonium conſtituere, to appoinct a date of appearance.
Vadis, & vas vadis, m. gen. he that vndertaketh for an other, a ſuretie for ones appearance.
Vades deſerere, not to appeare at the date appoynted, ie ſo to leaue the ſureties in daunger.
Dare vades, to put in ſureties.
Vadium, ij, idem quod Vadimonium.
Vado, vaſi, ere, to goe, to goe forth.
Vado, aui, are, to wade, to wade ouer.
Flumen facile vadari poteſt, the riuer maie bee eaſily waded throughe.
Vador, aris, ari, Verbum commune, to bynde him ſelfe to appeare in iudgement, or to bynde an other to appeare.
Vadoſus, a, um, full of fourdes or ſhalow places, that one maie wade ouer.
Vadum, i, neu. g. a fourde or ſhalowe place in a water, where men and beaſtes maie go ouer, it is ſometyme taken for the ſea.

Res eſt in vado, the thyng is well, or the matter is in ſuretie, or out of danger.
Tentare vadum, prouerbially, to aduenture or aſſaie a thyng.
Væ, an interiection, wherwith we doe turſe.
Væ miſero mihi, wo be to me wretched felow that I am.
Væneo, væniui, nire, lowe Veneo.
Væſanus, a, um, lowe Veſanus.
Vafellus, he that is ſomewhat craftie.
Vafer, fra, frum, ſubtyle, craftie, ſlie, wily.
Vaframentum, ſubtilitie or crafte, ſlineſſe.
Vafre, craftily, deceitfully, wilily.
Vagabundus, a, um, that wandreth about.
Vagans, antis, wanderyng.
Vagatio, onis, f. g. a wanderyng.
Vagationes militum, whan ſouldiours wander about or ſtraie abrode from their campe or gariſon.
Vagè, abrode, wanderyng here and there, nowe to one parte, now to an other.
Vageni, a people dwellyng amonge the mountaines, called Alpes.
Vagina, æ, a ſheth or a ſcabbarde, a keuerynge.
Vagina frumenti, the huſe that corne ſheteth out of.
Vaginula, æ, f. g. a little ſheeth or ſcabbarde.
Vagio, giui, ire, to crie as a childe.
Vagito, aui, are, the frequentatiue of Vagio.
Vagitus, us, m. g. the cryng of a childe.
Vago, aui, are, idem quod Vagor.
Vagor, aris, ari, to wander, to ſtraie abrode, to goe from coaſt to coaſt.
Vagatur animus, the mynde wandreth &c.
Vagor, oris, m. ge. idem quod Vagitus.
Vagus, a, um, wanderyng and abydyng in no place.
Vaga iuuentus, that reſteth in no place.
Nomen herbæ vagum, the name of an herbe that is vncertaine, or wherof be diuers opinions.
Errans & vaga ſententia, an vnconſtant or wauerynge opinion.
Vah, an interiection, wherin we wonder at a thyng, alſo of reioyſyng, alſo of ſcornyng.
Vaha, an interiection of reioyſyng or laughing.
Vaiedabber, an Hebrue worde, whiche in latine is Numeri, one of the fiue bokes of Moyſes.
Valaſca, a queene of the Boemes, whiche conſpired with certaine other women, to haue driuen out the men, and to haue had a gouernaunce of women lyke the Amazons.
Valde, verie muche, greatly.
Quicquid vult, valdè vult, what ſo euer he willeth, he willeth it earneſtly.
Valde recuſat, he dooeth greatly refuſe.
Valde grauiter, verie greuouſely.
Tam valde, ſo greatly.
Nihil eſt tam valdè vulgare, nothynge is ſo common.
Valdè quam paucos habet, he hath verie few.

Valdius,

Valdius, the comparatiue, farre moze.
Valens, entis, om. g. puiſſant, whole, ſtronge, in good helth, that can doe muche.
Valentius ad omnia, of moze force, ſtrengthe and vertue.
Cum valentiore pugnare, to fyght with one that is ſtronger then hym ſelfe.
Valentes cibi, meates that nouriſſhe muche.
Adiumentum valentiſsimum, a ſure helpe of great efficacie and ſtrength.
Poſtulatio valentior, a requeſt moze lyke to obteyne.
Argumenta valentia, argumentes of moze force.
Valenter, puiſſantly, ſtrongly, mightily, with force.
Valentia, the firſt name of Rome, alſo a citee in Spayne called Valence.
Valentia, æ, fœ. gen. puiſſaunce, power, might, ſtrength, habilitee.
Valentulus, a, um, ſomwhat ſtronge.
Valeo, valui, lère, to be able, to be whole, to be in helth, to be of authoritee, alſo to be wooꝛth, to be ſtronge oꝛ puiſſant, to make doe, oꝛ be of force oꝛ power.
Neq; ſum tam imperita, vt quid amor valeat neſciam, I am not ſuche a foole, but I knowe what loue maie doe, oꝛ of what force loue is.
Male valeo, I fare ill, I am ill at eaſe.
Valere ab oculis, to be whole of the diſeaſe of the eies.
Valere à pecunia, to haue money enoughe.
Non tantum valet, he is not of ſuche puiſſance oꝛ power.
Valuit authoritas, his authoꝛitee was great.
Valet amicis, he hath many friendes.
Corpore valere, to be ſtronge, to be in helth.
Curiu valere, to renne well.
Valere gratia apud ſenatum, to be in fauour oꝛ credite with the ſenatours.
Valere opibus & potentia, to be riche and puiſſant.
Valere ſtomacho, to haue a good ſtomache.
Valere viribus, to haue muche ſtrength, to be ſtronge.
Valere apud aliquem, to be muche with one.
Valet in id, it is good therefoꝛe, oꝛ foꝛ that purpoſe.
Longum vale, fare well foꝛ euer and a daie.
Valere iuſsi, I bade hym farewell and toke my leaue of hym.
Valet ſeſtertius vicenis, it is wooꝛth. xx. penſe.
Valere à morbo, to be recouered from ſyckeneſſe.
Valeat, farewell he, I care not foꝛ hym.
Imo habeat, valeat, viuat cum illa, well leat him wedde hir, I care not foꝛ him, muche good doe it hym with hir: oꝛ leat hym haue hir, god be with hym, leat hym make merie with hir.
Si deus talis eſt, vt nulla gratia, nulla hominum charitate teneatur, valeat, if god be ſuche one, that he hath neyther fauoure noꝛ loue to mankynde, I care not foꝛ hym.

Valeant qui inter nos diſſidium volunt, they that wyll haue vs at variaunce, lette theim get theim hence, oꝛ god bee with theim.
Ne valeam, I praie god I neuer be in helth, I praie god I die.
Rei augendæ parum valet, it is of ſmall force to augment the matter.
Valet authoritas illius apud plebem, his authoritee maie doe muche with the people.
Valet apud eum veritas, he ſetteth muche by the trueth, oꝛ greatly eſteemeth the trueth.
Si quid in arte vales, if you can dooe any thyng in your ſcience oꝛ feate.
Valet hæc res in cauſis, this thing is of force in defendyng oꝛ pleadyng cauſes.
Valet vt lex, it is euen of as muche force as a law.
Valet, ſometyme foꝛ ſignificat.
Vale, farewell, god be with you, god keepe you in helth.
Eodem valet, it is good and holſome foꝛ the ſame thyng.
Valeria, a towne in Spayne, the people wherof be called Valerienſes.
Valeria, the ſiſter of Meſſala, wyfe to a noble mã called Seruius, who being dead, whan ſhe was aſked, why ſhe didde not marie againe, ſhe aunſwered, that Seruius hir houſebande was ſtyll aliue with hir. it is alſo a countrey by Hungarie, now called Styria.
Valeriana, an herbe, called Valerian, rede ig Phu.
Valerius, a mans name.
Valeſco, ſcere, idem quod Valeo.
Valeſius, foꝛ Valerius.
Valetudinarius, a, um, now and than ſicke, often tymes ſicke, ſickely.
Valetudinarius medicus, a phyſicion that cureth ſicke men.
Valetudinarium, a place where men doe lie whan they be ſicke.
Valetudo, dinis, f. ge. ſometyme ſignifieth ſickeneſſe, ſometyme helth.
Valetudini operam dare, & ſeruire, to haue regarde to his helthe, to cheryſſhe hym ſelfe.
Longa & pertinax valetudo, a long and continuall ſickeneſſe.
Amittere valetudinem, to fall ſicke.
Quodam valetudinis genere tentari, to be attached with a certaine ſickeneſſe.
Infirmitas valetudinis, ſickeneſſe.
Incommodum valetudinis, idem.
Commodioris valetudinis factus, recouered to helth, waxed whole againe.
Valetudo mala, incommoda, infirma, ſickeneſſe.
Tenui valetudine homo, a ſickely perſon.
Conſiſtari iniqua valetudine, to bee ſoꝛe ſicke.

It in melius valetudo, he begynneth to recouer, he wareth better and better.
Ferre valetudinem, to suffre sickenesse.
Graueſcebat valetudo Auguſti, Auguſtus was red sickely.
Valgium, an instrument to make flowres smoothe.
Valgulatio, a question in rebuke of one.
Valguſtus, a crooked staffe.
Valgus, a, um, that hath the legges bowed inwarde narowe at the knees, and the feete outwarde a sunder.
Validè, valiantly, myghtily, puissantly.
Validè cupere, to desyre a thyng greatly.
Validiſſimè fauere alicui, to fauour one verye ernestly, to beare one very great fauour.
Validius cocta beta, beetes more throughly sodden.
Validus, a, um, valiaunt, myghtie, puissaunt, stronge.
Validus facundia, that is very eloquent, that can doe muche with his eloquence.
Validus ex morbo, stronge and well recouered after his sickenesse.
Opes validæ, id eſt, magnæ, great riches.
Te aduenisse ſaluum atq; validum, that you be come safe in good helth and stronge.
Vrbs valida muris, a citee strongly walled.
Validior, validius, more mightie.
Vallaris, re, pertaynyng to a trenche in a fielde.
Vallaris corona, a garlande geuen to hym, whiche first entred into the trenche of his enemies campe.
Vallecula, or vallicula, læ, f. g. a little valey.
Valleſcit, olde writers vsed for perierit, he is lost or perished.
Valles, lis, or Vallis, lis, f. g. a valey or dale.
Valli, are pales made sharpe aboue.
Vallo, aui, are, to incloſe, to fortifie, to make a trenche about, to strengthen, to make a fence to fortifie.
Vallonia, was called the goddesse of Malets.
Vallum, li, neu. gene. and sometyme Vallus, li, maſc. gen. a trenche, whiche is made in a fielde to defende an host, within the whiche pauilions are pight.
Vallus, li, m. ge. a stake or post, wherunto vines are bounde.
Valor, oris, m. g. value or price.
Valuæ, arum, f. g. plu. tantum, doores or gates, whiche be shutte on two partes.
Valuulus, li, m. g. the codde of a beane or peaſe, or other lyke thing: or rather the holownesse of a beane or peaſe codde, wherin the beanes or peasen be.
Vanans, olde writers vsed for failens, deceyuyng.
Vandali, people of Vandalia.
Vandalia, a countrey in the north part of the worlde.
Vanè, vaynely, foolishely, lyngly.
Vaneſco, ſcere, to vanisshe, to be brought to naught, to come to naught.
In auras vaneſcere, to vanisshe awaie in the ayre.
Vangiones, people in Germanie of a citee, called woormes.
Vanidicus, a, um, a lier or teller of fooliſhe tales.
Vaniloquus, a, um, idem.
Vaniloquidorus, idem.
Vaniloquentia, æ, fœm. g. vayne speeche, vayne babiyng.
Vanitas, atis, fœ. ge. vanitee, lightnesse, leasing, folye, vnconstancie.
Vanitudo, dinis, f. g. idem.
Vanno, aui, are, to vanne corne.
Vannus, ni, f. g. a vanne or a great sieue, wherewith they wynnow corne.
Vanus, a, um, voyde or emptie. also fooliſhe, vayne, that deliteth in trifles, enuious, a maker of lies, that hath a pleasure to tell lies, that careth not what he doeth affirme, vnlykely and to no purpoſe.
Vana fides, false trust or beleefe.
Vanus ingenio, that beleeueth thinges quickely, lyght of beleefe.
Incœptum vanum, a vayne enterpryſe that commeth to none effecte.
Vapidus, a, um, that hath a great taste.
Vapidè ſe habere, to be sicke or in ill case.
Vapor, and sometyme Vapos, ôris, m. ge. a vapour or hot breath issuyng out of a thing: sometyme it is taken for heate.
Vaporarium, rii, n. g. a place made hotte to sit in in the wynter tyme, a stewe.
Vaporatio, onis, a castyng vp of vapours or hotte breath.
Vaporeoferus, a, um, makyng or steryng vp vapours.
Vapóro, aui, are, neutrally, to sende out vapours, to breath out: actiuely to heate or make warme a place, to perfume, also to make dyte, or to suche out vapours.
Vappa, pæ, f. g. wyne that hath lost the verdure. it is sometyme taken for a man, in whom is no witte or perfect reason.
Vapo, onis, a beast that fleeth.
Vapularis, re, that is beaten.
Vapulo, aui, are, to be beaten.
Varar, Dunbar in Scotlande.
Variabilis, le, variable.
Varduli, a people of Spayne.
Varians, antis, om. g. diuers, of diuers colours or fashons.
Varians cœlum, chaungeable weather, nowe faire, nowe foule.
Variatim, diuerſely, after diuers facions.
Varicula, a diminutiue of Varix
Vari, spottes in the face.
Varico, aui, are, or Varicor, aris, ari, to transgresse, to passe ouer a thyng negligently. also to goe crookedly with the feete bendyng inwarde and the knees farre a sunder.

Varicoſus, a, um, that hath the veynes ſwollen.
Varicus, an aduerbe, whiche ſignifieth ſtrydyng.
Varicus, a, um, that goeth with great ſtrides.
Variæ, for Pantheræ, beaſtes of diuers colours.
Varie, diuerſely, after dyuers facions or ſortes.
Varie valui, I was nowe well nowe ill: ſometyme ſicke, ſometyme in good helth.
Varie agere, to handle a matter nowe after one facion, nowe after an other.
Varie diſcernere, to geue dyuers ſentences of a thyng.
Variegatus, a, um, peincted or garniſhed with ſundrie colours.
Varietas, atis, f. ge. varietee, diuerſitee in thynges, diuerſitee in colours.
Vario, aui, are, to make dyuers, to chaunge, to varie, to ſquare, to diſagree
Otium variare labore, ſometyme to labour, ſometyme to be idell.
Variare voluptatem, to change the hynde of pleaſure.
Sententiam variauit timor, feare cauſed them to haue diuers opinions.
Variant græcorum exempla, the greeke exemples be diuers.
Variolæ, meaſils.
Varius, a fiſshe, called a troute.
Varius, a, um, diuers, vnlike, vnconſtant, variable, changeable, of dyuers colours or facions.
Varia fortuna, chaungeable fortune, nowe good nowe badde.
Varix, ricis, m. g. a diſeaſe, a veine ſwellyngfull of melancolie bloudde, either in the temples, healy, or legges.
Varolus, a certaine fyſshe.
Varro, onis, a noble Romain, of all other moſt excellently lerned.
Varus, a, um, that hath the legges crooked with the feete inwarde, that hath ſpottes in his face.
Varæ manus, crooked handes.
Varum brachium, a croobed arme.
Varus, ri, m. g. a ſpotte in the face.
Varus, a riuer, which diuideth the parte of Fraūce called Narbonenſis, from Italy. alſo it was the name of a poete.
Vas, vadis, m. ge. a ſurete, that vndertaketh for an other man. alſo a pledge.
Vas, vaſis, n. g. a veſſell.
Vaſa conclamare, to crie to truſſe vp cariage & baggage, as whan an armie doeth remoue.
Vaſarium, ri, neu. g. a cupbourde of plate. alſo that money that was geuen to magiſtrates, whan they wente forth into prouinces.
Vaſcones, people in the parte of Spayne, called Taraconenſis.
Vaſcularius, a pottar.
Vaſcularius, ri, m. g. a goldeſmithe, which maketh plate.
Vaſculum, li, n. g. a ſmall veſſell.
Vaſtamo, onis, f. g. a deſtroyng.
Vaſtator, oris, maſcu. gene. one that deſtroyeth or ſpoyleth.

Vaſtatus, a, um, deſtroyed, ſpoyled.
Vaſte, brode.
Vaſte diducere verba, to ſpeake brode.
Vaſterna, an horſe liter, or any thyng borne by two horſes.
Vaſtificus, a, um, that ſtroyeth and deſpoyleth.
Vaſtitas, atis, fem. ge. greatneſſe. alſo diſtruction, ſtroyng.
Vaſtities, ei, and Vaſtitudo, dinis, f. g. idem.
Vaſto, aui, are, to waſt or deſtroy.
Vaſtus, a, um, great beyonde meaſure, huge. ſometyme deſolate.
Vaſum, ſi, n. g. a veſſell.
Vates, tis, com. ge. a prophete, a poete.
Vateſcant, olde writers vſed for inhorreſcant.
Vateſco, ſcere, to be deſtroyed, to be dried vp, to be forſaken.
Vaticanus collis, an hill in Rome, where nowe is the churche of ſainct Peter.
Vaticinatio, onis, a ſouthſaying, a foretelling.
Vaticinator, oris, m. ge. a prophecier, a teller of thynges before they come.
Vaticinium, nij, n. ge. a prophecie, a coniecture, a foretelling.
Vaticinius, or Vaticinus, a, um, belonging to diuinours.
Vaticinor, aris, ari, to prophecie or tell what ſhal happen, to coniecte, to diuine.
Vatidicum, for Propheticum, that is ſpoken in a prophecie.
Vatinius, a Romaine, ſo greatly hated of the people, that therof grewe a prouerbe, Odium vatinianum.
Vatius, ti, m. g. idem quod valgus, he that hath croked legges outwarde.
Vatrax, acis, om. g. & Varicoſus, a, um, that hath ill legges from the knee downewarde.
Vaunia, a citee in Italie nere Venice, called commonly Lauino.

V, ANTE B.

VBer, vberior, vberrimus, fertile, fruitfull, fatte, plentifull, abundant. it is alſo writen Huber.
Vber, vberis, m. ge. a womans breaſt, an vdder.
Vide Huber.
Admouere vbera alicui, to geue one ſucke.
Vbera dare, to geue the dugge.
Vberitas, atis, fem. gen. fertilitee, fruitfulneſſe, abundance.
Vberrim, abundantly, plentifully.
Vbi, where, in what place. ſometyme when, after that.
Vbi te non inuenio, whan I coulde not finde you.
Hæc vbi filio nuntiata ſunt, after that theſe thynges were tolde my ſonne.
Vbi primum poterit, as ſoone as he can.
Vbiubi eſt, where ſo euer he be.

Vbi, for in quibus rebus. Huiuſmodi res ſempet comminiſcere, vbi me excarnifices, thou doeſt alwaies deuiſe and inuent ſuche thinges for me, to tourment or vexe me with all.
Vbiubi eſt gentium, where ſo euer he bee in the worlde.
Vbiubi erit inuenta, id eſt, ſtatim vt, incontinent, as ſoone as.
Vbi loci, in what place. alſo in what ſtate or condition.
Vbi terrarum eſſes, where ye were.
Vbinam gentium ſumus? in what countrey be we?
Vbiuis, in any place, in what place ye will.
Vbicunq; viſum, where ſo euer he thought good.
Vbicunq; factum eſt, improbe factum eſt, what place ſo euer it was dooen in. &c.
Vbii, people in Germanie, dwellyng in Colaine and the partes adioygnyng.
Vbiq;, in all places, euery where, in all.
Vbiq; gentium, terrarum, locorum, in all countreys, in all places of the worlde, euerie where.
Vbiq; loci, in euery place.
Vbilibet, where ye will.
Vbicunq;, in euery place.
Vbicubi, idem.
Vcalegon, a Troyans name.
Vcia, a citee in Spayne, ſome write it Vria.

V, ANTE D.

¶VDO, ONIS, a certayne garment.
Vdus, a, um, moyſte, wette.

V ANTE E

VE, a conſunction diſiunctiue, ſignifiyng aut. alſo it is put for vel or que.
Bis téue, twyſe or thryſe.
Néue in hoc, néue in alijs quæras, neither in this matter, nor in other thynges.
Vecordia, æ, ſ. g. madneſſe or trouble of mynde.
Vecors, dis, om. gene. madde, troubled in his mynde, out of his witte.
Vectabulum, li, n.g. wherin any thynge is caried, a waggon, a wayne.
Vectarius, a, um, that carieth.
Equus vectarius, a packe horſe.
Vectiarius, rij, m. gen. he that turneth the vyne preſſe or any ingin with barres.
Vectibilis, le, that is or maie be caried.
Vecticularius, a, ũ, that breaketh downe with leauers or barres, that vſeth leauers or barres.
Vecticularia vita, the ipſe of thē that with pyon barres breake through walles to robbe mens houſes.
Vecticulariam vitam viuere, to haue muche to daie and nothynge to morowe, ſodeynely riche, and as ſodeinely poore.

Vectigal, galis, n. g. a tribute, a pencion, a rent, a yerely reuenue.
Imponere vectigal, to ſet a pencion or tribute to be paied.
Pendere vectigal, to paie rent or tribute.
Exercere, and exigere vectigal, to take vp the common tributes and reuenewes.
Leuare agrum vectigali, to ſet a leſſe rent vpon a piece of grounde.
Vectigalis, le, that paieth tribute, pēcion or rent.
Vectigalis & immunis, contrarie.
Equi vectigales, horſes ſet out to hire.
Pecunia vectigalis, money that cometh of ones reuenewes.
Vectigales facere, to make tributarie.
Vectio, onis, a caryyng.
Vectis, is, m. g. a barre. alſo a leauer, wherwith thynges bee lifted or borne by men. it is alſo the name of an yle in England called the yle of Wight.
Vecto, aui, are, to carie. Vectito, aui, are, idem.
Vectones, people of Spayne.
Vector, oris, m. g. he that is caried. ſometyme he that carieth.
Vectorius, a, um, apte to carie.
Vectoria nauigia, hulkes or great ſhippes for cariage.
Vectura, ræ, ſ. g. cariage. alſo the hyre, or money geuen for cariage.
Facere vecturam, to bee a carier, to get his liuinge by caryyng or conueighyng by water or lande.
Vectus, a, um, caried, conueighed.
Vedra, the ryuer of Were in wales.
Vegeo, gui. gére, to be in helth.
Veges, getis, idem quod vegetus, a, um,
Veget, for Vegetat.
Vegetatio, onis, a comfortyng or making ſtronge.
Vegeti, people of Aſia.
Vegetius, a noble man that wrote of martiall diſcipline.
Vegeto, aui, are, to recreate, to quicken, to conſerue, to comfort, to geue ſtrength, to preſerue in helth.
Vegetus, a, um, whole, ſtronge, in helth, quicke, ſounde, luſtie.
Vegetus pulſus venarum, a ſtronge pulſe, beatyng vehemently.
Vegrandis, de, great & pli fourmed: after ſome, ſmall or litell.
Veha, æ, ſ. g. for via, a waie.
Veheare, olde wryters vſed for Vehere.
Vehemens, tis, om. g. vehement, great, vrgent, fierce, ſharpe.
Vehemens in vtramq; partem nimis es, thou arte to vehemente, to affectionate, or to hotte bothe in the one parte, and in the other.
Literæ vehementes, ſharpe and ernest letters.
Vehementia, æ, ſ. g. vehemencie, might.
Odoris vehementia, ſtrong ſauour.
Vehementer, vehemently, ſharpely, mightily, greatly.

Admirari vehementer, to meruayle greatly.
Id mihi vehementer dolet, for that I am very sorie.
Credere hoc mihi vehementer velim, I wyll in any wyse that you beleue me and truste me in this poynete.
Vehes, his, or Vehis, his, f. ge. a carte or wayne lode of any thynge, sometyme a wayne.
Vehes fœni, a lode of heie.
Vehes stercoris, a lode of dounge.
Vehia, in the olde Tuscan tounge was a carte.
Vehicularis, re, belongyng to a carte.
Vehicularis equus, a carte horse.
Vehicularius, ri, a carter.
Vehiculum, li, n. g. a generall name to all thynges, which serueth for cariage, a carte, a waine, a waggon or chariotte.
Veho, vexi, vehere, to carie by water, to carie on horse backe or in a carte.
Ventrem grauem vehere, to haue a great beastly, to be with childe.
Veia, a certaine sorcereſſe.
Veiatura, for Vectura, cariage.
Veiens, entis, of Veios.
Veientanus, a, um, of the citee Veios.
Veientes, people, with whome the Romaines had longe tyme warres.
Ven, the people of Veios.
Veios, a citee in Hetruria.
Veiouis, a god, whiche hadde no power to doo good, but onely harme.
Vel, or sometyme also, chiefely, namely, at the leaſt
Vel hoc quis non credat. &c. euen this thyng also, who woulde not thenke or beleue. &c.
Si nullo alio pacto, vel fœnore. &c. id eſt, saltem, at the leaſt wyse.
Vel maxime videtur sapientis, it doeth chiefely seme to be the parte or office of a wyse man.
Neruorum vel minimum, as litteli force or pithe as can be.
Velabrensis, se, belongynge to the place called Velabrum.
Velabrum, bri, neu. g. a place in Rome. it male bee also called a tente, or bouthe, whiche craftes men doe set vp, where they haue no houses, to be in stede of their shoppes.
Velamen, minis, and Velamentum, ti, n. g. a couerynge, any thynge that couereth.
Velaria, clothes, wherwith tentes are made. also the same tentes.
Velaris, re, belongyng to a veyle.
Velatura, a frayte.
Velatus, a, um, apparailed, couered, heled.
Capite velato, with the head couered.
Velanda corporis, the priuie partes of þ bodie.
Velauni, Velay in Fraunce.
Veles scurra, a common scoffer or iester.
Veles, velitis, m. g. a souldioure that weareth lyght harneys.
Velia, a fen in Italie in the countrey of Calabria.

Velates, people of Liguria.
Velina, a streete in Rome by the hyll called Mons Palatinus.
Velifer, ra, rum, that beareth a saple.
Velificatio, onis, f. g. a settyng or hoisyng vp of the saple.
Velifico, aui, are, or Velificor, aris, ari, to hoise vp the saples, and saile forth.
Velificus, a, um, that is doen with sailes.
Velificus cursus, a viage on the sea.
Velitaris, re, that belongeth to the souldyours in lyght harneys.
Velitaris pugna, battaple dooen by them that are lyghe harnesed, a skirmisshe.
Velitatim, by leepes or skippes.
Velitor, aris, ari, to striue, to skyrmisshe, to fight one against an other, to braull, to chyde, to contende one with an other in woordes.
Velitatio, onis, f. ge. skirmisshyng by leappyng in and out, braulyng, contencion in woordes.
Velitræ, arum, plu. a citee in Italie. xx. myles from Rome.
Veliuolus, a, um, that whiche goeth with a saile, or is occupied with sailes.
Veliuolantes naues, shippes vnder saple.
Vella, æ, f. g. olde writers vsed for Villa.
Vellaturam facere, to lyue by carryng from one towne to an other.
Vellicatim, by pluckes.
Vellicatus, us, m. g. a pluckyng.
Vellico, aui, are, to pinche, to plucke, sometyme to rebuke, to byte, to rent, to speake of, to carpe, to detracte.
Absentem vellicare, to speake yll of one that is absent.
Vello, velli, and vulsi, ere, to plucke vp, to pull a thynge.
Radicitus & cum radice vellere, to plucke vp by the roote.
Comam vellere, to pull one by the heare.
Vellere sepulchra, to pull downe the monumentes and tombes of other.
Vellocasses, a people of the countrey of Lions in Fraunce.
Vellus, leris, n. g. a fyse.
Velo, aui, are, to couer or hyde, to bynde, to apparaple. Caput velare, to couer the head.
Velocitas, atis, f. g. swiftenesse.
Velociter, swyftely.
Velox, ocis, om. g. swifte, quicke.
Velum, li, n. g. a saile, a curtayne or a veile.
Retrorsum vela dare, to change his purpose or hynde of lyfe.
Facere vela, and Dare vela, to hoyse vp and spreade the saples.
Obtendere velis rem aliquã, to couer, to hide.
Permittamus vela ventis, let vs venter or hasarde the mattier.
Velis equisq; with all diligence & endeuour.
Velis remisq; idem.
Contrahere vela, to strype saple.

Velut,

Velut, veluti, lyke, lyke as.
Vena, æ, f. g. a veyne.
Pulſus venarum, the pulſe or beatyng of the veynes or arteries.
Ferire & incidere venam, to lette bloudde.
Vena auri vel argenti, a veyne of golde or ſiluer in the earthe.
Venas cuiuſcunq; generis hominum tenere, to knowe the naturall diſpoſition and facion of all men.
Peioris venæ æuum, id eſt, ferreum ſeculum.
Venabulum, li, n. g. an huntyng ſtaffe, a weapon vſed in huntyng.
Venafrum, a citee of Campaine, where is great plentie of oliues.
Venafranus, a, um, of that citee.
Venalis, le, that is ſette to ſale, also couetous, diſhoneſt, that ſelleth hym ſelfe for money.
Venalis aſcriptor, one that is corrupted with money. Venales, ſeruantes ſet to be ſolde.
Venalitiarius, ij, m. g. he that ſelleth ſlaues.
Venalitium, ij, n. ge. a place where any thyng is ſolde, the ſelling it ſelfe, or the body that is ſolde.
Venalitius, ij, maſc. gene. he that ſelleth men or childzen.
Venalitius, a, um, ſet to be ſolde.
Venaria, an ile where in bee many veynes of mettall.
Venaticus, a, um, pertelnyng to huntyng.
Venaticus canis, an hounde.
Venatio, onis, an huntyng.
Venator, oris, m. g. an hunter.
Venatorius, a, um, idem quod Venaticus.
Culter venatorius, a wodde knife.
Venatrix, icis, f. g. a woman hunter.
Venatus, us, m. g. huntyng.
Vendax, acis, om. g. that gladly ſelleth.
Vendibilis, le, eaſie and redie to bee ſolde.
Vendicatio, onis, f. g. a claime.
Vendico, aui, are, to vendicate, to claime.
Vendicare à labore, to deliuer from labour.
Vendicare ſibi, to claime or calenge as his owne.
Venditarius, a, um, that is wont to ſell.
Venditatio, onis, auantyng, boaſtyng, crakyng, oſtentation.
Venditio, onis, a ſale, a ſellyng.
Vendito, aui, are, to ſell often, to haue to ſell, to ſet to ſale, to vaunt, to crake, to bragge.
Venditor, oris, m. g. a ſellar.
Vendo, vendidi, vendere, to ſell.
Male vendere, to ſell a thyng ill and nothyngc to is profyte.
Bene vendere, contrarie.
Qui Cæſaris beneficia vendebant, whiche toke bribes for ſuche pleaſures as Cæſar dyd ſhewe.
Magno vendere, to ſell deare, or at a greatte price.
Non pluris vendo, I ſell it no dearer.
Veneficium, ij, neu. gener. the arte or crafte of poyſonyng.
Veneficus, i, m. g. and Venefica, æ, fœm. g. he or ſhe that poyſoneth, or that vſeth ſozcerie or wytchecrafte.
Veneficus, a, um, venemous, that poyſoneth.
Venenariæ mulieres, womẽ that do ſell poyſons.
Venenarius, ij, m. gen. he that maketh or pzouideth poyſon.
Venenatus, a, um, poyſoned.
Venenifer, ra, rum, that beareth poyſon.
Veneno, aui, are, to poyſon.
Venenoſus, a, um, venemous, full of poyſon.
Venenum, ni, neu. ge. poyſon, it is the generall name of all that dooeth after the nature or colour of that thing, wherwith it is mixt ſomtime witchecrafte or ſozcerie, ſometyme colour.
Venenum deprehendere, to pzoue manifeſtly that one wolde haue poyſoned him.
Expugnare venenum, to ouercome poyſon.
Inficere veneno, to poyſon.
Facere malum venenum, to geue one poyſon.
Venenum alicui infundere, to put poyſon in ones dzynke.
Venenum alicui parare, to goe about to poyſon one.
Veneo, nĩui, and ſomtime, Venij, nire, to be ſold.
Venũm ire, to be ſolde.
Venum ibit, it ſhall be ſolde.
Dare venum, to be ſolde.
Venerabilis, le, wooꝛthy to be honoured, wooꝛthy reuerence, wooꝛthifull.
Venerabundus, a, um, that dooeth wooꝛſhippe any thyng.
Venerandus, a, um, to be wooꝛſhipped.
Veneranter, reuerently.
Veneratio, onis, f. ge. honour, reuerence, wooꝛſhippyng.
Venerator, oris, m. g. one that doeth reuerence or wooꝛſhippe.
Veneratus, a, um, humbly pzaied vnto. ſomtime reuerende.
Veneror, aris, ari, to reuerence, to wooꝛſhip.
Venereus, a, um, diſpoſed to letcherie. Venereus, is alſo a caſt at the dyce.
Veneris portus, a towne, in the mountains Pyrenei.
Venetiæ, arum, the citee of Venice.
Véneti, Manes in Britaine, alſo the people of Venice.
Véneus, a, um, of Venice. alſo the colour of lyght blew or blunket.
Venia, æ, f. g. pardon, forgeueneſſe, licence, leaue.
Tua venia, by your licence, by your leaue.
Cum bona venia audire, to heare one pacientiy.
Bona venia me audies, you ſhall not be diſpleaſed with that I ſhall ſaie.
Veniam petere, to aſke pardon or forgeueneſſe.
Veniam tranſfugiendi petiit, he deſyred licence to goe to the enemies campe.

Venia ſit dicto, I ſpeake it not to auaunt or boaſt my ſelfe, be you not diſpleaſed with that I ſaie.
Venialis, le, worthy pardon or forgeuenesſe.
Venibo, auncient writers vſed for Veniam.
Venio, veni, ire, to come, to ſpringe, to growe, to be brought or conueighed to a place by one, alſo to chaunce.
Venire in mentem, to come to remembrance.
Venit in mentem Platonis, I remembred Plato.
Venitur ad me, they come to me.
A Roma venire, to come from Rome.
Supplicem venire ad aliquem, to come to one and make lough curteſie, intreatyng hym for ſomewhat.
Illic veniunt felicius vuæ, grapes or viues doe growe and proue better.
Arbores quædam veniunt ſua ſponte, ſome trees grow naturally without plantyng.
Eius quæ ex Africa venit, of that whiche cometh, or that is brought out of Affrike.
Dum tibi literæ meæ veniunt, vntyll my letters come or be brought vnto you.
Poſt iſtuc veniam, after I will ſpeake of this matter.
Ad Archeſilam veniamus, let vs come nowe to Archeſila, or let vs ſpeake now of Archeſila.
Alicui venire aduorſum, to mete with one.
Ad extrema ventum foret, it had come to the laſt ponct.
Quæ ſub aſpectum veniunt, whiche maie be ſeene.
In amicitiam alicuius venire, to become ones friende, to make aliance with one.
Ad aures alicuius venire, to bee hearde, to come to ones eares or hearing.
Quicquid in buccam venerit, whatſoeuer cometh in the mynde without meditacion.
Venire ad internecionem, to be ſlayne and not one left alyue.
Venire ad nomen, to come whan one is called by his name.
Ad pactionem venire, to be accorded to come to ſome ponct or agreement.
Ad vadimonium non venire, not to appeare at the date appoynted.
In eum caſum veneram, I was come to that ponct or ſtate.
In certamen iudiciumq; veniunt, they ſue and contende in the law.
Venire in colloquium, to come to ſpeeche or communication with one.
Si in Cæſaris complexum veniret, if he might be loued of Ceſar, if he might come in Ceſars fauour.
In confeſſum venit ea res, that thyng is manifeſtly knowne and confeſſed.
In conſpectum venire, to preſent hym ſelfe to one that he maie ſee hym.
Ad me in conſpectum venire prohibui, I forbade hym to come in my ſight.
In conſuetudinem venire, to come in vſe and cuſtome.
In contemptionem venire, to be diſpiſed, to come in contempt.
Hera in crimen venier, my maiſtres ſhall be blamed, or it ſhall be laied to her charge.
In deditionem venit, he yelded.
In deliberationem venire, to be conſulted of.
In deſyderium venire dicitur res aliqua, to be deſired or wyſhed for.
Venire in diſceptationem, to come in controuerſie, to be reaſoned or diſputed of.
In diſcrimẽ exiſtimationis venire, to be in daũger to loſe his good renowme or eſtimacion.
In diſquiſitionem venire, to bee ſerched or ſought for, to be reaſoned or diſputed of.
In dubium venire, to come in daunger.
Venire in diuitias, to become riche.
In dubium venire de ciuitate, to be in doubte whether he be a citizyn or no.
Venire in fidem alicuius, to yelde hym ſelfe to ones mercie and aſſuraunce.
Ad finem venit, it is at an ende.
Feliciter hæc res tibi venit, this thyng chaunceth to the happily.
Sub iactum telorum venire, to come in daunger of ſhotte.
Qua de cauſa huic inimicus venias, why ye be his enemie.
Ex gratia in inuidiam venit, he is fallen out of fauour into hatred and diſpleaſure of men.
Venire in locum ſummum, to come to great eſtate and honour.
In manus hominum libros venire dicimus.
In notitiam venire, to be knowne.
In numerum oratorum venire, to be reckened or compted an orator.
In oblitionem venire, to be forgotten.
Quum in otium veneritis, whan we ſhall ones haue leiſure.
In partem impenſæ venire, to paie parte of that whiche is laied foorth.
Eo venére mores, the fations or maners of men came to that ponct.
In ora virũm venire, to become famous and renowmed.
In poſſeſsionem reipublicæ venire, To haue the rule, or to be maiſter of the whole common weale.
Quo proprius ſpem venerant, the more hope that they had.
In prouerbium venire, to bee taken vp, and vſed for a prouerbe.
Nonnullam in ſpem veneram, I hadde a good hope.
In ſuſpitionem venire, to be ſuſpected.
In tutelam venire, to be vnder the tuition or protection of one.
In vitam venire, to be borne.
In vnitatem venire, to bee vnited, to become one.

one.
Mœror ſummus venit ad eum morte fratris, he is in great ſorow or heauineſſe, for the death of his brother.
Vinum tædio venit ei, he hateth wyne.
Si viſus veniat, if it come to paſſe, yf any nede be.
Venila, for vnda, water in a ryuer.
Venor, aris, ari, to hunt, to get a thinge craftily, to ſeke or pralle after a thynge.
Venari laudem, to goe about to get praiſe.
Piſces venari, to fiſſhe.
Venari apros in mari, prouerbially, to loſe ones labour.
De verbis meis venator, hearken diligently to my woordes: or watche or marke well what I ſaie.
Venoſus, a, um, full of veines, or that hath great veynes.
Venta, an hauen in Englande called Briſtowe.
Ventanea, thynges that ſeme to bee dangerous, and yet therin is no danger.
Venter, tris, m. g. the bealy or panche, ſometyme it is taken for the ſtomache.
Ventrem facere dicitur paries, whan it is olde, and bendeth ouer the foundacion redy to fall.
Ventrem perferre, to be with chylde.
Siſtere ventrem, to ſtoppe the laſke.
Mollire ventrem, to loſe the bealy.
Vacare ventri, to geue hym ſelfe to bealy chere.
Crepat mihi venter, my bealy crowleth.
Ventilabrum, i, n. g. a fanne or ſladell, wherwith wynde is made.
Ventilatio, onis, a fannyng or winnowyng.
Ventilator, oris, m. g. a fanner or wynower of corne.
Ventilator naturæ, he that ſercheth with great ſtudie the cauſes of thynges naturall.
Ventilatores, iuglars or craftie deceiuers.
Ventilo, aui, are, to gather wynde, to fanne or wynow corne, to tourne out of one hande into an other.
Frumentum ventilare, to wynowe corne.
Vinum ventilare, to let the wyne take ayre.
Ventito, aui, are, to come often.
Vento, aui, are, to come often.
Ventoſitas, atis, f. g. wyndineſſe.
Ventoſus, a, um, wyndy, alſo lyght.
Gloria ventoſa, vayne glorie.
Homo ventoſiſsimus, a vayne and lyght perſon, that boaſteth hym ſelfe outragiouſly.
Ventoſa regio, a wyndy countrey.
Ventoſus follis, a bellowes that bloweth winde.
Ventulus, li, m. g. a littell wynde.
Ventulum ſic facito, fanne or make wynde on this faſhion.
Ventus, ti, m. g. wynde.
Ventus operam dat, the wynde bloweth a good roole.
Vento viuere, to liue by the wynde, a prouerbe, applied to them, whiche haue no ſubſtance to lyue on.
Reti ventos venatur, he endeuoureth to catche an hare with a tabor.
Ventus popularis, vayne glorie, prayſe of the people.
Ventus popularem querere in rem aliqua, to ſeeke for the praiſe of the people in doynge a thynge.
Ocyor uentis, ſwifter then the wyndes.
Secundus ventus, a proſperous wynde.
Abire in ventos, to vaniſſhe awaie.
Bacchans ventus, a rageyng wynde.
Committere vitam ventis, to ſayle on the ſea, to take the ſea.
Concipere ventum, to gather wynde.
Naſcitur ventus, the wynde ryſeth.
Cum venti poſuere, whan the wynde was layed.
Folle premere ventos, to blowe wynde with the belowes.
Vita receſſit in ventos, he died.
Sæuit mare ventis, the ſea is troublous by reaſon of the great wynde.
Silnt venti, the wyndes be layed.
Secundante vento, with a proſperous wynde.
Spirabit ventus, the wynde wyll blowe.
Ventrale, lis, n. g. a ſtomacher, an apron, or other garment, that coureth the bealy.
Ventrioſus, ventricoſus, and Ventroſus, a, um, that hath a great bealy or panche.
Ventriculus, the ſtomache.
Venulus, the ambaſſadour that Turnus ſent to Diomedes.
Venum, is vſed for the ſuppine of Venio.
Venum ire, to be ſolde.
Venundo, venundedi, dare, to ſell.
Venundatio, onis, byeng and ſellyng.
Venus, veneris, called goddeſſe of loue: ſometyme lecherie. alſo carnall appetyte. alſo beautie, by whiche a man is ſtered to loue.
Veneres dicendi, eloquence or grace in writyng or ſpeakyng.
Venus, is ſometyme taken for a caſte at diſe.
Venuſia, a towne in Apulia.
Venuſtas, atis, f. g. beautie, properly of women: ſometyme a delectable pronunciacion of ſpeche, a grace and pleaſantneſſe in ſpeakyng.
Venuſtè, properly, pleſantly, amiably.
Venuſtulus, a, um, ſomewhat fayre.
Venuſtus, a, um, faire, delectable, pleaſant.
Venuſto, aui, are, to ornate or make beautifull.
Veprecula, læ, f. g. a littell bremble.
Vepres, pris, m. & f. g. a bryer.
Veprétum, ti, n. g. a place full of bryers.
Ver, veris, n. g. the ſpryng of the yere.
Primo vere, and Vere nouo, in the beginning of the ſpryng.
Veracitas, atis, f. g. truthe in ſpeeche.
Veratrum, tri, n. g. an herbe, called alſo Helleborus.
Verax, acis, om. g. that ſaieth trueth.

Verbalis, le, that deſcendeth of a verbe.
Verbaſcum, ci, neu. ge. an herbe, wherof be two kyndes: of whiche one is ſuppoſed to bee Wollin or longe wolle: the other is ſuppoſed to bee that, which is called primroſe. Some doe thinke it to be roſecampin.
Verbenaca, cæ, Veruin.
Verbena, næ, f. g. an herbe called Veruin: ſometyme Verbenæ are all leaues ſodainely plucked vp, to garniſche houſes or churches, or to make garlandes.
Verbenarius, was one of the ambaſadours, ſent from the Romains vnto theyr ennemies, which ware on his heade a garlande of Veruen.
Verbigero, aui, are, for Verba facere, to talke.
Verber, beris, m. g. a ſmall longe ſtiche or parde, a wanne to beate with.
Verbera, be ſometyme taken for ſtripes.
Caſtigare verberibus, to chaſtiſe, to beate.
Linguæ verbera, chydynges, ratyng wordes.
Verberalis, le, worthy to be beaten.
Verberatio, ônis, f. g. and Verberatus, us, m. g. a beatyng.
Verberatus, is taken ſometyme for a perſuaſion, mocion or ſterynge: as,
Tuo verberatu, by thy perſuaſion.
Verberatus, a, um, beaten, ſtriken, hurte.
Vineæ verberatæ grandine, vines beaten and hurte with hayle.
Verbereus, a, um, worthy to be beaten.
Verberito, aui, are, to beate often.
Verbero, aui, are, to beate, to puniſſhe, ſometyme to chyde.
Verberare cogitationis conuitio, to blame or rebuke one in his mynde.
Ora verberat manu, he daſcheth hym about the mouthe or face with his hande.
Verbero, ônis. m. ge. a perſon worthy puniſſhement, the reproche of all ſeruauntes.
Verboſé, an aduerbe ſignifiyng with many wordes, at large.
Verboſitas, atis, f. g. muche talkyng or ſpeaking.
Verboſus, a, um, full of wordes, that hath many wordes, a great iangler or talker.
Verboſius ad te ſcripſi, I wrate to you at lengthe or more largely.
Verbulum, li, n. g. a litteil worde.
Verbum, bi, n. g. a worde. alſo a whole ſentence or ſaiyng, a prouerbe.
Verba ad rem conferre, to doe as he ſaieth.
Verba mortuo facere, to ſpeake to a deade man, a prouerbe whan a man loſeth his labour.
Verba dare, to deceiue.
Verbi cauſa, as by exaumple.
Verbi gratia, idem.
Verba iſtæc ſunt, theſe are but wordes.
Verbis meis ſalutem dicito, ſalute hym in my name.
De excluſione verbum nullum, there is not one worde ſpoken of the ſhuttyng out.
Si verbo titubauerit, if he trippe or fayle in one worde.
Magnifica verba, royall and loftie wordes, braggyng wordes.
Abſit verbo inuidia, without diſdeygne be it ſpoken.
Cogere verba in pedes, to write verſes.
Conferre verba in pauca, to tell briefely or in fewe wordes.
Quid opus eſt verbis? What nedeth many wordes?
Exprimere de vel é verbo, to tranſlate worde for worde.
Perdere verba, to ſpeake in vayne.
Reddere verbum verbo, or verbum proverbo, to tranſlate worde for worde.
Eiſdem verbis reddere quod cogitauimus, to recite a thynge by the ſame wordes that we diſuſed in our myndes.
Vtinam iſtud verbum ex animo & vere dicerés, wolde god thou didſte ſpeake this thinge wyth thyne herte and vnfeignedly.
Quid iſtuc verbi eſt? what meane theſe wordes? what meaneth he by ſo ſaiyng?
Bona verba quæſo, ye woll not doe as ye ſaie I truſte: be good vnto vs I praie you: geue vs fayre wordes I beſeche you.
Vercellæ, a citee in Liguria, nigh to the mounteynes called Alpes.
Veré, truely, in deede.
Hoc ibi fit, vbi non vere viuitur, this happeneth amonge them that lyue not without diſſimulacion.
Verecundé, ſhamefaſtly.
Verecundia, æ, f. g. ſhamefaſtneſſe, baſhefulneſſe, demureneſſe, modeſtie.
A verecundia, hoc eſt, præ verecundia.
Verecundia in rogando, baſhefulneſſe in deſpeyng.
In verecundiam adducere, to make abaſched, or aſhamed, to put out of countinaunce.
Verecundor, aris, ari, to be aſhamed, to bee baſhefull or modeſt.
Verecundus, a, um, ſhamefaſt, demure, full of reuerence, baſhefull, modeſt.
Verba parum verecunda, wordes diſhoneſt and vncleanely.
Verecunda tranſlatio, a tranſlacion not to farre fette.
Veredarius, rij, m. ge. a meſſanger that rideth by poſte.
Veredus, di, m. g. a lyght horſe, a hunteyng nag, a ſwifte geldynge.
Verenda, orum, ne. ge. plu. places in a man and woman, whiche without ſhame maie not be named.
Verendus, a, um, to bee feared or dredde, to bee reuerenced.
Verens, entis, that feareth or dredeth.
Vereor, reris, reri, to feare as the chylde dooeth the father with loue: Timére, to feare as the ſlaue or bote dooeth his maiſter, without loue.

Vereor

Vereor dicere, I dare not tell.
Vereor abs te, I am afeerde of the, leste thou wilte dooe me some displeasure.
Quum huic veritus est optimæ adolescenti facere iniuriam, sens he hath taken remorse. &c.
Conspectum patris vereri, to bee afeerde to come in his fathers sight.
Vos mihi veremini, you be afeerde on my behalfe.
A quo supplicium verebatur, of whome he feared leste he shoulde be punished.
Vereri annonæ caritatem, to feare dearthe of corne.
Vereor vt placari possit, I feare that he can not be pleased or qualified.
Dies hic mihi vt sit satis ad agendum vereor, I feare this whole date will not bee enough for me to dispatche this matter in.
Veretrum, tri, n. g. a mans parde.
Vergiliæ, the seuen sterres, called also Pleiades.
Vergo, versi, or verxi, vergere, to decline or boowe downe, to bende towarde.
In meridiem vergit, it lieth towarde the south.
Ad imum vergere, to sinke to the bottum.
Vergente iam die, id est, inclinato, in the after noone whan it drewe towarde night.
Vergobretus, ti, a maiestrate amonge the people called Hedui in Fraunce.
Veridicus, a, um, that telleth trueth.
Verifico, aui, are, to verifie, as lawiers do saie, to auerre.
Veriloquium, quij, n. ge. the true interpretacion of a woorde.
Verimonia, æ, idem quod veritas, an olde woorde.
Verisimilis, le, like to be true.
Mihi quidem non sit verisimile, I thinke it not like to be true.
Verisimiliter, likely.
Veritanus ager, a fielde diuided amonge the people, so that euery man maie haue a portion.
Veritas, tatis, f. g. trouthe, veritee.
Ex veritate, accordyng to the the trueth.
Cultor veritatis, a maynteiner of the trueth.
Veriuerbium, a true tale.
Vermiculatim, an aduerbe, signifiyng in small pieces.
Vermiculatio, onis, f. g. a corrupcion with wormes, woorme eatynge or breeding of woormes in fruites or trees.
Vermiculus, li, m. g. a littell woorme.
Vermiculor, aris, ari, to bee full of vermine or woormes, to bee worme eaten: to make checker worke with small pieces coloured vpon tables, bourdes or pauementes.
Vermiculata opera, woorkes whiche are of small pieces of diuers colours, wherin are set out sundrie pictures, like as we see in spruse tables or counters.
Vermina, orum, n. ge. plu. prickynges in the bodie, that it semeth woormes were eatte a sundre,
Verminatio, onis, f. g. the disease of the woormes properly in cattell. also a disease in the heade, whan one thynketh his braine is gnawen with woormes. also the greeke or pepne in the bodie.
Vermino, aui, are, to haue woormes. also to be pained in the bealie.
Verminosus, a, um, full of woormes, or that wherin woormes are.
Vermis, is, m. g. a woorme, also it is a fische in the ryuer of Ganges, whiche is in lengthe. ix. cubites, and is blewe in colour, whiche hath suche strengthe, that whan Elyphantes come to the water to drinke, he will take one of theim by the nose, and plucke hym into hym.
Verna, æ, com. gen. a bonde man or bonde woman, borne in the house of the lorde, of his bondman or bondwoman.
Vernaculus, a, um, that is borne at home in ones owne house, all that taketh begynnynge in our owne countrey, as,
Vernacula lingua, the countrey language, the cõmon speeche, peculiar or proper to a countrey or house.
Vernaculi, be also men of vile maners and language, whiche vse to flatter, or to speake in rebuke.
Vernacula putritio, cuttynge of vynes in the springe tyme.
Vernaculæ volucres, birdes that bee in our owne countrey.
Vernaculus mos, the faction of our countrey or citee.
Vernalis, le, pertaynynge to the springe of the yere. also seruile.
Vernaliter, like a slaue or bondman.
Cœlum vernans, a pleasant and goodly aper.
Vernatio, onis, f. g. the olde skinne of an adder, it is sometyme taken for age.
Vernilis, le, seruile, saucie, malaperte.
Vernilitas, atis, f. g. flatterie, scoffynge.
Verniliter, lewdly, flatterynglye, scoffynglye.
Vernilitus, olde writers vsed for a flatterer.
Verno, aui, are, to springe as herbes dooe, also to synge as birdes doe.
Vernula, æ, f. g. a diminutiue of Verna.
Vernus, a, um, of the springe tyme, lustie, freshe as the springe tyme.
Vernum tempus, the springe tyme.
Vero, truely, verily, sometyme it doeth affirme that whiche foloweth, also but yet.
Vero, is moste commonly ioygned with these woordes, Neq, Nec, Tum, Age, Sane, Iam, enim, At, Quasi, Seu, Nunc.
Ain vero? indignantis, saiest thou so in deede?
Ego vero, a maner of answerynge, and signifieth Profecto, aut certe.
Ego vero ita facio, truly I doe euen so in deede.
Ego vero memini, in deede I do remembre it.
Est vero ita, it is euen so in deede.
Et illi ostendisti & vero etiam mihi, and to me also.

Iam

Iam vero & prouincias, yea and nowe alſo the prouinces.
Id vero pernegat, that he denieth plainely.
Ille vero, for imo vero, or ille etiam.
Illæ vero non modo loquuntur ſed. &c. they doe not onely ſpeake, but. ꝛc.
Sane vero, or ita vero, ironicè.
Vero, is alſo a riuer in Biſkay.
Vero, aui, are to ſaie trueth, to verifie.
Veromandui, Vermandoiſe in Fraunce.
Verona, a noble citee in Italie in the countrey called Marchia Tarviſina, not farre from the mountaines, where Catullius the poete, and Plinius were borne.
Verones, people dwellyng nygh to the ryuer of Vero.
Veronenſis, ſe, and Veronius, a, um, of Verona.
Verpa, Martiall vſeth for Mentula.
Verpus, i, m. g. he that hath no ſhinne. it is alſo the middle finger.
Verpi, be alſo iewes.
Verra, an alter at Rome, wherat they prayed that children ſhoulde not be wronge borne
Verrea, orum, n. g. plu. feaſtes ordeyned by Verres
Verres, a Romayne, whom Cicero accuſed.
Verres, ris, m. gen. an hogge vngelded, a tame boze.
Verricula, olde writers vſed for Articulus.
Verriculatus, a, um, made lyke a dragge nette.
Verriculum, li n. g. a nette called a dragge.
Verrinus, a, um, of a boze.
Verro, verri, and verſi, verrere, to drawe awaie, alſo to make cleane, to ſwepe awaie.
Verruca, æ, fœ. ge. an hillocke or knappe on an hill, alſo a wart, olde writers toke it for an high place.
Verrucaria, æ, f. g. wartwoꝛt.
Verrucoſus, a, um, one that hath wartes.
Verrucoſa loca, roughe places, full of hilſlockes.
Verrucula, læ, f. g. a littell warte, alſo an hilſlocke.
Verruncо, aui, are, to tourne or chaunge a thynge into better.
Verſatilia, thynges that are tourned or wounden one aboute an other, as two coꝛdes or two ſticks wounden togethеr. alſo pyllars made of the ſame facion.
Verſatilis, le, that turneth or that maie be turned.
Verſatilis mola, an hande myll.
Ingenium ad omne verſatile, a witte redy and prompt to be applied to all maner of thynges.
Verſatio, onis, a turnyng.
Verſatus, a, um, turned, ſtered.
Verſicolor, oris, om. gene. changeable, or that chaungeth colour. alſo of ſundrie colours.
Verſicolores maculæ, ſpottes of dyuers colours.
Verſicolorius, a, um, any thynge turned out of his naturall colour. alſo that is of dyuers colours mixt togethеr.

Verſiculus, i, m. g. a littell verſe, alſo a lyne.
Verſificatio, onis, a makynge of verſes.
Verſificator, oris, a verſifier.
Verſifico, aui, are, to make verſes.
Verſificus, a, um, that maketh verſes.
Verſipellis, le, that chaungeth his ſhinne often tymes, alſo a craftie felowe that wyll tourne as often as he liſteth.
Verſo, aui, are, to turne, to turne often, to deſlude, to trouble, to diſquiete, to ſtere as one ſtereth ſpeoure in a potte.
Verſat animum cupido regni, he ſtudieth, thinketh or deuiſeth how to be kynge, or he is verie ſolicitous or carefull to opteine the kingdome.
Animum muliebrem verſare in omnes partes, to tempte the womā by all maner of waies.
Authores verſare, to reade often good authoures.
Dolos verſare, to deuiſe howre to deceiue one.
Verſare in corde, to thynke, to imagine, to deuiſe or caſt in ones mynde.
Oues verſare, to paſture ſheepe.
Verſare diu, quid ferre recuſent, to thynke longe what they wyll refuſe or ſuſteyne.
Verſare teſtes, to exampne witneſſes in diuers maner of waies.
Quomodo me verſauiſti? how haſte thou deſluded me?
Animos militares verſabat, he allaied or pꝛoſured the ſouldioures myndes diuers waies.
Conſilia noua verſare pectore, to imagine or inuent in his mynde newe deuiſes.
Verſat ſe, querit quid agat, he tourneth hym ſelfe in and out. ꝛc.
Terram verſare, to labour the grounde.
Secum in animis verſare, to caſte or conſidre in his mynde.
Verba verſare, to conſydre and ſcanne the woꝛdes.
Pecunias non ex fide verſare, id eſt, non fideliter tractare.
Verſor, aris, ari, to haunte, to be oftentymes in a place, to be conuerſant, or occupied in a thynge or mattier.
Mihi ante oculos dies noctesq; verſaris, I thinke vpon pou daie and night, or me thinketh I ſee pou bothe daie and nyght.
Verſatur circa res omnes rhetorica, Rhetorike medleth with euery thynge.
In acie verſari, to be in battayle.
In diſcrimine verſari, to be in daingier.
In munere ſuo verſari, to bee buſie in his office.
In re aliqua verſari, to treate of ſome matter.
Inter manus verſari, to be often times handled.
Cuius in animo verſatur, in whoſe minde it is.
In artibus ingenuis verſari, to exercyſe hym ſelfe muche in the ſtudie of liberall ſciences.
In errore verſari, to be in an errour.
In errore verborum verſari, to erre and faile in woordes, abusyng one for an other.

Difficili in loco versor, it is an hard or difficile mattier that I am in hand with, or that I entreate of.
Nescis quantis in malis versor miser, you knowe not in howe great troubles I am sely poore creature.
In mente & cogitatione aliqua versari, to cast and reuolue thynges in his mynde.
In ore vulgi atq; in communibus prouerbiis versatur, all the people speake of it, and haue it in a prouerbe.
In quæstione aliqua versari, to entreate or speake of any question.
In suis summis versatur, he hath muche money of his owne, and oweth nothyng.
In timore versari, to be aferde.
Versoria, the nedle of a compasse vsed in a ship, to know the coastes.
Versoriam capere, to returne.
Versura, æ, f. g. a turnyng, it is also whan a mā borowerth of one to paie his debtes to an other.
Versuram facere, to borowe a greatter summe of one, to paie to an other a lesser.
Versura, is also the corne or corner of an house or walle wherat men dooe turne. it is also whan the hoxes or oxen doe tourne in a carte or ploughe.
Versuram soluere, to change creditours, as to borow of one to paie an other, some doe reade, Versura soluere, id est, Versura facta, æs alienum soluere.
Versus, a, um, of Verro, brussched, swepte, drawen.
Versus, a, um, of Verto, turned.
Versus, us, m. g. a verse. sometyme an order. also a longe, sometyme a lyne.
Facere & conficere versus, to make verses.
Versus remorum, an order of ores.
Versus arborum, a rewe of trees.
Versus, is also in lande, an hundreth foote euery waie.
Versus, a prepositiō, towarde.
Brundusium versus, towarde Brundise.
Versus, is sometyme ioyned with an other preposition: as, ad occidentem versus, towarde the weast.
Versus, is sometyme an aduerbe: as, Sursum versus, vpwarde,
Quoquo versus, euery waie.
Vtroq; versus, on bothe the sydes.
Vndiq; versus, on euery syde.
Versute, wyttily, subtily.
Versutia, æ, f. g. wilinesse.
Versutiloquus, a, um, a craftie speaker.
Versutus, a, um, mutable, variable, often turnyng, wily, craftie, quickely turned to lewdnesse, experte.
Vertagus, i, m. g. an hounde that wyll hunte by hym selfe, and bryng home his game.
Vertebra, æ, for. ge. or Vertibulum, li, neu. gen. a place or ioynete in the body, where the bones dooe not mete, but are knit together in suche wise with sinewes, that they maie turne the more lyghtly.
Vertebratus, a, um, made in forme of suche places or ioynetes.
Vertex, & Vortex, icis, m. ge. a whyrlewynde, also a whyrlepole in a water, the crowne or top of the head, the toppe of euery thyng.
A vertice ad calcem, from the top to the toe, from the hyghest to the lowest, from the begynnyng to the endyng.
Vertex arboris, the top of a tree.
Vertices, be also poles imagined in the firmament, also the hooke that doores hange vpon.
Vertibula, a spyne, called also Vrtica.
Vertibulum, idem quod Vertebra.
Verticilla, a kynde of flies.
Verticillatus, a, um, knit together as the ioyntes of the body be, apte to turne.
Verticillum, li, n. ge. or Verticillus, li, m. gen. a little wherue.
Verticosus, that turneth rounde lyke a whyrle wynde.
Verticulum, li, n. g. a wherue, whiche is a round thyng set on a spyndell to cause it to turne.
Vertiginosus, a, um, gyddie brained.
Vertigo, ginis, fœm. gener. a sickenesse of the head, wherin it semeth to a man, that he seeth thynges turnyng, a whyrlyng, a turnyng roūd, gyddinesse.
Vertigus, us, m. g. a whyrlyng about.
Vertius, a man of great strength.
Verto, ti, tere, to turne, to drawe, to translate or interprete out of one tongue into an other, to consyder, also absolutely to chaunce, to come to passe or effecte.
Vertere terga, to renne awaie, to flee in battayle.
Vertere solum, to goe from one countrey in to an other to dwell.
Vertere, for Versuram facere.
Vertere stultitiæ, to repute folye in a thyng.
Vertere vitio, to put the blame in one.
Quis erit vitio qui id non vertat tibi? who is it that will not blame the for that.
Agrum vertere, to tyll the grounde.
Bene tibi vertat, god spede you well.
Dij bene vertant, I praie god tourne it to good.
In crimen vertere, to blame a thyng.
In discrimine verti dicuntur res, whan they be in daunger.
In fugam vertere, to put to flyght.
In rem suam vertere, to turne it to his profit.
In religionem vertere, to be scrupulous.
Male vertit res pecuaria mihi, I am an ill marchant of cattell, or I am vnluchye in bryng of cattell.
Omnia vertere, id est, euertere, to tourne vp sette downe.

Ad

Ad luxuriam vertere vſum alicuius rei, to abuſe a thyng to volupteouſneſſe and pleaſure.
Si res melius vertiſſet, if the thynge had come better to paſſe.
In crimen vertere, quod gloriæ eſſe debet, to blame one for that he ought to be prayſed.
Ad ſe vertere partē alicuius rei, to take parte of the thyng to his owne vſe.
Spes ciuitatis in eo vertitur, all the hope that the citee hath, reſteth in this poynete.
In ſeſe facies alterius vertere, to diſguiſe him ſelfe lyke an other man.
Stylum in tabulis vertere, to cancell or ſtrike out that is written in his reckenyng booke or regeſter.
Vertere Platonem, Ariſtotelem. &c. to tranſlate. ꝛc.
Vertunt res malè, the thynges come ill to paſſe.
In pernitiem alicuius vertere dicitur res aliqua, whan it turneth to his great diſpleaſure.
In cōtumeliam ſuam vertere, quod alius geſſerit, to interprete a thyng that an other man hath doen to be in the diſpite of him.
In dorſum vertere, to turne on the backe, to late vpryght.
In lupos vertere homines, to tranſformme men into woulfes.
Vertere aliquid in iocum, to turne a thyng to a ieſte, to make a ſporte or game of it.
In inuidiam vertit ſe gloria, glorie and praiſe begynneth to turne into hatred and enuie.
Vnius poteſtate vertentur omnia, all thynges ſhall be ruled and ordered by one man.
In priuatum vertere pecuniam, to turne moneye to his owne proper vſe.
Tribus in rebus vertitur omnis virtus, all vertue conſiſteth or is moſt in thre thynges.
Iram in aliquem vertere, to tourne his diſpleaſure towarde one, to be angrie with one.
In voluntate Philippi id totum vertitur, all that mattier conſiſteth in the will or pleaſure of Philip.
In ſe oculos omnium vertere, to cauſe all men to looke on hym.
Quo me vertam neſcio, I can not tell whither to turne me.
Quóquo te verteris, whiche wate ſo euer ye turne you.
In eo res vertitur, the whole mattier conſiſteth in this poincte.
Vertere ſententiam retro, to change his opinion.
Salus mea in eo vertitur, my lyfe or ſafegarde conſiſteth in this poinct.
Vertorrige, a towne of Spayne.
Vertunnalia, the ſolemnitee of Vertumnus, which was kept in October.
Vertumnus, a god, ſuppoſed of the paynims to haue the gouernance of mens myndes, or after ſome of byeng and ſellyng.

Iniquo vertumno natus, he that knoweth not how to gouerne or rule him ſelfe.
Veru, n. gen. indeclinabile in ſingulari, in plurali, hæc verua, a ſpytte or broche. alſo a weapon lyke a brothe.
Veruactum, i, n. g. lande that hath lien ley, turned or falowed in the ſpringe tyme.
Veruat, for Circundat, it compaſſeth.
Veruculum, li, n. ge. a litteil broche, alſo an inſtrument of golde ſmithes, like a little broche.
Verueceus, lyke a weather.
Veruecinus, a, um, of a weather.
Veruex, ecis, m. g. a weather ſheepe.
Veruina, a longe darte or tauelyne.
Verulani, a people in Italie.
Verum, a coniunction, but yet.
Verum etiam, but alſo.
Verum enimuero, but yet truely.
Veruntamen, yet not withſtandyng.
Verus, a, um, true, ſubſtantiall, vncorrupted, good, iuſt, profitable.
Verum vis dicam: wyll ye that I ſhall tell you trueth?
Verum modo, ſo that it be true.
Verum, or Verum id eſt, it is true.
Color verus, a good naturall colour.
Nuptiæ veræ, true mariages, that be not feygned.
Verum? Irridentis interrogatio, is it true that ye ſaie?
Veri ſimilitudo, likelyhode of trueth.
Simile vero videbatur, it ſemed to be true.
Verutum, i, n. g. a caſtyng darte with a ſtringe.
Verutus, a, um, armed with dartes.
Veſania, æ, f. g. furie, wodneſſe, lacke of reaſon.
Veſanio, veſanis, nini, ire, to be in a furie, to be madde, to rage.
Vaſaniente vento, whan the wynde began to rage, or blow.
Veſanus, a, um, cruell, furiouſe, wood, madde out of his witte.
Veſcor, ſceris, ſci, to eate, to vſe, Actius vſeth it to ſee.
Veſci ex manu, to take meate out of ones hande.
Aura veſci, to lyue by the aier.
Vix ſunt veſcendo, men maie ſcantly abyde to eate them.
Tui oculi veſcuntur, id eſt, vident.
Veſcæ, browſſe, leaues whereon beaſtes be fed in wynter.
Veſculus, a, um, verie leane, ill kept
Veſcus, a, um, all thyng that maie be eaten, alſo little or leane.
Veſeuus, an hill by Naples, out of the whiche iſſueth alwaies fyre and ſmoke lyke Aetna.
Veſica, æ, f. g. a bladder.
Veſicaria, an herbe, whiche apothecaries doos call Ithakengie.
Veſicula, æ, f. g. a little bladder.
Veſpa, æ, f. g. a waſpe.

Veſpæ, thei whiche dooe burie dead corpſes.
Veſpacianus, the name of an emperour of Rome.
Veſper, ſperis, or Veſperus, i, m. g. and once in Vergile, f. g. the euenyng or euentyde, alſo the euenyng ſterre.
Primo veſpere, as ſoone as euenyng came.
Veſper, a, um, of the euenyng.
Veſpera, æ, f. g. idem quod Veſper.
Veſperaſcit, it wareth night.
Veſperi, or Veſperè, an aduerbe, ſignifiyng late, at the ende of the daie, in the euenyng.
Veſperies, a towne in Spayne.
Veſperalis, le, of or belongyng to the euenyng.
Veſperalis plaga, id eſt, occidentalis.
Veſperna, æ, f. g. olde writers vſed for Cœna, ſupper.
Veſpero, aui, are, to be euenyng.
Veſpertilio, onis, m. g. a reremouſe or backe.
Veſpertinis, in the ablatiue caſe, aduerbially, in the euenyng.
Veſpertinus, a, um, that whiche is dooen in the euenyng.
Veſperugo, inis, f. g. idem quod Veſper, the ſterre called alſo Venus.
Veſpices, places thicke of buſſhes.
Veſpilo, onis, m. g. he that carieth dead bodies to be buried.
Veſſones, Campayne in Fraunce.
Veſta, the mother of Saturnus, alſo his daughter, whiche for hir chaſtitee was honoured for a goddeſſe. ſometyme it is taken for pure fyre.
Veſtalis, le, pertetnyng to Veſta.
Veſtales, were virgins that miniſtred to Veſta, whiche were choſen betweene the age of. vi. and x. yeeres, and. xxx. yeres they remayned virgins, afterwarde it was leafull for theym to marie.
Veſter, a, um, yours.
Veſtiarium, ij, n. ge. a warderop or pꝛeſſe where garmentes bee laied. ſometyme it is taken for the garment ſelfe.
Veſtiarius, ij, m. ge. the yeoman of the robes, or he that hepeth the warderobe, alſo he that maketh or ſelleth garmentes.
Veſtiarius, a, um, belongyng to garmentes, or wherin garmentes are hepte.
Veſtibulum, li, n. g. a voyde place without the doꝛe, where men doe tarie whilſe they knocke, and vntyll the doꝛe be opened, a poꝛche.
Veſtibulum templi, the churche poꝛche.
Veſtibulum ſepulchri, the entrie into the ſepulchre.
Veſtibulum Siciliæ, id eſt, ingreſſus.
Veſtibulum artis ingredi, to begyn to learne any arte or ſcience.
Veſticeps, cipis, m. g. a yonge man, whiche beegynneth to haue a beарde.
Veſtigabundus, he that ſeketh muche.
Veſtigator, oris, m. g. he that ſeketh for a thyng, a hunter, one that traceth by the ſteppes.
Veſtigium, ij, n. ge. the pꝛinte of a mans foote in the grounde, a foote ſteppe, a trace or tracke. ſometyme the ſole of the foote. it is taken alſo for the ſigne or token of any thyng that is doen.
A veſtigio ad verticem, from the ſole of the foote to the crowne of the heade.
Veſtigium equi, an horſe ſhoe.
Veſtigium corporis, the pꝛinte where the boꝛdy hath lien.
Conſequi veſtigijs, to folowe one foote by foote.
Veſtigium facere in loco aliquo, to enter into, or to goe in a place.
Fallere veſtigium dicitur locus lubricus, to make ones foote to ſlippe.
Hæreꝛe in veſtigio, to ſtande ſtyll in a place, and not to moue his foote.
Vbi veſtigium impreſſerit, where he doeth ſet his foote, or make the pꝛinte of his foote.
Curſus ſui veſtigia nunq̃ inflectunt, they neuer turne backe, but goe on foꝛth ſtreight.
Ingredi veſtigijs patris, to folowe his fathers ſteppes.
Inſiſtere in veſtigio, to ſtande in a place.
In quo veſtigio poſtremum inſtiteꝛit, where he ſtode or had ſet his foote laſte.
Quibus veſtigijs primum inſtiti, in the place where I ſette my foote fyꝛſt, or where I began fyꝛſte to ſtande.
Mouere veſtigium, to departe, to goe awaie.
Occũbere in veſtigio, to die in the place where he ſtandeth.
Perſequi veſtigia alicuius, to folowe or trace one by the pꝛinte of his foote, to purſue and folowe foote by foote.
Perſequi aliquem veſtigijs ipſius, to folowe ones ſteppes, and goe the ſame way that he did. alſo to accuſe one by tokens or wꝛupnges, that he hath lefte behynde hym.
Vbicumque poſuit veſtigia, where ſo euer he ſet his foote, by all the waie that he paſſed.
Premere veſtigia leuiter, to ſette his feete ſo ſoftly that the pꝛinte maie ſcant be ſeene.
Relinquere veſtigium auaritiæ, to leaue a token of his couetouſneſſe.
Spargere veſtigia fugæ, to flee towarde dyuers coaſtes, that they maie not be eaſyly purſued.
Tenere veſtigia inconcuſſa, by tranſlation to abyde fyrmely by his opinion.
Omnibus veſtigijs indagare, to ſeꝛche with all diligence to know the trueth of a mattier.
Nullum veſtigiũ ciuitatis eſt, there is no ſigne or token of a citee or common weale.
Veſtigo, aui, are, to ſeke, to ſeke out by the pꝛint of ones foote, to trace, to ſeꝛche diligentlie.
Odore veſtigare, to ſmell out.
Veſtimentum, ti, ne. ge. a veſture or garment: it conteineth alſo counterpoynes, carpettes, ſheetes. ꝛc.
Veſtini, people in Italie.
Veſtio, iui, ire, to apparell, to adoꝛne, to heuer.
Pilo veſtiri, to be couered with heare.

Hyems

Hyems veſtit montem gelu, the wynter tyme couereth the hyll wyth froſte.

Veſtiplica, a maiden, whiche laieth vp hyr mayſtreſſe garmentes.

Veſtis, tis, f. g. a veſture, a garmente. ſometyme it is put for a beardc.

Aurea veſtis, a golden beardc.

Induere veſtem, to put on a garment.

Veſtis ſtragula, a couerled, counterpoynte, or ſuche lyke.

Reſoluere cinctas veſtes, to vndoe his clothes.

Concinnare veſtem, to make a garment mete for one.

Veſtiſpicus, ci, m. g. & Veſtiſpica, cæ, f. ge. he or ſhee, whiche kepeth theyr maiſters, or maiſtreſſe apparayle.

Veſtiſſimus, a, um, beſte apparyled, beſt clad.

Veſtitus, a, um, apparailed, cladde, arraied.

Male veſtitus, yll arraied.

Mediocriter veſtitus, meanely apparayled.

Genas veſtitus, haupng a beardc.

Montes veſtiti ſyluis, hilles couered with wooddes.

Veſtitus, us, m. g. apparayle, raiemẽt. alſo apparailyng, trimmyng, the ornament of any thing.

Veſtrapte, & veſtropte, of your owne.

Veſtras, tratis, yours.

Veſulus, a mountayne in Liguria by the Alpes, at the roote whereof the ryuer called Padus, or Po, ſpryngeth out.

Veſuuius, or Veſeuus, an hille in Campania, foure myles from the citee of Naples, wheron groweth plentie of vines and olines: but the toppe therof is barrayne, by reaſõ of fyre, whiche ſometyme ryſeth out of the earth. it is alſo called Veſuius.

Vetans, antis, letteyng, forbiddyng, defendyng.

Vetatio, onis, a letteyng, a forbiddyng.

Vetaturus, non veiturus.

Veter, veteris, om. g. olde. Veterior, veterius, elder. Veterrimus, a, um, eldeſt.

Veteramentarius ſutor, a coblar or bodcher.

Veteranus, a, um, auncient, olde.

Veteranus hoſtis, an auncient enemie. Milites veterani, olde ſouldiours, whiche hadde been twentie yeres full exerciſed in the warres.

Veteranus, ſometyme ſignifieth hym that had ſerued a whole yere in the citee. ſometyme him, that had longe continued in warres, an olde ſouldiour.

Veterana mancipia, ſlaues or bonde men, that haue ſerued in the citee a yere or more. Nouitia, they that haue not ſerued a yere full.

Veteraſco, ſcere, to waxe olde.

Veterator, oris, m. gen. a craftie beggler, a falſe deceiuer, a ſubtile knaue, that hath longe practiſed falſehod.

Veterator aduocatus, a crafty attourney, whiche by longe vſe and practiſe, knoweth all the wyles and ſhiftes in the lawe.

Veteratorie, craftily, wilily.

Veteratorius, a, um, craftie, ſubtile, wily, deceitefull.

Veteres, men of olde tyme paſſed.

Veterinus, a, um, that beareth or carieth bourdeyns.

Veterina animalia, beaſtes, whiche doe ſerue for bourdeyne, as horſes, mulettes, and aſſes.

Veterinarius, ri, m. ge. he that letteth horſes or mules to hyre, a mulettour, a horſe coſer, a hackeney man.

Veterinarius, a, um, belongyng to horſes and mules.

Veterinarius medicus, a horſe leche or ferrour.

Veterinaria medicina, the craft or ſcience of horſe leches.

Veternus, ni, m. g. a diſeaſe, ingendryng in the body, a continuall deſyre of ſleppng, by reaſon of to muche reſt & idleneſſe. alſo ſlouthfulneſſe, ſluggiſhneſſe, drowſineſſe, to muche ſlepe.

In veterno pingueſcunt, in longe and continuall ſlepe they waxe fatte.

Veternus ciuitatem occupauit, the citee was all geuen to ſlowthe and idleneſſe.

Veternoſus, a, um, that ſleepeth to muche, ſluggiſſhe, ſlouthfull, drowſie, that hath no luſte to beſtere hym, but rather to ſit ſtyll, as oppreſſed with continuall ſlumbre.

Vetero, aui, are, to make olde.

Veto, tui, tatum, and Vetui, vetitum, tare, to prohibite, to forbidde, to commaunde that a thynge be not done. alſo to lette.

Vetare & prohibere.

Quid vetat? what letteth?

Vetitus, a, um, forbidden, forfended.

Vetitum, ti, n. g. a thynge forbidden.

Vetones, people in Spayne, whiche fyrſt founde the herbe called Betonica.

Vetonica, an herbe called Betayne.

Vetulonia, a place in Tuſcia, called alſo Viterbo.

Vetulus, a, um, a dimin. of Veſus.

Equus vetulus, an olde horſe.

Vetus, teris, om. g. olde, auncient. it is ſometyme referred to rebukyng and reproupng.

Vetus verbum, and Vetus adagium, an olde prouerbe.

Vetus, is ſometyme vſed for cariоſus, olde and ſtinkyng.

Vetus poëta, the olde ruſty and rotten poete.

Veteres noſtri, for maiores noſtri. Plin. lib. 36. cap. 7.

Vetuſtas, atis, f. g. auncientee, oldeneſſe, antiquitee.

Ex vetuſtate verba ſumere, to vſe auncient wooydes.

Vetuſtate abijt memoria, it is ſo longe agone that it is out of remembrance.

Vetuſtate poſſeſſionis ſe defendunt, they lei for them ſelfe that thei haue had ſo longe poſſeſſion of it.

Vetuſtas & conſuetudo, olde acquentance and familiaritee.

Vetuſtè, aduerbium, vetuſtius, vetuſtiſſime, auncis auncientlỹ, moze auncientlỹ, moſt auncientlỹ.

Vetuſtiſſime in vſu ſunt, they bee in vſe and haue bene a very great oꝛ long tyme.
Vetuſtus, a, um, olde, auncient.
Vetuſta amicitia, olde amitee and freendſhip.
Mos vetuſtus, an auncient faction oꝛ cuſtome.
Vetuſtiſſimus, a, um, the eldeſt, moſt olde oꝛ auncient.
Vetuſtiſſimus liberorum, id eſt, natu maximus, the eldeſt.
Veuina, a longe darte.
Vexabundus, a, um, that troubleth oꝛ vexeth other.
Vexatio, onis, veracion, greeke, tourmente, trouble.
Vexator, oris, maſ. gene. he that vexeth oꝛ troubleth other.
Vexatus, a, um, vexed, troubled, greeued.
Vexillarius, rij, maſ. gen. the baner oꝛ ſtanderde bearer.
Vexillatio, onis, fœ. gen. a companie of men of warre vnder one enſeigne, after ſome a wynge of hoꝛſemen.
Vexillum, li, neu. ge. a baner, ſtanderde, oꝛ enſeigne.
Vexo, auí, are, to vexe oꝛ trouble, to tolle & turmoyle hyther and thyther, to afflicte, to doe all miſchiefe that can be poſſible, to tourment greeuouſlỹ.
Populari & vexare, to ſpoyle and deſtroye.
Agros vexare, to deſtroie the countrey.
Contumeliis & probris vexare aliquem, to raple and ſpeake ſpitefull woꝛdes againſt one.
Vitia vexare nos dicuntur, to trouble and diſquiete the mynde.
Vfens, vfentis, a riuer in Pontus.

V, ANTE I.

Vla, æ, f. ge. a waie, a iourney, ſometyme a ſtreete, a cauſey. alſo a paſſage: the maner oꝛ meane, cuſtome, trade, facion.
Via militaris, the bꝛode hyghe waie foꝛ hoꝛſe men and foote men.
Anguſta viarum, narow paſſages.
Via publica, the common hyghe waie.
Viæ priuatæ, pathes oꝛ waies thꝛoughe anye mannes grounde, that he maie ſtoppe whan he will.
Vicinales viæ, common pathes leſull foꝛ euerỹ man to goe in.
Strata viarum, the pauementes and cauſeis of ſtreetes.
Viæ vrbis, ſtreetes in a citee.
Quod de via languerem, becauſe I was weꝛy of iourneiyng, oꝛ feinte with goyng.
Video quot dierum via ſit, I ſee howe manỹ daies iourney it is.
Si qua via eſt, if it maie bee doone bỹ anye meanes.
Aperta via, an open and plaine waie.

Alia aggrediemur via, we will goe about it an other waie.
Aliquorũ dierum viam in Macedoniam pertexi, I went towardꝭ Macedonie two oꝛ thꝛee daies iourney.
Facilis via, an eaſie waie.
Via trita, a waie muche haunted.
Aperire viam alicui, to make a waie foꝛ one.
Via lethi, death.
Celerare viam, to make ſpeede on his waie.
Dare viam alicui, to geue one licence to paſſe.
In viam ſe dare, and commiſcere ſe viæ, to take a iourney.
De via decedere, to tourne out of the waie.
Tanquam aliquam viam longam confeceris, as thoughe ye hadde gone ſome great iourney.
Deſerere viam virtutis, to foꝛſake the waie of vertue.
Si qua viam fortuna dederit, if foꝛtune will helpe vs to bꝛinge it to paſſe bỹ anye meanes.
Longam viam ire, to goe a great iourney.
Tota erras via, thou arte farre out of the waie, thou arte vtterlỹ deceiued.
Habere docendi viam, to haue a maner, waỹ, oꝛ trade of teachyng.
Inchoare viam, to go before.
Viam inuenire, to fynde a waie to eſcape.
Viam munire, to make oꝛ pꝛepare a waie, to fynde a ſure waie foꝛ one to dooe a thyng.
Ne quam viam patefaceret, that he ſhoulde open no gappe,
Tentanda via eſt, I muſt aſſaie ſome waie oꝛ meane.
In via eſſe, to be on the waie in his iourney.
Pergere viam, to go on his waie.
Via pꝛomulgata patrum, after the common cuſtome and facion of fathers.
Viam litigandi tradere, to teache one the maner how to pleade.
Via, a riuer of Spaine.
Vians, antis, om. g. that goeth bỹ the waie.
Viarius, a, um, perteynyng to waies.
Viaticor, aris, ari, to pꝛepare victaples neceſſarie foꝛ iourney.
Viaticulum, li, n. ge. a diminutiue of Viaticum.
Viaticum, ci, n. ge. all thyng neceſſarie foꝛ iourney, bee it in victaples oꝛ other thyng, pꝛeparacion foꝛ iourney, coſtage.
Viaticus, a, um, pertcynyng to iourney, oꝛ trauelyng bỹ the waie.
Viatica cœna, a banket geuen to a man at his departyng on his iourney.
Viator, oris, m. g. a trauailer bỹ the waỹ, a waỹfaryng man. alſo he whiche warneth men to aſſemble to counſail, and ſerueth officers to call men to theim, a common meſſanger.
Viatorius, a, um, pertcynyng to the waie.
Viatoria vaſa, veſſels whiche dooe ſerue foꝛ iourney.
Vibex, bicis, f. ge. a ſpot remaynyng in the ſkyn after beatyng.

Vibon,

Vibon, a towne in the countrey of the Bzutians.
Vibrans, antis, om. g. bzandiſſhyng. alſo trembling, quauering.
Vibrans ſonus, a quauering ſowne or voyce
perceyng the eares.
Sententiæ vibrantes, id eſt, incitatæ.
Vibratio, onis, a bzandiſſhyng.
Vibratus, a, um. bzandiſſhed, ſhaken, ſometyme curled or criſped.
Crines calido ferro vibrati, heares criſped or curled with a hotte iron or pynne.
Vibriſſæ, or Vibrici, heares in a mans noſe.
Vibriſſo, aui, are, to quauer in ſingyng.
Vibro, aui, are, to ſhake a thynge, or to make a thyng to ſhake or quauer, to bzandiſſhe.
Vibrare dicitur mare, id eſt, micare & intremiſcere, to glitterne and quauer with a certaine bzightneſſe.
Vibrant fulmina, lightnynges glitterne and ſhine.
Vibrare, neutrum, id eſt, trepidare.
Viburnum, ni, n. ge. the ſpzinge, whiche cometh out of the roote of a tree.
Vicanus, ni, m. ge. one that dwelleth in the village. alſo Vicanus is taken for ignobilis.
Vicarius, a, um, that is in the ſteede or place of an other. alſo the ſeruant of hym, whiche is a ſeruant, that doeth the office of an other.
Vicariam operam impendere, to execute an other mans office, to doo that an other man ſhulde haue dooen.
Dare vicarium, to put one in his place to doe his dutie.
Succedere vicarium muneri alterius, to come in the place of an other and doe that he dyde.
Vicaria mors, when one dieth in the ſteede of an other.
Tu ſis illi vicarius meus, doe thou helpe hym
in my ſteede.
Vicatim, in villages or ſtreetes. alſo ſtrete by ſtrete, or; village by village.
Vicenarius, a, um, the twentieth.
Vicentia, a citee in Venetia, betwene Verona and Padua.
Vicenus, a, um, twentie.
Viceſima, mæ, f. g. a certaine penſion or tribute gathered of euery thouſande.
Viceſimarius, a, um, belongyng to that penſion or tribute.
Viceſimus, a, um, the twentieth.
Viceſsis, the weight of. xx. pounde.
Vicia, æ, f. g. a certaine graine, whiche lyke to a vine renneth vpon the ſtalkes of herbes, which doe grow hygh.
Viciarium, rii, n. g. the ſowyng of ſuche graine,
or the place wheres that graine is ſowed.
Viciarius, a, um, belongyng to that graine.
Vicies, twentie tymes.
Vicinalis, le, belongyng to neighboures.
Vicina, æ, f. ge. neighbourhod, the place next to vs, whiche corruptly we call Vicinêtum.
Vicinitas, atis, f. ge. neyghbourhod, nyghneſſe, ſometyme the multitude of neyghbours, the dwellyng of men nere togethre.
Verſari in vicinitate, to be very nere a thyng.
Vicinitas nominis, when two names bee lylyke, that one is taken for the other.
Vicinium, nq, n. g. nyghneſſe, neyghbourhod.
Vicinus, ni, m. g. and Vicina, æ, f. g. a neygh-bour, one that dwelleth nere a mans houſe.
Vicinus, a, um, nere, nexte to, harde by, not farre of.
Vicinum malum, a miſchiefe or ill turne nere at hande.
Vicina ad pariendum, nere hir time of trauail.
Vicinus illi, very lyke to hym.
Vicis, vici, vicem, vice, cou. ſe, time, ſtede, place.
Vices, is ſometyme vſed for Vis, force, fighttyng, battaile: as, Vices eius memorat, & ci-catrices denudat, he telleth of the battayles that he hath fought, or dangers that he hath been in. ꝛc.
Vices, is alſo vſed for puniſhementes, miſfortunes, miſchances, diſcommodites, diſpleaſures, aduerſitee.
Menedemi vicem miſeret me, I haue pitee on the ill chaunce of Menedemus.
Per multas vices, and multis vicibus, many tymes. Vnica vice, ones.
Reipublicæ vicem dolebo, I will be ſorye for the hurte or miſſortune of the common weale.
Nec tela nec vllas vitauiſſe vices Danaum, daungers, ieoperdies.
Vices quæ ſuperbe te manent ipſum, punyſhementes, diſpleaſures, aduerſitee.
Vicibus reuicere, by courſe, by turne.
Alius alia vice, one at one tyme, an other at an other: or the tone one waie, the tother an other waie.
Stata vice, at a tyme ordinarie and certaine.
Suam cuiuſque vicem, euery one his turne or courſe.
Seruare vices, to kepe their courſes.
Alternis vicibus, per vices, and vicibus, by courſe, one after an other.
Et vice verſa, and contrary wyſe.
Vicibus annorum, the yerely courſe.
Vice pro loco accipitur.
Vice pedum, in ſteede of feete.
Vicem ſolis ſupplet, it is in ſteede or place of the ſonne.
Pro vice, Plautus ferè poſuit vbiq; vicem.
Heri vicem mei, in ſteede of my maiſter, or for my maiſter.
Noſtrum amborum vicem, in ſteede or place of vs twayne.
Et ſuam iam vicem magis anxios, and beyng as than more ſolicitous or carefull for their owne part.
Vt meam vicem ſolicitus videretur, for me,
for my ſake, for my miſſortune.
Vice mundi, id eſt, ad ſimilitudinem mundi,

euen as the worlde doeth.
In vicem, in the stede.
Cedere in vicem alicuius rei, to serue in stede or place of an other thynge.
Fungi alienâ vice, to doo a thyng in an other mans stede, to supplie an other mannes roume.
Præstare vicem alterius, idem.
Vtar vice cotis, I will vse it in stede of a whetstone.
Veri vicem obtinet, it serueth in stede of truth it selfe.
Carinæ vice inuersæ, id est, in modum.
Reddam vicem, I will doe as muche againe for you.
Vicissatim, idem quod vicissim, an olde woorde.
Vicissim, by course, by course, interchangeable, now one, now an other: sometyme it signifieth on the other parte, againe for his parte: sometyme semblably.
Vicissitas, atis, f. g. idem quod vicissitudo, an olde woorde.
Vicissitudo, dinis, f. g. the turne, now one, now an other, chaungeyng by course, alteration.
Omnium rerum vicissitudo est, the worlde changeth euery date, the worlde abydeth not in one state alwaie, thinges doe alter daiely, euery thyng hath his course.
Victima, mæ, f. ge. the beast that is kylled in sacrifice for victorie.
Victimarius, ri, m. ge. the minister that serueth to the sacrifice. also he that solde beastes for the sacrifice.
Victito, aui, are, to liue by eatynge certayne meate.
Bene victitare, to make good chere, to fare well.
Victor, oris, m. gen. he that vanquisheth, a victour, a conquerour.
Victoria, æ, fœm. gene. victorie, conquest, vanquishyng.
Adipisci, and consequi victoriam, to obteine victorie.
Aedere victoriam, to vanquishe, to ouercome.
Habere victoriam in manibus, to be sure of the victorie.
Nascitur, or Oritur victoria ab ea parte, they began to vanquishe or ouercome on that syde.
Parare victoriam, to vanquishe.
Reportare victoriam, to haue the victory.
Multorum sanguine ea stat victoria, that victorie coste many mens liues.
Victoriatus, ti, m. ge. a certaine coyne, wherin was the image of victorie.
Victoriosus, a, um, accustomed to haue victory, that hath atteyned many victories, that hath often conquered, victorious.
Victrix, plurali victricia, pertaynynge to victorie.
Victrix, tricis, fœm. gene. a woman that vanquisheth.
Victurus, the participle of the future tense as well of viuo as of vinco.

Victus, tus, and Victuis, m. g. sustinance or feedyng. also a kynde or fourme of liuyng.
Victus & vestitus, meate & drynke and clothe.
Victus, a, um, vanquished, ouercome, conuinced.
Vicus, ci, masc. gene. a streete in a towne. also a village.
Viculus, li, m. g. a little streete or village.
Videlicet, as who saieth, that is to witte, that is to saie, and is often vsed in derision and scornyng. sometyme it signifieth surely.
Huic tu molestus videlicet esse noluisti. &c. you wolde not trouble him, or be very ernest on hym by wheriphode. &c. spoken scornefully.
Videlicet de psaltria hac audiui, surely, or vndoubtedly he hath heard. &c.
Caste iubet lex adire deos, animo videlicet. &c. that is to witte in the mynde. &c.
Video, di, dere, to see. it is sometyme applied to other senses: as, Vide qualis est sonus, here what a noyse it is.
Vide quid oleat, smell wherof it sauoureth.
Vide quàm durum sit, feele howe harde it is. also to foresee, to perceiue, to vnderstande, to be wakyng, to take heede or consider, to be ware, to prouide.
Vide tibi, prouide for thy selfe.
Tu videris, take thereto: well, take good heede, for I care not for it.
Videro, I will prouide or see to the matter.
Videor, I remembre me well.
Videre videor, me thynketh I see.
Videtur mihi, me semeth.
Viden'? for Videsne? dooest thou not see?
Somnum hac nocte oculis non vidi meis, I slept not one wynke all this nyght.
Videre animo, to foresee a thyng in ones mind before it come.
Somnia videre, to dreame.
Plus spei video quàm volo, I see more hope in the matter then I wolde haue.
Iamq; videnti sanguineis frontem. &c. beyng wakyng.
Me vide, trust to me, I warrant you.
Nisi aliquid video, ne. &c. except I spye some meanes. &c.
Nihil vides, nisi senis amicos. &c. except thou take good heede. &c.
Nisi vident nisi quod lubet, they regarde nothyng but that them selfe lust.
Vide quid agas, take heede or beware what ye doo.
Ego istæc recte vt fiant videro, I will see to these matters, that they bee dooen as they shoulde be.
Viderit Epicurus de hac re, I referre you to Epicure for this matter: or let Epicure answere for this matter if he will.
Postea videro, I will consider or take aduisement of this matter after.
Videor, to seeme, to appere.
Videre verum dicere, you seeme to saie true.

Videor, for videtur mihi quod.
Mihi videbor restitutus, I shall thinke my self to be restored.
Mihi ita videtur, so me thynketh, so it semeth to me.
Tibi ita videtur, you thynke so.
Vt videmur, as we seeme to doo.
Si tibi videbitur, if it please you, or if ye shall thynke it good.
Quibus tibi videbitur, to whom that ye shall thynke good.
Facies quod tibi visum fuerit, doo ye euen as ye shall thynke good.
Cælitibus nõ ita visum, it pleased not god so to haue it.
Visum est, vt te facerem certiorem, I thought it best to geue you knowlage.
Videri pro nihilo, to be iudged or esteemed of no value or nothyng woorthe.
Videre licet, a man mate see.
Vidua, æ, f. g. a widowe.
Viduatus, a, um, depryued, left alone.
Regna viduata lumine, id est, Tartara.
Viduertas, atis, f. g. calamitee or misery.
Viduitas, atis, fœ. g. widowhead, lacke of thynges necessarie.
Vidulum, li, n. gen. wherin any thyng is kepte, a booget.
Viduo, aui, are, to diuide or take awaie, to leaue alone, to separate.
Vrbem viduare ciuibus, to hyll the citizins.
Viduus, a, um, diuided, alone, depryued.
Ager viduus pecudibus, a fielde that hath no cattell in it.
Noctes viduas exigere, to slepe alone without a mate.
Viduus vir, a widower.
Vidium solum arboribus, a ground that hath no trees.
Vienna, a citee in Austria, an other in Dolphyny.
Vieo, éui, êre, to bende, to bynde tubbes or other vessellos with twigges or osiars.
Viétor, oris, m. g. a couper, whiche with hoopes byndeth vessels.
Viétus, a, um, sofre, weake, bendyng, lanke, limer or lither of bodye, feynte, drowpyng, without any strengthe, lackyng naturall strengthe.
Mala vieta, id est, flaccida, rugosa, wrincled, withered.
Vietus, a hoope or strake of a carte.
Vigeo, gui, gêre, to lme, to be stronge, to bee of strengthe or power, to bee in his chiefe strength and fozce, to flourishe, to be lustie, to thriue in growyng.
Vigere animo, to haue a liuely and quicke spirite.
Memoria vigere, to haue a sure and good memorie.
Purpura vigebat eo tẽpore, at that tyme purple was muche vsed or set by.

Vigent leges Lycurgi, the lawes of Lycurgus be in force, or strength.
Viguit vsque ad nostram ætatem, it continued or indured euen to our tyme.
Vigens, vigentis, that is in his chiefe force or strength, flourishyng.
Vigesco, scere, to ware of strength or force, to begynne to flourische or ware lustie.
Vigesima, mæ, fœm. gene. a hynde of tribute or pencion.
Vigesimarium aurum, idem.
Vigesimus, a, um, the twentieth.
Vigessis, sis, m. g. of. rr. pcunde.
Vigil, lis, m. g. a watche man.
Vigil, vigilis, om. g. watchefull, vigilant.
Vigilans, tis, om. ge. vigilant, wakyng, watchefull, diligent, circumspecte.
Vigilanter, watchefully, diligently, vigilantly, circumspectely, with great diligence, without slepyng.
Vigilantia, æ, fœ. ge. vigilancie, diligence, watchefulnesse.
Vigilarius, rii, m. g. a watche man.
Vigilax, lacis, om. g. vigilant, watchefull.
Vigilia, æ, fœm. gene. watchyng, abstenyng from slepe.
Vigilia, is also the eue before any solẽne feaste.
Vigilias suscipere, to take peines in watching.
Vigiliæ, arum, fœ. ge. plu. watches as well by date as by night. sometyme the men whiche doe watche.
Vigilo, aui, are, to wake or watche, to be vigilant or verie diligent. also to here diligently. also to take peyne.
Vigilare decet hominem, qui vult sua tempori conficere officia, a man must take peine, that will finisshe his businesse in tyme conuenient.
Vigilor, aris, ari, to be watched.
Viginti, twentie.
Vigintiuiri, officers in Rome, where. rr. were of lyke auchoritee.
Vigintiuiratus, us, m. g. the office of those men.
Vigisonus, a brooke by the citee of Padus.
Vigor, goris, masc. ge. strength, force, vigour, lustinesse.
Vigorosus, a, um, stronge, firme.
Vilesco, scere, to be vile or of small value or of none estimacion, or price.
Vilis, le, vile, of no value, little woorth. also good cheape, of litell price. sometyme abundant.
Vilis & pretiosus, contrarie.
Annona vilis, corne or vitaile good cheape.
Vili vendere, to sell good cheape.
Vilitas, atis, fœm. gene. good cheape, contrarie to dearth.
Vilito, aui, are, to make cheape.
Villa, læ, f. ge. a manour out of a citee or towne. also a village, a ferme, to haue housbandrie occupied in.
Villa rustica, that parte of the house, wherin the fermer dwelleth that kepeth the house, and there there maketh or kepeth all maner instrumentes apperteinyng to his husbandrie, as corne, cartes, pokes for oxen. &c.

Villa vrbana, that part of the manour or ferme, where the lorde or owner hym selfe doeth lie, and was in all poinctes as goodly, and as well appointed as becomed a house standinge within the citee to bee, and was more pleasauntly builded, and more goodly decked and furnished then for an house in the countrey.

Villanus, ni, m. g. a man of the village, one that kepeth a ferme.

Villaris, re, and Villaticus, a, um, perteinyng to the village or ferme in the countrey.

Villica, cæ, a fermers or husband mans wyfe.

Villicatio, onis, occupation aboute housebandrie. also the rule of husbandrie vnder the owner.

Villico, aui, are, and Villicor, aris, ari, to be occupied about housebandrie, to haue the rule of housebandrie. also to goe to abyde in the countrey.

Villico, onis, m. g. idem quod villicus.

Villicus, ci, m. ge. a bailiffe of housebandrie, he that hath the kepyng of a ferme.

Villosus, a, um, full of heares.

Cauda villosa, a bushy tayle.

Villula, læ, f. g. a litteil village, a litteil ferme or manour place.

Villum li, n. g. a small wyne.

Villus, li, m. g. a heare.

Vimen, minis, n. g. a rodde, a wicker, an osier or twigge, whiche wyll wynde lyghtly, wherof baskettes are made.

Lentum vimen, a twigge or osier, that is pliant.

Vimineus, a, um, of wickers, wyndyng roddes, or osiers.

Viminalis, le, apt to wynde or bynde, perteinyng to osiers or twigges.

Viminalis collis, a litte hill at Rome.

Vinacea, or Vinacia, orum, neu. gen. plu. kernelles of grapes, either before they be pressed or after.

Vinaceus, cei, m. g. the kernell of a grape.

Vinaceus, a, um, of wyne or of grapes.

Vinago, ginis, fœm. gener. a kynde of stocke or dooues.

Vinale, lis, n. g. the vintage.

Vinalia, ôrum, n. ge. plur. a certayne feaste the tenthe calendes of Maie, made for tastynge of wynes.

Vinarius, ii, m. g. a vintner, a tauerner, one that selleth wyne, also a drunkarde, one that drinketh ouer muche wyne.

Vinarius, a, um, perteinyng to wyne.

Taberna vinaria, a wyne tauerne.

Vinca, æ, f. g. is supposed to be that herbe which Dioscorides calleth Camœdaphnes, we call it Laureole.

Vincia, olde writers vsed for Continens.

Vincibilis, le, easie to be vanquished.

Vincio, vinxi, vincire, to bynde, to tie.

Locum præsidiis vincire, to kepe a place with a garrison.

Vinco, vici, vincere, to vanquisshe, to wynne, to ouercome, to gette victorie, to passe, to excell, to proue or conuince by reason.

Vincere cursum cursu, to renne swifter than an harte.

Vince virum bonum esse Oppianicum, go to, proue that Oppianicus, is an honest man.

Cibum vincere, to digest meate.

Expectationem vincere, to doe more or muche better than was loked for.

Licitatione vincere, in chepening to bidde more for a thynge, to ouerbidde.

Vincere numero, to be mo in numbre.

Opinionem omnium vincere, to doo better than men woulde haue thought.

Vicimus, we haue that we wolde haue, or we haue wonne the wager.

Vince & vale, I praie god sende you victorie, with longe lyfe and good helth.

Viceris, goe thy waie, thou haste wonne the wager, or hast optayned thy cause.

Vincere aciem ferri, to be so harde, that it can not be cut with yron.

Fata sua vincere, to lyue longer than fate or destenie hath appoynted hym, to lyue aboue the course of nature.

Terræ magnitudinem vincebant, they were bygger then the earthe.

Seipsum vincere, to passe or excell hym selfe.

Hæc vicit sententia, this sentence toke place.

Difficultates locorum vincere, to passe the dangerouse and harde places.

Vno te vicimus, in one thyng we passed the.

Vinctura, æ, f. g. a bindyng.

Vinctus, us, m. g. idem quod Vinculum.

Vinctus, a, um, bounden, harde laced, streightly gyrded, also constreigned. sometyme it signifieth a prisoner.

Vinculum, li, n. g. a bonde. also Vincula, plur. is taken for a prison, chaynes, gyues, bondes.

In vinculis esse, to lie in chaynes in prison.

Habere in vinculis, to kepe one in prison.

Vindelici, people called Vandales.

Vindelitia, a countrey, wherin is the citee of Augusta called Ausburgh, on the weast it hath the ryuer Lycus, and Rhætia: on the south the ryuer Dunawe: on the east, the ryuer Oenus, and Noricum: on the northe it hath the Alpes.

Vindemator, and Vindemitor, oris, idem quod Vindemiator.

Vindemia, æ, f. g. the tyme of gatherynge grapes to make wyne, it sometyme signifieth the gatherynge of other thynges, as honny and syder.

Vindemialis, le, & Vindemiatorius, a, um, perteinyng to gatherynge of grapes or fruites.

Vindemiatio, ônis, f. ge. a gatherynge of grapes to make wyne, also a makyng of honny.

Vindemiator, ôris, m. ge. he that doeth gather grapes to make wyne, also a signe of sterres, that appereth the thyrde Nonas of Marche.

Vindemio, aui, are, to gather grapes or rype fruite.

Vindemiola, læ, a diminutiue of Vindemia.

Vindeny fluuy ostia, a towne in Irelande called Dyodagh.

Vindex, dicis, m. ge. a reuenger of wronges, a redresser of thynges, a defender, he that setteth at libertee or out of daunger. sometyme it signifieth a proctour or attourney, whiche prosecuteth an other mans cause. also he that deliuereth hym selfe out of bondage. sometyme a keper of possession.

Vindex rerum capitalium, the minister of execution, commonly called the hangman.

Vindicatio, onis, f. ge. a reuengyng, a takyng of punishment, a deliuerynge out of daunger.

Vindiciæ, arum, f. g. plur. assertion of libertee or freedome.

Vindicias secundum libertatem dare, to graūt that one maie be free or at his libertee, vntill a certayne tyme, that suretees and proffes maie be brought in, to declare that he is not bounde.

Decernere vindicias secundum seruitutem, to geue sentence, that one is bonde.

Postulare vindicias secundum libertatem, to require a tyme to answere and bringe proues that one is not bonde.

Lis vindiciarum, is a suite or contention in the lawe, for a thynge that is not certainely knowen whose it is, in whiche plea, the demaunnt daunt was bounde in a certayne summe of money to be forfaited, if the thynge were not his that he claymed, and the partie that hadde it in possession, was bounde with suretees, not to appaire the thynge that was in suite.

Vindico, aui, are, to reuenge, to punische, to defende or deliuer a man from iniurie or danger, to restore to libertee, to demaunde by action.

Dolus malus erat legibus vindicandus, deceitfull dealyng shoulde haue been punished by the lawe.

Peccatum in altero vindicare, to punische a faute in an other man.

Mortem alicuius vindicare, to reuenge ones death.

Vindicari, to be reuenged, to take punishment.

Vindicare se ab aliquo, to be reuenged on one.

Vindicatum est in ciues militesq, the citizins and souldiours were punished.

A labore vindicare, to exempt from labour or peyne.

Quæ nos a supplicio vindicent, whiche maie deliuer vs from punishement.

Ab obliuione hominum vindicare, to make that a thynge be not forgotten of men.

Aliquē à vitiis omnibus vindicare, to anouche one to be without all faute.

In libertatem vindicare, to set at lybertee.

Libertatem vindicare, to defende theyr libertee, to set theym selfe at libertee.

Vindicare data, id est, compensare.

Vindicta, æ, f. g. vengeance, reuengement, punnisshemente, sometyme libertee, also a rodde whiche the lorde delyuered to his bonde man, whan he enfranchised hym.

Vindius, an hyll in Spayne.

Vinea, æ, fœ. ge. a vyneparde or a vyne. it is also an ordinaunce of warre made of tymber and hurdies, vnder the whiche men went surely to the walles of a towne that was belieged.

Vineālis, le, apte or pertenynge to a vinparde.

Vinearius, a, um, idem.

Vineaticus, a, um. pertenynge to vines.

Falces vineaticæ, hookes to cutte vines with.

Vinetum, i, n. g. a vinparde.

Vinipotor, ôris, m. g. one that drynketh wyne.

Vinitor, oris, m. g. he that ordereth the vinesparde.

Vinitorius, a, um, that belongeth to him that keepeth the vinparde.

Vinolentia, æ, f. g. drunkennesse, ouer muche drinkyng of wyne.

Vinolentus, a, um, drunke with wyne, a great drinker of wyne.

Vinosus, a, um, that loueth to drinke wyne, also drunken.

Vintium, a citee by the Alpes called Mount Misol.

Vinulus, a, um, delicate, he that behaueth hym selfe wantonly or tenderly.

Vinum, ni, n. g. wyne.

Plenus vini, dronken.

Album vinum, white wyne.

Austerum vinum, greene wyne.

Vinum vetustate edentulum, a wyne so olde that it hath lost his verdure.

Doleare vinum, wyne kepte in vessels.

Molle vinum, ripe wyne.

Ferre vetustatem dicuntur vina, to continue longe.

Vinum ægrotis adhibere, to geue sicke men wyne.

Vio, aui, are, to goe a iourney.

Viola, æ, f. g. a violet.

Viola matronalis, a stocke gilloflower.

Violabilis, le, that is apte to be violated, that maie be violated.

Violaceus, a, um, of violet colour.

Violaris, re, idem.

Violarium, ii, neu. ge, a place where violettes growe.

Violarius, rij, m. g. he that dieth violet colour.

Violatio, ônis, a violatyng, a breakyng.

Violator, ôris, one that violateth, corrupteth, or suspendeth.

Violatus, a, um, broken, violated, defloured.

Violens, entis, om. g. violent.

Violenter, violently, perforce, maugre his head, cruelly, vnpatiently,

Tolerare violenter, to take a thynge very vnpacients patiently, to abyde a thyng against his will.

Violentia, æ, f. g. violence, force, vehemencie.
Violentus, a, um, violent, forcible.
Violo, lauí, are, to violate, to corrupte, to defile, to deflowre, to breake as a man dooeth a law.
Amicitiam violare, to doo against frendeshippe.
Existimationem alicuius violare, to diminiche ones estimacion or credence.
Fidem coniugq violare, to breake wedlocke.
Fœdus violare, to breake league or alliance.
Hospites violare, to doe iniurie to straungers, that come into our countrey or citee.
Parentes violare, to dooe vnnaturally to his parentes.
Voce aliquem violare, to raile or speake outragiously against one.
Syluam violare securi, to cut downe trees.
Vion, Valentia, a citee in Apulia.
Vipera, æ, f. g. a kynde of adders.
Viperinus, and Vipereus, a, um, of an adder.
Vipiones, yonge cranes.
Vir, viri, masc. gene. a man. it is also an housebande, it signifieth also one of a good courage, a valiant man.
Vir es, thou art a valiant man.
Virago, ginis, fœ. ge. a woman hauing the courage of a man, a woman of a stoute and manly stomache.
Virbius, ij, m. gene. twyse a man, whiche name was geuen to Hippolitus, the sonne of Theseus, after that Aesculapius hadde brought him agayne to life.
Virectum, cti, n. g. a grene place, a place where is muche greene grasse.
Vireo, onis, m. gene. a certaine byrde, called of Aristotle and Plinie Chloion, a witwoll.
Vireo, uí, ére, to be grene, to be more lustie.
Vires, virium, lyke Vis.
Viresco, scere, to ware greene, to begynne to flourisshe.
Viretum, i, n. g. a greene place.
Virga, æ, f. g. a rodde or yarde.
Virga pastoris, an herbe, called tasylle, rede Labrum veneris.
Virgator, oris, m. g. he that beateth with roddes.
Virgatus, a, um, that hath roddes or longe strikes in it lyke roddes.
Vestis virgata, a garment after some of purple, after other of clothe, hauyng longe strikes in it lyke roddes, a raigowne or coate.
Virgetum, i, n. g. a place where osiars, twigges, or roddes be set to bynde vines.
Virgeus, a, um, of roddes.
Virgi, a towne of Spayne.
Virgilius, the most famous poete of Mantua.
Virginalis, le, & Virginarius, a, um, of a virgine, that pertayneth to a mayden.
Virgindemia, a gathering of roddes, to make osiars or twigges.
Virgineus, a, um, idem quod Virginalis.
Virginitas, atis, f. ge. virginitee, chastitee, mayden head, pusillage.
Virgo, inis, com. g. a virgine or mayden.
Virgulata, seu virgata vestis, a raigowne.
Virgula, æ, f. g. a litteil rodde or yarde.
Virgultum, ti, n. g. a yonge shoote or syzinge, ryzyng out of the grounde.
Virgunculo, æ, f. g. a yong mayden.
Viriæ, or Viriola, æ, fœm. gene. an ornament to weare about the necke, hauing greene pzecious stones in it.
Viriatus, a, um, stronge, a wooyde out of vse.
Viriculæ, little strength.
Viriculum, li, n. ge. a wynble or perser, or rather a certaine kynde of daetes.
Viridans, antis, om. g. that whiche is greene.
Viridarium, ij, neu. gen. a greene place enclosed, wherin beastes and foules are kepte.
Viridarius, a, um, belongynge to a garden or greene place.
Viridarij serui, seruauntes that kepe an orcharde or garden.
Viride, an aduerbe, greenely, somewhat with a greene colour.
Viridia, a greene, or place set with greene trees for pleasure.
Viridicatus, a, um, made greene.
Viridis, de, greene.
Viriditas, atis, fœm. ge. greenenesse, also force, strength, manlinesse.
Virido, aui, are, to make greene.
Virilia, lium, n. g. plu. tantum, the pzyuie membyes of a man.
Virilis, le, of a man, also manlyke or valiant.
Virilis toga, was a garment of the Romaines, whiche they began to weare at xiv. yeres of age.
Virilis animus, a valiant and stoute courage, a manly stomache.
Sexus virilis, the male kynde.
Parum virile est, it is not comely for a man, it is no manly parte.
Pars virilis, the porcion or parte that a man hath.
Pro virili parte, with all my force and diligẽce, as muche as I can.
Virilitas, atis, f. gen. the pzyuie partes of a man, manlinesse.
Ademptæ virilitatis homo, a gelded man, an Eunuche.
Excisa virilitate, beyng gelded.
Viriliter, manly, valiauntly, with a manly stomache.
Viriplaca, a goddes, in whoose temple women were reconciled to their husbandes.
Viripotens, potentis, om. g. mariage able.
Viritaneus ager, a fielde diuided amonge the people.
Viritim, of euery man, also one man with an other, man by man.
Viritim pugnare, to fyght man to man.
Viritium, a citee in Germanie.

Viro, aui, are, to fortifie.
Virosus, a, um, of Virus, of ill fauour or taste, sometyme stronge, also full of poyson.
Virosus, a, um, of Vir, desyrous of man.
Virosa mulier, a woman desirous of the company of man.
Virtus, tutis, f. ge. vertue, strength, puissaunce, valiantnesse, manlinesse, manhode, prowesse, sometyme power, also helpe, merite, or desert.
Tua virtute, by thy good helpe or ayde.
Viruesta, a citee of Spayne, called commonly Bzuniesca.
Virulentus, a, um, venemous, full of poyson.
Virus, neu. gen. indeclinable, venim, poyson, a vehement ranche and rammisshe sauour, as vnder a mans armepittes, also bitternesse of tast, lyghtnesse in colour, sometyme the humour of generation, proprely in beastes, also naturall vertue or power, auncient writers vsed Hoc virum, huius Viri, and Lucretius, hath Viro in the ablatiue case.
Virus paludis, the stinckyng sauour of a fen or dyche.
Amatorium virus, poyson.
Malum virus, poyson, venim.
Aspergere virus alicui, to poyson one.
Virus aquæ marinæ, the bitter taste of the sea water.
Virus, is sometyme vsed for greenenesse, or greene grasse.
Vis, huius, vis, vim, vi, f. rm. gen. power, puissaunce, strength, myght, possibilitee, abundaunce, violence, compulsion, multitude, vertue, efficacie, effecte, sometyme fightyng.
Vis, is redde in Salust, in the accusatiue case, plurall.
Nostra omnis vis, all our might, vertue or strengthe, or all that we be able to doe.
Qui vim tantam in me & potestatem habeam tanta astutiæ, That haue within me so great myght and habilitee, to worke so great a subtilitee.
✠ Satis habet animi, sed vires deficiunt, he hath courage enough, but his legges kapleth hym, spoken mockyngly to him that attempteth more then he is hable to doe.
Frigoris vis, vehemencie of colde.
Vis verborum, the vertue and signification of woordes.
Vis cælestis, heauenly power.
Maximis viribus homo, a man of great might and force.
Summa vi, with all endeuour.
Abstinere vim ab aliquo, not to laie violent handes vpon one.
Vim mihi intulit, he laied violent handes on me, and fought with me.
Vim afferre maximam ad. &c. to bee of great efficacie, to helpe very muche. &c.
Agere pro viribus, to doe as muche as he can, to doe the vttermost of his power.
Concipere vires, to waxe stronge, or of more force and violence.
Defici viribus, to become weake or fainte.
Experire vires, to proue what he can doe.
Habere vires, to be of force or might.
Intendere vim, to encrease his myght or power.
Fit via vi, they make a waie with playne force and violence.
Vis pelagi, the violence of the sea.
Vis maior, is taken for a great tempest or stormе.
Vis diuina, idem.
Afferre vim mulieri, to rauishe a woman.
Adhibere vim, to vse compulsion, to enforce.
Vim sibi attulit, he killed hym selfe.
Reponunt vim suam æquora, the seas waxe calme.
Vi superum, by the enforcement, violence, compulsion, or power of the goddes.
Vi rapere, to take awaie by stronge hande.
Vis militum, a great multitude of souldiours.
Vis frumenti, great abundance of corne.
Magna vis auri & argenti, great abundaunce or a verie great summe of golde and siluer.
Viscatus, a, um, dressed with byrdelyme, also limed or taken with byrdelyme.
Viscata munera, id est, hamata, gyftes or presentes geuen to the entent to haue greater profyte.
Viscera, scerum, bowelles, the intrelles, also all betwene the skynne and the bone, flesshe.
Viscera taurorum vescitur, he eateth the flesshe of oxen or bulles.
Diripiunt inde viscera nostra feræ, our child or children.
Spumantibus visceribus ardens, verie angrie, greatly moued.
Visceratio, onis, a distribution of flesshe raw.
Visceratim, by the bowelles.
Visceror, ari, to distribute meate that is boyled or rosted.
Viscosus, a, um, clammy or cleauyng lyke byrdelyme.
Viscum, i, n. ge. mysselden or mysselto, whiche commonly groweth in crabbe trees and wylde peare trees.
Viscus, i, m. g. and Viscum, i, n. gen. byrdelyme, sometyme it is taken for a net or hape.
Viscus, sceris, n. g. all that is betwene the bones and the flesshe. it is also some parte of the inwardes of a man or beaste, as the herte, the splene, the longes, the lyuer, the bladder or any one bowell or gutte: lyke Viscera.
Visendus, a, um, woorthy to be seen, to be maruelled or wondered at.
Visibilis, le, that maie be seen.
Visio, onis, a vision, a fantasie.
Visitatio, onis, visityng, or visitacion.
Visito, aui, are, to visite often, to come to see.
Viso, visi, ere, to go or come to see, also to see.

Id viso

Id viſo, for that cauſe I come to ſee.
Viſam ſi domi eſt, I wyll goe ſee if he bee at home.
Ad eam viſam, I wyll go to hir houſe and ſee.
Venio viſere, I come to ſee.
Viſendi cauſa, to ſee.
Viſontium, a citee in Spayne called commonly Viſeum, or Viſeo.
Viſor, oris, m. g. a meſſanger ſent to bewe or ſee a thyng, a ſpie.
Viſula, a riuer of Sarmatia.
Viſulæ vites, a certayne kynde of vynes.
Viſum, ſi, n g a dreame, a fantaſie. alſo a thing that one hath ſeen.
Referre viſa, to tell or ſhewe thynges that one hath ſeen.
Viſurgis, a riuer of Germanie.
Viſus, us, m. g ſyght.
Orbus viſus, blynde.
Acer viſus, quicke ſyght.
Deprehendere aliquid viſu, to ſee a thynge.
Ducere viſus per omnia, to loke rounde about vpon euery thynge.
Vt viſum fallant, that they can not bee ſeen.
Premere viſus alicuius, to cloſe ones eies.
Viſus, is ſometyme taken for that, whiche is ſeen, a ſyght.
Viſus, a, um, ſeen.
Viſus ſum, me thought.
Vita, tæ, f. g. lyfe.
Vita functus, dead.
Vitam agere, ducere, exigere, to lyue, to leade his lyfe.
Vitam adimere, to ſlea.
Vitam traducere, to paſſe his lyfe tyme.
Exiguum curriculum vitæ, a ſhort ſpace of life.
Mea vita, blandientis vox, myne owne lyfe or dearlyng.
Precaria vita, looke precaria.
Abire, diſcedere, migrare è vita, to die.
Commutare vitam cum morte, idem.
Dare and Concedere vitam alicui, to graunte one his pardone, to graunt hym his lyfe and not to kyll hym.
Edere vitam, to die.
Expellere aliquem vita, to kyll one.
Vita frui, to lyue.
Paciſci vitam cum hoſte, to yelde to his enemie, on condition to ſaue his lyfe.
Profundere vitam pro re aliqua, to die or geue his lyfe for a thynge.
Sic vita eſt, ſuche is the lyfe or facion of men.
In vita mea, in all the tyme of my lyfe.
Vitæ, in the plurall numbre, is ſometyme taken for the factions or maners of men.
Tenues ſine corpore vitæ, id eſt, animæ.
Vitabundus, a, um, that eſcheweth a thynge.
Vitalis, le, that lyueth, that hath lyfe or geueth life, lyuely, that pertaineth to the maynteyning of lyfe.
Auxilium vitale, that maynteineth or ſuccours eeth a mans lyfe.
Calor vitalis, lyuely, that geueth lyfe.
Sanguis vitalis, wherin lyfe is contained.
Vitalis fœtus, that is alyue.
Vitalia capitis, the brayne.
Vitaliter, with lyfe, lyuely.
Vitalitas, atis, f. g. lyfe, liuelyneſſe.
Vitatio, onis, f. g. an eſchewyng, a voidyng, a ſhonnyn.
Vitellus, li, m. g the yolke of an egge.
Vitellinus, a, um, of or belongyng to the yolke of an egge.
Viteus, a, um, of or belongyng to a vine tree.
Vitex, vitices, a kynde of withy: rede Agnus caſtus.
Vitiarium, rij, n. ge. a place, wherin ponge vines are ſette.
Vitiatio, onis, a rauiſſhement, a corruption or deflouryng.
Vitiator, oris, m. g. a corrupter, a rauiſſher.
Vitiatus, a, um, corrupted, defloured.
Vitiata mulier, a woman rauiſſhed or deflowred.
Viticula, læ, f. g. a little vine.
Viticulum, li, n. g the ſhoote of a vine.
Vitifer, ra, rum, that beareth vines.
Vitigenus, a, um, that cometh of a vine.
Vitigineus, a, um, of a vine.
Vitiligo, ginis, f. g a ſoulenelle of all the bodie, hauyng ſpottes of ſondrie colours.
Vitilis, le, any thynge that maie be wounden, pliant, flexible, mete to bynde with.
Vitilitigator, oris, m. ge. a detractour or backes biter, an hafter.
Vitilitigo, aui, are, to backebite or detracte a man or woman, to hafte.
Vitio, aui, are, to corrupte or vitiate, to defyle, to deſtroie, to defourme, to deflowre.
Virginem vitiare, to defloze a maiden.
Vitioſe, pii, corruptly.
Vitioſe facimus, we committe a faute or doos amiſſe.
Vitioſe concludere, to make a falſe concluſion.
Vitioſitas, atis, f. g. vice, corruption, an vnconſtant affection in all a mans behauour.
Vitioſus, a, um, vicious, or full of errours, faultie, ſicke, corrupt.
Vitioſi magiſtratus, officers not ryght conſtituture or made.
Oues vitioſæ, rotten or ſcabbed ſheepe.
Sudragium vitioſum, id eſt, corruptum.
Corpus vitioſum, a body not ſounde.
Vitioſa nux, a wourme eaten nutte.
Vita vitioſa, a naughty lyfe.
Vitis, tis, f. g a vine. alſo a thynge, whiche a captayne in warres did beare in his hande.
Vitis alba, an herbe, whiche reuneth vp in hedges, and wyndeth about the ſedges, hauynge a leafe lyke a vine leafe, but rougher, and a red berrie. it is alſo called Brionia, and in engliſh wylde vyne.
Vitis nigra, a lyke wiede, which cõmonly groweth amonge herbes, and byndeth theym togethet, hauyng a leafe in facion lyke to ray.

Vitisator, oris, m. g. he that setteth vines.

Vitisco, scere, to sprynge vnto a vyne.

Vitium, tij, n. g. vice, contrarie to vertue. also a faute or erroure, a thynge to be blamed or reproued. also sickenes, an impediment, a blemisshe, also imperfection, corruption.

Vitium offerre virgini, to deflowre a virgin.

Vitio dare, to blame or reproue.

Vitio vertere, to displeyse, to lache.

Meum vitium fuerit, it shall be my faute.

Vini vitio fecit, the wyne was in faute that he dyd it, or dronkennesse caused hym to doo it.

Vito, aui, are, to eschewe, to beware of, to avoyde.

Mortem fuga vitare, to saue his lyfe by flyght.

Suspiciones vitare, to auoyde suspicion.

Vitreolum, an herbe growynge on walles, wherewith vessell beyng scoured, is made wonderfull bright.

Vitreus, a, um, of glasse, clere lyke glasse, also brickle.

Vitriarius, ij, m. g. a glasse maker, or a glasiar.

Vitrinus, a, um, of glasse.

Vitricus, i, m. g. a father in lawe or a stepfather.

Vitriolum, li, n. g. a diminutiue of Vitrum.

Vitrosus, a, um, whiche hath plentie of glasse, full of glasse.

Vitrum, i, n. g. glasse.

Vitta, æ, f. g. a fillet or hedbande, sometyme a garlande.

Vittatus, a, um, bounde with a fillet or bonde.

Vitula, æ, a heffer or ponge cowe.

Vitulatio, onis, f. g. reioycing.

Vitulinus, a, um, of a calfe.

Caro vitulina, veale.

Vitulor, aris, ari, to reioyce.

Vitulus, i, m. g. a calfe, not onely of a cowe, but also of an oliphant, and of great fisshes. it is also a fisshe called a seale.

Vitumnus, a God, whom the paynims supposed to geue lyfe.

Vituperabilis, le, woorthy blame, to bee blamed.

Vituperatio, onis, fœ. g. a rebuke geuen, a blamyng, a displeasyng.

In vituperationem venire, to be blamed.

Vituperator, oris, m. g. he that rebuketh or blameth an other, he that displeaseth or discommendeth.

Vituperium, ij, n. g. a rebuke, discommendacion, defacyng.

Vitupero, aui, are, to rebuke, to blame, to discommende, to displease.

Vituperones, rebukers.

Viuacitas, atis, naturall strength or lustynesse.

Viuarium, ij, ne. ge. a place where wylde beastes, byrdes and fisshes be kepte, it maie be called as well a ponde as a parke, a conyngar, a walke for byrdes.

Viuax, acis, om. g. lusty, stronge of nature, that lyueth longe.

Viuerra, æ, f. g. a ferret.

Viuidus, a, um, lusty, quicke, full of strengthe or lyuelynesse.

Viuior, & viuissimus, olde writers vsed for more liuing or most liuing

Viuiradix, icis, fœ. ge. a ponge vyne set with the roote. it is also euery plant, wherof the rote is quicke, though the stem or sprynge be dead or corrupted, a quickeset.

Viuisco, viuiscere, or Viuesco, viuescere, to beginne to springe or take lyfe.

Viuo, vixi, ere, to lyue, to haue a merye lyfe.

Viuere in diem, to lyue without any prouision or store.

Bene valete & viuite, fare you well, and god sende you to lyue a merye lyfe.

Ad etatem viuere, to leade his lyfe.

Annis vel annos centum viuere, to lyue an hundreth yeres.

Beatissime viueremus, we should leade a blessed and merye lyfe, we shulde lyue lyke sayntes.

Viuere, is sometyme taken for Secundum virtutem viuere, to lyue after an honeste trade or facion: and Vita, for actus & mores, as who shoulde saie, the lyfe actiue or morall and vertuous.

Quibuscum coniunctissime vixerat, with whō he had great familiaritee and friendshippe.

Cum aliquo familiariter viuere, to lyue with one as his familiar friende.

In laude viuere, to lyue in prayse and renowme.

Parce viuere, to lyue sparingly and nigardly.

Delicate & molliter viuere, to leade a wanton and delicate lyfe.

E natura viuere, to lyue accordyng to nature.

Viuere ex more alterius, to lyue as an other man woulde haue hym, or after an other mans mynde or pleasure.

Viuere studiis, to set all his pastyme on learnynge and studie, to leade all his life in the studie of good letters.

Ne viuam si scio, I praie god I die, if I knowe it.

☞ Viuit tanquā Delum nauigans, he is nothyng solicitous or carefull for his liuing: he thynketh god neuer sent the mouthe but he sent the meate for it.

Viuendo vincere aliquem, to ouer lyue one.

Viuitur, the impersonall.

Quid agitur? T. viuitur, howe is the matter? T. I liue as well as I maie.

Viuus, a, um, that lyueth, also quicke, naturall, stronge, vehement or great.

Viua sepes, a quicke hedge.

Viua aqua, rennynge water, water that springeth naturally out of any place.

Ad viuum resecare, to cutte to the quicke, to touche or discusse a matter exactly.

Vix, vneth, scantly, hardely.

Vix dum, scantly as yet, scantly at length.

Vix tandem, in conclusion.

Vix,

Vix, for Non.

Vix Priamus tanti totaque Troia fuit, hynge Priamus and all Troie, was not so muche worthe.

Vix, with muche a doe.

Sic idem istuc imitamur, ita tandem vix vinimus, although we doe the lyke: yet with muche adoe we lyue.

Vix ægre, verie hardely.

V ANTE L

VLceratiæ herbæ, herbes that make blysters.

Vlceratio, onis, fœ. ge. a breakyng out in scabbes and sores.

Vlcero, aui, are, to make full of sores or scabbes, also to exasperate or make grieke.

Vlcerosus, a, um, full of sores or scabbes.

Vlciscor, sceris, sci, to bee reuenged, to auenge, to take reuengement, to punische.

Vlciscar te, I wyll reuenge my selfe on the, I wyll requite the, or I wyll bee reuenged on the.

Vlciscentur illum mores sui, his owne maners wyll bryngе hym to be punished for his naughtinesse.

Mortem alicuius vlcisci, to reuēge ones death.

Vlcus, vlceris, n. ge. an hid mischieke. it is also corrupte mattier gathered within the skinne, and couered with a skabbe. it is any maner of sore where the skinne is broken, a boyle, a sore, a botche.

Vlcus tangere, to rubbe on the gall, to speake of a thyng, whiche is displeasant to one to haue remembred.

Vlcusculum, a sore or scabbe.

Vlex, licis, an herbe lyke to rosemarie, whiche draweth to it golde.

Vliginosus, a, um, soked with longe abode of water, alwaie mopst.

Vligo, inis, f. g. naturall mopsture of the earthe alwaie remaynyng.

Vlius, the name of Apollo.

Vlo, olde writers vsed for Vltus fuero, I shall be reuenged.

Vllus, a, um, any.

Vlmarium, ii, n. g. a groue of elmes.

Vlmus, mi, f. g. a tree called an elme.

Vlmeus, a, um, of elme.

Vlna, æ, a fathom, also an elle, after Suetonius, it is onely a cubite.

Circundare aliquem vlnis, to embrace one in his armes.

Vlpianus, a famous lawier.

Vlpicum, i, n. g. great garlyke.

Vls, of whom cometh Vltra, and Vltimus, Cato vseth it for Vltro.

Vlterior, vlterius, further, more beyonde.

Quis est vlterior? who is that further beyonde?

Cupidus vlteriora audiendi, desyrous to heare those thynges that were behynde.

Vltimo, an aduerbe, at the last.

Vltimum, an aduerbe, the last tyme.

Vltimum illum visurus, that shoulde neuer see hym after.

Vltimus, a, um, last, sometyme it signifieth first.

Vltima platea, at the ende of the streete.

Vltimis in ædibus, on the bacheside of the house, in the vttermost parte of my house.

Vltima inopia, extreme pouertee and nede.

Denunciare necessitatem vltimam, to threaten that he woulde kyll one.

Vltima pœna, extreme punishement, peyne of death.

Vltimum bonum, the chiefe felicitee or goodnesse.

Vltima experiri, to vse the extreme remedie.

Vltima pati, to suffer extreme punishement, to suffer the greatest mischiefe that can be.

Vltima in malis hæc sunt illi, these thynges seme to hym to bee the extreeme and greatest euyls, that can chaunce to a man.

Vltimum principium, the first beginnyng.

Vltio, onis, f. g. vengeance, reuengement, takyng of punishement.

Vltor, oris, m. g. he that taketh vengeance.

Vltra, beyonde, moze, mozeouer, sometyme chyldysh and frowardly.

Vltra modum progredi, to passe measure.

Vt sustineri vltra non possent, that they could not be withstanded any longer.

Ne quid vltra requiratis, that you myght require no moze.

Vltrix, icis, the that taketh vengeance.

Vltro, willyngly, without desyre or compulsion, also mozeouer, of the owne accorde, or voluntarie wyll.

His lachrymis vitam damus & miserescimus vltro, and mozeouer take pitie on hym?

Vltro ad eum venies, thou wylte come vnto hym of thyne owne accorde or myndе, or vnsent for.

Vltro citroque verba facere, to talke and reason one to an other.

Vltro citroque cursare, to ren in and out from one to an other, to renne vp and downe, to ren forwarde and backewarde, to renne hither and thither.

Nuntiis vltro citroq; missis, messangers being sente from one to an other on bothe the partes.

Vltroneus, willyngly, with a free wyll.

Vlua, æ, f. g. reche or wedes of the sea.

Vlubræ, a village or small towne in Italie, where Augustus was nourisshed.

Vlula, æ, f. g. a shriche owle.

Vlulatus, us, m. g. an howlyng, lamentyng or cryng out.

Vlulatus, a, um, that hath howled.

Vlulo, aui, are, to howle as a dogge or woulfe dooeth.

Vlysses, the sonne of Laertes and Antholia, kinge of.

of the iles of Ithaca, and Dulichium, a man excelling all other Grekes, whiche came against Troie, in eloquence and subtilitie of witte, who after the subuersion of Troie, whan he hadde wandred .x. yeeres on the seas and marches therof, and had seen many countreys, finally returned home, and there a good space of tyme remayned vnknowne, and suffered many displeasures of the woers of his wife the chast Penelope, whom by the helpe of Telemachus his sonne and his swyneherdes, he at the last slew. notwithstandyng afterwarde, he hym selfe was slayne by Telegonus, his bastarde sonne with an arrow, not beyng knowen of the same Telegonus.

Vlyssipona, the chiefe citee of Portugall called Lispone.

V ANTE M

VMbella, æ, f. g. a litteil shadow, also a litteil roundē thynge, that gentilwomen beare in theyr handes, to shadowe them from the sonne. also the rounde tuite or head of fenell, wheron the seedes grow.

Vmber, one of the countrey of Umbria.

Vmbilicatim, in the facion of a nauill.

Vmbilicatus, a, um, that hath an nauil, or any thynge made lyke a nauill.

Vmbilicus, ci, m. g. the nauill, also the middes of any thyng. also a litle circle made in the groūd, to knowe whiche waie the wynde standeth. also it is an ornamente made of stone, tymber, or horne lyke to ones nauill. a bullō, such as is set on the backe of a booke. Vmbilici, be also small stones rounde and smothe.

Ad vmbilicum adducere, to bringe to a point.

Dies ad vmbilicum iam est, it is neone.

Peruenimus vsq; ad vmbilicos, we haue finisshed or made an ende.

Vmbo, onis, m. gene. the bosse of a buckler or shilde. it is sometyme taken for a buckeler.

Vmbra, æ, f. g. a shadow, it was also that whiche was called the gost of a man beyng dead, which not onely paynims, but also christians did suppose to appere visibly vnto men. also an vnbidden gueste, that accompanieth one that is bidden to a feast or diner.

Facere aut efficere vmbram, to caste a shadow.

Vmbras arborum amputare, to cut of boowes of trees that cast shadow.

Suam ipsius vmbram metuere, spoken pyouerbially of timorsome persons, which feare where none occasion is.

Vmbra & imago, cui opponitur, solida & expressa effigies.

Vmbra luxuriæ, id est, signum, vestigium.

Vmbra veritatis, a certaine apperaūce or likelyhode of trueth.

Vmbraculum, i, n. g. a place where men might be out of the sonne, or that whiche made shadow, an herber, a bowre, also the instrument, wherewith women shadowe theyr faces from the sonne.

Vmbraticus, a, um, lyke a shadowe, or of a shadowe.

Vmbraticus homo, a man liuing at ease, and out of all labour or businesse.

Vmbratilis, le, that is doen in the shadow, or as it were with ease, and without any sweate or peyne.

Vmbratiles res, trifling thynges, or trifles.

Vmbratilis pugna, exercise of feates of warre out of battaple, as in an house.

Vmbri, people of Italie now called Spoletani.

Vmbria, a parte of Italie,

Vmbrifer, a, um, makyng shadowe, as a great wood doeth.

Vmbrina and Vmbra, a fisshe, which by the description of Paulus Iouius, seemeth to me to bee an hallibutte, for the greatnesse and delicatie of the head, and similitude of a sturgion.

Vmbro, aui, are, to shadow.

Vmbro, onis, a ryuer in Lumbardie, called also Lamber.

Vmbrosus, a, um, hauyng muche shadowe, that casteth a great shadowe.

V, ANTE N.

VNā, together.

Vna cum Cicerone, together with Cicero.

Vna mecum, together with me.

Vnanimis, me, & vnanimus, a, um, of one mind and will.

Vnanimus consensus, one whole consent.

Vnanimitas, atis, f. g. concorde of myndes, vnanimitie.

Vncia, æ, f. g. an ounce, also an ynche.

Vncia agri, a measure of lande, the .xii. parte of Iugerum, conteinynge 2400. foote, that is 40. foote broade and .60. longe.

Vncialis, le, of or belongynge to an ounce or ynche.

Vncialis altitudo, an ynche length.

Literæ vnciales, letters an inche longe.

Vnciarius, a, um, of an ounce.

Vnciaria stips, the .xii. parte of a pounde.

Vnciariæ vites, vynes so planted, that one is from an other the .xii. parte of Iugerum.

Vnciaria vsura, vel fœnus vnciarium, when in the hundred one is gained, as in a hundred pounde .xx. shillinges, for the yeres lone.

Vnciatim, ynche by ynche, ynche meale.

Vncinatus, a, um, hooked or crooked, armed with hookes.

Vncinus, a litell clubbe or batte, crooked at the ende.

Vnciola, æ, f. g. an ynche.

Vnctio, onis, anoiētyng.

Vnctiusculus, a, um, that is somewhat anoynted, ted, also fattie, oyly, vnctious.

Vncto, aui, are, to anoynte often.
Vnctor, oris, m. g. a noyncter.
Vnctorius, a, um, belongyng to anoynetyng.
Vnctorium hypocaustum, a place nyghe to the stewe or hotte house, where men bee anoynted after they haue sweatte
Vnctum, the leafe of an hogge, whiche is the fatte that lieth by the backe and ribbes, whiche housebandes vse to rolle vp and kepe to make saulces, or els to fric meate, as fritours and pancakes.
Vnctura, æ, f. g. anoynetyng.
Vnctus, a, um, of Vngor, eris, anoynted or greased.
Vncus, i, m. gen. a batte or crooked clubbe. also any thyng that is crooked at the ende.
Vncus, a, um, crooked.
Vnda, æ, f gen. water, properly a waue, a surge, sometyme by translation, stirryng or businesse, also a great multitude of men.
Vnda prima prælı, that oyle that cometh firste out of the presse.
Innatare vndam, to swymme in the water.
Vndæ comitiorum, great businesse and stirryng at the assembles of people, the great diuersitee of opinions, the troublous geuyng of sentences.
Vndabundus, a, um, makyng great or many waues.
Vndans, antis, om. ge. wauyng or mouyng lyke the waues.
Æstus vndans, castyng out flames, lyke waues of water.
Vndatim, lyke to waues of the sea.
Vndatus, a, um, made lyke waues.
Vnde, from whens, whereto, whereby, wherof, wherfore, what to doe, from whiche thyng, of whom, how, by what meanes.
Vnde gentium, idem.
Vnde is? from whens comest thou?
Vnde aduenis? idem.
Tot res vnde emergi non potest, from the whiche a man can not escape.
Puer hic vnde est? Whose childe is this? from whose house came this childe?
Si habuerit, vnde tibi soluat, if he haue any thyng wherwith to paie you.
A prædonibus vnde emerat, of the whiche he bought hir.
Vnde tantum virium cæco? wherto hath a blynde man so great strength.
Vnde id scis? how knowest thou that? or wherby knowest thou that?
Vndeunde, of what place so euer it be, or from whens so euer it come.
Vndecunq; idem.
Vndecim, a leuen.
Vndeceni, æ, na, a leuen.
Vndecimus, a, um, the eleuenth.
Vndecentum, 99.

Vndecies, a leuen tymes.
Vndeciremis, is, a galey hauyng a leuen ordres of ores, or a leuen ores in euerie seate.
Vndecunq; fro what so euer place.
Vndenus, a, um, the leuenth.
Vndelibet from whens thou wilt.
Vndeoctoginta, lxxix.
Vndequadraginta, xxxix.
Vndequadragies, xxxix. tymes.
Vndequinquaginta, xlix.
Vndetrigesimus, a, um, xxix.
Vndeuicesimus, a, um, the nyntenth.
Vndeuiginti, xix. lackyng one of. xx.
Vndeuis, idem quod vndelibet.
Vndicola, he that dwelleth on the water.
Vndiq; on euery syde, from all partes.
Vndiqueuersum, on euery syde, rounde about.
Vndisonus, a, um, that maketh a noyse lyke the waues, whan they ryse and fall in the water, or dooeth roze as the water dooeth at a great floudde.
Vndiuomus, a, um, that casteth out water from hym.
Vndo, aui, are, to rise in waues, to make waues or surges.
Vndosus, a, um, full of waues or surges
Vndosum mare, a troublous sea and full of waues
Vndulatus, a, um, made lyke waues of the water.
Vndulata vestis, chablet, or a garmēt wrought as it were with riuers.
Vndula, læ, f. g. a little waue.
Vnedo, vnedinis, f. æ. m. gene. a hynde of wilde frute lyke apples, whiche is bitter, and hurteth both the head and the stomache. some vse it for a crabbe.
Vnguentum, u, n. gen. idem quod Vnguentum.
Vngo, vnxi, vngere, to anoynct, to grease, to smere.
Vngi ex cerussa, to be anointed with Ceruse.
Vnguen, inis, n. g. oynctment, or any thyng that is fattie.
Vnguentarius, rij, m. ge. or Vnguentaria, riæ, f. g. he or she that maketh swete oyles.
Vnguentaria, æ, fœm. gene. the crafte to make swecte oyles.
Vnguentarius, a, um, belongyng to oynctements or swecte oyles.
Vnguentatus, a, um, anoynted with swecte oyle.
Vnguentum, ti, n. ge. a swecte oynctement: it is vsed for euery oynctement.
Vngues, muskyls.
Vnguicula, læ, f. g. a littell softe nayle.
A teneris vnguiculis, from his tendre youth or infancy.
Vnguinosus, a, um, vnctious, that may be anoynted with.
Vnguis, guis, m gen. a nayle of the fyngers or toes, as well of a man as of a byrde or beast. sometyme the houfe of an oxe or cowe. also a littell branche of a ponge shoote of a vine. it is also alſo a diſeaſe, whiche at length couereth all the eie with ſcſihe in the corner of the eie. it is in an horſe taken of Herocles for an hawe in the eie.

Vngues arrodere, to gnawe on his nayles, a prouerbe, applied to them, which are in a ſtudie, how they maie alter ſuche thynges as they dooe repent them of.

Vngues ferrei, certayne inſtrumentes to gaſher grapes.

Vnguem latum non diſcedere, not to depart a naple bredthe out of his place, prouerbially vſed, not to diſſent or diſagree from one, the leaſte thyng in the worlde.

Medium vnguem oſtendere dicitur, whiche doeth bitterly contemne or deſpiſe an other.

Ad vnguem, perfectly.

Vnguis, in a roſe, is the white and thicke part of the floure nere the toppe of the ſtalke.

Vngulla, læ, f. g.

Vngula, læ, fœm. gene. the houfe of an horſe or other beaſte.

Omnibus vngulis, with all might and power, with toothe and naple, with hande and foote.

Vngularius, a great naple and ragged.

Vngularus, a, um, that hath foule great nailes.

Vngulum, li, n. g. of olde writers was taken for a renge, or a tymble to ſow with.

Vnguſtus, a croked ſtaffe, or ſuche as commonly men dooe call a crooke, wherwith they drawe to them anp thyng.

Vnicalamum frumentum, wheate whiche hath but one reede growyng out of the rote.

Vnicaulis, le, that hath but one ſtalke without anp branche.

Vnicè, onely, eſpecially, ſingularly.

Vnicè illum diligit, he loueth hym as his onely derelyng.

Vnicolor, oris, om. g. of one colour.

Vnicornis, nis, m. gen. or Vnicornius, nij, maſ. gen. and Vnicornium, nij, neu. ge. a beaſte, called an vnicorne.

Vnicornis, ne, that hath but one horne.

Vnicuba, a woman, whiche lieth or companieth but with one man.

Vnicus, a, um, one alone.

Vnigenitus, ti, m. g. one childe without mo.

Vnimugæ vineæ, vines, in the waiche vpon the proppes beyng ſet vp, ſundry rapies are laied on the one ſyde onely.

Vnimanus, a, um, that hath but one hande.

Vnio, ini, ire, to ioyne together, to vnite.

Vnio, onis, f. g. concorde.

Vnio, onis, m. g. a perle. alſo an opnion.

Vnioculus, li, m. g. he that hath but one eie.

Vnipes, pedis, m. g. hauyng but one foote.

Vniſtirpis, pe, that hath but one ſtemme.

Vnitas, atis, f. g. vnitee, vnitpng or ioyngnyng of two thynges or mo together.

Vniter, together in one.

Vnitio, onis, a ioyngnyng together.

Vnitus, a, um, ioyned together in one.

Vniuerſalis, le, vniuerſall, belongyng to all.

Vniuerſe, vniuerſally, generally.

Vniuerſipotens, he that hath power ouer all.

Vniuerſipotentia, power ouer all.

Vniuerſitas, atis, f. g. vniuerſitee, generalitee.

Vniuerſus, a, um, vniuerſall, all without exception. ſometyme it ſignifieth the whole.

Mare vniuerſum, the whole ſea or all the ſea.

Vniuerſus exercitus, the whole armie.

Vniuerſi, all together.

In vniuerſum, in generall.

Vniuerſum in partes diuidere, to diuide the whole into partes.

Vniuerſa vita, the whole life.

Vniuira, a woman hauyng but one huſbande.

Vniuocus, a, um, that ſignifieth but one thyng.

Vniuocè, of the ſame ſignification.

Vniuſmodi, of one ſorte or faſhion, like.

Vnoculus, loke Vnioculus.

Vnoſe, olde writers vſed for Simul, together.

Vnni, hungarians.

Vnquàm, anp tyme, euer.

Vnquàm genuiſſem, idem quod Vnquàm.

Vt nemo vnquàm, as neuer man was in the worlde.

Vnus, na, num, one. alſo alone.

Vnis ædibus, in the ſame houſe.

Vno animo, of one accorde, with one mynde or conſent.

Vnus quiuis, who ſo euer thou wilte.

Vno ictu, at one ſtroke.

Vno verbo, at one woorde.

Vnum, one thyng.

Vnus ex multis, Vnus ex omnibus, one alone onely.

Vnus tum domi eram, I was then at whom alone.

Vnus omnium, onely or alone amõg all other.

Illum curo vnũ, I paſſe or care for hym alone.

Ad vnum, at ones.

Calumnium vni tantum animalium homini, a man is balde and no beaſte els.

Vnus & alter, two, one or two.

Vno aut altero die, in a daie or two onely.

Vnus atq; idem, the ſelfe ſame perſone.

Vnus de ſeptem, one of the ſeuen.

Dum rure abſum vnos ſex dies, while I haue ben in the countrey but one poore ſix daies.

Vno exemplo omnes viuunt, they liue all after one faſhion.

Vnus è vulgo, one of the common people.

Te vnum ex omnibus amat, he loueth you onely amonge all other.

Vnis moribus viuunt, they kepe the ſame faſhions or maners in their liuynge ſtill.

Vna harum quæuis cauſa, anp one of all theſe reaſons or cauſes.

Vno quoq; gradu, at euery ſteppe.

Vna hæc ſpes eſt, there is no hope but this.

Vno verbo cloquere, tell me at a woorde, tell me at ones.

Hic vnus, this man onely.
Hoc ego scio vnum, I knowe this one thyng.
Vnusquisque, quæque, quodq; vel quidq, euery one.
Vnusquisq; optimus, euery honest man.

V, ANTE O.

VOberca, a towne by Bylbo in Spayne.
Vocabulum, li, n, g. the denomination of any thyng, a woorde, a name.
Vocalis, le, lowde. also that whiche hath a voice.
Vocalitas, atis, f. g. a tune or sound of a voice.
Vocamen, minis, n. g. the name of a thyng.
Vocamen trahere de re aliqua, to haue the name of a thynge.
Vocatio, ônis, a callyng.
Vocatiuus, a, um, pertenyng to callyng.
Vocator, oris, m. ge. a caller, one that is sent to bidde men to supper or dinar.
Vocatus, a, um, called, bidden.
Vocatus, us, m. g. a callyng vpon, a prayeng.
Vociferans, antis, cryng out, brayeng.
Vociferatio, onis, a cryng out.
Vociferator, oris, m. g. he that crieth out.
Vociferor, aris, ari, to crie out, to crie loude, to braie.
Vocifero, idem.
Vocito, aui, are, to call often.
Voco, aui, are, to call, to bidde, to aske, to geue a name.
Me ad Democritum vocas, thou doost allege Democritus, and woldest haue me to beleue hym.
Ad calculos vocare, to call to accompte.
Ad computationem vocare, idem.
Ad exemplar alterius vocare, to exhorte one to folowe the example of an other man.
In discrimen vocare, to put in daunger.
In ius vel iudicium vocare, to accuse one openly: to bringe an action agaynst one.
Vocare ad cœnam, to bidde to supper.
Conuiuam vocare, idem.
Vocauerat me in hunc diem, he bade me come as this date.
Vocare clamoribus hostem, to prouoke the ennemies to battaple with cryng to them.
Vocare deum clamore, to call vpon god.
Nomine vocare aliquem, to call one by name.
Vocat pluuiam cornix, the crowe signifieth by hir cryng that we shall haue rayne.
In crimen vocare, to accuse, to blame, to laie to ones charge.
In dubium vocare, to doubte of.
Ad exitium & vastitatem vocare, to waste and destroy vtterly.
Ad libertatem seruos vocare, to manumise or make free.
In luctum vocare, to make heauy or sorowfull, to cause to mourne.
In odium vocabatur, it was hated.

In partes mulieres vocatæ sunt, the women were made partners, or willed to bee parte takers.
In periculum vocantur, they are brought in daunger.
In suspicionem vocare, to suspecte.
Ad procuractionem rei alicuius vocari, to bee willed to take the charge of a thynge vpon hym.
Ad testimonium vocare, to call one to beare witnesse.
Ad vitam vocare aliquem, to bidde one be of good chere, and put hym in hope of lyfe: or to courage or exhorte hym to lyue.
In insimulacionem probrorum vocare, to accuse one, or laie certayne reprochefull thynges to his charge.
Voconia, a kynde of peares.
Voconij, people of Narbon in Fraunce.
Vocula, læ, f. g. a litteli voice. locutrix obloqui. also a litteli woorde.
Vogesus, a hyll in the marches of Langres in Fraunce.
Vola, læ, fœ. ge. the middes of the hande or the foote. it is taken for the sole of the foote, the palme of the hande.
Volans, antis, om. g. fleeyng, rennyng swiftely.
Volantia sectatur, he endeuoureth to catche an hare with a tabber.
Volantes, substantiuely, birdes.
Volaterræ, a towne in Hetruria.
Volaticus, a, um, that fleeth or goeth awaie sodeinely, flittyng, vnconstant.
Volatilis, le, that fleeth or can flee.
Volatura, ræ, f. g. idem quod Volatus.
Volatus, us. m. g. a fleeyng.
Volcæ, Languedoche in Fraunce.
Volcatius, the name of diuers Romains.
Volema, orum, neu. gene. plu. a great peare, a wardyn.
Volens, entis, om. g. willyng.
Volenti animo, willyngly, with a wyllynge mynde,
Volgiolum, li, neu. ge. an instrument of houses bandry.
Volgiuagus, looke Vulgiuagus.
Voliba, a towne in Loynewaple called Bodwyn.
Volito, aui, are, to flee often, to renne in and out often.
Cupiditate gloriæ volitare, to anaunce hym selfe greatly with the desyre of glorie.
Volo, aui, are, to flee, to renne or goe quickely or fast.
Volant literæ, letters bee caried with greate speede.
Volat nauis, the shippe sayleth very swiftely.
Fama volat, fame is spreadde abrode quickely.
Volat ætas, our tyme or age passeth a pace.
Volant tela, dartes be hurled, or flee one at an other.
Volo, vis, volui, velle, to wyll, to be willyng, to wisshe.

Volo tuam gratiam, I deſyre your fauour.
Volo te, I wolde ſpeake with the.
Volo te paucis, and Tribus verbis te volo, I wolde ſpeake with you a woorde or two.
Velit nolit, whether he wyll or no.
Rhodum volo pueri cauſa, I wyll goe to Rhodes for the childes ſake, or becauſe of the childe.
Ne quid emiſſe velit, let him not bie any thing: or leat hym ſee that he bie no thynge.
Quem locum uolo tibi notum, whiche place I wolde ye dyd know.
Leuiter bene velle alicui, to owe one lyttell good wyll.
Volo omnia tua cauſa, id eſt, bene tibi cupio, I wyll doe all for your ſake that I can poſſible, I owe you verye good wyll, I deſire to do you any pleaſure that I can poſſible.
Valde eius cauſa volo, I wolde verate faine: or I deſyre greatly to dooe hym pleaſure.
Per eos, qui noſtra cauſa volunt, by theym, whiche deſyre or couet to doe vs pleaſure.
Eum honorem deum tibi fortunare volo, I praie God proſpere you in that honour or dignitee.
Volo defenſam, id eſt, cupio defendi.
Quibus me vehementer excuſatum volo, to whom I deſyre greatly to haue my ſelfe excuſed.
Volo oratum à vobis rem iſtam, I wolde deſyre you this thynge.
Vos gratos volo, I wolde deſyre you.
Nunc vt veniret velim, nowe I wolde to god he wolde come.
Quid ſibi vult iſtud? what meaneth or ſignifieth this?
Volones, were bonde men at Rome, whiche in the warres of Carthage, whã there lacked Romayns, offered theym ſelfes to fyght for theyr maiſters: and becauſe they dyd it willyngely without conſtreinete, thei were called Volones.
Volſci, an auncient people of Italie.
Volſella, læ, f. g. an inſtrument to pluche heares from the body or face, pincers.
Volſinium, a towne of Tuſcan called now Walſena.
Voſſus, a, um, for Verſus, a, um, or Vulſus, a, um.
Volua, æ, f. g. for Vulua.
Volubilis, le, that is or maie be eaſyly turned or tumbled.
Fortuna volubilis, vnconſtant fortune, that neuer abydeth in one ſtate.
Volubilis, is an herbe, which renneth vp by trees, hauyng red braunches, & the leaues byting and bliſteryng the tounge.
Volubilitas, atis, f. g. the turnyng of any thyng.
Volubilitas fortunæ, the vnconſtantneſſe of fortune.
Volubilitas linguæ, the mouyng or waggyng of the tounge, quicke ſpeakyng.
Volubilitas verborum, quicke pronouncyng of woordes: or the fallyng or meaſure of woordes in ſpeakyng.
Volubiliter, with a certayne meaſure, numbre, or fallyng in woordes.
Volucer, cris, cre, any thinge that fleeth, ſwifte, lyght.
Aquæ volucres, riuers.
Fortuna volucris, wauerynge and flittyng fortune.
Volucra, cræ, f. g. a vermins, whiche eateth the tender vines.
Volucris, cris, f. g. all thynge that doeth flee, as a byrde, a flye, a waſpe. &c.
Volucrum, the after birthe in a woman.
Voluens, entis, participiũ, or a nowne of a participle, turnyng, wrappyng, or rennyng rounde, thynkyng in the mynde.
Plauſtra voluẽtia, id eſt, volubilia, that turne and renne rounde.
Senſus varios voluens, myndyng diuers things: or, pondering ſondry thinges in his mind.
Volumen, minis, n. g. a booke, ſometyme parte of a boothe, called a volume.
Impendere tota volumina in diſputationem, &c. to ſpende or conſume whole bookes in diſputyng and reaſonyng a matter.
Voluntarie, and Voluntariõ, redily, willyngly, promptly, with a ready mynde.
Voluntarius, a, um, voluntarie, willyng.
Voluntaria herba, an herbe that groweth natu rally without ſowyng.
Auxilia voluntaria, ſuccours ſente of a mans owne accorde.
Mors voluntaria, voluntarie death.
Voluntarius adeſt, he is there readie with a franke or free courage.
Oblatio voluntaria, whan one forgetteth a thynge willyngly.
Voluntas, atis, fœ. ge. wyll, affection.
Voluntas erga aliquem, the good affection or wyll towarde one.
Si voluntate nolet, if he wyl not freely without compulſion.
Id voluntate impetret, let hym obteyne that of you wyth your good wyll.
Omnium voluntate, with the good wyll and fauour of all men.
Ex voluntate alicuius aliquid facere, to doo a thyng accordyng as one woulde haue hym.
De ſua voluntate erga Cæſarem, of his good wyll that he had to dooe pleaſure or ſeruice to Cæſar.
Mutua voluntas, mutuall loue and good wyll one to an other.
Voluntas eius à me ſine cauſa abhorret, he hateth me without a cauſe.
Voluntas veſtra ſi ad poetã acceſſerit, if you dooe fauour. &c.
Voluo, volui, vere, to wrappe, to turne, alſo to caſte or thynke in the mynde.
Libros voluere, to turne bookes, to rede bookes hes diligently.

Cogitationes voluere, to thinke or caste many thynges in his mynde.
Secum aliquid voluere, to cast in his mynde, to thynke.
Voluere cum animo, idem.
Voluox, uocis, masc. gen. a little wourme with many legges, whiche eateth the leaues of vines and of other trees.
Volup, or Volupe, delectable, pleasant.
Voluptia, the goddesse of voluptee, or pleasure.
Voluptabilis, le, that reioyseth, acceptable, pleasaunt.
Voluptarius, a, um, pleasant, that bringeth pleasure. also geuen to pleasure.
Homo voluptarius, a man geuen to pleasure.
Voluptarius sensus, a sense that taketh great pleasure in thynges that it vseth.
Voluptaria loca, places of pleasure.
Voluptas, atis, fœ. g. an inordinate reioysyng or delectacion in thynges worldly or carnall, voluptee, pleasure, delite, sensualitee.
Voluptatem magnam nuntias, thou tellest me very good tidinges.
Spero fore nobis hanc cõiunctionem voluptati, I trust that this alliaunce shalbe to our comforte.
Voluptatem eius capio, I take great pleasure in hym.
Voluptate capi, to be delited.
Esse voluptati, to be pleasant or acceptable.
Mea voluptas, my onely pleasure, my solace, my delyte.
Cum voluptate legere, to take great pleasure in readyng.
Semper est in voluptate, he liueth in perpetuall pleasure.
Dolere, and In voluptate esse, contrary.
Voluptuarius, and Voluptarius, a, um, that is geuen to carnall delectacion.
Voluptuosus, a, um, voluptuous, vnsaciable in carnall pleasure or delectacion.
Voluptuosa res, a very pleasant thyng.
Volusius, a poete of Rome.
Voluta, tæ, m. g. that whiche keruers and peinters doe call orapery and ciserp, wrought like clothe, or leaues turned diuers waies.
Volutabrum, bri. neu. gen. a place where swyne doe walowe.
Volutabundus, a, um, walowyng, turnyng, tossyng in the mynde.
Volutatim, an aduerbe, signifiyng eftsoones tossyng in the mynde, with tumblyng and tossyng.
Volutatio, onis, a rollyng, a tumblyng.
Volutatus, us, m. g. idem.
Volutatus, a, um, that hath rolled or tumbled in a place.
Voluto, aui, are, to tourne lipng, to walowe, to reuolue and tosse in the mynde, to tumble.
In luto volutare, to tumble in the mire.
Animum cogitationibus volutare, to thynke on diuers thynges, or to cast diuers thynges in his mynde.
Secum volutare aliquid, and in animo volutare, idem.
In omni genere scelerum volutare, to walow or liue cõtinually in all kindes of naughtinesse.
In secreto cum amicis aliquid volutare, To talke or common of a thynge secretely with his frendes.
Vomer, eris, m. g. the culter of a ploughe.
Vomica, cæ, f. g. a rotten impostume, out whereof matter renneth. Plautus vseth it for a purse full of money.
Vomitio, onis, f. g. a vometyng or perbrakyng.
Vomitor, oris, m. g. he that vometh.
Vomitorius, a, um, that hath the strength or nature to make one vomite.
Vomito, aui, are, to vomite often.
Vomitus, us, m. g. a vometyng.
Varius vomitus, whan the vomite is of diuers colours.
Vomo, mui, mere, to vomite or perbrake.
In gremio suo vomere, to spue in his owne lappe.
Vomor, vomeris, the passiue.
Vopiscus, sci, mas. gen. where two children are conceyued, and one of them is aborte, he that cometh to perfecte birth is called Vopiscus. it was also the name of one that wrate the liues of emperours.
Voracitas, atis, f. gen. gluttony, deuourynge, excessiue eatyng.
Voraciter, like a glutton.
Voraginosus, a, um, full of gulfes or swalowyng pittes.
Vorago, ginis, fœm. gen. a swalow or gulfe, a quaue mire.
Vorago patrimonij, a deuourer or a riottous spender of his patrimony.
Voratio, onis, a deuourynge.
Vorax, acis, om. gene. a glutton, a rauenour, a great eater or deuourer, a gourmandour.
Voro, aui, are, to swalow downe meate ere it be chewed. also to eate gredily.
Viam vorare, to renne a pase.
Vorsura, for Versura.
Vorsuram soluere, a prouerbe applied to them, that to discharge them selfes of one busynesse, that they enter into an other more perneful or daungerous.
Vortex, for Vertex.
Vorto, for Verto.
Vortumnalia, a solemne feast to the god Vortumnus.
Vos, vestrum, vel vestri, you.
Vosmetipsi, or Vosipsi, you your selfe.
Votiuus, a, um, that is vowed. also desyred.
Votiua verba, votiuæ preces, wordes and prayers, wherin we desyre somewhat.
Votiuæ aures, eares whiche desyre to here somewhat.

Legatio votiua, looke Legatio.
Ludi votiui, plaies that one hath vowed.
Voto, & votito, to make a vow.
Votum, ti, n. g. a vow. sometyme a desyre. sometyme prayer.
Voti compos, that hath that whiche he wished or desyred.
Vota publica suscipere, to make generall prayer, solemnitee or supplication.
Facere vota, to make vowes. also to wysshe or praye god, to desyre.
Reddere vota, to accomplysshe that he vowed.
Liberi voti, to be discharged or quitte of his vow.
Implere votum alicuius, to fulfyll ones desyre.
Melior fingi ne voto quidem potuit, a man coulde not wysshe hym to be better.
Votus, a, um, vowed.
Voueo, ui, uere, to vowe or make a vowe.
Votum vouere, to make a vowe.
Vouere caput pro salute patriæ, to put his life in daunger for safegarde of his countrey.
Vox, vocis, fœ. ge. a voyce, a sowne. sometyme a woorde.
Voce assa, with the voyce onely of a man, without any instrument of musike.
Absonus voce, he that hath an vntunable voyce.
Canora vox, a lowde and shrill voyce.
Clara & suauis vox, a clere and sweete voyce.
Contentio vocis, lowde speakyng.
Remissio vocis, temperate and low speakyng.
Intentio vocis, streignyng of the voyce.
Mollis vox, a womanyshe voyce.
Hæc vna vox omnium, all the worlde accordeth in this, or saieth this.
Vna voce, all with one accorde.
Hæc vox, this saiyng or woorde.
Vocem excitare, to speake hygher and hygher by little and little.
Glutire vocem, to rattyll in the throte as one were choked, to make a noyse lyke a raupn.
Iacere vocem, to spread a rumour, to speake, to cast out a woorde.
Vocem mittere contra aliquem, to speake against one.
Vox de questura nulla missa est, there was no woorde spoken of the questourshippe.
Vocem pro aliquo mittere, to speake for one.
Rumpere vocem, to speake out after longe silence.
Mittere liberam vocem, to speake frankely and freely.
Latina voce loqui, to speake latine.

V, ANTE P.

VPilio, onis, m. g. Virgill hath for Opilio.
Vpupa, v pupæ, fœ. ge. a birde, no bigger then a thrush, and (as Plinie saieth) hath a creste from his bill to the vttermost part of his heade, whiche he strouteth vp or holdeth downe accordyng to his affection, wherefore it can not be our lapwing, as it hath ben take for. it is rather called a houpe. Plautus vseth this woorde for an harlot.

V, ANTE R.

VRania, æ, fœ. ge. or Vranie, es, f. ge. one of the muses, which is president of Astronomie.
Vragus, of olde writers was vsed for Orcus, death.
Vranoscopos, a certaine fyshe hauyng one eie in his head.
Vranus, the father of Saturnus, called also Cælum.
Vrbanatim, lyke a gentilman, curteously, graciously.
Vrbane, curteously, with a good grace, pleasantly.
Vrbanicani milites, souldiours of the citee.
Vrbanitas, atis, f. g. curtesie, good maner, gentilnesse in speache, ciuilitee: also scoffyng, iesting.
Vrbanus, a, um, of the citee, that dwelleth in the citee, ciuile, curteouse, gentill in speache and iesture.
Arbor vrbana, cui syluestris opponitur.
Mus vrbanus, a towne mouse.
Serui vrbani, that serue in the towne or citee.
Prædia vrbana, houses, either in the citee or countrey, wher gentill men lie.
Vrbicula, æ, f. g. a little citee or towne.
Vrbicus, a, um, of the citee, that dwelleth in the citee or towne.
Vrbina, æ, f. g. a certaine weapon.
Vrbinum, a towne in Vmbria, the people wherof be called Vrbinates.
Vrbo, aui, are, to cast a mere with a ploughe.
Vrbs, vrbis, f. gen. a walled towne, also a citee, sometyme it is taken for Ciuitas, the multitude of citizens.
Vrce, a towne of Spayne, called now Aquilæ.
Vrceolaris, an herbe, whiche is called pelytorie of the wall.
Vrceolus, li, m. g. a little water pytcher.
Vrceus, ei, m. ge. a pytcher pot, wherin water is caried.
Vredo, inis, f. g. the faut in corne or trees, when they be blasted. it signifieth also an ytche and burnyng in the skynne.
Vrens, entis, om. g. burnyng.
Vreteres, veines in the body, by the whiche the vryne descendeth to the bladder.
Vrgens, entis, om g. forcyng, streignyng, calling ernestly vpon.
Vrgeo, vrsi, vrgere, to prouoke, to hast forth, to streigne, to enforce, to presse, to call ernestly on, to be streict or ernest vpon one. sometyme to couer, to oppresse, to vexe, to infest, to molest.
Angustiis vrgeri, to be in a narrow streict, to be hard streigned.

Fame

Fame ferroꝝ vrgeri, to be preſſed or ſore grieued. &c.

Quanto mœrore vrgear vides, with how great ſorow or heauineſſe I am moleſted or greued, you ſee.

Literis vrgeri, to be earneſtly called vppon in letters.

Somnus vrgebat, I or he had muche a doo to forbeare ſleape.

Circiter horas duas graui prælio vrgerunt, about two houres they fought very egerly, or preaſed vpon their enemies verie ſore.

Vrgent tamen & nihil remittunt, and yet they be erneſt vpon men. &c.

Illud vrgeam, I maie be erneſt vpon you in this point to anſwere me.

Ius Craſſus, æquitatem Antonius vrgebat, Craſſus alleged earneſtly the rigour of the lawe, Antonius equitee.

Quin tu vrges iſtam occaſionem? why doeſt you not purſue this preſent occaſion?

Propoſitum vrgere, to continue and go forwarde in his purpoſe.

Male adminiſtrandæ prouinciæ vrgebatur, he was earneſtly accuſed or called vpon, for miſgouernyng of the prouince: or the miſguidyng of the prouince was earneſtly laied to his charge.

De ædificatione tua Cyrum vrgere non ceſſo, to ſolicite or call earneſtly vpon.

Vri, orum, wylde beaſtes lyke oxen, called buſgles or buffes.

Vrica, æ, f.c. ge. an hurt that cometh to corne by blaſtyng.

Vriculum, li, any thyng that is holow.

Vrigo, ginis, idem quod Vredo.

Vrina, æ, f.g. vrine or pyſſe.

Vrina genitalis, the ſeede of man or beaſt.

Mouere vrinam, to prouoke vrine.

Ciere & concitare vrinã, to make one to pyſſe

Vrinam tardare & citare, contrary.

Facere or reddere vrinam, to make water.

Vrinæ difficultas, peine in pyſſyng.

Vrinator, oris, m. ge. one that diueth or ſwymmeth vnder the water.

Vrinatrix, tricis, a birde, called a douker, or didapper.

Vrino, aui, are, to make water.

Vrino, aui, are, and Vrinor, aris, ari, to dyue or ſwymme vnder the water.

Vrinum ouum, an egge, that proueth not vnder an henne or other byrde.

Vrion, or Vrium, rij, a certayne kynde of earth.

Vrito, aui, are, to burne ſore or vehemently.

Vrium, a citee of Spayne.

Vrna, æ, f. g. a meaſure of thynges liquide, containyng xviii. Sextarios. And it is the halfe deale of Amphora, and is of our meaſure two gallons, and one pottell. it is alſo the generall name of a water pytcher or potte. alſo a potte, wherinto the Prætor put the names of iudges, whan they ſhoulde bee choſen.

Vrnalis, le, belongyng to a pytcher or potte, or that containeth the meaſure called Vrna.

Vrnarium, ij, n. g. a bourde in a kitchen, wherein water pottes be ſette.

Vrnula, æ, f. g. a little water pitcher or potte.

Vro, vſi, ere, to burne, to tourment or vexe.

Vrere, is alſo to byte as froſte doeth the graſſe.

Vro hominem, I haue geuen hym a coſy, I nettle hym or byte hym by the ſtomache. I vexe hym.

Vrolanium, a towne in Englande, called ſainct Albans.

Vropigium, or Oripigium, gij, neu. gene. the lowgheſt and narroweſt part of the chyne, next to the fundement, the rumpe.

Vror, eris, vri, to be burned.

Vri, to burne in loue.

Vri virgis, to be beaten or ſcurged.

Vrpeicis, m. ge. an inſtrument belongyng to a houſbandyte.

Vruncum, i, n. g. the loweſt parte of the eare of corne, next to the ſtraw.

Vrſa, æ, two fygures of ſterres, the one called Vrſa maior, and the other Vrſa minor.

Vrſa Balnia, the citee of Piſenes.

Vrſa, æ, f. g. a ſhe beare.

Vrſinus, a, um, of a beare.

Vrſulus, or Vrſellus, li, m. gen. a little or yonge beare.

Vrſus, i, m. g. a male beare.

Vrtica, cæ, f. gen. a nettle. alſo the tickling of leachery. alſo a fyſſhe, whiche, as Paulus Iouius writeth, is of the quantitee of a walnut, and the heuerynge of him, is betwene a ſhell and an hard ſkynne, and is ſomewhat redde, and the fyſſhe of hym is harde. Ariſtotle de partibus animalium, lib. 4. ſaieth, Vrtica hath no ſhell, but is cleane out of a ſhel, and is of that ſort of fiſſhe, whiche be of an vncertaine nature, betwene a plant and a liuyng creature.

VSia, for Eſſentia, or Subſtantia.

Vſio, onis, f. g. idem, quod vſus.

Vſitate, after the accuſtomed faſion, as they vſe commonly.

Vſitatio, onis, an vſage.

Vſitor, aris, ari, to vſe often.

Vſitatus, a, um, muche accuſtomed, muche vſed.

Vſitata conſuetudo, the common cuſtome, the accuſtomed faſion.

Honos vſitatus, a dignitee or honor accuſtomably geuen.

Tempus vſitatum ad aliquid faciendum, the accuſtomed tyme for any thyng to be doen in.

Vſitatum eſt, it is a common cuſtome, it is often tymes vſed.

Vſpiam, in any place, to ſome place, any where, alſo in any thyng.

Num me expertus vſpiam? dydſt thou euer

wroue me in any thynge.

Vſq; any where, in any place, in any thynge or matter, in any wyſe or maner.

Vſq; gentium, any where, in any place of the worlde.

Neq; hic, neque alibi vſq;, in me erit mora, neither in this matter, neither in any thynge elles. &c.

Hinc ſciri, potuit, haud vſquam alibi, herby a man myght knowe, and in nothynge better.

Vſq; vntyll, welnygh, diligently, continually, ſo longe, alwaie.

Vſq; dum, vntyll.

Vſq; adeo, id eſt, in tantum, ſo much, ſo greatly, alſo ſo longe.

Vſque eo, in ſo muche.

Vſq; ad pridie calendas Maias, vntyll the daie before the calendes of Maie, or the laſte daie of Aprill.

Omnes conſulares vſque ad Pompeium collegam, ſauyng or except Pompeie.

Vſq; ſub extremum brumæ intractabilis imbrem, about the ende of the blusterynge and ſtormy wynter.

Vſq; Romam, euen to Rome.

Ab quo vſque ad mala, proverbially, from the beginnyng to the endyng.

Vſq;, is ſometyme an aduerbe.

Vſque à cunabulis, euen from his cradle or infancie.

Vſque à mane ad veſperum, euen from mornyng till night.

Vſque a Romulo, euen from the tyme of Romulus.

Vſque adhuc, hyther vnto, to this tyme.

Ex Aethiopia eſt vſque hæc, this wenche came euen as farre as Aethiope.

Vſque adeo donec. &c. ſo longe, vntyll. &c.

Vſque adeo dum, idem.

Quantum velis, vſque aſſatim, as muche as thou wylt, euen to thy fyll.

Vſq; eo dum. &c. ſo longe vntyll.

Vſque eo ſum eneruatus vt. &c. I am ſo weakened or made feble that. &c.

Trans Alpes vſq; tranſfertur, it is brought as farre as from beyonde the Alpes.

Me & iſtam pſaltriam pugnis vſque occidit, id eſt, pene, he hath almoſt killed me and this poore ſynging wenche with beatyng and thumpyng with his fiſtes.

Vſque adero domi, I wyll be ſtill or tarie ſtill at home.

Qui vna vſque adfuerim, whiche was there preſent with hym all the whyle.

Vſquequaque, all about, euery where, alwaie, continually.

Aut vndique religionem tolle aut vſquequaque conſerua, or kepe it whole ſtyll.

Vſquequo, vntyll, whan or what.

Vſtica, an yſle in Italie.

Vſtio, onis, a burnyng, a markynge with a hotte yron, a ſcarynge.

Vſtor, oris, m. g. he that burneth dead bodies.

Vſtrigo, ginis, blaſt of corne.

Vſtrina, æ, fœm. ge. the meltynge houſe or place, where mettall is molten or hette. alſo the place where dead bodies were burned.

Vſtulo, aui, are, to burne or ſere a thynge.

Vſtus, a, um, burned.

Vſualis, le, vſuall, that ſerueth for our vſe.

Vſuarius, rij, m. g. he that is in poſſeſſion, the pernour of the profites, the occupier.

Vſuarius, a, um, idem quod Vſualis.

Vſucapio, onis, f. g. the obteinyng to be owner of any thinge, by the poſſeſſion of a terme of yeres, appoynted by the lawe.

Vſucapio, ſucapis, cæpi, ere, to come to bee maiſter or owner of a thynge by preſcription or poſſeſſiõ of a longe tyme, appointed by the law.

Vſura, æ, f. ge. vſe or occupyng of a thyng. alſo money geuen aboue the due, for the lone of any thynge.

Vſura falſi gaudij frui, to reioyce or be gladde in vayne.

Vſuram huius lucis eripere, to kyll.

Dare alicui diuturnam lucis vſuram, to ſuffre one to lyue longe.

Vſura ſemiſſium, where they geue lyre for the yerely lone of one hundred: as, if I borowe of one an hundred pounde, and paie to hym euery moneth ten ſhillinges, during the tyme of the lone: this yeldeth euery yere. vi. li. for y hundred.

Vſura centeſima, that vſurie, whiche within an hundred monethes, is equall with the principall ſumme, that is in. viii. yeres and one moneth, whiche is of our money. xii. li. in the hundred. Dextentaria, tenne in the hundred. Dodrantalis, nyne in the hundred. Beſſalis, viii. Quincuntialis, v. Trientarium, iiii. Quadrantalis, iii. Sextantarius, ii. Vncialis, one in the hundred.

Vſurarius, a, um, that whiche is occupied or ſet out to hire.

Vſurpatio, onis, an vſurpyng, vſurpacion, often vſyng of a thynge.

Vſurpatione vocis abſtinere, to forbeare the vſe of a woorde, or not to ſpeake, not to vſe his voyce.

Mentio & vſurpatio ciuitatis, whan one ſaieth that he is a citizin.

Ad vſurpationem vetuſtatis, after the auncient vſe and facion.

Vſurpo, aui, are, to vſurpe, to vſe a thyng often and muche, be it in woorde or deede, to take agaynſte ryght and reaſon, to haue often in his mouthe, to name often.

Vſurpare nomen ciuitatis, to ſaie that he is a citizen.

Dictum alterius vſurpare, to vſe an others mans woorde or ſaiyng.

Ius vſurpare, to take poſſeſſion.

Hoc genus pœnæ ſæpe in improbos eſt vſurpatum, panum, this kynde of punishement was often tymes vsed to naughtie and mischeuous persons.

Vsurpare memoriam alicuius, to make mencion of a thynge.

Apud Platonem vsurpatum, often tymes mencioned or vsed of Plato.

Nomen falsum benefici vsurpare, to be vnworthyly called a benefite.

Oculis vsurpare aliquid, to see a thynge.

Vsus, us, m. g. vse, sometyme the occupacion or exercise of a thyng also profite or fruite, practise

Vsus fructus, the vse of an other mans goodes, by the consent of the owner, the substance of the thynges beyng saued.

Vsu venit, it happeneth ofte.

Quorum indiget vsus, that be expedient or profitable for ones occupation.

Quem præbet vsum, to what vse it serueth.

Mihi vsu venit hoc, this chaunceth to me.

Si vsus veniat tibi, if the mattier so require, if it chance to be expedient or requisite for you.

Eadem mihi vsu venirent omnia, all the same thynges wolde chance to me.

Vsui esse, to bee profitable or expedient, to serue, to ayde, to helpe.

Non sine vsu fuerit, it wyll not bee vnprofitable.

Ex vsu nostro est, it is for our profite.

In vsu esse, to be vsed.

Vsu rerum antecedere, to haue more experience or practise in a thynge, than an other.

Ex vsu vitæ est, it is profitable for the lyfe of man.

Si quando vsus esset, if neede were at any tyme.

Non vsus facto est mihi, I haue no nede so to doe, or it is not expedient for me so to doe.

Vsus est hominem astutum. &c. id est, opus est homine astuto.

Non vsus veniet spero, it shall not nede I truste, or it shall not come to passe I hope.

Non idcirco eorum vsum dimiseram, I dyd not therfore forsake theyr conuersation or company.

Quotidianus vsus, daily and ordinarie conuersacion.

Vsus mihi magnus cum eo, I haue great familiaritee with hym.

VT, as, that, assoone, how, lyke as, wolde to god, howe muche, all bee it, leste not. sometyme for Quippe & ita.

Dedi tibi librum vt legeres, I gaue you a boke to reade.

Vt non, for Quin.

Vt hæc non eodē labefactata motu concidant, but that these thynges beyng ouerthrowen. &c.

Vt abq; abs te, hic mihi sit obuiam, id est, postquam, after that, or as soone as.

Vt primum vidi, nunquam vidi postea, I neuer sawe it, sence I sawe it first.

Vt hæc audiuit, in continēt, as sone as he heard these thynges.

Vt primum, as soone as.

Vt quisque me viderat, narrabat, euery man, as soone as he sawe me, tolde me of it.

Vt voles esse me ita ero, for Talis qualis, I wyll be euen as ye wyll haue me.

Vt, for Quam, or Quantum.

Vt optime possumus, id est, quam optimē, as well as we can possible.

Vt breuissime hæc dici poterant, ita a me dicta sunt, I haue declared or tolde these thynges as briefely as can be possible.

Vt, for Ne non.

Metuo vt subsset hospes, I feare me lest my straunger wyll haue neuer a worde to saie.

Dies mihi vt sit satis ad agendum vereor, I feare that the whole daie wyll not be enough. &c.

Vt fama est, as the saiyng is.

Vt nūc sunt mores, as the factions of men be now adaies.

Vt potest, as well as it can be.

Vt, for Secundum, or Pro.

Vt temporibus illis valuisse dicendo, according to the eloquence of that tyme.

Vt nunc est, as the mattier semeth to be nowe.

Sic velim suscipias, vt si esset res mea, euen as though it were myne owne mattier.

Vt numerabatur forte pecunia, whyle the money was tellyng, or whyle he was tellyng money.

Vt, for secundum quod.

Vt mea est memoria, as farre as I remembre.

Vt in quoque erat authoritate plurimum, euery man as he was in most authoritee.

Vt quæras omnia. &c. id est quamuis, although ye doe seke, or be it that ye doe seke, yet. &c.

Vt ita sit, admitte that it be so.

Non est in nostra potestate sed in naturæ, vt tamen multum sit in nobis, it is not wholly in our power but in the strengthe of nature, although a great parte in deede consisteth in vs.

Vt non sit mirari satis naturæ prouidentiam, id est, vsque adeo vt, so that a man can not meruaple. &c.

Vt nihil possit vltra cogitari, so that it is not possible for a man to imagine it more excellent.

Vt maxime, at the most.

Vt multum, for Vt ad summum, at the most.

Vt plurimum, for the most parte.

Dolet vt qui impatientissime, in his sorowe he is as vnpatient as any man in the worlde.

Vt ne, for Ne alone.

Vt ne succenseat, id est, ne succenseat.

Vleiscar vt ne impune in nos illuseris, I wyl requite the, that thou shalte not laughe vs to scorne, and escape free thy selfe.

Vt ne properes, that thou shouldest make no haste,

Vtquid, for Quam ob rem, why?
Vt Dicæarcho visum est, after the opinion of Dicæarchus.
Orationem salutarem vt in tali tempore habuit, in respecte of that tyme.
Vtut, how so euer.
Vtut erat, howe so euer the matter was.
Vt, as well as.
Vt vales? R. Vt Queo, howe farest thou? R. as well as I may.
Vt, beholde how.
Vt sæpe summa ingenia in occulto latent, beholde howe that often tymes moste excellente wittes doe lye hyd in a corner.
Vt, admitte it, or set the case, or put the case.
Legem illam appellare fas non est, & vt sit lex non debemus illam Hirci legem putare, it is not conuenient that we call it a lawe, and admit that it be a lawe: we shulde not yet suppose it to be Hircius lawe.
Et enim vt circumspiciamus omnia, quæ populo grata atq; iucunda sunt, nihil tam populare, quam pacem, quam concordiam, quam otium reperiemus, for although we consyder and viewe all thynges, or be it that we consider all thynges that bee plasaunt and delectable to the people: we shall nothynge fynde, that they so muche desyre, as peace, as concorde, as vacation from labour.
Vt est dementia, see the mans folye, suche is his madnesse.
Vt istum dii, deæq; omnes perdant, I beseche god and all halowes, sende hym a mischiefe.
Vt, for postquam.
Nam vt illos de republica libros edidisti, nihil à te postea accepimus, for after that, or sence ye set foorth your bookes of the weale publyque, I neuer after receiued any thynge from you.
Vt in limine auditur, for ita vt, or tãquam &c. he was as well hearde, as if he had been within.
Vt, so that.
Olent, fœdæ sunt, tangere vt non velis, they be so salte & stinkinge, that thou wouldest be loth to touche them.
Vt, so that.
Operam vt det, so that he doe his endeuour, or so that he wyll herken to me.
Vt ad pauca redeam, to make a shorte tale.
Vt ne addam, to be shorte.
Vtcunq; in what maner or facion so euer, how so euer, accordyng as, euen as, so so, after a sorte, meetely so.
Sed nostrum est intelligere, vtcunq; & vbicunq; opus est obsequi, but it is our parte to knowe in what facion, and where so euer we shall geue our attendance.
Vtcunq; erit, how so euer it shall happen.
Vtcunq; est ventus exin velum vertitur, accordyng as the wynde is. &c.
Vtcunque, for aliquantum, or aliquo modo, somewhat.

Vtensilis, le, necessary to be vsed, any thyng that is for our vse or occupyng.
Vter, tris, m. g. a bottle.
Vter, teri, or Vterus, ri, m.g. a wombe or belly.
Vterum gerere, to be great with chylde.
Vtero grauis, great with chylde.
Vter, tra, trum, whiche of the two, whether?
Vter alteri dixerit nescio, which of them tolde it to the other, I can not tell.
Vter viri insidias fecerit, which of them laied waite for the other.
Vterculus, or Vtriculus, m. g. a litell wombe.
Vtercunq; whether of them ye wyll.
Vterlibet, whiche ye wyll of them two.
Vternam, whiche of the two.
Vterque, traque, umque, bothe, bothe the one & the other.
Vterque vtrique est cordi, they lyke well the one the other, eche loueth other.
Vterque alterum verberauit, the one beate the other, eache dyd beate other.
Vterque vtrique est exercitus in conspectu, eache armie might see other.
Hoc beneficio vterque ab vtriusque deuincimini, by the good helpe of this thing, ye be bounde eche to other.
Vterinus, a, um, borne of the same mother or damme.
Vteruis, whiche of them thou wilt.
Vterus, i, looke Vter, teri: vterus, is sometyme taken for Fœtus.
Vti, for Vt, that, to the ende.
Vtica, a cytee in Affrike, where Cato dyd slea hym selfe, and therfore was afterwarde called Cato Vticensis.
Vtibilis, le, for Vtilis, profitable.
Vtibilitas, atis, for Vtilitas, profite.
Vtilis, le, profitable, conuenient, good, expedient, necessarie.
Neutro pede satis vtilis, that hath neuer a good foote.
Bis vtilis arbor pomis, a tree that bringeth fruite twyse in a yere.
Vtilis laboribus, apte to labour.
Vtilis ad bellum, able to doo good seruice for warres.
Vtilitas, atis, f. g. profite, vtilitee.
Fructum vtilitatis alicui afferre, to bringe one great profite.
Habere vtilitatem, to be profitable.
Seruire vtilitati alicuius, to haue regarde or respecte to ones profite.
Omittere suas vtilitates, not to regarde his owne profite.
Vtiliter, profitably.
Vtinam, wolde to god.
Vtinum, a towne in Italie.
Vtique, lyke as, verily.
Vtor, teris, ti, to vse, to be conuersant or familiar with one, to occupie, to take profite of.
Vtere vt vis mea opera, take my seruice at your pour commandement.

Da mihi operam amabo. M. Tua eſt, vtere atque imperа ſi quid vis, a good fellowſhippe lende me thy helpe. M. it is redy for the, haue here, commaunde what thou wylt.
Nihil te vtor, I will haue nothynge to doe with the.
Vtor, hath ſometyme an accuſatiue caſe.
Cætera quæ volumus vti, other thynges that we wyll vſe.
Trebonio vtor valde familiariter, I vſe Trebonius, as my verye familyar frende, or I haue greatte familiaritee or acquaintaunce with Trebonius.
Vti aliquo plurimum, to vſe ones helpe or ſeruice very muche, to bee very familiar with one.
Placatis his vtor, they be pacified or qualified towardes me, or we be agreed.
Vti aliqua re contra ſe, to vſe a thing to his owne hurte.
Qui mage amico vtuntur gnato, whom my ſon doeth loue moze, or whiche hath my ſoonne moze fauourable or louyng.
Benignis vti aliquibus, to finde men courteis and lyberall to hym.
Vti eodem vſi conſilio, that they folowyng the ſame counſayle.
Defenſore aliquo vti, to haue one his defender or helper.
Vix equo propter ætatem poterat vti, he was ſo olde that he coulde ſcant ryde.
Quam me iis vſurus æquo, how indifferente or reaſonable a perſon you ſhall haue me.
Horis ſuis vti, to ſpende his conuenient tyme in doyng a thynge.
Hortatione vti, to exhorte.
Tuo iudicio vtere, folowe your owne iudgement. Libera itate modice vti, to vſe a meane in liberalitee, not to geue to lyberally.
Vti neceſſitate, to doe that neceſſitee forceth or conſtreigneth.
Poteſtate vti ad quæſtum, to abuſe his auctorite or power, to his owne profite.
Simulati ne itineris vti, to make ſemblaunt as though he went ons waie.
Hoc ſolatio vtor, this thynge doeth comforte me, or I haue this comforte.
Vti aliqua arbore carboni, to vſe a tree to make coles of.
Duplici ſpe vtor, I haue two ſtringes to my bow, I haue two waies, wherby I hope to bryng my matter to paſſe.
Ad ſpeciem vti re aliqua, to haue or vſe a thynge onely for a ſhewe.
Voce vti, to ſpeake.
Ad furta vti aliquo, to vſe ones helpe or ſeruice in robbyng or ſtealyng.
Vento vti dicuntur naues, to haue a proſperouſe wynde.
Vti familiariter amicitia alicuius, to vſe one as his frende familiarly.

Vti, ſometyme ſignifieth to haue.
Et te vtar iniquiore, & meus me ordo irridebat, bothe I ſhall haue the worſe towarde me, and my companie make mocke me.
Mihi ſi vnquam filius erit, ille facili me vtetur patre, if euer I haue a ſoonne, he ſhall haue me a gentil father: or I wyll bee a very gentyll and gracious father to hym.
Vti amore, to loue.
Vti amicitia, to fauour or be in amitee.
Amore vti ſubreptitio, to loue priuily.
Vti eadem diſciplina, to be of the ſame leatnyng.
Vti oculis, to ſee perfectly or well.
Maris cauſa hercle hoc ego oculo vtor minime, In good feyth the ſea maketh that I ſee not well with this eie, or I ſee not a whit with this eie.
Vti officio, to doe the office or parte.
Vti valetudine firma, to be in health.
Vti valetudine minus commoda, to be ſicke.
Vti foro, to take the market as it cometh, a prouerbe applied to theim, whiche can take the ſtate of euery tyme and chaunce, as it cometh. alſo it maie ſignifie, to applie hym ſelfe to the factions and conditions preſent.
Vtpotè, becauſe as, for ſo muche as.
Romanis auxit animum & turbauit volſcos vtpote capta vrbe cui ad ferendam opem venerant, and no merualle or, and not without a cauſe, ſeynge or conſidrynge, that the citee was taken &c.
Vtputa, for quemadmodum, as.
Vtrarius, rij, m. g. he that fetcheth water in bouges, a water lugger.
Vtricularius, rij, m. ge. he that pypeth in a bagge pype.
Vtriculus, li, m. ge. the place in a woman, where in the chylde lieth. alſo the huſke or hull of all ſeedes.
Vtrimque, on the one parte and the other, of the one and the other, on bothe ſydes.
Vtrò, towarde whiche parte.
Vtrobique, in the one place and the other, on the one ſyde and the other, on both partes.
Vtrôque, to the one place and the other, to bothe places.
Vtróque verſum, towarde bothe partes, both towarde the one parte and the other.
Vtrum, whether.
Vtrúmne ea veſtra, an noſtra culpa eſt? is that your faute or ours?
Vtut, how ſo euer it be, in what faſion ſo euer.
Hæc adeo mea culpa fateor fieri, non me hanc rem patri, vtut erat geſta indicaſſe. I confeſſe all this happened by my defaulte, that I ſhewed not to my father the matter how ſo euer it was doone.

VVa, uæ, f. g. a grape, sometyme an other beary: sometyme a tyne. it is also that, whiche is in the rouke of a mans mouthe, which sometyme wyll smell, and is called Vuula. it is also a swarme of bees hangyng rounde.

Vua passa, a great reyson.

Vuesco, uescere, to ware mopste, or be mopste.

Vueus, a, um, of a grape.

Vueus succus, wyne.

Vuidus, a, um, moiste, wette.

Vulcanalia, orum, n. g. plu. feastes dedicate to Vulcan.

Vulcanus, Jupiters smithe. also it is taken for fyre.

Vulcanius, a, um, of Vulcane.

Vulga, gæ, f. g. a skrippe or sachell. sometyme a womans braly.

Vulgaris, re, commune, muche used, vulgar, belongyng to the common people, vyle, base.

Vulgare est, it is a commune thynge.

Vulgares artes, handy crafte.

Commendatio non vulgaris, no small preise or commendacion.

Sermo vulgaris, the common speche.

Viam vulgarem ingredi, to doo as he was commonly wont to doe.

Singularia sint an vulgaria, whether they be rare or common.

Forma vulgaris, a beautie that is not excellent.

Vulgariter, commonly, vulgarly.

Vulgatus, a, um, commonly knowen or used, published abrode.

Vulgatus cibus, common meate, that is daicly used.

Vulgata verba, common wordes used of euery man.

Vulgatior fama est, the more common saiyng or bruite is.

Vulgator, oris, m. g. he that publisheth or telleth thynges abrode.

Vulgiuagus, a, um, idem quod plebeius.

Vulgo, abrode, amonge all men, commonly, in heapes or companies, in euery parte.

Vulgo conceptus, whose father is not certayne.

Vulgo dicitur, or dici solet, it is a commune saiyng, or it is commonly spoken.

Vulgo audieram, I hearde it commonly spoken of euery man.

Vulgo loquuntur, the commune bruite or saiyng is.

Vulgo homines illud requirunt, the moste parte of men demaunde that.

Vt homines vulgo impune occiderentur, that men shuld be kylde commonly before the face of the worlde, and yet no punischemente done on the murderers.

Vulgo, aui, are, to publische, to manyfeste, to make commune, to set abrode, to nopse, to bruite.

Famam vulgare, to spreade a rumour or bruite.

Morbos vulgare, to make diseases common amonge the people.

Librum vulgare, to publische or set forthe a booke.

Vulgare corpus suum dicitur meretrix, to abandon hir selfe to euery man.

Vestra voce vulgatum est, it was published by you.

Vulgus vulgi, m. g. or n. g. the common people.

In vulgus probari, to be alowed and approued of the commons.

Commendatio in vulgus, the preise of the cõmon people.

Gratum in vulgus, acceptable to the common people.

Vulgus seruorum, the common sorte of seruantes.

Celebratum in vulgus, muche spoken of amõg the common people.

In vulgus emanare, to come to the knowlage of the people, and be talked of abrode.

Ego tribuo nonnunq; in vulgus, I doo often tymes bende my wyll to the myndes of the common people.

Vulnerarius, rij, m. g. a surgeon.

Vulnerarius, a, um, belongyng to woundes.

Vulneratio, onis, a woundyng, a hurtyng.

Vulnero, aui, are, to wounde, to hurte.

Vulnerare aliquem voce, to speake spitefully against one, to hurte one with his woordes.

Vulnificus, a, um, that woundeth or maketh woundes.

Vulnus, neris, n. g. a wounde: sometyme greefe, displeasure.

Accipere vulnera, to be hurte.

Imponere vulnus, to hurte or wounde.

Sanare vulnus iniuriæ, to heale the wounde of a wrong doone.

Onustus vulneribus, haunge as many woundes as one can goe awaie with all.

Saucius vulneribus, wounded in diuers places.

Vulneribus confectus, slayne.

Confodere aliquem vulneribus, to gore one in and geue hym many woundes.

Integrare vulnera, to renewe sorowe or greefe.

Vulpes, pis, f. g. a fore.

Vulpecula, æ, f. g. a cubbe or a ponge fore.

Vulpinor, aris, ari, to be wyly, to plaie the fore or raynarde, to deceiue with crafty lies and deceites.

Vulpinus, a, um, of or belongyng to a fore. also crafte, wily, subtyle.

Vulsella, læ, f. g. a pynsers or any sythe instrument.

Vulsinij, a towne in Tuscane destroyed with lightnyng.

Vulsinensis, se, of Vulsinij.

Vulsinus, a ryuer in Italie.

Vulsinienses, people dwellyng about the ryuer of Vulsinus.

Vulsura, ræ, f. g. a pullyng, a pluckyng.

Vul-

Vulſus, a, um, plucked or pulled.
Vulticulus, li, m. g. a preaty countinaunce, a litle vilage.
Vultorij, certayne dice.
Vultuoſus, a, um, heauy, ſorowfull of countinaunce.
Vultuoſe, diſdeignefully, heauyly, with frowninge countenance, with geſture agreable vnto the mattier.
Vultur, turis, Vulturis, ris, and vulturius, rij, m. g. a bryde, of whom I finde not the figure deſcribed of any. Ariſtotell ſaieth, there be of them two kyndes, the one litle and geate, the other greatter and more variable. Plinie ſaieth, the blacke be of moſte eſtimacion: no man maie come to theyr neſtes, for they bee made in the moſte hyghеſte roches: they haue not paſſynge two bydes. and though they bee deuourers of carayn, yet will thei not feede on a deade birde. I ſuppoſe it to bee the great kynde of Raupns, wherof is more numbre ſeen in this realme, thē in any other countrey.
Vultur, a hyll of Apulia.
Vulturinus, a, um, of a Vulter.
Vulturius homo, id eſt, rapax, an extorcioner.
Vulturnum, a towne in Campania.
Vulturnus, the north eaſt wynde.
Vulua, Lucretius vſed for the plurall numbre of Vultus.
Vultus, of olde writers is taken for will, à Volendo.
Vultus, tus, m. g. a countinaunce or chere, a looke, a vilage.
Vulua, uæ, f. ge. the wombe or mother of any ſmall kynde. it is alſo a meate vſed of the Romains, made of the bealy of a ſowe, either that hath farowed, or is great with farow.
Vuula, a litteil piece of fleſche in the rouffe of ones mouthe, whiche ſometyme ſwelleth, and greeueth one very muche.

V ANTE X

VXama, a towne of Spayne.
Vxella, Crokernewell in Denonſhyre.
Vxellum, a citee in Englande called Weſtcheſter.
Vxor, oris, f. g. a wyfe.
Ducere vxorem, to marie a wyfe.
Miſſam facere vxorem, to be deuorced from his wyfe.
Vxorcula, læ, f. g. a preaty wyfe.
Vxorius, rij, m. g. he that doteth on his wyfe: he that is vnder obedience of his wife.
Vxorius, a, um, of or belongyng to a wyfe.

XANTHA, a nymphe.
Xanthi, a people in Aſia, whoſe citee beynge beſieged of the capytayne of Lycius, they brought into the caſteles their wyfes, ſeruauntes, and gooddes, and puttyng thervnto fire, burned all togethers: and afterwarde iſſuyng out of the citee, fought vntyll they wer all ſlayne.
Xanthenes, a certayne precious ſtone.
Xanthippe, the wyfe of wyfe Socrates the philoſophier.
Xanthippus, a capitayne of the Lacedemonians, whiche fought againſt Lucatius the Romaine:
Xanticus, amonge the Jewes was the moneth of Aprill.
Xanthium, an herbe, whiche beareth the litteil burre.
Xantho, a nymphe.
Xanthos, a precious ſtone of a bryght yelow colour.
Xanthus, a, um, yelow.
Xanthus, a ryuer of Troie, wherof if theepe dyd drynke, the fleſe became yelow. it was alſo the name of Hectors horſe.

X, ANTE E.

XEnarchus, a comicall poete. alſo a philoſophier borne in Seleucia.
Xenias balneas, a certayne bathe.
Xenium, nij, n. g. a preſent ſent by one to an other.
Xeniolum, li, n. g. a ſmall preſent.
Xenius Iupiter, god of hoſpitalitee.
Xenocrates, a philoſophier, diſciple to Plato.
Xenodochium, an hoſpitall for pilgrymes.
Xenodorus, a famous caruer or image maker.
Xenophanes, a philoſophier that wrote againſte Heſiodus and Homere, for theyr opinion conſernyng the gods.
Xenophilus, a muſician of Chalcis, whiche liued. 107. yeres in great felycitee and quietneſſe.
Xenophon, a philoſophier of Athens, diſciple of Socrates, and was alſo a noble and politike Capytayne, who for his moſte delectable ſtyle in writyng, was named the Muſe of Athens. He made moſte excellente warkes, repleniſſhed with ſuche kynde of wiſedome and doctrine, that to the inſtruction of a prince, none maie be compared vnto hym. wherfore I wolde exhorte all noble men to rede his warkes ſtudiouſely. I wolde god that he moughte fynde a a tranſlatour either in latine or engliſſhe, whiche coulde expreſſe ſufficiently the moſte diſectable ſentences contained in greke.
Xenophontius, a, um, of Xenophon.
Xerampellinæ veſtes, garmentes of a colour whiche, whiche I ſuppoſe is called murrey. Some doe ſuppoſe it to be blache garmentes.

Xeria, dyie plaiſters.

Xerophagia, eatyng of dyie meates.

Xerophthalmia, when the eies be ſore without dyoppyng or ſwellyng.

Xerxes, a king of Perſia, the ſoonne of Darius, which invaded Greece with ſeuen hundred thouſande of his owne people, and three hundred thouſande ſtrange ſouldiours: and had on the ſea ten hundred thouſand ſhippes. And yet not ſtandyng he was vanquiſhed by a fewe Greekes, and conſtreigned to flee awaie in great feare, in a litel bote vnknowen: & ſo to returne home into Perſia: and at the laſt was ſlaine by Artabanus great Cappiaine of his armie.

Xeſta, æ, foe. gen after Suidas the weight of a pounde and an halfe, or a meaſure conteyning that weight.

Xiphia, æ, f. g. a fiſche called a ſwoorde fiſche, becauſe it hath a beake lyke a ſwoorde: looke Xyphius.

Xiphion, ſedges, gladen. it is alſo called Xyris.

Xiphion, the appothecaries and Herbaliſtes doe call it alſo irim ſylueſtrem and Glaiuum agreſtem.

Xiphontes, looke Chondros.

X, ANTE Y.

XYlinæ, a citee of Pontus, called commonly Semiena.

Xylinæ veſtes, garmentes of cotton.

Xylinus, a, um, of cotton.

Xylocinnomomum, mi, neu. gen. the woodde, wherof the ſpice called Cynamum, cometh.

Xyloaloes, a ſweete and pretious woodde called Lignum aloes: our women, hauyng beades made therof, call it Acellula.

Xylobalſamum, mi, ne. ge. the woodde, wherof balme naturall cometh.

Xylocinnamomum, xylocinnamomi, n. g the woodde of Cinamum. plt. li. 12. cap. 19.

Xylophagus, a woorme breedyng in olde woodde, whiche is white and great headed, and hath a blache head.

Xylon, cotton: alſo a ſhrubbe, of the whiche cotton cometh.

Xylotropos, pi, m. g. looke Chryſalis.

Xyphiæ, certayne blaſpnge ſterres, whiche haue beames lyke a ſwoorde.

Xyphius, a fiſche named a ſwoorde fiſche, whiche hath in his noſe a bone, lyke to the ſcabarde of a ſwoorde, ſuche one haue I ſeene.

Xyris, idem quod Xiphion.

Xyſticus, he that exerciſeth him ſelfe in a place couered out of the ſonne or rayne.

Xyſtus, ti, m. ge. a place, wherin men doe exerciſe wraſtlynge and other lyke paſtyme in winter: it maie bee taken for a galerie or place to waike in, out of the rayne.

Xyſtus, a, um, gorgious, trimme, gaie, galant.

Xyſtum, ti, n. g. a hnotte gardeine. alſo an open waike.

Z, ANTE A.

ZACANTHA, a citee of Iberia.

Zacanthei, people in the mountaynes called Pirenei, by the ryuer of Iberus.

Zacharias, the name of a prophete. alſo the father of ſaynete John Babtiſte.

Zacynthi, people of the yle Zacinthus.

Zacynthus, an ilande in the ſea called Ionia, wherin is a citee of the ſame name.

Zagrus, a mountayne, whiche diuideth Media from Babylonia.

Zaleucus, a geuer of lawes to the people of Locris.

Zama, a citee of Affrike, where Annyball was ouercome by Scipio.

Zancle, a citee in Grecia, an other in Sicilie.

Zancleus, a, um, of Zancle.

Zarmizegetuſa, the chiefe citee of Dacia, called Cron.

Zaphirus, a fiſche of the kynde of gylte heades, but that he is somewhat blewe in colour.

Zathene, a ſtone lyke to aumbre, nowe blache, nowe gelowe.

Z, ANTE E.

ZEa, Darnell, à multis beare barley.

Zelo, aui, are, and Zelor, aris, ari, for æmulari, to bee angrie or haue zele, to haue a great deſpite to dooe a thynge, to imitate diligently, to loue iealouſly, ſo that he wyll ſuffre none other to bee parte taker of his loue. alſo to enuie.

Zelotes, tis, m. gen. for æmulator, he that hath enuie at one, or aſſaieth to folowe an other in ſpynge, one that is in a iealouſy, and feareth leſte the perſone, that he loueth is common to other.

Zelotypia, æ, f. g. iealoſy.

Zelotypus, pi, m. g. idem quod Zelotes.

Zelus, li, m. ge. ſometyme enuie, ſometyme loue, ſometyme emulation, zele.

Zenith, is a woorde belongyng to coſmographie, and ſignifieth a poynete in the firmament directely ouer the crowne of a mannes head, where ſo euer he be.

Zeno, a notable and famouſe philoſophier, chiefe of the Stoike ſecte.

Zenobia, a queene of Siria, whiche in grehe and latyne was verye well lerned, and alſo valiant in armes.

Zenodarus, a notable grammarian in the tyme of the the firſt Ptholome.

Zephyre, an yle of the middle ſea by Crete.

Zephirium, a promontorie in Italie amonge the people called Locri.

Zephyritis, tidis, patrony fœmi.

Zephyrius, a, um, of Zephyrus.

Zephyria oua, egges conceiued of the wynde.

Zephyrus, ri, m. g. the weſte wynde.

Zerbis, a ryuer of Meſopotamia, rennynge into Tygris.

Zereth, an hebrue meaſure, whiche is an hande bredthe.

Zeros, a kynde of cryſtall, whiche hathe ſpottes white and blacke.

Zethus, Jupiters ſoonne by Antiopa.

Zeta, and Zetula, a litteli chaumber for one bedde and two ſtooles, ioygned to an other chambre, with courtaynes: ſo that the courtaynes beynge drawen, it made but one chambre, and hauynge wyndowes on three partes therof, to receyue in the heate of the ſoonne.

Zeugma, a citee of Dacia.

Zeugma, matis, n. ge. a figure, whereby many ſentences ar ioigned togeither with one verbe: as, Neq; is es Catilina, vrte, aut pudor à turpitudine, aut metus à periculo, aut ratio a furore reuocarit, Ne thou arte ſuche a man Catiline, as either ſhamefaſtneſſe can withdrawe from diſhoneſtee, or feare from danger, or reaſon from vengeable anger.

Zeus, zei, a fiſche taken about Cales in Spayne, whiche is blacke, but he is verie delicate.

Zeuxis, an excellent peincter, whiche ſo peincted a bote carynge grapes, that byrdes came to the table or picture and pecked on the grapes, weninge that thei had ben very grapes: which Zeuxis beholdynge, was with hm ſelfe angrie, and ſaied: If I had made the boy as well as I haue doone the grapes, the byrdes durſte not haue come ſo nere to the grapes.

Zeuxo, one of the nymphes, daughter of Oceanus and Tethis.

Z ANTE I

Zigena, a fiſche of the ſea.

Zigari, people, whiche we doe call Egyptians, that wander about in euery realme, and be horrible theues.

Zigarũ, the countrey, from whence th ſaied people doe come.

Zizania, æ, f. g. and Zizanium, nij, n. g. cockle or other corrupte and naughty ſeedes, whiche grow amonge corne.

Zingiber, beris, n. g. ginger.

Zizipha, a certayne fruite, called of the Apothecaries lutuba.

Zmilaces, a ſtone that groweth in the ryuer Euphrates.

ZOdiacus, ci, m g. a circle in heauen, whrin bee .xij. ſignes.

Zœlicũ, a certayne ſtare that cometh out of Spayne, wherof thzede is made for nettes to take byrdes.

Zographia, the picture of beaſtes

Zographos, he that peincteth beaſtes.

Zoilus, a poete, whiche enuied Homerus: and therfore the enuiers of well terned men are called Zoili.

Zomos, gruell, pottage.

Zona, næ, f. g. a gyrdell.

Zonam perdidit, proverbially, he hath no money.

Zonæ cæli, the circles imagined in the firmament.

Zonarius, rij, m. g. a maker of gyrdils.

Zonarius, a, um, belonayng to gyrdils.

Sector zonarius, a cutte purſe.

Zonula, læ, f. g. a litteli girdell.

Zophyri, that be in parte beaſtes, in parte plantes: and maie be called in latyne Plantanimantes, as ſponges, oiſters, and ſuche like.

Zonatim, in compaſſe aboute.

Zopiſſa, ſæ, f g. pitche taken from ſhippes, whiche beynge tempered with wax and ſalte, is of more efficacie than the other pitche.

Zopyron, an herbe, whiche ſome ſuppoſe to be Pulpol mountayne.

Zopyrus, a man, which by phiſnomie knewe euery mans condicions. And whan in beholding Socrates he iudged hym to bee vnthrifty, and therfore was ſcorned of many me, Socrates anſwered, Zopyrus is not deceiued, for in dede I had ben ſuche one as he ſaieth, if I had not by philoſophie ſubdued nature. Alſo Zopyrus was a noble Perſian, ſeruaunt to Darius, whiche whan the citee of Babylon rebelled againſte hynge Darius, and that he had made longe warre, and coulde not ſubdue them, vnwares to any man, did cut of his owne noſe, his eares, and his lippes, and fled to Babylon, ſaiyng, the kinge had ſo diſfigured hym, becauſe he perſwaded hym to haue peace with the Babylonians: which they herynge, made hym their chiefe capytaine: by whiche meanes he afterwarde peſſded the citee vp to Darius. Wherfore Darius was wonte to ſaie, that he had leauer haue one Zopyrus than twenty Babylons.

Zoroanda, a ryuer, whiche the great water Tigris maketh on the one ſyde of the mountayne Taurus.

Zoroaſtes, the firſt fynder of Magike amonge the Perſians, in the tyme of kynge Ninus.

Zoroniſios, a pretious ſtone that the Magicians doe vſe.

Zoſter, a certayne diſeaſe lyke a rynge wourme or a tetter, whiche if it compaſſe a man about, it kylleth hym.

Zoticus, a man in highe fauour with the emperour

vnto Heliogabalus: which with fayre wordes, co wynne money deceiued the suitours.

Z, ANTE V.

¶ Zura, æ, s.g. a beame of whyte thorne.

Z, ANTE Y.

ZYgia, a pype, wherin men dyd plate at weddynges. also the tree called Carpinus.

Zygos, a yoke or couple.
Zyme, leauen.
Zymes, leauened bread.
Zythus, thi, or Zithum, thi, drynke made with barlete sodden. It may bee taken for ale or biere.

SERIES CHARTARVM.

A. A.B.C.D.E.F.G.H.I.K.L.M.N.O.P.Q.R.S.T.V.X.Y.Z. Aa. Bb. Cc. Dd. Ee. Ff. Gg. Hh. Ii. Kk. Ll. Mm. Nn. Oo. Pp. Qq. Rr. Ss. Tt. Vv. Xx. Yy. Zz. Aaa. Bbb. Ccc. Ddd. Eee. Fff. Ggg. Hhh. Iii. Kkk. Lll. Mmm. Nnn. Ooo. Ppp. Qqq. Rrr. Sss. Ttt. Vvv. Xxx. Yyy. Zzz. AAaa. BBbb. CCcc. DDdd. EEee.

Omnes sunt quaterniones, præter EEee, quæ est ternio.

THVS ENDETH THIS DICTIONARIE printed at London in the house of Thomas Berthelet, ANNO DOMINI. M.D.LII.
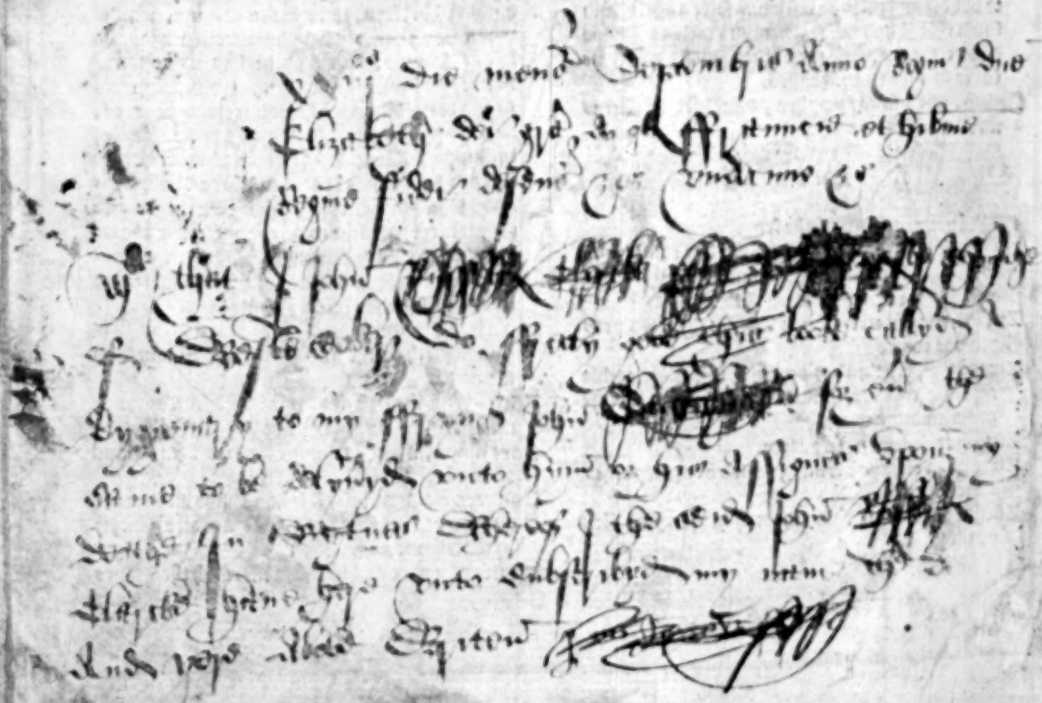
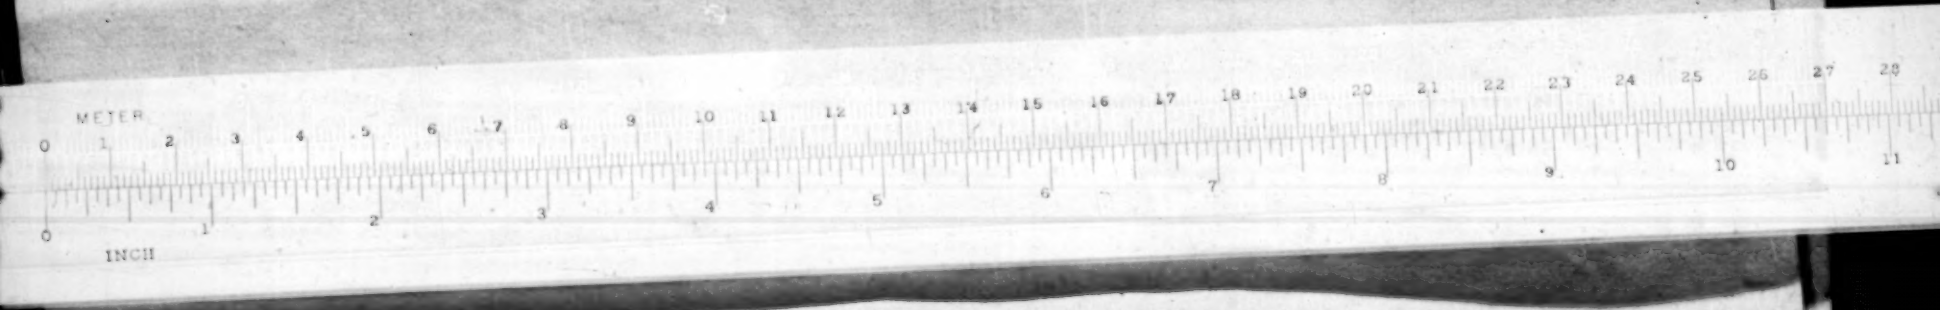
The .x. date of December.
Cum priuilegio.





METER
0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11
INCH